SHOUSE SAYS PARTY NEEDS $1,500,000

This Amount Must be Raised if Democrats are to Hold Increases Gained.

Chicago, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Need for a $1,500,000 war chest if the Democratic party is to hold an increase its gains made since 1928 was stressed by J. J. Shouse, chairman of the national executive committee, at a luncheon of the party's Illinois "victory committee" today.

Calling attention to what he termed the woeful lack of organization and the depleted condition of the party's treasury prior to the 1928 campaign, he said remarkably good results toward stabilization had been achieved since through efforts of John Raskob, national chairman.

"We want to enlarge our activities during the next six months," he said. "We want to tell the Democratic story to the people of the country in an even more impressive fashion up to the day the convention opens so that we will have the election won before we hold the convention; it means the use of radio facilities; it means the enlargement of all publicity facilities."

The balance of the deficit from the last campaign, Mr. Shouse said is approximately $445,000. To repay that and other expenses and obligations, incurred since 1928 will require a total of one million dollars, he said.

"Then we want to do a thing that has never been done in the history of the party. We want to be able to turn over to the national committee which will be created at the time of the national convention and which will have charge of the next campaign, the flat sum of $500,000 so that they can go direct from the convention into the campaign without having to wait precious weeks and precious months, perhaps before getting the money necessary to enable them to function."

"It is as necessary for our party to feel as it is for an individual to feel on that sort of a kick. If we are going into the next campaign with that assurance of victory—and that assurance is easily ours if we grasp it—we must have our financial affairs in such shape as to take advantage of the opportunity that awaits us."

Jealousy Caused Negro to Murder Doctor's Child

Belleville, Pa., Jan. 14.—(AP)—An inquest in the death chamber of Rockview Penitentiary last night established that Fred Collins, 37, negro convict, killed Betty Hickok, daughter of a prison doctor, because of jealousy.

Collins said he resented "attentions" the 22-year-old daughter of Dr. A. L. Hickok, head of the prison psychopathic ward, had given another negro prisoner, Henry Malone. Both were trustees employed as servants in the Hickok home.

Officials believed the "attentions" referred to by Collins were nothing more than minor acts of kindness Miss Hickok often did for the prisoners.

Seemingly unmindful of his fate, Collins halted the inquest once to point across the death chamber and say:

"If that is the electric chair, that's what I want."

He said he had planned the slaying for some time but had no opportunity to carry it out until yesterday. He surprised Miss Hickok in the bathroom and after attacking her, he nearly hacked her head off with a butcher knife.

He removed his shoes and slipped from the house to go direct to the prison office and confess his crime to prison officials. Warden Stanley P. Ashe was notified and he hurried here from Pittsburgh.

Although Rockview, a model prison, remained quiet, it was decided by Ashe to remove Collins to Western Penitentiary at Pittsburgh where he was taken after the inquest.

Dr. Hickok had been in charge of Collins as a patient of the psychopathic ward. He said the man was known to be a moron but that he was considered harmless. He was serving 10 to 20 years for second degree murder.

Pactolus Man Succumbs to Wounds Received In Holdup; Negro Arrested

Hagan Hodges, 38, postmaster and operator of a general store at Pactolus, died in a Washington hospital yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock as result of injuries sustained when he was shot and robbed in a holdup near his store Saturday night.

A negro, Charlie Reed, was arrested by county officers yesterday morning and charged with the crime. He was being held in county jail today awaiting preliminary hearing after being identified by a person who was said to have seen (Continued on Page Six)

Praises Press

Dr. S. H. Hobbs, member of the University of N. C. faculty, declared the press to be one of the state's most valuable resources, in addressing the Newspaper Institute at Chapel Hill today.

PRAISES N. C. NEWSPAPERS

University Professor Says Press of State is One of Greatest Resources.

Chapel Hill, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Dr. S. H. Hobbs of the University of North Carolina's department of rural social economics told newspapermen here today for the North Carolina newspaper institute that North Carolina's press is classified as one of the "state's greatest resources."

Dr. Hobbs' subject was "The Restorer of North Carolina." Other items on the morning program were a talk on local advertising by L. R. Phillips, advertising director of the Asheville Citizen-Times, and an advertising clinic conducted by O. Hiden Ramsey of the same paper.

Expanding his subject, Dr. Hobbs said "only one-fifth of the state's total area is under cultivation but no more than two or three states can bring more land under cultivation in the future."

He pointed out land in the state had a deficient natural fertility but said the "unsurpassed climatic conditions more than compensate for this." He predicted a scientific program of conservation and development might bring a future of plenty.

Dr. Hobbs said he believed the state's greatest development in the future would be in the conservation and development of forests and water power. He predicted that some day the tree might be the farmer's greatest crop.

This afternoon delegates to the institute were to be entertained with a tour of inspection of Duke University with a dinner following this evening. A program there was to be featured by addresses by Justin Miller, dean of the Duke University Law School, and J. Fred Essary, head of the Washington Bureau of the Baltimore Sun.

Block Move To Probe Election In N. Carolina

Washington, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Characterizing George Pritchard's contest for the seat of Senator J. W. Bailey of North Carolina as "frivolous," Senator Robinson of Arkansas, today had succeeded in sending back to committee the proposal for a $10,000 investigation fund.

Democratic leaders have persistently blocked the effort of Senator Shertridge of California, to bring the matter up for final consideration.

WHERE RACE RIOTS THREATEN

A federal investigation has been ordered of charges of untamed violence and friction between the military and civilians in Honolulu following the slaying of a Hawaiian youth, who was charged with attacking a navy lieutenant's wife. In the menacing claim of a city divided against itself officials and civic bodies strove to ease the tension arising out of the case of Lieut. Thomas Masie, Mr. Granville Fortesque and two seamen, charged with slaying the Hawaiian. Above is one of Honolulu's finest thoroughfares.

DANIELS HURT IN ACCIDENT

N. C. Editor Injured When Car Plunges Down Embankment Near Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Joseph Daniels, world war secretary of the navy, was in a hospital here today with a fractured wrist, a three-inch cut in the forehead, and minor injuries received in an automobile accident yesterday.

Mr. Daniels, publisher of the Raleigh (N. C.) News & Observer, was returning with Robert C. Allison, Atlanta lawyer, from a celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of the founding of the Berry school at Mount Berry, Ga., when their car was sideswiped by another and forced down an embankment into a tree.

The driver of the other car was a negro woman. A passerby helped the publisher and the lawyer into another car and they were hurried to St. Joseph's infirmary. The accident occurred east of Balton, an Atlanta suburb.

D. Leroy Childs, who examined Mr. Daniels, said his injuries were not serious. The publisher made light of the situation. "I'm just a scarred soldier," he said.

Mrs. Daniels was expected here from Raleigh today to be with him at the hospital. Dr. Childs said it would be necessary for him to remain there several days.

Mr. Daniels was a speaker at the Berry school celebration, paying tribute to Miss Martha Berry as the founder of the institution for mountain boys and girls.

Mellon Charged With Influencing Huge Loan

Washington, Jan. 14.—(AP)—The name of Secretary Mellon was linked today with testimony involving the granting of an oil concession by Colombia to an American concern immediately before a large loan had been made by American bankers to that country.

While the Senate finance committee was seeking information from the State Department which might link the two transactions together, Representative Patman in his impeachment effort was charging that Secretary Mellon had a hand in influencing the loan.

Testimony before the Senate committee already has brought out that the State Department sought to influence American bankers to make the loan to Colombia.

It was never made public, the government statement said, at the special request of the Chinese who explained that they did not want the Chinese people to know about the arrangement for political reasons.

GOV. GARDNER WARNS THAT N. C. MUST LIVE ON CURRENT REVENUES

McLean Boosted Head Of Reconstruction Body

Washington, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Senator Connally, Democrat, Texas, said today he had heard "considerable advocacy" of Angus W. McLean, former Governor of North Carolina, for selection by President Hoover as director of the proposed $2,000,000 reconstruction corporation.

Senator Connally made this statement shortly after he had personally suggested to White House officials that two men from his (Continued on Page Six)

TALKS BEFORE STATE HEADS

Will Broadcast Financial Condition Over Radio Tonight at 7:30; Situation is So Critical that N. C. Cannot Borrow Further in 1932; Abandon Plans for Building Highways and New State Prison.

Raleigh, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Department heads of the state government of North Carolina today unanimously adopted a resolution assuring Gov. O. Max Gardner that they would co-operate in keeping state expenditures within current receipts if such is possible.

The action followed an address to the departmental leaders by the governor in which he sounded a warning that North Carolina's financial condition demands that the state live on current revenues and that all operations not absolutely essential be discontinued. Numerous department heads made individual reports of economic conditions already effected and pledged further co-operation.

The governor asserted that if North Carolina were not engaged in paying off its bonded indebtedness, a sacred obligation which he would not allow the state to default on, there would be no doubt.

By W. JOYNS MacFARLAN Associated Press Staff Writer Raleigh, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Sounding a warning that North Carolina's financial condition demands that the state live on current revenues and that all operations not absolutely essential be discontinued, Gov. O. Max Gardner today reviewed the financial status of the state.

The governor carried his warning and, plea for co-operation first to the heads of all state departments and institutions, who assembled in his office, and then prepared to discuss the same subject in a 30-minute talk over radio station WPTF at 7:45 tonight.

The situation is "so critical," Governor Gardner said, that North Carolina "cannot borrow further in New York in 1932" and it has been decided to abandon plans for the construction of $4,000,000 worth of new highways and the new $400,000 state prison for the time, at least. This is in addition to the cut of 30 per cent in the general fund appropriations of all departments and institutions.

Asked to explain his statement "we cannot borrow further in New York in 1932," the governor replied "it means just what it says."

In a brief explanatory statement to the Associated Press the governor said that North Carolina, along with many other states, has been told that no further borrowing is possible in New York and that if any short term financing is needed it must be handled within the state.

"In the past," the governor said, "when there has developed a shrinkage in state revenues we have moved on the money markets to borrow. Practically every government—state, national and foreign—is operating in this period on a deficit, and credit has contracted as revenue has declined."

"State governments throughout the nation have been rather firmly informed that the days of free borrowing are over temporarily in New York. What I mean to say is, if additional short term financing is required in North Carolina for the remainder of this year, it will have to be done locally."

"Inability to borrow in New York should in no sense be regarded as reflecting on the soundness of North Carolina's fiscal position. We began to adjust our spending to declining revenues at least a full year ahead of our sister states."

MAN HELD IN TWO SLAYINGS

Negro is Arrested In Connection with the Killing of Society Woman and Maid.

Washington, Jan. 14.—(AP)—A quick search of all possible hiding places today the capital yielded to police today a prisoner apparently answering the description of the negro ex-convict suspected as the slayer of Mrs. Agnes Boeing Isley, wealthy sportswoman.

She and her maid, Mina Buckner, 60, were found yesterday beaten to death, in Mrs. Isley's cottage at Middleburg, Virginia. (Continued on Page Six)

Candidacy Assailed

The candidacy of Fred A. Bradley for reappointment as collector of customs at Buffalo, N. Y., was attacked by witnesses before a senate committee in Washington. Charges included the improper disposition of seized liquor.

FRANCE GETS NEW CABINET

President Paul Doumer Puts Stamp Of Approval on Laval's Selection.

Paris, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Pierre Laval, one of the youngest French premiers, began his preparations for the coming international conferences today with a new cabinet of youth.

The new cabinet, the 87th under the third republic, was approved by President Paul Doumer last night. In place of the veteran Aristide Briand, foreign minister for the last six years and called the "Peace-maker of Europe," Mr. Laval himself will occupy the foreign office as well as the premiership.

For minister of war to succeed the late Andre Maginot, the premier selected his former mentor, Andre Tardieu, noted French journalist and disciple of the late M. Clemenceau, Tiger of France.

On the shoulders of these two will fall the chief burden of the coming reparations and disarmament conferences.

Byrd Endorsed For President

State Capitol, Richmond, Va., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Harry Flood Byrd, former governor of Virginia, and vice-chairman of the Democratic National committee, was endorsed for the Democratic nomination for president of the United States today in a joint resolution unanimously adopted by the General Assembly of Virginia.

The Senate passed the measure by a rising vote, and the House of Delegates, after unanimous action, stood and cheered.

FOUR LIQUOR MEN NABBED

Gigantic Still, 14,000 Gallons of Mash and Whiskey and 2 Cars are Taken.

Charlotte, Jan. 14.—(AP)—A gigantic whiskey still with 14,000 gallons of mash and whiskey and four alleged operators fell before a raiding party of rural police here early today.

The capture, which included two automobiles and a vast supply of sugar and meal, was probably the largest ever to be made in one raid in this county.

Acting on a tip, police swooped down on a house known as the old Marsh home just outside the city limits shortly after midnight. Occupants of the house made no effort to escape.

These arrested were Thomas Griest, white, Will Jennings and Sam Brown, negro men, and Ella Jeter, a negroess. Griest was said by police to be from Columbia, S. C.

Police said twenty 500-gallon vats of mash on the third floor were connected by pipes with a 1,000-gallon still on the second floor. The officers said 400 gallons of whiskey, packed and ready for delivery, were stored on the second floor, while meal and sugar were stored in various parts of the building.

Two automobiles were found at the rear of the residence, one equipped with a smoke screen, they said. Both machines apparently were capable of high speed.

Police estimated the value of the capture at "thousands of dollars."

LABOR LEADER IS SENT TO JAIL

William Hightower is Sentenced to Life Imprisonment at Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Mount Sterling, Ky., Jan. 14.—(AP)—William Hightower, Harlan county labor leader, was convicted by a jury in circuit court here today. His sentence was fixed at life imprisonment.

The verdict was the same as that given William B. Jones, secretary of the miners' union at Evarts of which Hightower was president. Jones, first of nearly thirty defendants in the case, was convicted December 10.

Hightower, 77 years old, and for forty years a coal digger, heard the verdict without emotion. The jury took his case late yesterday and deliberated in all about two hours.

The trial followed clashes in the Harlan county coal fields, culminating in fighting at Evarts in which four men were killed. Hightower, Jones and others were charged with having plotted the deaths of deputy sheriff-nine guards in furtherance of the southern Kentucky coal fields. All denied the charges.

Members of the jury said they took only one vote and that was this morning, and that all favored conviction with life imprisonment.

Under Kentucky law the jury fixes the penalty. A life prisoner is eligible to parole after 8 1/2 years.

Henry Stevens Is Sick in Missouri

Sedalia, Mo., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Henry L. Stevens, Jr., of Warsaw, N. C., national commander of the American Legion, was unable to deliver an address at a legion meeting here last night because of illness.

His physician, Dr. L. H. Webb, superintendent of the Veterans' Hospital at Excelsior Springs, Mo., and an old friend of Stevens, said his condition is not serious, although the legion officer had a temperature five degrees higher than normal.

In view of his position as secretary of the treasury and his company with the Gulf Oil company, Patman said "if a foreign country has granted them a special concession you can see where the secretary of the treasury could reciprocate the favor."

He withheld the name of the author of the letter.

Reveal Secret Agreement Of China and Japs

Tokyo, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Recent denials at Nanking of the existence of an agreement prohibiting the Chinese from the building of Manchurian railways paralleling Japanese lines brought from the government today a statement revealing the text of a secret understanding concluded between the two countries in 1905.

It stipulated that no parallel railway lines should be built by China, the statement said, and was signed by sixteen representatives of China and Japan. An English summary of its provisions was submitted by Japan in 1906 to the British and American governments in the strictest confidence.

It was never made public, the government statement said, at the special request of the Chinese who explained that they did not want the Chinese people to know about the arrangement for political reasons.

End of Century Club Meets.
Mrs. Robert H. Wright was the hostess to the End of the Century Club Tuesday afternoon at her home on Fifth street.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. L. Fleming, Mrs. E. B. Ficklen, first vice-president, presided. After a short business session the program for the afternoon was turned over to Miss Sallie Joyner Davis, who gave a most delightful and interesting paper on "Three Decades of North Carolina Literature."

Miss Davis spoke of the contributions North Carolina had made to the literature of the past thirty years. Three contributions have been in the realm of fiction, history, poetry and drama. She discussed the merit of these writers and their works, mentioning Thomas Wolfe, Paul Green, O. Henry, Thomas Dixon and many others who have become famous in the world of literature. She spoke of the fact that O. Henry, perhaps the most celebrated of all, while a native of North Carolina, had done most of his writing outside the state and that his works with the exception of a few localisms bore no distinct mark of the state of his birth.

She mentioned the fact that in spite of the long line of illustrious North Carolina writers, nine had given to the world a book or a series of stories that were distinctly typical of the state itself, such as Joel Chandler Harris had done for Georgia and John Fox and others had done for Virginia.

At the close of this thoroughly interesting paper, Miss Gorrell, accompanied by Miss Eugenia Thomas rendered two violin selections, which were much enjoyed by the members of the club and the visitors.

At the close of the program Mrs. Wright, assisted by her daughter, Miss Mary Wright and Mrs. Nannie Jeter, served a delicious salad course.

The guests for the afternoon were Misses Morton, Jenkins, Gorrell, Thomas and Graham of the college faculty; Mrs. R. C. Deal, Mrs. Rebecca Deal of Greenville, S. C.; Mrs. W. B. Murphy of Snow Hill; Mrs. Annie Colvin of Atkinson; Mrs. Marianna Murphy of Tomahawk; Mrs. Nannie Jeter and little Miss Mary Murphy of Snow Hill.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

The American Legion Auxiliary held an interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Adams on Fifth street, with Mrs. M. K. Fort assisting hostess. The meeting was marked by a large attendance. Mrs. James L. Evans presided over the business session. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. L. H. Bowling, Mrs. Walter Cherry called the roll and read the minutes. Mrs. Hubert Joyner gave the treasurer's report and made a gratifying report of the box sent to the ward at Oteen for Christmas. Mrs. R. C. Stokes Jr. made a splendid report for work done before Christmas by the emergency committee. A membership drive and plans for poppy day were discussed.

At the close of the meeting, the hostesses served tempting refreshments.

Mrs. Fleming Ill.
Friends of Mrs. J. L. Fleming will regret to learn that she is ill.

Called To Tennessee.
Mrs. J. B. James was called to Greenville, Tenn., last night on account of the illness of her father, H. R. Brown.

Notice To Red Men.
There is to be an important meeting Friday night. Every member is urged to be present. Important business to come up, and also a very enjoyable feature. Be there on time.

Galli Curci Loves People

With Galli-Curci it is always people that count. She said: "I don't want to educate the layman. I want to entertain him. When I sing the old songs that he loves, he is entertained. Then I sing some other things that are more intricate, and he loves those too. You can give a little quinine with the candy, but you can't give all quinine. Besides, the old songs, simple as they are, are wonderfully beautiful. I love to sing them."

This she amply proves, in her programs and in the lovely encores which audiences so insistently demand, old songs that blossomed into life in the long ago and live enshrined in the people's hearts.

She loves her audiences wherever she goes, though she sometimes does not know where she is going next and hardly knows where she came from, here today and there tomorrow. "You see, I am like a trunk. I go where my managers send me." But she loves audiences and the people, and the people love her.

People from near and far will doubtless come into Greenville to hear her sing at East Carolina Teachers College on the evening of January 25.

WEST GREENVILLE PARENTS-TEACHERS MEETS

The Parent-Teacher Association of West Greenville school held an enjoyable meeting Wednesday afternoon in the school auditorium with an unusually large attendance.

Miss Kate Lewis of the Teachers College, gave us an instructive talk on Art which was very interesting, especially at this particular time, as the faculty have planned an art exhibit to be held at our school beginning Monday, Jan. 18, and running through the week.

Miss Lewis reminded us of the fact that appreciation of Art must be acquired through association with pictures, and gave us several points on training and developing a child's interest.

The association feels deeply grateful to Miss Lewis for a pleasant afternoon and hope she will do so again.

At the close of the program, a short business meeting was held during which the local affairs of the school were discussed and settled.

Junior Women's Club to Meet.
The Junior Women's Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3:30, with Mrs. W. F. Young and Miss Laura Thomas as hostesses.

Literary Department Meets

The Literature Department of the Woman's Club met at the club on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30, with Mrs. P. G. Dennis hostess.

In the absence of Mrs. Moore, the vice-chairman, Mrs. E. L. Henderson presided. After a short business session the meeting was turned over to Mrs. K. T. Putrell, program leader, for the afternoon. Mrs. Putrell had as her topic: "Epics of the Middle Ages." She gave "Parzifal" and "Nibelungenlied" from the German and "Song of Roland" from the French.

Mrs. W. A. Darden gave interesting current events relating to the reading topics of the day.

The hostess served delicious hot tea with cakes, home made candy and stuffed dates.

MRS. BLANCHE CHERRY WITH LOCAL HOSPITAL

Mrs. Blanche Cherry has returned from Bedford, Va., to accept the position of superintendent at Pitt Community Hospital. Mrs. Cherry succeeds Miss B. James Smith.

MRS. SMITH ILL IN SAN FRANCISCO

Friends of Mrs. L. D. Smith of San Francisco, will be glad to know that she is recovering satisfactorily from an operation for appendicitis which she underwent a few days ago in that city. Mrs. Smith will be pleasantly remembered here as Miss Lena Dey Humber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Humber.

FIDDLERS' CONVENTION AT EPWORTH SCHOOL

There will be an old time fiddlers' convention at Epworth school (between Grifton and Vanceboro) on Thursday, January 21, at 7 p. m. Everybody come and enjoy an evening of real fun and good music.

Horne Chosen to Confer Degrees for Masonic Body

Another honor has come to W. H. Horne of Greenville, grand commander of North Carolina Knights Templar. He has been chosen to confer the 30th, 31st and 32nd degrees for Scottish Rite Masons three times a year in New Bern, succeeding Harry Patterson, who was recently transferred to Wilmington.

A committee of 33rd degree Masons visited Mr. Horne several days ago and told him he had been chosen for this important post because of his outstanding ability and service to the York Rite bodies, of which he is the state head.

Mr. Horne accepted and will go to New Bern at the appointed time to confer degrees upon candidates of the order.

GREENVILLE SALVAGE CO. BUYS ANOTHER BIG STOCK

The Greenville Salvage Company, which recently leased the building on Evans street formerly occupied by Hunt's store, announces the recent purchase of a large stock of goods in Roanoke Rapids, the owners of which went through bankruptcy proceedings.

It was also announced that this stock had already been received at the local store and will be included in a big sale starting Saturday morning, January 18, at 9:00 a. m.

The Salvage company did a favorable business last fall, and had decided to give up the store which they occupied, but a satisfactory arrangement was made regarding rent and lease with the result that the concern will do business in the former Hunt stand for another 12 months at least. See the advertisement in The Reflector today.

RED OAK NEWS

One of the most delightful of the holiday parties was given last Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Allen. Three tables for cards and one for Parchesi were arranged in the living room. After several exciting games the guests were invited into the dining room where they were served delicious gelatin with syllabub and prettily decorated cakes. The guests departed at a late hour expressing themselves as having spent a most enjoyable evening.

The most enjoyable club meeting ever held by the R. O. D. Club was held at Mrs. Billy May's last Wednesday afternoon. Miss Nic demonstrated to us how to prepare a dish that was new to us. We also planned two menus. We sang several songs and rounds that were enjoyed by all present. Then, of course, the very nicest part of all was the very delicious home-made candies served by Mrs. May. Club members present were Mesdames Billy and Hazard May, Clyde Bright, J. J. Jenkins, James Allen, Fenner Allen, Roy Allen, Leon Tyson, Lizzie Vandiford, Thurman Page and Miss Ella May. The club voted Mrs. May a most charming hostess and expressed their wishes to meet there again.

We were very sorry to know that Wilbur Gardner is still not able to be up. We surely miss Wilbur at Sunday school and hope that he will soon be able to come back.

Due to the beautiful weather we have been having this winter our Sunday school has not experienced the slump it usually does in cold weather. We had 51 present last Sunday with practically every officer and teacher on hand. If you are not attending Sunday school anywhere else, we extend to you a hearty welcome to join us next Sunday morning at ten o'clock.

We are so glad to have our friends and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Smith, move closer into the neighborhood.

Friends of Mr. Will Clark will be glad to know that he is able to be out after a recent illness.

The little girl of Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Coward has improved from a recent spell of tonsillitis.

About half a hundred friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Page gave them a surprise miscellaneous shower at their home last evening.

After the guests had arrived a number of songs and vocal combats were sung. Mrs. James Allen and Mrs. Leon Tyson played several piano selections.

Public courtship was very much enjoyed, especially when Miss Nice and Huber Allen, and Fenner Allen and Mrs. Jenkins walked down the line.

At this time little Miss Audrey Allen and Master John Wyatt Tyson came in carrying a shower of useful gifts and presented them to Mrs. Page. In a most charming manner Mrs. Page opened the packages and thanked each one for their gifts.

Apples, oranges, candies, nuts and other good things were served. Mr. and Mrs. Page bade the guests good-bye at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Tyson had as their guests at a party last Tuesday night members of the Junior class of Pine Grove Sunday school and several of their friends. Games and contests were enjoyed during the evening after which silled nuts and candies were served. About thirty guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Tyson.

Spring must be just around the corner. We noticed a beautiful white iris in bloom last Sunday on the church ground. Mrs. Leon Tyson has an enormous bush of Apple Japonica and Forsythia or Golden Bell in full bloom, also white narcissus in the yard. We have never known these flowers to bloom so early before.

Pitt Poorhouse Hangs up Record For Hog Killing

Thousands of people of the country may go hungry these days, but not inmates of the Pitt county poorhouse.

Hog killing season ended at the poorhouse a week ago and sufficient meat has been provided to take care of the wants of the establishment for another year.

J. O. Harris, superintendent of the county home, is proud of the hog killing record this year. He believes he has set something of a new mark in the amount of meat, and also from the standpoint of the size of hogs killed.

Three of the hogs tipped the scales at 225, 210 and 223 pounds each and out of a total of 52 killed the average weight was given as 262 pounds.

The meat yielded practically a ton and a half of lard, and enough sausage, hams and shoulders to keep the wolf away from the door of the poorhouse for many days to come.

All of this added to bountiful food crops puts the county home on easy street, and shows what can be accomplished when an institution starts out to hang up a new record of achievement.

Good News.

Raleigh, Jan. 14. — (AP) — Announcement by its officers that the North Carolina Bank and Trust Company has on hand cash sufficient to pay off all of its $17,000,000 in deposits foreclosed the end of North Carolina banking troubles.

Gurney P. Hood, state banking commissioner, said here.

The report "should have a vastly reassuring effect upon the public," he said.

"The magnitude of credit extended the North Carolina Bank and Trust Company," he continued, "indicates the desire of national financial leaders to lend all needed assistance in the present situation."

The announcement of the North Carolina Bank and Trust Company's position was made at director's meeting in Greensboro. At that time it was reported that because of "unsettled conditions existing throughout the country it has been deemed advisable to make arrangements for the bank to have cash resources, subject to its call, sufficient to meet all demands of every depositor of the institution. Such arrangements have been completed."

Lost 20 Lbs. of Fat In Just 4 Weeks

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.

SYNOPSIS: Trueman Rock begins to believe that Thiry Preston loves him, but difficulties still hold them apart. Gage Preston, her father, and her brother, Ash, are cattle rustlers, although she has not admitted it. Rock is trying to smooth out the situation while he works for Preston, concealing his knowledge.

Chapter 40
LOVE AND DISGRACE

Rock stood stiff and immovable as the pine tree by his side, but his mind, his heart received the fact of that embrace with tumultuous violence.

Scarcely had Thiry clasped him when she uttered a cry and released the convulsive hold, her hands unloosening and sliding down from each shoulder as if bereft of strength.

"Oh—I'm—beside myself!" she whispered.

Taking her hand, Rock led her to a seat on the bench under the pine, where she sank almost in collapse, her head bowed. Rock resisted his natural impulses—crushed down the exultation of the moment.

"Thiry, why did you—do that?"

"I—I don't know."

"But dare I take it—as 'most any man would take such action from a girl?"

"It's done . . . I'm amazed—shamed again at myself. What must you think of me?"

"Reckon I think all that's wonderful and beautiful. But I think also I'm entitled to an explanation."

"Trueman, how can I explain what I scarcely realize?" she said, with pathos. "It's been hours with Dad and Ash. Oh, it was sickening. We begged—He prayed Ash to give up—plans he has. But I kept trying till I was exhausted. . . . As I came across to my cabin I was thinking of how you resented suspicion against Dad! My poor sick heart must have warmed to you with something—surely with gratitude. You seemed my only friend. I was wondering how I should thank you—tomorrow. . . . Then you rose right out of the black ground. What a fright you gave me! And when you spoke I—I just—"

She faltered and broke off leaving him to guess the rest. Rock's compassion overcame his more powerful emotions.

"Thiry, you've explained how upset you were—and why. But that would not make you fling your arms around my neck."

"I'm guilty," she replied, distantly.

"If you can't be understanding—generous—then take it how you will. . . . After all, I belong to the Preston outfit."

These words, tinged with bitterness, accompanied by the withdrawal of her hand from his, gave Rock the cue. This was his hour. His intelligence recognized it, but his conscience would not let him rush madly to take advantage of her weakness at this critical time.

"Trueman, it's late. I must go in," she said.

"Reckon you can spare me an hour," he returned, his voice gruff with the strain of his emotions.

"Indeed no! I must go. Good night," she replied, nervously rising.

He grasped her arms, not gently, and pulled her down on the seat, this time closer to him, and he held her.

"You stay here. Reckon I might remind you that Ash is not the only bad hombre on the range."

"Very well, if you detain me by force," Thiry said coldly. "Why were you waiting for me at this unheard-of hour?"

"I saw you go into Ash's cabin, and I thought I'd wait till you came out. Reckon it never occurred to me you'd be so long. But I kept waitin'. At that time few by."

"Then you were spying on me—on us?" she queried, a quicker note in her voice.

"Reckon so, if you want to use hard words. But sure my strongest motive was just to see you, talk to you a minute."

"Well, since you've done that, please let me go."

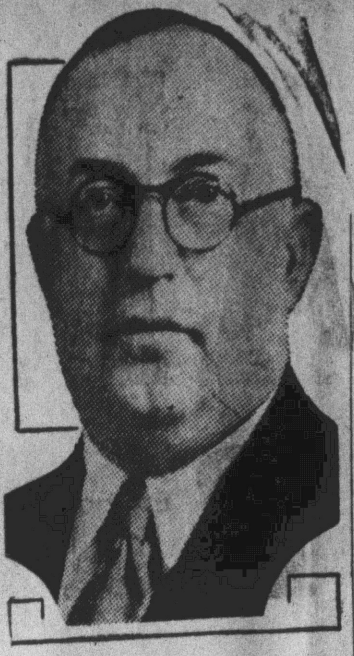

"Thiry, you upset everything when you put our arms around my neck," he said.

"Don't harp on that," she flashed hotly. "I never did such a thing before. I—I couldn't do any other man. It just happened. If you want to spare me let me forget it."

"Could you ever?"

"I might make myself."

"Reckon I'll never let you," rejoined Rock stubbornly. "You've froze up the last few minutes. That hurts. I have my own bat-

J. L. HORNE, JR.
Chapel Hill, Jan. 13.—Newspaper editors can do much toward restoring public confidence and ending the depression by emphasizing always the assets and resources of their communities. J. L. Horne, Jr., president of the North Carolina Press Association, asserted in an address at the opening session of the Newspaper Institute here tonight.

Washington Christian church, and burial will be made in the family burying ground in Belvoir township. Services at the grave will be in charge of the Masonic Order.

Mr. Hodges was a member of the Masonic Order, Red Men, Odd Fellows, and Modern Woodmen of America.

He was a native of Belvoir township, but had been postmaster and operator of the general store at Pactolus for the last ten years or more. He was a member of the Old Ford Christian church, and held in highest esteem by hundreds of people in different sections of the county.

He is survived by his wife and father, J. T. Hodges; three brothers, N. O. T. H., and J. H. Hodges, and three sisters, Mrs. Joseph Barnhill, Mrs. M. H. Whitchard, and Miss Hilda Hodges, all of this county.

native state, Jesse H. Jones, Houston financier, and Nathan Adams, president of the First National Bank at Dallas, be considered.

Senator Connally said he had also heard advocacy of Edward N. Hurley, of Chicago, as a director. Bernard M. Baruch, New York financier, has been spoken of repeatedly as one of the directors, and possibly its chairman. The name of Charles G. Dawes, who will soon retire as ambassador to Great Britain, also has figured.

All of those named, with the exception of Dawes, are Democrats.

Under the bill passed by the Senate, the directorate would consist of Secretary Mellon, Governor Meyer of the Federal Reserve board, a farm loan commissioner and four others, three of whom would be Democrats.

Whether the House will agree to this setup will be decided today or tomorrow.

Under first questioning the man gave his name as Melvin Crawford, 28. The negro sought was known as George Crawford but his age was believed nearer 40. A cut on one hand of the seized man, freshly bandaged, was considered a possible link to the desperate struggle which Mrs. Isley appeared to have engaged in before death.

The suspect was captured by detectives in a mission shelter in the course of a detailed search through all rooming houses and hotels in which the suspect might have hidden for the night. The authorities became confident the man sought was in Washington after Mrs. Isley's missing automobile was found on the outskirts late yesterday. It contained evidence, undisclosed, which was held to point strongly to the wanted Crawford.

This man was once an employe of Mrs. Isley. Suspicion was centered on him when it developed she recently had sworn out a warrant charging Crawford with robbery, saying she feared him. Also she had come to Washington seeking the aid of a private detective agency after her cottage and the manor house on her fox-hunting estate had been burglarized. Crawford disappeared last September but had been seen in Middleburg in recent days and was believed to have been in the vicinity the night of the killing.

He had a prison record in Virginia and was liberated, said Dr. R. H. Holt, of Middleburg, after saving the life of a convict camp superintendent attacked by another prisoner. Holt once employed Crawford.

Mrs. Isley, widow of a Milwaukee banker, was found dead by her brother, Paul Boeing, yesterday morning. He had spent the night at her big red brick mansion, to protect it from further robbery, while she and the maid occupied the cottage nearby. Until last Sunday the big house had been rented to Katrina McCormick, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, former member of Congress and internationally prominent socially.

Middleburg is a center for horse-loving society. Estates, many with private race tracks and steeplechase courses, dot the landscape.

The subcommittee declared the judge's instructions were a "thinly veiled instruction to acquit." The governor countered that there was "some sinister, ulterior motive in the background."

Phlander B. Gray, 31-year-old Texan, was arrested yesterday, officers said, while he was struggling with a 21-year-old Portuguese woman. She preferred charges.

The Legislature was called to meet next Monday. Its primary consideration is expected to be re-organization of Honolulu's police department, which has been widely criticized as inefficient and subject to political manipulation.

Immediately after calling the special session, Governor Judd sent to Secretary Wilbur of the Interior Department, a strongly worded protest against criticism in the House Naval subcommittee of instructions to the jury which tried five men on charges of attacking

SURVEY CHARLOTTE AS CONVENTION CITY

Charlotte, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Officials of the National and State Grange, headed by Louis J. Taber, national master, came here today to survey the city's facilities for entertaining the 1932 national convention of the organization, which already has been awarded to North Carolina.

The group was in Winston-Salem yesterday, after a visit to Salisbury. Officials announced no convention city would be selected until all of the bidding communities had been visited. Greensboro, Raleigh and Durham are the other cities seeking the meeting.

ABOUT TOWN

Optimism dominated the annual meeting of stockholders of the various banks of Greenville this week, and those who have guided the destiny of the institutions for many years expressed belief in the soundness of the financial fabric of the community.

The banks of Pitt county are in the most liquid condition in years, and are expected to render great assistance to the people during the coming years. They have always contributed their bit toward expansion of the various phases of business and it is the desire of officials to be able to do the same in future years.

Confidence in the financial condition of the community has not only been expressed by bankers, but by people in other walks of life who have had an opportunity to watch developments along this line in recent months. This bespeaks great things for the future, and presages gradual recovery from the unprecedented conditions existing the last several years.

The Greenville tobacco market will close for the season Friday, January 29th. It was made known yesterday. Farmers have been advised to carefully prepare their tobacco and market it as rapidly as possible.

The market obtained more recognition with the December report of the State and Federal Crop Reporting Service showing that Greenville led all markets of the bright leaf belt in prices with an average of $7.30 per hundred pounds for that period. Although sales are light at this time, the market still leads the belt from the standpoint of poundage. It is hoped to hold steadfastly to this record and tobaccoists are working hard with this end in view. New records have been hung up here this season, especially in the number of pounds disposed of in one day. On two or three different occasions the market went above 1,500,000 pounds daily, and at one time offerings totalled nearly three million pounds.

Tobaccoists are proud of the record they have been able to establish this season and will close the year's activities confident they did their best to reach the goal of their ambition.

If Secretary Mellon rode "rough shod" over officials of the Department of Justice, as charged in impeachment proceedings against the Secretary of the Treasury, it was the fault of the officials and not so much that of the secretary.

It is true Mellon holds an important post, but that does not entitle him to the privilege of violating federal laws any more than anybody else.

These charges should be thoroughly gone into before the inquiry is completed and if it can be proven that he was guilty of such action, impeachment proceedings are justified.

The director of the New York State Public Health Department is a visitor in Greenville today where he will confer with members of the Pitt County Department of Health regarding the operation of the venereal clinic conducted among colored people the last two years.

It is the duty of the New York State to evaluate the work of the clinics and report his findings to the Rosenwald Foundation and U. S. Public Health Service. The clinics are being paid for by the two organizations and careful records will be made of the findings of the various activities.

Pitt county negroes have derived much good from the clinic here and will be in much better physical condition to take their place in industry in years to come. Venereal trouble has decreased the value of colored people in industry, and when they have been freed from this curse, they will be far more able to take their rightful place in the ranks of labor.

Boys attending East Carolina Teachers College this year are contributing their part to the sports life of the community, and are expecting to expand activities of the kind with each succeeding year.

Time was when nothing but girls attended the school, and sports were confined mainly to basketball, tennis and similar games, but since the enrollment of two score boys or more the school is beginning to challenge the interest of colleges in all sections of the state.

Campbell college opened the season here this week and tonight E. C. T. C. lads are contesting for honors with Atlantic Christian College at Wilson.

While E. C. T. C. has a small group to choose from this year, the chance of her taking a solid position in the sports life of the state in future years is very bright.

BILLY'S UNCLE

E. C. T. C. Loses Close Game To The Christians

Those boys from East Carolina Teachers College got it into their heads last night that they could play basketball, and as a result, Atlantic Christian College received the scene of their lives in Wilson. The game was played in the Chas. L. Coon High School gymnasium. Atlantic Christian College had to use everything they had to win and if the water boy would have helped them win, they would have been glad to have put him in the game if it had been permissible.

The game started off as a defensive game with both teams trying each other out. Finally, after three minutes of play, the Christians made a "crip" shot. Then one side would make a goal and then the other side. The half ended 13 to 8 in favor of Atlantic Christian College, but the score doesn't tell a true story in regard to the real playing.

The local collegians played bang-up basketball. In fact, it was brilliant basketball. Their passing attack was working, they were making most of their shots, and their floor work was excellent. This was not the same team that played Campbell College only the night before. This team had gotten over their fright and knew what they were on the floor for. Even the most pessimistic basketball rooster would have had few faults to find with the all-around team play of the East Carolina team. One of the outstanding things of the whole game was the hard and persistent manner of the East Carolina boys going after a loose ball. They went out after it as if their life depended upon them getting it, and they generally got it.

The high scorer of both sides was Tucker, the Greenville boy who plays forward for the local collegians. He scored 12 points and all of them were field goals. Most of these 12 points were of the long shot variety and they had the opposing team worried all through the game. Traylor and Bell were high scorers for the Christian team, each getting 6 points. This fellow Traylor scored 24 points against Rocky Mount "Y," but was well checked in this game.

Eason was acting captain for last night's game for the Teachers. This college will not have one particular person to represent them as captain this season, but a player will be appointed before each game.

There were several members of the Teachers College faculty that attended the game. It was very noticeable that they just couldn't sit still while the game was in progress. Mr. Deal, a professor of E. C. T. C., almost bit his cigar into two parts, and when the game was 13 to 12 he was so excited he almost ate the cigar. The players of both teams were delivering the goods and a basketball game worth going miles to see was being played. Several of the spectators showed by their actions that their hearts were in their throats and I have no doubt that every person witnessing the game would have been put in Sing Sing prison for the rest of his life had there been a law regulating the beating of the heart to a certain speed. The final score was 23 to 14, but that isn't the half of the story that was interesting enough to thrill the spectators through and through.

A hint to the wise is sufficient. Be sure to make your plans to attend the Atlantic Christian College game when they come to Greenville Saturday night, January 16th. In the last game here there were over 1,000 people attended the game and it is expected that a record-breaking crowd will attend the game Saturday night. Come early so you can get a good seat. The game will start at 8 o'clock and will be played in the Campus building at the College.

Schmeling Bout Call Off Walker-Schmeling Bout

New York, Jan. 14.—(AP)—After tantalizing the public for a couple of weeks with disputed contracts, muddled arrangements and delays for no apparent reason, the fight arrangers who were promoting the Max Schmeling-Mickey Walker fight, scheduled for Miami, Fla., February 25, finally have decided to call the whole affair off.

Joe Jacobs, manager of the heavyweight champion, explained that a report from his partner, Billy McCarney, now in Florida, advised him there wasn't enough loose money in Miami to make it worthwhile.

Jacobs explained that McCarney, who originally had gone south to locate training quarters for Schmeling, had sent back highly unfavorable reports of the financial situation at Miami. The "gate," which had been estimated at upwards of $200,000 would not exceed half that amount, McCarney reported, and after talking over the situation with Schmeling, Jacobs decided that a 40 per cent cut in $100,000 would not be enough.

Jacobs mentioned Chicago, Los Angeles, Atlantic City and Philadelphia as possible sites for a title bout but only if a suitable guarantee were made. He explained that his champion took in $10,000 in four exhibitions last week and that such a program would be far more profitable than taking a $40,000 cut from a Miami fight.

"Schmeling will box Walker or Sharkey or Dempsey or anybody else in the world for money," the manager concluded, "but we must be guaranteed we will get the money."

DUKE CAGERS DROP GAME TO WEST POINT

Charlotte, Jan. 14.—Duke's inexperienced basketball candidates have come along at a fast pace under the tutelage of Coach Eddie Cameron.

With only one veteran back from last year's championship squad, the Blue Devils were given just an outside chance when the season began to annex the Big Five title again.

The Blue Devils, however, have developed rapidly. They lost to the Army at West Point, last night, but the battle was close. The final score after Duke had overcome an early lead and tied things up at 15-all at the half was 25 to 23.

The Cameron crew gets another test against a strong team tonight, meeting the Crescent Athletic club's five at Brooklyn. It is the only game tonight involving a Big Five team.

Taking an early lead which they never lost, the High Point Panthers last night made it two straight over the Parris Island marines by a 32-19 score, at Parris Island, S. C. At the same time its Little Six rival, Lenoir Rhyne, was losing to Lynchburg College, at Lynchburg, Va., 37 to 18.

Gullford defeated the Winston-Salem Twins 26 to 24. At Wilson Atlantic Christian won from East Carolina Teachers College, 27 to 17, while Campbell College was defeating William & Mary 38 to 28 at Norfolk.

Catawba barely nosed out the Charlotte Y. M. C. A. Tringles, 25 to 22, although the collegians were in the lead throughout.

RUTH REFUSES NEW CONTRACT FOR $70,000

New York, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Babe Ruth today received a one year contract from the New York Yankees calling for $70,000, a reduction of $10,000 from his salary of the last two years, and promptly sent it back unsigned. He said he would accept a two-year contract for that sum.

Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the Yankees, disclosed the decreased terms offered Ruth. He said the Babe was tendered a one-year agreement only.

The home run slugger received $80,000 a year under a two-year contract that covered the 1930-31 seasons. He declared a few days ago he did not think he should be asked to take a "cut," inasmuch as last season was one of his best at bat.

Colonel Ruppert indicated he considered the offer eminently fair, under present conditions, pointing to the tremendous amount the Yankees had paid Ruth and the fact that his salary steadily had been increased.

accounts, notes and choses in action due and owing said co-partnership.

The goods, wares and merchandise, furniture and fixtures will be sold separate and apart from the notes and accounts and choses in action in the first instance; then all of the said property will be sold as a whole.

An inventory of the above may be inspected by any interested party at the office of T. L. and W. J. Turnage Company, in Farmville, or at the office of Albion Dunn, in Greenville, N. C.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Drawn Shades Won't Sell Goods

YOU say you don't draw the shades in your show windows. Well, DO you draw the shades in the biggest window of them all, in the window that everyone sees, in the window that sells thousands of dollars worth of merchandise overnight? That window is the advertising pages of The Daily Reflector.

A window which doesn't wait for prospective buyers to pass by, but goes right into their homes and demands attention. Give your merchandise the sort of display it deserves. The public won't buy what it doesn't know about no matter how strong the inducements, or how big the bargain. The Daily Reflector show window should be YOUR show window.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at advance of 4 to 5 points in covering and trade buying, principally for continental account. March sold at 6.66.

The action of the market was attributed to reviving confidence based largely on expectations of improved business as a result of constructive financial developments. The better foreign demand was interpreted to indicate a brighter outlook abroad.

The Bremen market was firmed and Liverpool was somewhat steadier than anticipated. The Census Bureau report made the consumption in America during December 415,517 bales compared with 428,870 in November and 405,518 in December, 1930.

The March position advanced 8 points to 6.70, and at the end of the first half hour the market was 5 to 6 points net higher. Liverpool ruled that the market there was steadier on general buying, reacting partially under realizing and an advance in sterling and reported sales of 40,000 bales of Russian cotton.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Snow falls in Kansas and Nebraska led to increased selling pressure on wheat late today, and earlier price gains were more than wiped out. Much of the selling was in the July delivery, representing the new 1932 crop, and came from houses that frequently act for United States Government agencies. It was denied that the Federal Farm Board had sold wheat to Greece, the board being unable to extend a long-term credit.

Wheat closed unsettled 1-2 to 1 under yesterday's finish, corn 1-2 to 7-8 down, oats 1-8 to 3-8 off and provisions at 2 cents to 7 cents advance.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Wholesale dealers from the bear camp were accompanied by a further vigorous extension of the recovery in the stock market today.

Foreign short covering in the first half hour was accompanied by numerous advances of 1 to 4 points, and while trading turned quieter thereafter, the list generally maintained a firm tone, and prices in many instances continued to work higher during much of the day. After midday, however, there was some recession from the best. Tobacco were in the forefront of the advance. The American tobacco issues, and Liggett & Myers and Reynolds class B shares advanced.

Negro Sentenced to Roads Here

Jim Boyd, colored was sentenced to sixty days on the roads on a charge of possession of supplies for the manufacture of liquor in the final day's session of county court yesterday.

He was charged with manufacturing liquor, but this was changed when the defendant pleaded guilty to possession of articles that go into the making of whiskey.

R. L. Peel was released upon payment of cost on a charge of driving a trailer without brakes.

About a half dozen cases were disposed of in the session of court extending through Tuesday and a part of yesterday morning.

HUGE SUM FOR CONSTRUCTION

$649,312,000 Involved in Building Projects in South During 1932.

Baltimore, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Building projects involving expenditure of $649,312,000 were contracted for in sixteen southern and southwestern states during 1931, the Manufacturers Record says.

The total, the publication explained, does not include projects of less than $10,000 nor many important construction programs upon which accurate figures were not available.

The slump from the peak year, 1930, with contracts totaling $921,715,000 was attributed partially to a sharp decline in the cost of building materials and construction generally.

Roads, bridges and paving accounted for the greatest item of the total, $270,983,000. Other divisions included:

Apartments and hotels, $20,890,000; city, county, government and state projects, $66,846,000; dwellings costing $10,000 or more, $26,175,000; school buildings, $33,356,000; sewers, drainage and waterworks, $34,014,000; store buildings, $9,768,000; association and fraternal buildings, $3,633,000.

Miscellaneous works accounted for the remainder. The figures covered a range of states from Maryland to Texas. Considering projects of less than $10,000 for which no figures were available, the publication estimates the total for the states at $850,000,000.

Gas Thieves Are Quite Active Here

Gas thieves have increased their operations in Greenville the last several days, and especially last night, when they drained the tanks of four automobiles parked in garages back of the Vines House on Pitt street.

Owners of the automobiles had been running short of gas for several days but they were not able to determine the cause until they went to their garages this morning and were attracted by misplaced tank caps. Upon examination, it was discovered that all tanks registered empty. Each of the cars were replenished with gas yesterday after having been relieved of their contents the night before.

Thefts of a similar nature have been reported from various parts of the city for several weeks, but this is the first time they have occurred upon such a wholesale scale.

The public has been warned to put their cars under lock and key at night in an effort to reduce the operations of the thieves.

Landmark Gives Way to March of Progress Here

A single story wooden building, at the corner of Third and Cotenche streets, which has given way to the march of progress more than once during the last half century and more, was being razed today, and the lot upon which it is situated will be used as parking space by the Proctor hotel.

The property was recently purchased by the American Corporation from receivers of R. L. Smith, and D. L. Turner, operator of the Proctor hotel, leased the site to increase bus and automobile parking space back of the hotel.

The building was first erected near where the R. L. Harris store now stands, and was moved to the present location to make room for the store buildings. That was nearly fifty years ago and since that time the building has been used as professional offices, and later as a residence. The late Governor Jarvis had his office there several years prior to his death.

Old residents say the building was erected by the late Mrs. Belle Tyson about 10 years prior to the Civil war.

Just a Mistake
Raleigh—Arthur Long, who killed Mrs. Ina Kelly, 17, with a gun he said he thought was not loaded, was sentenced to serve four months on the roads when he pleaded guilty to involuntary manslaughter.

What About Now?
Detroit—Predicting faster and faster automobiles, M. O. Eldridge, assistant director of highways in the District of Columbia, told American roadbuilders yesterday that fool-proof highways soon would be necessary.
