URGES PARTY TO ABANDON LIQUOR ISSUE

F. Scott McBride Advises Democrats to Put Out Right Man and Win.

Washington, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Democrats were advised today by F. Scott McBride, anti-saloon league superintendent, that if they would "avoid staggering over a whiskey bottle and will nominate an outstanding, high-class constitutionalist, they have a good chance to win" the 1932 election.

In his report before the board of directors of the league, he called upon the organization to "wake up and fight" during the coming ten months.

"We might as well face the fact that there will be no landslide in 1932 in favor of prohibition as there was in 1928," McBride said in his report.

The contest will be in territory where the vets have the advantage on account of the prevailing negative business situation.

McBride said no previous results would make secure prohibition at the election of 1932, 1934 and 1936.

The outcome of the next election as to prohibition "will be greatly influenced by the economic outcome within the next ten months," McBride said, adding, "under present conditions there is a real fight on."

"The prohibition issue has not been so clear in the last eight years as formerly, nor as clear cut as it will be from now on."

He told the board congressional tests so far had been mostly on matters of enforcement rather than prohibition. He warned "even a majority of 221 in both houses of Congress does not mean absolute security."

McBride advised the league directors to be anti-partisan in attitude and "not commit support for any candidate at the election until after both conventions have adjourned." He added the hope each of the leading parties would nominate dry candidates and adopt platforms favorable to enforcement.

PROBE BEGINS IN HONOLULU

Overhauling of Enforcement Machinery May Result from Investigation.

Washington, Jan. 15.—(AP)—A thorough overhauling of the law enforcement machinery in the Hawaiian Islands may result from a study to be conducted on the spot immediately by Seth W. Richardson, assistant attorney general.

Outcome of the Masie-Porteus incident in Honolulu, the justice department investigation, requested by Senate resolution, took definite form last night with announcement of detailed instructions from Attorney General Mitchell to his assistant.

Richardson will leave at the earliest possible time with a staff of six or more aides to study every angle of the local enforcement machinery with a view to possible recommendations for changes, and will go also into the operation of Federal courts there in prohibition and narcotics.

Mitchell made it clear he was not in any way prejudging the agencies of justice in the islands, nor intimating that reorganization was needed, but he asked Richardson to study courts, police, jury systems and parole board.

Party Members Push Quest for $1,500,000 After Victory Day Dinners Last Night

Democracy, arisen from a "victory" dinner that had a nation for its banquet hall, pushed its quest today for the $1,500,000 fund to pay its debts and finance its campaign for votes at the November polls.

Democracy's voices—the Roosevelt, Shouse, and Smith, sounded last night across the "victory" boards that were spread in half a hundred cities throughout the country. For the most part they rang with prophecies of Democracy.

ASKS PASSAGE OF NAVAL BILL

Admiral Upham Tells Committee a Prepared Navy is Best Way to Safeguard Peace.

Washington, Jan. 15.—(AP)—A treaty navy was held today by Rear Admiral Frank B. Upham, chief of the navy's navigation bureau, to be the means of safeguarding peace.

Neglect in building up in all categories, he told the House naval affairs committee in urging passage of the Vinson bill, "would imperil rather than safeguard the peace."

The Vinson bill would authorize a ten year construction program involving 120 ships at a cost of $616,000,000.

"By building to those ratios (allowed under the London treaty) Admiral Upham said, "we threaten no one, and do not place ourselves in position to maintain our neutral rights when others are engaged in hostilities."

With the army skeletonized, he said, "another war bill finds us confronted with the necessity for recruiting it to war proportions and for training it. This will require many long and anxious months. During that time and from the opening of hostilities, the navy must be ready, prepared to hold the line, and to control operations thereupon, in other words, in the defense of our vast commercial interests in overseas trade."

Pointing out that no new construction has been authorized since the London conference, he added that "we are to continue this neglect in building naval vessels we would soon be reduced to the rating of a second class power on the sea, unable to defend our trade, our interests or our country."

CIVIL COURT GETS 'HONOR' CASE

Plans were speeded to bring to trial Lieut. Thomas Masie, his mother-in-law, Mrs. Granville Fortescue, and two seamen charged with the slaying of a Hawaiian native, one of five men accused of attacking Mrs. Masie. The four, in custody of naval officials, were ordered turned over to civil authorities for trial. Above are Masie, Mrs. Fortescue and the court house in Honolulu where the trial probably will be held.

Praise Gov. Gardner For Warning To The State

Charlotte, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Governor O. Max Gardner's disclosure that New York financial centers are not disposed to extend further credit to the state and his warning that the state must live within its income was classed generally as a courageous step by newspapers today.

Many of them also expressed belief that the situation would bring a more wholesome point of view by citizens toward the state government. (Continued on Page Three)

WEST IN GRIP OF COLD WAVE

Tragedy draped its sombre black today over the motley of capricious winter.

Dandelions still bloomed in Ontario, and there was blowing on the green in the north country; but ten were dead from a tornado that thrashed through two Tennessee farming communities and heavy snows and dropping temperatures chilled sections of California, Wyoming, Montana, and New Mexico were cold and clear, while snow blocked highways in Southern Idaho. Nevada had temperatures that dipped down to a minus 35. The Dakotas and Nebraska, buttoned their teeth as the mercury hit zero.

Floods poured against Mississippi delta levees as many families fled higher ground. The explosion of dynamite echoed along the Tallahatchie as homeowners sought to save their property at the expense of others by dynamiting the levees and letting the flood waters (Continued on Page Three)

THINK KILLER SOUGHT CASH

Robbery Given as Motive for Slaying of Two Women Near Middleburg, Va.

Middleburg, Va., Jan. 15.—(AP)—A simplified theory of the motive behind the brutal murder of Mrs. Agnes Boeing Isley and her maid was adopted by authorities today as their search for the suspected killers spread to wider territory.

Proceeding on the belief that George Crawford, discharged negro employe of the wealthy sports-woman, committed the crime with the aid of an accomplice, the officers said they had practically decided robbery was the motive, although no valuables were taken.

The murderer, as they reconstructed the crime, sought money or valuables and planned no killing until he found himself recognized. Then Mrs. Isley and her elderly servant, Mina Buckner, were beaten to death. The crime took place Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning in a cottage on the estate of the sports-loving widow of Spencer Isley, Milwaukee banker.

Somewhere in Virginia five negroes, four of them men, and a woman, were held today as material witnesses. Officers were sure the quintet had been in touch with Crawford just before or after the murder. Their whereabouts and names were kept secret as a protection against violence. Hopes of capturing of suspects themselves rested increasingly on activity of police forces in eastern and southern cities, for it was generally believed the men had left this immediate vicinity. Identity of the second suspect still was problematical.

Evidence held by Washington police which they considered linked Crawford definitely with the crime was disclosed today to consist of a letter, apparently in his handwriting, found in Mrs. Isley's automobile which was abandoned near the capital the day after the crime.

In the letter, authorities said, Crawford promised some money to a negro woman living near Tyson's Corner, Virginia. He had seen her Sunday, they said, and obtaining this money was probably the robbery motive.

Hearings on N. C. Senatorial Race Begin Tomorrow

Washington, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Hearings in George W. Prichard's contest for the Senate seat now occupied by Josiah W. Bailey, of North Carolina, have been ordered to start tomorrow morning.

Decision to hold the hearing tomorrow was reached after Senator Joe T. Robinson, of Arkansas, had succeeded in having the matter sent back to the committee after an attempt had been made to bring Prichard's supporters' proposal for a $10,000 investigation fund to the floor of the Senate.

Senator Samuel Shortridge, of California, chief of the Prichard advocates, will preside at the hearing.

Whether Senator Bailey will be represented by counsel, or appear in his own defense, had not been disclosed.

Prichard's supporters have alleged he was beaten by the practice of campaign and election irregularities on the part of North Carolina's Democrats.

MRS. GANDHI SENT TO JAIL

Given 6-Weeks' Sentence for Urging Villagers to Adopt Boycott Principles.

Bombay, India, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Mrs. Mohandas K. Gandhi, who is almost as great an idol among India's unlettered multitudes as the Mahatma himself, was sentenced today at Surat to serve six weeks in prison for urging the villagers to adopt her husband's principles of boycott and civil disobedience.

She was arrested several days ago. When her husband went to jail she asked the policeman who took him to let her go along, but they left her behind with a warning not to engage in any activity which would bring her afoul of the law.

Sentences of two years at hard labor were imposed this afternoon on two other leaders of the Nationalist movement. Both are pathans, and one of them, Abdul Guffar Khan, sometimes called the "frontier Gandhi," told the magistrate who sentenced him that prison terms and criminal charges would get the government nowhere.

Police in Madras dropped their rifles and sticks today and turned a fire hose on a crowd of Nationalist pickets. It had little effect, for the pickets changed to raincoats or bathing suits and without the stream.

As they led Mrs. Gandhi away after sentence had been imposed, she suddenly broke her silence.

Bank Re-Opens at Mount Olive

Mount Olive, Jan. 15.—(AP)—The First National Bank reopened here today and T. R. Thielen, president, said deposits and new accounts predominated over withdrawals.

Mount Olive had been without banking facilities since the two banks closed in December.

Deny Mellon Had Part In Huge Loan To Colombia

Washington, Jan. 15.—(AP)—An emphatic denial that Andrew Mellon had any connection with a loan to Colombia was put before a House committee today in his behalf.

It was voiced by Alexander H. Gregg in replying for the secretary to the impeachment proceedings brought by Representative Patman of Texas. Gregg read to the judiciary committee a statement dictated by Mellon.

Will Arrest Auto Owners Without Tags

Raleigh, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Motorists operating automobiles in North Carolina today which do not bear 1932 license tags "are subject to arrest," E. B. Jeffers, chairman of the state highway commission, said this morning.

"The matter is out of my hands now," Mr. Jeffers said. "The law allowed no extension but we told highway patrolmen not to molest tardy license buyers. Now 15 days has passed and thousands of cars are still running without new licenses. Anybody that takes an unlicensed machine or one with a 1931 license, on the highways from now on, does so at his own risk and is subject to arrest and indictment."

Warm Weather is Holding Sway In This Section

Floridians have nothing on this community from the standpoint of present weather conditions. Balm temperatures remind of springtime, which have played peek-a-boo with old man Winter the last several days, continued today to hold supremacy over the countryside and thousands of people literally basked in the warm rays of the sun and accompanying cool breezes.

It is the most unseasonable weather this community has experienced in years, and has temporarily held up hog killing which was conducted upon an extensive scale the first of the year.

B. T. Clark, local weather observer, gave the maximum temperature today as 81 with a minimum of 60. The mercury registered a high 78 and low 58 yesterday.

With the weather man predicting and Mrs. Byron Donaldson of New "colder weather on the way," local York citizens were taking every advantage of the unprecedented warm of New Bern, and a brother Dr. William Ward of Weldon.

Judge Ward Dies In Craven County

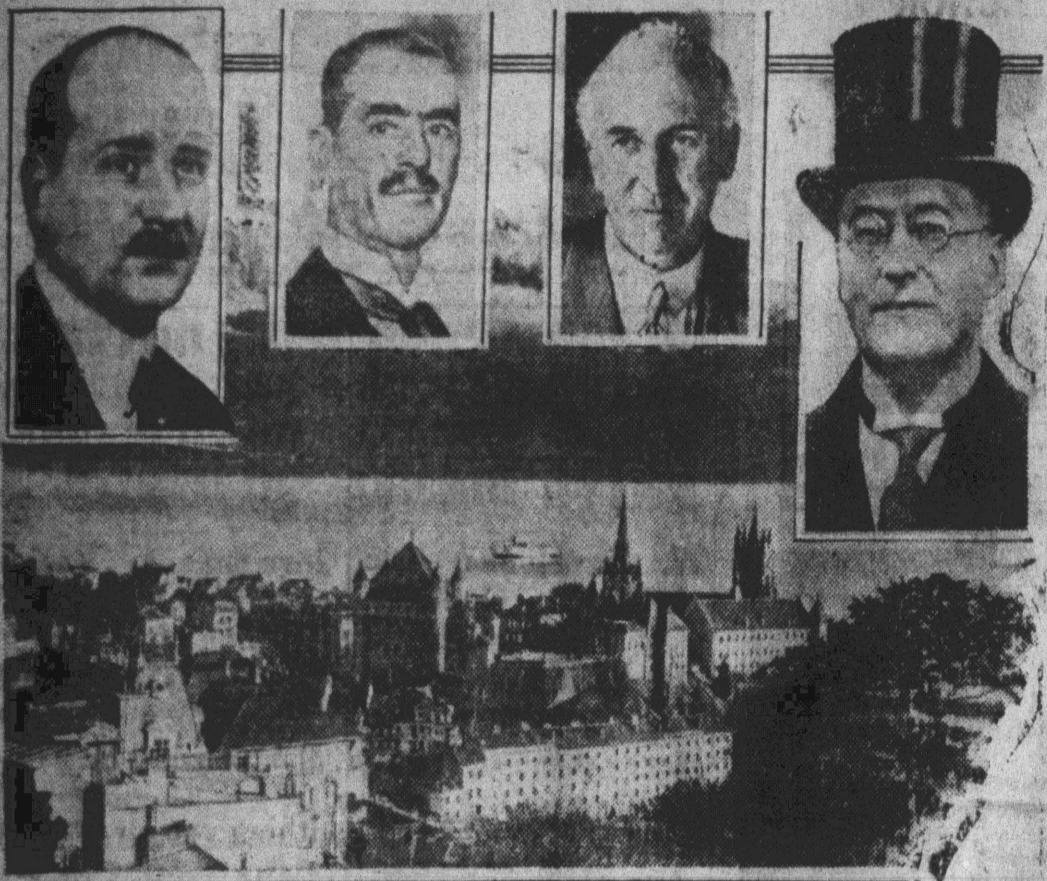

New Bern, Jan. 15.—(AP)—David Livingstone Ward, 72, former state senator and Superior Court judge, died at his home here last night after a sudden heart attack.

Death was not unexpected, for Mr. Ward, who was one of East Carolina's most prominent attorneys, had been confined to his bed for six weeks and his health had been gradually declining.

As state senator from this district, Mr. Ward was the author of the Ward prohibition bill which limited the sale of whiskey in North Carolina to towns having police protection.

SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS FOR A BOUQUET OF Poppies

Six hundred dollars is doubtless the highest price ever paid for a bunch of poppies or any other flower, but this is the sum that was brought by the poppy bouquet of Madame Gall-Curci at a banquet in London at an Armistice Day celebration for the disabled veterans.

The prima donna was in London, the society leaders were planning to launch their drive at this banquet. A committee approached Gall-Curci's manager and asked that she sing. This was something that seemed out of the question to her manager, as she has had to refuse most special requests. But she said she would sing one song on one condition—that those present must pay for the bouquet and then she would give the amount to the fund. She stepped forth to sing, waving her bouquet of poppies as a reminder of what was to follow, and then sang that lovely little Spanish flower-aria song, "Clave-Box." Wild enthusiasm followed. The first bid was sixty dollars, and then the re-sale began, until finally $600 was turned over to the fund.

This is only one of many stories of interest about the great singer who will give a concert at East Carolina Teachers College on the evening of January 25.

In what is expected to be one of the best games of the season, East Carolina Teachers College will play Atlantic Christian College Saturday night, January 16th. The game will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

The Teachers College boys lost a very close and exciting game to the Christians in Wilson Wednesday night. Since this game will be played on their home court, the winner may be the local collegians. This game is almost a toss-up.

Over 1,000 people attended the last home game and it is expected that even more will attend the contest Saturday night.

An added attraction will be two girls' teams playing for the championship of E. C. T. C. for the year 1931-1932. There will be no additional charge for this game, so you will be given a chance to see two games for the price of one.

eratic success and with condemnation of the conduct of national affairs under the present Republican administration.

At Chicago, J. J. Shouse, chairman of the national executive committee of the Democratic party, warned Democrats against the danger of over-confidence. Success that seems assured in January has been known to dissolve before November, he said.

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, was the principal speaker of the New York City victory dinner. He urged that Democrats conduct a campaign free from perjury, and he deplored the tendency to "blame all our present troubles on the president."

Shortly before the New York dinner, Gov. Roosevelt was endorsed as the party's candidate for president by the resolutions committee of the North Dakota state Democratic convention. His only comment was "well, well."

Another party leader, former Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, was given an ovation as he addressed New England Democrats at Boston. Like Gov. Roosevelt, he avoided committing himself on the question of whether he would be a candidate for the presidential nomination. At the end of his speech there came a voice which said "the party is going to draft you." This was greeted with a loud cheer. Mr. Smith stood as though about to reply, changed his mind and sat down.

The Smith address centered around an appeal to Democrats to abandon their policy of finding fault with Republicans and to launch a constructive program of their own.

Two Democratic Senators—Lewis of Illinois and Bulkley of Ohio—were victor ydinner speakers at Columbus, O. Each criticized the Republican administration.

along with all the other states and the lesser divisions of government within them, have been spoiled almost to their utter ruin by the ease and unrestraint with which they have been invited into New York banks for whatever funds may have been needed for temporary purposes.

"This restriction now placed upon them by the money centers will force them into a more harmonious adjustment between their current incomes and current expenditures. It is well for the commonwealth and its sub-divisions of government that somebody has had the temerity to tell us that a fool's paradise is no place in which prudent and intelligent people can permanently abide."

Raleigh News and Observer: "However distressing the present situation may be and the governor's frank avowal last night is enough to give sober citizens pause. There ought to be a degree of compensation in the thorough analysis of government and its functions it compels."

Winston-Salem Journal: The announcement of Governor Gardner that there will be no more highway construction in North Carolina until the present financial stress in the state treasury is relieved is good news to the taxpayers. All of the new projects can wait, and it is far better for the people as a whole that they should wait than for the credit of the state to be jeopardized."

WEST IN GRIP OF COLD WAVE

Canada was a contradiction of reasons, with sub-zero cold in the western province and temperatures in the 60's in Ontario and even in the maritime provinces.

A storm which increased the Sierra Nevada Mountain snow pack to the highest point in history, blocked highways hindered shipping and damaged communication lines in California left its imprint on the west coast.

Traffic accidents in which two persons were killed were attributed to the weather. Sacramento was plunged in darkness when a gale blew down part of a ball park grandstand, severing high tension wires.

Weather observers at Summit, Calif., estimated the mountain snow pack there to be well over 130 inches. A 14 foot wave disabled a ferry boat on San Francisco Bay. It was towed to safety.

Below freezing temperatures were reported in several fruit growing sections of Southern California. Growers, however used smudge pots and the damage by frost was believed to be small.

TEN KILLED BY TORNA DO

Burg, Tenn. Eight members of the family were killed almost instantly when the tornado shattered their home.

Small telephone lines prevented complete reports of the storm's damage but it was understood that at least 11 or 12 buildings in or near the Lexington and Estor communities had been destroyed.

The home of Joe Webb, farmer living near Estor, was moved 20 feet and his barn torn away. A number of houses were reported demolished in a negro community between Lexington and Estor.

From there the twister swept on to near Lexington where neighbors of the Rice family saw the tornado's funnel dip down and rip the home to pieces.

The dead and injured were picked up over a radius of several hundred yards among parts of the house, one child was blown so far his body was not found for several hours.

A home and barn belonging to Clarence Turner, neighbor, were destroyed but the family saved itself by running out of the path of the twister just as it swept their buildings into a jumble of boards.

Rice told nurses he saw the black cloud sweeping toward his house and that when he ran inside with a warning, members of the family jammed themselves against the doors to hold them against the wind

SYNOPSIS: Although Thiry Preston will not admit that she knows her father and her brother, Ash, are cattle thieves, Trueman Rock knows that her knowledge prevents her from loving him freely. He tries to force her admission hoping to work with her in stopping the rustling. Ash promises a difficult struggle.

Chapter 41 CATTLE THIEVES

"Yes. And you understand," he replied sharply. "I do not." "Thiry darling, I can forgive your falsehood to all except me."

"What!" she cried, pride and fear in one gasp. "It did not take much of a pull to get her into his arms, and in another moment he had her helpless, lifting her from the ground, her face close under his."

"Thiry, don't you love me a very little?" he asked, deep tenderness thrilling in his voice. "No! . . . Oh, let me go!" she implored.

"Be honest." "I can't be. I'm such a liar." "Thiry, I love you so wonderfully. Every since that minute you stepped in Winter's store. . . Didn't you like me then—or afterward?"

"I suppose I did. But what's the use of talk of it. . . You're holding me in a—a—most shameful manner. . . Let me go."

"Reckon I'll hold you this way a long time. . . Till you say you love me a little." She essayed to free herself, but her strength fell far short of her spirit.

"Then you'll hold me until daylight—when Ash will see you." "Well, say a little short of daylight. Reckon I can get along with that for a while."

"Oh—please!—please! . . . Trueman, this is outrageous!" "It sure is. Most as outrageous as your deceiving me!"

"How have I deceived you?" she demanded, vibrating to that. "For one thing—carin' about me little. You do, don't you, Thiry?" "Care about you? I suppose I—I—else I couldn't have been such a fool as to go to that dance. But what's carin'?"

"Well, I reckon that depends on what you mean by care. I'm arguin' you love me a little bit. Sure I've prayed enough for it."

"You pray! You're a fine Christian," she retorted, scornfully. "Christian or not, I've sure prayed you'd love me."

"Then your prayers have been un-answered—as mine have been," she said, in mockery. "Thiry, I must make sure."

"How?" "Reckon first off I'll kiss you a couple of thousand times and see if I can tell by that."

"You wouldn't dare!" "Wouldn't I, though. Sure I'm a reckless cowboy. Now watch me!"

"There!" he whispered, and drew her head back on his shoulder so her face would be upturned. To his piercing eyes the darkness was as if it were not. "Sure they were only worshipful kisses. . . Do you hate me for them?"

"I couldn't hate you. . . Please let that go. Let me go—before it's too late. . . Trueman, I beg of you."

"It is too late, Thiry, for both of us," he whispered, passionately, and he kissed her lips—and then again, with all the longing that consumed him.

"Now will you confess you love me—a little?" he asked, huskily. "Oh God help me—I do—I do!" she cried, and her eyes seemed deep accusing gulfs.

"More than a little? Thiry, I didn't expect much. Sure I don't deserve it. . . But tell me." "Yes, more." And she twisted to hide her face, while her left arm slowly crept up his shoulder, and went half round his neck. "That's what was the matter with me."

"When did you know?" he asked, amazed in his incredulity. "Just now. . . But I knew there was something wrong before."

"Thiry, bless you!—If this's not a one-sided affair, kiss me." "No—no. . . If I give up—we're ruined," she whispered, tragically. "Sure we're ruined if you don't. So let's have the kisses anyhow."

fund to carry on the campaign for the presidential election next November. Mr. Hooks, chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Executive committee, stated his organization had been completed and he felt sure Pitt county people would respond liberally to the party's call for aid.

The success of the campaign depends largely upon the kind of support given throughout all communities, and the chairman stressed the importance of everybody doing his part. Any contribution, however small, will be accepted, he said, and names of contributors will be published in the columns of the various newspapers of the county.

"I fully believe the election of a Democratic president and Congress would be the signal for economic readjustment and a return to those principles enunciated by our forefathers, Mr. Hooks declared. His statement is set forth below: To the Voters of Pitt County:

Having accepted the position of chairman of the "Victory Fund Committee" for Pitt County, I am making this my first appeal to the good men and women Democrats of Pitt county. The purpose of this Victory Fund Committee is to collect money to pay off the present indebtedness of the Democratic Party and aid in the election of a Democratic president and Congress.

The Victory Fund Organization has as its head, Hon. Jno. W. Davis of New York, Democratic Presidential candidate in 1924. It is backed and endorsed by every Democratic Senator and Representative in the Congress of the United States, also every Democratic Governor in the nation. It is a worthy organization sponsored by worthy men and women.

I know our people are now passing through an unprecedented era of economic depression, and money is scarce, however inasmuch as the return to normal conditions depends much on the election of a Democratic President and Congress, and inasmuch as it takes money to run and conduct a campaign I feel there are many men and women in Pitt county who will be glad of an opportunity to contribute something to help finance the 1932 campaign.

Remember any contribution, however small, will be accepted and appreciated. There are many thousand Democrats in Pitt county and if one thousand of these would contribute $1.00 each, it would be a great help to the National Committee. Not only would it aid in conducting a successful campaign, but I fully believe the election of a Democratic president and a Democratic Congress would be the signal for an economic readjustment and a return to those principles enunciated by our forefathers.

Every gift will be acknowledged with an attractive certificate, enrolling the contributor as a supporting member of The Victory Fund Legion of the Democratic Party. "For a Democratic Victory in 1932." Prepare now. Give Now. Join the Victory Fund Legion. The names of all who

ABOUT TOWN

The epidemic of gas thefts in this city the last several days has caused no little worry and expense to automobile owners, and many an automobile will hereafter be put under lock and key in an effort to reduce such loss.

The loss of from five to ten gallons of gas a night is no small consideration to the average car owner, and that those affected will do everything possible to relieve themselves of such an expense goes without saying.

Thieves are adopting every method they can to increase their earnings and the draining of gas from automobile tanks is one of the latest schemes, although by no means a new one.

Police no doubt will be called into service to round up the culprits and thereby save automobile owners the unpleasant sensation of going to their garages in the morning to find tanks empty with just enough gas left to enable them to get to a nearby gas station.

The House had the sorely pressed farmers of this country in mind when it tacked an amendment to the $2,000,000,000 reconstruction measure providing $200,000,000 for farm loans.

The Senate previously had provided $50,000,000 for this purpose and just what the outcome will be remains to be seen.

Of all the hard-pressed people in the world at this time it is probably the farmer is the most seriously affected. With the value of his products cut almost half in two the last two years, and with monumental losses staring him in the face, his future is as blue as indigo at this time, although he is far from giving up.

What he needs to give him a new lease on life is more attention from the government, and if the House is able to put its amendment through the Senate, that $200,000,000 would go a long way toward relieving some of the strain if properly distributed.

Other branches of industry are badly in need of money to keep the old wheel of industry revolving, but the farmer, who since time immemorial has been termed the "backbone of the country," must be refinanced if he is to continue to feed a hungry world.

Jouett Shouse, chairman of the Democratic executive committee, sees the need of $1,500,000 for creation of a war chest for the Democratic party during the forthcoming election.

He would take $1,000,000 and settle all old debts, and then turn over $500,000 to the national committee immediately after the Chicago convention and tell them to go to it.

My "going to it" he means to go out and get sufficient votes to enable the party to regain power, and since that is a man's job all of the best talent in various parts of the country will be drafted for active service.

It is believed Democratic chances of victory are brighter than in years by reason of the unprecedented economic conditions existing at this time. While the trouble cannot be attributed to any single cause, it is believed the high tariff wall is one of the principal reasons, and that if lowered, conditions would improve. As long as the Republicans remain in power, however, there is little chance of lowering the tariff, and realizing the fact, Democrats spotting the "nigger in the woodpile" will do their best to carry the election and then attempt to put Old Man Depression on the run.

With North Dakota registration laws forcing the issue, candidates for the Presidency will fling their hats into the ring with great vigor during the next few months, and by the approach of the election the country ought to have a sufficient amount of timber from which to select a winner without waiting on a black horse to flit across the stage.

Virginia added her voice to the cause yesterday when the Legislature endorsed Governor Harry Flood Byrd for the office. No doubt he is a good man, a true representa-

tative of Democracy, but whether he will stand any show against other stalwarts who will appear at the convention at Chicago is purely problematical at this time.

Supporting the Operetta
Those who are striving to make the operetta "Once in a Blue Moon" a success need the earnest support of everyone in school. The operetta coaches, the leads, the choruses, the advertisers—everyone who is connected with this performance has put forth much effort, to make it as nearly perfect as possible. Surely we, who have no direct connection with the operetta, might spread the news to our friends and families that the glee clubs of Greenville high school are putting on a play which will interest and delight them. And now that tickets are on sale, each of us should take some and sell them to our friends and acquaintances. The glee clubs need our help, and will appreciate this effort to put across one of the year's most important projects.

Let's all be present Monday evening when the curtain rises on "Once in a Blue Moon" at eight o'clock in the high school auditorium. Let's bring a friend with us. Let's do our part in helping to put the operetta over in a BIG WAY!

Elizabeth Musselwhite—11 "LAW AND ORDER DAY" PROGRAM PRESENTED

This morning at the regular chapel period, an interesting and beneficial program was presented under the capable direction of Miss Rachel Scarborough. The program was on "Law Observance", and celebrated national "Law and Order Day".

After "America the Beautiful", sung by the student body, the scripture reading, Psalm 1, was given by Tom Wilson; and a prayer was read by James Dees. Justian's principles of law were given by Artemisa Harris, and were summed up as follows: (1) That we should live honestly, (2) That we should hurt nobody, and (3) That we should give everyone his due. How these principles were illustrated in the lives of famous Americans born this month came next. Elizabeth Carr spoke on Lee; Janice McGowan on Stonewall Jackson; and Inez Allen on Hamilton.

Catherine Tyson made a very practical talk on "How Law Observance Promotes the Welfare of All"; and Louis Skinner, Jr., spoke on "How the Observance of Natural Laws of Health Promotes the Welfare of All". The program closed with the singing of "America".

This was the first of a series of character education programs which will be presented during the year; and the standard set by the "Law and Order" program gives promise of other excellent ones. The next program will be on "Sportsmanship", and will be in charge of Mr. Porter.

"ONCE IN A BLUE MOON" TO BE PRESENTED MONDAY

"Once in a Blue Moon", musical romance in a prologue and three acts will be presented Monday evening, January 18, at eight o'clock at the high school auditorium.

Practices for this rollicking romance have been in progress for about two months, and dress rehearsal on Thursday evening proved decidedly that leads and choruses know their lines and songs well nigh to perfection.

The two leading roles are played by Lucy James as Sylvia, and Dan Wright as George Taylor. They, plus a strong supporting cast, gave the directors to recommend this year's operetta as one of the best ever produced by high school talent.

A synopsis of the story follows: "After an absence of four years at college, Bob Harrington is expected to return to the home of his foster aunt, Mrs. Mary Montgomery, whose daughter Sylvia was his boyhood sweetheart. Having fallen in love with another girl at college, he sends his chum George Taylor, who closely resembles him, to substitute for him at the week-end party. George has always been anxious to meet Sylvia, whose picture greatly attracts him. He arrives amid preparations for a Spanish fiesta and finds Sylvia more charming than his photograph.

"Unexpected guests in the person of Sir Percival Chetwood and M. Le Mon arrive and are welcomed as distinguished noblemen by Mrs. Montgomery, and invited to remain for the festivities. That night while the guests are dancing, a robbery takes place and suspicion is turned on George, who is forced to disclose his identity. Things look dark for him until the guilty parties are brought to justice. A telegram from the real "Bob" announcing his marriage leaves George free to finish the story in the approved fashion."

Within the operetta are twenty musical numbers. "In My Garden", "Orange Blossoms", "Love Song of the Andes", and "Blue Moon" are among the favorites. Several peppy numbers, along with snappy dialogue, make the operetta a spirit ed one from beginning to end.

Elizabeth Carr and Carolyn Hamrick will be featured as Spanish dancers in the second act. Colorful costumes, snappy dances lighting effects, and lively choruses lend the zest which promises to make "Once in a Blue Moon" a favorite among local school patrons.

Directors for the operetta are Miss Ona Shindler, Mrs. Bessie Picklesimer, and Miss Mary Ellen Powell.

Proceeds from the performance will be used in financing Greenville's participation in the spring musical festival held at Greensboro each spring for all North Carolina high schools.

"Once in a Blue Moon"

The operetta, "Once in a Blue Moon", which was presented in a matinee performance this afternoon, and which will be given again Monday evening, January 18, at 8 o'clock, in the high school auditorium, depends to a large extent on the splendid choruses for its success. About fifty people participate in the four main choruses.

Seven of the twenty musical numbers are done or assisted by the main chorus, including, Leola Cahoon, Minnie Bell Craft, Mary Hoover Boyd, Lynette Dixon, Eva Moyer Fleming, Ada Hearne, Mildred Herring, Naomi Gaskins, Julia Jones, Olympia Jones, Maggie Parker, Isabel Whitehurst, Moya Dail, Preston Smith, James Savage, Stanley Seagr, Ben Herring, Ernest Clark, Norman Warren, and D. T. Beaman.

The home town chorus is composed of Martha Scoville, Margaret Register, Imogene Ricks, Ruby House, Rose Gurganus Lillie Williams, Alice Lee Keel and Dorothy Butner.

The burglars' chorus: Sarah Butterton, Thelma Corbett, Helen Edwards, Helen Johnson, Helen Phelps, Anna Mae Holliday, Florence Moyer, Louise Tadlock, Tolle Williams, and Pattie Whitehurst.

The reporters' chorus: Doris Crawford, Carolyn Hamrick, Nancy Nesbit, Mary Rachel Teel, Martha Scoville, Mary Emma Clark, Thelma Jones, Edna Hamilton, and Frances Woolard.

Thirty New Books
During the past week the Greenville high school library acquired about thirty new books. These books are to replace books which have been lost or completely worn out by use.

According to Mr. Luther Herring, librarian, the library now has about 1500 volumes, including periodicals. It is serving a most decided need in the school. Dictionaries, encyclopedias, reference books, periodicals—these are used continually. The library has a circulation of over fifty books per day, besides being used for six periods during the day.

Debating Work Progresses

At the second meeting of the debating club, which was held Thursday, at the home room period, those trying out for the triangular debating teams discussed both sides of this year's query: Resolved, That the United States should adopt a system of compulsory unemployment insurance. This discussion was strictly informal and served primarily to clarify the question.

The coaches for this year's teams are Mr. V. M. Mulholland, Miss Clem Bridges, and Miss Mary Ellen Powell. First speeches will be written soon, and members of the teams selected.

Girl Team Defeated by New Bern

On Friday evening, January 8, the Greenville girls' basketball team lost its first conference game of the season to New Bern, at New Bern, 36-18.

Captain Stevenson was high scorer for New Bern, while Bloxton was high for the locals.

The line up for Greenville was: Bostic, Horne (c), Bloxton, Cox, Gaston, Hooker. Substitutes: Whitehurst and Cahoon.

The next game will be played at Wilson, January 22.

New Bern Boys Win

Friday evening, January 8, the New Bern "Cardinals" touched the Greenville eagles for a victory of 40-24. The game took place in the high school gym at 8 o'clock.

Everheart and Odum starred for New Bern, while Blount and Woolard played best for Greenville.

The night seemed to be one of Greenville's off-nights. Several of the best players were sent to the showers early for fouling. On the other hand, New Bern lost because of fouling shortly after Greenville.

The locals meet Roanoke here at 8 o'clock tonight.

The idea of coaching junior teams in basketball was suggested recently at a meeting of girls' coaches. In view of this suggestion, Miss Evelyn Smith, girls' physical instructor in high school, has formed a sophomore team.

Already this team gives promise of a bright future. Splendid material is in the making, in spite of such a brief time for practice.

Six games have been scheduled for the sophs, and it is expected that these will furnish plenty of interest.

Ruth Horne—11

High School Lingo

John Blanchard may not be a victim of "flat feet," but he's a good detective in the operetta, "Once in a Blue Moon."

The debating club held its first "pow wow" Wednesday during home period.

Isabel seems to be in need of a compass carrier. A few more wounds inflicted by this deadly weapon, the compass, may prove fatal. Watch out for "geometry poison," Isabel.

Dear Mr. Slay:

I am enclosing a check for fourteen dollars and thirty-seven cents ($14.37), which I wish to contribute to the junior-senior banquet fund. I sincerely hope that the banquet will be a great success, and am showing my interest by this slight contribution.

As I wish to remain an anonymous contributor, I am leaving the check unsigned as well as the letter.

Things We'd Like to Know

Who stepped on Billy Morton during recess?
Where did Matt Rawls get his name?
Why didn't Mr. Ferguson let boys enter his beauty contest?
Who swiped my spare tire at the basketball game Friday?
Why do so many boys go to see Hill Horne, Jr.?
Did anyone see Paul Fitzgerald wearing his uniform?
Does Billy Morton still use perfume?
I wonder if all the girls at E. C. T. C. will fall for me as they do for Billy Nesbit?
Why does everyone think "Mac" is George Willard?
Why do I pick on Joe Gaston?
Where are the G. H. S. spirits?
Is Cliff Madrin a night watchman?

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of three to six points on a further demand from the trade coupled with steadier cables and reports of light offering from the south. March sold at 6.74.

House with far eastern and European connections were among the early buyers but the advance to 6.74 for March and 7.07 for July met considerable resistance and there also seemed to be a little more southern selling after the call. This supported the initial demand and prices eased off a few points. It appeared however, that there were buying orders in the market around the 10 cent level for July contracts.

At the end of the first half hour, the market was about steady within a point or two of yesterday's closing quotations with July selling around 7.01. Liverpool cables reported Bombay liquidation and selling on the improvement in sterling, but said Manchester was more cheerful with an improved cloth demand from China.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Jan. 15.—(AP)—The stock market resisted pressure of profit taking during the early trading today, and turned upward again after midday.

Considerable selling came into the market during the morning, reflecting uneasiness in some broker age circles over the delays in the wage negotiations at Chicago, but the early losses of 1 to 3 points were partially regained in the afternoon recovery.

New York Central failed to follow the decline, and registered a 1-point advance when the market turned upward. Shorts were pressed a little in Auburn and Case, which came up about 2 points. U. S. Steel and American Telephone recovered after sagging a point or two. Union Pacific sold off 3 points at one time, and issues getting down 1 to 2 included Santa Fe, Chesapeake and Ohio, Southern Pacific, Baltimore and Ohio, American Gas, American Tobacco B, Allied Chemical, DuPont and others.

maintained confident of successful conclusion of the negotiations for a 10 per cent railway wage reduction, despite rumors of disagreement among the railroads, and a hitch in the proceedings.

Money rates continued to ease today, with dealers making another cut of 1-8 of one per cent in bankers acceptance rates.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Stimulated by an uptick in Wall Street securities, the grain markets scored an advance late today.

Purchases on standard orders were a feature of the dealings near the finish. A rise of about a cent a bushel was witnessed in wheat, compared with the day's low point.

Wheat closed firm, 1-4-5-8 up, corn and oats each 1-8-3-8 up, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents off.

Charge N. Y. Bank With "Breaking" S. C. Institution

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 15.—(AP)—The Chemical Bank and Trust Co. of New York, and Jerre L. Dowling, of New York, are accused of "breaking" the Peoples State Bank of South Carolina in a $10,000,000 suit filed in Charleston.

The Peoples State Bank, with approximately $24,000,000 on deposit, closed its doors in South Carolina January 2.

Some Oddities of Wintertime

(By the Associated Press)
Tis winter? Tush, tush!
Mid-January—midwinter, and yet Beechmont to work at High Point, N. C.
Cotton bloomed in South Carolina fields.
The boys went swimming near Auburn, N. Y.

Dandelions yellowed the Boston scene.
Bass were biting in Lake Chautauque, N. Y.
Uniontown, Pa., had a baseball game.
Sap flowed from midwestern maples.
And in Elko, Nevada, it was 35 degrees below zero!

ECONOMISTS AGREE ON PROGRAM FOR RESTORING BUSINESS IN AMERICA

Warren M. Persons, prominent economist, in an exclusive interview with the Associated Press today, said the program has been endorsed by trade associations, congressmen, government economists, farm organizations, and prominent individuals. Its success, he said, depended upon wide co-operation of important interests, particularly industrialists and bankers, and that it seemed assured.

Their program is relatively simple, and Dr. Persons explained, represents the least common denominator of effective platforms upon which agreement seemed possible.

They start out from these four general conclusions:

- "1—Through some important adjustments of various elements of cost and overhead remain to be made, the general contraction of credit and deflation of prices have gone far enough.
 - "2—The United States can have substantial business recovery without waiting for a solution of European difficulties.
 - "3—Recovery is possible, on a sound money basis without recourse to monetary panaceas, but—
 - "4—The depression will not cure itself, and requires prompt, intelligent, and vigorous action."
- Then the economists recommend the four following steps:
- "1—The enactment of the bill establishing the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to deal more effectively with emergency situations.
 - "2—Proper economy in municipal, state, and national budgets, an increased taxation.
 - "3—A liberal Federal Reserve policy, designed to check credit contraction and encourage some expansion;

"4—A commercial banking policy co-operating with the reserve banks in checking credit increases and encouraging increases, including:
"(a) An increase in sound investments.
"(b) Cooperation in aiding necessary treasury financing.
"(c) Borrowing from Federal Reserve Banks when necessary to meet these and other sound needs"

They express the conviction that prosecution of these policies is sound, involves no important risks, and should exert powerful pressure toward these four ends:

- "1—Stopping the downward trend of prices.
 - "2—Restoring the normal value of securities, and
 - "3—Starting the beginning of business recovery."
- Economists and others in the action taken, Dr. Persons explained, will offer their services "in a non-partisan and disinterested movement to defeat further economic suffering and destruction, but other interests, particularly industrialists and bankers, must be relied upon to make any program effective."

"Sure, Sailor.. I used to Roll my Own"

THEY TASTE BETTER... THEY'RE PURE...
THEY'RE MILDER... They Satisfy

"I CARRIED the makin's for years. Got so I could roll 'em single-handed. But there's no real economy in it. 'The way I figure is this: A fellow don't spend so much on himself but what he can afford to enjoy the best in smokes."
"Myself... I smoke Chesterfields. They cured me of rollin' my own. First off, you get better tobacco."
"I'm not knockin' the makin's... but it stands to reason Chesterfields wouldn't be where they are today if they didn't give you the finest tobacco. I like their aroma."
"Plenty of Turkish in Chesterfields... and you don't get that in the makin's."

And there must be something about the blend, too... you can't get a milder, better taste... not anywhere!
"Got a right good opinion of myself, but I don't figure I'm as clever as those cigarette-making machines. Every single Chesterfield is round and filled right... beats anything you can roll yourself. Besides, it smokes cooler and lasts longer. I've tried both, so I know."

Nothing amateurish about Chesterfield's Radio Program, either! Nat Shilkret's Orchestra and Alex Gray, popular soloist, entertain you every night except Sunday, at 10:30 Eastern Standard Time, on the Columbia Coast-to-Coast Network.
