CHINESE DECLARE WAR

U.S. Fleet Ordered to Protect Nationals in China

WARSHIPS TO STAND BY FOR QUICK ACTION

United States and Britain Formally Protest Occupation of Shanghai by Japan.

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP)—On the heels of vigorous protest by the United States and Great Britain against the Japanese seizure of Shanghai, the navy today ordered its Asiatic fleet to stand ready to protect American lives in strife-torn China.

"Our fleet," Admiral William V. Pratt said, "will be ready to evacuate our nationals or to protect them if a crisis arises where mob rule prevails."

"Our forces will go in and take whatever steps are necessary to protect our people."

He pointed out there are a large number of women and children in China.

He also said that the ships of the battle force will leave San Diego Monday for winter maneuvers off Hawaii as scheduled, but will not go beyond those islands at present.

Eight destroyers are now being prepared at Manila to leave at a moment's notice, but no specific orders have yet been issued for departure. Four are now enroute from there to Shanghai.

In the strongest move since the horror of battle has strangled normal life in Shanghai, the United States and Great Britain applied their protest to the Japanese occupation of the native city of Chapel.

It was on the basis of reports received from the American consul at Shanghai, Edwin S. Cunningham, to the effect that Japan after the Chinese had agreed to Japan's demands—had taken sections of the native city by military force.

The State Department had before it a general summary of the situation, as it applied to the international settlement, handed to Cunningham by the municipal council of Shanghai.

The decisive stand by this country and Great Britain went much further than earlier representations which were based only on the safety of foreign citizens and property in the international settlement.

In reply to those representations, Secretary Stimson announced yesterday, the Japanese gave strict assurance that rights of foreigners would be respected.

This assurance was repeated this morning to Stimson by Ambassador Demmei, of Japan, but an hour or so before announcement was made of the latest protests to Japan.

The summary forwarded by Cunningham to the State Department may be the basis of further protests to Rapan by the United States and Great Britain, it contains a general protest "against the violation of a neutrality of the international settlement."

In a second point the municipal council protested to the foreign consuls at Shanghai against the settlement being used as a base of operations by the Japanese against the Chinese.

It protested against interference by and the sending of Japanese troops into parts of the international settlement; as side under the settlement defense plan for other nations to defend.

It specifically mentioned Japanese troops being sent to sections assigned to American marines for protection and to the sections bounded by Honan Road, Range Road, and Hongjiew creek.

Woman Freed

Mrs. Catherine Harper, charged with the murder of Charles Holton, automobile man of High Point, was freed at Greensboro today by order of Judge John M. Oglesby, presiding at the trial.

MRS. HARPER IS SET FREE

Woman Given Liberty by Court in Midst of Murder Trial at Greensboro.

Greensboro, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Terry H. Harper, on trial for murder of Charles O. Holton, High Point automobile man, took the stand today and testified he killed him in self-defense.

Mrs. Harper, who also was indicted for murder and went on trial jointly with her husband, earlier had been freed by a directed verdict of not guilty from Judge John M. Oglesby.

Harper told his story of shooting Holton to death in the Harper home last December 23 calmly and with little display of emotion.

He came into his home that night, he said, and found Holton in the living room. As soon as Holton saw him, he continued, he jumped up and ran toward a table where a pistol was lying.

"I thought he was going to kill me and I shot," said Harper, a shoe salesman, in climaxing his story.

Greensboro, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Judge John M. Oglesby today ordered a verdict of not guilty in the case of Mrs. Catherine Harper, charged with murder of Charles O. Holton, automobile man of High Point.

Her husband, Terry H. Harper, continued on trial alone. He is accused of shooting Holton to death. (Continued on Page Four)

However, he followed this report with a message today that the prisoners at the suggestion of their attorney. (Continued on Page Four)

U. S. Marines Seize 14 Japs

Shanghai, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The United States marines guarding the international settlement tonight picked up 14 Japanese in civilian clothes who had invaded the American area.

All of them had pistols and some of them carried swords.

They were taken in two groups, the first after a marine sentry on patrol heard two shots whiz close to his head.

Some distance away he saw two groups of men running. He chased after them, firing in the air, and took them prisoner.

A few minutes later another group of eight, all heavily armed, were arrested in the same vicinity.

All the captives were turned over to the municipal police. When they were questioned at marine headquarters the captives said they had been sent into the American area by the Japanese naval authorities with orders to proceed to Japanese cotton mill near the American area for guard duty.

BATTLESHIP READY TO ACT

Shanghai Council Appeals to Britain and America to Protect Settlement.

Nanking, Jan. 30.—(AP)—American consular authorities here at 7 P. M. tonight ordered all American citizens to be ready to leave the city within two hours.

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The United States Government has one destroyer—the Simpson—at Nanking which would be available for the evacuation of Americans from that city. It carries 115 men and six officers and would be able to take about 100 civilians out of the area.

Shanghai, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The municipal council was reliably reported tonight to have appealed for American and British troops to protect the international settlement. The council handed United States Consul General Cunningham, the senior consul at Shanghai, a protest against the activities of armed Japanese forces within the settlement. (Continued on Page Four)

Funeral to be Conducted from Home Near Farmville Sunday Afternoon.

Mrs. Corn Edwards Moye, wife of A. J. Moye, died at her home about three miles from Farmville, at 2 o'clock this morning, following an attack of bronchial pneumonia of two weeks duration.

She had been in ill health for two years and death was not unexpected.

Says Japs Do Not Want To Fight Sizeable Power

Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 30.—(AP)—Japan does not want war with the United States or any other "sizeable" power, but has been forced by her desperate economic situation into aggressive action in China, Rear Admiral Edwin A. Anderson, veteran of many years service in the far east, said here.

The retired naval officer said the Japanese attack on Shanghai was a "complete surprise" to him, and expressed the opinion the Nipponese were driven into action by the boycott which has been slowly and surely strangling their Chinese trade.

Earlier military operations in Manchuria, which he described as among the most amazing in history, were forced on the Island Kingdom by the imperative necessity of controlling the railroad and raw materials of that rich province, threatened by ceaseless ravages of thousands of bandits, the admiral continued.

MARINES GUARD U. S. INTERESTS IN SHANGHAI

While Japanese troops occupied the Chinese quarter of Shanghai, United States marines in the international settlement prepared to defend American interests if fighting endangered the settlement. They put up barbed wire barricades along the settlement boundaries and were ready for any emergency. Here is a detachment of United States marines marching through one of Shanghai's main thoroughfares.

GRAND JURY FILES REPORT

Only One Recommendation Contained in Report Presented to Judge Cranmer.

Only one recommendation, and that seeking the repairing of screen doors and windows at the county home, was contained in the report which the new six months' grand jury filed with Judge E. H. Crammer in criminal court yesterday.

The jury was dismissed for the term immediately after the report had been presented.

The report stated the jurors had visited all county offices and had found them to be in splendid condition. Inspection trips to the jail, county home and convict camp revealed the existence of excellent conditions.

The jury saw fit to recommend J. O. Harris, superintendent of the county home, for his splendid upkeep of the property. Mr. Sellars was also praised for conditions of the convict camp.

The report in detail follows: "We, the Grand Jury for this term of Court beg to submit the following report:

"We have passed on all bills and other matters presented to us except those in which we were unable to secure witnesses.

"We have visited the offices of the Sheriff, Clerk of Court, Register of Deeds, Auditor, Treasurer, Board of Health and other officials. (Continued on Page Four)

By F. I. LIPSEY, JR. RELIEF PLANS ARE ARRANGED

Community Organizations to Take Care of Needy Through-out Pitt County.

Community meetings have been held in every township in Pitt county, where the leadership among the farmers discussed matters of work relief. At these group meetings the farmers and business men have stated that they have raised sufficient food supplies to feed the people of their respective townships, except Bevoir township and a part of Falkland township.

The farmers have thought it best, after discussion in each meeting, to assist the tenant in trying to adjust themselves in the several communities so as to avoid such a general shift from one community to another. Only where special arrangements have been made, has it been deemed favorable for a man to move out of his community to another section.

Every township has a chairman and a representative committee covering the entire township. The main plan to be followed is to exchange labor for food. Following is a list of the township chairmen.

There is also a committee in each township working in conjunction with the various schools and there seems to be a splendid spirit of cooperation among the various people as they move along solving their problems. (Continued on Page Four)

Textile Worker Held for Murder

Lancaster, S. C., Jan. 30.—(AP)—Ben Humphries, cotton mill worker, was under a murder charge today because what he intended as a joke resulted fatally for Lonnie Roberts, a co-worker.

As Roberts leaned over a machine, Humphries directed a stream of compressed air at him. Roberts winced, and fell into the machine. A coroner's jury ordered Humphries held.

Raleigh had a high mark of 70 degrees and a low of 64 for the past twenty-four hours, Mr. Denison said. He predicted a temperature of 26 to 28 degrees tomorrow morning.

"It looks like it will be a fine time to bill bugs," Mr. Denison said. "It will be very cold for a couple of days."

GOVERNMENT TAKES ACTION AGAINST JAPS

High Officials Decide to Take Steps to Stop Advance of Japanese at Shanghai.

Shanghai, China, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The highest officials of the Chinese government, meeting at Nanking today, a dispatch to the Reuters News Agency from there said, decided to declare war on Japan.

The dispatch said the declaration itself was not issued, but that the decision was reached at a council of the government officials.

This decision was taken by the central executive committee of the Kuomintang, to which the National government itself is subordinate under the Chinese constitution.

Such a step was regarded here as of even more importance than appears on the surface, for a declaration of war would mean acceleration of the heavy troop movement from Nanking to Shanghai, and trainloads of soldiers ready are leaving Nanking continuously throughout the day and night for this area.

Foreign authorities here issued a declaration of war on a challenge to Japan which, they said, was more than sufficient, but even more significant, would mean a justification for the landing of Japanese troops anywhere in China, and the seizure of strategic points.

Nanking, Jan. 30.—(AP)—General Chiang Kai-Shek, former president of China, sent a telegram to the military commanders throughout the country today urging that preparations be taken to defend China and "to fight for her national existence."

Marshal Chiang Kai-Shek and several members of the government left Nanking this afternoon for an unrevealed destination but it was believed they had gone to Shanghai.

It was understood the government's decision to declare war on Japanese would not be made effective before tomorrow at the earliest. Trainloads of troops belonging to the Nineteenth Chinese army began leaving here for Shanghai as fast as possible tonight, sent off by rousing cheers from thousands of onlookers who carried banners inscribed: "Resist the Invaders!" "Hold Shanghai at all Cost."

In the meantime authorities were strengthened the defensive works of Nanking itself and troops were being rushed here from other points to replace those sent to Shanghai.

The government issued a vigorous statement denouncing the Japanese attack on Chapel and urging the signatories in the League covenant, the Kellogg Pact and the Nine-Power Treaty to take immediate and effective measures so that "justice and international obligations may not be trampled beneath the heel of Japanese militarism."

By MORRIS J. HARRIS Shanghai, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Surging with the wildest disorder, Shanghai tonight awaited with grave apprehension confirmation of reports from Nanking that the National government had decided to declare war on Japan.

Through the northern portion of the international settlement, still clouded by the smoke which swept over from the ruins of Chapel, hundreds of Japanese marines/plains clothes reservists and rowdy elements scoured the settlement in an orgy of lawlessness.

Every man of them carried a pistol in his hand, his finger on the trigger. They swarmed through the streets on foot and in automobiles, dashing through the winding alleys, searching in every corner for Chinese.

Japanese marines on motor cycles with side cars swept the streets with machine gunfire and there were gangs of Japanese civilians armed with clubs and baseball bats.

This menacing mob, mixed with thousands of Chinese refugees, riding in rickshaws, sniggering along afoot, all headed toward quieter sections.

ONCE IN A BLUE MOON Angel had the disposition her name implied, without being offensive or narrow-minded (as Goody was, for instance).

Angel could be a D. A. R. if she desired; and the fact that she didn't was soothing. Angel was the sister of a dead crack aviatrix, and the daughter of a drunken father.

Editors, art directors, presidents of advertising agencies, newspaper proprietors themselves in person, would beat upon the locked door pleading and bribing Mr. Thorn to come out on a cover for a magazine, or a sketch for a silk-stocking contract—just work for half a day and then go back!

These comprised the five couples that Hope had finally chosen for the destiny of that organization in a most commendable way.

He is a worthy successor to Jack Kilgo, manager of Liggett-Myers Tobacco Company, who for two years presided over the Board of Trade in a way that meant constant and uninterrupted progress.

The budget campaign committee is headed by Thomas Clifton, who has outlined an intensive drive in the hope of realizing the entire sum during the week the movement is in progress.

The organization has been greatly handicapped for funds for the past year, and by reason of that fact virtually all activities were curtailed in keeping with the amount of money available.

HIGH TEAMS WIN COUPLE OF CONTESTS

The basketball teams of Greenville high school covered themselves with glory last night when the boys' team defeated Kingston by a 21-17 score and the girls' team won from the Kingston girls by a 38-32 count.

In the boys game there was action from start to finish, with Greenville having the advantage throughout but never getting enough lead to ease up.

Florence, S. C., Jan. 30.—(AP)—The beating to death with an axe of a prohibition informer within 150 yards of a still he had a part in riding furnished a perplexing mystery today for county and federal authorities to solve.

Placed was radiant at a peak of his holiday efforts. The American skating-team for the Olympic winter games had its training headquarters there that year, and good old William O'Hare, the well-known coach, for no reason at all invited Papa Ross into the sanctuaries of under-current gossip.

Day after day, Hope played with a vigor and energy that worked or though had never called forth. Horseback riding, or skijoring behind Robon Hood, tobogganing on the dizzy slide along with the gang, and climbing the endless steps back again to the height of the starting place.

After destroying the liquor plant, the officers, J. C. Fairley, J. I. Worrell and J. E. Andrews, returned to Florence. They missed Kirven but said they supposed he already had returned to the city.

When Kirven failed to show up, they went back to look for him, but in the meantime a resident of the community had discovered his body. The head was battered in and a bloody axe was lying nearby.

Cold Increases Hardships Thru Flood Territory

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 30.—(AP)—Rain and cold weather created new dangers and hardships in the flooded lowlands of the lower Mississippi Valley today.

Two thousand men fought to hold the weakened levees at Monroe, Louisiana, against the rain-swollen Ouachita river and the northern part of the city was flooded.

National Guardsmen patrolled the levee tops and the entire town of West Monroe across the river was inundated.

The levee at Bosco, near Monroe, was abandoned as water washed over it and but half a dozen families of Brownville's 3,500 population remained in their homes.

Crichton, in northwest Louisiana, was evacuated and Coushatta was partly flooded by backwaters.

North of Shreveport, La., the Red river threatened to smash levees protecting East Point. Colfax, struck by high winds yesterday, also fought Red river overflows and the town was virtually waterbound.

Falling temperatures and a threatened freeze added to the worries of the refugees.

In Arkansas, the St. Francis river was at 88 feet within a few inches of the floors of homes in Northwest marked tree. Rises of the St. Francis, Tyronza and Little rivers were feared at St. Francis.

Jap Spokesman Scores League

Tokyo, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Spokesman for the Japanese war office said tonight the League of Nations council, "must bear a terrible responsibility if through its action a situation between China and Japan should develop" which would precipitate "a world conflagration."

His statement was made in reference to the invocation of articles ten and fifteen of the League covenant by W. W. Yen, Chinese Spokesman at the League of Nations council at Geneva.

The council adjourned its sitting at 2:15 P. M. after four hours of discussion. It was to meet again for consideration of the Chinese problem at a date to be determined later.

It was learned that Sir Eric Drummond, secretary of the league, had sent an invitation to the United States to participate in the Shanghai inquiry.

Durham.—(AP)—Edgar L. Davis, 63, was seriously injured when his buggy was struck by the automobile of Charles Mill, New York negro, who was held pending developments in Davis' condition.

"Lamentations of Orpheus," one of the dance numbers on the program by the Kreutzberg Dancers who will appear at East Carolina Teachers College on Monday evening, at 8:30 o'clock. Kreutzberg himself, the greatest dancer in the world today, and four girl dancers will appear in both solo and group dances.

COLD SWEEPS ACROSS U. S.

Rain, Snow and Sub-Zero Temperatures Reported in Many Parts of Country.

Kansas City, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Winter pressed its claim to attention today with rain, snow and sub-zero temperatures.

Rivers of the lower Mississippi Valley basin were swelled by heavy precipitation. A cloudburst caused the drowning of two persons at Ellettsburg, Ky., and the flooding of hundreds of acres of land.

Cold added to the suffering of flood refugees of Mississippi and Louisiana. The cold wave extended from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico. Temperatures as low as 24 below threatened livestock of western ranges. It was 44 below in Yukon Alaska.

Forecasters warned that the disturbance was due in the Atlantic seaboard states next. Zero temperatures threatened the unprotected winter wheat crop in Kansas.

Snow and cold struck the Pacific northwest last night. Rain fell in northern California. A heavy wind swept all the state. Fear was expressed for the safety of the eight occupants of a passenger plane long overdue at Los Angeles from Bakersfield, Calif.

Snowdrifts piled up in Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and the Dakotas. Train service and highway travel were interrupted. Drifts and a bitter wind hampered efforts of Red Cross workers to aid needy farmers in drought stricken northern Nebraska.

American Liner Rammed at N.Y.

New York, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Capt. George Fried, famous rescue skipper of the North Atlantic, experienced misfortune himself today. His temporary command, the United States liner President Roosevelt, was rammed as she lay at anchor in the harbor and a gaping hole torn in her side.

The other vessel, the Italian liner Roma, was groping to sea, in a dense fog, for a Mediterranean cruise when the accident occurred. She was laid up at quarantine for repairs to her bow and was expected to sail later in the day.

No one was injured but the crash, which occurred before dawn, aroused hundreds of passengers.

Fried, who got roaring welcomes here for his rescues of the crews of the Florida and Antiope, had anchored his vessel off quarantine early this morning, deciding against proceeding to his pier because of the fog. The Roma had 775 passengers and the Roosevelt 155.

When the American vessel arrived at her pier, passengers told of the collision, which splintered panning in a smoking room and damaged stewards' quarters.

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of four to six points on continued trade buying and covering promoted to steady cables. May sold at 6.88.

There was some Wall Street buying and covering and while trading was restricted pending further developments in the ar East, prices held steady after the call with March advancing to 6.73 and July to 7.06 or about 6 to 8 points net higher at the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables were somewhat irregular but showed a fairly steady tone on trade calling and covering, according to trade advices which said there was a fair cloth demand from India and that the proposed strike of cotton mill operatives in the Burnley district had been postponed, with a settlement expected. The amount of cotton on shipboard at U. S. Ports was estimated at 170,000 bales against 114,000 last year.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Heavy selling to realize profits drove wheat values downward in the late dealing today, and more than wiped out a preceding advance. There was also considerable selling of wheat against purchases of corn. Export demand for wheat from North America was disappointing, and consisted only of a little call for Canadian wheat at the Pacific coast. Grain table:

STOCK MARKET

By CLAUD A. JAGGER
(Associated Press Financial Editor)
New York, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Price movements in the securities market were narrow and hesitant today, and the stock market closed barely steady, with several of the prominent industrials slightly lower. The turnover approximated half a million shares for the short session. Speculators ready to grasp at a straw were enough impressed with vague talk of a "war boom" to bid up Atlas Powder and DuPont about a point. The cotton market also was a little firmer, and some connected with the fact that it is an important staple in munitions making.

DuPont was unable to maintain its gain, and closed up only a fraction net. The market had an interval of firmness, in sympathy with a strong opening of the wheat market, but eased off in the last few minutes, with General Electric again a heavy feature, sagging 3/4 of a point to a new low. This stock has been under pressure for a fortnight, apparently reflecting gloomy unofficial earnings estimates.

Fractional losses predominated at the finish, embracing such issues as American Telephone, Southern Pacific, Consolidated Gas, American Can, Westinghouse, Union Pacific, Radio and Chesapeake and Ohio. A gain of more than a point in Eastman was lost later. Soft spots were Western Union, off 1, and Auburn, off 3.

The cotton market closed up only 20 to 35 points, although increased buying from abroad occasioned considerable comment, as well as reports of a larger movement from gulf ports to Japan. The upturn in wheat was attributed largely to severely cold weather over certain areas in Canada and the west. In Foreign exchanges, the Japanese Yen hardened a little.

a covering Chinaman. Frequently they got in by breaking down the doors and usually they beat the unfortunate Chinese they found frequently they killed them.

As this wave of lawlessness swept over the Chinese business district all the shops were closed up and planks were nailed across the shop fronts. There were no lights inside and from the front the places looked deserted. Behind each one were dozens of frightened Chinese.

The Japanese circulated reports that Chinese snipers were picking off Japanese residents in the quarter and that it was imperative to root them out. If that was their purpose of job appeared to be done under no central authority but by individuals and gangs who were a law unto themselves.

One such gang, each member with a pistol in his hand, tried to break into St. Luke's hospital, operated by the American Episcopal Mission. They said snipers were in the building but hospital officials held them off and finally they left.

This wild disorder swept the few municipal policemen to the sidelines but now and then one could be seen half hidden in a doorway, looking on helplessly.

To neutral observers who watched, it appeared probable that nothing could prevent the disorder from sweeping into the Hongkong Chinese district and there was general belief that the vicious fighting which took place in Chapel would be repeated in Hongkong. In the center of this whirlpool stood one of Shanghai's leading hotels.

Chapel rapidly was becoming unfit even for battle. It was a furnace with great columns of smoke rising from the ruins of the ramshackle Chinese houses, as darkness fell the flames engulfed still more buildings and the sky was lurid for hours around.

Refugees struggling into the settlement said at least a thousand buildings already had been destroyed and the fire was still spreading unchecked.

Since a bomb from a Japanese plane started the first blaze on Thursday night, efforts to check its advance have been unavailing and the district tonight was an inferno, roaring in a serious threat to all of Shanghai.

Should the wind sweep the flame to the south it is possible that a wall of fire half a mile long will advance upon the international settlement and it is unlikely the settlement fire department could combat it.

Those who live along the border of the settlement were evacuating their homes and taking refuge at points further removed from Chapel.

Russis couldn't maintain even as much as a division in Manchuria without disrupting her "five year plan," he asserted "and hopes of communists are so wrapped up in this plan that there is no chance they will abandon it."

Japanese were looking for snipers and other Chinese whose actions were questionable, but it was not apparent by what standards they judged those actions.

a covering Chinaman. Frequently they got in by breaking down the doors and usually they beat the unfortunate Chinese they found frequently they killed them.

As this wave of lawlessness swept over the Chinese business district all the shops were closed up and planks were nailed across the shop fronts. There were no lights inside and from the front the places looked deserted. Behind each one were dozens of frightened Chinese.

The Japanese circulated reports that Chinese snipers were picking off Japanese residents in the quarter and that it was imperative to root them out. If that was their purpose of job appeared to be done under no central authority but by individuals and gangs who were a law unto themselves.

One such gang, each member with a pistol in his hand, tried to break into St. Luke's hospital, operated by the American Episcopal Mission. They said snipers were in the building but hospital officials held them off and finally they left.

This wild disorder swept the few municipal policemen to the sidelines but now and then one could be seen half hidden in a doorway, looking on helplessly.

To neutral observers who watched, it appeared probable that nothing could prevent the disorder from sweeping into the Hongkong Chinese district and there was general belief that the vicious fighting which took place in Chapel would be repeated in Hongkong. In the center of this whirlpool stood one of Shanghai's leading hotels.

Chapel rapidly was becoming unfit even for battle. It was a furnace with great columns of smoke rising from the ruins of the ramshackle Chinese houses, as darkness fell the flames engulfed still more buildings and the sky was lurid for hours around.

Refugees struggling into the settlement said at least a thousand buildings already had been destroyed and the fire was still spreading unchecked.

Since a bomb from a Japanese plane started the first blaze on Thursday night, efforts to check its advance have been unavailing and the district tonight was an inferno, roaring in a serious threat to all of Shanghai.

Should the wind sweep the flame to the south it is possible that a wall of fire half a mile long will advance upon the international settlement and it is unlikely the settlement fire department could combat it.

Those who live along the border of the settlement were evacuating their homes and taking refuge at points further removed from Chapel.

MADMAN SLAYS FAMILY OF SIX AND SETS HOME AFIRE

The possibility that he may have perished in the fire was discounted. He slept in the loft of a small house with Frank Sitar, eldest son of the family.

Those dead are: Martin Sitar and his wife, Sophie Frank, 20; Walter, 11; Bert, 10; and Jennie, 7.

A son, Paul, four years old, was taken alive from the burning dwelling, but his condition today was precarious. Mrs. Sitar, too, was alive when neighbors burst into the flaming structure and carried her out, but she died within a few minutes.

All had been stabbed and hacked about the head. The burned stocks of a shotgun and two rifles led to a theory that the victims may first have been shot.

MRS. HARPER IS SET FREE

in the Harper home on December 23.

Judge Oglesby freed Mrs. Harper after the defense lodged a motion for a non-suit of the case with respect to her when the state rested its case late yesterday. After holding the motion overnight under advisement the ruling was handed down when court convened this morning.

courtroom during yesterday's session, several cases were disposed of. Court continued hearing today and indications were that work would be completed during the afternoon.

John Louis Leary, colored, charged with participation in the illicit whiskey traffic, was sentenced to the roads for 15 months.

John Phillips, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was sent to the roads for 10 months.

R. L. Whitfield, Greenville man, charged with abandonment and non-support of his family, was found guilty after one of the greatest displays of legal pyrotechnics during this term of court. Justice Crammer did not pronounce sentence.

Bob Harris, charged with selling an 18-inch automobile wheel and representing it as 29-inches, was found guilty of the charge, and ordered to repay the amount involved in the transaction.

Court continued hearing this morning in the case against V. M. Rawls, of Kinston, salesman of Hooker Wholesale Company here, charged with embezzling approximately $800 from the firm. The case, started yesterday afternoon, was expected to be completed during the early afternoon hours.

ALLOW BOND IN SLAYING

torneys had again returned to jail.

"I think it in the interest of public safety," said Bingham, "that these prisoners be kept in jail."

Honolulu, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The navy having agreed to cooperate in keeping defendants in the Joseph Kahahawai slaying in this jurisdiction, civil authorities announced today they would permit the release of Mrs. Granville Fortesque, Lieut. Thomas H. Massie, E. J. Lord and A. O. Jones under bond.

Circuit Judge A. M. Cristy said Mrs. Fortesque's bail would be $5,000 and that for the three navy men $2,500 each.

The four were arraigned yesterday for the second degree murder of the young Hawaiian who was one of five youths charged with attacking Mrs. Fortesque's daughter, Mrs. Massie.

Apparently stirred by the navy's attitude in sending to Washington critical reports of court administration here, Judge Cristy asked the cooperation of the navy before fixing bonds. Lacking the cooperation, he said their bonds would be $50,000 each.

Secretary Adams of the Navy Department announced in Washington his approval of plans for the navy to cooperate.

The defendants must report daily to a probation officer.

Judge Cristy denied a defense motion to quash the indictment. The motion charged the court had coerced the grand jury into bringing in the bill of accusation and it did not represent the true findings of the inquisitorial body.

Judge Cristy and defense attorney, Montgomery Winn, engaged in several sharp verbal tiffs. The Judge told Winn he "was plainly incompetent" because he declined to give the sources of his information regarding grand jury deliberations. Winn said the jury on three occasions was ready to report a no bill, but the judge ordered further deliberations.

"It was the subject of conversation on the streets and at every dinner table, I dare say," Winn observed.

ment, charging violation of the neutrality of the area and asking Mr. Cunningham to bring the charge before the consular body with a view to forwarding the complaint to the respective government be concerned.

It also was said that the council had appealed to the American and British consuls for reinforcements to be made available without delay.

Members of the council said they had come to the conclusion that the settlement was in grave danger of attack by the Chinese because the Japanese are using it as a base of operations. Unless many more American and British troops are hurried to Shanghai that attack will come, they said.

The nearest American forces are at Tientsin and Manila. British troops are at Hong Kong.

STATE PUSHES JUDD HEARING

Will Attempt to Prevent Mistrial of the Charge Of Murder Against Woman.

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 30.—(AP)—The State of Arizona, having spent nearly $25,000 to date in the trial of Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd, will make every effort to prevent a mistrial because of illness of jurors, Judge Howard C. Speakman stated today.

No testimony has been given in the case since Wednesday when two men in the jury box were stricken by severe colds. Judge Speakman declared he would await recovery of the jurors "if it takes days, weeks or months."

Court has been recessed until Monday. Physicians of Joseph L. Standage, alternate juror, said he had developed "a pronounced case of intestinal influenza."

Mrs. Judd observed her 27th birthday in jail yesterday. Sheriff J. R. McDevall allowed her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Harvey J. McKinnell of Darlington, Ind., and her husband, Dr. W. C. Judd, Los Angeles physician, to visit her.

Mrs. Judd is on trial for the murder of Mrs. Agnes Anne LeRol. She is also accused of slaying Miss Hedvig Samuelson.

Gardner Takes Another Cut in His Salary, Said

Raleigh, Jan. 30.—(AP)—New salary scales for state employees released this afternoon revealed that Gov. O. Max Gardner has taken a new voluntary cut of 10 per cent.

The governor had previously taken a slice of the same percentage and hereafter will receive $5,700 annually instead of the $7,100 allowed by law.

Heads of several state departments, including the adjutant general, the state librarian, the director of veterans loans and the commissioner of public welfare could not be cut, Attorney General Dennis G. Brummitt advised the advisory budget commission.

Figures for the aggregate cut were not available but it was estimated the reduction would be about $63,000 monthly, or $750,000 annually.

Salaries of all individuals were made public. Where elective and appointive officers could not be cut their salaries were included.

Push Search for Missing Air Liner

Los Angeles, Jan. 30.—(AP)—A tri-motored transport plane with three women and five men aboard was the object of an intensive search today in the rugged desert and mountain country between Bakersfield, Calif., and Los Angeles.

The ship has been missing since 4:50 P. M., yesterday when it was due here from Bakersfield, 150 miles to the north.
