Jap Warships Shell Nanking

Shanghai Boils With Indignation at New Attack

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED IN FULL FORCE

International Settlement Streets Swept Clear of Civilians; Japs Tear Down the American Flag.

By MORRIS J. HARRIS
Shanghai, China, Tuesday, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Shanghai boiled with indignation today as reports that Japanese warships had shelled Nanking, landing Marines under protection of gunfire from destroyers.

Thirty thousand of the finest in all China were there, and it appeared probable there would be a major engagement.

Martial law was declared in the international settlement here last night and the streets were swept clear of civilians while United States Marines and other foreign troops threw up barbed wire entanglements ten feet high in the cross streets, planting machine guns at strategic points.

Machine gun bullets from a Japanese destroyer whizzed through the American-owned Tactoo Oil plant on the Wangpo river, and a Japanese marine patrol in the Hongkew district ripped down the American flag over a school for Chinese boys.

No one at the Texaco plant was hurt but company officials filed a protest with the American consul. They said it was only by good luck that the bullets had not set fire to the oil storage tanks.

One representative of the company said some Chinese ashore had set off a bunch of firecrackers and the Japanese destroyer probably thought it was being fired upon.

Dr. John Hawk, director of property owned by the American Methodist Episcopal church south, reported that Japanese Marines had invaded the school for Chinese boys which the mission operates in the Hongkew district.

They ripped down the American flag, but did not molest any of the staff.

It was their second visit, Dr. Hawk said. Last Friday they ransacked the place, changing that quantities of anti-Japanese literature had been issued from the property. In their search they discovered no such documents.

The Japanese ships participating in the action were identified as the cruisers Taishima and Tenryu, and the destroyer Haze. The shells were falling in the Nanking river front area which is called Hsiak-san and is five miles from Nanking proper.

Yesterday morning a crack division of 30,000 Chinese National Guardsmen, the pick of China's fighting men, steamed into Nanking and took up positions on the city walls behind sandbag fortifications. They were equipped with German automatic rifles, and unlike many Chinese troops were well disciplined and well-uniformed.

Originally these troops were intended for service here in Shanghai, but with today's developments it appeared they probably would be needed to defend Nanking.

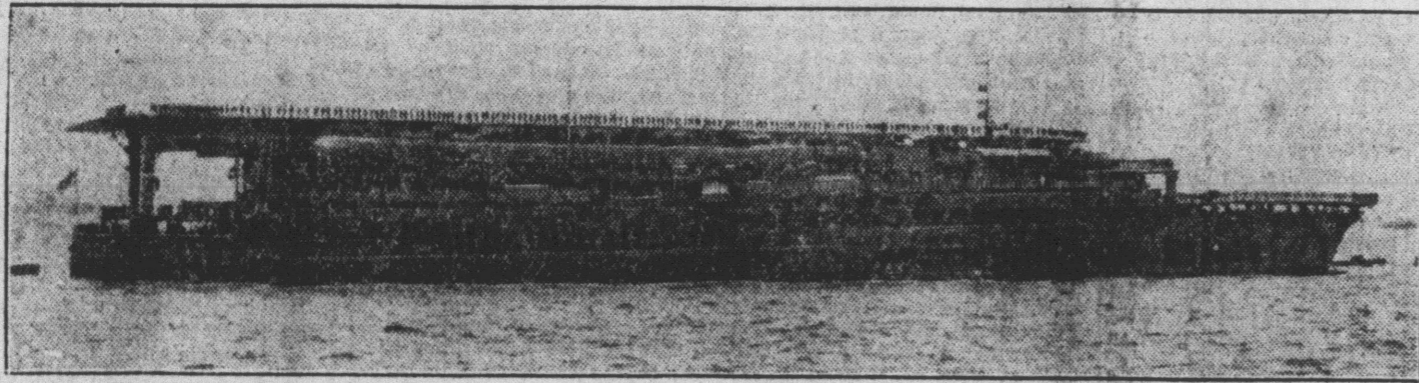

As recently as Sunday night the mayor of Nanking was assured by the Japanese consul that the seven naval ships in the Yangtze river would open no offensive against the city if the Chinese troops remained from hostile action.

Before the shelling began civilians moved back in droves away from the waterfront. Last night some Japanese landing parties had been put on the docks, but there were no open hostilities then.

Some of the refugees fleeing what appeared to be certain trouble had gone down to Nanking from Shanghai to escape danger here.

With the increasing menace at Nanking many of them piled into British steamers on the way to Shanghai.

PRESIDENTIAL RACE BEGINS TO SHOW LIFE

Anti-Prohibition Pressure Believed Put on Pres. Hoover in New Jersey.

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The incessant swing of political weather vanes has brought new developments in the contest for the year's presidential prize.

The engrossing Smith-Roosevelt pincer in the Democratic fold developed a bit over the weekend, but most conspicuous of the new factors was one affecting the practically unopposed Herbert Hoover.

Anti-Prohibition pressure on the president was the interpretation placed here on the New Jersey Republican committee's failure to come out at once for the renomination of Mr. Hoover. This state was (Continued on page six)

MANY CASES DISPOSED OF

Between 75 and 100 cases were disposed of in the one-week criminal term of Pitt County Superior court which closed here Saturday.

The week's work was the largest of any term of similar length held here in years and reduced the docket about half.

The final day's session resulted in the disposition of an embezzlement case and two charges of participation in the illicit whiskey traffic.

V. M. Rawls, of Kingston, former salesman of the Hooker Wholesale Company, of this city, was sentenced to 15 months on the roads when found guilty of embezzling approximately $800 from the firm.

The case, started the day before, occupied the most of the morning session Saturday. The defendant filed notice of appeal to Supreme court under bond of $2,000.

Rawls was alleged to have collected the amount in accounts without reporting it to the main office here.

Rising temperatures were forecast today for much of the mid-west, but the cold continued along the Pacific Coast, in the Rocky Mountains and in northern and Northeastern United States.

APPEALS FOR BUDGET DRIVE

Mayor Flanagan Call on Citizens To Give Liberally Support Local Army.

Inasmuch as the Salvation Army is seeking to raise its annual budget of $25,000, by an appeal to the generous-hearted people of Greenville, and since The Salvation Army is universally known to be one of the world's leading organizations for Christian and relief work among the poorer classes, and this being a time of unusual and widespread distress among less fortunate people; Therefore I, R. C. Flanagan, Mayor of the City of Greenville, N. C., do hereby appeal to the good citizens of this city and vicinity to aid in every way in generous liberality, in working and contributing to this worthy and noble cause during the week beginning February 1st to 6th, inclusive.

NOTED MILITARY LEADERS DEFEND U.S. IN SHANGHAI

(By The Associated Press)
Here are the naval and military men who play the big roles in the defense of Shanghai's American population:

Admiral Montgomery M. Taylor, commander in chief of the Asiatic fleet. A bluff old seadog, he is noted for quick thinking without hesitation. Was in the battle of Manila Bay with Dewey and hasn't missed much navy action since. He is now speeding to Shanghai on the flagship cruiser, U. S. S. Houston, to take command of the international settlement defense.

Rear Admiral Yancey S. Williams, commander of the Yangtze patrol, American naval force already on the spot. A South Carolinian, he has been in command in Chinese waters for the past year; has seen service around the world, holds the navy cross for distinguished service in the World War.

U. S. GUNBOAT FINDS SAFETY

Destroyer Simpson Moves Off from Nanking as Bombardment Begins; Strong Force of Japanese Gunboats on Duty; Large Contingent of Chinese Protecting City; Other Powers Expected to Take Immediate Action to Defend Nationals.

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Evacuation of some 4,000 Americans from five trouble points in China appeared an imminent likelihood today with reports growing more and more serious.

Highly disturbing reports of increased tension at Nanking, Shanghai, Swatow, Chefoo and Amoy were received by the navy and state departments.

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The Navy was advised today that Japanese warships at Nanking had opened fire without warning on Nanking, until last week the capital of the Chinese government.

The lone American destroyer there, the Simpson, changed its position to be sure of safety.

The Japanese have a strong force of warships in the river there. Some 200 American citizens are in the city.

It has six officers and 115 men. American consular officers there requested additional destroyers Saturday when threats of Japanese Chinese clashes became acute. One or more of the four destroyers which arrived at Shanghai yesterday will be dispatched up the Yangtze.

The Simpson reported last night that the Chinese have a large concentration of land forces there.

President Hoover was advised immediately of the critical development. Danger involved was far from minimized. It doubtless means that any strong measures necessary for protection of American citizens will be taken at once.

Other powers probably will do likewise. Coincidental with arrival of the startling report from the Simpson, the Italian government notified Washington it was joining with this country, Great Britain and France in protesting against the Japanese course at Shanghai.

The George B. Singletary chapter of U. D. C., held a most interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. J. L. Hassell on Pitt street.

Mrs. J. L. Fleming, the president, presided over the business session. Reports from the committees were heard and approved.

The historian, Mrs. W. P. Moore told of the interesting talks and programs that were put on in the schools celebrating Lee-Jackson day.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Hassell, who had Prof. R. C. Deal, member of the college faculty, to talk to the Daughters on Lee and Jackson.

Mr. Deal gave a glowing tribute to these men who have already enshrined themselves into the hearts of every Daughter of the Confederacy.

Mr. Deal said in addition to Lee being a soldier, he was an aristocrat and a thoroughbred. But it takes something more than these inheritances to build such strength and beauty of character as he possessed. His virtues and his kindness were the flowers that sprang from a deep rooted belief in Christianity.

As by the shades of twilight fell That dimmed his mortal sight, He saw across the Silent Stream A scene of peace and light.

And with his faint and waning breath, His last low words were these: "Let us pass across the River And rest beneath the trees!"

So "Stonewall" Jackson lived and died. A scene of peace and light. And we who hold tradition dear Pay honor to his worth.

Every absent Daughter missed a real treat.

Mrs. Hassell has splendid programs planned for the year, the meetings are highly interesting; new and better plans have been made for the year and this promises to be one of the best year for the U. D. C.

At the close of the program the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Woodley, served refreshments.—Reported.

HAROLD KREUTZBERG AND DANCERS HERE TONIGHT

Harold Kreutzberg, the world's greatest dancer, and his group of dancers, with the manager and the director, arrived in Greenville last night. The hour of the program at East Carolina Teachers College this evening is 8:30 o'clock.

The four young ladies in the group are Misses Irja Hagfors, Araca Makarowa, Ise Meudtner, and Almuth Winkelmann. The director of the music is Friedrich Wilchens, who has composed the music for the dances for which Kreutzberg could not find suitable musical settings.

To Kreutzberg, dancing is itself a great medium for creative expression, a great art equal to such arts as music and painting, and he expresses ideas through dancing, using the other arts as aids. Harold Kreutzberg himself has created all the dances on his program.

The program below speaks better for itself than any analysis of it could for those who wish to get an idea of what is in store for them this evening.

Introduction (Mozart) — H. Kreutzberg and Group.
Angel of Annunciation (Wilchens) — H. Kreutzberg.
Angel of Last Judgment (Wilchens) — H. Kreutzberg.
Waltz—"La plus qu lente" (Debussy)—I Hagfors, A. Makarowa and I. Meudtner.
Capriccio (Wilchens)—H. Kreutzberg.

Intermission
Russian Dance (Wieniawski) — H. Kreutzberg and Group.
Master of Ceremonies (Scott) — H. Kreutzberg.
Revolt (Wilchens)—H. Kreutzberg.
Lamentations of Orpheus (Roger-Ducasse)—H. Kreutzberg and Group.
The Envious Girl — A dance comedy in the Breughel-style by Friedr. Wilchens.

The Kreutzberg party report a wonderful evening at Duke University on last Friday night, and a packed house. Just before that they were in Washington City, after a trip to Boston and Montreal, stopping by for a program in Brooklyn. They will go from here to Pinhurst, then to Columbia and Atlanta. The jump will be made from there to Chicago, Detroit, Ottawa, and other big cities, including Los Angeles, with the tour closing in Vancouver the last of April.

Mrs. Smith Hostess

Bethel, Jan. 28.—Mrs. Julian Smith was a gracious hostess to members of the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge club at her home on Wednesday.

Five interesting progressions of bridge were enjoyed at two tables. At the conclusion of the game Mrs. John Burton Bunting, was found to hold high score and was presented a lovely flower pot.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Those playing were: Mesdames Sebros, Bunting, Grimes Beverly, Xury Manning, William Andrews, John Burton Bunting, Jasper Smith, Miss Thelma Bunting and Mrs. Julian Smith.

COLLEGIANS TAKE FAST GAME FROM LOUISBURG

East Carolina Teachers College basketball players played their best game of their current season, when they defeated the Louisville college quint Saturday night by the score of 16 to 6. Coach "Soup" Porter's local Collegians went on the court to win, and win they did.

The Methodist visitors were limited to one field goal in the first half but they made four foul shots. The half ended 6 to 6 in favor of the Teachers. In the second half the "professors of basketball" gave Louisville a lesson in how to keep your opponents from scoring and an excellent lesson it was as Louisville did not register a single point.

Tucker, with seven points, topped the winners while Edwards accounted for five of the six Louisville points. The defensive play of Eason and King featured for the Greenville team. Hearne played the best game of his career and that boy Nesbit certainly is the find of the season.

Wednesday the local Collegians leave for Norfolk where they play William and Mary. Another game may be arranged for them while on this trip. Then, on Saturday, they will play the Goldsboro "Red Shields" in the campus building on the local Collegians' home court.

BAER WINS OFF LEVINSKY

New York, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Madison Square Garden's heavyweight elimination tournament to find a possible alternate for either of the principals in the Schmeling-Sharkey title fight next June, today was progressing rapidly with Max Baer and King Levinsky apparently among the eliminated.

The two clowns of the ring attended to their own eliminations personally last night when they fought ten dull rounds to a decision for Baer.

They made faces at each other, they laughed in glee as one or the other occasionally landed a wild swing or missed one—it seemed to make no difference which—but as far as proving themselves fit ring companions for either the champ or Sharkey they decidedly did not.

By his victory, Baer technically won the right to face the winner of next week's 15-round struggle between Paulino Uzcudun and Ernie Schaaf, but after the fight, Jimmy Johnston, boxing impresario at the Garden, was non-committal on his plans for such a meeting.

The famous looping right swing with which the King Fish three times knocked down Tommy Loughran recently and used to good advantage to pound out a decision over the rugged Paulino failed to stop the California butcher boy or even hurt him the few times it landed.

Fighter Knocked "Cold"

Hugh Nichols of Mexi, Texas, the title-holder, tossed Edwards out of the ring, and then while the birds were still a-twittering, an alarmed spectator applied the finishing touch with a long right to the jaw.

Edwards was knocked "cold." Nichols was awarded the match. The fan's identity was not revealed.

Better MOUSE-TRAP BUILDER is Producing a Crop of WEEDS!

QUEEN MARY of England herself recently told a charity organization in which she was interested, "Advertise! It pays to advertise." Indeed times have changed. When Queen Mary must talk of advertising, what must the poor mouse-trap builder do? No longer will the world make a beaten path to his door, however wonderful his mouse-trap. Because his competitors are out telling the world all about their products in advertising. The world is listening. And buying!

For Best Values Read The REFLECTOR!
There's the situation, sad as it may be to some. The most direct, effective, time-tested, economical way of reaching the public is through the medium of a daily newspaper. In Greenville, the buying public reads the DAILY REFLECTOR and uses its advertising columns as a shopping guide. Therefore, if you are trying to sell what the public needs and wants, be it a better mousetrap or a better pound of cheese, let The DAILY REFLECTOR be your salesman.

A table was placed on the pulpit platform and around this gathered the delegates of the various powers.

J. H. Ross, United States; A. D. Frank, England; Rev. A. W. Fleischmann, France; Carl Adams, Italy; Herbert ReBarker, Germany.

Each delegate read the position of their respective countries, all of which favored outlawing war and reduction of armaments.

Representatives of various groups appeared before the conferees and made striking appeal against warfare.

The names of the group representatives and their cause follow: Mrs. W. L. Hall, motherhood; Mary Elizabeth Holmes, childhood; Robert Sugg Fleming, youth; John Clark, business; Jack Spain, labor; Rev. W. A. Lillycrop, the church.

Rev. W. A. Ryan, seated in the chair just acted in the capacity of prolocutor, and as he read several lines heralding the coming of peace, Miss Antonette Jones, carrying a cross, advanced down aisle, followed by several children as peace attendants, and stood in front of the conferees table.

The peace attendants were: Jane Rowlett, Helen Settle, Mary Agnes Deal, Phoebe Nesbitt, Rosa Lind Swindell, Madeline Woolard, Alice Leigh Blow, Emmy Lou Clark, Elizabeth Everett, Christine Clark, Elizabeth and Mattie Lawrence Holiday.

The production was the first of its kind ever conducted here and, apparently, grew with profit and joy, other than cotton on his hand, and that enforcement of the restrictive law would deprive him of seventy per cent of the revenues and rents derived from his holdings.

JAP WARSHIPS SHELL NANKING (Continued from Page One) The telegram from the foreign office also said, the legation reported, that Japan had sent additional war craft toward Nanking.

Word that Nanking was being fired upon reached here in 42 minutes, being relayed by the Simpson to a river gunboat and from the

France Joins In Protest To Jap Officials

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—France formally notified the Washington government today of its cooperation with American, British and Italian complaints against the Shanghai situation precipitated by Japan.

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The British government asked the American government again today if it did not consider renewed protests to Japan to be in order.

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—A threatened imminent clash between Chinese and Japanese at Swatow, 500 miles down the coast from Shanghai, was reported to the State Department today by the American consulate at that city.

Geneva, Switzerland, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Lo Wen-Kan, China's foreign minister, informed the League of Nations by cable today that there is no foundation for reports abroad that China is preparing to declare war on Japan.

ippl and South Carolina, passed laws to curtail the cotton crop as a possible price stimulant.

Mississippi's restrictive measure passed upon failure of other states to follow suit. Louisiana's was repealed for the same reason.

Shanghai, Tuesday, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Chinese sources here reported today that Japanese marines were being landed at Nanking under the protection of gunfire from destroyers in the Yangtze river.

Foreign officials in Shanghai said they had received wireless reports that the Japanese were shelling Nanking with two cruisers and one destroyer.

Nanking, Tuesday, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Japanese warships shelled the Nanking waterfront early today (Tuesday), and marines under cover of fire from two cruisers and a destroyer.

The cruisers Tushima and Tenru and the destroyer Hazeu opened fire at about half an hour before midnight (Monday). At 1:30 this (Tuesday) morning the shelling stopped.

The fire was directed at the riverfront area which is called Hsiakwan and is about five miles from Nanking proper.

The first thing to go was the power plant and the city was plunged into darkness as the lights went out.

Immediately the long fingers of searchlights probed the dark from the army airfield, searching the skies for Japanese airplanes.

The firing came from the cruisers Tushima and Tenru and the destroyer Hazeu. It began about 11:30 at (Monday) night and continued until 1:30 (Tuesday) morning.

The Japanese gunners scored several direct hits on the forts but the forts did not reply.

The charge grew out of Mills having a run-in with Highway Patrolman Hadley several months ago in which the patrolman's motorcycle crashed into Mills' automobile during a lengthy chase.

R. L. Whitefield, of Greenville was sentenced to two years on the roads on a charge of abandonment of his family and assault on his wife.

F. A. Edmundson, convicted of abandonment of his family, was allowed to go free under $300 bond. He was ordered to appear in the April term of court, however, and show the court that he had paid $40 monthly toward support of his family.

The most important case disposed of during the session was that of John Robert Myers, negro, convicted of the slaying of Hagan Hodges, Pacious postmaster and sentenced to be electrocuted February 29. It was the first time since establishment of the electric chair at Raleigh that a defendant had been sentenced directly to the chair from this county.

TEXAS COTTON LAW NULL. DISTRICT JUDGE RULES (Continued from Page One) tion of property without due process of law and was invalid on other grounds.

Jude Davis held Smith could not, apparently, grow with profit and joy, other than cotton on his hand, and that enforcement of the restrictive law would deprive him of seventy per cent of the revenues and rents derived from his holdings.

"And," the ruling continued, "there being no provision in said act providing for compensating him for said loss, same would be in direct conflict with Article 1, Section 17, of the constitution of the State of Texas and Article 5 of the Constitution of the United States."

Of cotton growing states, Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas and Missis-

Paul Schenck, chief of the defense counsel, agreed with the court that there was no necessity for a recess.

Mrs. Judd fought against leaving her cell until told handcuffs would be placed on her wrists if she resisted further. In the court room she coughed continually.

The two jurors who had been ill were back in their places in the jury box.

The defense continued the reading of depositions relating to the purported strain of insanity that runs through Mrs. Judd's family.

A group of Democrats is drafting a substitute bill and the party hopes to obtain Republican support for having the original put back in committee for overhauling.

Many on both sides of the political fence recognize in the measure political dynamite.

On the other side of the non-partisan economic program, the House Ways and Means committee is to resume tomorrow hearings on the new taxation plan to balance the budget.

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—After a plea of nolo contendere to charges of embezzling $62,000 in the 20 years he held the office of Beaufort County Superior Court clerk, George A. Paul was sentenced to 3 to 5 years in state's prison.

The Chapel district, where the most serious fighting of the past week took place, was quieter but it appeared trouble might break out again in Hongkew where the Japanese were in control.

That section was in complete darkness, for all the lights had been shot out and some of the wires had been cut.

Yesterday's "China Press" carried on the streets with screaming headlines over a story asserting that the Japanese were preparing for a new drive and intended to "reduce to a minimum" their cooperation with the international settlement garrison.

In the harbor lay four American destroyers, and six more American ships, including the cruiser Houston, were on the way from Manila.

A British cruiser with 800 men was on the way from Hongkong and other British vessels were standing by for orders to follow her.

Other European nations also had ordered their vessels in the Orient to proceed to Shanghai to protect their nationals.

Ask to Remove Passenger Trains

Raleigh, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The Atlantic and Yadkin railroad, with main line trackage running from Mount Airy to Sanford, has again petitioned the State Corporation Commission for permission to remove all passenger trains from its lines.

A hearing will be held before the commission here on February 9 at 10 a. m. on the petition.

Last June the Atlantic and Yadkin petitioned to be allowed to discontinue its passenger service but there was a great deal of opposition to the move.

The company was regarded by the commission as having made a satisfactory showing of poor business in support of its petition but was asked to temporarily continue passenger service and ascertain if business improved.

Containing that shipment of lumber returns still show a heavy loss, the company has renewed its petition.

Defense Rests In Harper Case

Harper is on trial for the fatal shooting of Charles O. Holton at the Harper's High Point home the night of December 23.

Mrs. Harper, who was indicted with her husband, was freed Saturday when Judge John M. Oglesby directed a verdict of acquittal against her.

She was placed on the stand for the first time today and court attaches had indicated her testimony might be lengthy but she gave only corroborative evidence and the state rested its case shortly after the defense rested.

Mrs. Harper told the jury she had had an argument with her husband the night of the shooting and that she came to Greensboro to get Holton to return with her to High Point in order to confer with her husband.

$35,000 Fire At Kinston

Kinston, Feb. 1.—(AP)—A fire originating in a two-story building here owned by Fred I. Sutton threatened for a time to sweep the entire business section, but was extinguished early today after spreading to the adjoining Randolph building.

When firemen thought the flames would turn into a veritable conflagration they asked aid from the fire departments of Goldsboro and other neighboring towns. Before help arrived, however, the fire was under control.

The origin of the fire, which caused a loss estimated by the owners in excess of $35,000, has not been determined. A chain grocery occupied Sutton's building.
