JAPAN PLANS SEND REPLY ON THURSDAY

Official Quarters Believe Pact Could Not Be Made Effective Before Forcible Solution of Problem is Reached.

Tokyo, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Japan is unalterably opposed to any proposal for neutral participation in negotiations regarding Manchuria.

Tomorrow, he said, he will present to the diplomatic representatives of the powers participating in proposals to settle the Sino-Japanese conflict a reply which will be in the form of a series of counter-proposals, suggesting modification of certain points which Japan finds unacceptable.

The foreign minister talked for two hours with the 84-year-old prince whose advice always is sought when the empire's vital interests are involved, and as soon as he got back he went into conference with Premier Inukai. Later he announced that he could not say whether a special cabinet meeting would be necessary to draft a reply to the powers' proposals.

Japan, he said, refused to consider the Manchurian problem in the same category with the present situation at Shanghai.

"We are eager to maintain the friendship of the other great powers," he said, "but at the same time we must protect the rights and interests of Japanese citizens in China."

Japan cannot accept the fifth proposal of the powers providing for negotiations to settle the Sino-Japanese controversy in the spirit of the pact of Paris, he said, because of the stipulation that neutral observers participate in negotiations which are intended to include the Manchurian issue.

"Refusal to permit any third party to take part in the settlement of the Manchurian question is a fundamental principle of this government's policy," he said, "as it has been of former governments."

Tokyo, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Doubt was expressed in Japanese official quarters tonight that the Anglo-American peace proposal to China and Japan, even if they are accepted by all parties, could be put into effect before the fighting at Shanghai, proceeding at its present pace, reaches a forcible solution of the problem which the powers are attempting to settle peacefully.

The foreign office announced that Japan's reply to the proposals need not be expected before tomorrow. Foreign Minister Kenkichi Yoshizawa left Tokyo for Okutsu to consult with the octogenarian Prince Saloni, last of Japan's elder states men, upon the peace suggestion.

This made delivery of Japan's reply impossible today. The foreign office said, and it added that the cabinet probably will meet in extraordinary session to approve the reply before it is delivered.

Earlier in the day a spokesman for the foreign office indicated that the first four of the five proposals probably would be acceptable to the Japanese government but that the fifth proposal, calling for negotiations with the aid of neutral observers probably would not be accepted because of fears it might involve Japan's present status in Manchuria.

Offers Mellon Ambassadorship to Britain

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—President Hoover has asked Secretary Mellon to accept the ambassadorship to Great Britain, but the latter has not decided to accept.

Reports that the Secretary had been chosen for the post vacated by Charles G. Dawes, president of the Reconstruction Corporation, were called to Secretary Mellon's attention and he said the president had offered him the position but he had not had time to decide whether he would accept.

If Mr. Mellon accepts the ambassadorship, Ogden L. Mills, undersecretary of the treasury who has played a leading part in national and international financial affairs of the government, will step into Mr. Mellon's office and head the government's fiscal department.

WAR BULLETINS

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Destroyer Tender Black Hawk has been ordered from Manila to Shanghai.

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The Senate foreign relations committee deferred action today on the Dill resolution to ban munitions shipments from the United States to either Japan or China.

Geneva, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The disarmament conference, sitting in haughty isolation today in a British boarding house on Philosopher's Road, in the outskirts of Geneva, summed up its reaction to yesterday's attempt to bring about peace in the Far East by saying: "It won't do any good!"

Yesterday's action of the powers, a spokesman for the delegation said, was only another of the series of fruitless steps taken by the League in recent months, "each of which steps resulted in a hop, skip and jump forward by the Japanese."

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The destroyer Edsall has been ordered from Shanghai to Nanking to augment the Simpson, stationed there.

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Colonel Hooker, commanding the marines at Shanghai, has arranged for all Japanese troops to evacuate the "marine sector" in the international settlement at 8 a. m. Thursday, Shanghai time.

On receipt of the Hooker message, navy officials said they did not know to what the "marine sector" referred. It was not taken to mean Japanese troops were evacuating the whole settlement, but rather that they were giving up control over a sector heretofore policed entirely by the marines.

Arms Conference Turns To Organization Plans

Geneva, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The first wheel of the machinery which is intended to slice world armaments again turned today with the organization of the procedure committee of the conference at which representatives of 60 nations are attempting to bring the world nearer peace.

The procedure committee was appointed yesterday by Arthur Henderson of Great Britain, president of the conference. Its task is to chart the road which the disarmament parley will follow and to keep

FIVE SHOCKS CARRY RUIN TO SANTIAGO

Scores of Women and Children Perish as Maternity Hospital Crumbles; Devastated Area under Military Control; Rush Relief Work.

Santiago, Cuba, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Early estimates of the casualties in a series of earth shocks which struck this city early today were found too high with the issuance of an official announcement placing the number of dead at six and the number of injured at thirty.

Property damage was extensive and few buildings escaped unscathed. The walls of a small maternity hospital collapsed and it was reported that a mother with new-born twins had been killed.

BUDGET DRIVE BEGINS TODAY

Salvation Army Campaign Committees Seek to Raise $2,500 for Work Here.

Arrangements for the big campaign were completed yesterday and the workers have been supplied with the cards for their districts and today and tomorrow will be the two big days. Fifty women will canvass the residential section today and tomorrow. Every section of the city will be completely and thoroughly canvassed. It is hoped that all will respond as liberally as their means will permit. Many will be able to give two or three dollars by spreading their contributions over the year. By giving a dollar now, one in July and another in October. It is hoped all who are in a position to make their pledges and pay cash will do so, as it will save time and labor of collecting later.

Leases were drawn today for the house at 519 Greene street, for one year, owned by Mrs. Lee. This house has 11 rooms, 6 downstairs and 5 up, two baths, with a side entrance which makes it ideal for transients. The Salvation Army will care for transients coming into the city, who are compelled to stay overnight, many of whom are out of money, food and no friends in the city, and are thrown upon the mercy of the general public. FALL TO SERVE HIS FULL TERM

Pardon Board Refuses to Shorten Sentence of Former U. S. Cabinet Member.

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Albert B. Fall must stay in prison to the bitter end of the term imposed on him for accepting a $100,000 bribe while secretary of the interior.

Last night the federal board declined to shorten his sentence of a year and a day, plus $100,000 fine. The two men and one woman who compose the board announced their decision with the observation that Fall's release now would be unjustifiable and incompatible with the welfare of society.

Fall, seventy years old, is in the New Mexico state penitentiary at Santa Fe, the first cabinet member in the history of the nation to be convicted of crime. Allowing time off for good behavior his term will end May 8, but either the fine must be paid or he must take a parole (Continued on Page Six)

MANY CASES IN COUNTY COURT

Two Days' Session Is Necessary to Complete Heaviest Docket of the New Year.

Faced by one of the heaviest dockets of the new year, County court disposed of approximately a dozen cases yesterday and continued work today. It was indicated the session would continue almost to midnight when it was hoped the docket would be practically cleared.

It was the first sitting of the court in three weeks by reason of the two week term of Superior court which came to a close last Saturday. None of the cases disposed of yesterday were important, consisting mainly of violations of prohibition law and charges of larceny.

WARSHIPS PUSH FORT ASSAULTS

Japanese Gunboat Is Sent to Bottom Of Whangpo River In One of Most Terrific Engagements Since Beginning Of Hostilities; Chinese Continue to Hold the Fort at Woosung Despite Raking Fire from Jap Warships American Cruiser Arrives.

Shanghai, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Chinese guns from the fort at Woosung sent a Japanese destroyer to the bottom of the Whangpo river, Chinese headquarters here announced tonight.

Further than that, the announcement said, the Chinese garrison still held the fort despite a raking fire from Japanese warships in the river.

The Japanese opened fire, apparently without warning and announced after a brief bombardment the fort had been destroyed and that they saw no signs of life in it.

British soldiers on a troopship passing up the river said, however, that the fort had returned the fire and that it was only by good luck the troopship was not struck by one side or the other.

Dud shells fell near the U. S. S. Parrott, a destroyer tied up alongside the Texaco oil barge in the Whangpo. Others dropped close to the oil storage tanks of the Texaco Company and in the property of the British-owned Petroleum Company on an island in the river.

Another report said Japanese airplanes flew over the area tonight and bombed a Chinese oil storage plant near the fort, setting fire to it.

Chinese headquarters said the fort repulsed an effort to put ashore a landing party from the destroyers, and in addition to sinking one of the craft scored damaging hits on two others.

At the same time the Japanese naval command repeated its assertion that the fort had been reduced to a pile of scrap iron and that more than a score of the defenders had been killed in the five-hour bombardment.

At nightfall the Japanese put out to sea and the Chinese indicated they expected the attack would be renewed.

Shanghai, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The most severe battle since the outbreak of hostilities at Shanghai raged today as the Japanese land forces and airplanes delivered another smashing attack on Chapei while the Japanese warships in the Whangpo river rained shellfire on the Woosung fort 16 miles away.

The United States cruiser Houston, flagship of the Asiatic fleet, arrived in the river just in time for the battle. The Houston, which carried a landing party of 320 American marines, was warned not to proceed directly to Shanghai but to stay down the river beyond the forts to avoid entering the line of fire.

Afterwards the cruiser moved up the river to Shanghai and tied up before the city.

The fire upon the forts was directed from the guns of six Japanese destroyers. It covered a landing party of bluejackets sent to occupy the Chinese fortifications. While it was going on Japanese airplanes bombers roared over the Chapei (Continued on Page Six)

U. S. Encouraged Over Outlook For Ending War

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—A note of encouragement penetrated today the tense anxiety of American officials over the hostilities between Japan and China.

Awaiting formal answers from the two nations to its bid for peace, the government maintained strict silence, but there was an obviously hopeful reaction as press dispatches reported informal announcement of Japan's stand on the American proposal.

Should Japan, as indicated in Tokyo, be willing to accept the first four points of the American proposal, the strongest desire of this country would be met. Cessation of violence, withdrawal of combatants from points of contact, and establishment of neutral zones to protect Shanghai's international settlement would remove the tremendous threat of injury and death to American citizens, which is Washington's chief concern.

However, with Japanese rejection of the fifth point calling for negotiation with the aid of neutrals and (Continued on Page Six)

HOME DEMONSTRATION COUNCIL MEETING. The Pitt County Home Demonstration Club held its first council meeting for the year 1932 in Shepard Memorial Library at 2:30 p. m., January 28. There were 25 officers and members present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. Brooks Tucker. After music, prayer, etc., the business was taken up. The following officers and leaders were appointed: Mrs. Wardell Worthington of Winterville club, secretary; Mrs. J. D. McArthur, dramatic leader; Miss Alma Stokes, "handicraft leader"; Mrs. O. H. Jackson, "household accounting leader."

The dramatic committee is to meet soon and furnish the various clubs with definite information, as to the play contest to be given during March. Mrs. O. H. Jackson, retiring president, gave an excellent report on the highlights of the club for the past two years. This was fine but we hope the two years to come will far surpass the past.

Mrs. J. Brooks Tucker, new president, spoke of 1932 possibilities and urged the cooperation of every member. With this we stand, without it we fall. Now which shall it be? The task is up to us.

Miss Pauline Smith, district agent, in her charming manner, instructed the incoming officers as to their duties. She said each officer should do her best to promote the duties and welfare of the club. Her most helpful hints on "Present Conditions and What to Do About Them," were enjoyed by all. In these she urged that we face this depression with a smile and a determination to be more helpful and economical. Miss Smith showed an exhibit from other counties, which consisted of home made toys, rugs, brooms, etc. This proves to us that many useful things can be made very cheap.

The meeting, as a whole, was very helpful and enjoyable to all. —Annie Carroll, Reporter.

MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB POSTPONED. The Woman's Club will not meet on Thursday afternoon but will combine their monthly meeting with the Literature departmental meeting on Tuesday evening, Feb. 9th, at 7:30, at which time the Literature department will present Dr. E. T. Laffer of State College, in a program devoted to the celebration of the George Washington birthday anniversary.

Where Was Washington Born? A group of eighty high school graduates were recently asked, "Where was Washington born?" and not a single one of them was able to name correctly the birthplace of the father of their country. Twelve of them replied "Mount Vernon," and seven thought England.

But the George Washington Bicentennial Commission, in cooperation with the Post Office Department, is taking steps to enlighten the public on this point, according to Y. Souren, leading New York philatelist. On February 23, the 200th anniversary of the birth of the father of our country, a special cachet, or cancellation mark will be used on letters mailed in Mt. Vernon, Va., the town to which George Washington moved when a few years old. The special cachet to be used but one day, will have unique interest to philatelists, and will bear the inscription "1732-1932, Wakefield."

"In this way the nation will come to know," said Mr. Souren, "that George Washington was born in Wakefield, Westmoreland County, Va. It was then known as Pope's Creek, and was fifty miles below Mount Vernon, which in turn was then known as Little Hunting Creek, and not receiving the name of Mount Vernon until many years later. The house in Wakefield burned down on Christmas Eve, 1780 and its site has been marked by a granite shaft erected by Congress.

"Although Washington spent almost all his life at Mount Vernon, he was born in Wakefield, Westmoreland county, and this fact has great historical interest," continued Mr. Souren. "In recognition of this the Post Office Department will accept mail in Mount Vernon (Wakefield has not post office) on Feb. 22 with the special cachet prepared by the Bicentennial Commission. For this reason letters mailed in Mount Vernon on Washington's birthday this year will have unusual philatelic interest. "Through the use of this special cachet non-collectors as well as collectors of stamps will be reminded of the true birthplace of Washington, and a simple, yet important lesson in history will be given to the nation."

An Appreciation. The Parent-Teacher Association of the West Greenville school wish to thank the Tobacco Board of Trade for a check recently received to help in relief for the undernourished children in the school.

Mrs. McGlohon Wins Contest. The essay contest sponsored by J. J. White closed February 1st. In November, Mr. White made the offer at the Women's Achievement Program. All home demonstration women and girls were eligible and the subject given was "Why I Should Use a Canning Budget." The first prize is a pressure cooker. During the past year much work has been done with reference to the planning of meals, daily food essentials and how to have them available at all times. The canning budget offers the best solution for winter months. Several splendid essays were judged by Mrs. Adelaide E. Bloxton, director of home economics, Teachers College. Mr. White has made some warm friends among the home demonstration women by his help on several occasions. Had it not been for him several hundred jars of canned products would not have found their way to the pantry shelf, because there were no pressure cookers. Through Mr. White's efforts the Merchants Association bought the cookers at the time when they were needed and the women paid for them when they could. Today they extend their sincere appreciation to Mr. White and the Merchants Association.

Roosevelt Gives Views

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 3.—(AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt, governor of New York, and candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination believes: 1. The United States should not participate in the League of Nations. 2. European debts should not be cancelled. 3. An international trade conference should be called to level tariff barriers. Gov. Roosevelt committed his views on these subjects to public consideration at a meeting of the State Grange last night. Put some of that fuel money back in your pocket...

CAREFUL-SPENDING home owners are looking for coal that gives extra value—coal that is economical to burn, as well as to buy. We recommend to their special attention Ford Coal—a product of the Ford Motor Company. The price is low. And here is coal that is genuinely "high test"—with a high carbon content to give extra heat per ton. It is clean coal—all the waste is picked out under strict Ford supervision. It is carefully screened and graded for size; order the right size for your grate and you get it, uniformly. And the high melting-point of the ash prevents clinking when Ford Coal is properly burned. It's a Ford product all the way through—as dependable as the name behind it. Order a load now, and see how economically and pleasantly you can get your winter's heat this year. We can make immediate delivery.

ABOUT TOWN

Becoming jealous probably of all attention being centered on Japan and China, New York gunmen got busy night before last and killed three persons.

This is the first time gang members have resorted to murder in several weeks, and the nation was beginning to hope that a truce had been signed.

The death of Dr. T. H. Plemons at his home in Fairmont was received with profound sorrow by his friends here yesterday.

He endeared himself to members of the Immanuel Baptist Church, where he preached several years, and the citizenship generally.

The majority of people believe that old theory about the ground-hog is pure hooey. No doubt they are correct.

Ten percent reduction of wages evidently means a whole lot to the mill workers in the Bladenboro district who went on a strike yesterday and then engaged in slight disorders.

A principle is involved here and like all other cases where principles are considered, it is probable the workmen will remain out until their terms have been met.

Boy Crazy

By GRACE PERKINS. AUTHOR OF "PERSONAL MAID"

SYNOPSIS: Hope Ross' seventeenth year spins dizzily around her as she goes to Dickey Dale's prom at Harmouth, writes to Dicky, spends unusual evenings back stage in New York theatres where Dickey's father is a theatrical manager, and all the time falls deeper and deeper in love with Dickey.

Chapter 9. COLD-CUTS AT TEA. They made the usual gestures parents expect; Dickey mumbling the best and shiniest phrases, but Mama Ross seemed a bit too tight-lipped for anyone's peace of mind.

Always out, Hope thought; a bit bitterly as she climbed into Dickey's car. Always out with this particular boy. Why?

But she forgot such thoughts as the wind whipped her face, and Dickey headed for town, where they would "drop in on Hickey," he suggested, "and if they didn't like his party, they'd drop out again."

Such were the high spots of the maddest, gayest, most intoxicating winter. Then came the crisis—out of a clear sky, as a crisis is so apt to come.

Valiantly ignoring the fact that no one wanted him but Hope, Dickey chugged up to the Ross veranda one Saturday afternoon in May—for a second consecutive week-end. And Mama Ross treated him very badly.

And Goody was just plain lousy! After all, if your people are so fine, that the consider others beneath them, they at least might act fine, mightn't? But Mama Ross, despite her perfect poise and her flawless coiffure, just was plain rude.

When the time for recovery comes everybody will derive his share of benefit and men whose salaries were cut will find them restored to normal.

Miscellaneous shortage of revenues has caused the county commissioners to cut expenses in the hope of making up for the shortage as much as possible.

family tree. Hope's heart sank. Grew numb. Became spiteful. Angry. She got up and danced with Rusty Crandall. After several dances with Rusty, she permitted the attentions of others. Dancing and flirting and laughing with Frisky and Don and Jed and Maax.

A firm grasp on her arm in the middle of a fox-trot answered her question. She stopped, gasping, to face Dickey. Dickey, quite white and very manly, with lowered eyebrows.

"Come on. This is about enough!" he commanded sharply. (Oh, Dickey darling. Thank heaven—you're here! But I've got to manage you. I can't let you get away with this!)

"I'm sorry," she answered coolly. "I'm not going for ages yet. Aren't you having a good time?" Dickey swayed a moment perilously as a couple banged into him.

From nowhere appeared Rusty. Taking Hope by the arm, and speaking in a cultured, restrained voice: "Let's go, Hope. I think you'd better come with me. He's been drinking."

She flung off his arm furiously and stared at Dickey. The tears came to her eyes, and she batted them away with dignity. Dickey had been drinking.

"Very well, Rusty. I want to go home. I'm tired." "I've already got your wraps for you," Rusty said quietly.

They mumbled thanks as he held them, and gathered her white chiffon velvet coat about her shoulder. Even took Rusty's arm as they went out the club steps and down the gravel-way to Rusty's superb coupe.

OLYMPICS TO BE LAUNCHED ON THURSDAY

By EDWARD J. NEIL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Lake Placid, N. Y., Feb. 3.—(AP)—While six of Germany's shattered bob sled contingent lay in the village hospital, today one of them so badly hurt he may die, Lake Placid prepared to launch the winter Olympic games Thursday.

Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt will make a brief address at the opening ceremonies tomorrow morning. Jack Shea, a local boy who made good as a speed skater, will stand before him to swear the Olympic oath for 337 representa-of 17 nations.

A moment later and he will face the starter with the speed kings of the world in the first of the skating races, the 500 metre dash.

From then until the hockey team of Canada and the United States, favorites to beat Germany and Poland for the puck chasing title, clash in the closing event of the games Saturday afternoon Feb. 13, the greatest stars of the winter sports world will strive for Olympic laurels.

There was but one dark shadow in the picture.

In the Lake Placid Hospital, victims of the savage crash on the heart-searing Olympic bob run down precipitous Mr. Van Hoenberg, lay the axes of the one foreign contingent that threatened America's bob running supremacy.

On the danger list, terribly injured was the name of Albert M. Brehme, young brakeman on the sled of Captain Fritz Grau, the second German pilot to crash through a turn on Glare ice slopes of Mt. Van Hoenberg within 3 days.

Captain Grau and two other members of the crew, Helmut Hopmann and Rudolf Krotki, also were in the hospital.

In the same hospital Captain Werner Zahn and Dr. Heinrich Mehlhorn, members of the German sled that crashed through the "zig zag" curve Sunday still were under treatment.

Outlaw Talking Between Players And Spectators

New York, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Conversations between spectators and players will be strictly taboo in the major leagues this season.

After the American League had announced on Monday it would enforce the rule prohibiting conversation between spectator and player, the National League declared it would fine heavily and player caught conversing with, or posing for a photograph with, one of the customers.

The drive on such fraternizing was the more or less direct result of a published photograph in which a major league star and a mid-western gangster were the principal figures.

Both leagues had completed their mid-winter meetings today without completing a single trade. It was not that the magnates didn't want to trade but rather that they could not get together on a suitable basis.

Several clubs would be eager to take Tony Lazzeri off the New York Yankees' hands, provided they did not have to give up a first-string pitcher in return. Johnny Frederick of the Brooklyn Dodgers also was believed to be on the market but attractive offers for him were few, if any.

Both leagues reduced their staff of umpires from twelve to ten and the National League appointed (Dutch) Carter, former Yale star, a fifth, or controlling, director of the Brooklyn club.

TIGERS POINT THE WAY FOR HIGH SCORERS

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 3.—(AP)—Louisiana State University has won but half of its southern conference basketball games, but that's not the fault of its sharpshooters.

The Tiger forwards are showing the way to other individual high scorers of the conference and the scarcity of victories must be attributed to the Boon Rouge team's defense.

Samuels, one of the Tiger forwards, scored 48 points in four games against Mississippi and Miss. A. and M. and boosted his season total to 91 points, 25 more than the second-ranking star, Sale, Kentucky center.

Samuels, who stood third last week, has 42 field goals and seven free throws. His running mate, the husky sophomore, Torrence, has 64 points. Sale shot 29 goals from the field and rang eight from the foul line, while Torrence has 31 field goals and two free throws.

Two players from Mississippi, another team that has won fifty per cent of its games, stand fourth and fifth. Swor, a forward, has 6 points, while the center, Sippson, has 55.

Bill Perkins, o Georgia Tech, last season's leader, is far down the list with 41 points, but the big Yellow-jacket center has played in only four games.
