Greenville Holds Bright Leaf Tobacco Leadership

New Government Report Leaves Market Here Still Well Ahead Of Wilson

SETS ASIDE UNCERTAINTY

Revised figures compiled by U. S. Department of Agriculture give Greenville 66,154,756 at average of $9.40 per hundred pounds and Wilson 66,004,828 pounds at average of $9.05

Greenville's claim to the prestige of being the largest bright leaf tobacco market in the world will go unquestioned from now on. Revised and complete figures compiled March 21 by the Crop Reporting Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture received today left Greenville still 150,000 pounds in the lead of Wilson, the former claimant to the title of the world's largest bright leaf market.

The average for the entire belt for the season was given at $8.95 per hundred. When the government estimate was issued several days ago placing Greenville over 217,000 pounds in the lead of Wilson, a statement was sent out from Wilson claiming the figures were not complete in that the full report of that market had not been compiled. On the basis of that report Wilson contended she still led the belt and that this would be indicated when the complete report was filed.

The government reporting service, which is considered official by all markets of the country, completed the report this week, and while a slight variation was indicated, it still left Greenville at the top of the belt.

The final information was received with considerable satisfaction not only here but throughout the belt, because it definitely eliminates any uncertainty as to which market sold the most tobacco and enables Greenville to carry the honor of the largest bright leaf market in the world.

Ann Harding Seeks Divorce

Hollywood, Calif., March 24.—(AP)—Martial unhappiness is listed as the price fame exacted from Ann Harding, film star, in an announcement that she and Harry Bannister, her leading man when she was a stage star on Broadway, would be divorced.

Blame for the rift was placed at the door of Hollywood fame in the announcement of the contemplated divorce, made by both Miss Harding and Bannister. It revealed a story not unfamiliar to Hollywood since it became the stamping ground of genius. It was the story of how one mate, however happily wed, can be shunted into obscurity, his own identity lost, in the radiance of the other.

Seven Negroes To Die May 13

Montgomery, Ala., March 24.—(AP)—Death sentences for seven of the eight negroes convicted at Scottsboro, Ala., a year ago of assaulting two white girls were affirmed today by the Alabama Supreme Court.

YOUNG WOMAN IS KIDNAPED

Lincoln, Neb., March 24.—(AP)—Miss Laurel Morrison, 30, Aurora, Neb., beauty parlor operator, was missing today and the police expressed belief she has been kidnaped for $1,000 ransom.

A letter demanding that amount was received at Aurora yesterday by Miss Morrison's partner in business but while neither its contents nor the address on the envelope were in the missing woman's handwriting, the writer explained the substance was "dictated" by another individual.

Following receipt of the message, which was mailed at Lincoln yesterday afternoon and instructed that the money be mailed to Miss Morrison in care of the Lincoln general delivery, the authorities instituted search for the woman under direction of Sheriff J. J. Mohr, at the request of her father, Robert Morrison, wealthy Central City farmer.

STILL TAKEN NEAR AYDEN

Negro Distiller Also Bagged by Federal Officers Near Cannon's Cross Roads

Continuing their operations in Pitt county with unabated zeal, federal and county officers captured a whiskey still and distiller in the Cannon's Cross Roads community of Ayden township late yesterday afternoon.

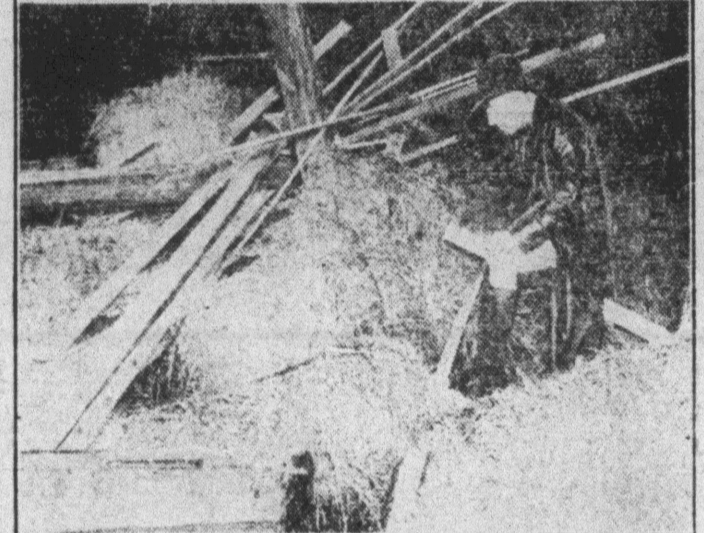

The distiller, Bennie Lee Smith, colored, was brought to Greenville and given preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner T. E. Beaman and remanded to jail in default of $250 bond.

The raid also netted four gallons of whiskey, 250 gallons of beer and a small amount of equipment. The steam plant, was in operation when officers arrived.

Smith fled when officers commanded him to "throw up his hands," and led a lively chase through swampland at places filled with water two or three feet deep. He was finally captured, however, and talked glibly of his connection with the still.

The prisoner, officers stated, swore the still belonged to Roland Cannon on whose farm it was situated, and that he had been employed by Cannon for five weeks at a salary of $17.5 a week and board. He said Cannon had been away from the still about twenty-five minutes when the raid was made and was to bring back dinner.

The pair left Memphis in a plane Harrah purchased from a Memphian a short while before the takeoff. Williams said engine trouble and a small supply of gasoline forced them to land near Ernsville shortly after leaving Memphis en route to Beckley.

ROOSEVELT WINS IN GA.

New York Governor Mops Up With Judge Howard in Presidential Primary

Atlanta, March 24.—(AP)—Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt won Georgia's convention votes in yesterday's Democratic Presidential preference primary by overwhelming Judge G. H. Howard of Atlanta, who advocated the candidacy of John Garner.

The New York executive had a popular plurality of approximately ten to one on the latest tabulation and 395 of the possible 410 county unit votes had been placed in his column with five counties missing. Judge Howard was leading only in Catoosa county, and newspaper correspondents there said complete returns would give the county to Roosevelt.

Latest returns gave Roosevelt 51,071 popular votes to Howard's 5,717. If he captures Catoosa county's two unit votes and wins in the five missing counties as his supporters have predicted, he will score a grand slam 410 county unit votes and have the unanimous approval of the state convention. #### LILLYCROP IS SPEAKER HERE

Episcopal Rector Delivered Sermon at Union Service This Morning

At the united service at Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, Rev. W. A. Lillycrop spoke on the subject of "Our Discipleship," this morning, basing his message on the Sermon on the Mount.

Throughout the entire discourse, the preacher emphasized the necessity of Christian people putting their religion into practice. Among other things he mentioned, that we should live lives holy unto God, as members of the church we should be unlike men of the world, that Christ came to fulfill the law and not to do away with it. We should fill our lives to the fullest by love even to the extent of loving our enemies and being perfect even as our Father in heaven is perfect, that as the divine shining out in the life of Christ so should it shine out through our lives, that shines out you, do so even so unto them.

RELIEF WORK BEING RUSHED

Death List Given as 358 as Reports Continue to Trickle in From Alabama, Tennessee and Other Affected States; Governor Miller of Alabama Begins Personal Survey of Situation

Birmingham, Ala., March 24.—(AP)—Relief agencies and neighbors of the stricken lent a hand of mercy to the south's tornado victims today as the death list grew to 358.

Survivors worked with the American Red Cross, the American Legion and other organizations to bury the dead, care for the injured, house the homeless and launch a program to rehabilitate the devastated regions.

The Red Cross established relief headquarters here and authorized eight centers of operations over the storm area following the arrival of Dr. William H. Kleine, general medical advisor, and C. Wade Downing of the Washington office.

Field representatives pushed into the less accessible communities dashed flat by the freakish winds of Monday night to survey damage and determine the amount of aid needed. An appeal for contributions was launched here last night after relief workers conferred and estimated that $150,000 to $200,000 would be needed for immediate needs of the storm victims.

Today's death list by states showed: Alabama 298, Georgia 37, Tennessee 14, North Carolina 3, and Kentucky 4.

Governor Miller of Alabama began a personal survey of the tornado-struck regions of his state and Governor Richard B. Russell, Jr., assured John J. Crane, general field representative of the Red Cross, who has begun organization of relief work in Georgia, of full cooperation in that state.

While some of the rescue workers searched for wreckage for additional dead today, others joined survivors and neighbors of victims in the repair and reconstruction of homes. Hospitalization of the injured continued and coats, blankets, tents, food and clothing were distributed.

Colonel Sumner Smith of the Alabama National Guard made an aerial reconnaissance of a portion of the storm struck county and said it looked as though a titanic drag had been lowered to the ground to sweep it clean. "I have never seen destruction to equal it," he said.

He told of fields littered with debris, houses torn to splinters and forest that were a mass of broken timbers.

Field Representative Crane of the Red Cross gave a picture of conditions in a ten mile-long 400-yard-wide strip of country in Macon county in North Georgia. He found 56 homes demolished, 39 partially destroyed, 14 persons dead and 178 injured in that territory, he said. The countryside, he added, was cooperating in helping the sufferers.

DISCOVERS WHOLE GRADE CHILDREN WITH GOOD TEETH
"Speaking of the recent Milk-for-Health Campaign," said Dr. F. A. Branch, director of the division of dentistry of the state board of health, "I made a most unusual discovery in New Hanover County recently, and one that certainly was a surprise to me. I found the first grade children in the Wrightsboro school with perhaps the best teeth of any children yet examined in the state. I could not account for it, until I had investigated their diet and food habits and found that they were practically all milk drinkers."

Such an unusual occurrence was this," said Dr. Branch, "to find the teeth of an entire grade of children in what might be called good condition, when I had been finding them, in some cases beyond any hope of repair, that I went back to town and of Dr. A. H. Elliott, county health officer, Mr. Addison Hewitt, chairman of the county commissioners, and Mr. John Wessill of the Wilmington Star to accompany me out to the school. I wanted them to bear out my findings and assist me in accounting for the difference. As this is a somewhat recent settlement, the people having come from one of the "old countries" where milk and butter were principal food elements, the secret was out. The children, as well as their parents, were users of plenty of milk."

Dr. Branch says as a rule he finds the best teeth in the mouths of children who drink milk.

It was announced that the next regular meeting of the Woman's Club on April 7th, will be a joint meeting with the County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs. State Horticulturist, E. B. Morrow, will give an illustrated lecture, using slides.

Mrs. D. M. Clark was program leader for the afternoon. Her subject was "Review of New Biography." The book selected was "The Autobiography of Lincoln Steffens." Mrs. Clark first read an appreciation of Lincoln Steffens by Emily Newell Blair. This writer says no other autobiography rivals this. The absence of history was omitted due to the absence of Mrs. Darden.

Mrs. Hart, assisted by her niece, Miss Helen, served delicious home made cake, sandwiches and hot tea. —Reported.

Continue Hearing in Wooten Case
Hearing of evidence was still in progress today in the case of the Commissioner of Banks against Judge F. M. Wooten, vice-president of the Farmers Bank which closed here over two years ago.

Presentation of testimony by the defense was begun yesterday morning and it was not expected this would be completed before tomorrow morning. The case was commenced Monday afternoon and has held the spotlight since.

The Commissioner of Banks is attempting to set aside a deed of transfer which is alleged to have prevented the recovery of a stock assessment against Wooten following the closing of the institution.

The transfer was said to have been made in the fall and the bank closed the following January, and the plaintiff charges that the defendant knew the bank to be in an insolvent condition when the transfer was made.

Wooten, on the other hand, contends he had no knowledge of the unsound condition of the bank and has introduced considerable testimony to that effect. Approximately $8,160 in stock is involved in the suit.

Kitty Frew

By Jane Abbott

SYNOPSIS: Gar will write to her, Kitty Frew thinks, although she left him after a quarrel that upset their brief married life. She is determined that he support her. He wants to live on his mother's money. Kitty is working in Strattons store while Gar helps Marge Crosby stage amateur theatricals.

Chapter 20
SECURITY TUMBLER
 Josie noticed her radiance. "You look as if something nice had happened to you, Miss Brandon. Did you have a date with your boyfriend last night?"
 Kitty shook her head. But she laughed. "Something nice has happened."

Josie was in high spirits herself. "Look at these, Miss Brandon. Aren't they a bargain for the money?" And when Kitty came closer, "Something nice happened to me last night, I met the sweetest man. Gee, I guess it was love at first sight."

Josie's confidence interested Kitty. Josie did not care that Kitty gave no confidence in return. Probably Josie considered she had none to give.

Her friendliness had given Kitty more confidence in her work. Quite consciously she had copied Josie's competent sales manner. But today she felt a zest that was not borrowed from Josie. It was a busy day. Blouses? She had patience for the most exacting shopper.

A jersey dress copied from an imported model was the joke of the department, to everyone but Miss Lee, the buyer. It had hung in the case since spring.

"No, I don't want a suit—I want a dress of some kind, something that's different," a customer told Kitty this morning. And Kitty took the jersey dress out of the case. "It's a Patou copy," she said, as she had said before, but there was a difference in her voice this morning and in the way she smiled over the garment as she held it out. "Don't you want to try it on?"

And ten minutes later the dress went to the bundle counter, sold. A little later Miss Lee, approaching Kitty in her brisk manner, commended her for her sale. "What time do you go out for lunch, Miss Brandon? Twelve? Change with one of the girls and come with me at one. I've an appointment at the Hoffman at two-thirty and we'll eat there."

At Strattons Kitty knew Miss Lee as an efficient manager, with a brittle manner that made the girls in her department a little afraid of her. But as they sat down at a small table in the Hoffman dining-room she seemed to soften, grow younger, more animated, as if she threw off a self she kept for business just as she slipped out of her smart coat and let the waiter fold it over the chair's back.

"Now, let's see—" Miss Lee suggested one thing and another. "You'll like the chef's salad. And oysters, Sweetbread patties—that sounds good. Are there mushrooms with them, waiter? Mushrooms—and the pumpkin pie." She put the card down, immensely satisfied and looked at Kitty.

Her glance rested on Kitty's face speculatively. "Do you like your work?"
 "Oh, yes, now. I felt stupid at first."

"Well, that's a good sign, that you're willing to admit you were stupid. I've been watching you. You'll get on. In fact I picked you out for good material the first day you came. You worked as if you wanted to—most of them don't do that. Why you want to, of course, is your business but it's mine to know that you are in earnest, not just taking a try at it."

Her tone was questioning and Kitty answered:
 "I am in earnest, truly."
 "Good. Ill tell you what's on my mind but don't say anything about it in the department. They've promised me an assistant—the promise is so old that it has moss on it, but they've got to make good this spring even since you've been there. Miss Brandon? Well, if they want local employment or relief agency and in that way contribute their bit to the relief of unemployment. The national committee on employment is asking everybody to do his bit in the relief program, and all organizations as well as individuals have been called upon to aid in the fight to provide for the jobless until they are able to take care of themselves.

Farm operations probably will do much toward relieving unemployment in the rural districts of Pitt County, but there still remains hundreds of men and women walking the streets daily in a futile attempt to find work.

At first the jobless sought only the type of work for which they were best fitted but their condition has become so critical they are willing to do anything to earn their daily bread and keep the wolf from their door until the economic situation improves.

If people contemplating improvements would begin them at once they would not only be able to save money but would also help the nation out in what is generally conceded to be the most crucial period in history.

It is a tremendous task providing for those in need, but it is one for which everybody should assume responsibility if the nation is to gain the high plane of prosperity again with public morale unimpaired.

WANT ADS PAY

ABOUT TOWN

Al Capone isn't getting any sympathy from the courts of this country. His appeal for a new trial for violation of income tax laws was rejected by Supreme Court yesterday, which means that the gang leader will have to pay for his crime against society.

Capone is using every influence at his command to cheat the government out of punishing him for his long years of underworld activities, but Uncle Sam will not be cheated. The law in this instance is as inexorable as fate itself and upon might as well resign himself to do the best he can until a term in prison has been completed.

Congressman Lindsay Warren is sympathetic with ex-service men attempting to induce the government to pay them the remainder of a money due on their Adjusted Service Certificates, but owing to a serious financial situation confronting the nation, thinks it is unadvisable whether the measure will be acted upon this session.

Mr. Warren stated he had always been in favor of this form of legislation, and would continue to favor believing the men who crossed a sea and gave their life's blood for their country were deserving a best the government can give them.

Proponents of the bill believe it would have a tendency to relieve widespread suffering caused by depressed finances, carrying relief to thousands of veterans of the World War who have walked the streets terminally in quest of work. Pitt county veterans are in favor of the full payment of the compensation as suggested in the bill introduced by Representative Patman Texas, believing over $600,000 which the country would receive would do much to relieve the depressed economic situation.

Congressman find it inadvisable pass the bill at this time but one thing is sure and that is the ex-service men will not give up the fight until they have accomplished their purpose.

Officers believe that in the capture of the alleged head of the liquor syndicate operating in this part of the state they have won a damper on illicit whiskey.

The arrest was accompanied by a seizure of a large still and four men are being detained for questioning.

The ring head was reported to have been connected with the MFC in this immediate territory for years, and the rings' activities extended from Virginia to Florida. Government officers have given considerable attention to the MFC hereabouts the last two months, and if they continue like they have started it is impossible to determine the effect which their capture will have on the run rackets.

Extortionists who have been reading a reign of terror in the western section of the country have brought their operations to North Carolina, judging by reports on Winston-Salem telling of the real death against a wealthy man unless she pays $10,000. Officers will do everything in their power to ferret out the senders of the threatening letters and they are apprehended the law will deal with them as severely as hers have been dealt with in her parts of the nation.

PHILLIES ALL SET FOR THE BIG SCRAMBLE

By Alan Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
Winter Haven, Fla., March 24.—(AP)—Far from appearing a futile factor in the National League picture this spring, the Philadelphia Nationals look strong enough to figure in a prospective five-club scramble for fourth place.

They do not hear the pennant buzz nor does their manager Burt Shotton, dream of miracles in this age of enforced realities but he most decidedly things his club will show improvement, for at least three reasons. Its followers think it will battle Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, Boston and Cincinnati in the tussle to get out of the second division.

First and foremost is the Phils' outlook for much better pitching, with some adequate talent for the all-important "mop-up" work, as well as a "big four" consisting of Phil Collins, Jim Elliott, Ray Benge and Clise Dudley.

Second, there is more speed and aggressive spirit manifest. The team is varying the suging monotony by bumping and base-running. Finally Shotton has real hopes of bolstering an outfield that for the past few seasons has consisted of Klein, Klein and Klein.

Personally, Shotton does not think there is another outfielder in the league as good as Charles Herbert Klein of in Indianapolis, the shouldered lad who ousted Grover Alexander for a double the first time he batted in the big show and who has thumped out a four year average of .300.

To strengthen the outer patrol where enemy singles have been sitting through for doubles and triples, Shotton has confidence in Hal Lee for left field and a new comer, George Davis, from St. Paul, for the middle garden. Davis formerly starred for New York University and comes up after four good seasons in double a company.

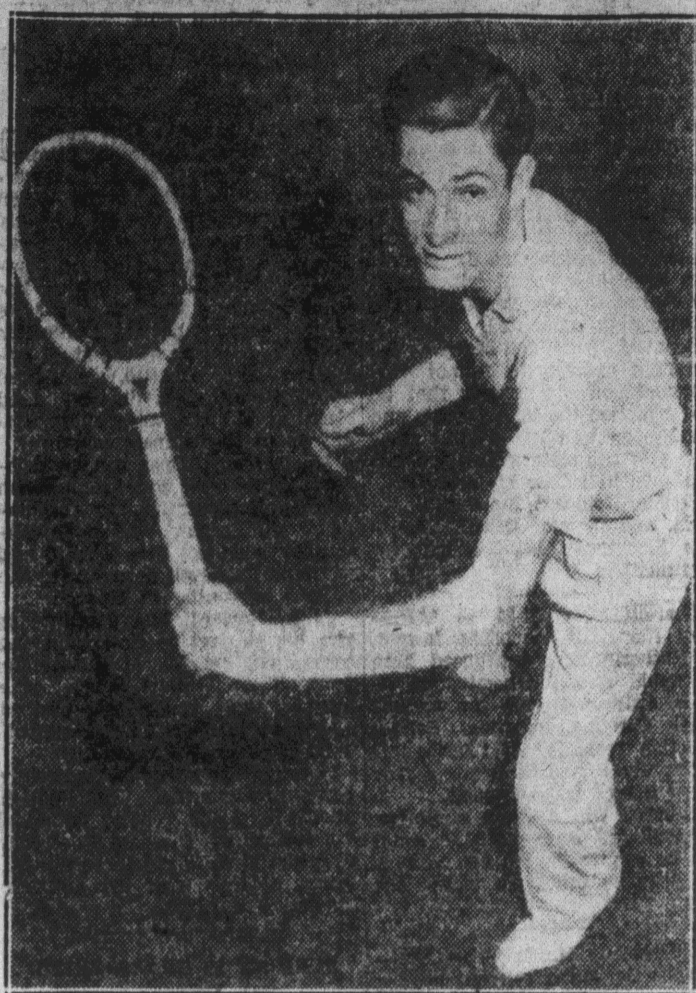

If they do not measure up, the Phils have the veteran Rube Bressler or the choice of Russ Scarritt, ex-Red Sox, or Fred Brickell, a speed merchant but weak stickler.

Aside from Benge, Dudley, Collins and Elliott, the big southpaw who won 19 games for a sixth place club last year, Shotton bases his anticipation of better pitching upon the showing of a trio of newcomers—Roy Hansen, tall southpaw from Dallas, Reg Carbowski, signed as a free agent and Edwar Holley, right hander from Kansas City, Frank Watt, Bob Adams, a 20-year old boy obtained from Richmond and Stew Blain, left hander, are candidates for the two remaining staff jobs.

Al Todd from Dallas, is one of the best looking young backstops on view in any Florida camp. He seems certain to make himself useful, in support of Virgil Davis, No. 1 receiver, and Harry McCurdy.

With Captain Arthur (Pinkey) Whitney in improved health, for his work at third, and Les Mallon a much improved second baseman, the infield appears the backbone of the clubs defensive strength. Dick Bartell is at short and Don Hurst, a slugger, on first. In reserve are Barney of the Passic N. J., Athletic tribe that also includes Fritz Knothe, Boston Braves' infielder.

DAVIS CUP STAR IN ACTION

Frank Shields, U. S. Davis cup player, is shown in an unusual action shot taken during the national indoor championships in New York. Shields is expected to assume a large share of the singles load in the international matches this year.

Heavy Damage Results From Forest Fires

Raleigh March 24.—(AP)—Although forest fires in other sections were reported dying out, Washington county reported a blaze which had already done more than $200,000 damage was still raging, and flames continued to exact a heavy toll around Southern Pines today.

The Norfolk Southern railway station at Pike Road, near Washington, was destroyed, and burned trestles and warped rails halted traffic over the line between Belhaven and Mackeys. Five carloads of farm produce were destroyed at Wenona, a warehouse of the New Holland corporation was burned, and four farmers lost their barns and livestock.

Highway traffic through the section was halted.

Southern Pines reported a new outbreak of flames which had swept over more than 50 square miles in the famous sandhills resort section, and at one time threatened the town itself.

Cardui Had Helped Her During Girlhood

"I WAS tired all the time—had misery in my back and sides that kept me feeling bad," writes Mrs. H. H. Penn, 839 Front St., Portsmouth, Ohio. "I was in a nervous and weakening condition. I lost in weight.

"During girlhood, mother had given me Cardui, and it had helped me so much then that I decided to take it again. I took several bottles and my strength began to return and I gained in weight. I soon lost that tired and weary feeling.

"Cardui has done me a great deal of good since then. I have taken Cardui several times . . . and have been benefited. It does me lots of good, and I am always ready to recommend it."

Myers confessed his guilt to Taylor. The executive counsel said he had never seen a more remarkable case, commenting that a snail played on the negro's face as he was told that there was no chance for a reprieve.

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, March 24.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 4 to 7 points on covering and trade buying, promoted by firm cables. May sold at 6.53.

Houses with Liverpool and continental connections were said to be among the buyers at the opening, while there was considerable covering in preparation for the holidays just ahead. The demand was supplied by some further liquidation and a little southern selling, however, and the volume of business tapered off with the market comparatively quiet by the end of the first half hour at net advances of 7 to 8 points.

Liverpool cables reported continental and Bombay buying in that market and reported a small demand for cotton cloths and yarns for the British home trade and India.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, March 24.—(AP)—Late rallies in wheat prices today resulted largely from pre-holiday adjustment of accounts and from widely varying enlarged estimates of North American export business.

Some estimates put the total of Canadian wheat exports sales as high as 1,500,000 bushels, and noted 300,000 bushels additional from the United States. Other estimates of Canadian export sales were down to 750,000 bushels.

Wheat closed irregular, at 1-8 to 1-4 decline to 1-2 advance compared with yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to 1-4 higher, oats 1-4 up, and provisions 7 to 17 cents down.

STOCK MARKET

New York, March 24.—(AP)—The stock market was unable to make progress today, in the face of pre-holiday speculative apathy.

The list pushed up moderately in the early trading, as higher crude prices bolstered the oils, but scattered selling soon appeared, which erased most of the advance, and carried a number of rails, utilities and specialties 1 to 2 points lower. Selling appeared to represent largely a pre-holiday lightening of accounts, however, as many traders were preparing to leave town until Monday.

Losses of around 2 points cropped out in Santa Fe and Union Pacific, and issues of a point orso included American Telephone, North American, American Tobacco B, McKeesport, National Biscuit and Proctor and Gamble. U. S. Steel and General Motors sagged fractionally, the latter registering another new low. Anaconda and Kennecott again dipped fractionally to new bottom prices. Standards of New Jersey and California sold up more than a point during the temporary morning upturn, and fractional advances in the oil group were numerous for a time.

The advance of 15 cents a barrel in crude prices in the mid-continent area, posted by Continental Oil, was apparently to be followed by other producers generally, and represented the first upturn since November. Further firmness in gasoline prices was forecast as a result. While petroleum prices stiffened however, copper was again heavy. Copper Exporters, Inc., reduced its price at European base ports 3-8 of a cent to 61-4 cents a pound.

SALES TAX IS STRICKEN FROM REVENUE MEASURE

Washington, March 24.—(AP)—The House today pressed toward a settlement of the sales tax controversy amid claims of impending victory by opponents.

Several knotty parliamentary tangles were to be ironed out before that question which lies at the foundations of the new revenue bill. A number of amendments are pending.

One of the most important of these represents an attempt by the ways and means committee to smooth away some of the opposition by exempting food, clothing, farm implements, medicines, insecticides and malt syrup for making bread from the articles upon which the sales tax would be imposed.

After these are disposed of, debate will begin on a motion by Representative Doughton (D., N. C.) to strike out the sales levy.

The first question before the house was an amendment by Representative Leihbach (R., N. J.) to exempt from the 2.25 per cent manufacturers levy merchant vessels constructed in American shipyards with government loans.

Although Representative Rainey of Illinois, the Democratic leader, clung to the hope that the sales tax would be approved, Acting Chairman Crisp of the ways and means committee indicated he was doubtful of the outcome.

CHINESE GOVERNMENT TO HELP RECOVER AMERICAN

Baker's boat ran around in January of this year, and since then his friends have done nothing but pay and negotiate without results.

On one occasion the bandits agreed to accept $5,000 cash, and a rendezvous was arranged with the bandit chief, who, signed all his notes "The presidium of the Soviet Government for Kienli District."

The money was sent ashore from a lighter under the protection of a gunboat in the Yangtze, while Baker, his hands tied, was sent into the river in a sampan.

When the bandits got their hands on the money, they called the sampan back to shore, and the gunboat stood helplessly by, its batteries silent for fear of killing the captive.

POLICE PUSH SEARCH FOR TWO 'KNOWN' KIDNAPPERS

State Police H. Norman Schwarzkopf said in today's official bulletin on the case.

"Since the kidnapping he has not been seen or accounted for in any way. It is desired to find Abis Wagner for the purpose of questioning him and having him account for his activities just prior to and at the time of the kidnapping."

"Investigations covering the state of New Jersey, New York state, Long Island, Philadelphia and various parts of Pennsylvania have not as yet disclosed his whereabouts."

"Harry F. Eckert, also a known kidnapper and involved in the Price kidnapping in Connecticut, has been unaccounted for since the kidnapping. An unincorporated report associat A. A. Wagner with Harry Fleischer. Every effort is being made to locate Harry Fleischer so he may be questioned concerning his whereabouts prior to and at the time of the kidnapping."

"Col. Schwarzkopf said that several babies reported to be the Lindbergh child had been examined without results, although some of the likenesses were remarkable."

SENATE TURNS DOWN JONAS

House, winning the ninth district North Carolina seat in the Hoover landslide of 1928.

Jonas lost out in the Senate when administration men abandoned his cause, and not even a record vote was required. Senator Watson, of Indiana, the Republican leader, announced he could not vote for Jonas, although considering him qualified, because Senator Bailey of North Carolina pronounced the nominee "personally obnoxious" to him.

Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, turned against the Carolinian on the basis of a statement attributed to him to the effect that justice could not be had in North Carolina's state courts. Other statements by the nominee were quoted to oppose him. The judiciary committee had recommended against him largely because of criticism he directed at the Nye campaign funds investigating committee.

Senators Bailey and Morrison led the fight against the former congressman, on the grounds that he had criticized the state's courts and the Nye election investigating committee in the state without grounds upon which to base his assertions.

Senator Robinson, Indiana Republican, and Senator Schall, Minnesota Republican, led the fight for confirmation.

Charlotte, March 24.—(AP)—Fred Hamrick, Republican lawyer, of Rutherfordton, announced here he would seek the nomination as U. S. district attorney for western North Carolina, following Senate rejection yesterday of Charles A. Jones, who served for nearly a year under a recess appointment.

Hamrick was a Jonas supporter, but indicated, since the latter could not be confirmed, he saw no reason why he could not make the race.

Lincolnton, March 24.—(AP)—Charles A. Jonas, rejected by the Senate yesterday as district attorney for Western North Carolina, had nothing to say today except that he is "very happy at the way my friends have stuck to me."

"I still hold my commission," he said.

ROOSEVELT WINS IN GA.

Georgia was the first southern state to hold a preference primary. It is the adopted state of Governor Roosevelt who visits Warm Springs regularly for his health. The state nominates its Democratic candidates on a unique unit system. Each of the 159 counties has twice as many votes in the state convention as it has representatives in the lower house of the state legislature. Four counties with a total of eight unit votes did not hold elections, but the votes automatically go in the winners column.

The winner names county delegates to the state convention which selects representatives to the national convention. The state convention will meet here April 6 and will send Roosevelt delegates to the national convention in Chicago.

Judge Howard, who promised to give his support to Garner at the convention, conducted a vigorous fight. Thomas (Pat) Gillen, who managed his campaign, pledged allegiance to Governor Roosevelt if he is nominated at Chicago.

Governor Roosevelt carried many boxes unanimously. The Reswell legislature in Cobb county, home of the mother of Theodore Roosevelt, gave him 15 votes and Howard none. Warm Springs gave the governor 218 and Howard one.

PURIFOY IS TRANSFERRED

Charles and Joe Clinton, colored, arrested in connection with the operation of the Green Wreath still, were given preliminary hearing yesterday and remained to jail in default of $300 bond each. Officers said it was established that the men were hired operators of the still.

The case is still developing, it was said today, and several prominent men were expected to be indicted for complicity in the next ten days.

The still was believed to be one of a chain operated by the alleged syndicate headed by Purifoy with headquarters at New Bern, and was the largest rounded up by officers here in sometime. A considerable quantity of whiskey, beer and paraphernalia were also taken.
