Garden Club. Farmville, March 31.—The members of the Garden Club enjoyed an interesting meeting and an instructive program Monday afternoon when Mrs. E. F. Gainer was hostess at her home on Church street.

Mrs. R. E. Boyd read a selection, "The Daisy, Flower of the Month"; Mrs. Gainer gave a history of "The Dogwood, Shrub of the Month"; Mrs. J. M. Hogwood discussed "The Apple Tree" and Mrs. Charles Mazingo read a poem "April."

A table exhibit exploiting Forestry and Bird Weeks was brought to the attention of the club members by the president, Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, the organization of a Bird Club among the younger folks being discussed as was the clearing of vacant lots for summer recreation plots.

Mrs. J. B. Hogwood, State Federation president, briefly outlined plans for the state meeting to be held in May.

Changes in the time of services always occur on the first Sunday in April and the first Sunday in October, it was stated, and the public was urged to take full cognizance of the fact.

Choral Society to Give Cantata in City Tonight

Tonight at 8:30 in the old auditorium of the college, the Greenville Choral Society will present the sacred cantata "The Holy City" by A. Gaul. The entertainment has been secured for the enjoyment of the students of the college, 250 of the best seats being reserved for the town audience.

The officers of the Choral Society are as follows: President, Mrs. Charles A. White, vice president, Mrs. Ray Tyson, Jr., secretary, Mrs. Knott Proctor; treasurer, Mrs. Ed Harvey. The executive committee is composed of the president, Mrs. Eva Hodges and June Rose. This organization is one of which Greenville may well be proud. It is composed of 42 of the best voices in the city and neighboring towns.

For 14 weeks these music lovers have met and under the able direction of Frank R. Hufty have put forth their best efforts to make this cantata a satisfactory and inspiring climax to their year work.

As the Choral Society has no financial backing of any kind, the organization is depending on the cooperation and support of the many people in the city who are fond of hearing good music well rendered to attend the concert.

Seldom do we have the opportunity to hear a composition of such rare beauty as the Holy City. Not only is this piece of music one which can well be heard at any time of the year but especially should it be heard at this Easter Season on account of the deep and lasting inspiration to be gathered from the piece.

D. A. R. Tournament. Farmville, March 31.—Charming and delightful in every detail was the bridge tournament held on Tuesday evening, sponsored by the Major Benjamin May chapter, D. A. R., and which ushered in the spring socials here following the Lenten season.

The tournament was held in the lobby of the American Legion Home the spring season being emphasized in the floral decorations and table appointments. Contract, auction and rummy were played at eighteen tables, the following players being prize winners: Ladies' contract prize, Miss Elizabeth Davis; men's, R. H. Cason; Auction, ladies' first, Mrs. Lath Morris; second, Miss Sallie Norwood; third, Mrs. George Monk; fourth, Mrs. G. S. Vought; fifth, Miss Tabitha DeVisconti; men's first, Curtis Flanagan; second, John Lewis; rummy high score, Harry Lang; consolation, Mrs. J. Y. Monk and M. Vasey. A fruit salad was served together with sandwiches and Russian tea.

Miss Horton Hostess. Farmville, March 31.—Miss Evelyn Horton was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Club this week at her home on Church street. Spring flowers were used as decorations and motifs and colors of table appointments were appropriate to the season. A salad course was served after five progressions. In addition to the club members, Miss Horton had as guests Misses Rachel Lewis, Lucy Johnston, Rosalie Lang and Mrs. Harry Lang.

A contract tournament is being played at present by this club, which was recently organized with the following members: Misses Louise Smith, Edna Foust Harris, Evelyn Horton, Elizabeth Fields, Elizabeth Davis, Mesdames Harold Suggs Askew, Judd Walker and C. P. Vincent.

FARMVILLE HIGH TO PLAY BASEBALL. Farmville, March 31.—Farmville high school is sponsoring a baseball team this season, the squad working out daily in preparation for the first schedule played in years. The schedule consists of six conference and six non-conference games. Uniforms were donated by various merchants and business firms here.

April Fools Hold Limelight in City. Today is April Fool day and pranking ran rampant during the early morning hours both in business and residential districts.

Many an early riser found himself the victim of pranks when he got out of bed, and some probably before they had completed their visit with Morpheus.

The Kiwanis club was to bring the day to a climax tonight with an April Fools program in charge of George Woodward who will be assisted by a contingent of the club's best fools.

The best prank of the day was pulled off on Claude Gaskins, affable register of deeds. As the story goes, one of his friends entered the courthouse hastily this morning and told Mr. Gaskins a good looking "blonde" wanted to see him. If there's anything Claude likes it is a blonde and he rushed through the court house to greet the visitor.

Instead of a dazzling woman, the only thing that greeted the view of the smiling Claude was the rugged countenance of Frank Harrington, clerk of Superior court. Frank smiled and guffawed—and Claude kicked him in the britches.

Lumber Company Loses Account Suit Here Today

Tar River Lumber Company failed to recover in its suit, against V. E. Fleming and wife in the civil term of Superior court here today.

The company was suing for an account of $2,100 growing out of the erection of a building by the defendants. The defendants contended they awarded contract for construction of the building of a local contractor and that he was responsible for the debt.

The plaintiffs maintained, however, that although the building materials were shipped to the contractor, the owners were responsible.

The jury received the case shortly before 11 o'clock and within 20 minutes returned a decision failing to find the defendants liable.

ABOUT TOWN

Three carloads of chickens and one carload of potatoes have been shipped to northern markets by Pitt county growers this week. This means several thousand dollars in the pockets of the growers who had vision enough to give attention to extra sources of revenue at a time when they were confronted with collapse of prices for the main money crops.

It is impossible to say how much the farmers will receive from sales of hogs, chickens, potatoes and other food crops during the season, but the revenue will be sufficient to enable the recipients to proceed with the planting of new crops in much better form than under ordinary circumstances.

Attention to extra sources of revenue would be the salvation of farmers of this part of the country, and it is hoped they will go into the business on a more extensive scale this year than ever before.

The Mutual Exchange is exerting every influence for the creation of new markets and this should inspire every grower to plant more of the things he uses at home and sell the surplus for outside consumption.

Automobile wrecks cost this country hundreds of millions of dollars annually, but despite this fact drivers continue operating their cars carelessly and with little regard for the rights of the thousands of other people on the highways.

It is an established fact that most of the accidents happen among drivers with more than two years of experience at the wheels. Records show the expert driver takes chances the inexperienced man would never think of taking and the result is either death or injury.

It is generally believed the high toll of death and injury is caused largely by inexperienced drivers, the latest statistics which show the men to be far in the lead of the feminine gender.

The appalling loss of life and property ought to cause everybody to consider the danger confronting him on every hand and to try to do his part toward improving the situation.

Gastonia business men think existing conditions demand Congress to take drastic action for curtailment of governmental expenses.

The rest of the country will agree in this instance, realizing as it does that the government by eliminating unnecessary departments should be able to save millions of dollars.

City and county governments have found it imperative to reduce expenses in every way possible, and if they should find such action necessary it is supposed the national government ought to find the same step imperative.

The time has come when the entire nation must get down to strict economy. The sooner it is done the sooner the high plane of prosperity which was left behind last year will be regained.

The national government can not hope to continue operating under conditions similar to the inflated period and when this fact is recognized and the demand for economy met the public will feel more like paying the taxes imposed upon it.

Kitty Frew

SYNOPSIS: While Marge Crossby tries to interest Garfield Frew through their work in amateur theatricals, Gar's wife, Kitty, contentedly stays at home and manages their small household. Kitty keeps a budget—and Gar proves himself a rich man's son in his extravagances. She begins to worry about their expenses.

Chapter 27
THREE PINK ROSEBUDS

"I told DI we could get along without her. She had something else on this afternoon," Marge had explained casually.

She had produced a long list of names for "Your mother made it out. Gar. I ran into her at the Century Club yesterday and she asked me if she could help us. Wasn't that dear of her when she's so busy? She said a lot of nice things about what we're doing. She's going to give a theater party the first night. That'll make splendid publicity. Oh, speaking of publicity—I'm going to ask the Times to send that Dorcas Taber over to get a feature story of the whole thing. It'll run well all about the theater and who's really back of it and who's in the first cast and Somerset and everything."

"Good idea!" Gar had responded promptly. But he had been thinking how stunning Marge looked in the thing she was wearing, whatever it was. She looked like the favorite in a harem; he had played with that fancy while Marge was talking.

He had been lounging comfortably against the rose damask cushions of the divan, his feet stretched out toward the fire.

"I've got to do something about Somerset, Gar," she had said slowly. "He's well, he's taking too much for granted. But I can't offend him, just now. I wish you'd sort of stick around. If you'd go to the rehearsals—"

"The big bonder! Why didn't you say something about it before? You bet I'll stick 'round. He has his nerve!"

Marge had sighed faintly. Her hand had reached out and tucked itself under Gar's arm. He was completely at home in Marge's sitting room, pleasantly conscious of its luxury, of its seclusion, of the privilege that was his in so enjoying it.

She had told him of the progress the players were making. The costumes had been ordered from New York. He must see what Gordon Wing was doing with the back drop for the first act—it was perfect! Her low voice had run on and on from one thing to another, while Gar had listened and watched the little play of muscles under the fine skin of her throat.

"Gar, I had a wonderful talk with your mother, about you. Of course she'd say things to me that she wouldn't say to anyone else because she knows what friends you and I have been. She was so sweet I just opened my heart to her. I told her—well, I'm not going to tell you what I told her. You would have guessed it a long time ago except that you're so blind—"

"You're going to tell me, Marge?" Gar had asserted masterfully. "Shoot!"

She had shaken her head; she had leaned a little closer to his shoulder, her face bent away from him. When she answered there had been a suggestion of tears in her faltering voice.

"But there isn't any use, now. You've married Kitty. And you've spoiled me for anyone else. It's always been like that—that's the way I felt last winter when I came out. I didn't give a hang about any of the parties when you weren't going to be there. Oh—" She stirred restlessly. "I hate everything now! I'm sick of the crowd, of all this fuss over the theater. I'm going away from Winton this spring and I'm never coming back. I think I'll live in Paris all the rest of my life. Will you miss me, Gar?"

Gar had been touched by her confession, flattered. "I'll go after you and bring you back," he had answered quickly, vehemently. He had put his arm about her shoulder and kissed her. "Gosh, Marge, I'd miss you a lot! You can't go away!"

"Would you?" she had whispered against his arm.

He had straightened, smiling down at her.

"To prove that I think of you I sent you some flowers today—"

"Oh! Selby told me there were flowers—I haven't opened the box. I thought they were from Somerset. How dear of you, Gar?"

"I didn't put in a card. I wanted to see if you remembered our old nonsense. The three pink rosebuds—"

HIGH BEGINS BALL SEASON WITH TARBORO

Greenville high school baseball club was scheduled to open the conference season here this afternoon with Tarboro.

Following several days of intensive training, Coach (Squid) Porter announced that his boys were in splendid condition for the fray and had hopes of emerging with a majority of games played to their credit at the end of the season.

Some difficulty was experienced in filling the position behind the bat this season, but this had been entirely eliminated when the boys faced Tarboro in the initial clash this afternoon.

Five letter men were back in the line-up today, and with the probability of Roger Taylor appearing on the mound, the club looked forward hopefully to the success of their first engagement.

Taylor is considered one of the finest young moundmen in this conference and has a long string of victories to his credit. He was reported slightly indisposed yesterday and in case he isn't able to enter the box this afternoon, Dall will be selected to do mound duty.

Coach Porter has had an uphill fight with the athletic department the last two years because of the shortage of finances, and while this condition has not improved, he is hopeful the public will rally to the cause during the ball season and help get some of the red off the ledger.

Several games are on schedule for the season and the public has been urged to go out and give the club the support of which it expects and deserves.

DEMPSEY WILL TRY COMEBACK

Detroit, April 1.—(AP)—The first stage of his comeback campaign at an end, Jack Dempsey was headed westward today for a few weeks of rest on the coast before going into extensive training for a final crack at the title he lost six years ago to Gene Tunney.

Ousted Student

Gabriel Carritt, Oxford graduate and student at Columbia university, claims he was assaulted by officers who prevented a group of students from visiting the Kentucky coal mining area.

The former champion's exhibition tour ended here last night when he outpointed, but failed to knock down, Babe Hunt, Ponca City, Okla., heavyweight whose long arms and vicious left hook made him dangerous throughout.

It was not a decisive victory. The Associated Press score card showed the first and third rounds even and gave Dempsey the second and fourth by a shade. There was no official decision.

Dempsey had difficulty getting inside Hunt's defense in the first and in the second he took two stiff jabs to the face, then rushed Hunt to the ropes with a left and a right, and, utilizing the same combination, had the Oklahoma boy in distress again. They were slugging furiously at the end that neither heard the bell. In the fourth, Dempsey shrugged off some stiff punches and was chasing Hunt around the ring with vicious chops to the face when the bout ended.

The champion intends to do some intensive mountain climbing at a camp near Reur, Nev., to strengthen his legs and build up his stamina in anticipation of heavy fighting this summer, probably with Primo Carnera and, if his avowed hopes are realized, with Max Schmeling for the title.

MAJOR CLUBS SEE DIFFICULT DAYS AHEAD

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
New York, April 1.—(AP)—Faced with ten per cent taxation on their tickets and the risks of uncertain gate receipts, major league baseball clubs will need to play their drawing cards skillfully this year to keep from dipping any further into the red ink.

Only seven of the sixteen American and National league organizations showed a profit at the close of 1931. The lopsided character of the two opponent races was largely responsible for the slump in gate receipts but the national game, like every other sport, has felt the pinch of the times.

Player salaries have been reduced and the player limit cut, to bring about a saving estimated at about $750,000, but it will take additional measures to prevent further financial embarrassment for the magnates.

John McGraw, blaming the umpires for too much pacifism, believes the fans will turn out to see the ball players exhibit the scrappy spirit characteristic of McGraw's own playing days. Many old-timers agree with the Giants' leader but it is more likely the clubs will rely on closer pennant races and exploitations of individual stars to stimulate keener interest.

Besides their drawing power as world champions, the Cardinals are well fixed for providing a "good show" with players such as Pepper Martin and Dixie Dean.

The Yankees, besides the perennial ace of all drawing cards—Babe Ruth—have a widely heralded young star in Frank Crosetti to attract the folks in the Bronx. Across the bridge, Brooklyn figures Hack Wilson's comeback attempt will draw enough at the gate to offset at least his purchase price—$40,000.

The Boston Braves will allow Art Shires to do all the broadcasting he desires so long as he plays a satisfactory first base.

MORE PAY FOR COMMUNISTS

Russian Government Employees May Soon Get Substantial Salary Increases

By STANLEY P. RICHARDSON
(Associated Press Correspondent)
Moscow, March 31.—(AP)—Members of the Communist party, officials, as well as factory workers officials, as well as factory workers who heretofore have been limited to the most meagre salaries may soon cash in on substantial raises in pay.

The political bureau, it was said today is considering trebling the maximum monthly income allowed party members from 300 to 900 rubles (about $150 to $450).

The raises are planned in accordance with the policy outlined by Joseph Stalin nine months ago when he decided on the abolition of the system of "equal wages for all." Factory workers heretofore have been limited to the smallest salaries in order to set an example for the rest of the proletariat.

Three factors were said to be inspiring the action. The first is the enormous loss of time and energy by party members holding important posts due to the necessity for seeking out places where they may buy the necessities of life at prices commensurate with their incomes. The second is that many, especially those with large families, have sought extra work at writing or lecturing in order to augment their income. The third is that many capable officials have refused to accept posts of responsibility because they received the same pay as subordinates they would receive as chiefs, without the responsibility

Raleigh, March 31.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics were on their way here today from Orlando Florida, to which they bade adieu last night after dropping a game to the Cincinnati Reds, 10 to 9. Even with two home runs by Jimmy Fox, the Mackmen were beaten out when Mickey Heath cast the deciding vote for the Reds by hitting a homer in the ninth.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25¢ at all stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, April 1.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 3 to 5 points on trade buying and covering. May sold at 6.18.

There did not appear to be much cotton for sale at the start, but offerings increased on the bulge and prices eased after the initial demand had been supplied.

Prices just about lost the early gain under this pressure but the dips seemed to bring in more trade buying and covering which sent May up to 6.20 with the general list showing net advances of about 8 to 10 points before the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables said liquidation had been absorbed by covering and buying for a reaction in that market, but that business in Manchester goods was disorganized with a limited turnover.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, April 1.—(AP)—Selling ascribed largely to houses with eastern connections carried all grains downward late today, with corn reaching a new low price record for the season.

Declines of cereals came about in the face of relative steadiness of the stock market. Word that North American wheat export business had been of substantial volume was also ignored.

Wheat closed unsettled 3-8 to 3-4 under yesterday's finish; corn 5-8 to 11-2 down; oats 1-8 to 1-4 off and provisions unchanged to 10 higher.

STOCK MARKET

New York, April 1.—(AP)—Wall Street was still depressed today by the House of Representatives' approval of a stiff tax on stock transfers, but only scattered selling appeared in the share market.

The first day of the new ruling on loaning stocks to shorts had but little effect on the market. The advance a point or two here and there in the morning, then slowly settled back. Interest remained centered on Washington, and shares of some companies manufacturing products subject to proposed special levies were under pressure, notably the motors. But the list as a whole held up well, and trading was sluggish.

The public utilities were again under pressure. North American and Standard Gas dropped a couple of points to new lows, Eastman and Coca Cola each slumped more than 3 points, presumably reflecting the proposed tax on beverages and cigars. American Telephone held up well. It rose 3 points in an early upturn, then gave up most of its gain, but held above last night's close. U. S. Steel rose 11-2 then reacted. Allied Chemical lost a couple of points in the rails, Southern Pacific and Northern Pacific dropped a point to new lows. Auburn dropped 6 points, after yesterday's loss of 11. Fractional losses carried General Motors, Nash Studebaker and Hudson to new low points, as well as General Electric, DuPont and Kennecott.

Banking and brokerage quarters were inclined to the opinion that it would take something unusual in the way of good news to help the market very much while the federal tax uncertainty still hangs over it.

And Now He's An Iconoclast! Honolulu—"Dare" the two things I don't like," muttered Gordon Morgan, negro sea cook. "Both of them is cold." He made his remark after being trapped two hours in a freighter's ice box. He nearly froze to death.

CIVILIANS TO MEET NEXT AT WINSTON-SALEM Salisbury, April 1.—(AP)—Winston-Salem was chosen for the annual convention of the Carolinas district of Civitan Clubs to be held October 4 when the executive council of the organization met here last night. District Governor C. A. Hines of Greensboro presided.

GUN EXPERT WILL TESTIFY (Continued from page one) attorney of Lexington, for manslaughter in connection with the shooting of Sheriff James A. Leonard.

The solicitor did not announce the name of the firearms expert. Mrs. John B. Smith, who began her testimony yesterday, was recalled to the stand by the state as trial of the case was resumed this morning.

She lives across the street from Brinkley's home. Leonard was shot to death in the street before the home early the morning of February 5, after he had shot and wounded Neal Wimmer of Roanoke, Va., a truck driver.

Wimmer and Eddie Sullivan, of Palatka, Fla., owner of the truck, had picked up the sheriff, Younce and Brinkley after Leonard's car wrecked on the Winston-Salem highway. Leonard shot Wimmer during an argument over the responsibility for the wreck and Younce said the sheriff was shot as he (Younce) and the sheriff struggled for possession of the pistol.

Mrs. Smith said she was awakened and looked out her window, but did not see a gun. She saw two flashes, however, which appeared to come from where two men stood several feet from where Sheriff Leonard fell, she said.

After she saw the two flashes of a pistol discharging, she said, the two men walked up on the porch of Brinkley's home.

Sullivan, who also testified yesterday, was recalled and again denied he said, "Let's get our man" as other witnesses quoted some one in the group on the street as saying.

EDITORIAL

Cooperation is the inner element which guarantees or dooms any project, though it be humble or gigantic. In one sense of the word it is the embodying principle upon which our civilization rests.

Cooperation is evidenced in our support of the police force, in our payment of taxes, and is vitally necessary in the unemployment relief movement. Just as this is necessary in major movements, it is necessary in minor school activities.

Hardly a better time can be found to illustrate this principle than now. In the next three weeks our school will enter the district music contests where heretofore it has come through with colors flying. Although the practical value of these demonstrations is nil, the honor and glory of G. H. S. must be maintained, and to maintain them, cooperation is utterly necessary for those participants.

Being present and on time at rehearsals are as equally important as knowing your part. To know a piece and to know with someone else are two different propositions.

In any project, if we feel unwilling to cooperate, then the right thing to do is to refuse to take any part, because all shall accomplish more from that start than by dragging others behind. Because of a nail, the horse was lost; because of one squeaky clarinet, the contest was lost. The same principle applies to all school activities.

Triangular Debate. This morning at 10:55 the affirmative debating team from Washington and the negative debating team from New Bern met in the high school auditorium to debate the question of whether or not: The United States should adopt a system of compulsory unemployment insurance.

The affirmative team was upheld by Miss Ella Waters and Miss Katherine Harding. The negative was upheld by Albert Salem and Jack Tolson. The judges were Mrs. R. L. Carr, Rev. W. A. Lilly, and Prof. R. L. Deal.

The affirmative team from Greenville, Ruth Horne and Catherine Tyson, went to New Bern, while Miss Mary E. Ferguson and Gretchen Willard went to Washington to uphold the negative. If both teams of one city win these teams will go to Chapel Hill in two weeks to represent this district, Washington, New Bern and Greenville.

Practice For Contest. On May 15 Miss Ona Shindler and Mr. C. T. Robeson will again defend the musical reputations of the local high school, which has been boosted quite high in past years. These two instructors are working hard with the students in an effort to raise the now existing high standard. After placing second last year at Greensboro in the state-wide music contest the organizations are now determined to be satisfied with nothing less than first place—and thus put Greenville musically on the map.

The boys' and girls' glee clubs, under the direction of Miss Shindler and the band and orchestra under the direction of Mr. Robeson, are working hard on the contest material. Both departments have been congratulated upon the fine work they have done thus far.

Senior Play. "Sky Train," the senior play, has been definitely scheduled for Friday night, April 22.

For two weeks the cast has been rehearsing practically every night under the direction of Mrs. P. W. Picklesimer and Miss Mary Ellen Powell. Already much progress has been made. Lines are memorized, and emphasis is now being placed on enunciation and acting.

Indications are that "Sky Train" will be the best senior play of recent years.

Senior Privileges Go Into Effect. The privileges for the senior class went into effect on Wednesday, March 23. The manner in which the seniors have received them has been quite satisfactory thus far. These privileges permit the seniors to go any where during the home-room periods and study hall, provided no more than two three-minute intervals have been received on the monthly report and no more than twelve merits have been lost. It is understood by the seniors that while they are at liberty they will, in no way, do anything to injure

APPLY NORMAL INCOME TAX RATE TO STOCKS

Washington, April 21.—(AP)—The House today adopted an amendment to apply the normal income tax rate to dividends paid on stocks, estimated to swell the total of the revenue bill by $80,000,000. The standing vote was 133 to 90.

Only 375 banks which were closed in the 1931-32 period still are inactive in this state. Lovell expects three of these to be reopened soon. Deposits of 42 which have been reopened during the period total $11,247,332.

Arkansas has reopened four state banks with a total capitalization of $185,000 and two national banks since January.

Five Louisiana banks with deposits totalling $2,243,000 have reopened this year, and another is expected to resume activity soon.

One Florida state bank has been reopened. Georgia also has reopened.

Virginia reopened a national bank at Luray this year. Thirteen were reopened in 1931.

Alabama and Tennessee have not reopened any banks since January 1, but H. H. Montgomery, Alabama superintendent, says four or five may reopen in his state this year. Tennessee is making an effort to revive a bank at Martin.

MADRIN WINS DAMAGE SUIT (Continued from page one) afternoon and argument was completed about noon time yesterday. Considerable evidence was introduced by both sides and the battle resolved itself into probably the most stubborn of the last week of court.

YOUTH SHOT BY BANDITS (Continued from page one) vice-president of the American Tobacco Company, was in a serious condition today with a bullet wound in his chest.

The shooting came as the aftermath of an attempted hold-up of a weiner stand at Chapel Hill last night.

Four men in a large sedan drove up to the stand and called the proprietor, George Coleman, to the rear, where one of them struck him in the head with a battle. His cries, however, attracted attention and the men fled.

L. E. Rackley, Chapel Hill policeman, commanded Penn and his car for the chase. About nine miles from town on the Graham road they passed the bandit car, and pulled across the road to stop it.

Keeping his flashlight, Rackley handed his gun to Penn, a junior at the University of North Carolina, and the pair halted the bandit machine. Failing to heed warnings not to approach, Penn, said the officer, took a step toward the fugitives. One of them shot at Penn's youth, then shot a tire of Penn's car, pushed it aside and sped away.

Penn was unconscious when brought here, but rallied somewhat after a blood transfusion, although he continued to suffer internal hemorrhages. His mother was en route here early today.

Coleman was not robbed, although he had $500 in his pocket. Officers were searching for the bandits throughout this section, and particularly for a stranger who has been in Chapel Hill for several days, giving his name as Thompson and his address as Boston.

Dr. Kane was married twice. His first wife, Blanche Rupert, died in 1903. Some years later he married her sister, Lila Rupert, who died in 1928.

One son, Elisha Kent Kane, was born to the first union, and five sons to the second. The latter are William Kane of Philadelphia; Dr. Bernard Kane of Chicago; Dr. T. L. Kane of Chicago and Phillip and Robert Kane, twins, of Kane.

M. M. Redman, Henderson county Democratic chairman, said he recommended the reappointment of the present election board in Henderson county, but that Mull also ignored some of his recommendations and had one of the members displaced.

In its account of the threatened

The Baltimore and Ohio had asked for $55,000,000 to meet maturing obligations and other needs over the next nine months. The commission put off consideration of most of the loan until "the results of operations for intervening months are known" and pending "further negotiations on the part of the applicant looking toward additional private financing."

The road had asked money to pay a $500,000 note held by the Central Hanover Bank and Trust company of New York; a 250,000 note by the National City Bank of New York, and one for $250,000 by the First National Bank of Baltimore. All three loans are due on April 16.

Last week the commission protested against private bank loans being paid with Reconstruction Finance Corporation funds when it approved a loan of $12,800,000 to the Missouri Pacific of which $5,850,000 was to pay half of the notes held by three New York banks.

ROOSEVELT TO QUIT STAYING AT HOME SOON

On April 12, Mr. Roosevelt will be one of the speakers at a Jefferson Day dinner in Washington. On the program with him are four favorite son candidates, Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, former Governor Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, and Senator James A. Reed of Missouri.

The governor will start south for a vacation and rest at Warm Springs, Ga., about April 22, stopping en route at Richmond, to attend the governors' conference on April 25 and 26. While the conference itself forbids political discussions, it is likely that political confabs will have an unofficial place at the informal gatherings between meetings.

The governor will remain about three weeks at Warm Springs, where he goes twice a year for treatment for the effects of infantile paralysis.

The New York governor now has a definite pledge of 123 delegates. He needs 770 for the nomination. He has a fair assurance of about 500 for the first ballot, but there are some 330 out of the total of 1,154 which are sure to go elsewhere. Missouri's 36 were instructed during the week for James A. Reed, New York's 94, which Tammany Leader John F. Curry expects to control, under the unit rule, are to remain unpledged for the present.

A situation may very well develop where the final decision will rest in the hands of five or six leaders, controlling such delegations as those of New York, Illinois, Ohio, New Jersey and Missouri.

Several developments during the past few days have focused interest on the Republican insurgents.

Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania declined to enter the Oregon primary. When the time limit arrived Tuesday night, Senator Hiram W. Johnson had no delegates entered in his name in his home state of California. Thus, apparently ends the much discussed candidacies of Johnson and Pinchot.

Senator Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota, after making no campaign against President Hoover in that state, announced that unless conditions changed he could not support the President for re-election. Senator Bronson Cutting, at a New Mexico convention which refused to instruct for Hoover, said he would support the party as long as he conscientiously could.
