STEAMSHIP SINKS AFTER COLLISION IN HEAVY FOG

Admits Buying Stocks For Mayor Walker

W. R. HERRICK TESTIFIES AT N. Y. INQUIRY

Park Commissioner Tells Committee He Purchased 300 Shares Trust Company Stock With Mayor's Money; Walker Previously Denied Owning Stock.

New York, May 27.—(AP)—Park Commissioner Walter R. Herrick testified today before the Hofstadter committee that he bought for Mayor Walker and with the mayor's money 300 shares of Interstate Trust Company stock, which was issued in Herrick's name and part of which was posted as collateral for a loan to the Equitable Bus Company. Walker denied on the stand yesterday and Wednesday that he had ever owned the stock, directly or indirectly.

Just before, Herrick took the stand, Seabury in reply to a motion by Democratic members of the committee that all testimony taken since April 26 be stricken from the record declared that Walker's testimony had been "vague on all points" and that Russell T. Sherwood, "flight in the face of accusation is some evidence of guilt."

Although the courtroom was less crowded than it was yesterday and Wednesday, while Walker was on the stand, all seats were taken. Today's crowd was apparently more friendly to Seabury than the crowd of the last few days. He was cheered several times during his summary, and the Democrats who kept objecting were hissed.

Herrick testified that J. Norris Oilphant, a broker, suggested to him it would be a good thing to purchase inter-state stock. Oilphant, Herrick testified, said he wanted 25 shares for himself and suggested that Herrick take an equal amount.

"He suggested I might be able to get an allotment through the mayor," Herrick said.

Herrick testified he took the matter up with Walker, and that Walker told him he would get him the right to buy stock in the company "if I didn't make a hog of myself."

He said it was his recollection that Walker said at the same time he wanted to get some for himself. Herrick said Walker's share was paid for with $39,000 sent to him from the city hall by either the mayor or his secretary Edward Stanton.

He testified that 350 shares of the stock were issued in his, Herrick's name, and that the endorsement on the certificate showed that 25 shares were to go to Oilphant, and the rest were to be broken up into five units, two of 100 shares each, two of 50 shares each, and one of 25 shares.

Herrick testified that all were put in his name, but that he actually got only 25 shares.

TWO ACTIONS DISPOSED OF

Note and Insurance Suits Mark Yesterday's Session of Civil Court.

The Standard Fertilizer Company, of Williamson, won out in their note suit against T. E. Harris in yesterday's session of civil court here.

The plaintiffs were suing for two notes of $240 each which the defendant gave in the purchase of fertilizer. Harris did not deny execution of the notes but contended he had not been given credit for a payment of $100. He had previously paid $175 and was given credit for it. The jury allowed credit for $100 and awarded the fertilizer concern verdict for the remainder of the amount.

Mattie Gay, colored, suing the colored Masonic lodge for $410 insurance resulting from the death of her husband, was allowed the entire amount of her claim by the jury, but Judge E. H. Cranmer set aside the verdict in view of the fact that the plaintiff established the fact that the insured had not kept up with his payments, and consequently was not entitled to the policy.

The suit was jointly instituted against the local lodge and the grand lodge, $350 being claimed from the grand lodge, and $60 from the local organization.

The two suits held the spotlight practically the entire day and were marked by the introduction of a mass of evidence.

Court continued hearing of the calendar of over a hundred cases today, and it was indicated that the major part of the actions would be disposed of when the two week term ends next week.

Sales Tax Proposal Is Revived In The Senate; Speed Plans For Relief

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—The controversial sales tax proposal was revived in the Senate today while plans for speeding a relief program went forward in the House. Senator Walsh (D. Mass.) proposed a 1.75 per cent sales tax as a part of the billion dollar revenue bill. A little earlier, Chairman Smoot of the finance committee said he thought sentiment for such a levy was growing in the Senate. Arrangements were made for (Continued on page six)

BAD WEATHER DELAYS FLIER

Nathan Browne Awaits "Take Off Wind" at Seattle for Flight to Tokyo.

Dallas, Tex., May 27.—(AP)—Harold Bromley, flying a monoplane propelled by a diesel motor, left Dallas before dawn today on a panned three-stop test flight in preparation for a trans-Pacific hop—Seattle to Tokyo—for a prize of $30,000.

His plans, as announced here, were for a non-stop journey to New York, a non-stop flight from New York to Los Angeles and a non-stop jump from Los Angeles to Seattle.

TRIBULATION FACES G. O. P.

Prohibition Plan for Party Platform Causing Uneasiness Among Members.

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—The campaign-year worries of the Republicans, overshadowed for so long by the more spectacular tribulations of the Democrats, have taken a front seat once more in national politics.

Writing a prohibition plank acceptable alike to Republican wets and Republican dries has proved harder than many expected. Campaign funds remain almost non-existent. A fully-qualified campaign manager still is lacking. Senator Borah has decided not even to attend the June 14 Chicago convention. On top of it all, a powerful group of stalwarts in Congress are complaining bitterly that they have been left out of party councils.

All of these things have added materially to the natural irritations of a time of great political stress. In large measure they have diverted attention during the present week from the continuing Democratic strife over the presidential nomination.

This does not mean that the Democratic problem has grown any simpler. It is moving along for convention solution about as everybody expected. The weak saw Franklin D. Roosevelt capture the Delaware delegation of 6, and he stands to add 20 more tomorrow from Utah and Colorado. On the basis of the Roosevelt claims, that will make a total of 599, or 21 more than a convention majority.

Speaker John N. Garner was given Texas, bringing his total to 90, and Alfred E. Smith received for (Continued on page six)

TOBACCO MOLD ATTACKS AGAIN

CHURCH UNION IS OPPOSED

Four Bodies Not in Accord With Plans for Uniting With Presbyterians.

Montreat, May 27.—(AP)—Four Presbyterian bodies with which the Presbyterian church in the United States would consider federal union have declined to enter into negotiations toward that end, the committee on church union reported today to the 72nd general assembly of the southern branch.

Despite failure in this direction, the committee, headed by Dr. R. A. Dunn, of Charlotte, N. C., retiring moderator, drew up a plan for a federal union setting forth the conditions under which the united church would be acceptable to the Presbyterian church in the United States.

Churches with which federal union is sought are the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., United Presbyterian church of North America, Reform Church in the United States (German) and the Reformed church of America (Dutch).

Organic union with the Associated Reform church, which has been under negotiation for several years, is deemed "inadvisable at this time," said a report of another special committee.

The outlined plan for a United Presbyterian church envisions a federal union of regional assemblies "in which the autonomy of the several churches could be preserved, homogeneity of the geographical divisions of our country respected and the unwieldy nature of a large national assembly avoided."

The basis of this union would require the united church accept "the scriptures of the old and new Testaments as the inspired word of God; the infallible rule of faith and practice."

It would regard "doctrinal standards of the constituent churches as being in essential agreement, and merely different expressions of one and the same system of doctrine."

SEARCH FOR BODY OF DROWNED MAN

REMAINDER OF CREW RESCUED

Chattanooga Saves 32 Members of Grecian Crew Following Accident Off Block Island Early Today; Survivors Being Carried to Boston; Passengers and Crew of Chattanooga Uninjured.

New London, Conn., May 27.—(AP)—The steamer Grecian and Chattanooga collided in fog off Block Island today, the Grecian sinking with a loss of four lives.

The Chattanooga rescued the remaining 32 members of the Grecian's crew and during the morning the bodies of three of the four men lost were recovered by one of the coast guard craft rushed to the scene at first report of the accident.

The Chattanooga, which left New York for Boston last night, proceeded for Boston with the rescued after reporting that her own passengers and crew were uninjured.

The master of the Grecian was among those saved.

The story of the collision was told graphically in radio messages picked up here by the Radio Marine Corporation. The first, from the Chattanooga, said:

"At about 1:50 a. m., EST, we struck the steamer Grecian and she sank in a few minutes off Block Island. We anchored. Crew and passengers (of the City of Chattanooga) all right."

Block Island is about ten miles off the Rhode Island coast. The collision occurred about five miles in a northerly direction, from the Island.

A few minutes later the City of Chattanooga radioed:

"We are blowing three blasts at intervals and searching for members of the crew not yet rescued with lights and boats."

She gave her position as latitude 41.05, longitude 71.31 west.

At 3:33 a. m. the steamer Ontario asked the City of Chattanooga if she needed any assistance. The City of Chattanooga replied:

"We do not need any assistance. The master of the Grecian is safe aboard the City of Chattanooga. The damage to our ship is unknown. Four members of Grecian's crew still unaccounted for. The United States Cutter Upshur has arrived and is assisting in the search for the missing men."

G. O. P. Seeking Dry Law Vote
Springfield, Ill., May 27.—(AP)—Submission to the states of a proposal to repeal the 18th amendment was recommended at the Republican state convention today by its temporary chairman and keynote, Frank L. Smith of Dwight.

Calling for a showdown on the "wet" and "dry" question, the speaker declared the time had come to make prohibition a party issue, to settle it one way or the other.

Although advocating the enforcement of the prohibition laws as long as they are on the statute books, the personally "dry" temporary chairman said he would like to see the party "insist that Congress pass and submit to the states, at the earliest possible date, a proper resolution for repeal of the 18th amendment, and provide that the states act upon it in constitutional conventions composed of delegates chosen upon that one issue only."

Harbinger Man Captures Bear
Elizabeth City, May 27.—(AP)—I. M. Gallop may like bears but he doesn't like them in his boat uninvited.

Gallop, of Harbinger, set off to take a fishing party from Manteo to Oregon inlet and about two miles below the Wright Memorial bridge, he came upon a bear paddling about in the sound.

Apparently weary, the bear wanted to ride but Gallop failed to agree. So he armed himself with a three foot stick and gave battle.

For 40 minutes the animal tried to get in the boat and for the same length of time Gallop kept him out. Finally, a lick on the head stopped the bear and Gallop took him to Manteo.

Bruin weighed 400 pounds.

Protecting Their Job!
San Francisco—Nine tame seals in the city aquarium have been put on the pay roll of the commercial fishing industry to keep them out of the Pacific ocean. When only $10 apiece was bid for the $1,000 seals the city thought to turn them loose in the ocean. The fishermen came running. "Don't do that," they cried in alarm. "Those seals would hang around the bay and fish us out of business. Keep 'em where they are and we'll feed 'em free."

when he learned that out of 217 bottles of "pop" 194 contained chemical flavors

DOCTOR: "Your findings are amazing. You say 194 of the 217 bottles of 'pop' contained chemical flavors?"
CHEMIST: "Yes, they were flavored only with mixtures of chemicals, synthetic concoctions made in imitation of pure fruit juices."
DOCTOR: "But are such drinks on sale in many places?"
CHEMIST: "Everywhere. Millions of bottles of 'pop' contain chemical imitations instead of fruit juice."
DOCTOR: "Why are chemical imitations so widely used?"
CHEMIST: "Because fresh juice spoils easily and cooking destroys its flavor. And because chemicals are so much cheaper to use."
DOCTOR: "How are you able to make Orange-Crush with fresh juice?"
CHEMIST: "We employ an exclusive process developed by one of America's great food experts."

ABOUT TOWN

Pitt county is entitled to thirty-three delegates to the State Democratic convention on the basis of figures released by W. E. Hooks, chairman of the County Democratic Executive committee yesterday, and they should be composed of some of the most influential men of the county.

This business of selecting delegates to county and state conventions is of vast importance, and Democrats rally to the township and county conventions to see that the right kind of men represent them.

Congress hit a majority of people yesterday when it decided to include the luxury sales tax in the million dollar revenue bill. The action came after long days of controversy over different revenue raising proposals, and was a final effort on the part of the Senate to bring the question to an end.

Several candidates seeking office in Pitt county didn't file preliminary campaign expense accounts here Wednesday due to the fact that they did not know this was required by law, but now that they know they should not be slow doing so.

It is one of the ways the government has of checking up on the expenditures of individuals seeking political office, and if there should be any irregularity, may the Lord have mercy on the offender, for the government will not.

YOU CAN'T MARRY

By Julia Cleft-Addams

SYNOPSIS: Suddenly Jenny Revell discovers through Gratton Matching that his nephew, Aveney, may love her instead of her cousin George. Jenny has been prevented from seeing Aveney because she is posing as Eddie Townsend's wife, so that George, who has married him, can keep her job.

Chapter 35 TURMOIL OF CHOICE Steadily, once out of the silent house, Jenny's feet took her down the street.

She felt like a walk; and after 6 o'clock, when the department-staffs had left the building, she would be able to see Miss Revell and put before her this heart-shaking matter of Garth Aveney.

Heart-shaking—just that. When he had talked to her in the park, when he had asked her to go into the country with him, it was not because he wanted to forget George but because he wanted the company of Jenny Revell and none other; at any rate for the moment.

The shy, joyous thought halted. What about Brigitta Deering? George said he was going to marry Brigitta. Old Mr. Matching feared it, too. Even if he wasn't going to, he must surely admire her. She was so beautiful.

Jenny's steady steps had faltered with her thoughts. She turned into a little tea-room and sat down. Over the dainty food that was presently set before her, she brooded, wrapped in her problem.

Even if it had never been George for Garth Aveney, what signs were there that it had ever been Jenny? "How do I know that he truly cares?" She had very little reason to think it, answered her honesty. Very little, indeed, was there for hope to food one. Yet with only that very little, she was going to make George lose her job.

She left the tea almost unattended in the end, paid her bill and walked on. Her choice was so clear. To gamble on a chance of happiness or to let George keep her job. George's future or hers. Only one little sugar-plum on the cake, and no knife to cut it with.

The pavements were hot, aching hot to the feet. Her mind went back to the days when she had hunted work. A nightmare, that had been; a memory so terrible that that usually she thrust it back. First five dollars between her and stark nothingness; then two dollars then one, then fifty cents. And then, when there was nothing left but to sit at an attic window and watch how the sparrows on the heads fought over the bread that was just beyond reach of her shaking arm—then George! Food, warmth, rest and the heavenly shelter of George's care.

Any now she was going to take away George's job, in case Garth Aveney was interested to know just who it was who had married Eddie Townsend.

She walked into the huge, marble hall and bearded a secretary who looked marbled, too. "Will you ask Miss Revell if she can see me for a moment? I've no appointment, but I'm her cousin."

The man dealt lackadaisically with a house-telephone. "Mrs. Townsend?" he asked presently. "Miss Revell asks particularly if it's Mrs. Townsend?" Jenny hesitated, flushing. "Mrs. Townsend or not, please?" snapped the porter.

"Yes," said Jenny reluctantly. "The name—yes—I am Mrs. Townsend."

There was a step behind her. Before she turned, she knew who it would be. "You want to see Miss Revell of course!" said Garth Aveney. "I'll take you up to her, shall I? It's rather a complicated route. The elevator's just here."

She went with him dumbly. He looked cool and jazy in his soft gray flannels; as he guided her into the elevator his eyes held that faint laughter that mocked and withheld.

"I'm afraid our secretary can be rather alarming," he said. "He's had a number of applicants today for jobs in a new department and he has got a bit above himself. How is your husband?"

She started. "Do you mean Eddie?" "Of course, I mean Eddie." "Eddie is—I don't know how he is. He has gone away." The elevator stopped. She stepped into the long, dim, corridor at the end of which, she remembered, was George's room. "Do you employ married women ever?" she ventured desperately, not daring to turn to him as he walked at her shoulder.

"Want a job?" All the old laugh-faults, has done much to improve the social conditions of this country.

Saturday will be "Poppy Day" throughout the nation and people will be called upon to buy liberally of the tiny flowers having as their purpose the making of life more comfortable and pleasant for the thousands of men wounded in the conflict with Germany.

Pitt county people have never failed to buy generously of the tiny flowers, and while money may not be as plentiful as it was some years ago this will not keep the people from digging down into their pockets and doing their bit.

"If I did and if I were competent, would you give me one?" "I should be charmed, personally, himself" (Copyright, Julia Cleft-Addams) The doctor reveals the conspiracy he has planned against George, tomorrow.

Gehrig's Home Run With Bases Loaded Beats Senators 5-0

FOXX'S HOMER BEATS BOSTON

By Gayle Talbot (Associated Press Sports Writer)

One bad pitch a game, one ball that gets away from the pitcher and goes down the batters alley, on a very close to a good team a pennant, said Walter Johnson recently in explaining his preference for moundmen with tight control.

As if to bear out his boss' contention, General Alvin Crowder of the Washington Senators tossed one up that exactly suited Lou Gehrig of the Yankees in the sixth inning of yesterday's tilt between the American League pace-setters. Three Yanks were on base at the time and Gehrig, further bearing out Johnson's theory, spanked the ball over the right field fence. The Yanks gathered another run in the ninth for a final score of 5-0, but it was Gehrig's blow that knocked the wind out of the Senators. Charley Ruffing didn't give them a hit the last six innings.

The victory perched the Yankees on top by four full games and left the Senators with only a two-game lead over the third place Detroit Tigers, who were beating Chicago 11-2, in the first half a scheduled double header. The second game was rained out in the fifth with the count tied 1-1.

Jimmy Foxx hit his 15th homerun of the year, as the Athletics pounded out a 7-1 win over Boston. Cleveland and St. Louis were rained out.

The Boston Braves dropped off the National League pinnacle, yielding to the idle Chicago Cubs, when they got the worst of a slugging match with the Phillies 17-13. Five runs in the eighth settled the argument.

Brooklyn got its batting order mixed up and lost a run that would have won in regulation time, but went on to beat the Giants anyway, 3-2, in twelve rounds. Home runs by George Kelly and Frank O'Doul were costly to Carl Hubbell who allowed the Diggers only nine hits and fanned 15.

Pittsburgh made it three straight from Cincinnati, 3-2 and went into fifth place, scoring all its runs off Red Lucas in the second inning.

Mickey Walker Wins Decision Over Uzcudun

New York, May 27.—(AP)—Mickey Walker fails to get that match with Ernie Scaaf as early in the outdoor season as he expected, he can blame it all on Paulino Uzcudun, rock-ribbed old warrior from the Pyrenees.

By the slimmest of margins and, partly at least, because of an illegal punch at the end of the eighth round, Walker squeezed out a ten round decision over Paulino in Madison Square Garden last night. But the bores of a crowd of 8,000 followed Walker as he left the ring while Paulino drew the ovation usually reserved for the winner.

The punch that turned the sympathies of the crowd to the veteran Spaniard and the tide of battle toward Walker came after the bell had ended the eighth round. Paulino was partly at fault for he landed a left hook to the body just after the bell. But he dropped his hands and stepped back and, as he did, Walker swung a right that split the Spaniard's left eyebrow wide open.

That blow beat Paulino for Walker opened the cut with the first punch in the ninth round and, blinded by the flow of blood, Paulino could do little from then on but step forward into Walker's left hand.

Walker, if he had won decisively, was to have been matched immediately with Scahaf but now he probably will have to give Paulino a return match first.

Paulino, at 197, outweighed Walker by 27 pounds.

TOURISTS ARE MAKING SPURT FOR THE TOP

Charlotte, May 27.—(AP)—Piling themselves down around the middle of the Piedmont League club standings at the end of the first month of play, the Asheville Tourists have set about their pre-season promise to get from Louisville what ball players they needed to have a winning baseball club.

President Dan Hill, of the Tourists, announced he has obtained from Louisville W. H. Moore, veteran catcher who hit 265 with Knoxville and Mobile in the Southern Association last year. He once saw service with the Boston Red Sox.

With the season slightly less than one-fourth gone, club standings remained little changed from the first few days, and early indications of team strength were being borne out, with the exception of Durham's case, where a reversal of form has seen them climb to within easy striking distance of the top after many weary days of second division scrapping.

Winston-Salem, coming within a half game last week of losing the pole position to which the Twins have held since opening day, staged a fiery comeback to win four straight games and take a two and a half game lead over its nearest rival this week. The Twins closed the second series of the week with a 5-1 victory over Charlotte, who dropped back into the cellar.

Asheville went into a tie with Durham for third place by defeating Wilmington 4-3, while Greensboro was trouncing the Bulls, 6-2, to retain the runner-up position.

High Point dragged Raleigh down into a tie for seventh place with a 2-0 victory. John Takach, Pioneer right hander, limiting the Caps to three hits. Dewitt Perry let the Pointers bunch five of their six hits in one inning to provide the game's only scoring.

"Make it Four, Father!"

If you once have a taste of the New NuGrape, you always come back for more. It's just that sort of a flavor—a mysterious something, born of plump Concord grapes and sunshine. There is nothing anywhere near like it, with its bouquet of dew-ripened grapes, and its sparkling, dancing life—as of champagne.

Next to impossible to keep the New NuGrape on ice at home—the family sneaks in for "just another bottle," even when a case is purchased at a time. But since Nature and Science brewed it and brought it to its delightful state of appetizing perfection—you can drink as much as you please as often as you please.

There is no substitute for the New NuGrape. Accept none, for it would only mean disappointment. The genuine is sold everywhere for 5¢.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

New York Cotton

New York, May 27.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today, 2 points up to 2 points off. Near months were steady on trade buying and covering while later deliveries were easier, influenced by the easiness in cables.

General business was quiet and after the initial demand had been supplied, near months eased off with the rest of the list under comparatively small offerings. The reports of increasing insect infestation in the southwest came in for some bullish comment, but evidently failed to promote much buying and the market at the end of the first half hour was quiet and steady with active months showing net losses of about 2 to 3 points.

Liverpool cables said that some local buying on the easier ruling of sterling had been supplied by liquidation in that market and that business in cotton cloths and yarns was restricted.

Grain Market

Chicago, May 27.—(AP)—Unofficial estimates that the United States would have a carry-over of 400,000,000 bushels of wheat on July 1 had a bearish effect late today.

A wheat carry-over of that size would be 65,000,000 bushels more than was the case a year previous. Many traders were inclined to take a pre-holiday attitude pending the monthly private crop summaries due early next week.

Stock Market
New York, May 27.—(AP)—The stock market settled into a watchful waiting attitude today, after yesterday's late upturn.

The non-partisan statement of senatorial leaders expressing determination to balance the budget, together with reports of a swing toward the manufacturers sales tax, were widely described in banking and brokerage quarters as encouraging. The approach of the holiday week-end, however, tended to discourage extension of stock market commitments, and the persistent trickle of liquidation imparted a somewhat heavy tone in extremely quiet trading.

The liquidation was still concentrated in utilities, tobaccos, rails and food shares. Losses of a point or more appeared in American Telephone, North American, Detroit Edison, Public Service of N. J. United Gas Imp., Consolidated Gas, American Tobacco B, Reynolds B, Liggett & Myers B, General Foods, Borden, Coca Cola, Drug Allied Chemical, Eastman, Santa Fe, Union Pacific and New York Central. Losses of 2 to 3 appeared in General Mills, American Stores and International Business Machines, and preferred issues continued to drop sharply in a thin market. A number of leaders such as U. S. Steel, American Can and Standard of N. J., continued to resist the downward trend.

A further drop of $21,000,000 shown in the weekly brokerage loan statement, reducing the total to a new low for the tabulation at only $393,000,000 gave further evidence of the extreme degree of liquidity reached in the 21-2 year deflation of marginal accounts.

Business leaders point to the thoroughly sold out condition of the country, particularly in regard to inventories of goods, as placing it in a position to move forward, once hanger uncertainties can be removed. Wall street, however, showed little disposition to attempt to anticipate a final agreement upon federal tax measures by constructive activity in the securities markets. Brokerage quarters were inclined to the view that there had been so many disappointments that definite action would be necessary.

Charlotte, —(AP)—Will Adams, negro, was shot and arrested after he stabbed D. H. Johnson, president of a shoe company, who caught him stealing a pair of shoes.

Spencer Police Seeking Robbers

Spencer, May 27.—(AP)—Police today searched for three men who robbed G. W. Wallace at the Spencer cafe early in the morning of $50 and escaped in a hail of bullets.

The trio walked in the cafe, ordered Wallace to put up his hands. They took $50 from the cash register and as they fled in their automobile, Wallace opened fire on them along with Policeman R. D. Johnson who was attracted to the scene by the shots.

The officer said he believed the men escaped untouched by the bullets.

Meanwhile the ways and means committee rejected 16 to 9 the Hawley bill for increasing tariff rates against nations with depreciated currency.

The House passed and sent to the Senate an emergency deficiency appropriation of $12,750,000 for veterans expenditures.

LINDERBERG READY TO AID IN PROSECUTION OF CURTIS

Prosecutor Hauck, confident that today would bring official announcement of an indictment against the Norfolk, Va., man has set the tentative date for trial as June 13.

Norfolk, Va., May 27.—(AP)—A statement concerning his part in the Norfolk negotiations for the return of the kidnapped Linderberg baby has been issued by the Rev. H. Dobson Peacock.

He began his statement by saying that "in as much as the New Jersey authorities have taken no steps to interview me at Norfolk since Colonel Schwarzkopf's receipt of my published telegram of May 18, I think I owe it to myself and the public to give the press a statement about my flight to the north on March 28 with Lieut. George L. Richard, United States Navy, to see Colonel Linderberg on Sourland Mountain."

Dean Peacock said he had "no reason to question" the statements made by John Hughes Curtis, who since has confessed his reported contacts with kidnappers were inventions of his own mind.

According to the Dean continued, he flew northward despite a storm and acquainted Colonel Linderberg with the ransom terms—$25,000 was to be deposited at Norfolk to the joint credit of Curtis, Dean Peacock and Admiral Guy H. Burrage, the third intermediary. The money was not to be paid to the supposed kidnappers until the child had been returned safely to Colonel Linderberg, Dean Peacock said.

Accompanying Dean Peacock's statement were statements from Admiral Burrage and Commonwealth's Attorney John M. Arnold, who said they were convinced the dean had acted in all sincerity.

HIGH FINALS BEGIN HERE

There was an informal party and dance in the club house.

Tonight at eight o'clock in the high school auditorium, there will be held the annual piano recital of Miss Hedge's pupils.

On Sunday evening at eight o'clock in the high school auditorium will be the sermon of the class of 1932 will be preached by Dr. W. A. Ryan, pastor of the Eighth Street Christian church. In addition to the sermon, there will be rendered by the mixed chorus, with orchestra accompaniment, two numbers: first of these, "Gloria in Excelsis" by Mozart; second, "Lord Is My Shepherd" by Hoschat. Miss Lucy James, one of the graduates, will also sing a number, entitled "Teach Me to Pray."

On Monday morning at nine-thirty in the high school auditorium will be held the reception of the seventh grade graduates into the high school. One hundred and thirty graduates of the seventh grade will be received with appropriate exercises. The musical part of the program will be most delightful. There will be chorus numbers under the direction of Misses Ona Shindler and Eugenia Thomas. A special feature of this program will be the rendition of two numbers by the elementary school orchestra, numbering fifty pieces, under the direction of Mr. Eugene T. Robeson. These children members of this orchestra, started work in November and have now reached the point that they can play together as a group.

On Monday evening at eight o'clock, at the Campus Building of East Carolina Teachers College, will be held the graduating exercises of the Class of 1932.

The address for this occasion will be delivered by Dr. Malcolm McDermott of the Law Department of Duke University. Dr. McDermott has recently come to North Carolina from Knoxville, Tennessee, where he was for ten years dean of law school of the University of Tennessee. Since his coming to the state, he has made an unusual impression wherever he has spoken.

Diplomas to the eighty graduates will be delivered by Mr. J. L. Little, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the local schools. This class is the second largest class to ever graduate from this school. There will be musical numbers under the direction of Miss Ona Shindler and Mr. Eugene T. Robeson. The girls' Glee Club and the mixed chorus will sing the numbers which won first place in the state music contest in Greensboro. The program will be concluded with the rendering of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the high school band.

PUSH PLAN FOR HOME CANNING

People interested in the movement to help Pitt county people live at home in spite of prices for the main crops and invited to confer with Miss Ethel Nee regarding distribution of the canning outfit.

Local merchants, co-operating with the Home Demonstration department last year, originated the idea of placing canning outfits in the homes of as many people as possible in order to produce more widespread interest in preserving foods crops that would otherwise go to waste.

Thousands of cans and jars of fruits and vegetables were packed away in pantries last fall, and played an important part in relieving hunger and privation resulting from low crop prices and unemployment during the winter months.

Leaders of the movement expressed hope more goods than ever would be canned this year so that as many families as possible would be self sustaining during the winter.

KIDNAP WIFE, HELD IN JAIL

In the Eldorado county jail, the broker, whose young and attractive wife has sued Claire Windsor, actress, for alienation of affections and Read for divorce, denied he abducted his wife at the point of a gun. He protested he did not force her to accompany him on a motor car ride to this mountain town.

In a nearby hotel, Mrs. Read said in an attempt to span the Pacific she had fled to New York by the way of Toronto and Memphis. Her ship is easily distinguished by the ten strands of greyish smoke it leaves behind.

Mrs. Read vanished from in front of the Oakland home of J. W. Decker, an automobile salesman, Wednesday night. She drove into Piedmont yesterday in an automobile she told authorities was used by her husband in "hopping" and she said she escaped from "Read" and a man companion, who she said slept by the mountain roadside.

Mrs. Read told officers her husband tried "his sales talk" on her in an attempt to persuade her to drop a $100,000 alienation suit against Miss Windsor and her divorce suit, in which she named the actress as corespondent. She declared she would do neither.

CRAFT JAILED AT HICKORY

He was arrested, however, and taken to Newton where he was lodged in jail.

At the office of Louis Shrum, U. S. federal commissioner at Newton, it was said Craft expected to make arrangements for bail sometime today but an amount had not been fixed.

The explorer and scientist, whose work for the government and whose place in public life has covered a number of years, has followed a private practice here for the past four years.

Dr. Craft has long been connected with various works for the government and with the Carnegie Insti-

It takes 770 to nominate. On the 122 remaining to be selected after this week, Roosevelt has a chance to get 98. If he does, it will bring him so near the needed two-thirds that one or two of the favorite son states could turn the trick.

At the center of the Republican troubles stands the question of what to do about prohibition. President Hoover with enough undisputed delegates now behind him to insure renomination on the first ballot, has given party leaders the impression that he would not object to the right kind of referendum proposal, but that he has no proposal of his own.

The flare-up of certain congressional leaders over party organization presents for the president a lesser, but by no means unimportant problem. Somehow word reached Capitol Hill that the White House would just as soon see congress remain in session during the conventions, and was making plans for a senator-less, congressman-less show at Chicago.

That hurt several of those who have long been prominent convention figures.

K. W. Cobb, supervisor of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, displayed samples of tobacco from Onslow county here today with several large brown spots on each leaf. He said the disease has spread over three hundred acres of tobacco in that county, threatening to destroy practically the entire crop.

Infection has also been reported from Bell Arthur and other parts of Bethel township, and it was believed other sections had been attacked, although no reports to this effect have been received here.

With from a thirty-five to fifty per cent reduction in plants caused by the first assault of the disease, it was impossible to estimate the actual crop shortage which will result from the belated visit of the Blue Mold. It is the worst condi-

Other provisions would give each congregation the "same freedom of worship both as to forms and usages as before the union," and leave with the individual churches jurisdiction in "cases of heresy or immorality." The plan also included an outline for a united assembly, patterned after the general assemblies of the several branches, and other parliamentary rules and regulations.

Mayor R. C. Flanagan was the speaker at the previous meeting. He pointed out the splendid opportunities facing the young men of today and complimented the Lions for their admirable activity for community betterment.
