EX-CONVICT DENIES COMPLICITY IN KIDNAPING

Prohibition Fight Expected At Democratic State Rally

DRYS STICKING TO MORRISON

Dry Organizations Call on Members To Flock to Polls in Run Off Primary July 2; Reynolds Claiming Support from Every Part of State.

Raleigh, June 11.—(AP)—Battle lines for an anticipated fight over prohibition at the Democratic State Convention here June 16 were being drawn tighter over the state today.

Started the forces rallied to the banner of Cameron Morrison of Charlotte, dry law advocate, who trailed his wet opponent, Robert R. Reynolds of Asheville, in last Saturday's race for the United States Senate. State-wide dry organizations, the W. C. T. U. and others, have called on members to vote in the run-off primary July 2.

Reynolds counted with claims of assurance of support from every part of the state in his fight for modification and had the pledged aid of two of his opponents in the first primary, Frank D. Grist and Tam C. Bowie.

As the two political "machines" of the senatorial candidates worked feverishly to outline whirlwind campaigns, pressing into service supporters of the aspirants for speeches as well as listing Reynolds and Morrison for strenuous tours, the various county Democratic conventions were being held to name state convention delegates.

If Wake county's meeting was to be taken as any indication it appeared that county gatherings would be dominated by Morrison men. In this county practically every precinct adopted a slate of delegates which has given to electors attending the precinct meetings in mimeographed form, and which was generally understood to have been prepared by Morrison's Wake county manager.

On the other hand, supporters of Reynolds were ready to point to his more than 150,000 votes as evidence that the state's democracy demanded a change on prohibition. They are determined, local Reynolds enthusiasts say, to demand at least a "moist" plank in the party's platform, which will be adopted almost in the middle of the Reynolds-Morrison fight for victory in the second primary.

Reynolds' partisans see a serious "slap" at his chances if the state meeting sticks to a bone dry plank and on the other side of the question Morrison's supporters think a "moist" or "wet" plank plank would probably hurt him and favor his Asheville opponent.

Democratic leaders are expressing the opinion that if necessary the convention will record itself on prohibition so that this state's policy will be in line with the National Democratic Convention's attitude. They express fear that an out-and-out wet plank would drive thousands of Democrats to the Republican banner in November, but they say that thousands of Reynolds' votes were protests against prohibition.

Escaped Jail-Bird Captured

Smithfield, June 11.—(AP)—"Red" Stanley, one of the six prisoners who escaped from the Johnson county jail Wednesday, was captured in Elevation township this morning.

Stanley escaped from officers who surprised him last night but blood hounds were used to track him down. As officers cornered him he threw down his guns and tried to escape but was run-down.

County authorities said Stanley was the instigator of the prison break, releasing other prisoners after cutting bars to his cell.

RADIO STOCKS UNDER FIRE

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—The senate banking committee pursued its inquiry into Radio Keith Orpheum Corporation transactions today by hearing testimony from J. Cookman Boyd, Baltimore, a former stockholder.

Boyd was called today after the committee yesterday heard Ernest W. Stirn and William J. Morgan, both of Milwaukee, charge that in October and November last year there was a drastic "squeeze out" of R. K. O. stockholders and a short-selling drive apparently carried on by persons with inside information.

Questioned by Senator Blaine, Boyd said that when he received a letter from the corporation in November attempting to assess the stockholders $5 a share on penalty of losing most of their stock he, being a lawyer, knew that such action required unanimous consent of the stockholders.

He said he wired Richard Whitney, president of the New York stock exchange, in protest and received no reply. He then wrote the secretary of the exchange, he said, and received only a bare acknowledgment.

Sent To Chair for Killing Wife

Conway, S. C., June 11.—(AP)—Henry B. Elliott, Jr., was sentenced today to die in the electric chair August 12 following his conviction of murdering his wife in what the state described as a jealous fit.

Judge S. W. Shipp heard Elliott's attorneys argue for about an hour for a new trial and then refused the motion.

Elliott was convicted yesterday for the slaying of his wife last April 6 and W. D. Gennerette, defense attorney, announced he would make a motion for a new trial for the 19-year-old defendant.

FARM FIELD DAY TUESDAY

A farm field day will be staged on the John T. Thorne farm, near Farmville, next Tuesday from 2 to 4 o'clock, it was announced today by E. P. Arnold, director of the Pitt County Department of Agriculture.

A. L. THIGPEN BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for A. L. Thigpen, prominent citizen of Belvoir township, who died yesterday morning shortly after four o'clock, were conducted from his late home this morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. A. J. Crane, pastor of the Tarboro Presbyterian church, officiated, and burial was made in the family burying ground.

The purpose of the event will be to give to the farmers of the county an opportunity to view the operations of the first combine ever brought to this country. The machine was recently purchased by Mr. Thorne. It cuts, threshes and sacks all kinds of grains, and is the last word in this department of agriculture.

In case of rain or damp weather the demonstration will be postponed until another date, it was said, as it would be impossible to give a complete demonstration with the grain in improper condition.

In view of the fact that this is the first combine ever acquired in this county, Mr. Arnold expected hundreds of farmers interested in development of grain production would attend and take advantage of this opportunity to gain first hand information as to the operation of the machine.

KIWANIS CLUB VISITS RESORT

Greenville Kiwanis went to Bayview for their regular meeting yesterday and to say they had a fine time would be expressing the matter in a very mild way. The program consisted of swimming, music, stunts and short talks.

Delightful Program is Enjoyed at Bayview on Pamlico River Yesterday.

Several of the members went down during the afternoon for a plunge in the cooling waters of the Pamlico. Among the number were Frank Harrington and Dr. R. S. McGeachy, whose avoirdupois caused the river tide to swell perceptibly and threaten to submerge those standing along the shore.

PLANT TO DO CANNING HERE

A new enterprise for Greenville will be opened Monday June 13 on Dickinson avenue near the Rainbow Cleaners. The Greenville Canning Co. have installed steam pressure canning equipment which will enable them to can farm produce under high pressure and thus insure that their products will be thoroughly sterilized and will keep.

Farm produce will be bought from local farmers and farmers may have their produce canned at low cost and either keep it or sell it themselves. Arrangements are being made with local merchants and business men to purchase and sell home canned goods.

The canning will be in charge of Mrs. Mable Randolph who has had several years experience in canning, and will also be supervised by Miss Ethel Nice. (Continued on page three)

SUCCUMBS TO LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. E. W. Whichard Dies Early Today After Illness of Over Two Months

Mrs. E. W. Whichard, 30, died here early today following illness of two months or more. She had been critically ill for sometime and physicians held out little hope for her recovery when her condition became more accentuated several days ago.

Funeral services will be conducted from her late home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church. Burial will be made in Washington.

Mrs. Whichard was a member of the Free Will Baptist church and took an active interest in the work of the denomination until her death.

A native of Pitt county where she spent all of her life, Mrs. Whichard was beloved by a wide circle of friends who received news of her death with profound sorrow. She is survived by her husband and three children: two brothers, Wiley Cox, Greenville, and Rodman Cox, Washington; two sisters, Mrs. Annie Whitley, Greenville, and Mrs. Coy Willard, Washington.

Funeral services will be conducted from her late home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church. Burial will be made in Washington.

Sister of the Morrow Maid who Committed Suicide Declares She Knows Nothing of Lindbergh Kidnaping; Brinkert Offers Alibi for Whereabouts at Time Baby Disappeared.

Trenton, N. J., June 11.—(AP)—The official afternoon news bulletin on the Lindbergh case indicated that police were investigating the possibility that some of the $50,000 ransom paid Dr. John F. Condon passed through the hands of Violet Sharpe, who committed suicide yesterday, or those of her associates.

The bulletin, telephoned here from Alpine by Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, superintendent of state police, disclosed that the financial affairs of Miss Sharpe and of Ernest Brinkert, whom she named in an anti-mortem statement, had been under police surveillance. It also showed that a check had been made to see if any of the ransom bills had turned up in England, to which Miss Sharpe's sister sailed four days after the ransom was paid.

The bulletin disseminated reports that Miss Sharpe had made large bank deposits after the ransom payment and in fact showed that the results of all angles of this phase of the investigation had been negative.

"Violet Sharpe's bank deposits total $1,000," Schwarzkopf said. "The various deposits have been checked and the source of the money for the deposits accounted for."

"Her statement (made the day before she committed suicide) shows that from time to time she sent money in small amounts home to England. Nothing is available to show the dates."

"No authentic report has been received from authorities in London that any of the ransom money have been received there. No report of the receipt of any money presumed to have been cashed by Brinkert has been received from the New Rochelle police."

Alpine, N. J., June 11.—(AP)—Ernest Brinkert, ex-convict, arrested in the Lindbergh case, told his story to state police today, and immediately thereafter officers drove away at break-neck speed for an unannounced destination.

Arrested in New Rochelle, N. Y. last night after the suicide of Violet Sharpe, waitress in the Englewood, N. J. home of Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, grandmother of the murdered Lindbergh baby, Brinkert came here voluntarily early today, waiving extradition.

He flatly denied an ante-mortem statement by Miss Sharpe that she had spent the evening of March 1 the night the baby was stolen, and that she knew nothing of the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby.

"On the contrary, he insisted, he and his wife spent both that night and the night following at a 'very nice home' owned by a negro in Bridgeport, Conn.

Stourbridge, England, June 11.—Edna Sharpe, whose sister Violet committed suicide in the Morrow home at Englewood, N. J., denied today that she knew anything about the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby.

"I know nothing whatever about the kidnaping," she said as she left here for her parents' home in Benham. "What is more, I am quite sure my sister Violet knew nothing about it either."

"Ever since the baby disappeared she was badgered and questioned by police there until she knew what she was saying."

"I used to work for Mrs. Morrow in Englewood, not far from the Morrow's live, but I had to take a situation in London four months before."

"After the baby disappeared, I wrote to me and I went to see her in the wood to see her upset. The police (Continued on page four)

Gambler's Throw By EUSTACE L. ADAMS

Synopsis: Jerry Calhoun in a high-powered airplane, with a detective and a friend, is following the hydroplane of a mysterious kidnapper gang. The abductors have captured Nancy Wentworth, amuseur comedienne, and five men—four wealthy business men and a gangster. The oddly assorted group, closely guarded, wait in the tropical heat of the place to which they have been taken...

KILL OR BE KILLED

"It is possible that I shall have to collect one more bill from your loving friends and relatives," Ashwood said. "Moreover, my abnormal curiosity has been aroused. "It has come to my ears that some of you have become—what shall we say?—elemental. That is a psychological phenomenon that will be absorbing to watch in its development."

"Very interesting," conceded Ashwood, unsmiling. "But how, pray, are you going to find this island? When the time comes for me to break up this delightful party and invite a new guest list down, I'll play the proper host and return to you approximately the spot where I picked you up. And in the same manner, as far as transportation is concerned. After a day's trip in a sustained airplane, who among you will be able to direct a search-party here?"

"So that's your idea of a good time is it?" Mallory broke abruptly into the conversation. "Sometime in the timbre of the stockbroker's voice caused Hamilton to put down his cards and to regard the tense, ugly New Yorker with unfeigned interest. The discussion between Ashwood and Lucci had goaded the brooding man into a state bordering upon frenzy. His heavy, athletic figure was leaning forward in his chair, his hands clasped about the arm rests. His ruddy face was suddenly drained of all color. Ashwood was about to answer him carelessly but glancing at him, he stopped and looked at him with undisguised curiosity.

"Shut up!" Lucci faced Mallory, snarling. "I'm doing the talking, see?" "It appeared to Hamilton that the gangster was deliberately adding fuel to the all-consuming flame of Mallory's sudden anger. The stockbroker made a mighty effort to hold himself in leash. The card player could see the muscles under the strain of his suppressed anger. The eyes of the crimped were upon him too, seeming to probe into the mad-dog man's very mind.

"Is this the gentleman who has been cave-manning Miss Wentworth?" asked Ashwood carelessly. "Yeah," sneered Lucci. "I had to slap him down this afternoon. I got a mind to get rid of him now. I'm getting so I can't stand him around here."

"The Democratic sponsors of the bill will receive the appreciation of the jobbers for this stupendous stroke in their behalf, and the party will undoubtedly be rewarded for its efforts at the polls in November."

"The effort to beautify Greenville by the planting of flowers in hungrily places has been accorded the approbation of appreciative men and women in all walks of life. Flowers and shrubs completely transform places of this kind, and Greenville is gradually being converted into one of the best looking places in this part of the state as a result of the effort."

"The movement to beautify the city was started through women's clubs. Women have an eye for the aesthetic and it was due to their sense of creation of ugly into something beautiful that has produced such a marked change in various parts of the city."

"The plan should be continued from year to year until every unsightly place has been entirely eliminated."

"Would Ashwood permit murder, as he watches the men's emotions under his skillful taunts? He analyzes his interest in the struggle Monday."

Garner is Seized by Grip Attack

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—An attack of laryngitis this morning compelled Speaker Garner to leave his capitol office and take to bed at his hotel. The speaker reached his office at 7 A. M. as usual, apparently able to work. After he had dictated letters for several hours, however, his temperature began to rise. Dr. George Calver, house physician, was called and directed the speaker to bed. He was taken to his hotel by Mrs. Garner and retired immediately. Representative Rainey of Illinois, Democratic leader, was designated to preside over the House.

Dolly Brim Gives Party
Greensboro, June 8.—Dolly Brim, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Brim, 1011 Wharton street, entertained two dozen of her playmates yesterday afternoon at her home to celebrate her fourth birthday anniversary.

The tiny hostess received her guests in a fetching frock of pink organdie with which she wore a wee shoulder corsage of sweet peas and baby's breath, the contribution of a small admirer. The children enjoyed games in the yard and house.

The refreshment table was placed on the lawn and appointed in pink and white with the birthday cake as centerpiece. Pink candies and pink roses were used on the table, and ices were in the chosen colors. Favors were dolls for the girls and balls for the boys. Miss Marie Hedgpath assisted Mrs. Brim.

Little Miss Brim is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Overton of this city.

MESDAMES CARROLL AND TAYLOR ENTERTAIN IN WINTERVILLE
On Friday afternoon Mrs. C. E. Taylor of Richmond, and Mrs. John R. Carroll entertained at the home of Mrs. Carroll in Winterville. The occasion was to honor their sister, Miss Mary Jane Carroll of Winterville, who will be married next Wednesday to Irwin Clark of Scotland Neck. The party was one of the prettiest pre-nuptial affairs given Miss Carroll.

As the guests arrived, they were cordially greeted by the hostesses and presented to the bride-elect and shown to their places at the dining tables. The living room and dining room, where the games were played, were most attractive with colorful garden flowers of gladioli, larkspur, daisies and corycopsis. Miniature fans were used for tables, and candies were served on the tables during the games.

The table prizes, shoulderettes of sweet-peas and gypsophylla, fell to Mesdames Stanley Liverman, Laurie Ellis, Harvey Ward, S. L. Bridgers and Roy T. Cox and Misses Juanita Worthington and Elizabeth Forbes. The bride's shoulderette was roses, sweet peas and gypsophylla. Mrs. Carroll presented her salad forks in her chosen pattern of silver and Mrs. Taylor presented her dinner forks.

After the games, the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. A. E. Hobgood, served a delectable salad course with iced tea.

Among the guests present were Mesdames W. A. Forbes, R. E. Davenport, A. D. McLawhorn, Stanley Liverman, T. W. Worthington, J. McArthur, B. F. James, Laurie Elie, M. T. Spier, Roy T. Cox, D. T. McLawhorn; Misses Alice Graves Hunsucker, Elizabeth Forbes, Juanita Worthington and Lottie Ellis of Winterville; Mesdames Earl Dawson, F. W. Carroll and Misses Nina Mae Sugg and Elizabeth Albritton of Hockerton; Mesdames Harvey Ward, E. B. Lee, John C. Wyatt, A. E. Hobgood, S. L. Bridgers and Miss Hennie Whitehead of Greenville; Mrs. Sam Pierce of Ayden, and Mrs. Harlan White of Cereira.

"She told me that on the night the child was kidnapped she went out with two men whose names she didn't know. They went for an automobile ride, and she said she hadn't seen them since.

"She swore to me that she knew nothing about the child's disappearance, but she said the police wouldn't believe her because she had admitted that she had gone out with two boys she didn't know that night."

Trenton, N. J., June 11.—(AP)—Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, superintendent of state police, announced today that Ernest Brinkert who was arrested last night after the suicide of a waitress at the home of Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, had voluntarily gone across the New York State line to state police headquarters at Alpine for further questioning.

Schwarzkopf said that Brinkert had offered as an alibi for his whereabouts on the night of March 1, and the following day a statement that he and his wife were in Bridgeport, Conn. He said that Brinkert asserted he and his wife spent the nights of March 2 and 3 "in a very nice home owned by a negro" in Bridgeport.

Schwarzkopf said: "This is the same man whose picture we have and which picture was shown to Violet Sharpe. The man is the same one whose picture was identified by Violet Sharpe. The picture of him in our possession was obtained from the license bureau and is very evidently a picture of the man now at Alpine."

Schwarzkopf reiterated a previous statement that Scotland Yard had been requested to make an "extensive investigation" as to the possible connection with the Lindbergh case of Edna Sharpe, sister of the suicide, who sailed for England four days after the Jafsie ransom was paid.

He said that no report had yet been received from the famous British police force.

COUNTY SING BIG SUCCESS

Two Hundred Fifty People Take Part in Annual Song Festival Here.

Development of mass singing in Pitt county the last several months was set forth in an illuminating way in the county-wide sing given in the Austin auditorium at East Carolina Teachers college last night. The sing, an annual affair, was staged under direction of the Home Demonstration Department of Pitt county. While attendance was not as great as expected, the various communities were fairly well represented and exhibited considerable interest in the varied program. Two hundred and fifty persons representing six communities took part in the program which consisted of folk songs of various nations in addition to interpretative dances.

The theme of the program was "Around the World in Music and Games," and was presented under the personal supervision of Mrs. Louella Stanell, director of the Home Demonstration club of Falkland. The first number consisted of group singing by a chorus of 250 voices. "The Story of America the Beautiful" was one of the numbers rendered by the chorus, and Mrs. Stanell explained that a movement was under way to have this song adopted as a national air.

Negro spirituals were sung by a group from Stokes and other linked advisory units furnished the administration with the most effective economic council possible. Mr. Hoover also disclosed that he had canvassed the members of the war-time board on the possibilities and received a "thoroughly negative response."

It was left to Hollywood to produce one of the most colorful of the folk productions. With a wig-wam on the stage for atmosphere, the group sang songs reminiscent of the days when Indian tribes roamed this part of the country.

Early American folk dances, including the Minuet, were given by the Winterville 4-H club, and each was executed in a highly commendable way, indicating that the dancers had received much training.

Red Banks brought the airs of old Scotland to the stage in a forceful and convincing way. The outstanding part of this program was a solo, "Annie Laurie," by Mrs. Ola Tucker. Miss Janie Gould Hardee rendered "The Highland Fling."

A group of twenty-five voices from Simpson community appeared in several Irish selections, including "My Wild Irish Rose." The Danish dance of greeting was presented by a group from Falkland. The sing was concluded with the singing of "Star Spangled Banner."

MEANS CASE NEARING END

A. Lindbergh, Jr., today said the newest developments in the kidnapping case were "shaping it up along lines I expected."

He referred to the arrest of Ernest Brinkert, former convict who is being held in New Jersey. "I am convinced," he said "I know more about the Lindbergh kidnapping case than any other person."

"Without a moment's hesitation, if I were asked, I would face Ernest Brinkert. I never volunteered my services, but I am available when anyone wants me."

"The case is now shaping up as I believed it would. The police are on the right track. I believe it was an inside job with a woman in it. No man would be fool enough to do a job like that—such as, for instance, raising a ladder up to the bedroom window."

Prosecution and defense counsel discussed with Justice James M. Proctor in the District of Columbia Supreme court where Means is being tried, the court's instructions to the jury which is scheduled to hear the arguments in the case Monday.

A defense prayer was accepted for a direct verdict of not guilty with respect to the fourth count of the indictment. This count charged embezzlement of the $4,000 expense money.

AGAINST BODY FOR DEFENSE

He made his attitude emphatic late yesterday by making public his negative reply to a letter suggesting such action. This letter was signed by 86 distinguished civilians and presented at the White House during the afternoon by General Albert L. Cox of Raleigh, N. C., chairman of the American Legion defense committee.

Edsel Ford, August Heckscher, John Hays Hammond, William Green, Commander Stevens of the Legion, Clark Howell, the Atlanta publisher, and a long list of bankers, railroad executives, industrialists and labor leaders were the signers. Said President Hoover in the reply letter to Cox:

"It is my impression that but few of the gentlemen are familiar with the law bearing on this subject. I am most desirous of receiving from yourself and your able associates suggestions of any specific action that might be taken by government or private agencies which would improve the situation. Although I did not find myself in accord with your immediate proposal of another committee, I believe that if the signatories were fully informed as to the present effective organization they would agree with me."

He referred back to an earlier statement which he had allowed the press to use indirectly. In this he pointed out that the council was former for war purposes though the language employed in creating it "might be subverted into use for purposes of the general warfare;" that the body was strictly advisory and that the composition of the present cabinet, Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Federal Reserve Board, Farm Board and Farm Loan Board, and other linked advisory units furnished the administration with the most effective economic council possible. Mr. Hoover also disclosed that he had canvassed the members of the war-time board on the possibilities and received a "thoroughly negative response."

FIND DYNAMITE BONU SARMY

Occupation reached formidable numbers, and still they trudged or rode into the capital. Registrations at the veterans' encampments reached 12,033.

The dusty dirt road cut through brambles and bushes into the Anacostia flats receiving camp was worn to ruts and holes as new numbers entered and was distributed in other more permanent camps.

As vigorous as their leaders be-seiged congress for bonus payment, the men besieged their leaders for blankets or some protection from the unusually chilly nights.

The leaders had one stock answer: "Go dig yourself a hole in the ground like the rest of us. This is not Palm Beach."

The increasing numbers taxed to its limit the hastily formed "national organization" to feed and house the veterans in the widely scattered camps.

The organization's chief weakness was in its food distribution system from the central commissary headquarters. Some camps complained of a shortage of food present while others reported an overabundance.

Commander-in-Chief Waters and his executive committee have launched a drive to swell the veterans ranks to 50,000 within the next two weeks.

To protect the health of both the public and the former soldiers, Waters today directed that no visitors be permitted to wander through the Anacostia camp unless escorted by a member of the camp command.

Anyone interested in having their produce canned or who wish to purchase home-canned goods may see Mrs. Randolph at the cannery on Dickinson avenue or James R. Worsley. In order to encourage this industry the people of Greenville are urged to use only home canned goods whenever possible.

Large quantities of whiskey, gin, beer and other liquor seized in last night's raids were carted by the agents, along with barroom fittings and other equipment, to the government warehouse.

CHANGE OF LIFE

FOR over fifty years, women have been taking Cardui for troubles like Mrs. M. C. Weatherford, of Tahlequah, Okla., describes below: "I had spells (during change of life) when I could not stand up. I had the headache all the time. I was dizzy and had attacks of nausea. I read about Cardui, so I got a bottle to try. It helped me so much that I continued to take it until I was entirely past the critical period of my life. I have given Cardui to my girls. It has been a wonderful medicine in my home."

Cardui is a mild, purely vegetable tonic. Sold at the drug store.

The series of meetings sponsored by the protestant evangelistic churches here began on Tuesday, May 31, and will continue through Thursday of next week if not longer. The music rendered by the choir, directed and accompanied by Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck and Mrs. Hayward Smith, has been a fine feature with solos, duets and quartets by the various members, while the congregational singing has been most spirited and inspiring.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

New York Cotton

New York, June 11.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, unchanged to 2 lower with July selling off to 5.02 in sympathy with relatively easy Liverpool cables and under week-end liquidation.

There was some selling here through houses with Liverpool, southern and far eastern connections but offerings were comparatively light and after easing off to 5.02 at the start, December contracts rallied to 5.09 on week-end covering promoted by a bulge in the stock market. This rally carried July up to 5.10 and the market at the end of the first half hour was quiet and steady within a point or two of the best.

Liverpool cables reported continental liquidation and hedge selling in that market and said buyers of cotton cloths were cautious with Shanghai auctions unsatisfactory. The amount of cotton on shipboard U. S. Ports awaiting to clear at the end of the week was estimated at 121,010 bales against 74,000 last year.

Grain Market

Chicago, June 11.—(AP)—Dwindling of demand in the late dealings gave the wheat market a reactionary trend today in the final hour, and virtually wiped out earlier gains.

Trade in wheat was largely of a professional character, and to a noticeable degree took its cue from fluctuations of securities. Crop comments from the spring wheat belt were generally favorable, and some Kansas reports suggested that the winter wheat yield in parts of that state might prove above expectations. No important overseas business in U. S. wheat was announced.

Stock Market

New York, June 11.—(AP)—After a few more prods at the retreating bear interest in the stock market, speculators for the rise began to lighten their commitments in advance of the week-end today, and a brisk upswing in the first hour was more than lost.

Auburn pushed up 9 points, on top of the advance of about 30 points in the past 529 days, then slipped back. Numerous advances of 1 to 3 points registered in the first hour were lost and a few issues closed a point or so under yesterday's final levels. The closing tone was slightly heavy. The turnover was around 800,000 shares.

The appearance of an estimate that steel mills in the Youngstown area would operate at less than 15 per cent of capacity next week, as compared to 18 per cent this week, apparently put a damper on the bullish enthusiasm engendered by the plight of shorts in Auburn. The week-end indications were that the steel industry might have its dullist week of the year next week.

American Tobacco B and Case converted early gains of 2 points into net losses of like extent. Allied Chemical and American Telephone advanced about 2 points, then reacted to close fractionally under yesterday's final levels. U. S. Steel and N. Y. Central closed unchanged, after advancing more than a point. Eastman and Santa Fe converted gains of 11-2 into losses of 1 point. American Can finished off 1.2, after registering a temporary gain of 2. Coca Cola finished more than a point higher, after advancing more than 3. Norfolk and Western closed up 21-2 net, after selling somewhat higher. Auburn at its recent low of 283-4. It closed unchanged at 66.

DODGERS WIN FROM CUBS

By GAYLE TALBOT (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The hot fight in the National League, so hot the leadership is changing hands almost daily and no club can foretell its standing by the morrow's sundown, is beginning to wear on the players' nerves.

They're becoming quick on the trigger as the days get warmer, and it becomes apparent the field is so closely matched a single game may decide the eventual flag winner.

But for quick intervention from the sidelines there might have been a free-for-all in the final game of the Chicago-Brooklyn series yesterday at Ebbett's field. The tense feeling between the clubs burst bounds in the second inning, when Bill Jurgens of the Cubs and Micky Finn of the Dodgers started throwing fists after a collision at second base. Members of both sides then rushed in and there was a wild mixup before order was restored and the two combatants removed from the game.

The Dodgers went on to win, 4 to 3, behind Hollis Thurston's steady pitching. The defeat pushed the Cubs off the top and put the winning Boston Braves back at the head of the class.

Ed Brandt, Boston Southpaw, broke the Cardinals' winning streak when he bested Bill Hallahan in a tight wound duel, 2 to 1. Bill Urbanski ringled, stole second and scored the winning run on Worthington's double in the sixth.

The Giants made it four straight from Cincinnati, 4 to 3 as Lucas, pitching his twelfth complete contest for the Reds, lost on errors by himself and George Grantham.

The Phillies took their final with Pittsburgh, 6 to 5.

Alvin Crowder allowed only 3 hits as the Washington Senators blanked Chicago 10 to 0. Ossie Bluege's home run with two runners on featured the winners' attack. The Athletics outstaged Cleveland, 10 to 7, in 11 innings as Simmons and Cochran hit homers, but probably lost the services of Young Ed Coleman for three months, with a broken ankle.

Joe Sewell, Earle Combs connected in the eleventh inning to defeat the Detroit Tigers, 9 to 7. Vernon Gomez hurled the last three innings and was credited with his eleventh victory.

The St. Louis Browns knocked John Michaels from the hill in the seventh inning, scored four runs, and nosed out Boston 4 to 3.

New Government of Chile Has Set Prices On Food

Santiago, Chile, June 11.—(AP)—Chile's new Socialist government proceeded today to establish control of prices of grain, sugar and other foods while the question of confiscation of foreign currency in banks was still not entirely decided.

At the same time it faced a series of demands from a group of communist students who last night seized the national university buildings and printed on the university presses manifestos demanding the right to participate in the government.

The communists were held by Elias Laferte, president of the Chilean branch of the Moscow Communist party. They demanded that they be furnished with suitable headquarters, suggesting either the municipal theatre or the fashionable Club De La Union.

CAMP LEACH TO OPEN
MONDAY, JUNE 18th
Farmville, June 9.—With around a hundred young people mostly from Eastern Carolina but many also from other sections of the state registering daily, senior camp at Camp Leach, the Episcopal assembly ground near Washington, will open on Monday, June 13 for a two weeks period with a well balanced program of instruction for the spiritual and mental development of the campers and recreation for the body with rest periods provided for each day. Though enjoying many additional comforts last year, Camp Leach has undergone a veritable transformation this spring with electric lights, running water, sanitary conveniences, a hostess house for the women members of the staff, a well equipped infirmary and a long pier being added. The camp has a picturesque location on the banks of the Pamlico river and was entirely free of mosquitoes last year. The health of the camper is constantly safeguarded, all athletes are under the supervision of recreational and athletic directors with accredited Red Cross life savers on duty during swimming hours. The senior camp for both boys and girls June 13-26, ages 14 to 24, will be directed by Rev. W. A. Lillycrop of Greenville, and offers two weeks of joyful companionship training in leadership, recreation and inspiration, under the expert direction of leaders from the diocese and the church at large. Among these will be Bishop Darst, Rev. W. R. Noe, Rev. David T. Eaton, Rev. R. W. Trappell D. D., Capt. Earl Estabrook, Miss Cornelia Van B. Harris and others. Junior camp for boys, June 26-July 10, ages 12-14 will be directed by Capt. Earl Estabrook. Junior camp for girls, July 10-24, ages 12-14, will be directed by Miss Cornelia Van B. Harris and midweek camp for boys and girls, July 24-31, ages 9-11, will be directed by Rev. J. Q. Beckwith Jr. of Farmville. Applications will be received by the business manager of the camps Rev. Stephen Gardner, Washington, N. C., up to the capacity of each camp.
