Roosevelt Leading Nominations STATE RALLIES FOR THE SECOND PRIMARY BATTLE

N. C. Voters Will Go To Polls Saturday For Vote On Senator, Governor

'WET' ISSUE BIG FACTOR

Morrison is Supported by Drys While Reynolds, Advocating Repeal, Says He Is Campaigning For "Law and Order;" Ehringhaus and Fountain Once More Make Claims of Success as Hour of Balloting Nears.

Raleigh, July 1.—(AP)—North Carolina Democrats will be given opportunity to express themselves on prohibition repeal tomorrow when Senator Cameron Morrison, an avowed dry, and Robert R. Reynolds, Asheville wet, contest for the senatorial nomination in a run-off primary.

Since the first primary June 4, which gave Reynolds a 15,000 plurality over Morrison, the State Democratic convention has voted down a submission plank which the National convention has committed the party to repeal.

The wet-dry issue has been clearly drawn between the two men with Morrison declaring himself willing to be "annihilated politically before I would sell my conscience to the liquor interests" in a campaign talk last night at North Wilkesboro.

Reynolds, on the other hand, campaigned for repeal and government control of spirits. He branded as a "malicious lie" the favored return of the saloon.

Two other Democratic nominations will be decided in the run-off. J. C. B. Ehringhaus of Elizabeth City, who received 47,000 plurality in the first gubernatorial primary, is opposed by Lieut. Gov. R. T. Fountain, and A. L. Fletcher and Clarence Mitchell, both of Raleigh, the two high men in a field of six for commissioner of labor, are in a second primary for that office.

New Bank Opens At Greensboro

Greensboro, July 1.—(AP)—Brief address by the State Commissioner of Banks, local officers, and the head of the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce, were on the program today for the formal opening of the United Bank and Trust Company.

The new institution successor to the United Bank and Trust Company which closed December 30, was opening for business today in Greensboro, Reidsville, Burlington, and Sanford.

Those on the program were: R. D. Douglas, master of ceremonies; Gurney Hood, Raleigh, State Commissioner of Banks; Col. Frank P. Hobgood, chairman of the reorganization committee; Ernest W. Staples, president; Claude Kiser, vice-president, and trust officer of the bank; Ernest C. McLean, president of the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce and vice-president in charge of the Greensboro units of the North Carolina Bank and Trust Company, and J. T. Martin, president of the Greensboro Merchants' Association.

Corporal Lee Kills Himself

Fayetteville, July 1.—(AP)—Corporal C. Y. Lee, 26, Fort Bragg military police department, was found shot to death at Fort Bragg today and officials termed it suicide. Lee was shot through the mouth with a pistol and died an hour later. Police said they believed he was worried over finances. The widow and a small child survive. Funeral arrangements were not announced.

NATION BEGINS ANOTHER YEAR

Government Starts A new fiscal Year with Deficit of Nearly $3,000,000,000.

Washington, July 1.—(AP)—Nearly $3,000,000,000 in the hole the federal government today began a new financial year with eight big departments legally penniless because of a jam in Congress. Four annual appropriations bills that should have been law last midnight along with relief, legislative machinery that promised to

NEW ALDERMEN SWORN IN HERE

City Employees Re-Elected at Salary Cut at the Noon Hour Today.

City aldermen elected here last May were formally inducted into office at the city hall today at the noon hour, at which time organization for the new year virtually was completed in readiness for the regular business session next Thursday night.

In addition to the installation of officers, city employees, with exception of a few, were re-elected on a thirty-day basis at reduced salaries. The oath of office was administered to three aldermen by Mayor R. C. Flanagan, who emphasized the

SEN. MORRISON STICKS TO DRYS

Supports Cause of Prohibition Forces in Address at North Wilkesboro.

North Wilkesboro, July 1.—(AP)—In the face of the Democratic party's platform demanding repeal of the 18th amendment, Senator Cameron Morrison last night reaffirmed his loyalty to prohibition in a campaign speech here.

If the question comes to a vote in North Carolina, the senator, who is seeking to retain his seat against the challenge of Robert R. Reynolds, said.

Cannon Asks South To Repudiate Democrats

Chicago, July 1.—(AP)—With bitter words upon his lips, Bishop Jas. Cannon, Jr., turned his back once against today upon the Democratic party, calling for repudiation in the South of the leadership which has espoused repeal, promising the drys will war without compromise.

His sentences rang with echoes of the call the bishop sent out, right after the 1928 Democratic convention at Houston, gathering the prohibition leadership to chart a course against Alfred E. Smith, that led to the rending apart of the South, as under Cannon leadership Virginia and North Carolina went for Hoover, along with Florida and

Abandon Hope of Final Settlement On Debts

Lusane, Switzerland, July 1.—(AP)—Delegates to the debts and reparations conference apparently have abandoned hope of achieving a definite settlement, at this time, and today the five creditor powers were trying to work out a formula

PITT SET FOR BALLOT FIGHT

Unprecedented Second Primary Vote is Expected in This County Tomorrow.

With three hundred thousand people estimated to go to the polls tomorrow to vote in a second primary, Pitt County people today confined last minute attention to the part which they will play in the drama of ballots.

Although the senatorial and gubernatorial races stand out in bold relief as the principal centers of attack, the primary to Pitt county holds additional significance because of the race for a seat in the House of Representatives of the General Assembly and contests for office of constable in three separate townships.

John W. Holmes of Farmville, is seeking to retain his seat in the House against an attack by Jack Edwards, Greenville attorney, who ran ahead of the Farmville man in the first primary. Both sides claimed important gains as they made a final roundup of constituents in all sections of the county.

CALL FOR REPOFF ON BANK CONDITION

Washington, July 1.—(AP)—The Comptroller of the Currency issued a call today for the condition of all national banks at the close of business June 30.

Daily Reflector to Observe July 4th

In keeping with our regular custom of observance of July Fourth as a holiday, there will be no issue of The Reflector on Monday. In order that the members of our forces might have time to enjoy the holiday to the fullest our Saturday paper will appear at the regular time tomorrow afternoon instead of being held back for the primary returns.

Democrats Adjourn Fight Until Tonight Following Deadlock On Third Ballot

W. B. Wilson Dies Here After A Brief Illness

Walter Brown Wilson, age 74, native of this county and for more than half a century prominent in business and civic affairs of this city, died at his home on Evans street shortly before ten o'clock last night, following an illness of ten days. The funeral will take place at 10:30 Saturday morning at Cherry Hill cemetery. Services will be conducted by Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church.

TWO ON STAND IN HOAX TRIAL

Flemington, N. J., July 1.—(AP)—Sergeant Eugene Hausling of the state police resumed the stand when court convened today for the fifth day of the trial of John Hughes Curtis for hindering capture of the Lindbergh bay's kidnappers.

WAR HORSES MEET AGAIN

Chicago Stadium, July 1.—(AP)—Democracy's two war horses of 1928—Alfred E. Smith and James A. Reed of Missouri, both candidates in today's presidential balloting, met by chance this morning behind the convention platform during the call of the second roll.

CITY STARTS ON NEW YEAR

Greenville embarked on a new fiscal year today after the Board of Aldermen met last night to pave the way for taking over the reins of government by the new administration today.

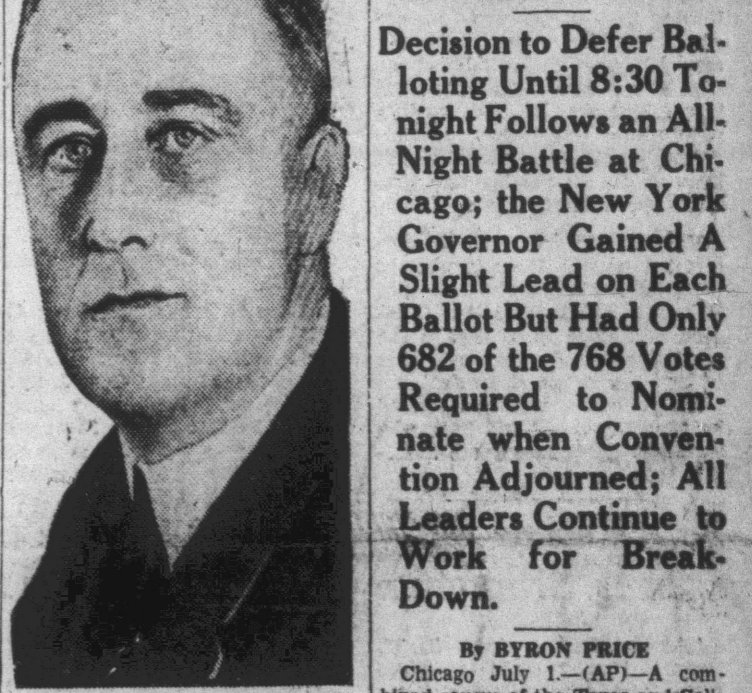

PRAISES WET PARTY PLANK

Two N. C. Delegates At Chicago Bolt For Byrd

Chicago, July 1.—(AP)—The First break in North Carolina's Roosevelt line at the Democratic national convention came on the third ballot at 8:45 a. m. today when two delegates, representing virtually one vote, bolted in favor of former Governor Byrd of Virginia.

Sure of Bearing Party Standard

Franklin D. Roosevelt, governor of New York, was confident he would win the Democratic presidential nomination after the end of the 3rd ballot today. With the official count showing 682 votes for Roosevelt, campaign forces were confident of obtaining the required 768 to nominate.

ROOSEVELT IS CONFIDENT

New Yorker Feels Certain He Will Be Nominated By Democrats at Chicago.

Executive Mansion, Albany, N. Y., July 1.—(AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, after gaining slightly more than 16 votes in three ballots, was confident he would win the presidential nomination as the Democratic National Convention adjourned its all-night session today.

After his all night vigil by the radio, Gov. Roosevelt appeared fresh and in high spirits. He looked less fatigued than his sons, Elliott and John. His linen suit was hardly wrinkled.

"I expect to take a nap for a couple of hours," he said. "After that, I expect I shall be pretty busy on the telephone."

Two N. C. Delegates At Chicago Bolt For Byrd

Chicago, July 1.—(AP)—The First break in North Carolina's Roosevelt line at the Democratic national convention came on the third ballot at 8:45 a. m. today when two delegates, representing virtually one vote, bolted in favor of former Governor Byrd of Virginia.

The bolters were W. Lunford Long of Halifax County, and James G. Hanes of Winston-Salem. Both said they would vote for Baker on the next ballot.

VOTES MOVING MIGHTY SLOW

Decision to Defer Balloting Until 8:30 Tonight Follows an All-Night Battle at Chicago; the New York Governor Gained A Slight Lead on Each Ballot But Had Only 682 of the 768 Votes Required to Nominate when Convention Adjourned; All Leaders Continue to Work for Break-Down.

Chicago Stadium, July 1.—(AP)—A combined caucus of the Texas and California delegations was called for 6 p. m. today by State Senator Wood-ull, of Texas, one of the Garner leaders.

The Texas and California votes, 90 strong were pledged to Speaker Garner for the presidency, and were so cast on the first three ballots early today.

There has been considerable discussion on the possibilities of a Roosevelt-Garner ticket, but it has been without official countenance and all rumors of a trade have been promptly denied.

The ninety votes commanded by Garner would give Roosevelt two votes more than 770 needed to nominate if they should be changed to his column. The Roosevelt total on the last ballot was 682 79-100.

Chicago Stadium, July 1.—(AP)—After a tumultuous night-long session, the Democratic National Convention fell into the tightening grip of a deadlock at dawn today, took three fruitless ballots for a presidential nominee, and then adjourned until tonight to think it over.

Governor Roosevelt, of New York, far ahead of his nearest rival, mustered a slowly-rising majority on each succeeding ballot, but was unable to make the real progress which his managers had predicted toward the two-thirds needed to nominate.

On the third ballot the official count showed 682 for Roosevelt, 100 for Alfred E. Smith, 101 for Speaker Garner, 52 for Governor George White of Ohio, 40 for Melvin Traynor, 27 for James A. Reed, 24 for Harry Byrd, 23 for Governor Ritchie of Maryland, and one for Newton D. Baker.

It would have required, on this ballot, 763 to nominate.

The Roosevelt managers working like beavers among the wary delegates, had made inroads here and there, picking up votes by dribbles. At the same time some of the Roosevelt states were showing signs of wavering under the pounding counter-attack of the bloc of favorite sons.

The Missouri delegation, pledged to Reed, collapsed and toppled most of its votes into the Roosevelt column. The candidacy of Governor Murray of Oklahoma, lasted but one ballot; but when the governor himself released his delegates, they divided among other favorite sons, and none of them went to the New Yorker.

There were definite signs of agitation in the Texas and California delegations, pledged to Speaker Garner, with Roosevelt figuring as the most likely beneficiary, should a real break come. The inside circle of convention leaders heard much talk of a combinat on involving the vice-presidential nomination. Both Garner and William McAdoo, chairman of the California delegation, were mentioned in convention floor

Marion Talley Marries German Concert Pianist

White Plains, N. J., July 1.—(AP)—Marion Talley, of Kansas City, concert singer and former Metropolitan Opera Company soprano, was married here yesterday to Michael Raucheisen, a German pianist.

The couple came here secretly yesterday and obtained a marriage license from City Clerk George Z. Echel. They then went to the First Presbyterian Church where they were married by the Rev. Thomas F. Watkins.

The bride made her debut with the Metropolitan Opera February 17th 1926, as Gilda in "Rigoletto," when she was welcomed with shouts and prolonged applause. A reception for a large Kansas City delegation was held on the stage after the opera.

Miss Talley was accompanied by her mother and sister. They reached the church study at 3:30 o'clock and the ceremony was quickly and quietly performed. The newly-weds got away unnoticed and without saying where they were going.

Banks Trial Near Ending

Marion, July 1.—(AP)—The case of A. W. Banks, on trial here charged with the killing of Louis Chiapetta, Houston, Texas, bonus marcher was expected to reach the jury today.

Defense witnesses were still being heard when court convened to continue the hearing of the case of the Asheville railroad detective.

Banks, on the stand yesterday, testified that his gun was discharged accidentally in a tussle with several "thugs" at the railroad car here at the time Chiapetta was killed. However, he said, another pistol nearby was discharged simultaneously with his, and he did not know whether it was his pistol that killed the veteran.

He also said that the shooting occurred outside the car, whereas the several veterans who were with Chiapetta had testified that Chiapetta was killed as he slept in the car. Banks denied emphatically that he shot the Texan as he slept.

His testimony was corroborated by Gibb Stepe of Old Fort, who said that he witnessed the shooting.

Seek Resignation of U. S. Surgeon

Asheville, July 1.—(AP)—C. W. Francey Post No. 70 American Legion, was on record today as demanding that Dr. W. F. Herbert resign his office of consulting physician at the U. S. Veterans Hospital at Oteen, immediately.

A resolution adopted by the post last night declared that "Dr. Herbert has failed in every respect to hold the confidence of patients taking treatment at the Oteen hospital."

Lower Rates for Power Consumers

Raleigh, July 1.—(AP)—Consumers of electric energy in small communities in the northeastern section of North Carolina served by the Virginia Electric & Power Co., began enjoying lower rates on it today.

The State Corporation Commission announced yesterday the cuts, filed voluntarily by the electric company.

Maybe It Will Stick! Edgewater Park, N. J.—Binney Woodward Earl has taken the same woman to wife for the third time. They were married first in 1916, divorced in 1927, and remarried in Nova Scotia, last year. The other day there was another ceremony in Maryland because we felt we should be married under the American flag.

NEW ALDERMEN SWORN IN

Those taking oath were Closs Hearne, J. L. Hassell and W. J. Norris. Hearne was elected to the fill the seat vacated by J. N. Williams, and the other two were re-elected. Joe Taft, elected in the Third Ward and A. E. Hobgood, re-elected, were elected and asked that they do from the Fifth, were not present to take oath of office, but will do so at the next regular meeting of the board.

The following employees were re-elected: George Clark, chief of police and superintendent of streets; W. L. Brewer, assistant chief; J. L. Whichard, J. R. Noble, L. D. Page, L. B. Tucker, R. D. House, patrolmen; George Gardner, chief of fire department; J. O. Duval, city clerk; W. L. Patrick, assistant city clerk; and J. C. Tyson, treasurer.

The services of J. R. Underhill, mechanic, were dispensed with, and re-election of a mayor pro-tem, sanitary inspector and fire truck drivers was deferred until the next meeting.

All employees were subject to a reduction of salary. George Clark's salary was reduced from $210 a month to $200, and all other salaries were sliced 10 per cent.

Discuss Special Assembly Session For School Issue

Cullowhee, N. C., July 1.—(AP)—A special session of the General Assembly was discussed today as a possibility in the attempt to keep open the Western Carolina Teachers College, a state institution here.

Facing the "danger of closing because of financial difficulties," members of the faculty appealed to the board of trustees yesterday to rescind its action of May 30 authorizing a reduction of $12,000 in the salary school for next year.

In the event the budget commission should fail to provide for the college as requested, the board of trustees was asked to request the governor to call a special session of the General Assembly.

Alligators Wanted! Bronxville, N. Y.—Residents here are agog over an alligator hunt. Small boys found two small ones, no policemen comb the underbrush with nets, flashlights and generous pieces of liver. Experts figure some one must have brought them from Florida and turned them loose when they refused to become nice pets.

Engaged

Miss Laura Barkley (above), daughter of Senator and Mrs. Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, is engaged to marry Ensign Frank B. Miller, U. S. N., who entered the naval academy from Virginia. The wedding is to take place in the fall.

NEW WOMEN'S CLUB LEADERS

These five women will direct activities of the General Federation of Women's Clubs for the next three years. Left to right: Mrs. Eugene Lawson, Tulsa, Okla., first vice president; Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, Portland, Ore., recording secretary; Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, Brockton, Mass., president; Mrs. Edward Hammett, Sheboygan, Wis., treasurer; Dr. Josephine L. Pierce, Lima, O., second vice president.

VOTE for FOUNTAIN FOR GOVERNOR

We ask you to vote for Richard T. Fountain for Governor of North Carolina because he favors:

- Putting into effect the MacLean Law, taking off all property for school purposes;
- All the economy in Government possible;
- The abolition of all needless and unnecessary offices and commissions of the State Government;
- Efficient schools and health department;
- A State Government that is not dominated by any powerful interest;
- A return to Jeffersonian Democracy instead of continuing the Hamilton tendencies.

Balancing the State Budget and maintaining the credit of the State of North Carolina;

Making it unlawful for any man to be appointed to any office which he helped to create.

Mr. Fountain stands against the short ballot and wants every voter to have the freedom to select State officers.

We are going to vote for him because he stood by us in the last Legislature and helped to reduce property taxes, while some candidates refused to turn a hand to help us.

Crowds!

NEVER before have we had a general sale in Miller-Jones stores. Our policy is against sales—except when they are absolutely necessary and based upon actual merchandising truths. Conditions have caused many well-laid plans to go astray this year. Retarded buying has failed to clear shelves fast enough—Distress merchandise of unknown quality at ridiculous prices has blocked the ordinary "outlet" channels of all large operators. So temporarily we shall be our own "outlet" for surplus stocks, which virtually means wholesale clearance prices for retail buyers.

S. G. Wilkerson Funeral Home Formally Open

The S. G. Wilkerson & Sons funeral home, in the old Wilson home, recently known as the Wayne house, was formally opened to the public today.

The concern, one of the most modern and best equipped in this part of the State, was visited by scores of people throughout the day, who expressed appreciation of the splendid appointment of the building and the many conveniences which it affords.

The building has been completely remodeled inside and out and contains various departments for the convenience of the public as well as for speeding up the conduct of funerals.

Although the firm has been open for business for several days, today was the time set aside for the formal entertainment of visitors, and many took advantage of the opportunity to inspect the place.

Mr. Wilkerson, who several years ago operated a funeral business here, was connected with one of the largest coffin manufacturing concerns in the country since while away from Greenville, and his return to engage in this line of business again has been greeted with interest by his hundreds of friends.

Those on the sick list this week are Mesdames Charlie Langston, Joe Edwards and Misses Clarice McLawhorn and Willie Gray Cox.

Best's Store Makes Fine Improvements

Improvements to the building occupied by Best's, Evans street jeweler, have been completed and give the firm one of the most up-to-date structures to be found in this part of the State.

The improvements consist of repainting of the interior in white and cream and the placing of marble inlaid linoleum on the floors. Lights and radiators were painted silver to match the general color, scheme adopted throughout the building.

The store has acquired one of the most complete stocks to be found in this part of the State, and in addition is equipped with an expert watch repairing department and an optical department under direct supervision of Dr. W. L. Best.

Bob Green is general manager of the store and Jake Stauffer is in charge of the watch repairing department.

Final Rites for J. Arthur Forbes

Farmville, June 30.—Final rites were held for J. Arthur Forbes on Wednesday afternoon, a highly esteemed farmer, who died on the day before at noon following a heart attack. Services were conducted by Rev. H. L. Hendricks, pastor of the Farmville Methodist Church, and interment was made in the family burial grounds.

Mr. Forbes was stricken in his potato patch near the house, where he was engaged in chopping, dying two hours later. Friendly and cordial in his relations with others, Mr. Forbes will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends and neighbors.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Forbes' leave two daughters, Mrs. Jack Hardy of Goldsboro and Miss Lula Forbes; a son, Earl Forbes; two half-sisters, Mrs. Lynn Evans and Mrs. Mary Smith of Greenville; and a half-brother, Arch Forbes, Trenton, N. J.

A strange coincidence in the death of Mr. Forbes is the fact that a brother-in-law, John Askew, and a neighbor, W. A. Walston, all living on the same farm and within several hundred yards of each other have died within the past five weeks with similar and sudden heart attacks, which proved fatal in a few hours.

Club Party

Farmville, June 30.—An outstanding social event of the week was the lovely club party of Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Wesley R. Willis delightfully entertained the Merry Matrons and a large number of other friends at her home on Walnut street.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by the hostess and presented

Vandals Damage Textile Factory

Charlotte, July 1.—(AP)—More than 125 men were thrown out of work temporarily today by vandals who entered the Calvine mill here and damaged 5000 looms.

W. J. Dugan, superintendent, said the damage would amount to several thousand dollars and that the mill would have to be closed about three weeks while repairs are made.

Police investigated said they believed several persons had a hand in the affair last night as it would have taken one person a considerable length of time to cut the warps of each of the looms.

Mill officials and officers expressed opinions former employees or persons led by former employees were responsible. They could advance no motive.

Winston-Salem, July 1.—(AP)—Trial continued today in Forsyth court of the suit of Mrs. Alexander B. Hankins asking judgement of $150,000 against J. R. Hankins, her father-in-law, for alleged alienation of the affections of her husband.

Court had before it the testimony of G. Foster Hankins, of Lexington, brother of the defendant, and Miss Nancy Hankins, daughter of the defendant, that they advanced large amounts of money to Jim Hankins, husband of the plaintiff, and the loans were subsequently paid by J. R. Hankins, the defendant.

Also in the court records was the testimony of more than a score of people that the defendant was a man of good character and known for his honesty and truthfulness.

Fresh oranges give Orange-Crush a flavor never known in chemical imitations

Fresh, uncooked orange juice—that's what gives the new Orange-Crush a zest and tang never known before in a 5c drink. No chemical imitations here—none of the synthetic concoctions so widely used in ordinary "pops" and so-called "fruit drinks."

Here's a drink straight from the groves. Luscious with the rich juice of fresh-picked, tree-ripened oranges. You can taste the fresh fruit itself!

And it has the vitamins! Orange-Crush is the only nationally advertised orange drink tested by university scientists and proved to preserve all the precious Vitamin C. That's important! Orange juice with vitamins destroyed by cooking or age is not fresh orange juice and has little or no value.

Try the new Orange-Crush today. You'll love its luscious goodness. And its exhilarating sparkle. See what a difference fresh juice makes!

There is only one Orange-Crush

Beware of chemical imitations

HUNDREDS of imitations of Orange-Crush have sprung up almost overnight. Many do not contain a drop of orange juice. Don't be misled. Insist on genuine Orange-Crush in the crinkly bottle. Get vitamins—not chemicals.

The new Orange-Crush contains luscious, fresh orange juice, the tang of peel, the zest of lemon juice acid, pure U. S. certified food color, pure cane sugar and clear, sparkling water

The new Orange-Crush is sold icy-cold at stores and stands everywhere. Insist on genuine Orange-Crush in the crinkly bottle

ABOUT TOWN

The Democratic convention refused to endorse the proposal for cash payment of compensation to soldiers of the World War, thereby destroying an opportunity to gain about three million votes in the coming election.

The proposition was shouted down in one of the greatest demonstrations of the convention, and showed conclusively that party delegates are not in sympathy with the movement of the veterans to obtain payment of what the government owes them for services during the great conflict overseas.

While the decision threw a slight damper on the army of bonus marchers which has been gathered at Washington the last several weeks, it did not lessen their determination to carry on until Congress meets again and sentiment crystallizes in their behalf.

These men are suffering from lack of food and clothing resulting from the economic situation affecting the nation and feel that they are entitled to the remainder of their pay considering action of the government in paying damages to other countries immediately after the war and enabling those powers to pay off their soldiers within a short time following cessation of armed conflict.

Lots of people disagree with the veterans in the face of the financial situation affecting the country but there are others fully in sympathy with the movement and who will give it their support when the time comes.

The fight is not ended by any means; in fact, it is just beginning.

Cases of typhoid fever have been reported in some sections of the state, and in this county also during the last several weeks, and health authorities are urging people to take vaccinations and immunize themselves against an attack of the fever.

Clinics have been held in virtually all sections of the country for the purpose of giving vaccinations free of charge, and while hundreds of people have taken advantage of the opportunity, others have not.

It is useless to stress the importance of inoculations at this time with the fever already in our midst. Everybody knows the danger of typhoid and the awful toll it has taken of human life in past years and should do all they can to stave off an attack.

The health authorities are now launching a relentless attack throughout the state and if the people will do their part there is every reason to believe the fever will be checked before it gains a definite foothold.

Farmers of Pitt county continue to realize extra revenue through the sale of hogs and poultry, and indications at this time point to the realization of a much greater sum than in past years.

Two carloads of hogs were sold in Richmond during the present week and swelled the farmers' receipts to several thousands of dollars. Sales of this kind are being conducted through the Pitt County Mutual Exchange, assisted by the Farm Department, and every effort is being exerted to enable the growers to realize as much as possible from their labor.

Production of hogs and poultry has increased considerably in this county the last few years, and indications at this time apparently point to continued expansion of the industry in years to come, especially in view of the low prices realized on principal money crops.

Every cent coming in from these extra sources does its bit toward improving the condition of the growers, and nobody realizes it more than the man who receives his check after having been unable

Gambler's Throw

By EUSTACE L. ADAMS

SYNOPSIS: Jerry Callahan and Nancy Wentworth are tumbled after their secret marriage by Limpy Ashwood, who had intended to marry Nancy. Ashwood has kidnapped her and five men, one of whom has been murdered, and holds them on an island for ransom. Lucci, a gangster, one of the prisoners, hopes to outkick Ashwood.

Chapter 20 SUPPRESSED HATE

"If you'll excuse us, we'll go out on the porch," Jerry told Ashwood. "We find the room crowded."

He turned to Nancy, who, repressing a start of surprise, rose instantly and put her arm through his.

"Why not, indeed?" agreed the cripple. "I think it is duly recorded in the 'Book of Etiquette' that the young couple should invariably sit for an hour or two gazing starrily-eyed at the moonlight, if any."

Jerry stood there in hesitation, his self-control worn to a thin edge by the subtle taunts. If Ashwood had only been of Lucci's build! What pleasure he would take in beating him down! Nancy's slight pressure on his arm brought him back to reason.

Hamilton swept his seven rows of cards together, placed the deck meticulously in the upper left corner of the table and, murmuring a conventional word of apology, left the room.

The wide, comfortable porch, in the utter quiet of the tropic night, was like a haven of peace after the throbbing intensity of the living-room. Nancy stepped to the rail, silently surveying the long, sparkling path of moonlight across the black waters.

"What do you think Ashwood will do, Jerry?" she whispered. "I don't know, Nancy," he answered honestly. "It hit him hard. That's the only thing I'm sure of. I'm getting so I don't know what anyone will do. We're all strained to the snapping point."

Word has percolated through the crowd that Ashwood is flying away from here tomorrow. There's been a lot of activity at the hangar all afternoon. One-shot and Hamilton have asked me a dozen times whether we're going to be released tomorrow or not. Ashwood has said nothing about it, and they're all afraid we're going to be left here while he gets away. If we have another hot night tonight, there's no telling what may happen. The whole place vibrates with suppressed hate."

"If he takes me away tomorrow, I'll jump out of his plane," she burst out passionately. "And if I'm tied in, I'll jump overboard from his yacht tomorrow night."

"He won't take you away," he declared firmly. "The first move he makes toward you in the morning I'll grab him with my two hands and break his back before his guards can pull a trigger. If I were positive he still had it in his mind I'd walk right in there and do it now."

"Please, Jerry," she whispered. "Aren't things bad enough now without your adding to them before it becomes necessary?"

He made no reply, being afraid that if he spoke at all, it would be to say too much. He dared not even look at her cameo-like profile, lest he lose the words which trembled upon his lips. For some moments they stood here in silence. At last:

"Nancy, you—you aren't worrying about—tonight, are you?" "I don't know, Jerry," she confessed hardly above a whisper. "I was watching Ashwood's face when he listened to my announcement. He's going to make it as difficult as he can for us, if only out of a perverse wish for revenge."

"Well," he ventured, cursing himself for his fumbling about in a difficult situation, "we'll have to make a pretense of being really married, you know, or all this business won't do any good."

Why couldn't he express himself to girls as he could to men? If he were talking to a fellow, now, he'd have no trouble. But here he was floundering like a silly kid, making it more difficult for her instead of less. His cheeks were hot, too. It was fortunate that the night hid his face. He'd give his share of the reward, right now, if Lucci or Malory were to stride out on the porch and give him something to poke at.

to obtain money from other sources.

Tomorrow is primary day again in this state and voters will have the opportunity to go to the polls and vote for candidates who failed to obtain sufficient votes to nominate in the June primary.

The senatorial and gubernatorial races hold major interest but right here in Pitt county the voters are occupied with claims of candidates for a seat in the House of Representatives and three contests for constable.

The importance of analyzing the qualifications of the candidates cannot be stressed too forcefully, and voters desiring to render the community the best of service should analyze the campaign statements of policy, determine upon the proficiency of the candidates, and then vote for those they believe will render the highest type of service. Having done that, they may rest assured that they have done their best.

me, but there are millions in it and I'm going to hop on it good! The rest of you will be collectors and Tommy men. And," he added significantly, "you can trust me never to lam out on you when things get hot and leave you to shoot it out with the dicks, see?"

"What do we stand to make if we come over to you?" This was from a man who had not spoken before.

ANNOUNCEMENT! I hereby announce my candidacy for membership in the House of Representatives from Pitt County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary to be held July 2nd. I believe the first and most important function of Democratic Government is the education of its youth. The state should pay the entire expense of the six month's school term WITHOUT ANY TAX ON LAND. I am opposed to spending more for any kind of Governmental service than the people are able to pay and then issuing bonds to pay deficits, as we have sometimes done in the past. There should be no bond issue without a vote of the people, except for refunding bonds already outstanding. I favor re-valuation of land and all real estate at its true value. I stand for strict, though sound economy in all departments of our Government. Your vote and support will be greatly appreciated. J. W. HOLMES

Announcing! That the Regular Meeting of the County Commissioners will not be held on July 4th as this is a National Holiday, but will meet the following Monday July 11

FALSE REPORT A report is being circulated over the county that if I am elected to the House of Representatives that I will have two extra commissioners appointed. I wish to state that there is no truth in this report. The present board, just elected, is composed of men of character, integrity and ability. They are the choice of the people. I would not under any circumstances be a party to hindering them in their work by increasing their number. J. W. HOLMES

WHO IS THE SAFER CANDIDATE: For the House of Representatives we name JACK EDWARDS. A gentleman of the highest integrity and honesty. He will do what he says and will work and vote for the principles declared in his platform. He favors elimination of unnecessary expense in our State Government, favors revaluation of lands, favors removal of the fifteen cents ad valorem land tax for school, favors educational opportunities and good schools, favors taxing those sources of wealth that have the money and should justly be taxed, etc. You will find him consistent and fearless at all times. He would not change his views and platform against an opponent that had led him several hundred votes. He may not be wealthy in money or material things but is wealthy in a reputation of high character and principles and a fearless champion of the rights of the people. Contributed by the Friends of Jack Edwards.

REYNOLDS THE PEOPLES' CANDIDATE In selecting a senator, we need one who understands the mass of this great state, and has our interest at heart, and not one who prefers High Circles of Society, and Money Powers. We need a fearless leader, a man who states his platform and stands by it. I firmly believe, and hope, that Reynolds will win the gratitude of all voters of this state. North Carolina will tolerate nothing except who gets a platform and stands on it; having no secrets, but be able to come clean and tell the voters of this state on what platform he stands. In the last primary, he was the recipient of 15,000 more votes than Cameron Morrison, and present indications point to an even greater majority on Saturday, July 2nd, 1932. Now, taxpayers, if Morrison had your interest at heart, would he call for a second primary which is generally estimated by citizens of this state to cost the taxpayers approximately $200,000.00, while the salary of a United States Senator for the term of six years is only $72,000.00. What's your answer? Under the present leadership, there is little hope for relief, because "Big Business," "Money Power," and "Special Favor" are to be looked after. Listen, fellow-citizens, there is a growing dissatisfaction among soldiers and other honest men and women—home loving voting people of this state. Reynolds is a leader. The taxpayers are tired and disgusted with machine made government. If the taxpayers of North Carolina will put their shoulders against this machine, the thing will collapse. What Reynolds, our generous, fearless leader needs, is our vote—a majority vote. We need to put an end to "Special Interest" by putting in office a man who is a true representative of the people. We don't need so much High Brow Government, as we need a government directed by good common sense, yielding to nothing but the good of the people. We don't know that Reynolds will make a good senator, but we do know that he is the best candidate, and the majority of the voters in this just past primary believed that Bob Reynolds could lead them on to victory. I don't believe that if the time ever came, that "Our Bob" would shut the door of his offices in the face of any delegate or delegates who were pursuing the interest of the peoples of this great state, as our present APPOINTED Senator did the soldiers bonus leaders, refusing even to listen to their cry for help in their hour of dire distress and need. And then do an about face and slap them in the face with an offer of a $500.00 donation. Heaven forbid, that you send back to the United States Senate, by your vote, a man who does not have the interest of the overburdened people at heart. But give us a man who has a stout heart; who has the strength; and who has the courage to state his convictions—Robert R. Reynolds. And in furtherance of this thought I would quote a verse from a poem of Robert Louis Stevenson: "Oh! for faith and strength to win Every battle we begin; Oh! for patience to put through Every task we plan to do." Here's hoping "Our Bob" will bring Victory to the state. He is asking you for your vote. He relies upon the volunteer workers to elect him as our next United States Senator. He will repay with honest work and conscientious effort in behalf of the voters and peoples of this Good Old North State. MRS. HENRY W. MARTIN, Greenville, N. C. PATS BEAT BEES FOR THE LEAGUE LEAD

Charlotte, July 1.—(AP)—New faces with an old and honorable name today peered down from atop the Piedmont League's statistical table.

The Greensboro Patriots, long the despair of teams that aspired to reach the heights of Piedmont glory, were themselves enjoying the sensation of the high atmosphere.

Charlotte's Bees were the inspiration for it was a victory over the Hornets last night while the Asheville Tourists were losing to the Twins, that put the Pats where they'd all like to be.

And the Greensboro nine followed the Hornets home to try it again today and tomorrow. The Pats defeated the Bees last night by the dint of 3-2. Lewis and Caldwell, of the Patriots, hit the only two home runs of the day to account for two of the Greensboro runs, and Pitcher Lyle of the Hornets was given credit for the only other run batted in of the game.

The contest was a good pitchers' duel, the Greensboro aggregation getting only eight safeties, and the Bees seven. The teams had one error each.

The Tourists fell before a former college boy, Tom Lanning, late of Wake Forest, who held them to six well scattered hits. Brown also hurled a good game, giving the Winston-Salem team only ten hits but failure of the tourists to connect with the Collegian's delivery cost him the game.

There were no other upsets in the club standings, and the Raleigh Capitals were still one game behind the second place team today, with the Bees a game behind the Caps. The Twins, leading the second division, were one game behind the Hornets.

The Capitals lost last night to High Point by the score of 6-1, with Goat Walker the mound hero of the day. Pitcher Briggs for the Caps matched wits and good-mound work with Walker for six innings, but after that he was unable to hold the Pointers, while the Capitals' field work weakened at the same time that he did.

Battling in the stride that has kept them climbing for the last two weeks, the Durham Bulls knocked Burns for 15 safeties and defeated Wilmington 8-4.

The Pirates expected today to be back under the management of Hal Weafer, whose release from the Wilmington nine had been announced Wednesday night.

J. N. Bryant, owner of the club said yesterday after a conference with Weafer that announcement of his release was "all a mistake" and that Weafer would continue in charge of the Pirates.

Announcement of the release of pitcher Harry Burns was also erroneous, he said.

PIRATES HOLD TO THEIR LEAD IN NATIONAL

By GAYLE TALBOT
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Today was the fifth straight for the Pittsburgh Pirates at the top of the National League race, and that comes close to being a record for sustained leadership of President John Heydler's effervescent circuit this summer.

Bill Swift, the rockie righthander, deserves a special pointing-out for the part he has played in the Pirates' present streak. Of their seven straight conquests, the lad from Kansas City has received credit for three as a relief pitcher. He rescued Heine Meine in the fifth inning of yesterday's game with the Cardinals, yielded only 4 hits, and one run the rest of the way, and his mates came from behind to win for him 9-5. Pie Traynor, cracked four singles for the leaders.

The Chicago Cubs held tight in second place by subduing the punchless Cincinnati 7-0. While his mates were oppounding Red Lucas for 12 hits and 26 bases, Guy Bush managed to keep eight Red blows well scattered. Charlie Grimm had a homerun and two doubles. Defeating Brooklyn 9-3, the larruping Phillies jumped from sixth place in the league standing to fourth, passing both the Dodgers and the Cards. Chuck Klein and Hal Lee each belted two homeruns. This was the 23rd and 24th of the year for Klein.

Bill Terry's 15th homer with one of his operatives on base touched off a six-run rally in the fourth inning that routed Lefty Brandt and gave the Giants a 9-5 triumph in their opener with the Boston Braves.

The Yankees found Boston easy pickings and increased their lead over the American League to nine and a half games as the second place Detroiters lost. Danny MacFayden, pitching against his old mates for the first time, received great batting support to win, 15-4. Arndt Jorgens, second string catcher, knocked in four Yank runs with a double and two singles. Wes Ferrell was entirely too much for Detroit. The Cleveland ace held the Tigers to eight hits and batted across three runs to give the Indians a 7-4 victory. Webb and Gehring each hit a homerun for Detroit. It was Ferrell's 14th win of the year.

The St. Louis Browns though resting in sixth place, climbed well above the 500 mark in games won by defeating Chicago 7-6. The Browns jumped on VV Frasier for five runs in the first inning, and the White Sox made all of their's when they knocked Blacholder loose in the fourth.

Philadelphia and Washington were idle.

CITY STARS ON NEW YEAR

The mayor told Mr. Collins his services had been marked by splendid achievement and that the board parted with him reluctantly. He thanked him for his spirit of co-operation and his readiness to serve the best interest of the citizenship at all times.

Replying, Mr. Collins said he was grateful for the consideration that was shown him during the two years of service to the government, and that association with members of the board had been inspirational. He recommended that the effort to reduce insurance on some of the city property be continued as present policies were much too high and could not be recovered on at near their value in case of fire.

After the eulogies had been completed, Mayor Flanagan informed the board of a recent visit to the Corporation Commission at Raleigh regarding the taking off of two night passenger trains by the Norfolk-Southern Railroad. Although the commission granted the railroad right to remove the trains, the mayor stated that his delegation and those from other affected areas had been assured that express and mail from this section would be adequately taken care of and that the community would not suffer any disruption of service.

Mayor Flanagan read a letter from K. T. Patrell regarding the city providing a bed for indigent people at Pitt Community Hospital. The request was tabled for further consideration.

F. C. Harding, representing the city in filing of tax suits, was authorized to issue notice of publication in a certain number of cases of 1929 taxes to comply with the law.

L. G. Curry was again refused permission to move his pool room, it being the second time the board had acted on the request.

Alderman Norris asked about regulations regarding the repairing of wooden structures in the fire zone, and Chief of Police George Clark, building inspector, called in for advice, stated that minor repairs might be made without permit but those of a more extensive nature would require a permit from his department as well as that of the state fire marshal. It was decided to request the marshal to come to Greenville and look over the property referred to and pass upon the question.

The board adjourned until the noon-hour today when new members of the board were sworn in and another fiscal actually started. The regular meeting will be held next Thursday night.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTERS' LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't take the liver pills. Smiling as he walked wearily from the floor, Harry F. Byrd, who has Virginia's 24 votes, announced he was standing pat.

The other candidates on the second offered little comment on the three fruitless ballots.

The Next Best Thing to Eating REAL Grapes,

Ever visit a vineyard early in the morning, when the dew still lingered on the great clusters of purple grapes? Ever squeeze them between your lips and experience the gemine thrill of that first delicious wine-like flavor? Nowhere else have you seemed to quite match that tang—until the New NuGrape came.

This unusual new drink, by a process exclusively its own, has succeeded in imprisoning the elusive tang of the dew-wet grape, just as it is plucked from the vineyard in season—clean, tingling with life, and perfumed. Yes—you can catch the bouquet of it the moment the bottle is opened. For that vivid moment, you are "In a Grape Arber."

Try this delicious carbonated beverage today. It's now on sale everywhere for 5c.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

New York Cotton

New York, July 1 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, 1-5 higher on continued abeyance over the belt and trade buying.

July rose 5.70 and December 5.98, making an advance of about 67 to 70 points from the recent low records. This attracted considerable realising, and possibly some selling for a reaction, but offerings were absorbed by continued trade buying, part by through houses with foreign connections, and after easing to about yesterday's close the market steadied again. At the end of the first half hour, native months were holding 3 to 4 points net higher. Selling seemed checked by nervousness over the weather outlook and the further progress of the crop. A private report indicated a decrease of 7.9 per cent in acreage, which was estimated at 27,325,000 acres and placed the condition at 7.32. Liverpool cables reported foreign buying and covering on the easier sterling and said there was an improved demand for cotton cloths from India and China.

Grain Market

By JOHN P. BOUGHAN

Chicago, July 1 (AP)—Topped over by huge deliveries on July wheat contracts here, aggregating more than 6,000,000 bushels, grain prices slid down today to near low record levels.

General liquidation of July wheat contracts took place. Today's monthly private crop estimates indicated that the United States would have 325,000,000 bushels of wheat available for export in the 1932-1933 season.

Stock Market

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER

New York, July 1 (AP)—Security markets began the last half of the year with a distinctly improved tone today after a temporary setback in stocks during the morning.

Bonds showed sustained strength, which appeared to be the principal influence in propping the share market. Announcement of the British war loan conversion, hailed in London as striking testimony to the fiscal strength of England, started an upturn in foreign dollar bonds which spread to domestic issues and finally to shares. Trading quickened a little on the upturn.

After a firm opening the share market turned downward under the influence of further selling of National Biscuit, which dropped 2 points. Several other issues were carried off 1 to 2 points, including Corn Products, Safeway, Woolworth, Lambert, Harvester and Kresge, but most of these issues came back after midday, with the notable exception of Kresge. Among issues getting up to 2 points above yesterday's close were American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, Public Service of N. J., U. S. Steel common and preferred, American Can, American Tobacco B, Coca Cola, Union Pacific, Santa Fe, DuPont, Drug and Allied Chemical.

six sons serving as commissioned officers under the American flag, five as officers in the regular army and a sixth as an officer of the United States Merchant Marine. Mr. Wilson was born in Pitt County, November 1, 1857, the son of Simon Burney and Martha Brown Wilson. After being educated in the Greenville Male Academy he chose a commercial career and from that time until his death he took an active part in the civic and business life of the city. In 1885 he entered the merchandise brokerage business and has continued in that line since. He was also active in local Democratic politics and in 1909 was elected treasurer of Pitt county, which office he held for nine years. For some time Mr. Wilson served as a trustee of the Greenville graded schools and was one of the organizers and a director of the Bank of Greenville, one of the city's first financial institutions. He was a member of the local Masonic order and for years was treasurer of that body. He was a life-long member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mr. Wilson was twice married. On November 13, 1883, he was married to Miss Britania R. Saunders of Plymouth, and to that union were born the six sons who saw service in the world war. He is survived by five of these sons, the other son, Walter Brown Wilson, Jr., having died a few years ago while serving as American vice-consul at Shanghai, China.

On May 18, 1904, Mr. Wilson was married to Miss Elizabeth B. Blow of this city, to which union was born two sons, who also survive him, Francis Q. and James B. The older, Francis Q., being associated with his father in the brokerage business.

At the time of Mr. Wilson's death five of his seven sons were at his bedside, another, Major William R. Wilson, was enroute to this city from his post in California and Major Frank W. Wilson was at his post at Honolulu, T. H.

These surviving are his wife and seven sons. Major Durward S. Wilson, U. S. A., Newport, R. I.; Major Frank W. Wilson, U. S. A., Honolulu, T. H.; Major Bascom L. Wilson, U. S. A., Fort Sam Houston, Texas; Major William R. Wilson, U. S. A., Los Angeles, Cal.; Captain Carl B. Wilson, U. S. A., Fort Meade, Md.; Francis Q. and James B. Wilson of this city. Other survivors include a brother, Frank Wilson, and three sisters, Mrs. Olen Warren Jr., Misses Lill and Nannie Wilson, all of this city, and a number of other relatives including eight grandchildren.

Pall bearers for the funeral will be: Active—Herbert Waldrop, Linda Smith, Dave Moore, Alex Blow, H. L. Hodges, R. A. Tyson Jr., C. A. Bowen, J. Key Brown. Honorary—J. G. Mosey, J. R. Mosey, Dr. R. Dr. C. C. Dinwiddie, secretary of the National Prohibition Board of Strategy, also said today, the leaders present at the convention would meet right after it is over and lay plans for a thoroughly representative conference.

DEMOCRATS ADJOURN BATTLE UNTIL TONIGHT FOLLOWING DEADLOCK ON THIRD BALLOT

The adjournment was until 8:30 p. m., but even as they filed out of the Coliseum the leaders were carrying on into private conferences their efforts to arrive at some breakdown which would avert anything like the long deadlock eight years ago in Madison Square Garden.

Roosevelt's gains had been steady, small as they were. On the first ballot he had 666, on the second 677, and on the third 662. The additions on the second roll call had come from Indiana, Missouri, New York, North Dakota, Ohio and Alaska. On the second ballot he took 2 1-2 from Reed in Missouri, 1 1-2 from Smith in New York, 2 from White in Ohio, and 1 from Smith in Pennsylvania.

His loss was a fraction of a vote in North Carolina, and a vote in North Dakota.

At least some of the Roosevelt early ballot hopes failed entirely to materialize. Tammy, polling in the center of the convent on floor just as the light of dawn was coming in through the high windows of the big stadium, went solidly to Smith. In Pennsylvania the Roosevelt total was below the pre-balloting claims. The session which adjourned just after 9 o'clock this morning had begun at nine last night. It was the Roosevelt generals who insisted that the delegates go on to the test of the roll call itself before adjourning. But after two ballots had failed to develop, the push-over they had predicted, they tried in vain to adjourn, Chairman Walsh ruling that the loud chorus of "Nos" sent up by the non-Roosevelt blocs were decisive.

They went out of the stadium a very weary lot, all of them. They had sat through hours of oratory, even before the balloting put its added tension on them. They had marched and shouted in a series of midnight demonstrations which, en masse, probably set a mark for endurance.

A weary lot, they gathered in hotel conference rooms to go on with their negotiations—and an uncertain lot, too, for none of the best informed seemed to consider himself capable of saying with assurance just what might be in store the hours just ahead for the candidates, the convention and the party.

NATION STARTS A NEW YEAR

Figures available showed Uncle Sam with a $2,852,035,008 deficit, the biggest in peace times. Forecasts were that the final vote would be nearer $3,000,000,000.

The eight departments legally out of funds were: State, Justice, Commerce, Labor, Treasury, Post Office, Agriculture and War. J. C. Rupp director of the budget was not gravely concerned about the temporary lack of funds, saying that if the appropriations bills were law by next pay day everybody would be satisfied.

Officials drew cheer as at 1933 possibilities from numerous things, including the $1,118,500,000 new tax law, the $150,000,000 economy bill, reductions of several hundred millions in appropriations. They anticipated a "balanced budget" on June 30, 1933.

WAR HORSES MEET AGAIN

(Continued from Page One) Smith saw Reed, his nearest opponent in the 1928 roll call, approaching and hastened forward to shake hands. Reed shook heartily. Both had been up all night, awaiting the voting.

They spent the few minutes joking each other about late hours. Not a word was passed about the voting on the first two ballots.

"Well, the main thing is to take care of yourself," said Smith departing.

"I am feeling all right," said the veteran Reed who underwent an operation several months ago. "I am glad we have gotten better acquainted."
