HOOVER REDUCES HIS SALARY $15,000 A YEAR

Charges Cabinet Members With Neglecting Duties

SEN. ROBINSON ON WARPATH

Democratic Leader
Says Secretaries
Mills, Hurley and Hyde, "Three Musketeers" of Hoover Administration,
Neglecting Their Work for Partisan
Political Speeches

Washington, July 15.—(AP)—
Secretaries Mills, Hurley and Hyde were characterized in the Senate today by Senator Robinson, Democratic leader, as "the three musketeers of the Hoover administration." He charged them with neglecting their official duties to make partisan political speeches.

Replying to recent speeches by these cabinet officers, Robinson said they were making every possible effort to discredit the Democratic platform and the Democratic candidates.

"They scoff at the proposal of the great nominee of the Democratic party for President that the American people be given a new deal," he said.

"These three musketeers, insist on playing the game with marked cards. Plainly there is a widespread demand for a change in the political policies of our government.

"They go forth by day and night to partisan meetings of state Republican conventions and deliver bitter partisan addresses, causing them to be inserted in the Congressional Record and attempting, while neglecting their official duties to influence the judgment of the electors.

"I would think with a deficit of $2,000,000,000 and a new tax bill to be administered, that Secretary Mills would have enough to do to stay at his post of public duty and discharge his official responsibilities without abandoning and neglecting his duties to participate in a partisan political campaign.

"Of course, the Department of Agriculture is just as well off with its head, Secretary Hyde, absent from his post as if he were present in the capital."

Fist Fight Adds Zest to Political Rally in Arkansas

Conway, Ark., July 15.—(AP)—A fist fight between Congressman Hartall Ragon and Frank Bird, Little Rock attorney, enlivened a political rally and picnic at Mount Vernon, near here, yesterday. Order was restored by two deputies who stepped between the congressman and his adversary after they had exchanged several blows. The fists were precipitated when Bird shouted "liar!" during an address Congressman Ragon was making in behalf of his renomination.
Bird gave the lie to the congressman again when the latter denied he ever called war veterans "spoiled babies" in a letter to a friend. The letter which Ragon brands as a forgery has been made a campaign issue between Ragon and H. M. Jacoway, candidate for Ragon's seat in Congress. Bird is a campaign worker for Jacoway.

morning when W. T. Clark, city stockholder and prominent citizen, unlocked and opened the doors of the banking house inviting several hundred people who had gathered in front of the building.

The crowd began assembling shortly after eight o'clock. Officers and directors of the bank welcomed all visitors entering the doors.
The spacious banking room was beautifully decorated with huge baskets of flowers which were gifts of friends of the institution. During the first hour deposits greatly exceeded withdrawals, one firm opening an account with $25,000 deposit.

SECRETARIES DUE FOR CUT

Ten Percent Cut Will Apply to Under Secretaries and 9 Percent to Assistant Secretaries; Under Recent Economy Bill, President and Cabinet Members Are Permitted to Return Part of Salary to the Treasury

Washington, July 15.—(AP)—
President Hoover today ruled himself a $15,000 a year reduction in salary, and simultaneously reduced the salaries of his cabinet officers by 15 per cent.

The order cutting cabinet members from $15,000 a year to $12,500 was issued while the President sat with them at his regular semi-weekly cabinet meeting.

Mr. Hoover himself, it was said, took a 20 per cent cut as the maximum allowed under the law. Ordinarily he receives $75,000 a year.

The following statement was issued at the White House:

"The President has received the unanimous request from members of the cabinet that they should be subject to the maximum reduction of salaries possible under the economy bill. The President has, therefore, issued the necessary order by which they will be reduced 15 per cent instead of the alternative which would amount to 11.3 per cent under the furlough provisions."

It was understood authoritatively that under-secretaries in the various departments would receive a ten per cent cut under the same orders, and assistant secretary a 9 per cent reduction.

Under the recent economy bill,
the President and other cabinet officials are permitted to return portions of their salary to the treasury.

Vice-president Curtis was the first to leave the cabinet meeting after the order had been abandoned. He read the first line of it but then smiled and handed the copy back to newspapermen saying:

"Yes, I signed the order myself yesterday."

He calculated that his monthly pay check now would be reduced from $1,250 to about $1,100.

Washington, July 15.—(AP)—The pay cut Mr. Hoover gave himself was the first in White House history.

Under the constitution, a President's salary cannot be reduced while he is in office, although Congress could vote during one administration to reduce the salary of the next incumbent of the White House.

Two hundred men, heads of families assembled at the high school last night to discuss unemployment. A G. Sasser, who presided, said a permanent organization would be perfected Monday night to take action to relieve sufferers.

FAMILY HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH AS FIRE BURNS HOME

The family of John Cox had a narrow escape from burning to death when their home was destroyed by fire early today, according to information received from the Lenoir county capital today.

The building was falling in when firemen crashed through the front door and rescue Cox, his wife and children. The origin of the fire had not been determined. The family lost all of their clothes and house furnishings.

Roanoke Colony Body Organized

Washington, D. C., July 13.—The United States Roanoke Colony Commission organized today with the election of Senator Jos. T. Robinson of Arkansas as chairman and Representative Lindsay C. Warren of North Carolina, as vice-chairman. The other members of the commission are Senators Harry B. Haves of Missouri, Senator George H. Moses of New Hampshire, Representative Sol Bloom of New York and Representative Isaac Bacharach of New Jersey. The commission will visit Roanoke Island some time in August, and will report to Congress in December a plan for the proper celebration of the 350th anniversary in 1934 of the birth of English speaking civilization in America.

The outline of Sir Walter Raleigh's fort erected in 1584 is still visible, and a memorial has been erected by Congress to commemorate the birth of the first child of English parentage on American soil. Her name was Virginia Dare.

The last of the three colonies sent out by Raleigh to Roanoke Island in 1587 consisting of 91 men, 17 women and 11 children, completely disappeared from the face of the earth and no trace was ever found of them. This is known in history as "The Lost Colony."

Seek Buyer for Angelus Temple

Los Angeles, July 15.—(AP)—Evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson Hutton, beset by what her physicians said was a critical illness, was reported today as seeking some one to take over Angelus Temple which she founded in 1922 and of which she is pastor.

Negotiations for its purchase were said to have been opened between David L. Hutton, Jr., husband of the evangelist, and the Rev. Ernest Roberts, an associate of the Rev. Paul Rader, owner of another of the city's tabernacles.

Mrs. Hutton remained at the Lake Elsinore resort, her physician, Dr. Edward H. Williams, declaring her condition too ambulatory to permit her removal in an ambulance to a Los Angeles hospital. The evangelist is suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Woman Missing Following Fire at Coney Island

New York, July 15.—(AP)—A renewed search of the ruins of the fire that swept several square blocks of Coney Island Wednesday afternoon was ordered today when it was reported that Mrs. Fanny Belford of Brooklyn had been missing since she went to Coney Island Wednesday.

Fire Marshal Thomas Brophy announced last night that an investigation had disclosed the fire, which caused damage of $2,500,000 to $3,000,000, was started accidentally by a group of boys who started a bonfire under the boardwalk without malicious intent.

WIFE KILLER IS EXECUTED

(Continued from page one) It took three shots of current to snuff out Edney's life. Usually only two applications are needed, but Edney was given a first of one minute's duration, a second of 18 seconds and a third of 1 minute and 21 seconds.

Edney said he killed his wife because he suspected her of infidelity. Just before Edney died three of his brothers, John, Clarence and Herbert, appeared before Tyre Taylor, executive counsel, and asked for a last minute reprieve on the basis of an affidavit they brought with them from Henderson County purporting to show that a juror in Edney's trial was prejudiced.

The application was also made to Governor O. Max Gardner, who refused to consider it. When this attempt to save his life failed, Edney, resigned to his fate, told the Rev. Louis Gaines, who attended him, there was something he wanted to say.

While being strapped in the chair, he asked for time to make a formal statement. "I've been telling lies all along," Edney declared without show of emotion, "I deliberately blew out my wife's brains with a shotgun."

He said the shooting occurred while he was arguing with his brother Clarence. His wife had intervened. Edney said she had just returned from Georgia where he had suspected her of living with another man.

The story Edney told at his trial, which was substantiated by his brothers, was that he accidentally killed Mrs. Edney when he slipped and fell while advancing on Clarence with a gun. Two of his four children were wounded by the discharge.

STATE G. O. P. BECOMES DRY

Republicans to Enter Campaign for November Election as State's "Dry" Party

Greensboro, July 15.—(AP)—The North Carolina Republican party will make its principal appeal to the public for support in the November election as the state's "dry" party, it was indicated here today following a conference of party leaders and candidates at which other issues for the campaign obtained but scant attention.

The Democratic party was described in a pronouncement after the meeting as seeking support on a slogan of "Roosevelt, Reynolds and repeal," and was charged with "seeking to float into power on a liquor barrel."

The Democratic party has been in power in North Carolina for 34 years.

Preliminary plans for a "systematic and militant" campaign were drawn up.

While economic issues came up for consideration, the prohibition question consumed a large part of the gathering's attention and principles adopted pertained almost entirely to the wet-dry question.

Republican leaders, headed by James S. Duncan, state chairman, declared themselves pleased with "the spirit of optimism prevailing" and following the conference it was stated "the economic plight of the state will figure largely in the campaign and the Democratic record will be vigorously assailed."

Clifford Frazier of Greensboro, the party's nominee for governor, said he is standing on "the bonedry prohibition plank in the Republican state platform instead of the plank on prohibition as incorporated in the national platform" of his party.

North Carolina voters, it was said, "must fact the status of our state in regard to liquor. If Roosevelt and Reynolds win, we cannot assume our state laws will secure us against the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor."

"If the majority of voters of this state vote for Roosevelt, Reynolds and repeal, public sentiment will be moulded in favor of the repeal of our state laws. It will be too late then to stem the tide."

Continuation of the hot wave until after the week-end. Some relief was seen after that period, but to what extent could not be said.

(By The Associated Press)

Clear skies today gave free rein to a sun that boiled down on the Carolinas, sending thermometers soaring as summer's first heat wave continued unabated.

Yesterday the mercury mounted over readings of Wednesday when the wave began and earlier readings today promised higher seasonal figures by afternoon.

Last night was cooled somewhat by clouds and a stiff breeze but with the dawn, the breeze died away, the clouds disappeared and the sun shone with increased intensity.

At Marion, N. C., yesterday, the pavement buckled a foot high under an unofficial 125 degrees and a sudden storm at High Point tore down power lines and burned out a power plant, depriving the city of all electric power. A lineman was killed by a high tension wire just as the storm approached.

In both states thermometers rode rapidly upward and today they continued their climb.

At Goldsboro, an official high of 105 was registered yesterday and last night the low was 71. Officials there said they expected a new record today.

Where Asheville yesterday reported an 85 at 11 a. m., the thermometer there today registered 87.

Rock Hill, S. C., reported the high reading just before noon with a 97 five degrees under yesterday's high. Raleigh had a 91, and forecasters said if no clouds gathered, the reading would go as high or higher than yesterday's 99.

Elizabeth City today had a 90 "in the shade" over yesterday's 101, the hottest day since August, 1931. Wilmington reported 88 with a slight breeze.

Weather reports said today and tomorrow would be continued warm, and indications from both states were that readings would approach much higher marks as mid-afternoon arrived.

He denied reports that he suspected a New York gangster of the shooting. He is still trying to piece together apparently conflicting details, such as the sudden appearance of the death gun on the floor after several searches had been made for it.

The widow's testimony, and Coroner W. N. Dalton's original ruling indicated suicide, but the sheriff is not satisfied.

SYNOPSIS: When Sondra Kent finds herself successful in asking John Anderson to give Mark Merriman a position in the Congo she is suddenly most unhappy, for she loves Mark and is dismayed at the prospect of his being so far away. She will not marry him without wealth, however, because her father always had impressed upon her the conviction that a moneyless marriage for love is certain to be unsatisfactory. Her sister, Flora, with whom she is living, has remarked that Anderson would be an excellent husband for Sondra, but he is married and separated from his wife. Sondra knows that Anderson loves her, although he has never told her so, and has maintained the attitude of a guardian and adviser. She evades telling Anderson of her feelings for Mark, and he seems to realize this: "Are you angry with me?" Sondra asks him.

Chapter 5
AN UNOPENED BOOK
 "Angry? Why should I be angry with you?" Anderson asked, Sondra made a gesture of hopelessness. "I only thought—perhaps..." She broke off, as the little did not ask what she meant.

There was a little frown between Sondra's eyes as they went back to the ballroom.

Intimate as she was in some ways with John Anderson, he yet always made her feel as if she never really got anywhere near to him. All she knew of him was the little he chose she should know—the rest remained on an unopened book which woman-like she longed to read, because it was denied to her. She had been more frank with him tonight than ever before, and yet it had in no way brought them nearer together, and she found herself half regretting her impulsiveness as she walked beside him back to the ballroom.

What did he really think of her? What did all men really think of women who allowed them to give them extravagant presents? She looked up at him impatiently. His face betrayed nothing—neither love, nor disapproval, nor jealousy—perhaps it was because he was so much older than she that he had learnt to control his feelings so perfectly. If Flora knew of their friendship she never alluded to it, and yet, surely, she must sometimes wonder, knowing that the ungenerous allowance she gave Sondra would not purchase fur coats or hundred dollar frocks. Life was such an insincere thing—with which people seemed to have entered into a great conspiracy of pretence.

They pretended to like one another when they did not, they pretended to believe in one another when they devoutly distrusted—they pretended to be happy and gay when all the time they were profoundly miserable. "And I am the same," Sondra told herself. "So why should I judge the others?"

She looked up at the man beside her—he too was always pretending—pretending not to love her, when some seventh sense had long ago warned her that he did—and yet—might she not be deceiving herself even in this?

Why should he love her? A man as rich and influential as he was could have loved almost any woman—was there any reason why his choice should have fallen on her? No, there was no reason, any more than there was a reason for her own love for Mark Merriman.

People talked so much about free will, and it was such a negligible quantity when one was faced with the great things of life—like a straw tossed whichever way the wind of circumstance chose to carry it. And yet, wasn't it by her own free will that she had taken this step to remove Merriman from her life?—Sondra looked into her heart and denied that it was—surely she had been forced by the insecurity of her position.

She thought suddenly of her sister's carelessly spoken words that evening.

"It's such a pity John Anderson can't get rid of Evelyn—he'd make such a splendid husband for you!" and her own reply:

"I don't want him for a husband, thank you."

That was not the truth either—she never seemed to be free to speak the truth. If Anderson had been a single man she would have married him, always supposing he had asked her.

She looked up at him again critically. How absurdly people would be if they could really understand the relationship between them, if she could tell the world—"Yes, he gives me everything I want—and asks nothing in return—he has never even kissed me."

to eliminate all fire hazards possible and avoid such a catastrophe as that which visited the New York resort.

Fire damage in Greenville showed a decided upward trend last year in spite of increased efficiency of logs has been reduced this year, this is no indication that the year will end with such favorable conditions.

The thing to do is to stay eternally on a alert against inroads of the fire demon and the only way this can be done is to increase fire-fighting efficiency and eliminate hazards.

Coney Island, New York resort, surrounded by one of the best fire fighting organizations in the world, suffered $3,000,000 damage from fire Wednesday.

If that can happen to a place trusted on the water, what may be expected of an inland city when once gets out of control.

The loss suffered by Coney Island property owners, should cause the people in all parts of the country

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salt, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. SOLONS TRIM ST. LOUIS IN CLOSE GAME

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Winners of their last six games, the best sport they have made since the first month of the race, the Washington Senators seem to be getting along very nicely without their leading hitter, Carl Reynolds.

John Ringling, king of the big top and last of the seven Ringling brothers, is recovering from an illness at a hotel on Coney Island, New York. He is 66 years old. (Associated Press Photo)

He and Joe Kuhel, who is filling in for Joe Judge at first base, are doing so well, in fact, that it will be difficult for Walt Johnson to send them back to the bench when the ailing regulars return.

Harris hit a home run with one aboard and Kuhel scored a run yesterday to give the Senators a 5 to 4 verdict over St. Louis in 12 innings. It was only the second victory for Washington in nine bouts with the Browns this season, indicating they are doing at least as well as usual.

Cleveland's Indians, meantime, went right on with their campaign against the East's "big three," clubbing the Yankees into submission, 11 to 3, in the opener at the stadium. That made it five straight for the Tribe and 11 out of its last 14 games. Babe Ruth's 26th home run supplied the only cheering note for the Yanks.

Jimmie Foxe banged No. 35 with two on base to help the Athletics defeat Detroit, 9 to 2.

The Boston Red Sox were stopped short of their goal, a three-game winning streak, when the White Sox nosed them out, 9 to 8, in eleven innings. Jack Hayes accepted 18 chances without an error at second base for the White Sox.

Bill Swift pointed out another good reason for Pittsburgh's leadership of the National league when he set the Boston Braves down, 6 to 1. The rookie gave up only four hits and allowed but one runner to reach third in registering his sixth straight win.

The Chicago Cubs remained two games back by beating the Brooklyn 4 to 1, behind Guy Bush. Riggs Stephens played the starring role, knocking across the winning run with a double in the eighth and cutting off at least two Dodger runs with a sparkling catch in the seventh.

The Cardinals run of four straight wins was ended when the Giant's piled into Dizzy Dean in two innings to win, 6 to 3. Jim Mooney held St. Louis to one run until the ninth inning, when errors cost him two more.

Chick Hafey returned to the Cincinnati line-up, but his presence failed to impress the Phils, who slugged Carroll and Ogden for an 11 to 6 victory.

Yesterday's Stars

Ossie Bluege, Senators—Singed in 12th to drive in run that beat Browns.

Riggs Stephenson, Cubs—Saved game with Dodgers with circus catch, then won it with double in eighth, driving in two runs.

Phil Collins, Phillies—Relieved V. Elliott in second and held Reds to three hits in last 7-3 innings and won.

Smead Jolley, Red Sox—Continued slugging streak against White Sox, getting home run and two singles.

Bill Swift, Pirates—Halted Braves with four hits.

Dick Porter, Indians—Fielded exceptionally against Yankees and clouted double and two singles.

BULLS START 3-GAME STAND WITH HORNETS

Charlotte, N. C., July 15.—(AP)—The Charlotte Hornets, pacing the field in the Piedmont League pennant race by a game and a half, came home today for a three-game stand with Durham which, barring legal entanglements, will include the first Sunday ball game at which admission is charged in the history of the State.

The Hornets took their first firm grip on top position, although they have led practically all of the second half, with an 11 to 3 victory over the Raleigh Capitals.

The Durham players already facial for Sabbath violation as the result of a game last Sunday with Raleigh. Should Charlotte ministers or others carry their announced opposition to the Sunday game to the limit, there was a possibility the Bulls would become so thoroughly entangled with the courts as to seriously interfere with their morning beauty naps.

Greensboro, despite a 3 to 1 loss to Wilmington's Pirates last night, held a two-game lead over Raleigh and Durham, tied for third place. Only a home run by Buddy Lewis, Patriot backstop, cut Frank Coleman out of a shut-out victory, the big left-hander fanning fifteen men—a league record for the season—and allowing but five hits and only two passes to first.

The Bees batted around, with two extra for good measure, and scored six runs to open their hitting spree against the Capitals last night. Wilson got four hits out of his six trips including a triple, and Holt got or base every one of the four times he came up, garnering two doubles and a triple and getting hit by a pitcher's ball once.

Bobby Lennox, who nine years ago gained the name of "Pop-Up Bob" when he broke into the league with Raleigh as a short-stopper, was in the line-up at second base, contributing a home run to his team's feeble effort.

Winston-Salem, known as the "sick man of the Piedmont" since a short time before the close of the first half, when a long winning streak was broken, continued its effort to get out of the cellar by pounding Butler and Walsh for eighteen hits for fourteen runs while Durham could count but three or eight hits. The Twins, like the Hornets, started their bombardment in the first, when they got five runs.

Finding fans divided, and holding that support of the team had been such as not to warrant drastic measures to boost attendance, Wilmington's management announced shelving of plans for a game with Winston-Salem Sunday afternoon.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

New York Cotton

New York, July 15.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady 2 higher on steeper Liverpool cables than expected and on a fair trade demand with offers comparatively small.

Reports that entomologists had found slightly increased boll weevil damage in South Carolina as a result of dry, hot weather received some comment but evidently had little effect on the market, which showed continued steadiness during the early trading.

October sold up from 5.68 to 5.74 and the general list showed net advances of about 4 to 7 points at the end of the first half hour. There appeared to be some rebuying by yesterday's sellers and although the south was credited with moderate selling here during the early trading offerings were comparatively light.

Liverpool reported local and Bombay selling with a poor off take but said there was a fair demand for cotton cloths from the British home trade and near east.

Grain Market

Chicago, July 15.—(AP)—Reports that the Kansas corn crop was being hurt by dry hot weather brought higher values in grain today.

Wheat, however, dropped at one time to as low as 45 cents, a price within 3-8 of a cent of the all-time bottom record here for any future delivery. Domestic primary receipts of wheat were much larger than a week ago, and advances both from American and Canadian spring wheat territory indicated the danger of black rust damage this season was getting more remote daily.

Stock Market

New York, July 15.—(AP)—The stock market lapsed into its familiar quiescence today, and as it has in so many recent sessions, worked quietly higher, after a slight sag in the morning.

The share market was helped by a better tone in principal commodities, a fair bond market, and fresh indications of an early adjournment of Congress, despite the deadlock which developed yesterday between the conferees on the relief measure.

The midday buying started in the tobaccos, and soon spread to other groups. Advances of 1 to 2 points appeared in such issues as American Tobacco, B. Liggett, and Myers B. Lortillard, Allied Chemical, E. B. M-T, Peoples Gas, Sania Pe, Union Pacific, White Rock and Homestake, while such issues as U. S. Steel, American Telephone, American Can, Consolidated Gas, General Motors, United Aircraft, Woolworth, Southern Pacific and New York Central, showed fractional gains.

American Telephone earnings statement for the first half attracted considerable attention. Net of $4.02 a share was 48 cents short of the current dividend rate and it was also pointed out that subsidiary and associated companies paid out $3,000,000 in dividends more than they earned. Had they not dipped into surplus to maintain dividends American Telephone's net would have been about $3.60 a share. It was notable, however, that the Bell System companies apparently did somewhat better in the second quarter than they did in the first, since they fell only $3,000,000 short of dividends in that period, in contrast to $5,000,000 in the first quarter. American Telephone's earnings in the first half of 1931 amounted to $4.89 a share.

The weekly bank statements showed a reduction of $61,000,000 in currency in circulation. This was small, in contrast to the $270,000,000 jump in the preceding fortnight, and may have been largely due to a return of currency after the July 4 holiday, but it was at least a start in the right direction.

Weather Man In Conflict With Superstition

Washington, July 15.—(AP)—Which is the better weather forecast—science or superstition? Here's the point: Today is St. Swinth's day. Tradition says that whatever kind of weather we have today we'll have the next six weeks. The Weather Bureau predicts fair skies for at least most of the East today, but is willing to bet there'll be plenty of rain between now and September 1.

If you want to check it forty days, do. But St. Swinth lost last year.

State Can Get $5,600,000 For Highway Work

Raleigh, July 15.—(AP)—North Carolina, by matching $2,800,000 of its regular federal highway aid allotment with the $2,800,000 it would get from the proposed federal relief measure, can have $5,600,000 for immediate highway construction. E. B. Jeffrey, chairman of the State Highway Commission, has pointed out.

As the situation now stands, North Carolina may obtain $5,800,000 from the federal highway aid fund by matching it with state funds. The state will have funds to do this if the proposed relief measure passes Congress and is signed by the President.

Such a program would go far toward solving the state's unemployment problem, the chairman said, pointing out that the expenditure of the money would have an even more far-reaching effect through circulation than the mere employment of road workers.

Roosevelt In Massachusetts

Sandwich, Mass., July 15.—(AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt and his cruising companions aboard the yawl Myth II came through the Cape Cod canal today at the end of a tow line and emerged on the waters of Massachusetts Bay.

The yacht's canvas was immediately spread to a moderate northwest breeze and her course shaped for Gloucester, Marblehead or Manchester, some 60 miles up the coast.

The governor and his party were cheered by crowds of Cape Cod residents and summer visitors who gathered on the draw bridges spanning the canal. The crew of the Sandwich coast guard station gave the governor a hand salute and in a power surt boat delivered five telegrams addressed to the governor.

Cuttithunk, Mass.—Franklin D. Roosevelt did well to touch here in his haul, says Captain Frank Bonworth, former Tar, now skipper of the General Star, "Cleveland stopped here once and he was elected."

BORAH NOT SEEKING "DRY" NOMINATION

Washington, July 15.—(AP)—After another conference with dry leaders today, Senator William E. Borah of Idaho, said he was not a candidate for nomination for President on a third party ticket.

"I am not a candidate for nomination on a third party and never have been," he said. The statement was made after Borah had conferred in his office with D. Leigh Colvin, chairman of the prohibition party and other prohibitionists.

TWO PARTIES CENTER FIGHT AROUND ECONOMIC ISSUES

The Democrats, who have put their first faith in the south and west, are preparing to contest the east also, some even favoring a real campaign in heavily Republican Pennsylvania.

The Republicans plan to go into such states as Georgia, Mississippi, and South Carolina, which stood firm when others of the southern Democratic phalanx swung to Hoover in '28.

The surge of activity so soon after the conventions is unprecedented in recent years. It arises from the announced purpose of the Democrats to lose no time and spare no effort.

Governor Roosevelt's own prevention campaign was conducted on the same basis, beginning more than a year before the convention. Similarly, the Democratic party headquarters in Washington has broken precedent by remaining active almost from election day four years ago.

Already two of President Hoover's cabinet members have taken to the stump, although the President's own notification will be delayed until early August.

Secretary Ogden Mills, speaking in Boston, praised the Hoover record and asked whether mere "breast beating" qualified the Democrats to call themselves liberals. Secretary Patrick Hurley, speaking last night in Columbus, coupled the word "radical" with a reference to Roosevelt and to the Bryan traditions of Democracy.

BELIEVE PRESIDENT WILL NOT VETO RELIEF BILL

Meantime, Representative Rainey, the House Democratic leader, said flatly after a conference with Speaker Garner that the publicity clause would remain or "there would be no bill."

The White House statement said that since the objections to the publicity clause now were known, "then the responsibility in the last analysis for whatever might happen must necessarily rest upon Congress."

Washington, July 15.—(AP)—After an early morning conference at the White House, Senate conferees on the emergency relief bill reported that President Hoover had expressed stern opposition to the House provision to give publicity to loans of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Almost unanimously, however, the conferees asserted they believed the chief executive would not veto the bill, even if the publicity proviso remained in it.

Senator Glass (D., Va.) asked if a veto was impending, replied with emphasis: "He certainly would not veto this bill."

Senator Wagner (D., N. Y.) who drew most of the Senate bill, asserted with equal emphasis that he believed Mr. Hoover would sign the measure even if it contained the disputed clause.

The unemployment relief measure was returned to conference a second time yesterday following action by the House again upholding the clause that loans of the corporation be made public monthly.

Along with four Senate conferees on the relief bill, almost the entire board of the Reconstruction Corporation sat with the President for nearly an hour and a half this morning at the White House conference.

Those attending, in addition to Glass and Wagner were Senators Norbeck (R., S. D.) and Brookhart (R., Iowa) Eugene Meyer, chairman of the corporation's board, and Secretary Mills and Undersecretary Ballantine of the treasury; and Harvey Couch, Jesse Jones and Gardner Cowles, board members.

GARDNER NOT TRYING TO ESCAPE RESPONSIBILITY

While the statement was being issued the governor's special fact-finding committee of five State officials was engaged in winding up its preparation of a report to be made to the Chief Executive, the Council of State and Advisory Budget Commission tomorrow.

The report will contain as nearly as possible accurate figures on what revenue receipts the State may expect this fiscal year and what payments it must make, the Governor has said.

"I have full authority to arbitrarily reach a decision without conferring with any one," Gardner's statement continued, "but because of the tremendous importance of my decision to the entire State I have called in to conference the Council of State, Advisory Commission, fiscal experts, and presidents of the Teachers and Parent-Teachers' Associations."

"These meetings have been held in the Governor's office for a number of days. "I have repeatedly stated to the group that my mind was open and that absolute frankness and freedom of expression and the widest range of suggestions would be welcomed and that the advice the Council gave to me would not be made public. "There is no purpose or desire on my part to escape full responsibility for my acts. At least eight or ten plans have been proposed and carefully considered. I have tried to analyze every proposal and relate it to our present economic problems. "I hope to be able to have sufficient information before me Saturday, although this is by no means certain, that I may announce to the public a financial policy, based upon what I conceive to be the wise and safe course to pursue in this unprecedented period."

DRYS DISCUSS THEIR POLICY

Opposition to an endorsement of President Hoover at this time arose from Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the Board of Emperance, Prohibition and Public Morals of the Methodist church.

GIVE STORY OF MURDER PLOT

Witnesses testified the storekeeper was jealous of the attentions Mrs. Brown, 28, had received from Hubert Lanier, 20, his nephew, and Edwards, 25.

The defense's contention is that Ambrose-Lanier killed himself. "A jury to try the three defendants was completed by mid-afternoon yesterday after about 70 of a special venire of 130 men had been called. Judge E. H. Cranmer of Southport, is presiding.

SEES NO RELIEF IN EAT WAVE

(Continued from page one) lanta yesterday from the season's high of 94 the day before. Augusta, Ga., where one of the prostrations has occurred, reported a high of 102 yesterday and New Orleans, which had one death and two prostrations, had a temperature of 98.

It was 90 at Miami, Fla., yesterday and 103 at New Bern, N. C. Montgomery, Ala. reported 98 and Shreveport, La. had an official reading of 102. Charleston, S. C., sweltered with a 94 while Memphis, Tenn., scorched under a reading of 96.

Columbus was the hottest city in Georgia with 104 degrees. Farmers around Helena, Ark., adopted a daylight to 11 a. m. working day to guard against heat casualties and the high temperatures were reported as responsible for the deaths of several mules.

One death at Ocala, Fla., was attributed indirectly to the heat. Thomas Brown, five years old, was crushed under the wheels of an ice truck from which he was trying to get chips.

New York, July 15.—(AP)—Cooling breezes from the north along the north Atlantic states and scattered showers over the middle western plains today broke the heat wave in which most of the United States sweltered for the past two days.

Regardless of the day being St. Swinth's, the weather bureau predicted a warmer Saturday and possibly Sunday. Anyway, the St. Swinth's legend that holds the death of that day the same for forty more days, is an old English superstition and can't apply to the United States which went their own way in 1776.

Temperatures were generally lower over the country at 8 a. m. as compared with the same hour yesterday. New York felt comparatively cool at 68, but Philadelphia was up to 72, Washington to 76 and Chicago to 80.

Albany, Buffalo and Salt Lake City enjoyed the lowest temperatures at 64, excepting the west coast where temperatures ranged from 50 to 62.

Graham Woodard is president of the new bank and W. E. Warren is vice-president and cashier. Eight tellers were kept busy the entire morning receiving deposits and paying out the first dividend to depositors of the old bank.

U. S. OFF OF DEBT ISSUE

Mr. Hoover expressed gratification at settlement "of the strictly European problem of reparations" but said he wanted to make it "absolutely clear" that the United States is not "in any way committed to such agreements."

The State Department was particularly interested in official British statements attempting to wipe out any impression that European nations were combining to force war debt revision by the United States.

They expressed pleasure at the British position that the Anglo-French accord would not keep Great Britain from discussing her debts individually with the United States.

of the agreements reported by the press to have been concluded recently at Lausanne, and that of course it is not a party to nor in any way committed to any such agreements."

Leslie was last seen alive by a neighbor boy, a half hour after his mother had missed him.

SMITH FREED BY VA. JURY

The verdict today was returned 35 minutes after the jury resumed deliberations begun last night. The crowd staged a demonstration with cheering and hand-clapping and drew sharp reprimands from Judge Henry C. Leigh, who threatened individuals with imprisonment for contempt.

Smith rushed over to his counsel and threw his arms around Ambler, the Richmond attorney who voluntarily defended him in his second and third trials for the Puryear killing.

Mrs. Emma Smith, mother of the acquitted man, clasped him in her arms and kissed him repeatedly. Frank C. Bedding, commonwealth's attorney for Mecklenburg, recently elected, congratulated Ambler.

Judge Leigh ordered Smith remanded to the custody of officers for return to the penitentiary where he is under twenty year sentence for the slaying of Tuck.

EVIDENCE IN ON THEFT CASE

(Continued from page one) stand yesterday that he was one of two men who entered the Gallo, way home dressed in women's clothes, robbed Mrs. Galloway and three guests who were playing bridge of their jewels and ransacked Mrs. Galloway's room.

The youth admitted having received part of the jewels, but said they were given him by William Pryor of Illinois, in payment of a poker debt. Pawn tickets for the jewels were found in Scales' possession when he was arrested.

SEES BIG CUT IN LEAF CROP

(Continued from page one) drought and unfavorable weather conditions much better than that which had not been grown on land planted in soy beans and corn.

It was also discovered that tobacco grown under this special process could be produced from $3 to $5 cheaper than by the old plan.

It was stated that demonstrations held in other tobacco belts of the country showed up similar to those in this county, and emphasized the value of soy beans and corn to the tobacco industry.

BIG LOSS FROM TIMBER BLAZE

(Continued from page one) in a pall over Greenville Wednesday night and visibility in the heart of the business district was greatly diminished because of it. Although the fire had eaten its way into the Smith woodsland in the Winterville district, the smell of smoke was still in the air here this morning, bearing a keen reminder of the heavy toll taken over the fertile acres of timber land.
