Hosiery Mills Re-Open At High Point But Only Few Return To Work

HEAVY GUARD ABOUT MILLS

Number of Strikers Returning to Jobs So Small Mills Find it Impossible to Operate; Strikers Declare Those Going Back to Jobs Will Be Forced to Leave During the Day

High Point, N. C., July 28.—(AP)—High Point's Hosiery Mills opened at 7 a. m. today in defiance of the announced determination by 6,000 strikers not to return to work, but so few workers returned that operations were impossible.

Scores of State patrolmen, city policemen and deputies were on hand at the mills to guard the returning workers, but there were few to protect.

Without the fanfare of police escorts or milling crowds, the small Simmons plant employing about 40 workers re-opened.

The Amos Hosiery plant, employing about 400, re-opened by agreement with the general striking group after agreeing to demands of its employees.

Even as the few went back to work the majority of the strikers indicated those returning to work would be forced from their places later today.

However, there was no disorder as the mills opened under police protection and the situation remained quiet, the owners asserting the strikers could return under the manufacturers' offers and the idle workers holding out for a higher wage than offered in recent conferences between strike representatives and mill officials.

Forty people went back to work at the Simmons Mill today and a small number returned to the Thomas Mill.

A few walked into the Adams-Mills plant outside of which nearly all of the machines appeared to be in operation and the strikers appeared to be strikers or sympathizers who did not intend to return to work.

A few worked in the Thomas mill but the wheels did not turn in any of the others where the firing of boilers to blow whistles was the only activity.

Disorder was infrequent and of slight proportions, the principal excitement of the morning coming when an officer, unfamiliar with the strike, discharged one into the front of a wall of the city hall.

One carload of persons seeking to return to work at the Lockitt mill was turned back to pickets after a fist fight between two members of opposing factions.

Reversing their original attitude, the strike leaders—elated over the success of their defiance of attempts to operate the mills—said no action would be taken to stop the Simmons plant or to remove the Thomas mill workers where the returning group was not large enough to complete anything but odd jobs.

"We have shown our strength—the next move is up to the manufacturers," said D. V. Bradley, chairman of the central strike committee.

The solid front presented by the strikers today followed one of the most colorful strike meetings in the state's history.

The meeting was held on the junior high school campus last night. There were few speeches but many songs led by Charlie Abbott a few went young cripple with a Bible in his hands. Familiar hymns rang through the neighborhood and the strikers, a few hours before demoralized and fighting against one another, again became a solid unit.

"Thousands of men and women reaffirmed their determination not to return to work until assured of what they term a living wage. Not a hand was raised in opposition when a motion to defy the mill owners' reopening plan was put.

PAY DIVIDENDS TO BANK DEPOSITORS

Goldboro, N. C., July 28.—(AP)—A 25 per cent dividend was being paid today to depositors of the Citizens Bank of Mount Olive near here which closed December 31. The amount totals $22,406.98.

TYPHOID FEVER LIGHT IN PITT

Fourteen Cases Reported During Present Summer With Two Deaths

Although the typhoid fever situation has been reported as serious in some sections of the State this summer, it is no worse in Pitt County than it was last year, it was revealed today by Dr. R. S. McGeachy, director of Pitt County Department of Health.

Fourteen cases with two deaths have been recorded by the Health Department this summer compared with seventeen cases and three deaths last year, Dr. McGeachy indicated.

Ten of the fourteen cases, the health director said, were among persons under fourteen years of age, and none of the total number had ever been vaccinated for typhoid.

In addition to these cases, Dr. McGeachy said, had been several ill from para-typhoid, or "walking typhoid," as it is more generally known throughout the county. This form of fever is not as serious as regular typhoid. This form of fever is not as serious as regular typhoid, it was stated, and no serious developments were anticipated from this direction.

The only safeguard against fever is immunization through vaccinations given by the Health Department clinics, the health officer said. Approximately six thousand persons have already been vaccinated this summer, and with many more clinics to be held, Dr. McGeachy expressed relief he would set a record for the State, regardless of population, from the standpoint of the number immunized.

He urged that the people take advantage of the free services offered by the clinics in various parts of the county, and in that way protect themselves as the entire community from the inroads of fever.

If everybody would take advantage of this service, opinion was expressed that this form of fever would

Five Escaped Convicts Nabbed

Mocksville, July 27.—(AP)—Five of 10 convicts who escaped from a prison camp near here July 16 have been captured or surrendered to police.

Those now in custody are Olin Ferguson of Rocky Mount; William Burns of Hickory; Grover King of Asheboro; R. W. Williams of Haywood county; and William Grant of Greenville, S. C.

The five still at liberty are Clarke York of Mount Airy; Ralph Lyerly of Asheville; Mark McCurry of Newport, Tenn.; T. B. Ogburn of Pageland, S. C.; and Joe McLeod of Harnett county.

REFUSES NEW TRIAL FOR LEA AT ASHEVILLE

Judge Clements Gives Defendants Right to Appeal to Supreme Court

Asheville, July 28.—(AP)—Judge John H. Clements today overruled a motion for a new trial for Col. Luke Lea, Luke Lea Jr. and Wallace B. Davis, convicted last August of violations of the State bank laws.

The judge gave the defendants the right to appeal to the State Supreme Court and granted a continuance of bond for the trio.

Judge Clement set a limit of 45 days for the Leas and Lavis to prepare their appeals and gave the state 30 days to answer.

The ruling was handed down immediately after court opened.

Judge Clement said the new evidence offered in the motion for a

WOMAN HELD IN SLAYING

Says Lover Sought Her Aid After Killing Aunt and Sending Uncle to Hospital

San Jose, Calif., July 28.—(AP)—An attractive young woman today charged that George Douglas Templeton, Jr., 20, self-described "model boy," begged her to shield him from the consequences of a knife assault which sent his aunt to her grave and his uncle to a hospital seriously wounded.

The woman, who said her name was Claire Burnette, although she was booked by police as Claire Chapman, 28, declared Templeton sought her aid as an alibi witness after he fatally stabbed his aunt, Mrs. Lillian Babcock, Manila society matron, and wounded his uncle, William Rider Babcock, wealthy Philippine explorer.

She also declared she was secretly engaged to the youth, a former University of California student. He had sought to have her accompany

SAYS DOCTORS MUST REDUCE

New York Medico Sees Time for Family Physician to Cut Cost of Services

New York, July 28.—(AP)—Dr. A. R. Roney believes it is time to cut the cost of medical care, and he suggests the family doctor do something about it.

Dr. Roney, chairman of the Greater New York Committee on Health Examination, expresses his view in the current "Health Examiner," which his committee publishes in co-operation with the New York Academy of Medicine. The Academy ranks as one of the "Blue Ribbon" medical groups of the country.

"The methods of medical practice which obtained during an era of prosperity can no longer continue," Dr. Roney says. "The lavish expenditures, which prevailed in the treatment of the sick, will no more be possible.

"The family doctor, to a large degree, is responsible for the tremendous and very often unnecessary hospitalization of patients throughout the country. Many a patient who could just as easily be cared for at home is sent to the hospital. This generally proves costly to the patient, and very often he is unable to meet his obligation to the physician.

"During a prosperous period it was inevitable that specialization, as we now know it, should grow to disproportionate proportions. The function of the family doctor became so reduced that he practically became a referring agent for specialists."

The family doctor, the article continues, has been "remiss in preventive medicine. The laity first appreciated and instituted these examinations."

Men And Not Machines Favored For Relief Jobs

Washington, July 28.—(AP)—Men, not machines, are to be favored for jobs resulting from the new $200,000,000 in Federal highway aid. And these workers—skilled and unskilled alike—must be employed on a thirty-hour week basis and paid salaries specified in contracts between the government and those who undertake the road construction. So specifies the law.

PREDICTS END OF DEMOCRACY

Adolph Hitler, Socialist, Winds up Campaign for Next Sunday's Elections

Berlin, July 28.—(AP)—Democracy in Germany was given only a few more days of life today by Adolf Hitler, fiery National Socialist leader.

Winding up a dashing airplane campaign for next Sunday's elections with a speech at Berlin Stadium last night, Hitler brought thunderous cheers from 100,000 of his followers when he said: "July 31 must remove the rule of Democracy and of Marxism and its assails from Germany and restore a regime of discipline, national conscience, honor and power."

"We aim," he continued, "to sweep the thirty political parties out of the country. We Germans must be a united people. We are on the eve of great historical decisions. The thirteen years of decadence (the life of the republic) are nearing an end."

"We don't believe in the possibilities for international aid, but aid founded on our own strength." The Tuesday night radio speech of General Kurt Von Schleicher continued to kick up a furor

To Spend Huge Sum In Smoky Mountain Park

Washington, July 28.—(AP)—A total of $509,000 of the $3,000,000 voted for national parks in the emergency relief bill will be expended in the Great Smoky Mountains national park.

A. E. Demaray, assistant director of the park service, said today that the allotment to the Great Smoky Preserve had been approved by President Hoover and Secretary Wilbur.

Of the $509,000, $109,000 will be spent for surveys and other incidental work and $400,000 will be held in reserve for construction after completion of a part of the surveys.

Demaray said today that he expected the surveys to be far enough

Supporters of Home Demonstration Work Appeal for Its Retention in Pitt County

The Board of County Commissioners met here this afternoon to hear petitions for retaining the Home Demonstration department which was abolished as an economy measure at a session of the board the first of the month.

Considerable complaint has been registered since the action, and a delegat on interested in the work of the department was to appear before the board and ask that the work be continued.

The board eliminated the office in order to help obtain a ten and a half cents reduction in the tax rate for the coming year when the

Thousands Flock to Potters' Field to Hear Crooner

Joliet, Ill., July 28.—(AP)—The graveyard crooner whose clear tenor voice has attracted hundreds of persons to an abandoned Illinois state prison cemetery, was believed by penitentiary officials today to be a trusty, William Chrysler.

The officials said they had been informed that the singing had been coming from a stone quarry near the cemetery and that Chrysler, who takes care of the quarry pumps at night, was responsible for the singing. They planned a definite checkup.

Violent Storm At Hendersonville

Hendersonville, July 28.—(AP)—Hendersonville struggled back to normal today from the effects of a violent electrical storm that cut off the power supply, and seriously interfered with telephone service.

Two children were struck by lightning near here, but were reported recovering, and two buildings in the town were also hit. Neither was badly damaged, although bricks were sent flying when a bolt crashed into the First Methodist Church.

The children, Hugh 7, and Paul 5, sons of R. T. Boothroy of Dana, were struck while standing in the door of their home. Paul was unconscious for several hours.

The main power line supplying the town was severed when ten poles were blown down. Repair crews set to work at once but it was several hours before the damage was overcome.

A number of trees were blown down in the city, and streets were flooded. Between two and three inches of rain fell in 30 minutes.

Crops of the vicinity were reported badly damaged.

SEEK AUTHORS OF 'RED' PLOT

Officers Scour Country for Persons Responsible for Propaganda at Pontiac

Chicago, July 28.—(AP)—Authors of communist propaganda found in a Pontiac, Mich., hotel were sought today by the secret service and detectives everywhere as the directors of a nation-wide campaign against the confidence of bank depositors.

Chicago bankers, government officials and Michigan police unhesitatingly blamed the communist party for a systemized attack on the integrity of financial institutions in many large cities, particularly the runs which threatened every bank in Chicago last month.

It was said by C. L. Smith, prosecuting attorney at Pontiac, to have been backed by Soviet Russia.

Norman Z. Foster, communist candidate for president, denied his organization had sponsored a whispering campaign against the First National Bank of Pontiac, or that a man known as George Rowland, in whose room seditious letters were found, was a member of the party.

"Rowland," was believed today to be really George E. Powers, once candidate for president of Queens Borough in New York City and with a record for criminal syndicalism in Michigan since last August.

Mr. Hooks said he recently received a communication from James A. Farley, chairman of the National Committee, stating the national campaign would begin about September 1st. It was the idea of the national chairman that better results would be obtained from a short intensive campaign than from a long drawn-out one.

Direction of the campaign, the national chairman said, will be left up to the states almost exclusively, and better results are expected to eventuate from this method.

Mr. Hooks said he was ready to

Illinois Receives Three Million for Relief Work

Washington, July 28.—(AP)—Exactly a week after the new Federal relief bill became law, Illinois today has a $3,000,000 addition to her bank account with which to feed and care for the needy.

A federal loan of that amount—at 3 per cent interest—was announced by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation yesterday and made available immediately because it "appears that relief funds will be exhausted in certain localities" of that state by Monday.

Finding quick advancement of the money necessary, the corporation chose not to wait until its disbursement was completed. Albee Pomerene, most recently selected director, had not reached the capitol. One more member of the board must yet be named by President Hoover.

NEW BIRTHRATE TAKEN BY ARIZONA

Raleigh, N. C., July 28.—(AP)—North Carolina can no longer boast of its birthrate being the highest in the country.

Recent figures, released by the State Board of Health, show that the rate in 1931 was 23 per 1,000 of population, but New Mexico had a rate of 28.4. Babies in North Carolina last year numbered 73,894, while in New Mexico there were 12,148 births.

WE CLAIM IT'S TAX REDUCTION

Call it what you like and juggle the figures around to suit your own convenience (political or otherwise) but when the total operating cost of every phase of governmental activity in this county including the special school districts, drops from $1,013,798.61 to $728,874.67 within three years and the aid from the state and outside sources for the same period increases only $52,459.95, we contend that there have been net reductions of $284,923.94 in our operating costs and that the taxpayers of Pitt County have received tax reductions to this extent in addition to the relief from the increased state aid.

We make this statement in reply to a letter published by us today from Judge F. M. Wooten in which he charges that we misrepresented the facts to the people of our county when we stated that there had been a reduction of 51 1-2 cents in the tax rate of this county since the 1930-1931 levy.

Judge Wooten calls attention to the fact that the state last year took over our roads and schools and that as a result our tax levy should have shown no levy for these departments but he fails to state that with the taking over of these departments the state also took over from us about $50,000 we were receiving from the state gas tax to help take care of our road bonds but left us with the bonds to pay. The same was true in the school department as well as the fact that although it removed all its aid from the county for these departments it did not provide a standard of schools suitable to our needs and the wishes of our people which made it necessary for a tax levy to take care of this additional expense nor did he state that based upon the state valuations of our property it was necessary for us to levy about 17 1-2 cents ad valorem tax instead of 15 cents, to pay to the state the amount of money it demanded from the county as our contribution to the state operation of the six months school term.

What our people are most interested in is not the different departments but what is being spent to keep up every phase of our county activity and are we getting a square deal in the matter of taxes.

In order to get this matter clear in the minds of our people we print below the total amounts appropriated for operations in this county for three years together with the information as to what part of this money our taxpayers are called upon to pay and we will leave it to the judgment of our people as to whether or not we misrepresented the facts when we stated that the tax levy for the year just beginning reflected a reduction of 51 1-2 cents to the taxpayers of the county since the levy for the year 1930-1931.

Here are the figures on the three years operations taken from the records of the Pitt County Auditor's office:

1930-1931 Tax Rate $1.35 on $100.00 Tax Levy $773,183.89 Outside Aid 240,614.72 Total Appropriation $1,013,798.61

1931-1932 Tax Rate 94c on $100.00 Tax Levy $523,528.77 Outside Aid 275,346.64 Total Appropriation $798,875.41

1932-1933 Tax Rate 83 1/2c on $100.00 Tax Levy $435,800.00 Outside Aid 293,074.67 Total Appropriation $728,874.67

We ask our readers not to take our word for the fact that they have received a tax reduction, but to analyze carefully for themselves from the above figures and if they doubt these figures go to the court house and get them for yourself in order that you might know just what is going on. Half truths are very often misleading as is the case of Judge Wooten's figures in accompanying complaint. All the figures are available and if gone into carefully will verify our recent article in which we stated that the people of Pitt County had received tax reductions to the extent of 51 1-2 cents.

We hope, too, that Judge Wooten will avail himself of the opportunity to get the true facts in this matter rather than take up our time in controversial matters.

ABOUT TOWN

Some seem to think President Hoover is attempting to put responsibility for the relief bill on the shoulders of Speaker John Garner, noted Texas Democrat and nominee for the vice-presidency.

Garner, on the other hand, is charging the measure up to the president who vetoed Garner's bill and would not move his pen until a bill meeting his own demands was enacted.

Apparently this action leaves the Texan in the clear and if there is any responsibility attached to passage of the measure, then it is up to Mr. Hoover to accept it.

The American Legion in its recent session at Bethel adopted two important resolutions looking to improvement of conditions in this section.

The first was a petition to the State Highway Commission seeking a link in the highway system which will definitely connect this immediate section with the north and south.

The other asked the county commissioners to provide a visiting nurse to assist the health department in meeting demands of the indigent sick. Both petitions have an important bearing on the life of the community and it is hoped they will receive due attention by the officials of both organizations.

The need of a visiting nurse is very pronounced in view of the inability of the health department to assist the poor to any great extent because of the time taken in clinics looking to the prevention of illness.

Dr. McGeachy, head of the health department, stated recently conditions in this county were serious and that it was imperative a nurse be provided to assist the indigent sick.

While months will be required to feel the effects of the relief construction programs to be started by various states of the union, the time is not far distant when all communities will be affected, and cash, which in the past was scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth, will flow more freely than it has in years.

While we are still in the slough of despond, we are due for a more rosy perspective in future months when prosperity rounds the corner it has been hanging behind the fast two years, putting cash into the pockets even of those who haven't heard the jingle of a dollar in so long they've almost forgotten how it looks.

With one million dollars of construction work already approved and ready to be let August 10th, it looks like North Carolina is going to be among the first to take advantage of the federal relief program.

Although it is impossible to say how long it will take to spend the $6,000,000 which the state will derive from the relief bill, it may be said with certainty that it will be stretched over as long a period as possible.

It is estimated the first construction work will furnish employment for about 5,000 men. By putting that many persons to work, it is believed the economic status of the state will be greatly improved in a comparatively short period.

The payroll released weekly by the construction forces will most assuredly play a conspicuous part in the revival of business. This is what has been needed for many a day and when the old eagle begins rolling around to everybody's pocket the widespread complaint of hard times will be dissipated.

The relief program should accomplish definite results in this field alone because the whole secret of success at the present time is employment for idle labor and an open market for our products. While the construction program will help certain phases of the market situation, no definite relief may be expected in this direction until Democratic take charge of government, lower the tariff wall and afford an outlet for our products.

PUBLIC FORUM

OUR READERS ARE INVITED TO USE THIS COLUMN FOR DISCUSSING PROBLEMS OF INTEREST TO THIS COMMUNITY. IN ALL CASES NAMES MUST ACCOMPANY ANY COMMUNICATION.

Please Make Your Discussion As Short As Possible.

The Daily Reflector, Greenville, N. C. Pitt County Record, Greenville, N. C. Farmville Enterprise, Farmville, N. C.

Dear Sirs: You are addressed jointly for the reason that each of you recently published as a news item, in substance the same, that Pitt County has within the past two years reduced its tax rate from $1.35 on the $100.00 to 83 1/2 cents. Official records contradict such statement, therefore its accuracy is challenged.

It is not assumed that you willfully misrepresented, therefore this request by Pitt County Tax Relief Association that you investigate the official records on the subject and verify your statement or correct it to conform to the fact.

There appeared in The Daily Reflector, as advertising matter, in the issue of July 14, 1932, that the tax rate for Pitt County for the year 1930-31 was $1.35; for the year 1931-1932, .9400 and for the year 1932-1933, .8350. The same paper in headlines carries the further statement: "51 1-2 Cents Slashed From Tax Rate Last Two Years."

This Association asserts the facts to be: That for the year 1930-1931 Pitt County's tax rate was $1.35 on the $100.00 valuation, that this rate included Road and Bridge Fund .3350 cents and School Fund .5850 cents. That the entire Road and Bridge Fund was by law shifted from the county to the state tax, and that .4350 cents of the School Fund tax was shifted from the county to state tax. The total tax shifted from the county tax levy to the state levy was .7700 on the $100.00 valuation. Thus there was of the 1930-1931 tax rate remaining on the County .5800; that should have been the rate for 1931-1932, if there had not been an increase in the rate, but the rate was increased to .9400 cents on the $100.00 valuation; showing an increase of .3600 cents for the next year. It seems to be true that the assessed valuation of property in the County decreased about 10 per cent, but that does not justify increase in tax rate of approximately 61 per cent for the next year, 1931-1932. As to the tentative rate for 1932-1933, $350 now under consideration, since the 3300 cents Road tax, and .4350 of the School Fund tax have been shifted from the county to the state shows an increase over the rate for 1930-1931 of .2550.

That the readers who look to you, respectively, for news may know the facts relative to Pitt County's relative tax rate during the past two years, will you please publish the foregoing, together with your comment to the effect, that the foregoing is substantially in accord with the facts, or that your news items on the subject previously published is substantially correct.

Very respectfully, Pitt County Tax Relief Ass'n., By F. M. Wooten. July 27, 1932.

She was arrested in Oakland, Calif., as a material witness and brought here last night. The prisoner said she is a Vassar college graduate of three years ago and her father, whose name she refused to give, is a New York banker.

The parents of the youth, Major George Douglas Templeton, retired army officer of Berkeley, and his wife, insisted their son had always been a "good boy."

In a purported confession, the youth declared: "My father had been cheated of a considerable sum of money by Mr. Babcock and I thought that with my killing him and his wife, insurance and property would go to my father."

The youth's father and Babcock were previously associated in the importing business in Manila. Babcock and his wife came to the United States to attend the Olympic games.

ASK BOARD TO RETAIN DEPT.

(Continued from page one) tentative budget was adopted the first of the month. It was estimated that over 1,600 would be saved this year by eliminating the office.

Farm women who have evinced much interest in work of the department for many years were reported as considerably wrought up over the board's action, and they will be permitted to present their side of the question at the meeting today.

The organization has been instrumental in the establishment of numbers of clubs interested in development of activities of farm women, and these, it was stated by leaders of the movement, have been instrumental in creating a spirit of thrift in practically every rural district of the county.

The board will also be presented with a petition from the Pitt County Post of the American Legion asking that a visiting nurse be provided to assist indigent sick. The post adopted a resolution to this effect at its regular meeting in Bethel Tuesday night at which time it was declared the county was in imminent need of such an acquisition to general activities of the health department.

Pounds The Safe Way She Reduced 38

"I have been taking Kruschen Salts for 4 months and I think they are wonderful. I am 32 years old and 5 ft. 2 in. tall. I was very fat. I weighed 165 lbs. and now I weigh 127 lbs. and feel fine. If I let up taking the Salts one morning I feel lazy and heavy," Mrs. Florence Loftus, Boston.

This is just one of hundreds of letters we get every month—Kruschen not only causes you to lose fat but while you are losing it you gain in health—in vivaciousness—you lose fat where fat is most prominent and at the same time keep stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning naturally.

Any drugstore in the world will sell you a jar of Kruschen for a trifling sum—take one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning—go light on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets. But for your health's sake demand and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous. It's the little daily dose that does it.

Plan to Outlaw Sunday Baseball Strikes a Snag

Charlotte, N. C., July 28.—(AP)—The proposal to outlaw Sunday baseball in Charlotte by a new ordinance has struck a snag.

City council met yesterday, with passage scheduled for the ordinance which was ordered drafted after Charlotte and Durham staged a professional game here recently.

Action was postponed. Mayor Lambeth explained that this was done because of "certain discrepancies," but he did not reveal the nature of the discrepancies.

Unofficial information is that the ordinance as drawn up by municipal attorneys by instructions of the council would have banned not only baseball but also other Sunday amusements, including golf, swimming and tennis.

A group of opponents to the proposed ordinance attended the council meeting. The Rev. E. T. Wilson, secretary of the Carolina Religious Liberty Association and a member of the Seventh Day Adventists' Church, spoke against the measure.

W. M. (Bud) Moore, president of the Charlotte baseball club, arrived after the meeting was over. He took occasion, however, to deny a previous report that he had signed a petition opposing Sunday baseball.

It had been reported that he signed a resolution adopted by Amity Presbyterian Church of which he is a member.

Yesterday he explained that he did not sign, but had expressed his willingness to retire while other members of the congregation debated the matter.

Orders Game At Charlotte Next Sunday

Durham, July 28.—(AP)—Judge W. G. Bramham, president of the Piedmont League, said today he had scheduled a Sunday game between the Charlotte Hornets and Winston-Salem Twins at Charlotte Sunday afternoon.

Bramham said "Of course I am not ordering the game played Sunday afternoon if the club officials wish to do otherwise."

In scheduling the game, he made it an official contest, just as he did two weeks ago when the Durham and Charlotte clubs played a Sunday game at Charlotte before the largest crowd of the season.

Judge Bramham said he understood an agreement had been reached between officials of the Charlotte and Winston clubs to play one of the scheduled Saturday games on Sunday, providing an ordinance prohibiting Sunday baseball failed to pass at yesterday's meeting of the Charlotte City Council.

Managers of the Charlotte and Winston teams were agreeable to the game and final arrangements will be worked out in Charlotte tomorrow.

Advices from Charlotte said action there on a proposal to outlaw Sunday baseball had been postponed after Mayor Charles E. Lambeth said "certain discrepancies" in the proposed ordinance had been found.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

New York Cotton

New York, July 28.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady 1 higher to 3 lower with moderate buying on reports of showery weather in the east and selling on indifferent cables. Orders were quite evenly divided and price changes small.

Early activity in the stock market caused morning and afternoon showing early declines of 3 to 6 points under realizing prices rallied advancing well above the previous finish.

Offers were small and reports of general showers over the eastern belt with heavy precipitation in southern Georgia and northern Florida, revived anxiety as to the weevil situation although crop accounts on the whole showed little change.

Mills were good buyers, apparently to fix prices, and the market felt the influence of the increasing number to reports on the revival of activity at leading textile centers.

Grain Market

Chicago, July 28.—(AP)—For the third day in succession, wheat prices went sharply upward today, and dealings were much enlarged, more than double those of a week ago.

Active buying of wheat futures in Chicago was done against sales at Winnipeg. Many of the purchase orders were said to be based on optimism in various quarters as to the future of general business.

Stock Market

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER
New York, July 28.—(AP)—The reborn bullish enthusiasm in the securities markets showed no sign of flagging today, as stock prices swept forward again, spurred on by pronounced strength of the dollar as against foreign currencies, and further gains in wheat and cotton.

Virtually all groups of shares forged ahead, after a few waves of active profit-taking had been absorbed in the morning. Gains by early afternoon ranged from 1 to 5 points in many of the leaders. Shorts were squeezed in such issues as American Telephone and Union Pacific. Brokers reported buying from London, Paris and many cities in the interior. Trading was the most active since February in the first two hours.

Advances of 3 to 5 points appeared in such issues as Allied Chemical, American Telephone, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Norfolk and Western, and Delaware and Hudson. Issues up 2 or more points included U. S. Steel Preferred, Coca-Cola, Dupont, Consolidated Gas and Southern Pacific, and about 1 for U. S. Steel Common, Standard of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York Central, General Electric, and General Motors. Oils were somewhat tardy in joining the move.

Chart readers pointed out that the rebound would shortly reach a testing area, as it approached the halfway point between the peak of the preceding rally, recorded early in March, and bear market low touched on June 1. Each succeeding phase of the major bear movement has been followed by a temporary recovery of roughly half of the ground lost. The March-June decline was the seventh down swing since autumn of 1929, and the usual rebound was somewhat slow in getting started. If the market is able to carry on beyond the limits of a normal rebound, market theorists will be greatly encouraged.

The fresh strength of the dollar was generally attributed in banking quarters to sales of sterling and French francs to buy dollars for pay for American securities.

The Faithful .:. Cheat .:.

By Ruby M. Ayres

SYNOPSIS: When her sister Flora announces she is going to leave her husband, Ben, Sondra Kent Merriman realizes that she will be homeless. She has been living with her sister while Mark Merriman, to whom she is secretly married, tries to make his fortune in the Congo.

Chapter 16

"I LOVE MY MADNESS"

There were friends who would take her for a time, of course, Sondra thought, but one could not go on forever sponging for hospitality; besides, when it was known that she hadn't any money, would anyone be anxious for her company? She knew they would not.

Flora said abruptly. "I wish to goodness you could marry John Anderson; can't you make him get rid of his wife?"

"I'm not aware that John has any overwhelming desire to marry me," Sondra said. "Besides, isn't it rather a contradiction to advise me to put my head in the noose you're so anxious to escape? Do you think I should be any happier than you are, if I married for money?"

"But you like John, don't you?" Flora said amazed. "I always thought you were frightfully fond of him."

"Fond of him!" Sondra echoed. "I'm fond of his men, but I have not the least desire to marry any of them."

Flora sighed. "Somehow I thought it was more than that—I thought you were in love with him," she said.

"In love with him?" Sondra raised her eyes and looked at her reflection in the mirror. "What made you think that?" she asked slowly.

"Oh, I don't know—but when you're together, you seem so suited. I've always felt that even if you marry anybody else, John will always be the one you should have married."

"I should think he would be tremendously flattered," Flora came across to her sister. "What's the matter with us?" she said in a strangely shaken voice.

"We've changed so—both of us. We used to be the greatest pals—we always told each other everything—everything we hoped for and dreamed about—and we're quite changed. What's the matter with us, Sondra?"

Sondra jerked her shoulder to free it of her sister's touch.

"It's life I suppose," she said hardily. "And the way we've been brought up. It's no good being mushy about it—but it angered her because she felt the tears in her eyes."

Flora turned away. "You're harder than I am," she said. "And perhaps you're lucky; you won't suffer so much. Don't ever get fond of anyone, Sondra—nobody really fond—it's not happiness—it's just suffering all the time."

"Are you so fond of Jocelyn?" Sondra asked.

"I'd die for him."

There was a tragic silence, then Flora went on—"But as far as he's concerned, I can die. He won't have me on any terms, poor darling." She laughed a little. "It love with me because he's in love with me. He'd much rather have had a dull, ordinary love affair with some girl; he'd have enjoyed being properly engaged, and then getting married in the orthodox way at some fashionable church, and all the rest of it. . . ."

"She moved it. And I should should love it too. You know, in spite of everything, I'm just an ordinary creature in my heart. Hopelessly middle-class I suppose. Since I married Ben, everything's been a bit sham—all the ceremony, and ostentation. If only you knew how I loathe a maid to help me dress—"

"Flora."

"Oh you can stare," Flora said defiantly. "It's the truth, though I don't suppose anyone would believe me. I could have been perfectly happy in a little house—with Jocelyn. But it's life, isn't it—that we should always long for the things we can't have."

There was a profound silence, which Flora broke abruptly. "I didn't know John was back," she said.

"Yes, he came this evening."

"Have you seen him?"

"No."

"He was at the theater tonight—with a girl."

"Was he?"

"Yes, and that appalling Cassidy man."

"I like Cassidy; he amuses me."

"I hate him; he's a sponger—and I don't believe he's really a friend of John's—it just suits him to hang on to him."

"I don't believe John has ever given him a cent," Sondra said deviously.

"Not in cash, perhaps," Flora agreed. "But there are other ways." Sondra stifled a pretended yawn.

"I'm tired; do you mind if I go to bed?"

"Very well; shall I see you in the morning?"

The two girls looked at one another. "Because I'm going very early," Flora said.

spread employment. Governor Winant of New Hampshire, has asked that President Hoover receive the delegates. The request was granted and the conference scheduled for today but postponed for the convenience of the visitors.

After announcing he would talk with the New Englanders, the President instructed the Commerce and Labor Departments to obtain information for his on the five-day week.

Demary said that the work on the Boundary Tree and Smoke-mount section and the roadside cleanup would be done largely by day labor and that in conformance with law, ex-service men would be given employment preference.

REFUSES NEW TRIAL FOR LEA

Bond of $30,000 for Lea Sr., former Tennessee senator and Nashville financier; $20,000 for his son and

This permits the defendants to remain at liberty until their appeal comes up before the State Supreme Court.

Judge Clements' decision came after he had heard a mass of testimony designed to show that a new trial should be granted the three defendants.

The elder Lea, attorneys for his son, and Davis denied they had been responsible for any efforts to influence jurors who convicted them of conspiracy to defraud the now defunct Central Bank of more than $1,000,000.

Judge Clements said today he believed the "jurors acted in good faith," that they were "not influenced by any officer or any one else and that they were not biased toward the defendants."

More People Killed By Acidity Than War Say Scientists

"All Deaths from So-Called Natural Causes are Merely the End-Point of Progressive Acid Saturation" Says Well-Known Authority

SCIENCE DISCOVERS The Human Body Consists of Eleven Essential Minerals. A Deficiency of Any of These Causes Many Human Ills.

Most Stomach Disorders, Indigestion, Gas, Bloating, Heartburn, Headaches, Constipation, Biliousness, Nervousness, Rheumatism, Sleeplessness, Loss of Strength and Vigor Are Caused by a Lack of Some Essential Mineral Element and a Deficiency of Vitamins.

In the light of recent scientific discoveries, leading Physicians and Health authorities agree that the human race could be practically free from most ailments, and could live to a ripe old age if the system could be regularly supplied with a sufficient quantity of the essential Minerals and Vitamins.

DEFICIENCY IN MODERN FOODS The process of refining modern foods; bleaching of flour, rice, sugar, etc.; together with improper cooking takes out of our foods the very things that God intended we should have.

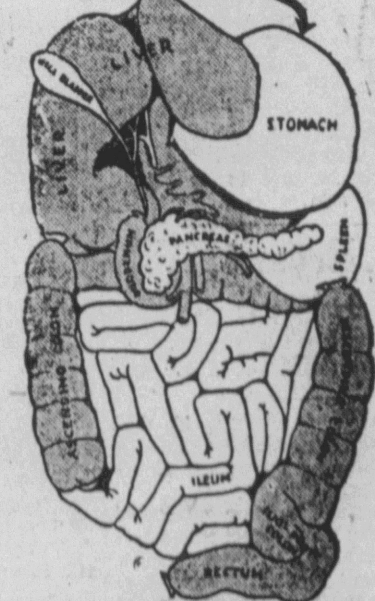

ACIDITY TEARS DOWN HEALTH As the Mineral content of the body is lowered, slowly but surely the acid content of the system is increased until it finally reaches the point where the organs of assimilation and elimination cannot perform their natural functions. Our powers of resistance are lowered. Disease germs creep into the blood. The system becomes clogged with impurities. Various aches and pains appear, and before we realize what is taking place, we are on the very verge of a physical breakdown.

SCIENCE PERFECTS NEW FORMULA Fortunately for humanity, science has found a way to prevent most of these conditions. After years of careful research and experimentation, a new and remarkable formula has been perfected. This preparation, known as LEE'S MINERAL COMPOUND is a scientific combination of the eleven most essential Mineral Elements of the human body combined with Vitamins. It is not, in any sense, a patent medicine but is more in the nature of a FOOD VITALIZER. By supplying the system with the necessary Minerals and Vitamins, it aids nature in quickly balancing the Mineral content of the body so that good health naturally follows.
