BULLS AGAIN CHARGE ON NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Libby Holman Reynolds Believed In Seclusion At Aberdeen, Maryland

POLICE HEAD GIVES FACTS

Sheriff of Harford County Receives Re- quest Place Guards Around Oakington Estate; Aberdeen Police Chief "Posi- tive" Libby is Hiding Out There; Dick Reynolds Expected to Reach Trinidad Friday.

Aberdeen, Md., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Sheriff Reese Bowman of Harford county, said today he had received a request to place guards around Oakington estate, believed to have been the recent hideaway of Libby Holman Reynolds.

He said the request came from Mrs. Louise Jenny of Wilmington, Del., a friend of the torch singer, who two days ago was released in North Carolina on $25,000 bond in connection with the death of her husband, Smith Reynolds.

The sheriff said he did not know if Mrs. Reynolds was at the estate but Benjamin Ray, chief of Aberdeen police and a deputy under Sheriff Bowman, said he had "positive information" Mrs. Reynolds was at Oakington last night.

Servants said Mrs. Reynolds had not arrived there.

New York, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Officers of the Munson Line today received a message stating that Richard Reynolds, brother of Smith Reynolds, will leave the liner American Legion when it reaches Trinidad Friday night.

Although the message did not so state it was assumed that Reynolds planned to continue his journey to Winston-Salem, N. C., by airplane.

Reynolds was in Africa when his brother was slain and crossed to Rio de Janeiro by the southern route.

Pan-American Airways said that Reynolds could beat the American Legion by several days by using planes, but would have to cross South America to do so.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 10.—(AP)—There will be no "life story" of Libby Holman published with her family's knowledge and consent.

This was announced by Alfred Holman, the torch singer's father, as he returns home today from North Carolina.

It had been reported that he was co-operating with a Cincinnati writer in preparing a life story.

Woman Dies Of Unnatural Cause

Rocky Mount, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Mrs. T. A. Burgess 32, died in a hospital here today from what hospital officials termed "unnatural" cause.

She was brought here last night, suffering apparently with an internal disorder.

Her death came two days after her husband, a Rocky Mount attorney, was released under $200 bond on charges of shooting Clyde Joyner who Burgess said he found under his wife's window.

Burgess said he returned home several days ago and found Joyner under Mrs. Burgess' window and that he heard her tell him to "go away."

The attorney said he followed Joyner and fired one time, inflicting minor injuries. Burgess will be given a hearing Monday in Nashville on the assault charges.

Royalty Takes Drop

Warsaw, Poland, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Alexander Subkoff, husband of the late Princess Victoria, sister of former Kaiser Wilhelm, got a job today in one of the Warsaw public dancing places.

Katon, N. C.—(AP)—For seventeen years Dan Hargett has kept a store at Swansboro without setting foot on the street before it. He always enters and leaves by a side or rear door while his customers enter from the front.

PUSH ATTACK ON DEMOCRATS

Republicans Will In- vade East With Re- submission Prohibi- tion Plank.

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Republicans today mapped out a vigorous eastern campaign in support of their prohibition submission plank against the Democratic re-elector.

The tentative program called for a speech by President Hoover in Franklin D. Roosevelt's own state of New York and another in New England, possibly Boston.

Victory in the entire strategic section was predicted by G. O. P. leaders as they scanned the acceptance speech Mr. Hoover will make tomorrow night. To Senator Herbert of Rhode Island, an opponent of prohibition and eastern campaign manager for the Republicans, President Hoover's most awaited reference in that speech to prohibition is "satisfactory."

Herbert added that the reference would "back the Republican re-submission plank."

"Flying Buck" Reaches Texas

Houston, Tex., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Robert Buck, 18-year-old flier trying for a junior air speed record from Newark, N. J., to Mexico City, arrived here today at 9:45 a. m. from New Orleans.

Buck refueled and headed for Brownsville on the Texas-Mexican border. He left at 9:58 a. m.

Winborne Chosen Head Of State Democrats

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Peace reigned in North Carolina Democratic ranks today as J. Wallace Winborne, of Marion, the new State Chairman, took the helm and began laying plans for the national campaign.

The last hint of discord was dissipated when John Bright Hill, of Wilmington, who managed Robert R. Reynolds' successful campaign for the senatorial nomination, accepted the secretaryship of the Executive Committee.

Hill was given the appointment last night by Winborne following the Marion man's unanimous election as chairman by the committee meeting here, but protested and declined to accept immediately.

AMBASSADOR OF JAPANESE SEES STIMSON

Manchurian Question Discussed at Hour's Conference held this Morning.

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Ambassador Debutchi of Japan spent almost an hour discussing the Manchurian question with Secretary Stimson today, but told newspapermen when he left that he had not asked the Secretary for an explanation of his speech on the Kellogg-Briand peace pact in New York Monday night and that he had not been instructed by his government.

LABOR BODY EXPELS REDS

Man and Woman Be- lieved to be Com- munists Run Out of Salem Convention.

Winston-Salem, Aug. 10.—(AP)—A man and a woman believed to be communists were escorted from the hall shortly before the close of the annual convention of the North Carolina Federation of Labor.

Names of the two were not disclosed although it was said they were known by a number of delegates.

The convention went into an executive session and the sergeant-at-arms was instructed to escort the reputed communists out. They left quietly.

R. R. Lawrence of Winston-Salem, was re-elected president of the state body. Next year's convention will be held in Charlotte.

The greater number of officers was elected by acclamation, a departure from procedure of a number of years past. Among these was President Lawrence, D. J. Butler of Salisbury, first vice-president, and G. V. Kite of Winston-Salem.

FLIER DENIES KILLING MAN

Capt. Lancaster Tells Jury He Did Not Murder The Lover of Mrs. Miller.

Miami, Fla., Aug. 10.—(AP)—W. N. Lancaster, with voice steady and unemotional today described for a jury what he called the suicide of Haden Clarke, for whose murder he is on trial.

Previously he had returned a calm "no" to a point blank question by James M. Carson, chief of defense counsel, as to whether he killed the young writer who supplanted him as fiance of Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller. Lancaster's flying companion for five years.

"I was awakened by a bang," Lancaster said. "I thought it was a window. I called, 'What is that Haden?' I heard a gurgling noise from

SEVEN KILLED IN REBELLION

Disorders Flare Up in Four Cities of Spain; War Office Attack- ed, Reported.

Madrid, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Spain was virtually under martial law today as the Republican government mobilized to stem the spread of a rebellion which apparently was an attempt at a monarchist coup.

Madrid, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Rebellion flared in four Spanish cities today, resulting in at least seven deaths in Madrid during a surprise attack at Dawn on the building which houses the ministry of war and the office of the premier.

RICH WOMAN IS CRITICALLY ILL

Little Hope Held Out for Recovery of Mrs. McCormick; Family Troubles Settled.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, the daughter of John D. Rockefeller Sr., and successor to the late Mrs. Potter Palmer as arbiter of Chicago society, lies seriously ill in an exclusive Gold Coast hospital where she went a few weeks ago when financial difficulties caused her to close her castled stone mansion.

America's richest woman, as she was often called, was said to be in no immediate danger but recovery was regarded as doubtful by friends and attendants.

Her illness, the serious nature of which has been revealed during the past few days, resulted in a general reconciliation with her estranged children. Her divorced husband, Harold Fowler McCormick, harvester king, was reported en route to her bedside from the Pacific Coast.

A lavish patron of the arts, Mrs. McCormick permitted neither her duties as the leader of Gold Coast Society, nor her indulgence in such hobbies as archeology, literature, and the collection of rare manuscripts and original rugs, to interfere with the development of her business instinct and ability.

Before economic conditions made inroads on her fortune—and her illness was reported to have been caused by endeavors to meet declining real estate and stock market values—Mrs. McCormick was active in the management of one of Chicago's largest real estate firms.

Maternal estrangements resulted from the marriage of all her children. Mathilde married Max Oser, a Swiss jewelry master, in 1923. The resulting breach between mother and daughter was not healed until 1931. Mrs. Oser is reputed coming from Cherbourg, France, to be with her mother.

And her son, Harold Fowler McCormick Jr., failed to obtain immediate maternal sanction when he was wed to Fifi Sillman, mother

Gov. Roosevelt Says Politics Will Play No Part in His Decision on Matter.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Governor Roosevelt's last word of the Walker case before tomorrow's hearing on the charges against the New York mayor was a reiteration that politics will have no bearing on his decision.

A London newspaper telephoned to the Democratic presidential candidate yesterday to get first hand his position on the matter.

The governor said that he had said frequently to American news-

PRESIDENT IS 58 YEARS OLD

Busy Day at Desk To Mark Observance of Natal Day of Chief Executive.

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—President Hoover today observed his 58th birthday, but his celebration consisted of practically no celebration at all.

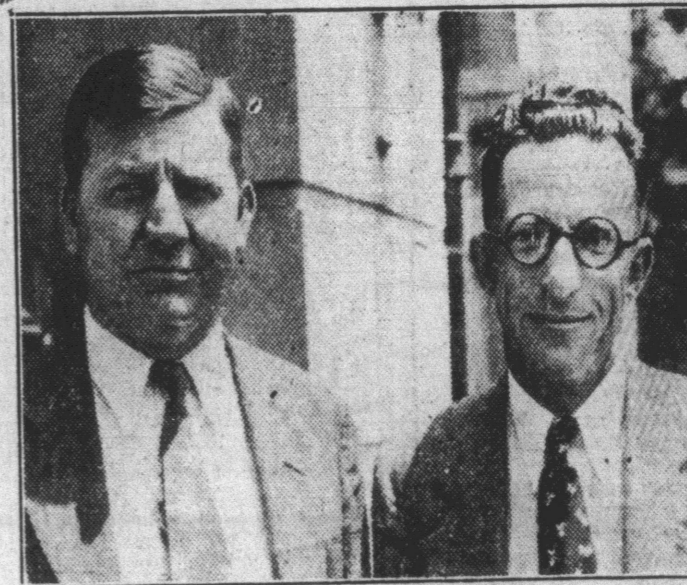

Early to work and a long day at his desk, was the word as to what note Mr. Hoover would take of his anniversary.

Mrs. Hoover, however, insisted upon following the usual custom of the presidential household. A cake was baked, which tonight will be lighted with 58 small candles.

In addition probably the biggest birthday card ever to come his way

Republicans Gather For Notification Of Hoover

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Republican leaders in the drive to re-elect President Hoover today began their invasion of the National Capitol for the notification ceremonies of tomorrow, bringing with them predictions of the Chief Executive's return to the White House for another four-year term.

Led by Chairman Sanders of the Republican National Committee, the party leaders reached the capital early this morning from Chicago.

"I don't want to go into predictions as to states and sections," Sanders told newspapermen as he left the union station, "but you can go as

HAIL CAUSES CROP DAMAGE

Renston Community Suffers Heavy Loss from Storm Monday Afternoon.

Hail in the Renston section of this county Monday afternoon did damage estimated at thousands of dollars, according to a belated report of the storm reaching the city today.

Residents of the section visiting Greenville late yesterday afternoon stated that the storm practically destroyed tobacco, cotton and corn crops on several farms of the community. The farms most seriously affected were those of Charles McLawhorn, Mr. Dail and others residing in close proximity.

The hailstones were described as unusually large and literally ripped the leaves from tobacco which was replanted following ravages of the Blue Mold during the early part of the planting season.

Although it was impossible to estimate the total extent of the loss belief was expressed that it would go into thousands of dollars and greatly reduce the offerings of bright leaf from the Renston community this year.

The hail visited Renston about

CITY FATHERS VISIT RESORT

Members of Board of Aldermen Guests Of H. H. Duncan At Pamlico Beach.

Members of the Board of Aldermen left this afternoon for an outing at Pamlico Beach.

They were the guests of Herman Duncan, member of the board, who issued the invitation to the aldermen after completion of the tentative budget last Friday night.

The city fathers left for the beach this afternoon shortly after one o'clock and were expected to return sometime tonight. They will indulge in swimming, fishing and other diversions of the resort and will be guests at a delightful supper at Alderman Duncan's cottage during the early part of the evening.

The board was headed by Mayor R. C. Flanagan, whose optimism concerning the future resulted in adoption of a nine months' school term at a joint meeting of the aldermen and school board immediately preceding the aldermen's budget session Friday evening.

Two Injured As Ambulance Runs Off Embankment

Beckley, W. Va., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Walter Saunter, 21, and Norman Wagner 18, both of Conover, N. C. were cut and bruised here early today when their ambulance crashed down an embankment and wrecked.

Enroute to Thurmond for a body, Wagner, driving, became confused in the early morning darkness and the ambulance went over the embankment, tore a porch from a stone building and halted against a tree.

State Firemen Get Relief Fund

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 10.—(AP)—More than $30,000 is being distributed by Insurance Commissioner Dan C. Boney among 135 qualified towns and cities of North Carolina entitled under the law to this fund for relief of members of organized fire departments.

Of the amount, 5 per cent, or $1,510, goes to the treasurer of the State Fireman's Association for use of that organization. The fund represents one-half of 1 per cent of the fire insurance premiums paid in the various towns and cities.

Eighteen towns and cities are qualified to receive shares in this year's distribution. Charlotte firemen will receive the greatest amount—$3,044. Other leaders follow: Asheville, $1,836; Winston-Salem, $1,718; Raleigh, $1,588; Greensboro, $1,475; Wilmington $1,432; Durham, $1,198, and High Point, $1,175.

GRAIN PRICES HOLD STEADY

Buying of Wheat Re- ported Brisk on Pros- pect Spring Wheat Crop Forecast Inter- preted by the Trade as Bullish; Import- ant Gains Scored by all Important Rail- road Issues.

New York, Aug. 10.—(AP)—The bull market in the New York Stock Exchange today ran in steam roller fashion over the opposition furnished by bear speculators.

With an early bulge in railroad stocks under captaincy of Union Pacific and New York Central the signal was given for another strong display of bullish fireworks.

As the market entered the final hour of trading, many stocks were up $1 to $4 a share and some were up around $8. Cotton prices also soared upward, gaining about $1 a bale, while grain prices were firm with wheat enjoying brisk buying on reported prospects of a spring wheat crop forecast which would be interpreted by the trade as bullish.

Volume of trading on the Stock Exchange was well above yesterday. At 1:30 o'clock 3,200,000 shares had exchanged hands. Important gains were scored by virtually the entire railroad group. Union Pacific was up $3 to $68; Santa Fe was up about $4 to $48.75 and New York Central was up nearly $3.

Interest in the carriers was based on expectations of constructive developments at three important meetings which railroad executives are holding this week.

Wall street also had an ear cocked toward Washington for intimations as to what President Hoover's acceptance speech would contain. Reports said the President would probably stress economic issues and would discuss the commodity situation which has recently been a bullish talking point in view of firmer prices and moves for helping staples through organized support. Announcement of final plans for the new commodity credit corporation were expected soon, perhaps by the end of this week.

Hitler Demands Control Of German Government

By W. E. BROCKMANN
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Berlin, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler, head of the powerful National Socialist party, loomed more prominently than ever today as president Von Hindenburg's choice for chancellor of Germany.

Chancellor Franz von Papen reported the political situation to the president this afternoon when the ageing Field Marshal from his summer estate at Neudeck.

All those concerned in the negotiations for organizing a new cabinet did their best to prevent any information from leaking out, but they did not succeed entirely and there was evidence that the president was wavering in his previous determination to maintain a non-partisan cabinet.

On the basis of these facts the president was reported as inclining now toward asking Hitler to form a cabinet.

Berlin, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Thousands of Adolf Hitler's Nazi storm troops were reported concentrating today in the vicinity of Berlin and Central Germany. The Nazi commander himself was understood to be ready to lay down a final demand for the right to lead the German government.

ABOUT TOWN

Present unstable conditions of the world only tend to challenge the best of various organizations attempting to render a high type of service to humanity, in the opinion of Charlie Phillips, governor of the 5th District of Rotary, speaking at the regular meeting of the local club the first of the week. Virtually all organizations are having the time of their lives making ends meet, Mr. Phillips said, but instead of discouraging the members, it only acts as an incentive to greater achievement. Mr. Phillips expressed belief the local club would weather the storm in fine style. He found the organization in the best of condition and said he would recommend that other clubs of the state adopt the progressive program followed here in recent years. The movement to can food crops to help take care of the relief campaign this year is meeting with pronounced success this year and indications are that the entire quota of five thousand cans will be provided before the summer is over. This is one of the best steps local committees have taken toward meeting the situation this winter and if the public should co-operate as they should there is every reason to believe conditions will be much more favorable here this winter than last year. Had it not been for the conservation project last season it would have been impossible for the people to have taken care of the poor people as they did. The extra supplies of food enabled farm folks to provide for their more unfortunate neighbors in a way that eliminated much suffering and enabled hundreds of people to carry through until summer time and more favorable weather conditions. With the banning movement being brought into the cities and small towns proper this year, it is natural to assume that conditions will be better so far as the relief campaign is involved and that committees will be able to take care of the situation in a way that will give the county first rank in relief activities. The North Carolina Federation of Labor is in favor of modification of the Volstead Act and resubmission of the question to the voters of the country. This is another spoke in the wheel of the wet forces of the nation and will be used quite effectively in the campaign of the wets in this State to further their bid for supremacy. The wet sentiment seems to be gaining considerable scope at this time, but the dries yet have to be reckoned with, if reports of activities from various parts of the country count for anything. In other words, the dries are lining up all of their forces for the long and bitter fight ahead and much of the pressure which they will bring to bear will have a pronounced effect in the final count. However, both wets and dries must realize that the burning question of the day is not prohibition, but how to provide for the millions of starving people of the nation at this time. When the problem has been solved, it is likely prohibition will receive more direct attention, but until then, there is little hope of the question receiving more than passing attention such as that being accorded at this time. The summer will soon be over and all of the sports enjoyed during this season of the year will be abandoned for those of fall and winter months. The short time left for enjoying summer diversions should cause the people to rally to the support of Westbrook swimming pool and help make it a paying proposition during

The Faithful Cheat By Ruby M. Ayres

SYNOPSIS: Sondra Kent rebels against the prospect of living with Mark Merriman, to whom she is secretly married, when she hears he is returning from the Congo. She loves John Anderson, who proposes that she go to the ocean to recover from illness, and tells her to be loyal to Mark. Chapter 27 BROKEN ENGAGEMENTS Anderson drew himself up sharply; then he laid both hands on Sondra's shoulders, not to draw her to him as she thought, but to hold her away. "Do you think it would be quite fair to Merriman?" he asked with an effort. The old rebellious look flashed across her face—"I don't care—" she began, then stopped. There was a little silence, then Anderson took his hands away and turned to the door. "I shall ring up in the morning to know how you are." "Oh... well, then I'll write." "I thought you hated writing letters." He hesitated: "Well—perhaps I'll call." Her face brightened a little. "Yes, please call. I'll be very good." The door shut behind him. Sondra stooped and picked up a long stand of brown seaweed that a tiny wave had left close to her feet. "I suppose you must go back to town tonight?" she said. "I'm afraid so." Anderson stood still and looked out over the sea. He wore no hat and the soft breeze had ruffled his hair, giving him a surprising look of youth. Sondra laughed as she looked at him. "Do you know I've never seen you look so thoroughly unaided," she said. "Or so— or so happy she had been going to add, but stopped. Anderson laughed, too, and passed a hand across his hair. "You look rather a scaremouche yourself, young woman," he told her with pretended severity, his eyes wandering over her slender figure. She was wearing a white frock, sleeveless and cut low at the neck, and she had taken off her shoes and stockings and slung them carelessly over her arm. It was a glorious evening, with blue cloudless sky, faintly tinged with the first glow of a riotous sunset. Sondra had been four days at the quaint little cottage that stood back in a sheltered angle of the coast, and already she felt a different creature. "I never thought I could enjoy a holiday like this," she said with a little grimace. "Old clothes—nothing to do but walk and bathe and sleep—" "And eat," he supplemented comically. "I've never seen anyone with such an enormous appetite as you have developed." She made a little grimace. "I don't see how you can know—you don't have meals with me—except dinner." She had been up each night to dine at the hotel where Anderson was staying. She gave a quick little sigh. "It will be dead when you've gone," she said. "You'll soon find someone to take my place," he assured her. "And even if you don't—" he broke off, to go on after a moment more briskly. "I've behaved disgracefully as it is—breaking engagements in town at the last moment. People will be wondering what the attraction is." "All the best people are out of town now, John." They strolled on close to the edge of the water. "How long do you think I had better stay here?" she asked suddenly. "As long as you like," Anderson was busily engaged lighting his pipe. "Or until you have to come back." "What do you mean by that?" "Only that we may hear soon when Merriman is expected." "Oh." A shadow crossed her radiant face; during the last few days she had forgotten all about Mark. "We can't hear just yet, can we?" she asked. "And anyway it's a long voyage." She shivered, and he asked quickly, a cloud across the face of the sun, as if a stern hand had been laid on the light-hearted irresponsibility to which she had entirely given herself, reminding her that it must end. She looked again at the sea where now only a solitary bather was splashing in the sunlight—he looked lonely she thought, lonely as Anderson had suddenly made her feel. She said with a hard note in her voice—"I can't remember that you have ever paid me a compliment in all your life." He looked at her with a whimsical smile. "Why gild the lily," he quoted to you all my life." She looked at him from under her dark lashes. "Are you ever serious?" she asked exasperatedly. "It has been known," he answered. She stood up with a half shrug of her shoulders. "Well, I suppose we may as well go home. You seem to—" she broke off, turning her face towards the sea, shading her eyes against the brilliant light of the setting sun. "Look—" she pointed to the bather. "Listen!" A sudden ringing cry for help came to them from the sea. (Copyright, 1932, by Ruby M. Ayres)

BEES MAKING STRONG BID FOR HONORS

Charlotte, Aug. 10.—(AP)—The Piedmont League second half today had exactly one month to go and if Manager Guy Lacy of the Hornets has his way about it they will be trailed by five clubs when the standings are computed Sept. 10. New faces are no novelty to Hornets fans these days, for Lacy has been generous with the pruning knife. New players have been placed in five positions recently, and the Hornets are two games in front of Greensboro, winner of the first half. Blackie Carter, former Furman University football and baseball player, and Hal Sullivan have joined the Charlotte outfit. The former got two hits last night when the home club nosed out Durham here 5-4. Last week was a big one for Wilmington, as the club won six of eight contests. But this week it seems to be another story. Winston-Salem's lowly Twins swept the three-game series with the Pirates last night, winning 4-2. Hank Lieber's home run with two on was a deciding factor. Jose Huarie, who was with Norfolk in the defunct Eastern League is now playing shortstop for Wilmington. Branch Rickey, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, was guest of honor at Greensboro when the Patriots and Raleigh divided a double header. Greensboro won the afternoon game 5-0, when Chapman allowed the Caps but four hits, but dropped the night game 11-7.

CARDS REGAIN OLD BAT EYE BEAT PHILLIES

By HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Writer) The St. Louis Cardinals, it would seem, finally have located the batting punch they mislaid at the close of the 1931 season. Most of the world's champions' woe in this campaign can be traced almost entirely to weakness at the plate but there have been many encouraging signs for Manager Gaby Street the last few days. In winning their last four games, one from the Giants and three from the Phillies, the Cardinals have banged out 70 hits good for 41 runs—the best sustained offensive the champions have shown all season. Yesterday they walloped five Philly pitchers for 25 hits to gain an 18-13 victory and strengthen their hold on sixth place. Frisch, Bottomley and Collins collected four hits apiece, Bottomley's string including two home runs. The Chicago Cubs moved to within a half game of the National League lead by mopping the New York Giants 4-3, with a two-run rally in the ninth while the Pittsburgh Pirates were submitting to their tenth consecutive defeat, a 4-0 shutout plastered on them by Huck Betts and the Boston Braves. Harvey Hendrick clouted a double and three singles as Cincinnati tripped Brooklyn 9-8 in 10 innings. The New York Yankees added another half game to their already impressive American League lead by beating the St. Louis Browns. Vernon Gomez held the Browns to eight hits to win his 19th victory of the year but it took Babe Ruth's 32nd homer with two on in the sixth to provide the winning margin. Washington turned back the

"WONDERFUL"—THAT IS WHAT I SAY OF SARGON

"It Did More For Me Than I Ever Expected Any Medicine to Do," Declares Merchant. Don't let bad health get the best of you. Face each day with new energy and the fighting vigor to carry on with the aid of Sargon. Read what W. S. Davis, well known merchant and Mason, of 493 N. Liberty St., Spartanburg, S. C., says about this modern compound: "Stomach trouble had been pulling me down for years and I'd gotten in mighty bad shape. Heartburn, indigestion and smothering sensations would come on me after meals, and sometimes I'd get so weak and dizzy I could hardly keep on my feet. I suffered so much with constipation that I nearly always had a headache. It took the strongest kind of purgatives to move my bowels. I never did sleep well and would get up in the mornings with such a backache it was all I could do to drag around the store. I felt 'grouchy' and didn't take much interest in my business or anything else. "Sargon did more for me than I ever expected any medicine. I'm eating things now I wouldn't have dared to touch before, and my stomach has never been in better condition, and my whole system feels strengthened. The pain in my back is gone; I don't get nervous or have that weak, dizzy feeling any more, and I sleep like a log. I get up and start the day in good spirits, and am able to look after my business with my old time energy and cheerfulness. "Sargon Pills gave me wonderful results in regulating my bowels. The best part about them is that they don't upset me like other laxatives I used to take. It's just wonderful—that is what I say about the Sargon treatment." are usually present. None can challenge Sargon's powerful influence in helping to build red blood corpuscles, thereby improving nutrition and weight to a more normal state. "A sickly complexion, biliousness, gas formation, acidity, constipation—these and several other ills result from a liver sluggish in its important bile-secreting duties. The makers of Sargon and Sargon Soft Mosa Pills are to be congratulated for having included in the formulae the only recognized means of raising this vital action!" For Sale by Hill Home Drug Store

MID-WEEK PRAYER SERVICE MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH

There will be prayer service in Memorial Baptist Church this evening at eight o'clock.

N. C. Brooks Jr., will conduct the service.

Notes On Food Preservation. Tomato Juice—Wash and remove stem end of ripe tomatoes. Cut tomatoes in small pieces and boil until soft. Strain; bring juice to the boiling point. Pour into sterilized cans or jars. Process No. 2 cans and pint jars 20 minutes at 212 deg. F. Process No. 3 cans and quart 25 minutes.

Tomato Puree—Tomato puree is an excellent product to use in soups and stews and to give zest to other dishes. Wash and cook tomatoes until soft. Rub through a sieve to remove skins, seeds and fiber. Concentrate the puree to about one-half its original volume by boiling. Pack while boiling hot into cans or jars. Process No. 2 cans and pint jars 20 minutes at 212 deg. F. Process No. 3 cans and quart cans 25 minutes at 212 deg. F.

If a hot sauce is desired, add salt, chopped onions and hot pepper to taste before cooking and straining.

Byrd Selected to Head Roosevelt Finance Board

New York, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Former Governor Harry F. Byrd, of Virginia, has been selected as chairman of the executive finance committee of the Roosevelt-Garner campaign, James Farley, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, announced today.

Former Governor Byrd, who was himself a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, visited Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic nominee, at Albany yesterday.

He was here today attending the convention of the International Apple Growers' Association.

Minister Tries To Raise Money to Pay His Bond

Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Facing arraignment on a charge of murdering his first wife by poisoning her, the Rev. S. A. Berrie, 52-year-old song writing pastor, turned his attention today from composition of a new hymn to raising money.

He sold his Bethel tabernacle, to which he led his group of followers after being ousted as pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church several months ago, and began negotiations to borrow on his life insurance. The frame tabernacle brought only $75.

Deserted by members of his flock the handsome preacher was visited by his 19-year-old bride of two months ago as often as the authorities would permit.

John Wanamaker Is on Honeymoon

Reno, Nevada, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. John Wanamaker, Jr., were on their wedding trip today, no one knew, or would say, exactly where.

John Wanamaker, Jr., of a wealthy Philadelphia family, married Mrs. Elizabeth Phelt Warburton, divorced wife of his cousin, C. Edger Warburton, of Philadelphia, a few hours after he obtained a divorce from Mrs. Pauline Disston Wanamaker here yesterday.

The divorce decree was granted in the afternoon by Superior Judge Thomas F. Moran on grounds of desertion. Last night Judge Moran officiated at the wedding at the home of Clyde D. Souter, Wanamaker's attorneys.

BIG SAVING IN CONSOLIDAT'N

Geo. Stansbury Tells Commissioners Of Govt. Changes At Wrightsville.

Wrightsville Beach, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Large possible savings thru consolidation and centralization of governmental agencies were described to commissioners and accountants from North Carolina counties today by George L. Stansbury, chairman of the Guilford Board of County Commissioners.

More than 300 county commissioners and county accountants were here in annual convention to hear Stansbury deliver his address as president of the two state associations.

Stansbury, of Greensboro, said: "Some progress has been made in the direction of consolidation in some counties by combining into one office and listing and assessing of property and collection of taxes."

He said he believed the combining of other offices can be effected and will work equally as well with satisfactory results.

"We should begin to consolidate counties," the president said, "having about 35 instead of 100."

Stansbury said the general tendency for the past year has been to cut expenses in all lines; that the public has a right to demand efficiency in its commissioners; and that "it is hoped that within a short time all counties will show improvement" in the direction of a uniform accounting system.

He said county officers, except clerks of superior courts, should be appointed by the county commissioners as "this would take the officers out of politics and insure more efficient and experienced officers, produce greater harmony and tend to increase efficiency in general."

paperman, that he would consider the case purely as a judge and that the possible effect of his decision on his presidential candidacy would have no weight.

The Albany County Democratic organization, out-spokenly anti-Roosevelt in the past, had orders from the county chairman to "greet" Mayor Walker when he arrives from New York.

The Albany organization's action came as a surprise. At the end of a meeting to designate candidates for city and county offices, Edward J. O'Connell, county chairman, said "each and every one of you should go to the union station tomorrow night to welcome Mayor Jimmie Walker." The 400 odd members of the county committee jumped to their feet and applauded.

The O'Connell organization was for Alfred E. Smith at Chicago. It has been a Tammany ally in State affairs and only recently endorsed Mayor John Boyd Thacher for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in opposition to Governor Roosevelt's choice, Lieutenant Governor Herbert H. Lehman.

The New York mayor was due to arrive late in the day.

wholesale jobber of Knoxville, took the stand and told a three-judge Federal Court hearing the case that Appalachian Coals would "aid research and create new fields for coal."

He said his companies operated seven coal mines and another company acted as the selling agency for many miles in the Appalachian area. He said the operators now operate under one of three plans:

That they maintain their own selling organization;

That they contract with a jobber to act as exclusive selling agent;

That they sell coal by jobbers and "any way possible."

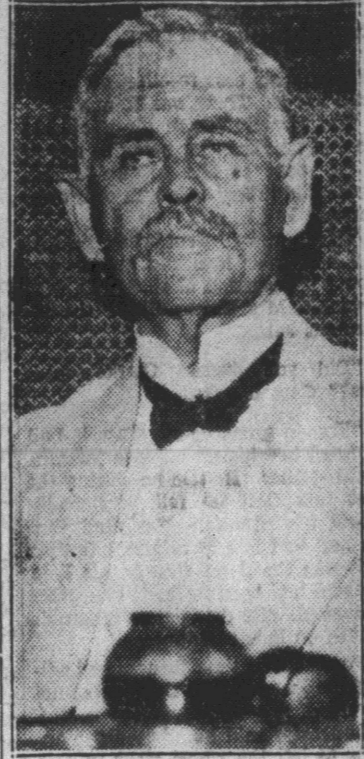

He said Appalachian Coals would bring all these under a single system at a saving and with increased efficiency.

Holmes said the price of coal had dropped in the last three years more than the result that most mines now get less for their product than production cost.

car yesterday it contains 40,000 signatures, scores of them from state governors and mayors. Ernest Dudley Chase of Winchester, Mass., who engineered preparation of the card also obtained the signature of Mrs. Mollie Carron of West Branch, Iowa who was Mr. Hoover's first school teacher.

Other observation of the presidential birthday also was on schedule. Two groups of Boy Scouts from the capital, Brooklyn and other sections of the country were given an appointment to pay their respects in accordance with their annual custom.

A second birthday cake has been presented by officials of the United States Lines, and possibly a few old friends of the Hoovers will be invited in tonight to share that as well as the White House cake. At least part of the President's day was spent in completing his speech of acceptance, to be delivered tomorrow night. His aides do not expect it to be completed finally however, until Thursday.

Flashes of Life (By The Associated Press)

Niantic, Conn.—Instead of collecting cash rent for his land, Austin I. Bush will take the air. He agreed to let National Guardsmen use his woodland if they would give him an airplane ride. Bush, who is nearly 80, will get the ride tomorrow.

Chicago—Bieno 'Dingo' Di Vita thinks there's a lot in a name. His parents always called him Dino. When he learned from city records that he was christened Bieno, he went home, police said, stabbed his father in the shoulder and whacked him with a chair.

Farmington, Mass.—Efficiency is the watchword of hose 3, even if it has to conduct a house-to-house canvass to locate fires. "Help, there's a big fire at Marando's house," said a voice over the telephone. The firemen called on six families named Marando before they found one with a fire. It was a brush fire and was almost out by that time.

Pittsburgh—Three weddings failed to make the romance of Harry Harris and Jane Thurston anything of permanency. She filed divorce suit against Harris charging cruelty. They were married once under assumed names, again under their own names. Later they were remarried in a Catholic church.

Chicago—A smartly dressed girl charged with the theft of two nickel napkins from a store went to jail for ten days rather than disclose her name. She said she did not want to embarrass her family.

Lynn, Mass.—Salvator Scepici apparently was not playing for "keeps."

He paid $8 weekly to the support of his wife, all right, but a judge was told it was the same $8 ever week. Scepici got thirty days.

Cleveland—Dear to the heart of a fireman are his big brass buttons. The fire-fighters here voted against an economy move to send them to fires in overalls. They want to keep their natty blue and shining buttons.

Wilmington, N. C.—(AP)—O. A. Hamilton, New Hanover County school superintendent for the past five years, resigned to take a position as State representative of a publishing house with headquarters at Chapel Hill.

Charlotte, N. C.—(AP)—F. M. Howard, 54, Beatty's Ford merchant, died in a hospital here of injuries received when struck by an auto police said was driven by Carl Fink. Fink was released on $1,000 bond on a charge of manslaughter.

Spencer, N. C.—(AP)—The annual meeting of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty will be held here October 15.

Lenoir, N. C.—(AP)—At a Davenport College board of trustees meeting here, Dr. W. A. Jenkins was re-elected president. He has been president six years.

Albemarle, N. C.—(AP)—Twenty-five men were given two weeks' work here cleaning off the city pond watershed.

Greensboro, N. C.—(AP)—John McIlwaine, negro, charged with stealing an auto he said he had driven on a trip under instructions from its owner, pleaded his own case in court here and was acquitted.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and snaky and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, assisting when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Request a substitute, 25c at all stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

New York Cotton

New York, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened barely steady, 6 to 8 points decline in response to lower Liverpool cables and under foreign and Southern selling, with Wall Street on the buying side.

The initial offerings were readily absorbed and the market steadied on a continuance of Wall Street demand, and trade and commission house buying, December, which had sold off to 7.07 rallied to 7.17, or 2 points above yesterday's close.

The general market ruled about net unchanged to 3 points higher at the end of the first half hour. Buying was encouraged by rallies from an irregular opening of the stock market.

Offerings were comparatively light after the early selling had run its course. Liverpool cables attributed the decline there to local and foreign liquidation and selling on the unfavorable labor situation in Manchester.

The weekly weather report received a bullish interpretation and there was a renewal of active general buying after its publication. December sold up to 7.37, or 22 points net higher and within a point of Monday's high, while some later months made new high ground for the movement.

The weather report and dampness and frequency of rain had caused a revival of weevil activity in eastern and southern portions of the belt and that lack of sufficient rainfall in the West was being increasingly felt, with shedding reported from many dry areas.

Table with 3 columns: Month, High, Low, Close. Rows include Oct., Dec., Jan., Mar., May, July.

Grain Market

Chicago, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Wheat jumped more than 2 cents a bushel in the late dealings today, the market taking its cue chiefly from action of New York stocks.

The East was credited with having absorbed the pit surplus of wheat, and trade developed into a big affair, with buying general and heavy. Intimations were heard of good export demand for United States hard winter wheat.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1 1/4 to 1 7/8 above yesterday's finish; corn at 1-4 to 1-2 decline; oats unchanged to 1-4 to 3/8 higher, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 10 cents.

Table with 3 columns: Wheat, Corn, Oats. Rows include Sept., Dec., May, Sept., Dec., May.

Stock Market

New York, Aug. 10.—(AP)—The bull movement in stocks rolled forward under the leadership of the rails today, developing express train speed.

By early afternoon, advances ranged from 1 to more than 5 points in a wide assortment of issues. Mid-week business statistics were a shade less favorable than a week ago, but speculators were obviously willing to believe that the current lull in industry would give way to a substantial upturn in autumn.

Norfolk and Western advanced more than 6, and issues up 3 to 5 included New York Central, Union Pacific, Santa Fe, Delaware and Hudson despite its divided cut, U. S. Steel Common and Preferred, American Can, American Telephone, International Harvester, Allied Chemical, Johns Manville, Consolidated Gas, and others.

"All or nothing!" is the reply Hitler was understood to have made to General Kurt Von Schleicher, defense minister, when asked for a statement on his attitude.

Leftist newspapers made much of the concentration of storm troops. Many persons felt alarmed over the situation, but others regarded it as a tactical movement.

The Berliner Tageblatt, powerful liberal newspaper, expressed the opinion the shift of troops was merely a Nazi ruse by which Hitler was trying to persuade the government he is no longer able to hold his men in check, so as to emphasize his demands for complete control.

Two men were killed and a number injured in a string of battles last night, on the heels of the publication of yesterday's drastic decree authorizing the death penalty for any acts of disorder.

A young Reichsbannerman was shot dead at Dillenburg and at Dortmund a Communist was mowed down by shots from an automobile.

President Von Hindenburg's arrival today as the signal for jockeying for the formation of the new government.

The sudden clamor of Nazi newspapers for the controlling power and the outspoken demand of the official Nazi press agency yesterday that Hitler be named Chancellor indicated that feelers put out by the government for a compromise with Hitler had been unavailing.

As a result it was expected that Chancellor Von Papen would not be able to present a complete slate for a cabinet to the president, but that he would have to resort to long negotiations before any new government could be formed.

Alfred Hugenberg's Nationalist press said Hitler's forces were in no way hostile to Von Papen and that they hoped to use him as Foreign Minister in their cabinet. Foreign Minister Baron Von Neurath would be returned to London as ambassador if Hitler were given power, the Nationalist said, and Baron Von Gayl, present Minister of Interior, would be given the presidency of East Prussia.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 10.—(AP)—A man who played football at the University of North Carolina with Max Gardner today rode in the saddle of the Democratic party in North Carolina.

K. Wallace Winborne, attorney of Marion, was given the reins at a meeting of the State Executive Committee last night. His election was unanimous.

The meeting was harmonious throughout the elections, but when Winborne appointed John Bright Hill, of Wilmington, for the Senate nomination, Hill immediately left the meeting, asserting he did not want the post.

"I will accept only if Bob asks, insists, wants and begs me to," the Wilmington man said. "I must have time to think it over," he added later.

Major L. P. McLendon, of Durham, who managed the campaign of J. C. B. Ehringhaus for the gubernatorial nomination was nominated for State Chairman, but at his request the nomination was withdrawn.

In nominating Winborne, a teammate of Governor Max Gardner by Ehringhaus at Chapel Hill, C. E. Thompson, of Elizabeth City, said the Marion attorney, will "fight not only to elect the governor but to elect Bob Reynolds Senator from North Carolina."

Mrs. Thomas O'Berry, of Goldsboro, for a second time was elected vice-chairman.

Winborne succeeds Odus M. Mull, of Shelby, close friend of Governor Gardner. Speculation as to who would be named chairman had been rife for weeks, followed reports Reynolds and Ehringhaus could not "get together on a man."

Shortly before the meeting Reynolds said in a statement he would maintain a hands-off policy. This was recalled by Hill when he protested his appointment as secretary.

"We had agreed to let the Ehringhaus forces run the meeting," Hill asserted.

Ehringhaus, who named Winborne as his choice for the chairmanship, today said he thought Hill's action was a result of a misunderstanding which would be ironed out and he would accept.

Party leaders, in addressing the committee meeting, predicted victory in November from "president to constable" and sounded calls for harmony.

Those who spoke were Senator Josiah W. Bailey, Reynolds, Ehringhaus, Mrs. T. Palmer Jerman, retiring chairman Mull and Joseph Daniels.

to do so. The Ambassador declined to say, however, whether the Secretary had taken up on his own volition the matters discussed in his speech.

Dispatches from Tokyo have said Debutchi has been instructed to seek an explanation of portions of the Stimson speech relating to the Sino-Japanese developments.

Debutchi said he had called on the Secretary to tell him good-bye preparatory to his forthcoming visit to Japan. He reiterated his recent assertions that he had received no intimation that he was not to return to this country's ambassador.

"I expect to be back before Christmas," he added.

Debutchi said he and Stimson had covered the general Manchurian situation.

SEVEN KILLED IN REBELLION

From Algeiras, south of Gibraltar, reports said an army detachment had mutinied in the nearby town of Lalina. The naval garrison at Cartagena, on the southwest coast, also was reported to have mutinied.

The causes of the trouble were obscure. Authorities differed as to whether it was an attempt at a monarchist coup or was incited by communists or labor syndicalists. Communications with outlying cities were impossible.

Madrid police under the command of the director of public safety, repulsed the attack on the ministry of war, spraying the open square with machine gun bullets.

Seven were killed and about a dozen wounded on both sides during that engagement. Ninety arrests were made but only 36 of the prisoners were civilians.

This afternoon the government asked all the newspapers to publish a request that owners of automobiles register their cars with the minister of war in case they should be needed for mobilization of troops and transportation of men to the centers of trouble.

MRS. CARAWAY LEADING VOTE (Continued from Page 1) Senator Huey P. Long, led her nearest opponent for renomination nearly two to one in incomplete returns from the Democratic primary today.

Returns from 795 of the State's 2,041 precincts gave the widow of the colorful Thaddeus H. Caraway 28,299 votes to 14,510 for Major O. L. Bodenhamer, of El Dorado, former National Commander of the American Legion and the leader of her six opposing candidates. The others, all men, trailed far behind.

Meanwhile, in the race for governor, Chancellor J. Marion Putrell, of Paragould, whom the incumbent Governor Harvey Parnell supported, held a similarly impressive lead over his six opponents. He led former Governor Tom T. Terral, highest of the others, by a vote of 25,706 to 13,219 in 773 precincts.

A parallel wins nomination for a candidate in Arkansas and the Democratic nomination is considered equivalent to election. Interest in district and county races was subordinated to that in the battle for the Senate and governor's chair. Senator Long has campaigned for Mrs. Caraway in this State.
