JIMMY WALKER FACES GOV. ROOSEVELT AT ALBANY

Mayor Of New York Given Chance To Defend Himself On a Charge Of Official Misconduct In Office

FEW PERSONS ARE ADMITTED

State Officials and Few Employees Gain Admittance to "Hall of Governors" Where Hearing is Being Conducted; Effort to Halt Trial Thru Court Action Fails; Political Interest is Centered About Developments

Executive Chamber, Albany, N. Y., Aug. 11.—(AP)—The public hearing of charges of official misconduct upon which the removal of Mayor Jas. J. Walker, of New York, is demanded opened at 12:37 p. m. (Eastern Standard Time) today before Governor Roosevelt. Only a select section of the "public," largely state officials and employees, gained admission to the red draped "hall of the governor."

Roosevelt came into the hearing chamber leaning on the arm of his secretary, Gurney T. Cross. He was accompanied by his counsel, Martin Conboy.

The governor explained the reason for the proceedings and pointed out the law under which he is sitting as the judge of the evidence prepared under Samuel S. Benson, counsel to the House of Representatives committee.

The governor said: "The mayor as a matter of absolute justice is entitled to an opportunity to defend himself, and this right will be recognized."

"If the mayor or his counsel in their judgment require for the defense any witness who did or did not previously testify I shall give due consideration to calling them before me if I receive the request and the reason therefor."

John J. Curtin, chief of counsel for Walker, took issue with Roosevelt's contention that allegations to acts of the mayor's first term were within his jurisdiction.

Roosevelt twice checked Curtin during his opening statement, cautioning him to confine his remarks to the evidence against Walker.

Amid the cheering of several thousand persons, band music, and a din or aerial bombs that must have been heard even at the governor's residence, ten to twelve blocks away, Mayor and Mrs. Walker arrived in Albany last night.

Edward J. and Dan O'Connell, the brothers who, as Albany's Democratic leaders, arraigned a big welcome home for Governor Roosevelt after his return from Chicago a few weeks ago, were the first to greet Walker as he stepped from his private car.

With the band in the lead, hundreds followed his car through the streets to the Ten Eyck Hotel where he and his friends occupied a large part of one floor.

"I go with a clear conscience. I am not afraid" read a statement from the mayor, given out as he left New York.

Defer Meeting of Elections Board

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 11.—(AP)—The meeting of the State Board of Elections, scheduled for tomorrow, has been postponed for "about ten days," J. Crawford Biggs, the chairman, announced today.

Several members of the board are away on vacations. Judge Biggs said the meeting was called for the purpose of making rules for minor political parties to place their presidential candidates the official State ballot for the November elections.

In North Carolina, this matter is left up to the elections board, but Judge Biggs said it was possible the percentage plan used in other states may be adopted. In some states, the minor parties must submit petitions signed by from 1 to 15 per cent of the voters before their candidates are listed.

The Socialist and Prohibition parties have made inquiries as to procedure in this State.

MILK UNION DEFIES GANG

Prepare Bullet-Proof Fortress at Chicago to Combat Activities of Muscle Men

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Seated at his desk inside a Brownstone mansion which within six weeks has become a bullet-proof fortress, a rolypoly little man of 83 years today shouted defiance to gangsters and racketeers.

"Let 'em try to muscle in on us—just let 'em try," grinned "Uncle Steve" Sumner, who for 30 years has been secretary, treasurer and business agent of Chicago's milk wagon drivers' union.

He pointed to walls paneled with armor plate, to windows covered with heavy steel mesh screens, to peepholes where gun nuzzles fit.

This newly-equipped arsenal on Chicago's near West Side is the union's answer to gangsters' proposals to "take over" the organization, with its rich treasury and 7,200 members—"or else."

"If any hoodlums think they can gain control of this union, they'll have to move fast," declared "Uncle Steve," who acts as spy as a man of 50. "They talk about shooting it out—well, now we have our own place to shoot it out if there's to be any trouble."

The union's decision to defy racketeers by barricading its headquarters, Sumner said, was prompted by threats received less than two months ago.

"They offered us $100,000 to get out so they could levy tribute from our members," explained "Uncle Steve." "But we told them they had come to the wrong place."

Seeks Nomination for Lt.-Gov. With Full Support of the Republican Party

Greensboro, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Storm clouds which have hovered over the Republican party of North Carolina, threatening to wet at least a section of it, had blown away, leaders said, and the family is happy and dry today.

Boone D. Tillett, of Charlotte, candidate of the party for lieutenant-governor, issued a statement here following a conference with James S. Duncan, state chairman, asserting he was committed to the state party's plank pledging itself "to the retention and strict enforcement of the 18th amendment and all laws enacted for its enforcement."

Tillett said, "Unfortunately my (Continued on page six)

HALT WORSHIP, LAND IN JAIL

Two Negro Youths and Girl Arrested for Disturbing Religious Service

Three negroes, two boys and a girl, were being held in the city jail here today charged with disturbing religious worship at a colored church here during the week.

They are J. B. Jones, Charlie Hardee and Mary Moore.

Charges were preferred by officers of the church following a fight started by the girl while religious worship was in progress.

The girl, becoming incensed with a member of the church, was said to have hit him on the head with a bottle, inflicting painful but not necessarily serious injuries.

At this juncture, Jones and Hardee were reported to have stepped in and completed the work the girl failed to do to their satisfaction.

Pandemonium reigned throughout the congregation for a time but after quiet had been restored worship was continued as usual. Members of the congregation apprised police of the interruption, a warrant was issued, and within a comparatively short time the three found themselves behind the bars.

They will be given preliminary hearing before Mayor R. C. Flanagan in the regular session of police court Saturday morning.

Man Fined For Beating Wife

Durham, Aug. 11.—(AP)—W. A. James believes in sartorial correctness so when his wife and daughter started to church without hats, he beat his wife with a broom.

In court, James said he struck his wife after she had hit him but remarked she lacked propriety for attempting to go to church without wearing a hat.

Judge J. R. Patton Jr., thought James lacked propriety in striking his wife, however, and fined him $25.

Democrats and Republicans Erase Factional Differences During Week

Raleigh, Aug. 11.—(AP)—North Carolina Democrats today were mad only at Republicans and the Republicans were mad only at the Democrats.

Factional friction in the ranks of both parties had been replaced by a state of "brotherly love" pending the November 8 elections. The preliminaries were over and the main bout was ready to start.

STRIKERS GO BACK TO WORK

Three Hundred Men Resume Operation Following Agreement on Wages

Mount Airy, N. C., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Approximately 300 workers at the Mount Airy Mantel and Table Company abandoned their three weeks' old strike here today and went back to work following a wage agreement between mill officials and the idle employees.

The workers quit July 22 after, they said, their wages had been cut approximately 50 per cent in the last eighteen months. An additional cut precipitated the strike, and it was restoration of a wage affected by the last cut that brought the men back to work today.

No official announcement was made, but George O. Graves, president of the mill, and John L. Johnson, strike leader, said an agreement had been reached and it was understood the last cut had been eliminated.

Meanwhile, two more furniture plants that closed shortly after the mantel and table workers struck resumed operations today, and several more announced a return to work Monday.

Officials of the other mills said inadequate orders forced the temporary shutdown, but that work now would be resumed, presumably because orders having been received.

HITLER GAINS MORE GROUND

Shadows of Rising Fascism Cast Chill Over Germany on Republic's Birthday

By W. E. BROCKMANN (Associated Press Staff Writer)
Berlin, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Shadows of rising Fascism and resurgent ghosts of the monarchy of the Kaisers cast a chill today over the thirteenth birthday of the German republic.

Everywhere there was talk of Adolf Hitler, former Austrian paper-hanger, who seemed assured of heading the next government under the Swastika emblem of his Fascist following.

But huddled indoors barred from the streets, gathered the Republican groups, holding their anniversary exercises under the guise of party meetings. Forbidden openly to rejoice at the republic's founding or to hail it with a "hooray!"

In many smaller towns all observance of the republic's anniversary were forbidden.

The Republican press was bitter in its comment on the turn affairs had taken.

"Ridiculed, cursed and maligned," said the powerful Liberal paper, Berliner Tageblatt, "that the thirteenth birthday celebration of the founding of the constitution."

BUYING WAVE FAILS TO HOLD

Selling Develops Considerable Volume During Afternoon Hours; Sharp Opening Advance in Cotton Boosts Sentiment in Wall Street in Spite of Loss Registered During Closing Hours

New York, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Stocks continued to rush forward on the New York Stock Exchange today, gains ranging from $1 to $3 a share in a wide number of securities, but wearing of bullish stimulation and turned emphatically downward during the afternoon.

Successful buying waves, first in the rails, then in the farm implements, failed to keep the bull movement rolling, in face of the growing conviction in trading quarters that the advance had been going too fast, and that the list was over-ripe for a technical reaction.

Trading was quieter on the decline at first, but selling developed considerable volume as the session went into the fourth hour.

The market's belated short interest which yesterday was thrown back hard was driven still harder against the wall.

A sharp opening advance of cotton which moved up another $1.25 a bale, helped sentiment in Wall street. Other encouraging factors were the government crop report on wheat and continued reports that the United States and Soviet Russia were gradually getting to a point of understanding where trade flow between the two countries might soon be resumed.

Halifax Man New Head of Commissioners

Wrightsville Beach, N. C., Aug. 11.—(AP)—North Carolina Association of County Commissioners and of County Accountants closed their annual conventions here today after electing officers and choosing Wrightsville Beach as the 1933 meeting place.

J. W. Whitaker, of Halifax County, was elected president of the commissioners and John A. Orrell, of New Hanover County, was re-elected president of the accountants.

For the commissioners, A. L. Payne, of Forsyth, was elected vice-president, and J. L. Skinner, of Warren, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

W. J. Boykin, of Wilson, was re-elected vice-president of the accountants and Willis Booth, of Guilford, was named secretary-treasurer.

Idle Workmen Insist They Are Not On Strike

Winston-Salem, N. C., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Approximately one hundred workers at the E. F. Huntley Furniture Company's plant failed to report for work today although they insisted they were not on strike.

Sitting under shade trees on lawns near the plant, the employees said they were waiting perfection of an organization to ask the factory owners to remove a 30 per cent pay cut they said was instituted several months ago.

The idle workers said this reduction in pay was the second of a like amount coming in about a year.

J. S. Lynch, president of the company, said about 25 per cent of the force of 400 failed to show up for work today. Employees estimated only forty-five to fifty men were working, however.

Following a conference with Winston-Salem union leaders, the workers said, "everything is left in the hands of the union heads."

They said they would countenance no disorders.

Motorcycle officers, however, patrolled the district.

It is stated that the store will remain open evenings until 9 o'clock.

BARBECUE IN HONOR OF MOSBY WOODSON

Glasgow, Ky., Aug. 4.—The dying rays of yesterday's setting sun fell upon a distinguished assembly of Glasgow's male population which had gathered on the emerald slopes of Dan Smiley's farm to bid "bon voyage" to Mr. Mosby Woodson, who leaves tomorrow for Dixie-land where he will be married on August ninth in Richmond, Virginia, to Miss Ada Hill, of South Boston, Va.

As the guests gathered about the tables, groaning under the weight of deliciously barbecued goat, ham and chicken, over fifty mellifluous voices vibrated through the hills in rhythmic harmony, as they saluted the guest of honor with the plaintive strains of "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," while over fifty brimming glasses clicked in the air as they drank a toast to this popular and impregnable bachelor who ran the gauntlet of Kentucky beauties unscathed, but succumbed to the charms of one of Virginia's daughters.

The ceremonies lasted far into the night, as the Bachelor order reluctantly relinquished their claim on the member who had been in their midst for countless years, while at home many a fair damsel flutteringly buried memories of the glamorous days when this Romeo was in his prime.—(Glasgow, Ky., News.)

Rin Tin Tin, Famous Movie Dog, Is Dead

Hollywood, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The famous German police dog actor, Rin Tin Tin, credited with saving Warner Brothers from possible bankruptcy before that movie concern gave the world talking pictures, is dead after more than 13 years in the films.

Popular the world over among movie goers, the clever animal star which earned a fortune in his career, died at the home of his owner and trainer, Lee Duncan, in nearby Woodland.

Death apparently resulted from the infirmities of age. Rin Tin Tin was 14 years old, aged for a dog.

Mascot Pictures announced Rin Tin Tin Jr. will immediately step into his father's tracks, starting in a few days on a picture which was to have starred the elder dog.

Rin Tin Tin was in several pictures for Warners in the silent film days. His popularity is credited, in large measure, with having bridged Warners over serious financial difficulties which befell them just before they bought Vitaphone and gave the world its first talking pictures.

No estimate was available on the lifetime earnings of the remarkable canine thespian but the total is believed to have been around $300,000.

He has appeared on the stage, and his bark has been heard by radio in programs advertising a dog food.

The body was buried privately at the hear of the Duncan home.

John Gilbert Is Married Again

Hollywood, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The film cameras were still grinding on the studio lot at 5:45 p. m. yesterday, before one of them stood Virginia Bruce, an actress, portraying the part of a crippled trader's daughter in a picture of African life. She was in rags and her face was stained.

John Gilbert walked onto the set and interrupted the scene.

"We're going to married at 6 o'clock," he calmly announced.

"Oh, John," Miss Bruce began. "Six o'clock," Gilbert cut in. "But there's so much to be done."

"Six o'clock. My bungalow. Be there."

In this manner did Gilbert, the screen's "great lover," set the stage for his wedding last night to Miss Bruce. And Miss Bruce was there in fifteen minutes, all washed and dressed in bridal apparel, establishing some sort of a record for speed, if true the press agents said was true.

The wedding ceremony was performed shortly after 6 o'clock. The bride was given away by her father, Earl Frederick Briggs. Irving Thalberg, producer, was best man. Mrs. Donald Ogden Stewart, wife of the writer, was matron of honor.

The marriage was Gilbert's fourth, his divorce from his third wife, Ina Claire, actress, having become final last Saturday.

(By The Associated Press)

Steuenville, Va.—The fire might have put out the fire at Dean Cunningham's riding stables near here if they had only had the authority. They couldn't find their chief or the safety director, and when the mayor finally told them it was O. K. to go outside the city limits, it was 45 minutes too late.

Little Rock, Ark.—Said Mrs. Hattie W. Caraway, renominated in a walk-away contest as Democratic candidate for the United States Senate: "An ounce of common-sense is worth several pages of the Congressional Record."

Joliet, Ill.—Prisoners at the penitentiary are going to have a field day Saturday—running, jumping and that sort of thing. Athletics are being developed to occupy inmates for whom employment is slack.

Boston.—Orlando Steinolo, at the age of hour, has developed an alarming propensity for fawing down and going boom. They picked him out of the yard yesterday after he had fallen twenty-eight feet from a second story window. He was only scratched. It's the fourth time he had fallen from the same window. Orlando enjoys a good cat and dog fight, and is prone to tumble out the window in the excitement.

Belle Glade, Fla.—Tear gassing the nematodes—those tiny organisms responsible for root knot, a disease affecting vegetables, sugar cane and pineapples—is being tried out here. The tear gas is injected into the soil, and is said to make the nematodes very discouraged.

Lexington, N. C.—(AP)—O. J. Peacock, Lexington plumbing and heating contractor, instituted suit for $4,000 against A. H. Galloway, of Winston-Salem who, he said, had him "shadowed" in connection with the jewel robbery of the Galloway home last year.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't talk for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Landis Probes Gambling Charge Against Cubs

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(AP)—A special dispatch to the Chicago Daily News from Pittsburgh today said that Baseball Commissioner Kene saw Mountain Landis had opened a sweeping investigation of charges that several members of the Chicago Cubs, including pitcher Guy Bush, had been gambling on the horses during the managerial regime of Rogers Hornsby.

Commissioner Landis, the dispatch said, went to Pittsburgh today to open the inquiry as the Cubs arrived for their first place battle with the Pirates. He refused to discuss the investigation, the dispatch added, but told reporters to "draw your own conclusions."

Youth On Trial On Robbery and Slaying Charge

Morganton, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The trial of Alvin Eller, Valdese youth, charged with participation in the robbery-slaying of Gus Bounous at Valdese several months ago, continued today with completion of evidence expected by tomorrow.

Bounous, a grocer, was shot and fatally wounded just outside his home by persons who robbed him of a large sum of money. The slaying was something of a mystery at first but later Eller was arrested in California.

There he is alleged to have confessed taking part in the affair but officers said he named Dwight Beard as the actual killer. Beard has not been apprehended.

Chief J. P. Soffey testified Eller confessed to him as the two were returning here from California and he quoted Eller as saying he received part of the stolen money. Little of the testimony was allowed in the record, however, as counsel debated the competency of the confession.

Mrs. Bounous testified she heard her husband drive into the yard at their home the night of the shooting, that she heard voices and then a shot. She said she ran out to meet Bounous who was holding his stomach. He died three days later.

Other witnesses said Eller had remarked Bounous would be an easy man "to get" and that he had said the days of the shooting he had a "job to pull" and that it would "be in the papers tomorrow."

Dr. George W. Lay Critically Sick, Carried to Duke

Chapel Hill, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Dr. George W. Lay, 72, former rector of St. Mary's School at Raleigh, was removed from his home here to Duke Hospital at Durham today, critically ill.

Dr. Lay has been in declining health for several months.

MILLS WILL RUN DAY AND NIGHT

Hickory, N. C., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Officials of the Warlick Manufacturing Company's rayon mill here announced today full time operations, both day and night, will be resumed "within the next few days."

The plant has been running on half-time schedule for several months, but a contract for 1,500,000 yards from a Northern concern gave the needed impetus to start full operations again.

Reduced 30 Pounds Never Felt Better

Safe Way to Lose Fat

Take the case of Mrs. Madeleine Crowley, for instance, who lives in Little Rock, Ark. Just read her letter:

"I have used Kruschen Salts for one year—when I started I weighed 140 pounds—now I weigh 110 pounds and never felt better in my life."

That's the big reason a host of men and women take Kruschen to lose weight—as fat goes you gain in health—skin clears—eyes grow bright—activity replaces in-dolence.

Take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—cut down on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets—a jar of Kruschen that costs but a trifle lasts 4 weeks—get it at Pitt Drug Co. or any drugstore in the world—but for your health's sake demand and get Kruschen Salts.—(Adv.)

Asheville, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Three well known court reporters have been taxed to their ability recording testimony in the government's suit against Appalachian Coals, Inc. here for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The reporters are George L. Hart, Fred A. Canon and Gregor McPherson. They work in 10-minute shifts, dictating on phonograph records in their intervals. They record about 50,000 words a day in the suit now drawing to a close.

Hart reported the "front porch" campaign of President Warren G. Harding in 1920; Canon reported the arbitration proceedings of the German-American mixed claims commission in Holland last year.

ABOUT TOWN

Republican campaign forces plan to invade the east sometime soon with the intention of using the prohibition question in their attack on the Democrats.

It was natural to assume that prohibition would be the principal point of attack, but they will require some time in convincing the public that they are dryer than the Democratic party, although the latter recently adopted a repeal platform in the face of the Republican submission plank.

It is not such a long cry from remission to repeal. Both mean that the question will have to be placed before the people for vote and that the great mass of American people will have their say in the matter.

The Republicans are attempting to sidetrack the economic situation through emphasizing prohibition, but this effort most assuredly will meet with the most abject failure. It will be difficult to make American people forget the crisis through which they have passed the last two years and the political party that accomplishes this task will be going home.

Starving men and women certainly take precedence over a question involving whether the nation is going to have legalized sale of whiskey sometime in the indefinite future, and the Republicans might as well make up their minds to this fact before they consume too much time ballyhooing how wet the Democratic party is.

Harmony has been established in the political ranks of North Carolina and when the campaign opens sometime in September the Democratic will be in position to wage a concerted drive against the Republicans.

The slight rift reported over the selection of a state chairman was dissipated in the actual choosing of the officer the first of the week and it is generally conceded that all obstacles have been removed.

Democrats everywhere have the best chance of coming out with colors flying this year than ever before and if they will stand together and fight the Republicans on the economic question there is little doubt that they will fall. This question is one in which the entire nation is deeply concerned and it is the best talking point the Democrats have had in many a day.

There is no need for inharmonious North Carolina where Democracy has been supreme for many a day and forces having an axe to grind should stay off the scene until after the November election and in that way give the party a chance to gain ascendancy.

It will not be long now before schools of the county will be going full blast, and parents should be turning their attention to the important business of getting their children in good physical trim for activities of the schoolroom.

The health department recently called upon the parents to help par up remaining cases of whooping cough by reporting any sickness of this kind. The action, it was believed, would prevent the possibility of an epidemic when school gets under way causing loss of time not only for the ones involved but probably scores of others coming in contact with those affected.

Children entering school for the first time this year should also be taken through the usual gruelling examination before beginning arduous studies of the schoolroom. Slight physical defects should be remedied before school begins. This gives the student greater opportunity to take advantage of his schooling and to make every day of the school count for his improvement.

This business of going to school is a serious matter and it should be the purpose of every parent to see that children enter school in the best physical trim and prepare themselves for the gruelling test which life holds for them in the field of business and industry. Co-operation has been particularly gratifying in recent years and

The Faithful

Cheat

By Ruby M. Ayres

SYNOPSIS: Sondra Kent and John Anderson are at the seashore, where she is staying to regain her health. They are in love, but John maintains a cool attitude, in loyalty to Sondra's marriage to Mark Meriman. Sondra has regretted her sudden, secret marriage, occurring before Mark left for the Congo.

Chapter 25 "HE'S DROWNING" Anderson started "his feet. "Help... help..." Sondra screamed. He's drowning... John... But he had gone already... was dashing down to the water's edge, tearing off his coat as he went, and she saw him splashing through the water, wading until he was out of his depth, and then swimming strongly.

To Sondra's agonized eyes it was a nightmare of unreality—the smooth sea, hardly broken by a ripple, the radiant light of the setting sun, and that lonely struggling figure, so far beyond reach it seemed.

She looked back desperately for help, but the long sun-bathed sands were deserted, and behind her the beach stretched forbidding and empty.

Hardly knowing what she did, she waded into sea, and as if sensing her intention Anderson turned his head and shouted to her to go back. There was a heavy ground swell in spite of the unbroken surface, and Sondra's skirt hampered her, making it difficult to keep her feet as the water rushed up the flat golden sand, and swirled giddily back again.

The dazzling sunlight half blinded her as she struggled forward; the golden glory of the evening made the sudden tragic happening more horrible than it would have been in worse weather; there was something appalling in the knowledge that perhaps a life was being lost so needlessly when the surrounding world was so beautiful.

Sondra felt that she would go mad with a sense of her own impotence; subconsciously she could hear an agonized voice crying out Anderson's name "John... John..." not realizing that it was her own.

Then as suddenly as the tragedy had come about it ended—and Anderson was back on the sands beside her with the half-drowned terrified boy choking and spluttering at his feet.

Anderson gave one glance at Sondra's white agonized face. "It's all right," he said briefly. "The boy could have got back quite easily if he hadn't lost his nerve—" he stooped over the lad at his feet. "All right now, sonny?" He waited till the boy was on his feet, again trembling and white but trying to smile.

"Where do you live?" "That way," the boy said, pointing. "Well, we go that way too; we'll go along together."

He took the boy's arm in a kindly grasp to help him along, and Sondra silently followed.

Her knees were trembling and she could hardly see; there was only one thought in her mind. "Supposing John had been drowned."

She looked at him with tragic eyes. The water was dripping off him leaving little pools on the dry sand, but he was quite calm and unmoved, quietly talking to the boy.

"You shouldn't go out so far if you're not a good swimmer. There's always a strong current round these coasts—you'll know better another time, won't you?"

It seemed an endless way, but finally the boy stopped. "I go this way, sir."

"Very well—do you feel all right?" "Yes, sir—"

They watched him scuttle away out of sight like a scared rabbit, too frightened even to remember to say thank you.

Anderson glanced down at his sodden clothes. "Well, I've ruined my suit after all," he said comically.

Sondra made no reply; she was biting her lip to keep from trembling. She felt as if something within her heart was breaking—as if presently she would have to give way to the tears that were choking her.

Anderson saw the pallor of her face.

STATE Now-A Hilarious comedy "BACHELOR'S AFFAIRS"

the early collapse of the revolutionary movement in Madrid.

During the night dozens of army officers who followed San Jurjo disguised themselves in civilian clothes and began to steal out of the city.

After the white flag was run up on the government buildings a rebel delegation approached government officials declaring they had been misled by San Jurjo and wished to surrender.

Meantime the general himself escaped in an automobile, accompanied by a few lieutenants. A hot chase was begun immediately and orders were issued closing the frontiers of the province to trap them.

Throng of Seville citizens crowded through the streets shortly before noon today and began an organized assault upon the homes of monarchists, burning, smashing in windows and destroying furniture.

Carrying banners on which were the words "Down with San Jurjo!" the marchers set afire the Marques Desquivel Hotel and the jail. Communists and syndicalists held in jail for political reasons were freed by the surging crowd and paraded through the streets.

Governor Valera ordered the arrest of all civil guard officers found guilty of "disloyalty to the republic." He said they would be tried by a summary courtmartial.

(Continued from page one) Clarke thought I planned to commit suicide, and told me the way to go about it was to do it in a big way. He said a pistol was the best method," Lavender said.

The description of Clarke's habits followed completion, for the time at any rate, of examination of Captain Lancaster, and injection into the case of the attitude of the spectators and one state witness.

Judge H. F. Atkinson ordered the jury from the courtroom while he delivered a warning against any further demonstrations. His comment was the result of applause and laughter yesterday when James M. Carson, chief of defense counsel, apparently won a verbal tilt with State's Attorney N. Vernon Hawthorne.

Hawthorne at that time referred to a statement by Lancaster that some of the letters from Clarke and Mrs. Keith-Miller to him had disappeared.

"The state has been accused of concealing those letters," the prosecutor said. "The state has never seen them."

"The defense has made no accusation," Carson retorted, "but does the state wish to plead not guilty anyway?"

It required a threat by the judge to clear the courtroom to restore order.

J. P. Moe, Deputy United States Marshal, testified that M. G. Tancrel, State witness, had threatened to kill Lancaster if they were placed in the same cell.

The conversation took place, Moe said, while Tancrel was in Federal custody on a charge of impersonating a naval officer. Tancrel and Lancaster were associates in an unsuccessful aviation venture in the West.

"I'll do everything I can to see that Lancaster burns," Moe quoted

Tancrel as saying.

Tancrel testified several days ago that Lancaster threatened to "get rid" of Clarke when he heard rumors that Clarke had replaced him in affections of Mrs. Keith-Miller. Lancaster on the witness stand denied making the threats and Tancrel denied he held any animosity against Lancaster.

TILLET WILL STAY IN RACE (Continued from page one) remarks to a newspaper reporter were misunderstood. In fact, when I was talking to him I did not expect to be quoted but promised to send him a formal statement setting forth my views in detail.

"It occurs to me," he said, "that a hostile press is attempting to destroy my remarks in order to produce dissension in our ranks."

Duncan referred to the affair as "a tempest in a teapot" and said, "Mr. Tillett will conduct an active campaign. I am sure he will dispel any misunderstanding due to an erroneous report in the newspapers."

S. C. STAGES LEAF FESTIVAL (Continued from page one) be a welcoming address by F. A. Thompson, former member of the House from Marion County.

Other speakers on the program included Senator Emerson, of Williamsburg County; Solicitor G. Lloyd Ford; Congressman A. H. Gasque, his opponent in the Democratic primary; E. C. S. Baker, and Dr. Gaermer, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, who will discuss tobacco culture; H. E. Yarboro, J. C. Hooks, J. I. Allen, and C. W. Riddick, all of Mullins.

A band was on hand from Fort Bragg army reservation near Fayetteville, N. C., and an orchestra will play at the ball to be held in a huge tobacco warehouse. The festival's queen, whose name has been kept secret, will be crowned there.

A baseball game furnished the afternoons entertainment, Laurinburg, N. C., and Rowland, N. C., crossing bats for the festival championship.

MAN INJURED IN EXPLOSION (Continued from page one) Neither part of the machine had been recovered today, and it was impossible for workmen to determine the cause of the explosion.

It was believed, however, that the top of the machine had become loose and when the air was cut on, failed to stand the pressure.

Conway was rushed to the local hospital for medical attention, and while his injuries were considered painful, they are not necessarily serious.
