Roosevelt Hears Former Assistant To Seabury In Probe In Walker Case

HUGE FUND IS UNDER FIRE

Jacob Schurman, who conducted investigation into Walker's financial affairs, informs Committee of Finding Missing Accountant who Handled $1,000,000 For Mayor.

Executive Chamber, Albany, N. Y., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Attempting to counteract the charge in the ouster proceedings against Mayor James J. Walker that the mayor made no effort to bring the missing accountant, Russell T. Sherwood, back for questioning, John J. Curtin today brought out that Mr. Walker's assistance was not sought by the Hofstadter committee.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 17.—(AP)—A former assistant to Samuel Seabury, testifying at today's session of the Walker ouster hearing, said Charles Kerrigan, aid to Mayor Walker, told him "I know the mayor did not expect you to find Sherwood." Russell T. Sherwood, missing accountant, handled $1,000,000 for Mr. Walker, Seabury, counsel to the Hofstadter committee, holds.

His conversation with Kerrigan, he explained, was a few days before a subpoena was issued for Sherwood. Mr. Walker was in Europe at that time (Aug. 1931).

On cross-examination, John J. Curtin, chief legal adviser to Mr. Walker, introduced a record of the New York City Police Department, which that Schurman advised the department to hold up serving the subpoena on Sherwood who had been located in Atlantic City in September.

"No application for an order for Sherwood was ever made while he was in Atlantic City, was there?" Curtin asked.

"No, because he disappeared from there," replied Schurman.

One of the reasons advanced for Walker's removal is that he failed to aid in finding Sherwood. Curtin's cross examination was pointed to develop that Mr. Walker's aid was not sought.

One Man Killed In Attempt To Rob Gas Station

Milledgeville, Ga., Aug. 17.—(AP)—One man was killed and another critically wounded near here early today as Ernest Roberts frustrated what he reported as an attempt to rob his filling station.

One bandit, Roberts told Sheriff W. J. Haynie later, he shot through the chest at close range, and the other he beat into unconsciousness with the butt end of his pistol. The body of the man who was shot was found nearby. The injured man was carried to a hospital where physicians said he had a fractured skull.

The sheriff said he suspected the men of being brothers, escaped from a Kentucky prison. The car they drove had a Virginia license plate.

Raleigh, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The Raleigh Times today says members of the 1933 Legislature from Eastern North Carolina counties may seek to have the state take over debt service incurred by counties for schools and roads—or for roads at least.

The Times says that Angus D. MacLean of Beaufort, leader of the fight which resulted in the state taking over the schools in 1931, has denied he has said the state should take over the debt service for the schools but did say:

FREE WOMEN IN SLAYING

Eccentric Sisters Return to Bizarre Life in Mississippi Home After Trial.

Natchez, Miss., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Richard Dana and Miss Octavia Dockery, eccentrics whose experiences have been as turbulent as the Mississippi River which rolls near their "goat castle," have returned to the squalor and musty grandeur of their manor to patch the tangled threads of their bizarre lives.

Suspicion for the murder of Jane Merrill, spinster of gentle blood, has been shifted from them to a negro who was killed last week at Pine Bluff, Ark., and whose body was found in the Merrill mansion, the Merrill murder mystery probably will be solved, authorities say.

But the strange Dana - Dockery partnership, dragged before the public gaze when the pair was arrested (Continued on Page Four)

By the Associated Press
Prices held up on the South Carolina tobacco auction markets under continued heavy offerings today.

There was no change from yesterday's opening day prices in the early sales this morning.

Primings continued to constitute the major part of the offerings on most markets and were selling from 50 to 75 per cent higher than a year ago. Better grades were little changed from the 1932 prices.

Most growers seemed satisfied with the prices, but there was some tag turning at Darlington, S. C., where early sales were at an average of around 8 1-2 cents a pound.

Dillon, S. C., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Approximately 50,000 pounds of tobacco was offered here today, with prices averaging around an estimated 10 1-4 cents per pound.

Kingsree, S. C., Aug. 17.—(AP)—With offerings slightly less than the 150,000 pounds of opening day, prices here today apparently averaged about the same, 8 1-2 cents per pound.

Darlington, S. C., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Growers continued dissatisfied here today as tobacco prices failed to rise from the 8 1-2 cents of opening day.

Florence, S. C., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Spurred by one of the heaviest opening day sales in recent years, tobacco growers of Eastern South Carolina and border North Carolina counties offered hundreds of thousands of pounds of the golden weed on markets today.

Sales were blocked yesterday in many warehouses in the 14 market towns of the belt. Warehousemen stayed until late at night checking sales.

Prices paid for inferior grades were superior to those of last year—averaging from 20 to 30 per cent better. Farmers, however, were openly disappointed at prices paid for medium and better types.

The United States Department of Agriculture, which had observers at the Darlington and Pamlico markets, said:

"In comparison with the 1931 averages the better grades of lugs averaged somewhat lower. Medium quality lugs X3 averaged six per cent higher and fair quality lugs X4 averaged 31 per cent higher. Common quality lugs X3 averaged 76 per cent higher."

On most markets the average price ranged from seven and one-half to 11 cents.

Lumberton, N. C., reported sales of 306,922 pounds at an average of $10.89 a hundred pounds. This was the best average since 1929.

ABOUT

Although widespread disappointment was expressed over prices paid at the opening of the border bells yesterday tobacco growers of this section are hopeful the situation will be more favorable here.

The gain registered at the opening of the South Carolina markets yesterday was on lower grades of tobacco. This was partially gratifying in view of the fact that the major part of the crop is of an inferior nature. Prices for what little good tobacco was offered were reported as similar to last year.

With this section almost dependent upon tobacco revenue, prices for the product are of particular interest to the people who realize that another year like last year would prove disastrous to the industry.

For this reason it is hoped the price situation will reflect constant improvement and enable the growers to at least recover in part from some of the financial embarrassment experienced the last several years.

The city extends a cordial welcome to the State Colored Firemen's Association gathered here in annual convention this week.

This is an organization that is rendering splendid service to the various cities which it serves, and is destined to render a more distinct account of itself as it continues to draw the attention of those interested in protection of public property.

The Greenville volunteer firemen are proud of the opportunity to entertain their friends from surrounding cities and more remote parts of the state and hope were expressed that every minute would be filled with pleasure and profit for the two hundred in attendance.

It is impossible to estimate the service which volunteer firemen render to their communities. They are eternally on the lookout for a chance to give the best in themselves for the preservation of life and property and have been instrumental in the saving of millions of dollars worth of property in recent years.

Greenville is firmly behind the effort of the volunteers to cut down property loss each year, and will continue to encourage the colored men in their effort to render this special service to the communities which they represent with such zeal and pride.

President Hoover might put off flashing until after the election when, if signs count for anything, he will not have the responsibility of government resting upon his shoulders and will have more time for diversion.

The President's ambition to inject new life into business by "contacting" the men with the money is not expected to get results. The boys with the money are too much concerned with sitting on their bags of gold to join in a campaign looking to the rehabilitation of the nation.

Mr. Hoover is exerting every effort to get himself out of the jam caused largely through his inability to give the country the prosperity which he promised so long ago and is counting on the boys he has made overtures to to help him out of the hole.

The Faithful
Cheat
By Ruby M. Ayres

SYNOPSIS: Sondra Kent meets her sister Flora for the first time since Sondra has made public her marriage to Mark Merriman. Mark has returned home ill, and Sondra has not told him that while he was away she realized the marriage was a mistake, and that she loved John Anderson.

Chapter 33
A ROMANTIC COUPLE
"Yes...you little fool, Sondra," Flora said. "I know you're married."

The hot blood rushed to Sondra's face.
"What do you mean?...?" she asked angrily. "I thought you of all people would approve of a romantic love match."

"Love match!" Flora shrugged her shoulders. "You don't love Mark any more than I love Ben, and yet..." she paused a moment, then added half defiantly: "I'm going back to him."

"Going—back to him?"
"Yes—" Flora took off her hat and tossed it aside. "I'm sick of poverty and independence," she said in a hard voice. "Wait till you've tried it for a month or two with Mark, and you'll hate it as much as I do. We're not meant to be the wives of poor men, Sondra.
Patrick was right."

Sondra was staring at her with wide eyes; she had thought a great deal about her sister lately—thought of her with admiration, and now—after all, she was going back to Ben.
"You needn't stare like that," Flora said calmly. "You ought to be glad. It will make things better for you. I suppose you haven't any money, as you're living in this awful place...Sondra, why in heaven's name did you marry Mark Merriman?"

"I don't know."
"You're not going to tell me you care for him?" Sondra winced. "Yes...in a way I do... I married him anyway."

"And John Anderson?"
Sondra was silent and Flora said in a hard voice.
"I've learned a lot since I waved the flag of independence in Ben's face, and in a way I'm glad... she laughed. "Because now I'm quite willing to go back to feather-bed luxury."

"And Ben?" Sondra asked blankly.
"I wrote to him at his bankers and they sent it on to him—he's still away. He sent me a cable, and he's on his way home."

"He wants you back?" Flora's lip curled. "I believe he'd take me if I'd committed every sin in the Bible."

"And—Jocelyn?"
For a moment a look of pain crossed Flora's face, then she laughed again. "That's all over...
He wouldn't have me. I don't believe in love any more. Money's the only thing worth having in life, I've come to that conclusion."

She looked round the unpretensious little room.
"John is going to find him a job?
I call that very noble of him," Flora said cynically.

"John is kind," Sondra said. "He —" she broke off, conscious of the betrayal in her voice. She stood twisting her hands together.
There was an eloquent silence, then Flora said—
"John is in love with him... your poor kid." For the first time there was a touch of genuine emotion in her voice.

"I'm not in love with him"—Sondra said defiantly. "I'm like you...
I don't believe in love."

"And now we're both lying," Flora said. She laughed. "I wonder what will become of us, Sondra?"

She got up suddenly and crossing the room, laid both hands on her sister's shoulders. "Look at me," she said.

Sondra raised her eyes slowly.
"And some day you'll run away—as I did," Flora said. "Only unlike me, you'll have someone to run to—someone who won't send you away."

YANKS TAKE
DOUBLE BILL
FROM TIGERS

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
On wings of a nine-game winning streak, the New York Yankees have soared into their longest America league lead of the season and nothing short of a miracle, it seems, can prevent them from capturing the flag.

A double triumph over the Detroit Tigers yesterday boosted the Yankees' advantage to 10-1-2 games over the Cleveland Indians and Philadelphia Athletics who were virtually tied for second place although the Indians had a slight edge in percentage.

Thanks to some lusty clouting by Tony Lazzeri, Bill Dickey and Joe Sewell, the Yankees staggered thru to win the first game, 13-8 although Danny MacFayden was driven from the box in the eighth inning. Johnny Allen hung up his third victory of the Yankees' current winning streak in the nightcap, 7-3, allowing the Tigers only six hits.

Glenn Myatt's homer with one on in the fifth, enabled Cleveland to beat the Athletics, 3-2, in an exciting pitching duel between Mel Harder and George Earnshaw.
Mule Haas put the A's within one of a tie when he clouted a homer with one on in the eighth but Harder applied the brakes.

Washington scored four runs in the eighth to beat Chicago, 5-3, while Walter Stewart turned in a seven-hit game to pitch the St.
Louis Browns to a victory over Boston, 3-2.

The National league program was marked by the temporary check of Brooklyn's high-powered Dodgers who fell before the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-0. This was a scoreless duel between Larry French and Bill Clark until the eighth when the Pirates fell on Clark for all their runs. The defeat dropped Brooklyn to a point one and one-half games behind the second place Pirates.

The Chicago Cubs retained their one-game lead over Pittsburgh by winning a sensational game from the Boston Braves, 4-3. The Braves drove Lon Warneke from the box in the eighth when they scored all their runs but the Cubs came back with four in the ninth to win. Dutch Brandt and allowed the Cubs only two hits up to that frame, but doubles by Herman, English and Cy-cler drove him to cover. His successor, Ben Cantwell, was solved for the winning runs.

The St. Louis Cardinals beat the Phillies, 3-2, as Paul Derringer had a slight edge over Flint Rhem in a pitcher's duel. Big Fred Fitzsimmons granted only four hits as the New York Giants nosed out Cincinnati, 2-1.

BEES STILL RUN UP LEAD
FOR PENNANT

Charlotte, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The falling Piedmont League, today hobbled along to its scheduled engagements, keeping one eye cocked for a decision from Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis on a protest against the action which made an orphan of the Winston-Salem club.

League directors protested the action of the New York Giants in withdrawing support from the Twins.

Judge Landis wired Winston officials to continue to operate pending his decision, and the Twins were to meet Durham at Winston-Salem tonight. Judge W. G. Bramham, league proxy, announced the circuit would remain intact, temporarily at least. There is a possibility the Twins may be changed to a road club.

The Giants have recalled nine players of the Winston-Salem club but agreed to leave the men there if permitted to withdraw support of the club and if assured the players would be turned over to the Giants in return for settlement of debts through August 15.

Support of the Giants was withdrawn when Piedmont League directors refused to change class rulings in order that the big league club could send a group of players here, left homeless when the Eastern League blew up.

A one-sided 9-2 victory last night over the Pats gave Charlotte a sweep of the series. Long Jim Lyle held Greensboro scoreless after the first inning. Nick Altrock, baseball's funny man, furnished a side show for spectators.

Raleigh stayed in the cellar when the best it could do was split a twin bill with Winston-Salem. Per-my blanked the Twins in the first game 4-0, but behind Durham's pitching, the Winstonites came back in the second encounter to win by the same score 4-0.

Durham waited until the ninth to break loose against Burns, on the ground for Wilmington. The storm

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or castor-oil and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.
For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.
If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels.
Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those gooey, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's

"I Had To Take Some Kind of a Laxative
Every Day." He Says

"I suffered with chronic constipation for twenty years. I finally reached the point where I had to take some kind of a laxative every day, but all they did was to purge me of my first and only lasting relief. They regulated my bowels perfectly. I don't believe there is another laxative like them in the world."—M. F. Harwood, to Lenox St., Rochester, N. Y.

"I No Longer Have To Dose Myself With Harsh Purgatives"

"For the first time in six years I don't have to dose myself with harsh purgatives. All my troubles with constipation, biliousness, nausea were ended by Sargon Pills. My skin has changed to a clear, healthy color. These pills are different from any other laxative I have ever used. I'll always bless the day I took a friend's advice and started taking them."—Mrs. A. B.
Trelax, 221 Lime Ave., Long Beach, Calif.

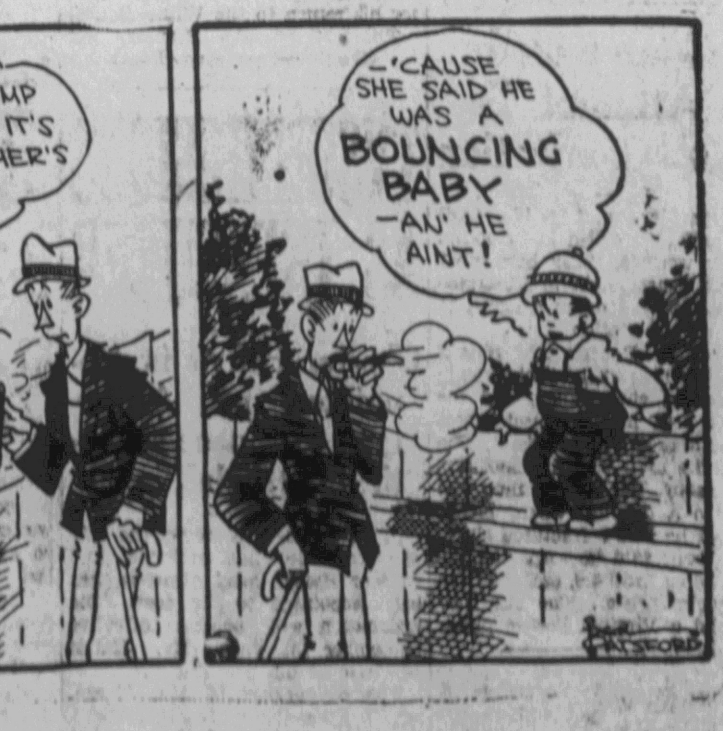

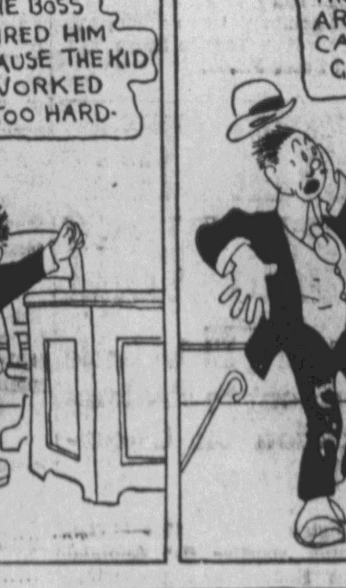

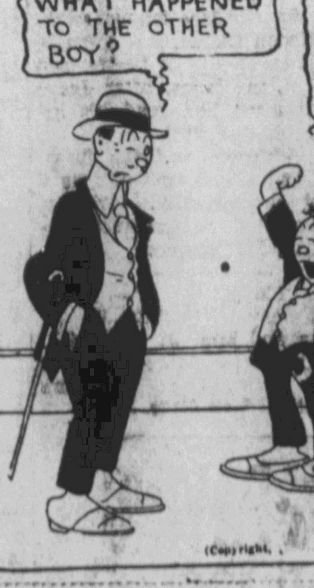

He Never Has

Of Any Description

Used Cathartics Almost Daily Before He Took Sargon Pills.
"More than ten years I suffered from constipation and an irritable, torpid liver.
I had to take some sort of laxative or cathartic almost every day. It has now been thirty days since I took Sargon Soft Mass Pills, and I no longer find it necessary to take pills or laxatives of any kind for I am perfectly regulated."— Thomas S. Matthews, 1641 Waco Street, my dreadful constipation.

Thanks to Sargon

Bailey Sought By S. C. Officers

Raleigh, Aug. 17.—(AP)—A petition of the State of South Carolina for a writ of certiorari through which it hopes to secure Ray Bailey for trial at Greenville, S. C., on a charge of murdering a policeman, was on file in the North Carolina Supreme court today.

The Palmetto state asks the Supreme court to review the habeas corpus proceedings at Sylva, N. C., in June in which Bailey was freed.

A warrant had been issued in South Carolina charging him with the murder of A. B. Hunt, Greenville officer. The day following the slaying of Hunt, Bailey was arrested in a Sylva hospital, recovering from gunshot wounds.

Rioting Continues In German Cities

Berlin, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Germany's new "speed" courts, authorized by the government to provide swift retribution for rioters, smashed at violence today, but the rioting went on.

A farm woman and two farmers were sentenced to three years at Breslau for heckling at a meeting of Hitler's National Socialists. At Brieg the court was forced to adjourn because of the heat, after hearing conflicting statements about a street fight between Nazis and Republicans.

Two Republicans at Rostock were sentenced to 19 months in jail for beating a Nazi.

In the meantime, two persons were wounded by police in a communist demonstration here which was one of a series of such affairs throughout the night. Scattered clashes kept the police on the run in Berlin. In the provinces sporadic fistfights in a number of places were squelched by local authorities.

A number of Nazi cafes were stoned and scores of members of opposing factions arrested.

Two policemen were fired on at Essen while they were searching the home of a communist for propaganda.

Agent Suleides North Wilkesboro—E. O. Craig, station agent for the Norfolk and Western railway at Bowie, Ashe county, killed himself with a shotgun.

Benton, Ky., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Riding a prancing steed up and down the aisles and knocking over the pulpit as well as the preacher, Bobby Thompson, 20, broke up a church meeting here last night and got himself locked up in jail on a charge of drinking too freely.

Witnesses said Thompson rode his horse right through the door, trotted through the aisles and dashed away. The church service was adjourned immediately and a posse caught Thompson a short distance away.

Woman Killed in Auto Accident

Rocky Mount, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Bertha Hinson, 25, of Roanoke Rapids, was instantly killed and C. C. Barnes, 45, of Warrenton, was probably fatally injured today when an automobile driven by Barnes crashed into a concrete bridge abutment north of here.

Barnes suffered compound fractures of both thighs, legs and arms, and internal injuries, and his condition was described as critical. His wife was en route here today. He is a district circulation representative of the Norfolk Ledger Dispatch, and had been married a year.

FREE WOMAN IN SLAYING (Continued from Page One) rested after a reported quarrel with "Miss Jennie" Merrill over the casual wanderings of their goats, will be subject for many stories to be told tourists who visit the river bluff country. And "goat castle," the proud Danas built it in Antebellum days, will be pointed out which was named Glenwood when as a mansion of mystery.

Dana, a scion of one of the South's most distinguished families whose dreams of being a great musician were shattered when his hand was injured, and Miss Conkery, daughter of a famous Confederate warrior, live a cloistered life there with goats and chickens. She is his guardian under the law.

It is a mansion of contrasts—marble and muck, rosewood furniture and debris, priceless canopied four-posted beds stand on crumbling floors. Dirt that accumulated when Natchez-Under-the-Hill was a famous river town is ankle deep in the great old halls where once gathered the gentry of the Mississippi to sip mint juleps.

Magazines, which were new before Richard Dana was born, litter the floor. Octavia Dockery cooked in a marble fireplace and built fires under the springs of stately beds to smoke goat meat.

The library has an invaluable collection, but dirty pots and pans lean grotesquely against such volumes as Comstock's "Minerology." The rosewood sofa is used as a roosting place for chickens now.

Glenwood has wide verandas and a saddle mount near the front steps. It is furnished with rosewood, mahogany and heavy walnut. Delicate china and fine linens rest in rooms which have been closed so long that their great shutters will no longer open. There are Doric pillars, ancient daguerotypes and gorgeous mirrors in the house, but goats tramp down the middle hall and beat their defiance at visitors.

The mansion was built in 1840. Nearby is the home of Miss Jennie Merrill—toast of the river land in the 80's. Her father was ambassador to Belgium and she had been presented to the crowned heads of Europe. Gen. U. S. Grant, was her father's friend. But she too led the life of a recluse. She was murdered August 4.

Prices Reported Holding Up in Face of Continued Heavy Offerings of Leaf (Continued from page one) higher per hundred pounds than the previous year, according to an official report of sales wired here today by Jennings Ragsdale, local tobaccoist, who is located at Fairmont. The total market sales were given as 596,000 at an average of $8.46, compared with $8.40 for the previous year.

Occupants of Burning Boat Rescued at Sea (Continued from Page One) Captain Edward O. Brev, owner of the boat, remained aboard half an hour after the others left, striving vainly to extinguish the flames which started in a switchboard and spread rapidly through the 110-foot craft.

Captain Brev, his wife, Hilda, and three members of the crew, Raymond Klein, William Burton and Frank Lamer, all of Cape May, were taken aboard the fisherman "Bob Jack" of Newport News, Va., commanded by Captain Herman Roberg, and exhausted after their night's ordeal, landed here this morning.

The Hilda Marie was formerly a coast guard patrol boat and had been used by Captain Brev for experimental work in locating fishing banks. He estimated its value at $40,000.

Says Leaf Prices Will Be Better in This Belt (Continued from page one) common tobacco showed a pronounced improvement over the previous year, and in view of the shortage of the crop in this belt, Mr. Sugg stated he firmly believed the price trend here would be still better.

The crop shortage in this immediate part of the state, Mr. Sugg declared, is the most pronounced in years, due largely to Blue Mold, drought and other elemental disturbances, and predictions of a fifty per cent crop have been made by leaders of the industry.

President Hoover summoned the leaders of both parties to the White House to ask that the publicity phase be omitted. A statement from the executive mansion explained the President favored "full publicity to all government activities" but that the then directors of the relief corporation advised the president of the danger that would result to the credit structure if this (publicity proviso) were insisted upon.

"The responsibility in the last analysis for whatever might happen must necessarily rest upon Congress," the statement said.

Trimble's brief recalls that many reports submitted to him are made public, such as those of campaign expenditures; that the House last session directed that its payrolls should be open. It concedes that the publicity clause is not retroactive but that any interpretation of the language in view of the intent of Congress is that the loans must be made public.

Unless the House clerk changes his mind or something else prevents, the public soon will have a peek at loans by the government to banks, railroads, insurance companies and other interests since July 21.

Farm Strike Nears Crisis (Continued from Page One) asking $2.17 per hundred pounds, compared with $1.70 offered by the distributors.

Sheriff John A. Davenport of Sioux City called for sixty special deputies to enforce the anti-blockade order, while Sheriff G. N. Slocum of Union county, Iowa, also marshalled their forces to escort through the picket lines all truckers who have thus far refused to make the attempts in the face of determined opposition from the farmers.

Members of the Milk Producers Association said their fight was not connected with the selling strike being waged by farmers in other parts of Iowa and nearby states but it was difficult to distinguish the movements since pickets have been barring the paths of all highway shipping.

Meanwhile at Des Moines representatives of midwestern states who attended a meeting to formulate plans for spreading the farm holiday movement of the National Farmers Holiday Association returned to their homes prepared to encourage the strike.

E. E. Kennedy of Kankakee, Ill., set out on a trip to Colorado and Kansas to assist in organizing state holiday associations.

In North Dakota progress was reported in the move to stop selling wheat until the price reaches $1.00 a bushel although leaders there said they were not definitely linked with the Iowa strike.

Flier's Trial Nears Close (Continued from Page One) steps to plan every detail of the murder of Haden Clarke." State Attorney N. Vernon Hawthorne told the jury today in a final demand for Lancaster's conviction.

The British flier is accused of killing the young writer as the culmination of a love triangle involving Mrs. Keith-Miller, Australian aviatrix and Lancaster's flying partner.

"This drama of love, hate, tragedy, chivalry, debauchery and crime would have been settled long ago," the prosecutor said, "had we not been operating with legal machinery that was antiquated 300 years ago."

He referred to Lancaster's love for Mrs. Keith-Miller. "Do you think, when Lancaster came back here and found Clarke and the woman in love, he slunk away like he says he did, and planned to leave?" demanded Hawthorne.

"No, he didn't. The male of our species will fight to the death for the female he loves; the male animal of the field will do the same; so will the male bird; and gentlemen, so did the war bird—the aviator sitting here before you."

That means in effect, it was said, the trade preferences offered the United Kingdom may be abrogated if the British do not find some way to guarantee empire products will not be undersold by the Russians. The whip apparently had changed hands and the British were represented as astounded at the daughter nations dictating to the motherland.

Well informed sources said today the British undoubtedly would not allow the conference to break up in discord but there were no attempts to hazard a guess as to the probable avenue of an accord. It might, they said, take the form of an agreement "in principle" of indefinite character.

Speed Relief to Storm Area (Continued from Page One) towns hardest hit, and dropped a note telling of the coming of a launch with water, milk and clothing.

The hurricane, which struck first at Galveston, did little damage there but wrought havoc in Brazoria county especially at West Columbia, Angleton and Freeport. Governor R. S. Sterling has offered the shattered towns all assistance "within the power of the state," and officials of the towns said they would request tents to shelter the homeless.

Local relief committees estimated more than 1,000 persons were without a means of livelihood and the number of homeless in Angleton and West Columbia alone were estimated to total 3,000. Most of those without means of subsistence were tenant farmers whose cotton and rice crops were destroyed.

The seriously injured exceeded 50. race of the convention will be staged Thursday. Cash awards will be made to the winners in each contest, and while these are not as large as recent years, due largely to the depression, the honor which they carry with them is sufficient to cause every town to strive to emerge winner.

Another highlight of the program is the baseball games scheduled each afternoon between visiting towns and the Greenville Giants.

Tonight at 8:30 the firemen will be entertained at a singing contest in the colored high school auditorium and tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock they will be tendered a delegates' dinner at the same place.

Ferd Barnhill, chief of the colored firemen here, expressed gratification over the co-operation displayed by Greenville people in their effort to entertain the delegates and said he thought the gathering would go down as one of the most notable in history of the organization.
