Bartlesville, Okla., Aug. 25.—(AP)—John Hardesty of Los Angeles, led the west wing of the transcontinental Air Derby out of Bartlesville today, taking the air for Jefferson City, Mo., 244 miles away. The 42 planes of the west wing cleared the field within as many minutes, and the eastern contingent prepared to follow.

CALLS YOUTH TO ROOSEVELT

Taylor Organizing Young Democrats for Work in Presidential Campaign

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Tyrone Taylor of Raleigh, president of the Young Democratic Clubs of America, announced today that a number of outstanding persons in American political life have accepted appointment as members of the National Advisory Committee of the organization. John Nance Garner, vice-presidential nominee; Newton D. Baker, Harry Flood Byrd, Albert C. Ritchie, James M. Cox, John W. Davis, Gov. O. Max Gardner, and Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross were listed as the committee members. Taylor said "these distinguished leaders" have rendered "a very great service to the Young Democratic Clubs of America" in consenting to become members of the advisory group. "Their willingness to assist actively in furtherance of this youth movement within the Democratic party," he continued, "is added confirmation not only of its vast potentiality for good, but is another and heartening manifestation of the ever warm and cordial attitude of the Democratic party toward young people. It is now up to the Young Democratic Clubs of America, as the official youth organization of the Democratic party, to prove itself worthy of the confidence reposed in it by the national committee and leaders of the parent organization and to demonstrate its usefulness to the Democratic party and to the country. "This challenge we proudly accept and our first objective shall

TESTIFIES IN WALKER CASE

Transportation Head Tells of Equitable Coach Company Bus Franchise

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 25.—(AP)—John H. Delaney, chairman of the New York City Board of Transportation, testifying for Mayor Walker at the ouster hearing, said the Equitable Coach Company bid for a bus franchise was the best the board received. Samuel Seabury, counsel to the Hofstadter legislative committee, advised Governor Roosevelt when he submitted his 15 conclusions that the Equitable was "not fit or qualified" to receive franchise. He held it received the right to operate buses because Mayor Walker used his influence for the company with which his friend, State Senator John A. Hastings was connected. The Board of Transportation reported favorably on the company and the City Board of Estimates and Apportionment granted the franchise. The mayor is a member of the latter board. The hearing before Governor Roosevelt became a "three day" proceeding today, with morning, afternoon and evening sessions. It has continued ten days. Mayor Walker remained at the hearing only a few minutes. A member of his party said he had gone to another part of the building to attend to some official correspondence.

ONE N. C. MILL STRIKE ENDED

Differences at Rockingham, However, Remain in Unsettled State

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 25.—(AP)—With one strike settled and a Communist attempt to call another frustrated by the workers themselves, only one North Carolina textile mill today was experiencing trouble between owners and employees. Operatives of the Spencer Mill of Spindale returned to their looms yesterday, less than twenty-four hours after they had walked out demanding the dismissal of A. P. Burgess, who recently came from Providence, R. I., as superintendent. Three men who said they represented the National Textile Workers of America, a Communist organization, were escorted out of Irede County when they told workers of the Mooresville Cotton Mills they planned to organize a union there and call a strike tomorrow. The men gave their names as Honeycutt, Johnson and Kelly and said they were from Charlotte. When the actions of Mill operatives became threatening, the men appealed for protection and were escorted to the county line by police officers and a committee of textile workers. Differences between employees of the Hannah Pickett Mill at Rockingham and the management remained unsettled. The 750 workers there walked out demanding a return to the wage scale in effect prior to two recent

PRASE PITT COUNTY LEAF HALF HOLIDAYS ARE OVER HERE

Japanese Visitors Say Best Tobacco in the World Grown in This Section

The best tobacco in the world is grown in this part of the State. This is the opinion of the people of Japan as expressed through two representatives on an inspection trip of this great bright leaf-producing area yesterday. The statement was made by N. Obata, prominent New York tobaccoist, who with T. Taira, of Formosa, Japan, representing the Japanese government monopoly, visited Greenville yesterday afternoon and were furnished considerable information concerning the industry and the outlook for the next crop. Asked what the Japanese people

Japan Will Recognize New Manchurian State

Tokyo, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Outlining her foreign policy, Japan today declared the world's peace machinery offered no remedy for "the chaotic condition of China," and announced formally her intention to recognize the new Manchurian state, Manchukuo, in the near future. The declaration was made by Baron Yasua Uchida, the foreign minister, before an extraordinary session of the House of Peers, and his text was echoed to many foreign capitals for distribution. Foreign recognition of Manchukuo, the foreign minister said, was "the only means of stabilizing conditions in Manchuria and establishing permanent peace in the Far East." "There are those in other coun-

Bulls Again Hit Financial Markets

New York, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Bullishness surged through the principal financial markets again today. Wall street was particularly cheered by the sharpest advance in wheat in weeks. That staple shot up more than two cents in the Chicago pit. Large scale buying orders again poured into the New York Stock Exchange, lifting many issues to new high levels for the summer recovery and some to new tops for 1932. Advances ranged from $1 to $5 a share by early afternoon. Cotton continued its advance rising more than $1 a bale to new highs for the season, of about $2.50, but it was the fall into the bull procession of wheat that particularly impressed Wall street. The staple had been lagging of late.

FIX PLANS FOR HOOVER MEET

Leaders of Federal Reserve District Outline Program for the Conference

Washington, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Secretary Mills laid before a special committee of business leaders today a program for pushing national credit into the channels of business to make more jobs. The tentative plan came from informal conferences of industrial captains, including Owen D. Young, of New York. The twelve chairmen of the business and industrial committees of the Federal Reserve System assembled with Mills and other government leaders to go over the program which is to be presented in open session tomorrow to more than one of the officers. WANTS TO SEE JUSTICE DONE

Dick Reynolds Leaves Probe of Brother's Death Up to the Authorities

Winston-Salem, Aug. 25.—(AP)—R. J. (Dick) Reynolds, Jr., heir to the tobacco fortune founded by his father, b-beres his brother, Smith, was murdered but he wants to "see justice done" and is going to leave investigation of the case to "regularly constituted authorities." Smith Reynolds was fatally shot at Reynolds, the family estate near here, on July 6. His death came a few hours after he had entertained a number of friends at what was described by witnesses as a carnival and home-brew party. His widow, Libby Hoffman, for (Continued On Page Four)

A Few Strikers Remained on Highway Bluff, Scene of Last Night's Disorders in Which Several Officers Were Injured; Sheriffs of Nearby Counties Prepare to Offer Escort to the Trucks of Strikers

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Aug. 25.—(AP)—All highways into Council Bluffs except one, were cleared of Farmers Holiday Association picketers shortly before noon today. At least temporary respite followed nearly 24 hours of apprehension, during which Sheriff P. A. Lainson's special force of deputies, armed with tear gas bombs and guns, struggled to make the highways safe for trucks. A few strikers remained however, on highway 34, scene of last night's disorders. Meanwhile, Lainson, sheriff of a few nearby counties and 50 deputies prepared to offer armed escort to trucks. Squadrons of deputies, mobilized this morning and ordered by Lainson to clear highways of strikers, found that the picketers had left. Of the 61 (correct) men in jail, 49 were arrested in last night's encounter. Twelve of them have been sentenced by justice Jack Dewitt to 60 days or 300 days in jail. Sheriff Lainson had stationed men with a submachine gun and other weapons at the doors and windows of the jail and courthouse. No disturbance occurred last night despite rumors that a jail delivery might be attempted. Meanwhile, at Boone, another picketing center during the past week, 50 farmers called upon Sheriff Moore and demanded that he keep highways open to traffic. The farmers threatened to organize an anti picketing crew to offset farmers' Holiday activities. At Sioux City Sheriff John A. Davenport instructed his deputies to stop picketing. Before 10 A. M. today 77 strikers were in jail at Sioux City.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The tear gas, blackjacks and weapons of Sheriff Lainson's deputies early today failed to clear highways near here of members of the National Farmers Holiday Association, picketing highways in an effort to force higher prices for farm produce. Sheriff Lainson was again mobilizing his forces for another attack. Nearly a score of special officers armed heavily, guarded the county jail and courthouse to prevent recurrence of what was thought the authorities would be an attempted jail delivery. Lainson, his men wounded or tired, from last night's encounter with the picketers, pressed fresh deputies into service. He said he would make every effort to clear the roads of blockaders. Failing that, he said he would try to have sufficient numbers of deputies on hand to furnish escorts for trucks who would attempt to get through the lines. At the jail and courthouse about 250 association members were encamped, watching every move of the officers. About 2 a. m. today several hundred picketers had moved on the courthouse and jail. Their intentions were not openly announced, but the sheriff, fearing an attempt at a jail delivery of the 72 men incarcerated for alleged unlawful assembly moved rapidly to protect the buildings. There was no major disturbance, however, and later they encamped in a nearby ravine, using straw and hay for bedding. All of the injured were officers who sought to break the picket lines of striking farmers seeking to (Continued on page three)

NEW YORK JOURNAL CRITIC PRAISES "HORSE FEATHERS" COMING STATE

The four Marx brothers, three of them utterly mad, cogitate in their latest farce "Horse Feathers" which is now on display at the Rialto Theatre. Gooey from beginning to end, with little sense to any of the proceedings, the film offers plenty of laughs with the aid of idiotic gags and puns.

Groucho is president of dear old Huxley. He becomes a college prodigy to save his son, Zeppo, from the alluring college widow, Harpo is the campus dog-catcher and Chico is the ice-man bootlegger who delivers a quart frozen into each cake of ice. Dear old Huxley needs a football team so Groucho enlists the aid of the dog-catcher and the bootlegger whom he meets in a speakeasy.

With Zeppo cast this time in a juvenile hero role, the three brothers offer their characteristic lunacies, taking time off, however, while Chico plays the piano and Harpo plays the harp. The picture has moments so hilarious that the howls of last evening's audience drowned out some of the dialogue.

It has also some moments of forced humor, but fortunately the former outweigh the latter. The most amusing lines go to the cigar-smoking Groucho who romps off with all the honors here despite the be-wigged Harpo's customary insanities.

F. L. Fletcher Taken for Ride

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 20.—Fountain L. Fletcher, whose bullet-riddled body was found yesterday morning on a lonely road between Millbrook and Prattmont in Elmore county, was "taken for a ride," not for anything he had done but because of something he knew.

At the close of the investigation yesterday Chief Deputy John L. Scogin, who with Deputy Kreis of the Montgomery Sheriff's Department had been assisting Sheriff John H. Golden of Elmore county, declared the case a complete mystery. "Nothing has been found," he said, "that would shed any light on a motive for the crime."

He is survived by his father, L. C. Fletcher, of Winterville, N. C.; one brother, Alfred C. Fletcher, of Greenville, N. C.; a wife and two small children of Montgomery, Ala. Funeral services were held here Friday afternoon.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY HOLDS EXECUTIVE CONFERENCE

Farmville, Aug. 25.—The Officers' Conference of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of East Carolina, Episcopal, held at Camp Leach day in and day out from Wednesday morning until noon today. A celebration of the Holy Communion was held in the outdoor chapel early Wednesday morning, the celebrants being Rev. Stephen Gardner of Washington, and Rev. Sidney Matthews of Bath.

The primary purpose of the conference was the shaping of a program of study and activities for the fall, winter and spring months. A program which had been in a state of preparation for several weeks and which had been carefully planned and compiled by the president Mrs. Fred L. Outland of Washington, along the lines of suggestions offered by the various department heads, was submitted and passed on by the executive board composed of Mrs. Fred L. Outland of Washington, president; Mrs. J. O. Beckwith Sr., of Lumberton, president; Wilmington Convocation; Mrs. W. S. Carawan of Columbia, president; Edenton Convocation; Mrs. J. L. Shackelford of Farmville, secretary; Mrs. John Gulon of New Bern, treasurer; Miss Caroline K. Myers, U. T. C. custodian; Mrs. P. T. Anthony of Greenville, supply secretary; Mrs. A. B. Houtz of Elizabeth City, educational secretary; Mrs. Victor B. Shelburne of Washington; chairman; Mrs. John Crammer of Wilmington, field chairman; Mrs. Henry J. MacMillan of Wilmington, publicity chairman; Miss Jessie Peace of Watha, church periodical.

Reports of the treasurer and United Thank Offering custodian, plans of the convocational presidents and department heads were heard and various matters of vital interest to the organization were brought to the attention of the board and acted upon at this time.

This was the second meeting held by the board which is made up entirely of new officers, the past incumbents having served the Diocese seven years. The initial meeting was held on Auxiliary Day, June 23, at Camp Leach, the Episcopal assembly grounds, 12 miles from Washington.

SEES DANGER IN BANK LOANS

This warning contained in the reserve board's monthly bulletin, was coupled with the assertion that national banks in New York, Chicago and other federal reserve cities have the power to issue more than two-thirds of the currency increase allowed by the Glass-Bohr provision of the home loan law.

It said these institutions had an unused power to issue $66,000,000 of the new currency, while the maximum, permitted was $16,000,000. The unused issuing privilege of country banks was placed at $253,000,000.

Much use of the issuing privilege at this time was deemed unlikely by the board. Since the provision took effect, national banks have increased their calculation of currency by $31,000,000. The board said such national bank notes would not now increase money circulation but only replace a like amount of federal reserve currency.

But of a possible full use of the expansion privilege upon the improvement of business, the board added:

"The ability of the national banks to obtain currency without resorting to the reserve banks will have an effect, not only on the volume of federal reserve currency, but also and more importantly, on the position of the federal reserve banks and the influence of the federal reserve system on the general credit situation.

"It is these other and remoter consequences that may in time be expected to be the most important tant consequences of the recent legislation enlarging the note-issuing privilege of national banks."

The currency enlargement was accomplished by making government bonds bearing not more than a 3-8 per cent interest eligible note security to the amount of a bank's total capital stock.

URGES GROWING OF MORE FOODSTUFFS

Salisbury, Aug. 25.—(AP)—John A. Revey, of the dairy extension department of N. C. State College, urged the growing of more foodstuffs in an address today to the meeting of the North Carolina Dairyman's Association here.

Officers will be elected late today.

H. O. Ashcraft of Charlotte, is the present president.

Depression Hits Human Body Value

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 25.—(AP)—The depression has hit the value of the human body for a drop of over 30 per cent in the last five years, Dr. Arthur J. Wilson, chemistry department head at N. C. State College, figures.

Dr. Wilson computes that the per pound value of the human body has fallen from over six cents in 1928 to four cents at the present.

Using beefsteak, lard, sugar and ordinary mineral salts as equivalents of the protein, fats, and other components of the body, Dr. Wilson calculated that at 1928 prices a 150 pound person was worth around $9 but that at present prices he is worth only $6.

State Minerals Get Attention

Raleigh, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Public interest in minerals of North Carolina has not been so great in many years as it has been during the last two-year period, State Geologist H. J. Bryson said today.

Bryson cited the number of mineral specimens sent to his office for identification as evidence of the interest.

During the past two years, Bryson pointed out, approximately 800 mineral and rock specimens have been received and reported on by his office. This is an increase of more than 200 over the previous biennium.

Along with this indication of increased interest in minerals, Bryson announced that he has received more than twice the number of inquiries regarding deposits, particularly gold, in the last two years than for the similar preceding period.

Considerable activity has been shown in the gold mining industry during the last two years, with a number of stamp mills build and placed in operation.

Among the new stamp mills, he enumerated the following:

A ten-stamp mill in Rowan county, a twenty-stamp mill in Randolph county, a ten-stamp mill in Montgomery county, a five-stamp mill in Cabarrus county and a ten-stamp mill in Rutherford county.

Wake Leads in Motor Mishaps

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Wake county led the one hundred sub-divisions of North Carolina in automobile fatalities during July, having eight killed in motor mishaps. L. S. Harris, head of the Motor Vehicle Bureau, reported today.

Wake's total was almost one-seventh of the State's aggregate of 54 killed. Thirty-three counties had one or more fatalities without their borders.

Buncombe county came second in fatalities with five and New Hanover had three.

The populous counties of Guilford and Mecklenburg, which usually are well up in the county list of fatalities, had only one person killed in each last month. Forsyth had none killed, though it usually is also listed for several.

Two persons died in motor accidents in each of the following counties: Alamance, Cumberland, Dare, Durham, Lee, Polk, Surry, and Transylvania.

Wake Leads in Motor Mishaps

Other counties in which one person was killed were: Cabarrus, Caldwell, Caswell, Catawba, Chowan, Franklin, Granville, Jackson, Johnston, Lenoir, Montgomery, Nash, Onslow, Pender, Randolph, Rockingham, Rowan, Rutherford, Sampson, and Union.

Mrs. McCormick Suffers Relapse

Chicago, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The condition of Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick took a sudden turn for the worse early today. Her physician said that she had suffered a serious relapse. Members of her family were summoned to her bedside.

The gold coast society leader and daughter of John D. Rockefeller, Sr., has been ill in an exclusive hospital for several weeks suffering from what doctors described as an incurable malady.

Her illness brought a reconciliation with members of her family. All three of her children and her divorced husband, Harold F. McCormick, have been in attendance at her bedside. Her brother, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., visited her last week but returned to New York when his sister rallied.

Says Husband Tried to Kill Her in Wreck

Gastonia, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Earl Lineberger, 32, was lodged in the county jail here after his wife charged him with attempting to kill her by turning their automobile over.

She told officers Lineberger had threatened to kill her by turning the car over after he had attacked Glenn Pysour, her brother, with a knife. The car was turned over in a ditch, but the couple received only slight injuries.

Lineberger, who lives at Shady Rest, is charged with assault on his wife with intent to kill and with murderous assault on Pysour.

Bandits Holdup Durham Bank

Durham, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Four masked bandits held up the West Durham Branch of the Fidelity Bank early this afternoon and escaped in an automobile with an undetermined amount of money.

Brandishing pistols, the bandits ordered Hazel Brown, the stenographer, and C. C. Cole, teller, into the bank's vault. They were the only persons in the institution when the men entered, at 1:45 p. m.

The robbers were unable to lock the vault door because of a safety stop on it. However, Miss Brown and Cole remained in it until Frank D. Upchurch, the bank's manager, returned from lunch and opened the door.

How much money the daring robbery netted was not learned immediately. A $7,000 payroll of the Erwin Cotton mills was known to be in the bank and it was believed to be included in the loot.

Famous Spanish Soldier Doomed To Die at Madrid

Madrid, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Jose Sanjurjo Sacamelo, one of the most famous Spanish soldiers of modern times and commanding general of the army, was sentenced to death today for leading a rebellion against the republic.

A mixed civil and military tribunal of the Supreme court reached the verdict after twenty hours of deliberation, while the nation waited and demonstrations for and against the "hero of Morocco" were restrained with difficulty by government forces.

General Sanjurjo's lifelong friend and companion-at-arms, General Herranz, was given a sentence of 30 years in prison.

General Sanjurjo's attorney immediately started efforts for clemency. He appealed to the President against a sentence he called "a disgrace against the government and the country." France was asked to intervene because Sanjurjo was decorated with the Legion of Honor in the presence of Spanish and French army detachments for heroic work in Morocco against the Rifis.

McAlister Wins Election Fight In Tennessee

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Hill McAlister has been formally certified as the Democratic nominee for governor of Tennessee and the contest brought by Lewis G. Pope on charges of fraudulent voting of negroes dismissed by the State Primary Board.

The action came amid cheers from the galleries and packed floor of the committee room after a fourteen-hour session. The vote for dismissal was 31 to 7, and scores surrounding McAlister, shaking his hands and calling him "Governor," the decision of the board was reached.

McAlister accepted the action with a smile. "I'm just as grateful as I can be," he said. Pope, who ran second to him in the Democratic primary August 4, left the committee room at once without commenting.

The defeated contestant had charged negroes were "herded" to the polls in Shelby (Memphis) and other counties to vote for McAlister who was State Treasurer, and alleged other election irregularities proclaiming himself the nominee of "white Democrats" of Tennessee.

Engineer Shakes Hands With King

Falls City, Neb., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Gus Phillips, railroad engineer who shook hands with a king, was back here today, at the end of a three months' vacation trip to his native Bulgaria.

He told the home folks that King Boris, of Bulgaria, sent a carriage for him.

"The guards warned me not to shake hands with the king," he said. "It seems this was against the rules." He was supposed to make a stiff bow and address him as "Your Majesty."

"But when I entered the room where King Boris was, I couldn't resist the temptation and walked right up and shook hands. The king smiled and didn't mind it at all. We enjoyed a long chat and I told him about the American railway system."

Phillips will be back at the throttle of his locomotive in a few days.

Consign Woman To Road Colony

Concord, N. C., Aug. 25.—Eva Lambert, driver of the car which swerved from the highway and killed Stamey Holdbrook, filling station operator, on July 11, was sentenced to two years in the farm colony at Kinston after being convicted of manslaughter.

Her companions, Roosevelt Gray and Albert Harvell, received four to six years each in State's Prison. Evidence was that all were drinking, and that Gray jerked the steering wheel.

Miners Return Home

Coultersville, Ill., Aug. 25.—(AP)—The 4,000 miners, all that was left of the army of strikers repulsed in Franklin county last night, left Coultersville today for their homes in the central Illinois coal fields, after holding a mass meeting here this morning.

Plan to Probe Disappearance Of Preacher

Mobile, Ala., Aug. 25.—(AP)—The strange disappearance of the Rev. Rupert G. Witt, rector of Grace Episcopal Church and chaplain of the Seamen's Institute, brought announcement from Bishop William G. McDowell, of Birmingham, he would come here for an investigation today.

Nothing has been heard of the rector since he drove a seaman to a downtown restaurant Monday afternoon. Friends and relatives expressed alarm over his absence and were unable to advance any theory as to why he could have left voluntarily without notifying them.

Educators Meet At Asheville

Asheville, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Educators from many leading southern colleges and universities were here today for a conference sponsored by the Liberal Arts College movement.

The conference, the first of its kind for southern college officials, was called to provide an opportunity for discussion of cooperation among southern denominational schools.

Dr. William F. Quellan of Nashville, Tenn., general secretary of the Board of Christian Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, will preside at the opening session this afternoon.

Dr. W. J. McClinton, president of Furman University, Greenville, S. C., and former president of the Southern Baptist Convention, will have charge of the final session tonight.

Testifies Younce Told Conflicting Stories of Killing

Lexington, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Additional testimony that George A. Younce, former district solicitor, told conflicting stories to a coroner's jury here February 5 and 6 was presented by the state today in his trial for perjury.

Throughout the taking of the evidence, the defense waged a sharp battle on the nature of the state's case.

It contended that Dr. R. K. Farrington, acting coroner at the reopened inquest last February into the shooting of Sheriff James A. Leard, could not be legally qualified as the coroner's office was not vacant at the time.

Dr. Farrington conducted the reopened inquest because Dr. R. V. Okeley, the coroner, was ill.

Besides contending the second inquest was illegal, the defense continued to bring out that jurors and witnesses were sworn without a Bible at the first inquest.

Trial of the case was interrupted for a time by the necessity of qualifying a new juror. Juror Dan M. Luther was called to his home by the death of his father and W. H. Bailey was qualified to take his place.

The stenographic report of yesterday's testimony was ready to Bailely.

Order to Meet Next at Hickory

Morehead City, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The State council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, will hold its next convention in Hickory.

The organization made this selection at its final convention here yesterday.

Mineral Compound Proves Sensation

Scores of Local People Report Amazing Results from New Scientific Food Vitalizer; Druggists Astounded at Tremendous Sales.

Probably never before in all the history of this county has any product been given such whole-hearted praise as the new scientific formula known as LEES' MINERAL COMPOUND. Men and women in all walks of life have put this remarkable Food Vitalizer to the test and proven its amazing powers. Literally thousands of people have made the now famous 10 day test and have proven that Nature's way is the right way to health.

So swift and sweeping has been the success of this new compound that in a few short weeks, it has become the talk of the county. Those who have used it tell astounding stories of what it has done for them, and, were the facts not known and verified, it would be hard to believe that any single treatment could prove so effective in so many different cases.

It merely goes to prove the assertion of famous scientists that the one sure way to maintain health is to supply the body with a balanced proportion of the essential mineral elements and necessary vitamins.

The one and only product of its kind, LEES' MINERAL COMPOUND, contains eleven essential minerals, splendidly combined with Vitamins and valuable tonic aids. It acts as a Food Vitalizer, feeding the system those vital elements that we fail to get in modern refined foods. It stimulates the organs of digestion and assimilation, creates keen, hearty appetite, cleans the system of dangerous impurities and waste material, soothes "ragged" nerves, enables one to sleep soundly, awakes refreshed and filled with new vigor for the daily battles of life.

No wonder that those who have tried so many other treatments, with little or no benefit, have been quick to turn to this natural method of restoring health. No wonder the sales of "patent" medicines, harsh laxatives and dangerous "pain-killers" have fallen to the lowest mark in years. People today are more intelligent than they used to be and are quick to take advantage of the new and proven scientific discoveries. That accounts for the tremendous demand for this amazing compound that builds new health, strength and vigor in Nature's own way.

If you have tried many medicines and treatments that gave you little or no benefit, do not be discouraged. The chances are 10 to 1 you'll find LEES' MINERAL COMPOUND is just what your system needs to restore your health.

LEE'S MINERAL COMPOUND
—With Vitamins—

Eliminates Excessive Acids in the Stomach
Drives Out Dangerous Toxins, Clears The System of Impurities
Builds Rich, Red Blood—Feeds Nerves, Bone and Muscle—Restores Strength.

Makes You Feel Like Yourself Again

MAKE THIS 10 DAY TEST
Convince Yourself!

Stop doing yourself with "patent medicines," harsh purgatives, oils and cathartics for just 10 days. Go to your nearest Druggist and secure a bottle of LEE'S MINERAL COMPOUND. Take it regularly, and watch the results. You'll be amazed at the feeling of renewed strength and vigor that soon appears. No narcotics or alcohol to "boost you up," but a natural method of restoring health and energy.

For Sale by Warren Drug Store, Greenville, and other good dealers everywhere or, send $1.25 to Lee's Laboratories, 167 Forsyth St., S. W., Atlanta, Ga., for large bottle, postage paid.

ABOUT TOWN

The Japanese government thinks tobacco grown in this section is the finest in the world, and this probably means that the country will purchase liberally of the golden weed produced by the hundreds of farmers of Pitt county each season.

The two representatives who visited Greenville yesterday were impressed with the extent of the industry and marveled at the fact that they were in the largest bright leaf producing area in the world.

Pitt county is always glad for outsiders to come to see what its farmers are doing in behalf of one of the world's greatest industries and the praise of the quality of tobacco produced here will be received with profound interest in view of the fact that it is the first time probably that an expression direct from Japan has been made public.

With cotton and tobacco prices continuing to move upward, the millions of people of the Southland affected by the change, will feel more like returning to their fields next year if the situation continues to improve.

Cotton has shown the most pronounced upturn in the last several years, and the increased prices have put millions of dollars into the pockets of the producers. The same is true of tobacco. If the markets in this section show the improvement registered on the border markets, there is every reason to believe the people will be satisfied. But it is expected to show even greater improvement in view of superior prices usually paid for the products of this great cigarette tobacco district.

It will be years before the Southland recovers from effects of the depression, but if price conditions should continue to show improvement during the next two or three years the situation should be far better than it is at this time with in the next several months.

Kiwanians and Rotarians attended one of the most signal meetings probably ever conducted in this section of the country at Bayview last night. It was of great importance because of the fact that two of the leading organizations of the world banded and rubbed elbows together in union of brotherhood destined to lead to better things for the people of the affected districts.

It was the first time the two bodies had held a joint meeting since organization years ago, and was a far-reaching effect upon the communities which they serve. Rotary stands for "service above self," and the Kiwanians are out to help build a more constructive type of citizenship. No organization could have higher ideals and aspirations than these two and now that they have put their heads together they should be able to give themselves unselfishly to the great cause ahead.

W. E. Hooks of Ayden, chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Executive Committee, firmly believes Pitt county people will pile up a record vote for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket in the national election next November. The chairman was in the city yesterday conferring with political leaders regarding the campaign, and stated that everything he had done to rally the people to the polls in the notable ballot contest.

Roosevelt and Garner, he believes, is the best ticket the party has put out in years, and the popularity of the New Yorker, it is believed, will be instrumental in carrying New York State. Not only the Democrats but the public generally is charging the Republican party with responsibility for the severe economic period facing the nation at this time and it is certain they will do their best to change parties in the interest of improved conditions when the opportunity presents itself.

Nothing Venture

By PATRICIA WENTWORTH

SYNOPSIS: At the last moment Rosamund Carew jilts Jervis Weare to cheat him of a fortune and secure it for herself. The will of Ambrose Weare, Jervis' grandfather, provides that unless Jervis marries within three months and a day of the older man's death his fiancée, Rosamund, shall replace his grandson as heir. Nan Forsyth is secretly in love with Jervis. She is distressed by Rosamund's threat to his future, and by the plight of her sister Cynthia, bitter because poverty prevents her marriage. Jervis is in a desperate situation.

Chapter 4 NAN HAS A MAD IDEA

Nan heard Jervis strike the table. "My position—oh, yes, she knows it, and I know it, and you know it. If I'm not married by the fifteenth—that's what Rosamund's reckoning on. I told you I'd let you know why I'd come in a minute. I've come to find out how I can do her in. She thinks she's got me, but there's nothing in my grandfather's will about marrying her. I've got to get married by the fifteenth—but I've not got to marry Rosamund Carew. Find me any girl who'll marry me at twenty-four hours' notice!"

"Mr. Jervis—Mr. Jervis! A moment, please. You have three days—your grandfather's will specifies three months and a day as the period. We have always spoken of the period as three months, and possibly Miss Carew—" He spoke off with a cough. "No, no, one shouldn't impute such motives—not without absolute proof."

Jervis Weare had stopped pacing the room. "I've three clear days? Good! You have only to find me a wife." Mr. Page had got his professional voice back.

"Mr. Jervis, you must give me time for consideration. There are other courses open to you. In the circumstances I have no doubt that the courts would extend the time. There is also breach of promise." "And make myself the laughing-stock of the whole country? I'd rather let her get away with it and I'll see her in Tibet before I do that." His fist struck the table again.

"Mr. Jervis!" "She's made a fool of me, and I'll make a fool of her. Who'll be the fool when he picks up The Times on the seventeenth and sees that I'm married—On the 16th instant, at St. Bartholomew's, Park Avenue, Mr. Jervis Weare to Miss Blank Dash." And that, you see, is where you come in. You've got to fill in the blank and the dash.

At this point Nan became aware of the slow, heavy beating of her heart. It seemed to be knocking against her side. There came a drumming in her ears, so that she could not listen—and she must, must listen. She heard Mr. Page protest. And then, so loud that it came through the loud beating of her heart, Jervis Weare's voice: "If you won't help me, I'll help myself. If I have to pick her up off the streets!"

With those words in her ears, moving almost as if hypnotized by the idea that was forming within her sadly disturbed mind, Nan took up her hat and left the office without a word to anyone. She closed the street door behind her and crossed the street. She was not tired any more. She felt as if she were being carried by a strong current. And her heart had stopped thumping against her side, which was a great relief.

She walked a little way, and then back. As she turned again, Jervis Weare was striding down the street, and still without any sense of effort, she quickened her pace so as not to be left too far behind. She had no thought that it would be difficult to come to speak with him. She hoped that he was going home to the cool-looking house in East Seventieth Street, which was one of the things that would pass from him to Rosamund Carew if he did not marry within the time set by his grandfather's will.

Nan lifted her head. Neither the house nor anything else that was his should pass to Rosamund Carew. The current that was carrying her along was a current of protective love. Ten years ago she had saved him from drowning, and he had never known it. Now she was going to save him again. Rosamund shouldn't rob him; neither should he rob himself.

She dreamed sometimes, even after ten years, of the rocky pool with the salt, cold water coming in on a flood tide. She felt his weight on her straining childish shoulders, and she saw flinging her against jagged rock. Then she would wake and touch the white scar on her arm and so over the whole adventure in her mind. Sometimes she wondered whether she would ever come across the little man who had come to their rescue—Ferdinand Francis. Such an extraordinary fellow.

hot dark eyes. "What is it?" The hot dark eyes held not the slightest recognition.

She said: "Mr. Weare—I'm from Mr. Page's office." That was quite an easy thing to say. But could she, dare she, go on?

WOMAN FLIER SETS RECORD

(Continued from page one) and was greeted by Lieut. Richard Aldworth, airport manager. The crimson and gold plane came over the airport from the west and after circling once around the field, lazily came down to land.

Mrs. Putnam, looking tired but nappy, could be seen smiling in the ship. The unofficial time for the flight was 19 hours and two minutes. The west-east non-stop record for men is held by Frank Hawks at 17 hours, 38 minutes and 59 seconds. Mrs. Putnam who left Los Angeles yesterday at 12:26 p. m. Pacific Standard Time, was unsighted on her flight since she passed over Amarillo, Texas, at 11:10 P. M. Eastern Standard Time, last night. At that time, she had flown only 1,001 miles airline distance in eight hours, averaging about 125 miles an hour. The last 2,000 miles she must have made at a speed exceeding 181 miles an hour.

Although she had been expected to fly the regular air route, passing over Columbus, Ohio, she was unreported until at the moment of her landing.

By coming non-stop from Los Angeles to Newark Mrs. Putnam also won the distance flight from Ruth Nichols in her recent solo Nichols last year flew 2,000 miles from Oakland, Cal., to Louisville, Ky., a record exceeded by several hundred miles by Mrs. Putnam today. It was the second record Miss Nichols has lost in a week, the other being the women's altitude record, which was lost to a French girl.

FIX PLANS FOR HOOVER MEET

(Continued from page one) hundred members of the industrial committee. The business leaders entered the executive committee session on the second floor of the treasury building light-lipped. Each emphasized that his job was work rather than talk, but Mills promised a statement at the end of the day. Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, attended as a representative of the railroad industry.

Washington, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Summoned by President Hoover, representatives of national business groups met with government financial leaders today to perfect plans for the administration's business conference here Friday. Gathered at the office of Secretary Mills were chairmen of the business and industrial committees of the twelve Federal Reserve districts. They worked over the program for a conference tomorrow when President Hoover will address more than one hundred members of the committees.

Tentative plans for making money easier and spreading jobs were brought to the meeting from informal discussions of some of the conference chief-tains, including Owen D. Young, prominent Democrat and chairman of the New York committee.

Henry M. Robinson, of Los Angeles, intimate of Mr. Hoover, was in charge of today's session of the executive committee.

Some Democratic political leaders looked warily at the conference. Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic floor chief, issued a statement expressing hope in results of the conference, but asserting the association of business and intellectual leaders of the country with the schemes has been unavailable because they have been used merely as a sounding board for the Republican party.

Robinson said similar meetings in the past had proved unavailing because of President Hoover's "inept and uncertain leadership," and he cited some conferences as "an impressive and astounding indication of the way in which the President has 'nursed the buck' of executive duties."

However, Democrats as well as Republicans comprise the group of business leaders who hope to keep funds flowing to make the way for a real revival and more jobs.

In addition to Secretary Mills, Secretary Chapin, Eugene Meyer, Governor of the Federal Reserve Board; Atlee Pomerene, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation; and R. P. Lamont, former Secretary of Commerce, were invited into today's meeting. Other included George L. Harrison, Governor of the New York Federal Reserve Bank; G. W. Robertson of Pittsburgh, Pa.; and Jackson E. Reynolds, of the First National Bank of New York.

The chairmen of the business and industrial committees are: Owen D. Young, New York; Carl P. Bennett, Boston; L. B. Williams, Cleveland; Edwin C. Graham, Richmond; George S. Harr, St. Louis; George D. Dayton, Minneapolis; Joseph F. Porter, Kansas City; Frank Kell, Dallas; and K. T. Kingsbury, San Francisco, Calif.

They are at liberty, under $25,000 bond each. Their trial date has not been set.

Reynolds said his opinion that his brother was murdered was based on a case study of the testimony taken July 12 blamed the death of the younger Reynolds on "unknown parties." Reynolds said he had gone over the testimony with his attorney, Stratton Coyner, of Asheville.

"I want to see justice done," he said in reply to an inquiry if he had any plans regarding his belief that Smith was murdered. "I believe the regularly constituted authorities are fully capable of handling the case, and are going to the bottom of it."

the best to be obtained. The quality, he said, was superior to anything they had been able to buy, and that it provided a general satisfaction never before known by his people.

He said Japan did not start buying tobacco from this immediate territory until last year, but were so well pleased with their purchases that it was impossible to say what future demands of his country would be.

Obata has been in America since 1899, and speaks English fluently. Taira has been here only nine months, but has a pretty good command of the language and took active part in discussion of the tobacco situation.

They appeared to be greatly impressed with the scope of market activities here, and said they wished they could be here and see the market in actual operation.

Already familiar with the size and importance of the Greenville market and the thousands of acres of tobacco which they saw under cultivation as they traversed the highways of the district.

After leaving Greenville, the two men visited other sections of the State to obtain first-hand information regarding crop outlook and market operations.

The principal address was delivered by Ralph Deal, member of the faculty of East Carolina Teachers College, who spoke on the subject, "Why Not Continue the Depression?" Sparkling with wit and humor, the discourse was greeted with a storm of laughter and applause.

Zeno L. Edwards, president of the Washington Rotary Club, presided, and Edmund Harding, assisted at the piano by David Bell, led the gathering in numbers of songs which added zest to the meeting.

Invocation was pronounced by Rev. Stephen Gardner, of the Washington Rotary Club, who also had charge of the financial burden of the assemblage as well as contributing to the musical program.

Mrs. Paul McEvoy delighted her audience with a solo number which was rendered with such feeling and artistry that she was called back to an encore selection.

Carl George, inimitable humorist of the Pamlico, delivered the address of welcome and was greeted with intermittent bursts of applause by humorous reference to various members of the clubs.

J. B. Kittrell, of the Greenville Rotary Club, responded in an humorous vein and bemoaned the fact that Goerch had invited them down for supper and then had them to pay 75-cents a plate.

Toastmaster Edwards presented the officers of the clubs and recognized some of the guests from other parts of the country.

Mrs. Dink James was liberally applauded in a solo selection and encore number. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ray Tyson.

J. B. Kittrell put on a couple of stunts for the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs. Herman Duncan emerged winner in the Rotary singing contest, but never received his award of an earthen pitcher as Kittrell's feet tangled in a chair while attempting to make the delivery, and the pitcher was shattered into a thousand pieces. The next stunt consisted of harmonica renditions by Kittrell, who has established himself something of a reputation for his ability to coax melody from a harp.

The Washington club put on a "model husband" stunt which revealed the paucity of such husbands in this section of the country. Mrs. McEvoy and Rev. Stephen Gardner appeared in the rendition of "Auf Wiedersehen," and were heartily applauded. A delightful three-course dinner was served.

CUBS SHOVE "RODGERS OUT OF THE RACE"

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Victorious in their first engagement with Brooklyn's storm troops, the Chicago Cubs dug in behind a 7-4 and one-half game lead today and prepared to deal another blow for the cause—a bigger and better world series on the shores of Lake Michigan.

The Dodgers, who invaded the west with high hopes of crashing through the Cub barrage and again making a race out of the National League, were repulsed in yesterday's encounter, 7-4. What was more, they didn't look at all like a team that might ever stop the Chicago pennant drive.

Three of their pitchers, including the brilliant Van Mungo, were pounded for 10 hits, and their fielding was spotty. The Cubs, led by Billy Herman with three rousing hits, made six of their hits good for extra bases and sewed up the game with a four-run drive in the fourth inning.

Pittsburgh failed to take advantage of Brooklyn's reverse, losing 4-1. The Phillies 9-6, and remaining in place.

Dean did an admirable job of pitching the Giants. The Cards' star yielded only five hits in four runs with a home run and a single. Pepper Martin hit his little helper, hitting two doubles and a single and stealing a base.

Boston and Cincinnati played a dead heat for the afternoon, the Braves winning the first 5-2 and the Reds squaring matters 3-1, behind Larry Benton's noble pitching.

Jim Levey of the St. Louis Browns pounded a home run with one on in the eleventh inning to defeat the Athletics 5-3. Homeruns by McNair, Dykes and Fox accounted for all the A's runs.

Monte Weaver's pitching and Johnny Kerr's timely hitting gave Washington a 2-1 verdict over Detroit. Kerr knocked across both the winners' runs as Weaver scored his 19th victory.

Pitcher Ted Lyons scored a personal triumph over the Boston Red Sox 7-3. In addition to keeping nine hits well spaced, the White Sox star drove in three runs with a double and two singles and scored once.

A similar achievement was credited to Charley Ruffing of the Yankees, who racked up his 15th victory at the expense of the Cleveland Indians 9-3. He pitched eight hit ball and started at bat with a brace of doubles and a single.

BULLS DOWNED BY TERRIFIC CAP ASSAULT

Charlotte, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Babe Ruth used to be a pitcher and so did Roband Finn, the Raleigh Caps' righthander. And like the Babe, Finn may find his real career in the outfield.

Stuck into right field last night, Finn came through at the plate as the Caps downed Durham 9 to 4. All Finn's safeties were singles.

Altogether, the Caps fattened their batting averages considerably. Stevenson, first baseman, hit safely five times. Walsh was on the mound for the Bulls. Walker twirled for Raleigh.

The erstwhile Winston-Salem Twins, who seem to have taken on new life since their move to High Point, won another ball game from Greensboro, trimming the Pats 4 to 1.

in 1932 Hydrofined Oil Replaces "STANDARD" MOTOR OIL

Essolube, the only hydrofined oil, is now available to every motorist at the price of ordinary motor oils.

This oil is a result of the great hydrogenation discovery. Hydrogenation of atmospheric nitrogen was the chemical secret that enabled Germany to produce unlimited quantities of explosives and thus to "carry on" years after the experts considered her continued struggle impossible.

Hydrofining, developed by the Standard Oil scientists, is an advanced process which makes the hydrogenation of motor oil commercially possible.

Hydrofining gives Essolube all the five essential qualities for complete lubrication.

The finest Paraffinic oils have three of these essential qualities. Naphthenic (Asphaltic) oils have two of them. Essolube, by hydrofining, combines all five qualities. There has been no commercial method before hydrofining that combined the good qualities of these two types of oil.

It is so superior to all other oils that we are not only proud to name it after its companion product in quality, Esso,

"more powerful than any gasoline," but we have replaced the widely known "Standard" Motor Oil with this new product.

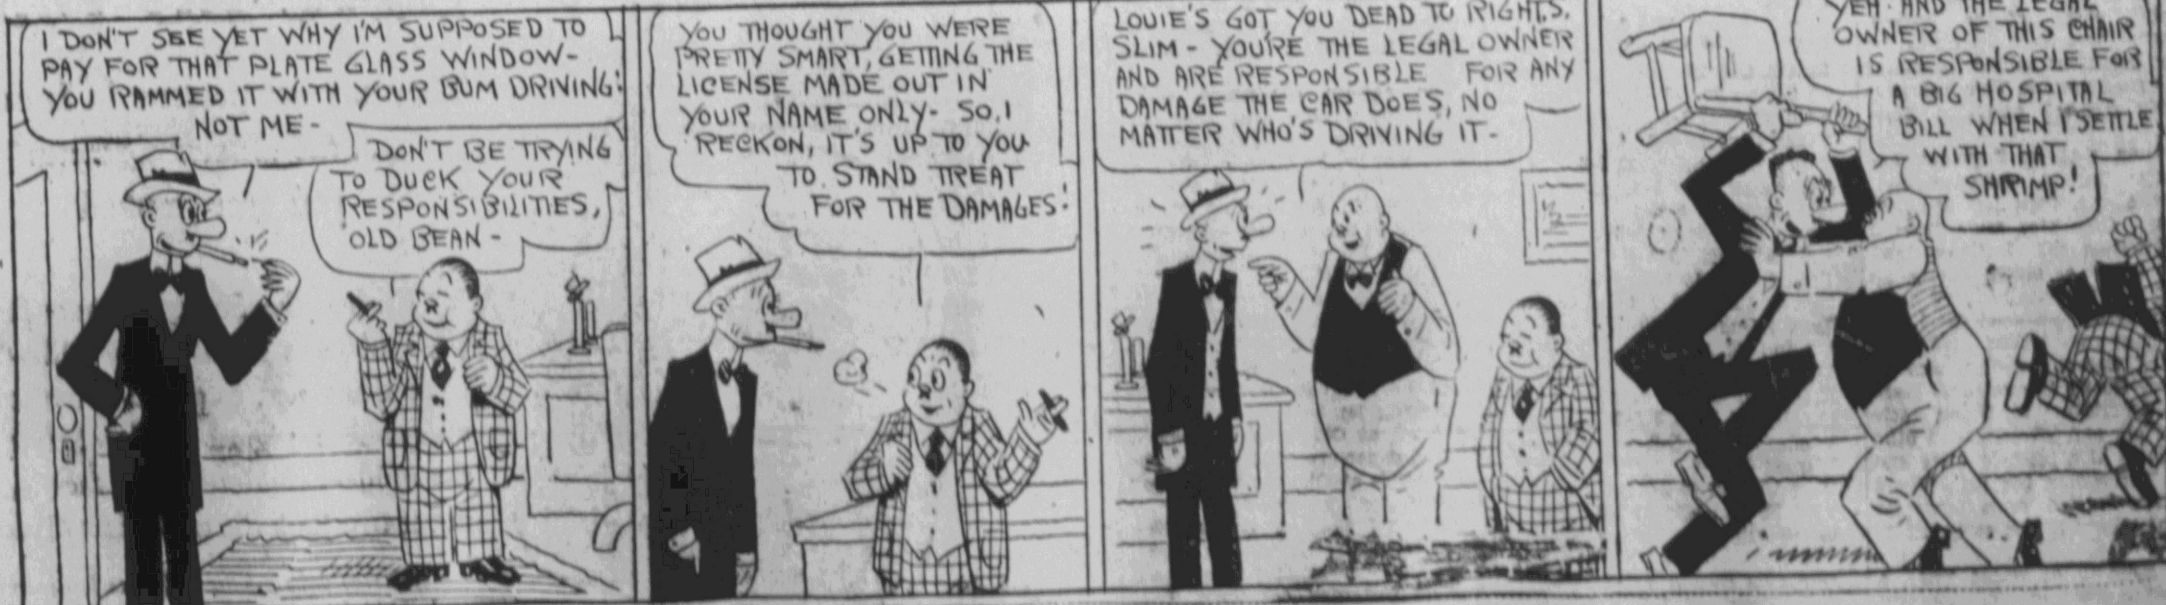

Hydrofined Essolube sells at no extra cost.

It is on sale at all stations and dealers of the following companies: Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, Standard Oil Company of Pennsylvania, Standard Oil Company of Louisiana, Standard Oil Company, Incorporated in Kentucky, Colonial Beacon Oil Company, Inc.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

New York Cotton

New York, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, 7-12 higher on continuation of yesterday's buying movement and on firm Liverpool cables and the higher textile market.

Rather heavy realizing and some southern selling was readily absorbed at the initial prices, and the advance soon extended to 8.69 for December and 8.91 for March with the general list showing net gains of 28 to 33 points on heavy general buying.

This was encouraged, apparently, by the early action of the stock market and increasing confidence in the general business outlook combined with the expectation of a reduction in crop estimates, but the higher level of prices attracted increased offerings.

This was attributed largely to realizing, but some reactionary sentiment was also in evidence following the advance of about $6.20 per bale from the low price touched on the reaction of last week and prices at the end of the first half hour were 8 or 10 points off from the best.

Liverpool cables reported heavy general buying and covering in that market, but said business in cotton cloths was slow in developing.

The opening advance attracted a good deal of realizing, while there was selling here by both New Orleans and Liverpool on the differences, and probably some selling for a reaction following the recent rapid advance. Prices eased off some 15 or 20 points under the pressure, but offerings were absorbed by further trade and commission house buying and the market stiffened up again later in the morning.

At midday December which had sold off from 8.69 to 8.52, was ruling around 8.63 with the general market showing net advances of 22 to 24 points.

Grain Market

Chicago, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Wheat traders struck aside pessimistic and bearish crop reports today and swept over the market in a buying rush which lifted price levels 2-1/2 cents above yesterday's finish.

Prices reached the best level since Aug. 16 and trade was heavy. Traders took their cue from advancing securities and cotton and feverishly bought wheat. A moderately easier Liverpool market was ignored as was unofficial estimates that the three Canadian prairie provinces would probably harvest 459,000,000 bushels of wheat this year, compared with 264,000,000 in 1931. Corn was firmer with wheat, but failed to get much above yesterday's close, because of heavy cash bookings. Oats followed wheat and corn and provisions were higher with hogs and grain.

Stock Market

By CLADDE A. JAGGER Associated Press Financial Editor New York, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The bull movement in stocks received a fillip from the wheat market today.

Stocks surged ahead in heavy buying at the start, turned somewhat hesitant, but bulged up again after wheat had rushed up 2 cents a bushel. Some of the leaders, however, were held in check by rather persistent selling whenever they turned upward. This was particularly true of American Telephone.

Eastman shot up 7 points, apparently in a demonstration against shorts, then lost some of its rise. Case rose more than 5 and International Business Machine's nearly as much. Issues up around 2 to 3 points included U. S. Steel preferred, National Steel, Allied Chemical, Johns Manville, Lambert, Safeway Stores, Associated Dry Goods, International Harvester, American Can, Union Pacific, Norfolk and Western, and others. Gains of a point or more appeared throughout the list. There was some reaction in a moderate wave of selling in the early afternoon.

The strength of wheat was a particularly welcome development in Wall Street, for the somewhat soggy tendency in that market had

Cotton Growers To Save Through Low Freight Rate

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 25.—(AP)—The North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association will save an average of 42.5 cents per bale on transportation of its cotton this season under a lower schedule of freight rates which go into effect September 6. I. M. Porter, branch traffic manager of the American Cotton Cooperative Association, said here today.

Based on an estimated volume equal to the ten-year average of 120,000 bales annually, the State Coop would save about $50,000 this year.

Rail rates on cotton this season will average around $1.25 per bale, this season, and will be less than half what they were in 1930 when the Cooperative used trucks, rather than freight cars, to transport its cotton and saved about $90,000.

The larger truck lines will adjust their rates to agree with those of the rail lines on cotton, Porter said.

The Cooperative received its first two bales of 1932 cotton at Monroe Monday. The Cooperative has not formulated its advance schedule yet but is allowing members to draw five cents per pound upon delivery with the understanding adjustments may be necessary.

DERBY FLIERS IN AIR AGAIN

(Continued from page one) got off his course late yesterday and landed at Coffeyville, Kas., 35 miles north of here, was first of the eastern fliers to take off. Leaving the field at 9:50 a. m., Dorset, in third place in point totals, was closely followed by other contestants.

The eastern contingent which joined the western wing here yesterday after a flight from Jackson, Miss., was led by Chappy Lenox of New Haven, Conn., with a score of 710.75. S. C. Huffman of Cincinnati was in second place with 621.75 and Fred Dorset of Augusta, Ga., third with 538.5.

Hut raced the western group to Bartlesville from Oklahoma City yesterday all for nothing. Race officials decided last night not to count the 123 miles Oklahoma City-Bartlesville lap because of a refueling hitch at Oklahoma City which delayed departure of 13 planes. The point totals at Oklahoma City were declared final for the day.

MANY PERSANS HURT AS GERMAN RIOTS CONTINUE

Meanwhile, Premier Lukashchek of Upper Silesia issued two decrees intended to cope with the situation. One forbade transportation of political groups in huge buses and another prohibited political hangings in the streets. The penalty was a fine of 150 marks.

The five Nazi followers were convicted in a "speed court" of the murder of a Communist in the disorders that marked the latest German election campaign.

Adolf Hitler led off in a powerful wave of protests against the convictions, declaring their freedom was a point of honor with the Nazis. He government hereupon issued a manifesto declaring the decision would be based on the laws of the Reich and that coercion would not be tolerated.

LABOR ASKS GOVERNMENT CONTROL FOR INDUSTRY

Taking the view that present reduced wage levels cause reduced consumption, which in turn forces reduced production, the program adopted by the Railway Labor Executive's Association calls for a federal "mobilization" of industry to halt the vicious circle.

The "labor prosperity program" was summarized by the executives as follows:

"Wage cutting must stop. Competition in wage cutting and price cutting is simply competitive suicide. Adequate wages, adequate prices and adequate employment must be restored.

"Our national resources and national credit should be mobilized and employed as they would be in a time of war, for the purpose of coordinating and compelling the use of the industrial facilities of the nation for the employment of all those capable of self-support.

"Adequate compensation thus insured to the workers will provide the purchasing power necessary to support the agricultural and industrial production of the nation.

"We are opposed to any permanent socialization of business or property. But to meet the dangerous failure of the managers of private industry to maintain their operations and to exchange their products through voluntary cooperative methods, we believe that an emergency governmental control is now as essential to the national welfare as it would be in a time of war.

"We, therefore, advocate a civil mobilization, under civil authority, to organize our resources for national defense against the destructiveness of present uncontrolled economic forces.

"We are opposed to the private or political dictatorship of any class interest. But it is time for a representative leadership to be organized in accordance with our democratic institutions and traditions and to substitute an aggressive, courageous program of self-reliant action for a policy of faith, hope and charity."

In addition to adopting the governmental control policy, the association decided to oppose all further consolidations of railroads "until additional legislation is passed by Congress protecting the public and the employes against increase of unemployment, property losses and the destruction of community interests."

TWOAVIATORS TAKE DFF OSLO, NORWAY

Thor Solberg and Carl Peterson, "Vikings" from New York who hoped to beat the "Green Mountain Boy" to Oslo, waited at Darby's Harbor, N. F., to dismantle their wrecked plane. It plunged into the water during a foggy night.

Capt. J. A. Mollison in New York got ready to fly back to England tomorrow if weather reports are to his liking.

William Ulbrich, Dr. Leon M. Pisculli and Miss Edna Newcomer said they would leave New York for a non-stop flight to Rome when the weather is good.

Capt. Wolfgang von Gronau and two German companions tarried at Cordova, Alaska, enroute westward around the world.

Harbor Grace, N. F., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Clyde A. Lee of Oshkosh, Wis., and John Bohkon of Brooklyn, N. Y., took off at 5:02 a. m. (EST) today for Oslo, Norway.

Their plane rose into a cloudless sky. Weather reports gave them a tail wind across the Atlantic and predicted clear weather on the other side except for some rain 600 miles out.

The fliers expected to make the 3,150 miles to Oslo in 30 hours but they carried gasoline to stay aloft for seven hours beyond that time. Their route lay via Dublin, Ireland, Boston, England, and Cuxhaven, Germany.

The cabin doors of the plane were sealed to make room for emergency gasoline tanks and a hole was cut through the roof as a means of entrance and exit. Lee hoped that the empty gas tanks would keep the ship afloat at least until the motor could be cut loose with a hack saw they carried in the event they were forced down over the ocean.

With the weight of the motor gone, they thought they would be able to stay afloat water for some time.
