Roosevelt Charges G. O. P. With Attempt To Confuse And Evade Prohibition Issue

LAUDS WORK OF DEMOCRATS

Nominee For the Presidency Addresses Great Gathering at Sea Girt, N. J.; Says Efforts Since War Have Been Accompanied by Tragic Failure; Raps Efforts of President Hoover

By WALTER T. BROWN (Associated Press Staff Writer) Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Declaring that the Democratic platform and the candidates have "fairly and squarely met" the prohibition issue, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic presidential nominee, asserted here today that President Hoover and the Republican leadership "stand convicted of trying to evade and confuse the issue."

"The methods adopted since the great war with the purpose of achieving a greater temperance by prohibition have been accompanied by the most tragic and far-reaching failure in the history of the country."

Roosevelt was the guest of a Democratic rally arranged by Mayor Hank Hague of Jersey City and other state leaders. The nominee's speech here was the second in his road campaign. The first was at Columbus, Ohio, last Saturday. With him today were Mrs. Roosevelt and their two younger sons, Franklin Jr. and John, both school boys.

Referring to the acceptance speeches of President Hoover and Vice-President Curtis, relative to prohibition, Mr. Roosevelt alluded to the 1930 gubernatorial election in New York State. He was re-elected to a second term that year.

In that year, he declared, "there was a party that tried to ride two horses at the same time. The Republican Party had one foot—a candidate for governor—on the wet horse—and the other foot—the candidate for lieutenant governor, on the wet horse. Unfortunately the horses insisted in going different directions and the party fell to the ground between them."

"This year, he added, "the Republican National leaders have tried the same circus stunt. The answer of the voters throughout the nation will be precisely the same."

The present Republican leadership, Roosevelt asserted, "stands convicted of trying to evade and confuse the issue. The honest dry will honor more the honest wet than the shifty dry, and the anti-prohibitionist prefers the four square dry to the uncertain wet," he said. "All will join in condemning a fearful and timid practice of evasion."

The Democratic presidential aspirant declared Mr. Hoover's acceptance speech "proceeds deliberately to misrepresent the position of the Democratic party. He says 'our opponents pledge the members of their party to destroy every vestige of constitutional and effective federal control of the (liquor) traffic.'"

"I have the right to assume that the president read the Democratic platform and on that assumption I charge that this statement was made to mislead the people of the country and I assert a mere reading for the plain, inequival provisions of the Democratic platform will sustain that charge."

The Democratic platform, he said "expressly and unequivocally opposes the return of the saloon, and with equal emphasis it demands that there be federal control of the liquor traffic to protect dry states. Mr. Roosevelt likened the Republican convention to the ancient oracle of Delphi who, when partially stupefied by the gasses from a volcanic crevice, uttered strange and incoherent words which the high priests interpreted.

SUMMER TERM CLOSES HERE

Eighty-Eight Graduated From Teachers College Here; Dr. R. H. Wright Speaks

East Carolina Teachers College today brought to a close one of its most successful Summer Schools.

The Summer School for the past two years has been divided into two terms of six weeks each, and the enrollment for the 1932 school exceeded that of 1931. The summer session just finished was the eleventh Summer School at Teachers College under the direction of Dr. L. R. Meadows.

The graduating classes numbered eighty-eight. Fifty-seven were graduates from the two-year Normal Course and thirty-one were graduates with the Bachelor of Arts degree.

In accordance with a custom established some years ago, the address to the graduating classes in the Summer School was made by the president of the college, Dr. Robert H. Wright.

The theme of Dr. Wright's address to the graduates on this occasion was "The New Era."

Dr. Wright discussed the changes which are confronting us today; changes in our way of thinking, in our social order, in the whole make-up of human society. He pointed out that we have been told repeatedly that his cycle of depression that we are suffering will soon pass, as others have passed, and the world come back; and yet it hasn't passed, because we have made the mistake of thinking that it was only a matter of dollars and cents. It is a situation that finds its solution in the hearts of mankind. Too many people, intelligent as well as the ignorant, are suffering with the obsession that riches will solve the problem. Riches will not solve it; there is just as much gold and silver in the world today as ever before; there is more food stored up in granaries than ever before, and yet we are in the midst of a world famine. After the World War we became more nationalistic than ever before; each one is trying to live at home in the sense of living within its own borders, without realizing that the commodities of nations must flow freely.

"During the war," he continued, "and just previous to our entering into it, we taught people not to have faith and confidence in each other; taught them to hate and destroy, and now we must reap the harvest of the seed we sowed. Millions lack the confidence, faith and moral courage they had a few years ago. The real issue before us today is a moral and spiritual issue. The problem of the world will not be solved, he said further, till we come to a realization that faith in one's self, in our fellowman, in Jehovah, is absolutely essential to (Continued on Page Four)

GEO. YOUNCE IS ACQUITTED

Former Solicitor of Superior Court Cleared of Second of Two Cases

Lexington, Aug. 27.—(AP)—A man who prosecuted countless cases when solicitor of this district, Geo. A. Younce, today had been cleared in the second of two cases in which he assumed the role of defendant.

After four hours of deliberation yesterday, a jury acquitted him of a charge of perjury. Previously he had been acquitted of a manslaughter charge. Both cases grew out of the fatal shooting of Sheriff J. A. Leonard of Davidson county last February 5.

Younce was indicted for perjury as a result of his testimony at two inquests into Leonard's death. At the first inquest, the jury returned a verdict placing blame for the officer's death of Neil Wimmer, Roanoke, Va., youth. At the second inquest, when new evidence was presented, Younce and W. F. Brinkley, Lexington attorney, who were Leonard's companions on the night of the slaying, were held responsible.

Among prosecution charges was that the former solicitor testified at the first inquest he did not see a gun, but said at the second that Leonard was killed in a struggle with him for a pistol and that he (Continued on Page Four)

Picketing continued on three of the four main highways leading into Council Bluffs, Sheriff P. A. Lainsen reported, but was without violence of any kind. He expressed the opinion that the strike movement was "fading out."

In Nebraska pickets were maintained at Blair on the principal roads leading into Omaha from the northeast part of the state. They permitted trucks to go through yesterday with a warning that "this is the last time."

ABOUT TOWN

President Hoover believes the nation has weathered the major financial crisis. At least, that is what he told national business and financial leaders in conference at Washington yesterday.

Just how strongly the President believes his assertion is not known but that he would like to believe it with all his heart is not doubted. It is a part of Mr. Hoover's policy to produce a psychological effect on the public. If he doesn't succeed he knows as well as other members of his party that they are doomed to defeat in the next election.

The prosperity the President has been seeing "around the corner" for so long is beginning to make its appearance, he would have the people believe, and indeed it is manifest somewhat in climbing cotton, wheat and tobacco prices.

However, there is a long way to go before the people will be satisfied with conditions, and if the conference at Washington fails to improve the public mind, Mr. Hoover has no more chance of being elected than has the camel of Bible fame to get through the eye of a needle.

One thing about that Kiwanis-Rotary game is that it gave members of both clubs something to talk about as well as the public another chance to see a good ball game.

All kinds of baseball were evident in the annual clash at Third street school grounds Thursday, and variety will still be the order of the day in the forthcoming contest to satisfy the Rotarians that they are getting a square deal.

Nothing Venture

By PATRICIA WENTWORTH

SYNOPSIS: Nan Forsyth demands ten thousand dollars to marry Jervis Ware, who must find a wife within three days or lose a great fortune to his former fiancée, Rosamund Carew. Rosamund has jilted him at the last moment because his grandfather's will makes her his heir if Jervis fails to marry by a stated time. Considering the arrangement a matter of business, Jervis agrees to pay Nan, who again conceals her secret love for him. She wants the money to make possible her sister's marriage.

Chapter 6 MYSTERY FROM THE PAST At 9 o'clock on the morning of August 16 Jervis Ware was married to Nan Forsyth in St. Bartholomew's Church. Outside it is a peculiarly quiet church. And when Nan passed from the bright morning sunshine into the dusk of the interior she found it smelled of musty cushions and varnish—a very depressing smell.

Mr. Page gave her away disapprovingly, and he and the sexton were the only witnesses. She looked once at Jervis, and saw him as a tall, aloof shadow. She could guess at the frown she could not see. When he took her hand and put the ring on it, his was hot and dry. He rammed the ring down, and there it was.

They got up from their knees and went into the vestry. She wrote herself for the last time Nan Forsyth. "And now your father's name here, Mrs. Ware."

It was the two things coming together that took her off her balance. Mrs. Ware—and her father dead in a far country, not knowing. Tears stung in her eyes; the register disappeared in a mist. She closed her eyes for a moment hard, then, opening them, bent and wrote, "Nigel Forsyth," and stood aside while Mr. Page and the sexton signed.

They talked to the house in silence. Jervis' room was not dark like the church, and the two windows were open to the garden. Nan stood by the windows so as to get as near to the garden as possible.

"What did you want to talk to me about?" she said. "I want to tell you that Mr. Page is seeing about that ten thousand dollars. Have you a banking account?"

He saw her smile for the first time. "Oh, no," she said. "You will have to have one. You'd better see Mr. Page about it, and when you have opened the account he will pay the money in. Then, as regards yourself, I have signed a settlement which gives you five thousand a year."

ROTES SET NEW RECORD ON DIAMOND

What is believed to be a new world's record was established by the Rotary club here Thursday in the annual baseball classic with the Kiwanis club.

K. W. Cobb, president of the Rotary club, said today that by not catching a single ball hit during the game, the Rotarians not only permitted the Kiwanians to defeat them 16 to 2, but positively set a record unparalleled in baseball.

Although the scorebook gave the Kiwanians the big end of the score, the Rotarians protested the game on the ground that the Kiwanians violated an agreement regarding the use of players.

The agreement, Cobb said, provided that either club failing to play every man on its roster would automatically forfeit five runs for each man. The Kiwanians, he asserted, failed to play at least ten men, and therefore permitted the Rotarians to win, 52 to 16, instead of the score recorded by the official scorekeeper.

Although the Kiwanians launched no counter-charges to the protest, they agreed to play off the game at any time the Rotarians desired. The proceeds from the game will be devoted to charity.

With the new baseball record, Cobb stated that his club held two marks of distinction which should help them gain world-wide recognition. The other is the ownership of the beautiful Rotary home here, declared to be the only Rotary-owned building in the world.

PENNANT IN THE BAG FOR THE HORNETS

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Correspondents along the Piedmont League battle-front showed remarkable unanimity in their dispatches today. "It's all over but the shouting, the second half pennant is in the bag for Charlotte," a compendium might have read.

Technically, Greensboro's puffing Patriots still have a chance to finish in first place, as they did in the first half. But it's a poor one. The busy Hornets hold a seven-game lead at this sitting, which looks as impregnable as the Bank of England. Approximately 15 games remain on the card, but the season ends September 10. Both clubs would have to do a startling reversal of form for the Pats to finish on top, an unlikely prospect in view of the fine way Guy Lacy's club is clipping along these days.

Charlotte took the first of an important series with its rival last night, winning easily, 7 to 1, here. The game was the only action in the loop, Wilmington's game at Durham was postponed and a double-header set for today.

Raleigh and High Point called things off at High Point when not enough cash customers appeared. The Pats and Bees hook up in a double-header tonight.

Red Kleinhans' bumping at the hands of the Hornets last night cost him his tie for the league's pitching leadership. The Greensboro south-paw now has won nineteen contests and dropped seven. In first place is Jim Lyle, Hornet ace, with nineteen wins and six losses.

One handicap to the Patriots was the loss of Jimmy Sanders and Ray Caldwell. Sanders has a bad heel, while Caldwell has been sick. The latter is expected to get back into action tonight, however.

CUBS BOOST THEIR LEAD IN NATIONAL

By HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Writer) For the first time since Charley Grimm took over the reins, the Chicago Cubs can afford to sit back and take a breathing spell.

Winners of seven successive games and of 17 of the 22 they've played under Grimm's leadership, the Cubs today were six and a half games in front of the National League field.

They trounced the pennant-hungry Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday for the third time in a row, 10 to 4, smashing Hollis Thurston, Dazzy Vance and Jack Quinn for eight hits and nine runs in the third-inning. Behid that lead Lon Warneke coasted to his nineteenth victory of the campaign. The sensational rookie right-hander has lost only five games, three of them to the Dodgers. The Dodgers, their pennant hopes by temporarily dimmed, now must turn their attention to holding on to second place. While they were taking their trouncing at Chicago, the Pittsburgh Pirates, behind the seven-hit pitching of Leon Chagnon, blanked the Phillies, 8 to 0, and moved to within half a game of the Dodgers.

The only other National League game of the day provided Dizzy Dean with a chance to win his second game in three days. He pitched the Cardinals to a 4 to 2 decision over the New York Giants, allowing only five hits, of which two were home runs by Carl Hubbell and Melvin Ott.

There was no change in the relative standing of the American League leaders as the New York Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics both won. Johnny Allen outpitched Wes Ferrell as the Yankees beat Cleveland, 4 to 2. Gehrig's 29th homer and Ruth's 37th helped the young right-hander hang up his eighth successive victory and his fourteenth against two defeats this season.

Home runs by Bob Grove, Al Simmons and Jimmie Fox, the latter's 47th of the campaign, helped the Athletics to whip the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 4, although it was Simmons' single in the ninth that drove the winning run. Grove struck out ten men in winning his 20th game of the year.

The Chicago White Sox collected 18 hits, including seven doubles and two home runs, and still managed to lose a decision to the Boston Red Sox, 11 to 2. The Red Sox got 13 hits and, what is more to the point, 14 passes from Gaston, Gallivan, Chamberlain and Faber.

Announcement that Congressman Sol Bloom of New York has been invited to deliver the address at the celebration of the 200th anniversary of the birth of the first President will be received with pleasure here.

Congressman Bloom is considered a speaker of note and has appeared in this state on several occasions in connection with similar celebrations.

It is nothing but fitting that Greenville should join the remainder of the nation in paying tribute to the "Father of his Country" as he was denominated by historians years ago, in view of the fact that he paid a visit to this section at one time and described Greenville as "the muddy little village on Tar river."

He reacted with a feeling of acute annoyance. "Do you mind considering my position a moment? Do you really expect me to marry a girl and leave her penniless? Why should you have married me if you were going to take up a position like this?"

Why! Nan could have laughed and wept at the question. If they had been in the Palace of Truth, she would have said: "Oh, my dear! Why? To save you from being robbed. To save you from the sort of girl you might have married. To save you from picking someone up off the streets. But since these were things to be hidden at any cost, she frowned, looked at him gravely, and said: "I hadn't thought of it like that." Her heart said: "Oh, my dear!"

Her lips spoke quickly: "I quite see your point of view; but it is too much." The hurt, angry child disappeared. A rather lofty stranger said in tones of icy politeness: "The deed is already signed. I would prefer not to discuss the matter any more."

Adlee Pomerene, Democratic chair man of the Reconstruction Commission, is of the opinion that this new spirit of confidence noticeable in all parts of the nation is here to stay.

The statement is of especial significance coming as it does from the head of one of the greatest ventures yet undertaken for improving the economic life of the nation, and the people will give it all the credit it deserves. Pomerene believes the general upturn in the business and financial realms of the country has imparted new hope to the millions of people who have struggled through the greatest period of depression in history, and that this will play a conspicuous part in ultimate recovery. Expressions of confidence are good for the country and the people as a whole and will enable everybody to overcome unfavorable conditions and find a higher level of economic freedom.

It was not much of a tribute the beloved leader of our struggling colonists paid to this, the largest bright leaf tobacco market in the world, but could be come here now it is not to be doubted that his opinion would be in sharp contrast to the former.

Because of that one reference to the town, Washington is closely connected with the history of this important tobacco producing county, and the celebration unquestionably will draw thousands of people here.

Watermelon Rind Pickles.

If you want watermelon pickles and don't mind the time it takes to make them, try these. They are transparent when finished and quite dry and are very nice and party plates.

To nine pounds of rind put one bottle of Lilly's Lime in a gallon of water. Let stand over night. Soak in clear water until free from lime and rinse well. Place in pot and cover with cold water. Let boil six to eight hours, then add nine pounds of sugar and cook from three to four hours longer. One and a half hours before finishing, add a cup of crushed spices and one large package of cinnamon crushed. The spices should be placed in a cloth bag. Twenty minutes before removing from fire, add a quart of strong vinegar. As the pickles are being cooked it will be necessary to add Court House.

Watermelon Rind Pickles.

If you could see the pantry shelves of Mrs. Phronie Hawkins at Stokes you would wonder if there really had been a depression. Many varieties of vegetables and fruits are ready now for the cold winter days and more are appearing each day. It looks like it might be necessary to have more shelves.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

New York Cotton

New York, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened firm, 18 to 27 points higher to new high levels on a very active general buying movement and on higher Liverpool cables and activity in textiles.

The initial advance met some of realizing and some Southern selling, but it was promptly absorbed by a broadening of general demand and the advance extended to 8.30 for December, or 55 points net higher, during the early trading.

Houses with Liverpool and Continental connections were among the buyers' while there was further buying by domestic trade interests and commission houses. No fresh news factor was mentioned in connection with the advance, but the buying seemed to reflect increasing confidence in the general business outlook and the expectation of a reduction in crop estimates.

Liverpool cables were relatively firm on general buying, covering and trade calling, although business in cotton goods at Manchester was said to be disorganized by the advance in cotton and the strike of weavers in Lancashire mills.

Grain Market

Chicago, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Broad general buying swept wheat prices upward today. The December delivery touched 58 cents, the highest price in about two weeks and 21-2 cents above yesterday's close. Bearish influences were completely disregarded and traders followed the upward trend of stocks and cotton. Profit-taking and heavy selling here against purchasers at Winnipeg, regarded as closing of "spreads," halted the upturn, but failed to cause much weakness, the undertone throughout the day was distinctly strong. The Chicago December delivery sold at a premium over Winnipeg December for the first time in months. Corn and oats followed wheat. Provisions were also firm.

Stock Market

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER (Associated Press Financial Editor) New York, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Financial markets ended the week with a striking bull demonstration extending through securities and principal commodities, particularly cotton and wheat.

The commodities were perhaps even more impressive than stocks and bonds, stocks urged up about 1 to 4 points, with utilities showing pronounced strength in the last hour.

But other groups began to slip as buying shifted into utilities, and while many issues in that group closed about 1 to 3 points higher, net gains elsewhere were mostly meagre.

An up-surge of $2.50 a bale for cotton was accompanied by a gain of about 2 cents in wheat, which had been a laggard yesterday, and the movement in these staples continued to stir bullish enthusiasm. The recent slump in bonds was checked, and that market scored some improvement at times.

Advances of 2 to more than 3 points at the finish remained in such issues as Consolidated Gas, American Power and Light, American and Foreign Power and North America. Gas, however, lost half of a point rise, and International Harvester finished up only a fraction, after rising 2. U. S. Steel, after rising more than a point to a new high for the recovery, closed up about 1-2 point.

Coppers were again a firm group, with American Smelting, Kennecott, Anaconda, all closing about a point higher. Similar net gains appeared in American Tobacco "B," Allied Chemical and Western Union. American Telephone was not a particularly strong spot at any time, and it reacted to close with a loss of a point. Auburn lost 3 net. Rails failed to participate appreciably.

The freight car loading figures, as reported for the week ended August 20, were a little disappointing. A gain of only 6,211 cars was small for the period of the year. Car-loadings usually work sharply higher during August.

Nevertheless, week-end reports from the steel industry provided

TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND MEN STRIKE IN ENGLAND

(Continued from Page One) small response to the call is expected in some districts because of temporary working agreements already operative. In other districts the stoppage will be complete.

The tragic aspects of the grim struggle in which women and children will be the sufferers, is that the negotiations for peace were wrecked, not on the main issue of wages, but the reinstatement of about 3,000 workers already on strike.

On Monday at least 150,000, or 50 times the number whose reinstatement was demanded, will be out of work. In their present bitter mood, only the industrial law of attrition seems likely to bring the employers and the operatives together for renewed negotiations.

Many cases of distress already were being handled today in Lan. cashire. Several organizations were distributing food parcels, but the problem of relief will be greatly augmented next week.

There was no sign that the government would intervene at the present stage. The cabinet held a session in London in the forenoon and the main attention was directed toward the results of the Ottawa imperial conference.

The failure of the weavers to report Monday will mark the second English textile strike within the month. The Burney workers walked out August 1, but consented to further conferences with the owners, averting a general strike.

The cotton industry in England has been upset for months, with employers seeking to reduce pay and introduce more looms per weaver.

The owners even offered to raise pay in some cases if the system were agreed to, but the workers said several thousand men would lose their jobs if it were permitted.

His notification and acceptance set a new low in the matter of expenditure. Senator Alben W. Barkley, temporary chairman of the national convention, sent him a letter from Washington, in which he praised the speaker highly, and Garner answered in another letter dated from his home at Uvalde, Texas.

It had been estimated that the notification would cost six cents, but the expense was a trifle more because of the postage required to mail copies to the national committee, which released them here.

Mr. Garner assailed the Hawley-Smoot tariff as causing a great decline in trade, attacked what he called the steady encroachment of the federal government on the rights and duties of the states. Regarding prohibition, he declared that unlike the Republican plank, the Democratic plank made no attempt to be equivocal.

No other constructive solution of the problems of the 18th amendment brought upon the country has been offered," he said.

Return of control and supervision to the states, where it rightfully belongs, should be welcomed by all who realize the growth of the evils which followed placing of this power in the hands of federal government.

recently reported as dead in Georgia. Both he and his wife figured prominently in criminal court here over a period of two years. Mrs. Ballard claimed to have been robbed of a considerable sum of money during the Christmas holidays two years ago. Elmer Whitley and Roy Cox were convicted of the crime and sentenced to from seven to nine years in State's Prison. They were later granted a new trial when it was discovered that Mrs. Ballard, who claimed the money taken from her was all she had in the world, had several thousand dollars in a safe deposit box in a Wilson bank.

GARNER SETS NEW RECORD (Continued from Page One) ican leaders in Washington with failing to act courageously when the slump came or to take adequate relief measures and he laid "nearly all our civic troubles" to "government's departure from its legitimate functions".

His notification and acceptance set a new low in the matter of expenditure. Senator Alben W. Barkley, temporary chairman of the national convention, sent him a letter from Washington, in which he praised the speaker highly, and Garner answered in another letter dated from his home at Uvalde, Texas.

It had been estimated that the notification would cost six cents, but the expense was a trifle more because of the postage required to mail copies to the national committee, which released them here.

Mr. Garner assailed the Hawley-Smoot tariff as causing a great decline in trade, attacked what he called the steady encroachment of the federal government on the rights and duties of the states. Regarding prohibition, he declared that unlike the Republican plank, the Democratic plank made no attempt to be equivocal.

No other constructive solution of the problems of the 18th amendment brought upon the country has been offered," he said.

Return of control and supervision to the states, where it rightfully belongs, should be welcomed by all who realize the growth of the evils which followed placing of this power in the hands of federal government.
