The bandits, who took with them as hostages Miss Ruth Whippa, a bookkeeper, and Miss Doris Stack, a customer...

S. H. Murray, cashier, was struck on the head, but was not hurt seriously. Witnesses disagreed as to whether there were three or five robbers.

Hickory Firm Preparing For New 'Wet' Era

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 30.—(AP)—If prohibition is repealed or modified, one Hickory firm is not going to be caught napping.

A charter authorizing the wholesale distributors, Inc., of Hickory, to "make, buy, sell and deal in porter, ale, lager beer and liquors of all sorts and kinds" has been granted by the Secretary of State...

The new company also plans to do a general wholesale and retail grocery business. Paid in stockholders are: R. E. Ballinger, F. G. Johnson and G. B. Goode.

Storm Death Toll Mounts

San Juan, Puerto Rico, Sept. 30.—(AP)—The official estimate of the casualties in last Tuesday's hurricane was placed today by Governor James R. Beverley at 212 dead and 1,800 injured.

About 245,000 were left homeless, he said. The estimate was based on additional information from the stricken areas with many of which communication has been impossible since the storm.

Half the homeless were only temporarily so, he said, but the rest had nothing at all with which to begin over again.

Italian Liner Is Damaged On Maiden Voyage

London, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Reports from Gibraltar, where the new Italian liner Rex was held up yesterday for repairs on her maiden voyage to the United States, said the trouble was more serious than had been supposed and the liner might not be able to continue the voyage for two or three days.

One report said new parts to replace those damaged would be brought from Italy by airplane.

MANY HURT AS ILLINOIS MINERS CLASH IN RIOT

One man was killed, and scores were bruised or stabbed in a clash between two factions of miners at Springfield, Ill. The riot represented a fight between armed groups of union miners and others who have organized a new union. This picture shows part of the participating crowd. (Associated Press Photo)

Police And Students In Gun Battle At Havana

Havana, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Police and students engaged in a gun battle today on the street in front of the residence of a Cuban senator, just three days after the assassinations of four prominent political leaders by gangs of gunmen.

Two women bystanders fainted but no one was injured. The shooting started in front of the home of Senator Wilfredo Fernandez and became a running battle along the streets. (Continued on Page Six)

DENY MIXED BALLOT IN S. C.

Gov. Blackwood Refuses to Put Democrats and Republicans on Same Ticket

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Governor Ibra C. Blackwood has denied the South Carolina Republican party's request that the names of Republican and Democratic candidates for U. S. Senate, Congress and the Electoral College be placed on the same ticket for the general election.

J. C. Hambricht, Republican National Committee man, and D. A. Gardner, State Chairman, went to the governor's office today to urge that a single ballot is the only "fair and legal" way to conduct the election. (Continued on Page Six)

MAN BELIEVED DEAD IS ALIVE

New Yorker Comes Very Near Attending His Own Funeral Yesterday.

New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Daniel Sullivan would have been buried yesterday—and a grand affair it would have been, with de luxe funeral cars and the undertaker wearing snappy white gloves and his best frock coat—except for one thing.

Daniel wasn't dead. He seemed as sorry about everything as did the others who had gone to considerable trouble to put him properly away. "Go right on thinking I'm dead." (Continued on Page Six)

AYDEN FIRM WINS ACTION

Ellis Motor Company of Ayden, N. C., was awarded a $100 judgment against R. E. Belcher and others of Farmville by a jury in the civil term of Superior court yesterday.

The suit consumed the major part of the day and was not completed until the late afternoon. Court got an entirely new start this morning and was expected to adjourn during the afternoon.

The suit grew out of a controversy over a set of automobile tires which Belcher had put on a negro's automobile. The negro failed to pay for the tires and the car was held by the concern pending payment. It developed the negro had not completed paying Ellis Motor Company for the car, and they immediately filed suit. The car was valued at $100 and the jury held the firm should recover.

In the suit of L. A. Stocks against Metropolitan Life Insurance Company involving a claim for disability compensation, the plaintiff was allowed $70 a month during the period of his disability. The case was completed yesterday morning after which attorneys fixed the amount due Stocks and submitted it to the court for approval.

With completion of yesterday's session court had disposed of thirty-five cases of more or less interest to the people of the community. While the majority of actions were compromised, several long drawn-out cases were completed.

It was indicated today's final session would witness the disposition of quite a number of other actions.

Snow in Canada

Peterboro, Ont., Sept. 30.—(AP)—The earliest snow on record fell in this district yesterday, carpeting the countryside.

BIG COLLEGE ENROLLMENT

Registration of Students Here Nears the Nine Hundred Mark, More Coming.

The enrollment at East Carolina Teachers College at the beginning of classes this morning was near the nine hundred mark, with students still coming in. The exact figures will not be known for several days.

There were several noticeable features about the registration. The number of boys is double what it was last year and the number in four year classes has greatly increased.

The territory from which the students come has widened greatly. One comes from Canada, and one each from New York, Massachusetts and Connecticut, while other states nearer by are represented, and most of the counties in North Carolina.

There are few changes in the faculty. Miss Dora E. Coates of the education department, has returned from leave of absence, having spent last year at Columbia University, where she received her M. A. degree. Miss Cleo Rainwater, principal of the training school, and Miss Browning, fourth grade critic teacher, have returned from studying in the University of Iowa. Hubert C. Haynes, of the education department, spent his year's leave of absence working for his doctor's degree. (Continued on Page Six)

Tobacco Mart Pays Out Over Million Dollars Here

With today's sale the Greenville tobacco market will have paid out over a million dollars for the present season, it was revealed today in the official report of market activities submitted by K. W. Cobb, supervisor of sales.

It was estimated today's sales would total 1,250,000 pounds. Floors were expected to be cleared during the late afternoon when warehousemen will begin preparing for the reception of heavy offering next week. The recent rainfall, combined with the sting of autumn, was expected to inject new life into marketing of the golden crop which continued very slowly the first of the season, but which has picked up sharply during the last two weeks.

With several million pound days to its credit, Greenville has forced to the lead of all other markets of

ROOSEVELT ON WAY TO CITY OF MILWAUKEE

Democratic Nominee Raps Republican Extravagance at Sioux City, Iowa.

By WALTER T. BROWN (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Aboard Roosevelt Special, En Route to Milwaukee, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Governor Roosevelt today crossed Iowa, the birthplace of President Hoover, his rival for the Presidency, whose administration he accused in a Sioux City speech "of being the greatest spending administration in peace times in all our history."

The special train of the Democratic candidate, on the last lap of its 8,900 mile journey through the Middle and Far West, was scheduled to reach Milwaukee at 10 p. m. eight hours later. Mr. Roosevelt will be in Chicago for the last week-end before he returns to the New York State Capitol.

Mr. Roosevelt, speaking at the stockyards baseball park last night in Sioux City, discussed taxes, the (Continued on Page Six)

SEEK RETURN OF INSULLS

Attorney Lewis Jacobson, who made the announcement, said that he and his associates would seek to have subpoenas issued for the (Continued on Page Six)

BEGIN STUDY OF HURRICANE

Scientists Will Attempt to Determine How Nature's Paradox Starts.

Washington, Sept. 30.—(AP)—As the hurricane that devastated Puerto Rico moved westward with diminishing force today, scientists of the weather bureau carried on with studies of just how and why a hurricane starts.

Most scientists agree that, by a strange paradox of nature, the blustering gales of a hurricane are born in the doldrums—tropical regions where movement of air is almost at a standstill. The exact physics and mathematics of the process, however, remain to be worked out.

Rising columns of warm, moist air, two air currents moving in opposite directions, and the rotation (Continued on Page Six)

Three Members Of Crew Saved As Storm Batters The "Nevada" To Pieces

Stubborn Political Fight Predicted For The East

Washington, Sept. 30.—(AP)—The Presidential campaign passes into the usually decisive month of October with the activities of both major political parties centered temporarily in the West, but with plentiful signs that an inch-by-inch struggle is to follow also in the East.

The Democratic drive for the insurgent Republican support west of the Mississippi, led by Governor Roosevelt, has received increasing attention in the closing days of September. It will be followed after (Continued on Page Six)

WALKER MAY RUN AGAIN

Former Mayor Boosted as Candidate For Old Office in New York City.

New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—On the heels of a court decision calling for a mayoralty election in November, the name of former Mayor Jas. J. Walker was mentioned in political circles today as a possible candidate for re-election.

The Herald Tribune said Tammany Hall had revived its plan to support Walker, who resigned following an investigation into the city administration, and had timed a convention of county committeemen called to nominate a candidate to coincide with the return of the former mayor from a vacation abroad.

Cable dispatches from Gibraltar quoted Walker as saying it was imperative that he reach New York before the opening of the convention, scheduled for October 8, as "my political career is at stake."

The action of the appellate division yesterday in reversing the recent decision of Supreme Court Justice John E. McGehean, was the development which renewed the Tammany hope of re-electing Walker, the paper said.

An appeal will be taken immediately on behalf of Mayor McKee to Court of Appeals, highest of the State's judicial bodies.

NEW SLANT ON JAP QUESTION

Report to League Emphasizes the Chinese Boycott of Japanese Goods.

Washington, Sept. 29.—(AP)—Clear indications that great stress will be laid in Geneva discussions of the Lytton report on Japan's contention that Chinese illegally boycotted Japanese wares are contained in the Tokyo government's recent white book presenting its view of the Manchurian conflict.

The Lytton commission's findings on the Manchurian situation will be made public by the League of Nations on Monday.

The Japanese official document maintains that the boycotts by Chinese, as recently conducted, were more than buyers' strikes. Instead it contends, they were efforts to cut off all economic relations, a move distinctly in violation of trade and commerce treaties.

Since the Nationalist government was established at Nanking in 1927 anti-foreign boycotts are declared to have shown an entirely different character. They are represented as being better organized and directed and more thorough than in previous years. This the Japanese white book attributes to the supervision of the Kuomintang or "Mother Party of the National Government."

COTTON MILLS RESUMES WORK

Lexington, N. C., Sept. 30.—(AP)—The Nokes Cotton Mill, which has been idle for five months, will resume operations day and night, six days a week, beginning Monday. Between 200 and 250 workers are employed by the mill.

SAVED SEAMEN IN BAD SHAPE

Survivors So Weak When Taken On Board the President Madison They Could Tell Only Snatches of Horror They Saw When Japan-Bound Freighter Broke To Pieces on Rocks of Pacific 'Graveyard'; Several Men of Oregon Maru Injured in Rescue Attempt.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 3.—(AP)—Pierces of the battered hulk of the freighter Nevada pounded today on a rocky Aleutian Island, where 34 members of her crew were drowned by stormy seas.

Only three men survived—saved by their own strength and daring and the heroism of life boat crews from two rescue ships.

They were taken off Antineak Island late yesterday by the President Madison, in a serious condition from exposure and lack of food. They had remained on the island without shelter and only dried food to eat, for two sleepless days after seeing their captain and shipmates leap into a gale-lashed sea and never appear again.

The three are: James Thorson, a cadet of Portland, Ore.; Fritz Dewall, able bodied seaman, no address; and Luena N. Decaney, ordinary seaman, Manila, P. I.

They were so weak when taken aboard the President Madison they could tell only snatches of the horror they witnessed when their Japan-bound freighter piled up on the rocks and then began to break to pieces. Of the officers and crew of 37, they were the only ones to reach shore, fighting their way successfully through breakers which a day later kept a small boat of the Japanese freighter, Oregon Maru, from reaching the uninhabited island to take them off.

After resting and eating as the President Madison resumed her course for Victoria, B. C., the trio revived. A radio message received early today reported "all well now." One of them suffered a cut on the head while landing in the surf from the Nevada.

The message contained no further details of the wreck of the Nevada in the ship's graveyard of the north Pacific Wednesday morning.

Before their eyes, they said, their captain, T. W. Johansen, of Portland, Ore., and the first officer, E. T. Wendt, also of Portland, leaped overboard into the foaming surf to disappear.

Heroes of rescued and rescuers was told in a laconic message from Captain R. J. Healy of the President Madison, hero of a previous less tragic rescue in Aleutian waters. He radioed:

"We have taken aboard the three survivors of the freighter Nevada. Rest were drowned in the surf. The rescue work by our officers and crew was magnificent."

During rescue attempts in gale and high seas, a small boat of the Oregon Maru was lost and several men injured. Food was thrown over the side of the Japanese freighter in hope it would float to shore where the trio was marooned.

One of those aboard the ship was a passenger, Portus D. Berry, 26, of Seattle, who was making a trip to the Orient for his health.

The cause of the disaster to the ship, owned by the States Steamship Co., of Portland, had not been revealed in radio messages as its radio messages went silent after its first SOS late Tuesday night. After a 16-hour search the Oregon Maru found the Nevada piled on the rocks of the island, where it had either been driven by the gale or, deliberately rammed aground to give the crew a chance to reach shore when the ship was in a sinking condition. HOLDS REPORT ON U. S. LOANS

South Trimble Is In Doubt as to Whether Make Public Activities of R. F. C.

Washington, Sept. 30.—(AP)—South Trimble, clerk of the House of Representatives, today postponed a decision on whether to make public the Reconstruction Corporation's report on August loans, in view of objection to that procedure made by Chairman Allen Pomerene of the Corporation Board.

The Corporation's contentions against publication of the report was released by Trimble. (Continued on Page Six)

MISTRIAL IN MURDER CASE

Jury Fails to Agree in Case of Alfred Marshall, Held for Murder N. C. Youth.

Hampton, S. C., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Judge Marvin M. Mann today ordered a mistrial in the case of Alfred M. Marshall, former Army major, charged with the murder of C. M. Merrill, 28-year-old Asheville, N. C., road foreman, when the jury reported in court today it was unable to agree on a verdict.

The jury received the case yesterday at 6 p. m. and deliberated until midnight when its members were locked up and allowed to sleep. When Judge Mann convened court this morning, the jury reported it was "hopelessly deadlocked."

The case will probably be re-tried at the February term of General Sessions Court. Marshall was released on $5,000 bond.

Merrill was shot to death in Estill, near here, last May 12. Marshall pleaded self-defense, contending Merrill advanced on him with his hand on his hip pocket as if he "planned to draw a gun."

The shooting followed an argument on May 11 when Marshall attempted to cross a highway under construction and was forbidden to do so by Merrill, in charge of the work for the Carolina Road Surfacing Company, of Greenville, S. C.

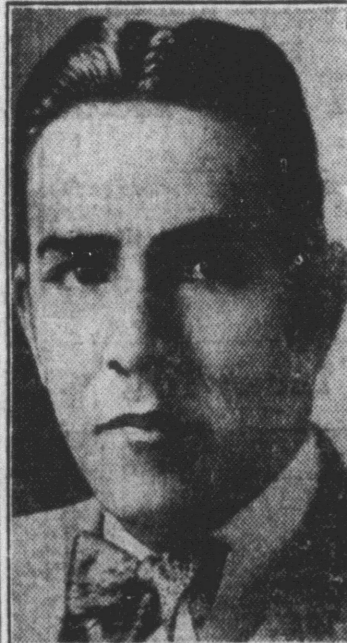

After a coroner's jury had ordered Marshall held for murder, the former Army officer was granted his liberty on $5,000 bond. The same bond was continued in effect after today's mistrial.

Seven Lives Lost in Flood

Mexico City, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Reports of the most serious floods in twenty years, in which at least seven lives have been lost, came from northern Mexican points today.

Heavy rains have been falling all week, paralyzing railroad traffic. Serious further danger to life was reported from three widely separated points, Tampico, Monterrey and the city of Chihuahua.

Six persons were known to be dead at Heuludia, state of Hidalgo, and one death was reported from Monterrey. Thousands of cattle and other livestock perished, but no complete estimate of property damage could be made.

The Federal Congress appropriated $0,000 pesos (about $25,000) for relief work, and it was indicated much more money would be needed.

At Chihuahua the River Chuvicscar was a raging torrent sweeping low-lying villas and farm crops before it as the inhabitants fled to higher ground. The village of Temen has disappeared, it was said.

Part of the main business district of Heuludia was destroyed.

Man Still Not Sure of Identity

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Although possible clues and suggestions have arrived from various parts of the country, Arthur Courtney Campbell, amnesia victim who believes he was once a member of the famous LaPayette Escadrille, said today he was not sure of his identity.

Campbell, who is about 41, has been stranded here for several weeks.

From Evanston, Ill., Andrew Courtney Campbell wired that his son, Andrew, Jr., was killed in action with the French air forces in the World War. His description of his son resembled the man here, who said: "I believe I am that man, but I don't know. It is all hazy and strange to me."

Ben Burbridge, big game hunter, of Jacksonville, Fla., said he had never known Campbell, although the

Notice to Land Owners in Pitt County Drainage District No. 2

All unpaid drainage taxes due Pitt County Drainage District No. 2 for 1931 will be advertised the first week in October. The advertisement of these taxes has been deferred just as long as possible by the Board of Commissioners in order to give the citizens of the county an opportunity to realize sufficient funds with which to pay. There can be no further extension after this month and everyone is urged to pay now in order to avoid the advertisement of the property for taxes and additional penalties caused thereby. Please let us have your co-operation in this matter.

"I Had To Take Some Kind of a Laxative Every Day," He Says

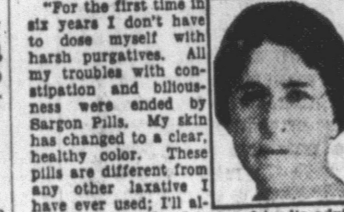

"Sargon Soft Mass Pills Regulated My Bowels Perfectly."

"I suffered with chronic constipation for twenty years. I finally reached the point where I had to take some kind of a laxative every day, but all they did was to purge my bowels and help me for the time being. Sargon Pills brought me my first and only lasting relief. They regulated my bowels perfectly. I don't believe there is another laxative like them in the world."—Mr. F. Harwood, 70 Lenox St., Rochester, N. Y.

"I No Longer Have To Dose Myself With Harsh Purgatives"

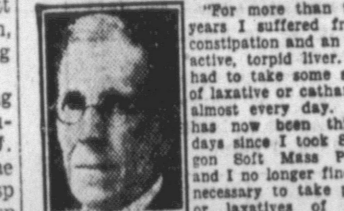

Will Always Bless the Day She Started Sargon Soft Mass Pills.

"For the first time in six years I do not have to dose myself with harsh purgatives. All my troubles with constipation and biliousness were ended by Sargon Pills. My skin has changed to a clear, healthy color. These pills are different from any other laxative I have ever used; I'll always bless the day I took a friend's advice and started taking them."—Mrs. A. S. Treloar, 221 Linn Ave., Long Beach, Calif.

He Never Has To Take Laxatives Of Any Description

Used Cathartics Almost Daily Before He Took Sargon Pills.

"For more than ten years I suffered from constipation and an inactive, torpid liver. I had to take some sort of laxative or cathartic almost every day. It has now been thirty days since I took Sargon Soft Mass Pills, and I no longer find it necessary to take pills or laxatives of any kind, for I am perfectly regulated."—Thomas C. Matthews, 1441 Wasco Street, Denver, Colo.

Is Now Perfectly Regulated First Time in 15 Years

Was Continually Taking Medicines Without Lasting Benefits.

"I was continually taking physics and laxatives but could find nothing to overcome my dreadful constipation. Thanks to Sargon Soft Mass Pills I now, for the first time in fifteen years, have regular and thorough bowel eliminations. This is the only laxative I ever used that works naturally and easily without the least griping or upsetting effects."—Mrs. Ellis Warner, 641 E. 32nd St., Portland, Oregon.

We Know It's Harder This Year-- But Then It Won't Take as Many Subscriptions

Every One Competes Under Same Conditions

Yes Sir, we know conditions are not just as we would like them to be and that money is a little tighter with folks than usual. And we know that those who enroll in The Reflector drive and compete for the prizes mentioned will find it harder this year than three years ago. But just the same there are many favorable things to consider by those who enroll. In the first place the winner of the $600.00 in cash won't have to turn in as many subscriptions as other first place winners in previous contests. And if entrants find the going hard they can console themselves with the knowledge that others are competing under the very same conditions. So don't let this and that excuse prevent you from sending in your name today. The winners this year will be made of the same stuff as winners always are.

LaRoue, deputy insurance commissioner, talked on the Home Loan Bank to be located at Winston-Salem. Approximately two hundred building and loan directors and executives from this section of the state attended the meeting which was described as most interesting.

Those attending from here were C. H. Forbes, Dr. J. C. Greene, Dr. L. C. Skinner, B. S. Warren, G. B. W. Hadley, W. W. Lee and J. J. White.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Carmichael announce the birth of a son, Richard Cartwright Carmichael, Jr., on Wednesday, September 28th, 1932.

Mrs. Webb Hostess

Farmville, Sept. 30.—Mrs. G. H. Webb was gracious hostess at one of the largest and most delightful parties of the fall season on Thursday afternoon, entertaining at the home of Mrs. J. Y. Monk, in which cut flowers and autumn foliage was used with pleasing effect.

Ten tables bore attractive appointments for bridge and after several spirited progressions Mrs. R. O. Lang was awarded first prize and Mrs. J. H. Darden, second, decks of handsome cards, and Mrs. J. W. Jeyner received the consolation, dusting powder.

Mrs. J. Y. Monk and daughter, Miss Rachel, assisted the hostess in serving a salad course.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Clyde Webb of Greenville, Mrs. Stanley Lee of South Boston, Va., Misses Margaret Mebane of Burlington, Louise High and Elizabeth Powell of Whiteville.

Garden Club

Farmville, Sept. 30.—Mrs. B. Streeter Sheppard was hostess to the September meeting of the Garden Club on Wednesday afternoon. The club voted to dispense with the annual fall flower show but the president requested members to exhibit specimen dahlias and chrysanthemums at the next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. J. I. Morgan. A more extensive cultivation of roses, as the town's flower, was urged together with the planting of more bulbs and shrubs for its beautification. The club decided to replace holly trees at entrance to Hollywood cemetery and the varnishing and decoration of catwalks was discussed.

The program consisted of an article written for The Club Woman, communities under high moral, social and aesthetic ideals is as fundamental to civilized society and sound living as are industry, trade, government and religion.

Messames Roy Davenport, M. T. Spier, R. T. Cox, A. D. McLachlan, J. R. Carroll and others attended the Woman's Missionary Association meeting of the Roanoke Association at Nashville Wednesday.

Those on the sick list this week are Mrs. Louis Brown and Mr. Clarence Little. We hope for these and others who may be sick, a speedy recovery.

Scouts Launch Big Program

The Boy Scouts of America are launching the most tremendous and daring program since the movement's organization 22 years ago. The ten year program. Stated simply it means this organization plans to bring into Scouting one of every four boys in the United States, to hold him and give him the Scout training in citizenship and character building for a period of four years. The results in ten years will be 25 per cent of America's young men will have the right principles and ideals of clean living, sportsmanship, and citizenship responsibilities.

From across the sea, letters from the chief scout of the world, Lord Baden Powell, founder of Scouting, say, "I congratulate you (Boy Scouts of America) on the far-reaching and courageous steps which you are taking. I doubt whether there has ever been a time when character building agencies for youth such as the Boy Scouts were more needed and important and you are certainly giving the lead."

In a report made during the recent meeting of the National Council Social Work Conference, held in Philadelphia, this question was asked: "Are we financially able to provide educational-recreation and character building programs in times like these when funds are needed to feed the hungry?" The answer was: "Organization of the leisure activity of individuals and the program consisted of an article written for The Club Woman, communities under high moral, social and aesthetic ideals is as fundamental to civilized society and sound living as are industry, trade, government and religion."

cial and aesthetic ideals is as fundamental to civilized society and sound living as are industry, trade, government and religion. "America has not yet come to the point where some of the population must be saved from starvation by a process of forcing children and adults to give up all leisure time privileges. The character building and community organizing agencies have greatly reduced their budgets. They are taking a very active and vital part in the relief program of the nation. They are saving from discouragement and despair hundreds of thousands of people. It is a significant fact that commercial recreation continues to flourish. Considering the results of Scout training among boys, its cost to a community, in dollars, is extremely small."

Snake Fight to Be Staged Here During Evening

An unusual kind of ring performance will be staged here tonight in the form of a snake fight.

The battle will take place at the reptile exhibit of the Bug House Laboratory in the Wooten building on Evans Street at 8 o'clock and promises to furnish something out of the ordinary in the form of amusement.

A king snake, known as the "big boss" of the reptile kingdom in this part of the country, will appear with a copperhead in the first exhibition, and in the second the king snake will battle with a water snake. Three hundred snakes, embracing every species known in this State, as well as many from all other parts of the world, are being exhibited at the laboratory. One hundred reptiles are alive and the remainder in perfect state of preservation.

Postoffice Here Closes on Every Wed. Afternoon

Postmaster H. R. Mumford today again called attention to the afternoon closing hours observed by the postoffice Wednesdays.

In accordance of new working regulations enacted by the last session of Congress, all postoffices of the country are required to close a half day each week. While a majority of offices have decided to close Saturday afternoon, the local office agreed Wednesday would be a better day because of the large volume of business on Saturday. The closing will not curtail service, and only the general delivery department will be affected.

Health Workers To Visit Negro Schools of City

Health department workers will visit colored schools of the city next Wednesday for the purpose of giving vaccinations for typhoid fever and smallpox, it was announced today from the public health offices at the courthouse. The workers will appear at Fleming Street school from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock and at the Fifth Street school from 11 to 12:30 o'clock.

This is the best season of the year for typhoid vaccinations, Dr. R. S. McGeachy, director of the Health Department said, as it affords more complete immunity during the summer.

CHEVROLET LEADS WORLD IN AUTO SALES

Mr. Brown of the Brown-White Motor Company, stated to representative of the Reflector today that: Chevrolet led the world in automobile sales in 1931 and continues to lead in 1932 because it is approved 6 cylinders, 60 horsepower engine built in a modern car that has beauty, comfort, performance, safety and proven value. 3,200,000 people consider it wise to choose a proven 6 cylinder Chevrolet since 1929.

Mr. Brown stated when you purchased a Chevrolet passenger car or truck you received an owner's service policy and identification card. This policy entitles you to free inspection and adjustment at the end of the first 500 miles and also free inspection every 1000 miles thereafter so long as the car is in operation. Every Chevrolet owner is also entitled to free replacement of any part which may prove defective either in workmanship or in material within the terms of Chevrolet standard warranty policy, this includes labor as well as parts.

Mr. Brown also stated that several car loads of Chevrolets are en route to Greenville and will be on display at the Brown-White Motor Company, Inc., the early part of next week.

ABOUT TOWN

The idea of staging a prosperity parade as a part of the rally of the young Democrats of this county during the early part of October seems to have the general approval of the public and should be made with an actuality.

The time for Hoover cart parades is just about passed. What the people want now is something to cheer them along the thorny paths of this economic era, an inspiration to help them reach the heights of water achievement.

The rally undoubtedly will attract thousands of people to the city in the face of the interest being manifested in the forthcoming political fight, and a parade with prosperity as a feature, should do much to increase interest in the gathering.

The nation is tired of hearing about Hoover and Hoover carts, and so people who have been forced to such a method of transportation unquestionably are so fed up on it they would like to hear something about the prosperity which the election of Roosevelt will bring to the country.

The Greenville tobacco market is continuing to attract the attention of farmers in remote sections of the state and scores have come here to sell their tobacco this season.

Recognition of the city as the largest bright leaf market in the world has been instrumental in drawing the attention of uncounted thousands in the last year, and those who have never sold here before are bringing their offerings to enjoy the speed and facility with which daily sales are conducted. Five sales running at the same time enable the farmers living a long distance to sell their tobacco the same day and return home before night. People living in this immediate part of the state can market as many as three loads a day without inconvenience.

Selling on a market of this kind enables the farmers to avoid block sales usually occurring on smaller markets where lack of buying force prevents the cleaning up of loads every afternoon. Greenville was ago used to have blocks but the increased facilities have completely eliminated them and given the market first place in the list of bright leaf markets.

The momentous struggle for supremacy going on between the New York Yankees and Chicago Cubs has displayed the inability of the National League club to keep pace with the boys from the American League.

The Yankees captured both the first and second games, and displayed such prowess with the bat and in the field that many believe they are too heavy for the Cubs. However, the series isn't over and the National Leaguers may show they are capable of doing a little dilling too.

Luck has lots to do with games of this kind in which the best of our greatest baseball organizations in the world are involved, and while the Yankees apparently have shown more skill and knowledge of the game, who knows but that elusive Lady Luck will show her face to the Cubs next week and enable them to upset the Yankee juggernaut.

With warning of the health department ringing in their ears, parents should watch the condition of school children and help the department prevent any serious epidemic of illness during the winter months.

By close attention to the condition of children suffering from coughs or sore throats, parents should be able to do a very commendable work in improving health conditions of the county and eliminating the possibility of an epidemic.

The health office has repeatedly warned the people to be on their guard against illness in the schools, realizing that one child with a contagious or infectious disease could create a condition which would require weeks, or even months in overcoming.

It is to be hoped parents will cooperate with the health workers and do what they can toward increasing public health.

Chapter 35
JERVIS TO THE RESCUE

SYNOPSIS: Distracted because of dawning love for his young wife Nan, disturbed by her terrible dream that he is dead, Jervis Weare is awakened in the dead of night by a noise in his room. A pebble is tossed in. Beneath his window stands Rosamund Carew, the girl who jilted him in an unsuccessful attempt to secure his great fortune, and asks Jervis to come down.

Chapter 35
JERVIS TO THE RESCUE

"What do you want?" Jervis demanded of Rosamund, who stood beneath his window looking up at him, the moonlight grey upon her face. "I'll tell you if you come down. Don't wake anyone."

She hesitated, frowning furiously. What was this all about? He turned his wrist and looked at the luminous dial of his watch. It was 2 o'clock. What on earth was Rosamund playing at?

"Jervis, I'm in a perfectly damnable hole."

He said: "All right—wait a minute," and turned back into the room. He got into some clothes—a tennis shirt, flannel trousers, blazer, socks, and shoes. Then he went down to the study, opened the window, and got out.

"What's the matter?" he said. "My car broke down."

"Where?"

"About three miles away, on the main road."

"Well, I'll wake up Mrs. Mellish. She'll have a room got ready for you."

"No—no—I don't want to do that. She came quite close and put a hand on my arm. 'I want to get back. Janet Tetterley doesn't know I'm out.'"

"What have you been up to?" said Jervis.

"That's not your business."

"What do you want me to do?" said Jervis angrily.

"Make less noise to start with, and then lend a hand with the car."

"What's the trouble?"

"I've ditched her. We could get her out together, but I can't budge her alone, and there isn't likely to be anyone passing for the next four hours or so."

Jervis did not know what prompted him to say:

"You're alone?"

"Well, would I come and dig you out in the middle of the night if I wasn't? I don't walk three miles in evening shoes for fun."

"All right I'll get the car out and run you back."

Rosamund's hand closed on his arm—a strong hand for all its whiteness.

"No, you can't do that—it'll give the whole show away."

"What is there to give away?" said Jervis.

"Well, to be quite frank," said Rosamund, "I can't afford another scandal on the top of turning you down. It isn't all jam as it is. Janet's under Basher's thumb, though you wouldn't think it. Basher's a pride of the first water when it comes to his own womenfolk. If he knew I'd been out all night, he'd never have me in the house again."

"And it's not my business where you've been?"

"Well—is it?"

"How can you get back without someone finding out?"

"It's as easy as mud. The second chauffeur sleeps over the garage. You couldn't wake him if you drove a truck through the room. I've got a key, and I can take her in the same way I took her out, without anyone being the wiser."

So she couldn't have gone out much before midnight. Queer business this.

"Well, we'd better be getting along," he said.

Rosamund moved, let go of his arm, and stepped out of the shadow. The moonlight touched her uncovered head and took all the gold out of her hair. It looked grey with threads of silver in it. Her face, her hands, and the column of her throat were like ivory seen through water. She was wrapped in a black Chinese shawl in a black Chinese shawl whose embroidered flowers were like faint ghosts whose color and sweetness have died and been forgotten.

She moved beside him, walking quickly and in silence. She could keep pace with him without effort. She produced, as always, an effect of graceful ease which was in sharp contrast to the habitual bluntness of her speech. She did not speak now until they were past the gates. Then she said in a mocking voice:

"Don't you want to know where I've been?"

"Not particularly."

"No wonder I jilted you. You don't care whom I've been meeting?"

"What should I?"

"Do you?"

"No, I don't."

"No healthy curiosity?"

"I'd like to know what you're driving at."

"I'd like to know myself," said Rosamund, her voice harsh on the words.

They walked on without speaking for a couple of hundred yards. Jervis couldn't help a feeling of extreme nervousness—perhaps it was the fact

Here's the car," said Rosamund. "We haven't come three miles. 'It felt like four in these shoes.'"

The road dipped into the shadow. The car stood in at an angle towards the hedge. The place was as black as overhanging boughs could make it.

"You ought to have left your lights on," said Jervis.

Rosamund didn't answer. He heard her moan, but he couldn't see her.

He opened the door of the car and leaned forward to switch on the light.

MARKET REPORT

Sell Your Tobacco in Greenville FOR MORE MONEY

Sales today largest and prices highest of the season. Market continues to be flooded with common black and green tips, better grades selling from 60c to 70c per pound.

It is very important that you keep your tobacco dry during this soft weather. Many farmers are tying their tips without grading. Let us urge that you separate your green, black and reddish-brown leaves from your bright tobacco, and market it in the best possible condition.

Greenville is unquestionably the highest market in Eastern Carolina and the buying competition is keener in Greenville than on any other market. We know of a farmer who split his grades last Friday selling part in Greenville and part on another market. The better grades sold for 20c per pound more in Greenville and all the other grades brought more money here. It is mighty easy for you to lose from $50 to $100 in one load of tobacco at present prices, if you fail to take advantage of the best market in Eastern Carolina.

Now that most of the cotton is picked, attention will be turned marketing the tobacco. A great deal of tobacco reaches the market after sale time. Let us suggest that you bring it in earlier in order to avoid any rush.

TWO VISITING TEAMS PLAY IN STATE SAT.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Sept. 30.—(AP)—To invading gridiron combinations, Vanderbilt's Commodores and the Washingtons and Lee General rolled into campus of the North State today, set to give North Carolina fans a run for their money tomorrow.

In Saturday's headlines, Colonel Dad McGugin's Commodores from Nashville meet the University of North Carolina in the State's first Southern Conference battle and one of its most important of the season.

If their showing in scrimmage yesterday meant anything, the Tar Heels may spring a surprise and meet the visitors in splendid shape, the varsity smeared Vandy plays out on by the reserves. The reserves have no Dixie Roberts however, and Vanderbilt remained the favorite.

A non-conference member, Davidson, hoped to draw blood from conference ranks by repeating last year's triumph over the Generals and were a popular choice to do so. A close game was in prospect, however, Gene McEver, who has been working hard on the Wild Cats' offense, said the backfield looked "a great deal better" in the final scrimmage.

Five other members of the State's departed today for fights in foreign territory, both favored to take left for Lexington, Va., and the V. M. I. game with reports that Bob Cox, fast-stepping sophomore, would replace Nick Laney in the backfield tomorrow.

N. C. State worked out at Richmond this afternoon and was a heavy favorite to down the University of Richmond on the morrow. Thirty-three players were taken along by Coach Clipper Smith.

High Point and Catawba Colleges break the season's ice tomorrow, the former against Wofford in Spartanburg, while the Indians receive Newberry, Lenoir-Rhyne goes to Clinton to play Presbyterian College of South Carolina. Guilford plays Randolph-Macon at Greensboro Saturday night and Elon meets Roanoke College, at Salem, Va.

NEWS BRIEFS

Charlotte, N. C.—(AP)—The Dixie Garment Company of Durham in a few weeks will open two separate plants for manufacture of women's children's clothes here. About a hundred persons will be employed.

Charlotte, N. C.—(AP)—One of four cats who escaped near here by moving Frank Blythe from a truck last night was still free today. Blythe, knocked unconscious. Three of the four were soon recaptured.

High Point, N. C.—(AP)—Mrs. L. C. Parker was released under $1,250 bond here on manslaughter charges after her auto and one belonging to M. W. Eddinger collided, resulting in fatal injuries to seven-year-old M. W. Eddinger, Jr.

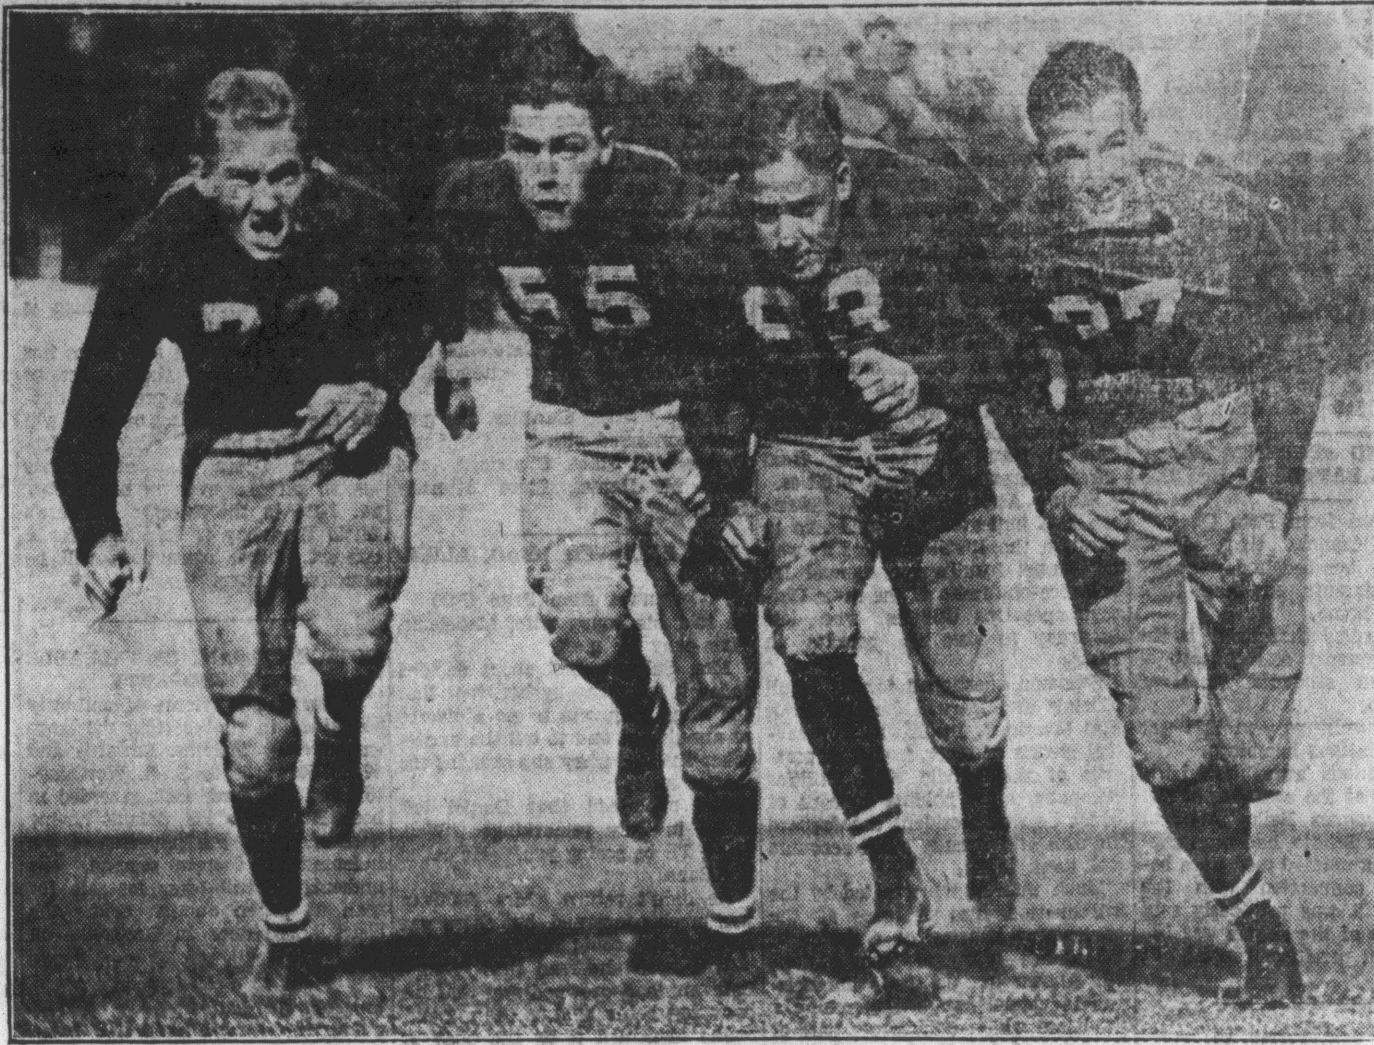

Greensboro, N. C.—(AP)—Mrs. A. C. Kirkman here reported a second crop of apple blossoms on a tree in her yard yesterday.

Rocky Mount, N. C.—(AP)—Senator J. W. Bailey will speak here Tuesday evening at the formal organization of a Young Democrat Club.

Chapel Hill, N. C.—(AP)—Students so far registered at the University of North Carolina dependent on aid from the Student Loan Fund total 515.

Southern Pines, N. C.—(AP)—Thirty men were given work in planting the town parkways.

The University of North Carolina Backfield of 1932

Chapel Hill, Sept. 30.—Here is the North Carolina backfield that is hoped to get the starting call against the powerful Vanderbilt team when the Commodores, led by the famous Dixie Roberts, and the Tar Heels clash at Chapel Hill Saturday at 2:30 in Conference opener. Left to right: Bill Croon, halfback; Hanes Lassiter, fullback; Stuart Chandler, quarterback, and Tom White, halfback. All are veterans. The same backfield may also be used against Tennessee.

YANKS HOPE TO MAKE IT FOUR IN ROW

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

En Route to Chicago With Yankee Special, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Rolling along the shores of Lake Erie today, manifesting no more concern than though it was an early season swing into the West, the Yankees make it four straight over the Cubs an old world record of twelve straight victories in three baseball championships.

"We're two up and two to go," remarked the eminent golfer, Babe Ruth, who figures he has shaken off most of the effects of his recent illness an dis about due to increase his World Series output of home runs.

"Unless the Cubs are tougher on their home grounds than they have been so far, we ought to be clean up this series quick," added the Yankee slugger.

The big Yankee party, accompanied by Baseball Commissioner Landis, numbered only one outstanding fellow who did not seem so confident the American League champions would continue to have things their own way, through their own efforts or the generosity of the Cubs. He was "Marse Joe" McCarthy, the manager, who admits he takes his baseball that way.

"This hasn't been so one-sided as a lot of you fellows think," demurred McCarthy. "One long hit for the Cubs in the early stages of the game might have changed the whole complexion of things. They are a good ball club.

"We've looked good because Ruffing and Gomez gave us the pitching and we hit in the pinches. That's a tough combination to beat.

"Just take Ben Chapman for the way our team has been doing the right thing in the right spot. With the bases full in the first game, Chappie raced over to make a great running catch of Herman's drive that looked like a double. That's the best piece of defensive work so far in the series.

"At bat Chapman has had only one hit, but he delivered it with the bases full and the score tied yesterday in the third inning."

McCarthy figures the Cubs will be tough to beat in Wrigley Field. The Yankee manager will start George Pipgrass, veteran right-hander, in the third game Saturday. He hasn't decided whether to use Johnny Allen, young right-hander, Sunday. He might come back with Ruffing if the Yankees make it three straight tomorrow.

Alabama, ranked as the power team of the south, topped off a week of blocking drills yesterday and is set for Mississippi State College. Moseley will be back in there at quarter and Holley has been shifted to a halfback berth.

Coach Neyland sent his Tennessee Volunteers through their last hard workout yesterday before sending them against the University of Mississippi tomorrow.

Tulane, whose season may be broken or made in its game tomorrow with Texas A. & M., was ready for business. It is a tough game for the Green Wave to open with.

Washington and Lee embarked for Davidson today. V. M. I. fans were watching John Burgess, sophomore guard who is pushing regulars for a starting place in the lineup against Duke.

The games will be the first general tests for the big shots who have pushed over one to two small schools this year in preparation for the job of meeting somebody their size. Good weather was in the offing, a bit crisp and altogether suited for the hard work considering brisk weather is quite a novelty in September in the south.

Games from New Orleans to Virginia will hold fans attention. One of the most important is Vanderbilt's contest with North Carolina. The Commodores, a prime favorite to do things this year, were in Chapel Hill today. They looked fair before the court house door in midding against Mercer last Saturday and North Carolina didn't look so good in its game.

Another conference game of import will be the Clemson-Georgia Tech fray at Atlanta. The Engineers had a light drill yesterday and Coach Alexander said they were ready for the Tigers. The Clemson squad will arrive here today. Two regulars, Proctor, guard; and Cummings, center, will not make the trip.

Georgia's Bulldogs, who may have a lot of nothing, are ready for V. P. I. which invades Athens tomorrow. The Georgia team is one of those mystery things this year.

Auburn, with little Erskine on its schedule for tomorrow, was sent through a hard scrimmage yesterday but is working more for the Duke game next week than for the Erskine contest.

New York Cotton

N. Y. Stock List

New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened very steady, 8 to 15 points higher on steady Liverpool cables than expected and forecast for rain in Texas.

The initial advance to 700 for December and 712 for March met a little Southern selling and there was also some further liquidation of local selling, but offerings were moderate and the market held fairly steady during the early trading. At the end of the first half hour prices were within a point or two of the opening quotations. Houses with Liverpool connections were among the early buyers here, as the local advance was hardly a full response to the relatively steady showing abroad. Private cables attributed the failure of Liverpool to fully reach yesterday's total decline to trade calling and covering, which had absorbed hedging and liquidation. One of the International houses estimates the East Indian crop at 4,970,000 bales of 400 pounds compared with 4,000,000 last season and 5,710,000 two years ago.

Grain Market

By JOHN P. BROUGHAN
(Associated Press Market Editor)
Chicago, Sept. 30.—(AP)—All time low record prices established today for Canadian wheat did much to bring about general weakness here in every kind of grain.

Leading unofficial authorities figured that 140,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat has been marketed in the prairie provinces since August 1, compared with 55,000,000 a year ago. It was asserted, however, that the peak of the Canadian wheat movement has been passed.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1-4 to 1-2 under yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to 3-4 lower, oats unchanged to 1-8 to 1-4 off, and provisions varying from seven cents decline to five cents advance.

Stock Market

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER
(Associated Press Financial Editor)
New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—The stock market wobbled uncertainly today, but trading was still quiet.

A drizzle of selling orders fell on utilities, Railroad and Chemical Company shares which had figured in fairly active recent speculation for the advance. Rallies appeared from time to time, but they were half-hearted and failed to hold. Selling, however, was not aggressive and the market appeared to drift lower because of inertia rather than actual pressure. Losses of 1 to 2 points occurred in American Water Works, American Telephone, Public Service of New Jersey and American Power and Light. Detroit Edison was down 3. Decline of 1 to 2 also appeared in Santa Fe Lackawanna, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Baltimore and Ohio Air Reduction, Allied Chemical and Drug.

Motor, oil and copper stocks showed good resistance, although they were carried down fractionally with the rest of the market. National Biscuit, Corn Products, American Tobacco "B," Johns Manville, American Can, Westinghouse and Eastman were off a point or more. Soginess of the commodity markets was accompanied by moderate selling of farm equipment shares. Case was down 2 and Harvester about a point.

There was some conjecture over what steps might be taken with regard to the maturity tomorrow of a $20,000,000 nickel plate note issue because of the slowness with which holders have deposited under the management's plan of refunding. The Interstate Commerce Commission paved the way for the issuance of new notes to fit into this refunding program by authorizing a new $20,000,000 issue of securities by the road.

THIRTY-FOUR IN PACIFIC SHIP DISASTER

The Madison, 300 miles away, turned off her course to come to the scene and was led to the wreck by the Oregon Maru.

In February, 1929, Captain Healy made a similar heroic rescue when master of the Montauk. In Unimak Strait in the Aleutians, he took 32 men off the disabled Alloway and towed the helpless craft into Dutch Harbor.

The Nevada, a 410-foot freighter of 5,645 gross tons, left Portland September 16 for the Orient.

POLICE AND STUDENTS IN GUN BATTLE AT HAVANA

Spread of rumors that schools were to be bombed today caused numerous parents to keep their children at home.

It was recalled that today is the second anniversary of the death of the so-called students "martyr," Rafael Trejo.

The first anniversary in 1931 was marked by various bombings.

Official denials were issued to newspaper that the assassins of Dr. Clemente Vazquez Bello, president of the Cuban Senate, had been captured. Four unnamed men were being held in connection with the slaying and it was previously said identification of the slayers was being concealed pending capture of accomplices.

STUBBORN POLITICAL FIGHT PREDICTED FOR THE EAST

most immediately by a Republican counter-thrust, led by President Hoover. That western sector is dogged to see still further stubborn dispute, but the thoughts of both party commands already are turning toward the eastern seaboard and the Mid-West for the real wind-up of the campaign.

Republican Senators Johnson in California, Cullin in New Mexico, and Norris in Nebraska, Chairman Farley of the Democrats, returned to New York announcing that the West was won and took up a study of the Eastern war maps. Farley's conclusion was disputed by Republican Chairman Sanders, who said Republican defectors would not come up to Democratic expectations. The prospect is, however, that neither party will neglect either east or west in its plans for future action.

Mr. Hoover will make his first cut-of-town campaign speech next Tuesday night at Des Moines, Ia. He will speak largely to the West, although he will cover several subjects. Vice-President Curtis already is moving westward on a swing all the way to the coast. Secretary Mills of the Treasury, much relied on as a campaigner for Hoover, is headed in the same direction.

Even while the Western Republican offensive is developing, the Democrats will be setting off their first real fireworks of the campaign in the East. Governor Roosevelt will end his western trip just in time to attend the New York State Democratic convention next week. Alfred E. Smith also is expected to be present, and reports multiply that he will have something important to say.

There is no indication that the Democratic managers, however, much attention as they are devoting to other things, have abandoned their original plan for an intensive attack of the Northeastern bloc of state. In Mr. Roosevelt's own state of New York, especially, they intend to make the strongest campaign of which they are capable.

ROOSEVELT ON WAY TO CITY OF MILWAUKEE

tariff and mortgages and their relationship to farmer relief.

"We are not getting an adequate return for the money we are spending in Washington," the nominee told a crowd of approximately 40,000.

The administration, he added, "has piled bureau on bureau, commission on commission, and has failed to anticipate the dire needs or reduced earning power of the people. Bureaus and bureaucrats have been retained at the expense of the taxpayer."

Continuing, Mr. Roosevelt said: "I read that the President is at work on a plan to consolidate and simplify the federal bureaucracy. Four long years ago, in the campaign of 1928, he as candidate proposed to do this. Today, once more a candidate, he is still proposing. I leave you to draw your own inference."

Taking up the farm mortgage situation, Mr. Roosevelt asserted: "Today I read in the papers that for the first time the administration of President Hoover has discovered the fact that there is such a thing as a farm mortgage."

"With you, I deplore the inexcusable and reprehensible delay in Washington not for months alone, but for years. All I can promise you is that it will continue to preach the plight of the farmer who is losing his home and that when the authority of administration and recommendation is placed in my hands, I will do everything in my power to bring the relief which is so long overdue."

As in other speeches, he assailed the Smoot-Hawley tariff, and called for reciprocal tariffs with foreign countries.

"The Grundy tariff still retains its grip on the throat of international commerce," he asserted. "There is no relief in sight and certainly there can be no relief if the authors of this disaster continue in power."

Revision of the tariff downward to a point that puts the American producers on a market equality ### with their foreign competitors" will "injure no legitimate interests," Roosevelt said.

SEEK RETURN OF INSULLS

brothers who left the country shortly after the collapse of the Insull utility empire.

Jacobson said, however, that the subpoenaes would not be enforceable outside of the jurisdiction of the court in which they were issued but added that if the brothers failed to reply to them, other steps might be taken. At the same time Jacobson said he would seek to stop the annual pension of $18,000 which Samuel Insull is receiving from three operating Chicago utilities.

State's Attorney John A. Swanson also indicated he would like to question the Insull brothers as well as Samuel Insull's son, Samuel Jr., still vice-chairman of the three Chicago operating utilities; who left Saturday to visit his parents in Paris.

Swanson questioned former Insull officials and learned, he said later, that Martin J. Insull withdrew several sheafs of stock from the portfolio of the Middle West Utilities Company, huge holding concern of which he was president, to safeguard his own and friends' stock accounts and bank loans.

Much interest was created by the introduction into evidence at the bankruptcy hearing of a roster of 250 names--many of them nationally known in political, financial and industrial circles--comprising a syndicate which underwrote part of an issue of 600,000 shares of common stock of the Insull Utility Investments, Inc. in 1930.

Lawyers said introduction of the list did not indicate that the formation of the syndicate was irregular or dishonest, but that they believed it still owed the bankrupt concern more than $700,000 which should be figured among its assets.

BEGINS STUDY OF HURRICANE

on the earth all have a part in the process of starting a hurricane as explained by Dr. William Humphreys, meteorological physicist of the weather bureau.

In the calm of the doldrums, air becomes heated and humid, rises and flows away, making room for the rise of more warm air until a regular upward current is established.

Meanwhile, air currents moving in opposite directions on either side of the calm area start an eddy movement in the rising warm air column. The eddy movement of the air is increased and sustained by the rotation of the earth until it is spinning at hurricane speed.

Then the east-to-west trade winds carry hurricanes toward the West Indies.

DAVIS NOT TO GO ON STAND

Judge Frank J. Coleman polled the jury on the proposition of adjourning court at 2 p. m. today without a luncheon recess because of the Jewish New Year.

The jury favored the 2 o'clock adjournment.

Joseph A. Jenkins resumed the stand for further direct examination.

Jenkins testified yesterday that he and Fred W. Jones purchased Davis' life-term Loyd Order of Moose organization contract in 1930 before alleged lotteries were conducted by the court under the name of "charity balls."

The witness today was questioned on the conduct of a "Silver Jubilee" membership campaign in the summer of 1931. He said this campaign was conducted by the Moose propagation department, which gave a gold watch to each old member getting two new members.

The propagation department, he said, paid the organization department $25,000 from the profits.

"After the second charity ball," asked Charles J. Margiotti of defense counsel, "did the propagation department give any money to the organization department?"

"It did," replied the witness. "How much?"

"Forty thousand dollars."

HOLDS REPORT ON U.S. LOANS

Chairman Pomerene said in his letter that "neither the secretary of the Senate nor the clerk of the House has any such right without being thereto especially authorized by the Senate or the House."

"The publication of the jury report," he said, "caused serious embarrassment to a number of borrowers. It gave rise to much unjust criticism."

"Reports were circulated that some of the institutions borrowing were not in good financial condition, when they were perfectly sound. This resulted in withdrawals from some of the banks and other institutions. A number of them have said that while the loans were of great benefit to them, the good was largely undone by the publication."

Pomerene referred to Trimble's decision in August to make public the report for the last ten days of July, the first period in which the law containing the publicity provision was in operation.

Trimble said in a statement that in view of the Corporation stand, "I feel justified in withholding publication of the report until I have had an opportunity to carefully consider the opinion. I will, as soon as possible, make known my decision."

He had the consent of the Corporation to make public Pomerene's letter, he said.

DENY MIXED BALLOT IN S. C.

Such a plan, they argued, would "insure secrecy" and avoid a multiplicity of ballot,

In a letter denying a request from Gardner for a single ballot, Governor Blackwood said the Democratic party and not the State paid for the printing of the general election ballots on which the names of the party's candidates appear.

"It is not my opinion," he said, "that the candidates of the two parties should appear on the same ticket. It is my judgment and wish however, that the Republican party or any other party which wishes to place a list of candidates before the electorate of South Carolina may enjoy the same rights extended to the Democratic party."

Before writing Gardner, the governor conferred with Claud N. Sapp, Democratic State Chairman, and John M. Daniel, State Attorney General.

MAN BELIEVED DEAD, ALIVE

he told his young wife, Madeleine. "It's okay by me."

Mrs. Sullivan had about decided today it was okay by her, too; that the thing to do was get a divorce or annulment and to tell the undertaker she was sorry she brought the matter up.

She explained that Daniel left home in July remarking: "Well, Babe, I'll be seeing you." He called her Babe.

He didn't return. Mrs. Sullivan was much concerned, but there was nothing she could do about it.

This week she read that "Daniel Sullivan" had drowned and that his body was being held at the morgue. She identified it as the body of her Daniel. There was even a note in the man's clothes: "Dear Babe: I'm lonesome, goodbye."

She sent a mortician to give Daniel a funeral he could be proud of. Then she thought some of his friends would want to know so she dropped around to West Broadway and Chamber Street, which was an intersection much favored by Daniel when he was alive and going places.

As she approached the spot she came face to face with Daniel. "You're dead!" she exclaimed.

"You're cuckoo," retorted Daniel. "Give me three dollars."

"I'll give you the air," said Mrs. Sullivan.

Friends of the family were informed today there would be no funeral.

BIG COLLEGE ENROLLMENT

Miss Lucy Nulton, second grade critic teacher, is on leave of absence and is studying at Columbia University. Her position is being filled by Miss Herma Taylor of Commerce, Texas. Miss Evelyn Wright, who received her A. B. degree in June and has had secretarial training, will act as secretary of the training school, filling the place of Miss Irene Hill, who resigned to return to teaching.

Noticeable improvements have been made on the campus during the summer. Chief among these is the pool in Wright plot, which is filled with aquatic plants.

The entertainment committee has announced two of the attractions in the program to be presented during the year. The first of these will be a concert by Grace Moore, Metropolitan Opera star and movie queen, on the evening of October 24. Late in the winter Barre's Little Symphony is scheduled for a concert. Other attractions will be announced later.
