JONES SLATED FOR HEAD OF FEDERAL RELIEF BODY

Gardner And Stevens Considered For Posts In Roosevelt Cabinet

STRONG HAND SOUGHT FOR A 'NEW DEAL'

William Woodin Also Mentioned At Miami For Position Of Secretary of Commerce; Archibald McNeil, of Connecticut, Considered Along With Former North Carolina Governor For Secretary of Navy

Miami, Fla., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Jesse H. Jones, of Texas, appeared destined today to head the national relief organization of the Reconstruction Corporation under the Roosevelt administration. Through this giant agency with its billions of credit, Mr. Roosevelt is looking for a strong hand in his plan for assisting the nation on its upward swing which he believes will result from his "new deal."

Selection of Jones for the chairmanship of the board means the disposal of Atlee Pomerene, Ohio Democrat. The latter's appointment was made by President Hoover along with all other national officials to the Senate.

Kinston, N. C., Feb. 7.—Practically every county in the southeastern part of the State, twenty or more, will be represented at the "foreclosure meeting" here February 14, sponsors of the meeting predicted today. Anyone can be a delegate. It is expected that from one hundred to several hundred farmers who have lost their farms under mortgage foreclosures, farmers heavily burdened with debt, merchants supplying tenants and planters, bankers and others will attend.

GRANT WRITES BILL FOR CITY-COUNTY RILE

Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 7.—Representative L. Slayton Grant, of New Hanover County, has drafted and plans to introduce in the Legislature this week a bill calling for the consolidation of the Wilmington and New Hanover city and county governments, but his colleague, Representative Harris Newman, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, has indicated that he will fight the measure.

The bill provides for the establishment of a city-county commission of seven members to take over the functions of the present city and county boards of commissions.

NEW DIVORCE BILL FAVORED

Compromise Bill Given Favorable Action By Senate Judiciary Committee

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 7.—(AP)—A compromise bill designed to shorten the separation period for obtaining a divorce was agreed upon today by the Senate Judiciary Committee No. 1.

The measure which will be reported favorably by the group would allow an aggrieved party to sue for a divorce after separation of two years while the unaggrieved party would have to wait five years.

Five years of separation is now required in either case.

NEGRO GIVEN TERM ON ROAD

Justice Moves Swiftly For Jack Moore, Who Broke Jail Here 17 Years Ago

Justice moved quickly today in the case of Jack Moore, colored, who escaped from jail here seventeen years ago, only to be nabbed on new charges following his return to the community the end of last week.

Appearing in county court this morning on a charge of painfully cutting Sarah Gardner, who police said, came here with Moore from Richmond, the negro was sentenced to eight months on the roads by Judge Dink James.

The woman testified Moore told her to go home, and when she failed to do so he attacked her with a knife, inflicting painful but not serious injuries. Moore said she was his wife, but officers said they were in doubt as to the veracity of the statement.

Moore will face trial in the next term of Superior court on two separate charges of breaking and entering. All three crimes were committed over the week-end and resulted in the arrest of the negro, who with five others broke jail here 17 years ago. Three of those who took part in the jail break are dead and only Moore and two others are living.

The prisoner was alleged to have entered the homes of John and Herbert Whitehead over the week-end and obtained meat, lard, clothing and $3.25 in cash. Some of the stolen property was recovered when he was arrested.

Police said the darkey is a bad character, and while he was successful in breaking jail long years ago, it was not believed he would find such action quite as easy on the roads. At any rate, he will have ample time to do some thinking over the inadvisability of continuing in the path of the lawless while helping keep up the county system, and probably still more time after he faces trial in the higher court.

BOOM TOWN ORDERED TO PAY OBLIGATIONS

Greensboro, N. C., Feb. 7.—Judge Johnson J. Hayes, in Federal District Court today, signed a judgment of $58,782 against the town of Hamilton Lakes in favor of David J. Robinson, Seymour H. Hoff and William Timmerman. The three men are holders of bonds sold by the town of Hamilton Lakes in the heyday of its boom as a real estate development of A. M. Seales. The court today ordered the town to levy taxes and pay principal and interest due on the matured bonds.

Tobacco Plants Growing Well
Tarboro, N. C., Feb. 7.—Farmers report very good outlook for tobacco plants this year. They are growing well and unless they are attacked by blue mold it is expected that there will be an abundant supply this year. It is not known that there will be any increase in the tobacco acreage in this county.

NEGRO KILLER IS CAPTURED

Kelford Officers Arrest Perry Little Wanted Here For Slaying Woman

Perry Little, colored, charged with slaying a colored woman here named May Carr, has been captured in Kelford and was being held for the arrival of Greenville officers, according to a report received here today.

Chief of Police George Clark left this afternoon for Kelford to take the negro in custody and bring him back to Greenville to face preliminary hearing.

The woman was shot to death while she and Little were arguing over finances, police officers said. The man was said to have reproached the woman for not giving him usual attention since he had lost his job, and a quarrel ensued.

At the height of the argument the woman went to the home of a neighbor to escape the wrath of her lover. A short time later, Little armed with a shotgun, went to the neighbor's home and fired a load of shot into Mary Carr's body. She died instantly, and her assailant escaped. Police said nothing had been heard of his whereabouts until the Kelford message announcing his capture. A description of the negro had been sent to all police departments in this and other parts of the country.

BARRY'S FATE IS CONSIDERED

Senate Members Deliberate Charges Against Sargent At-Arms

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The Senate judiciary committee went into executive session today to consider the fate of David Barry, Senate sargent-at-arms, after William Crane Johnston of George Washington University, had denied teaching that Congress is corrupt.

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The Senate judiciary committee put David Barry, its suspended sargent-at-arms, through a second vigorous questioning today without either taking his insistence that the general impression of dishonesty in Congress exists or getting from him any evidence of it.

Senator Borah declared that the charge of congressional corruption was made by people chiefly interested in having the impression prevail that because they have been unable to get there what they wanted to graft on the people of the nation.

At the outset of the hearing Barry gave the committee the original copy of the article which has caused all the give-and-take—the one in which he said there are only a few senators and representatives who sell their votes.

Rainey Says American People Are Against British Lump Sum Proposal

DENIES RUMOR MEN THREATEN COAST GUARDS

Warrant Officer At Coast Guard Station Says Nothing To Recent Report

Cape Hatteras, N. C., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Captain Allan Midgett, warrant officer of the Chicamacomico coast guard station, denied today recent reports from Wilmington that rum runners on land in this section are intimidating the coast guardsmen.

The assertion was backed up by other patrolmen at several stations along the coast that there is "nothing to the report" that rum running land forces are threatening to resort to violence to get their cargoes through.

Kinston Baptist Minister Regular Speaker at Meeting of Rotarians

Dr. B. W. Spilman of Kinston, was the principal speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Rotary Club here last night. Dr. Spilman, one of the leading Baptist ministers and humorists of this state, spoke on the monetary system of this country and produced a wealth of information relating to exchange in the field of finance.

The program was in charge of A. E. Hobgood and Rev. A. W. Fleischman, presided.

Mr. Hobgood turned the program over to Mrs. J. B. Spilman, who presented the distinguished Kinston minister.

She also presented Mrs. Feneburg of the college, who rendered a delightful solo number. She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Gorrell, member of the department of music of the college.

Discussing the value of the dollar as a medium of exchange in this country, Dr. Spilman traced the history of the monetary standard and how we came to have it.

He told of the possibilities presented by the present unsettled conditions in the field of finance and referred especially to revolution which might result in case the situation did not improve.

Unrest, misery and poverty prevail throughout the nation, he declared, because of the low prices of products in every field and high taxes.

Citing that ninety per cent of the wealth of the nation is controlled by big interests and half of the average income of $3.60 goes to taxes, the speaker said the seriousness of the financial situation in this country was at once evident.

He made no attempt to offer a solution for the financial dilemma, but did express belief that a return to bi-metalism might improve conditions.

The address was described as one of the most informative heard by the local club members in some time and they were high in their praise for the depth of thought and mass of information which the speaker brought to bear on the subject.

NOW, HERE'S A THOUGHT THAT'LL PROVE POPULAR

Kansas City, Mo.—(AP)—Riddelle L. Gregory, 36-year-old president of a life insurance company whose business has shown steady gains during the depression, gives much of the credit to golf and chess during business hours.

"A man who devotes all his time to pet details that can be handled by a $20-a-week stenographer," Gregory declared, "cannot be an executive."

SON KILLS AGED FATHER'S BRIDE

John Coyne Jr., 22, is shown with a policeman after police said he shot and killed the 19-year-old bride of his 66-year-old father and beat the latter with a hammer on their wedding day in Pittsburgh. Young Coyne flew from Detroit to Pittsburgh in an attempt to stop the wedding but arrived after the ceremony. (Associated Press Photo)

SHOT TRYING TO SCARE MAN

Shorty Williams Shot By Wife of Lee Buchman Charlotte, Salesman

Charlotte, Feb. 7.—(AP)—A man who said he is "Shorty" Williams of Washington, D. C., and one of two men hired to "throw a scare" into Lee Buchman, Charlotte salesman, was shot and probably fatally wounded here early today by Buchman's wife.

Another companion escaped by a ruse. He dropped to the ground feigning a wound, when Mrs. Buchman fired at him and then leaped to his feet, beat her, her husband, and mother with a blackjack and escaped.

Although a bullet penetrated Williams' brain, he was conscious before the operation for removal of the bullet and officers said he made a full confession.

He quoted him as saying he had his companion were hired to come to Charlotte to scare Buchman and in case they failed to produce the required results to await further instructions.

He refused to reveal the identity of his accomplice and the name of the men he claimed, hired them.

As he lay on the operating table a detective asked him the name of him accomplices and the names of those who hired him.

He grinned and said: "Copper I would like to tell you a lot but I can't tell you that."

LABOR BILL IS REPORTED

House Judiciary Committee Gives Favorable Report To Ten-Hour Day Bill

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 7.—(AP)—The bill of Representative Scarborough, of Richmond, setting a ten-hour day and 55-hour week as a maximum time of work in industry, received a favorable report from the House Judiciary Committee today.

The measure earlier in the session received an unfavorable report from the manufacturing and labor committee, but at the request of the sponsor it was sent the Judiciary Committee.

THREE DIE ON HIGHWAYS

Fifteen Also Injured In Series of Accidents in Highway Division

Three persons were killed and fifteen injured in a series of automobile accidents reported in this highway patrol district during the month of January. It was revealed today in the monthly report of Lester Jones, patrol lieutenant. Five persons were killed in this division the previous month and nearly two dozen injured.

The most important of the accidents was the death of Robert Cayton, high school child of the Grimesland community, killed and hit by an automobile driven by James Davenport, Beaufort County young man.

The child came to his death as he left a school bus and hastened across the road. His skull was so severely fractured when hit by the car that he died that night in a Washington hospital.

Davenport was arrested following an investigation by highway and county officers and was bound over to the Superior Court under bond. A true bill was returned against him in the last session of criminal court. He will be given a hearing in the next session of court in April.

It is against the law to pass a school bus on the highway while taking on or discharging passengers, and it was for the alleged violation of this law that Davenport was arrested.

The total arrests made by the patrol during the month was given at 104 in the report of Lieutenant Jones. Fourteen accidents were investigated, and the department extended a total of 211 citations. Patrolmen warned 211 persons from parking on the highway, 75 for hogging the road, 14 for hearse driving, 67 for entering the highway without stopping, 171 for walking tags, 191 for speeding, 52 for obscure tags, and 32 for driving on the shoulders.

The department also issued a total of 1,252 warnings and handled a total of 3,255 violations. Four automobiles were recovered and the total value of the recovered property was $3,255.

Eighty-three persons were found guilty of violation of highway traffic laws and the total amount collected by the department was given as $4,973.50.

BLACKS GROW WEALTHY WHERE WHITES FAILED

Canberra.—(AP)—Aboriginals have flocked to the Granites—the deserted gold fields in Central Australia—and are eagerly retrieving tung, tin cans, shovels, picks and other junk.

But what is more exciting is the fact that the white men sank wonderful wells in this thirsty land. Four months ago there was a grand rush to the Granites when a rich reef said to be six miles long, was reported discovered. But the tide receded when the field proved worthless.

Widespread Interest Created By Britain's Offer To Pay On A Lump Sum Basis, Cutting Three-Fourths of Her Debt Away; Official Washington Maintains Absolute Silence On Question

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Rep. Rainey of Illinois, Democratic floor leader, expressed to newspapermen today the opinion that the American people will never stand for the British lump sum proposal whereby Great Britain would cut three-fourths of her debt away.

Rainey made the assertion shortly after Rep. Collier, Democrat of Mississippi, had told reporters he was always ready for a cash compromise.

"But I wouldn't think much of changing the amount and leaving the payment over a long period," Rainey said.

"I do not see what the United States would gain by it."

Widespread interest has been created here by the dispatch from London describing the prospective War Department plan of paying on a lump sum basis involving an amount from $1,250,000,000 to $2,000,000,000.

For sometime reports have been current that Great Britain would make some lump sum offer for final settlement but the usual sums mentioned have been under the billion dollars but more in line with the Lausanne agreement. In each case, however, official Washington has maintained absolute silence.

Favorable Report For Guardian Bill

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 7.—(AP)—The House Judiciary Committee No. 1 today gave a favorable report on the bill by Representative McDuffie providing for appointment of a guardian for anyone missing more than three months.

The manner in which the guardian would be appointed is the same as that where a guardian is named for an incompetent by the clerk of court of a Superior Court judge.

BARTER COMING TO THE FRONT IN PASQUOTANK

Elizabeth City, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Barter, which was old even when this country was new, is coming to the fore again in Pasquotank County, but insurance agents say they're doing most of the trading with premiums being swapped for various commodities.

Many parents in the county have insurance policies in cash at the end of a certain period. When the agent comes to collect he is offered a pig, cow, corn—both liquid and solid, some agents say—and all kinds of produce.

Sometimes the trade involves other things, including toys, heirlooms and other relics. One man recently paid his premium with a huge Cossack sword—he said the blade was of no benefit to him but the insurance was.

Some agents report that as much as 5 per cent of a week's total collection has been paid in produce.

Late News Flashes

Today In The Legislature

Raleigh, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Lieutenant Governor A. H. Graham, presiding officer of the Senate, predicted today that the legislature was half way through its work as the two divisions of the assembly held routine sessions with committees hard at work before and after the formal meeting.

Graham told the senate that he believed the work of the body had been half finished.

As today was the 30th day this indicated he believed the legislature might complete work in 60 days, which is the constitutional length for a session.

Two years ago the legislature was in session 147 days.

The house reacted into law the Dunningan law to make the state highway commission take over the care and maintenance of all county prisoners serving sentences of 30 days or more.

Under the 1931 law only prisoners serving sentences of 60 days or more become charges of the highway.

The groundhog evidently knew his business. Within three days after he saw his shadow the community was visited by the most severe attack of winter of the year.

The college and high school cage teams seem to have hit their stride judging by the reverse in form exhibited the last several days.

The college is young in the field of sports but like all young things will eventually get sufficient material and experience to help them pile up a great string of victories in all fields of sports.

The high school may have suffered defeat in some other fields of activity, but they are proving worthy contenders in basketball—this includes both boys and girls.

The citizenship should turn out in numbers and lend their support to the efforts of the youngsters to produce winning teams for the city.

Speaker John Garner evidently believes it will be to his advantage to wait until the next session of Congress to attempt to get important legislation through.

He has seen that the Senate is not disposed to let House measures through this session and plans to sit down and wait until the next session when something can really be accomplished.

Congress has done less this session than ever before and this was good reason for eliminating the lame duck sessions. The various states did the right thing when they voted for the amendment to the Constitution eliminating lame ducks and the nation probably will derive good results.

Another fatal automobile accident occurred in the county over the week-end along with another near-fatal accident.

A child skating along the highway was struck by an automobile. This shows the danger of children skating on the streets, and should cause parents to attempt to control their offspring of the danger of such action.

The city has set aside a section for skating, and it is hoped children will take advantage of this section and keep out of the way of automobiles.

The accident in which a negro was killed instantly was unavoidable. The negro had more whiskey than he could conveniently carry and stepped into a car in motion.

This is sound argument against indulging in the favorite pastime of John Barleycorn and should cause those who like to imbibe to slay off the highways.

Loss through accidents of this kind are becoming too frequent and it is hoped drivers will take every precaution against them.

The new loan bill has been signed by President Hoover and farmers will again be able to borrow from the government this year.

Growers who do not consent to reduce their money crops and plant more of the things they use at home will not be able to obtain the loans. This shows the government realizes the necessity of reduced crops and is taking action to bring it about.

VALIANT DUST by Percival Christopher Wren

TO THE GREAT JOY of the officers garrisoned at Mellert, Lieutenant Le Sage returns from a campaign with his beautiful wife. Lieutenant Riccoli is particularly overjoyed, so much so that he smoothes Madame Le Sage with kisses—and is caught by her husband. Le Sage puts one cartridge in a revolver, spins the chamber, pulls the trigger with the weapon at his temple. There is a click. Then he forces Riccoli to do the same. Another click. Riccoli tries to leave—but Le Sage says no.

Chapter 2 MAN OF DESTINY Again Madame Le Sage buried her face in her hands as her husband pulled the trigger.

For the third time the hammer fell with a harmless click, and a look of mingled disappointment, wrath, and despair clouded the handsome countenance of Lieutenant Napoleon Riccoli.

With a cheerful smile, Le Sage offered him the pistol, while Madame sat erect and watched him with the deepest interest.

"No, no! Enough of this folly. This is sheer madness. I will not do it," cried Riccoli, exhibiting the anger of fear. "I am not a dog."

"No," agreed Le Sage. "Dogs are nice beasts." "...and I will not die the death of a dog," continued Riccoli. "This is murder, I say."

Riccoli held the pistol to his head. "I'll give you one minute," interrupted Le Sage, glancing at his watch. "If at the end of that minute you have not taken your chance, I will shoot you—like a dog. Which will be an honor for you. Now..."

Looking more like a trapped jackal than any kind of dog, Riccoli extended a slightly trembling hand, took the pistol, and held it to his head.

His face cleared, and he smiled. "Fate has great things in store for me," he said. "Not for nothing was I born, not only in Corsica, but, mark you, in Ajaccio itself!"

"Speech!" interrupted Lieutenant Le Sage, and with an angry glare at that imperturbable man, Riccoli pulled the trigger.

For the fourth time a sharp click sounded through the little room, startling, by its mighty smallness, the ears of the three antagonists of this drama.

"You see?" Riccoli smiled palely. "I am protected—I am a Man of Destiny."

"So far, so good—or so bad," observed Le Sage, and taking the pistol, turned it upon himself.

"Stop," cried Riccoli. "We have had the courage to fight two rounds of your terrible duel, and that is enough. As I said before, honor is satisfied."

"Yours, or mine?" inquired Le Sage. "Honor is satisfied, I say, and if it is not, I will agree to fight yet a third duel with you. But it shall be the duel of civilized people... of gentlemen... of men of honor... of soldiers..."

"Sword, eh?" "Yes, swords." "You are the champion swordsman of the Nineteenth Army Corps, one recollects," observed Le Sage. Riccoli bowed.

"Then I think we'll go on with our present effort," continued Le Sage. "In the circumstances, I think I'll trust to chance rather than skill, eh?"

And putting the pistol to the side of his head, Le Sage pulled the trigger.

For the fifth time the hammer clicked harmlessly. "Now Man of Destiny," said Le Sage, and offered the pistol, handle foremost, to Riccoli.

That gentleman again placed his hands behind his back and violently shook his head. "Murder," he shouted. "As you please," replied Le Sage. "It's certainly suicide if it isn't murder, now that we've come down to number six."

Woodin once was offered the Republican candidacy for mayor of New York but refused. During the last campaign he said the forces making for business recovery would move steadily ahead under Mr. Roosevelt's guidance.

ILLUSION: In this startling trick, the magician seemingly pushes a huge threaded needle through the body of an assistant, pulling the needle out the other side, followed by the thread.

EXPLANATION: Under the clothes of the victim is a pipe, extending around one side of his body from front to back. The needle, which is flexible, is inserted in the front end of the pipe, is carried around the body and emerges from the pipe in back. This operation is performed so quickly that the audience does not notice that the needle and thread are momentarily shortened during the act.

It's fun to be fooled... it's more fun to KNOW

We like tricks...but we prefer to keep them out of business. Here's one that's interesting...The illusion that by some obscure magic certain cigarettes are "COOLER" than others. THE EXPLANATION: Coolness is determined by the speed of burning. Fresh cigarettes burn slowly. They're cool. Parched, dry cigarettes burn fast. They're hot. Camels are carefully wrapped in moisture-proof cellophane...in the famous, air-tight Humidor Pack. Camels are cool because they're fresh. A cigarette blended from choice non-irritating tobaccos also gives a cooler effect than one that is harsh and acrid. The finer the tobacco the less irritating it is, and therefore the "cooler."

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. This is why Camels are cool and mild, non-irritating—full of flavor. This is why Camels have given more pleasure to more people than any other cigarette ever made. It's the tobacco that counts. Keep the famous welded Humidor Pack on your Camels. It assures you a fresh, cool smoke.

HIGH SCHOOL SCORES GREAT SUCCESS IN OPERA "MARRIAGE OF NANNETTE"

After seeing "The Marriage of Nannette," the annual high school opera, presented last night in the high school auditorium, one is reminded that last spring the Greenville High School musicians won first place among class B schools at the state contest in Greensboro. One is also encouraged to think that the same honor may again be Greenville's this year.

The performance last night was a worthy accomplishment in every respect. Considering the difficulty of the music, one may say that the opera was the most success the glee clubs have ever produced. In spite of several disadvantages the entire cast entered their parts and made the production smooth and entertaining.

After ten minutes of rather slow and unentertaining singing and acting, the players and the audience seemed to change entirely. The remainder of the performance was done with gusto and interest.

Perhaps the outstanding honors of the evening go to Bancroft Moseley, George Willard, Carolyn Hamric and Helen Sawyer. Yet the entire cast of characters portrayed their parts with sincerity.

The Duke, Bancroft Moseley, won his audience immediately; and throughout the performance provoked frequent laughter by his splendid interpretation of his comic role.

The hero of the opera, George Willard, as a simple peasant lad, gave a superior performance also. He delighted the audience by his excellent singing and realistic acting from his first appearance through the final love duet "In Arcady."

Carolyn Hamric, the leading lady, was charming in her role. Around her much of the action centered; and at all times her manner, voice, and acting proved delightful to the audience.

Her mother, Helen Sawyer, contributed a great deal to the performance. Her voice as actor and singer was unusually good.

Martha Scoville, who late yesterday had to supply for Mary Rachel Teel who sang Yvonne's part so well Friday afternoon, deserves much credit. At no time did she feel lost or ill at ease in her role.

The minor characters who contributed much toward the success of the opera include Laurine Skinner, Mildred Herring, James Dees, John Clark, D. T. Beaman, Preston Smith, Fred Baggs, Carey Warren, James Savage, Ada Hearne, Louis Stuart Flecken, Mary Hoover Boyd, Lynette Dixon, Gus Forbes, Roger Taylor, Moye Dall and Harvey Deal.

The choruses appeared several times and did most of their numbers in an excellent fashion. The gypsy chorus included Rose Gurganus, Mable Ruth Williams, Lillie Williamson, Martha Lois Youngblood, Anna Belle Teel, Margaret Eakes, Edith Clark, Robert Dixon, William Brewer, V. C. Fleming, Woodrow Page, Virginius Kasey, Glenn Brooks and Ed Whitehurst.

The village chorus was made up of Louise Clark, Julia Foley, Mildred Clark, Helen Moore, Minnie Belle Craft, Eoline Sawyer, Helen Foley, Doris Clark, Mary Bell Fleming, Helen Phelps, Eugene Hamric, James Simpson, Ernest Clark, Billy Stator, J. A. Joyner, Sam Dees, Walter Willard, Douglas Butler and William Adams.

A pantomime scene included Jim Slay, Frances Brooks, Pat Whitehurst, Merian Wilson, Moye Dall and Ernest Clark.

The directors deserve much credit for such a splendid performance. Miss Ona Shindler directed the opera and again has shown her superiority as a director. Miss Mary Ellen Powell and Mrs. Bessie Picklesimer assisted. The effective costuming was under the direction of Miss Mary York and the second year home economics class.

The electricians, Frank Wooten, Matt Phillips and Bill Darden, used good taste in their lighting effects in practically every scene.

The numbers which were undoubtedly outstanding in the opera were "Courtly Graces," "The Moon is Peeping O'er the Hill," "I Dream of Lovely Spain," "Ah, Love, As Flowers Twine," and "In Arcady."

BLACKBEARD SERIES WORK OF N. C. MAN

Kinston, Feb. 7.—A series of radio skits written by Wilbur C. Ormond, of Hookerton, based upon the adventures of Blackbeard, the pirate, will be broadcast from radio station WBT, Charlotte, beginning Thursday, February 9, at 9:15 p. m.

The story of Blackbeard has entranced the imagination of every reader of history and fiction. The adventures of the sea thug have captivated the hearts of boys and girls throughout the United States.

Stories, novels and articles for news papers and magazines have been previously written, but this is the first time that the pirate captain has become the hero of the air.

North Carolina shores were the chief haunts of Blackbeard. Many traditions center around Bath, Washington, Elizabeth City and other points due to visits of the famous pirate.

The story in the skits opens on the sloop "Queen Anne's Revenge," commanded by Blackbeard sailing just north of the Bahamas. The plot opens with a battle between the pirate's sloop and a Dutch merchant ship, which is captured. Other events follow.

The facts are historically correct. The author, who has been a teacher of history spent the past fall studying in the North Carolina State Library. He also spent some time visiting the haunts of Blackbeard in Bath and other places.

The author is a native North Carolinian, a graduate of Duke University, Durham, holds the M.S. degree from State College, Raleigh, and has done post-graduate work at the University of Chicago. He has taught in the high schools of Hickory, Lenoir, and Wake counties, Hookerton and Whitakers. His home is at Hookerton.

The series will run 12 days.

Mr. Ormond formerly lived in this city, and is the brother of Mrs. Edna Dodson and Lyman Ormond.

By ROBBIN COONS

Hollywood, Calif.—When Harold Lloyd returns from his vacation in Europe, the comedian sends word, he plans for the fourth time to "clean up" his screen character.

The expression is Lloyd's own, and does not apply to moral straightening in store for the bewildered, ruleless, and always bespectacled youth he has presented in all his most successful pictures.

Lloyd's latest, "Movie Crazy," is very satisfactory in Europe, he has noted. Still he has sensed a need to make the character he has portrayed for the past twelve years, and his stories, a little more sophisticated.

Plans New Film

The comedian will begin work on a new film immediately upon his return, and although he has not yet selected a story, he has in mind exactly the character he wishes to assume. The bespectacled adolescent will give way to "a man 25 or 27 years of age, with a little more outward indication of horse sense," he says.

A feeling that comedy in America has become more sophisticated is motivating Lloyd in the "cleaning up" process.

The Lloyd character now known to the fans represents an evolution from two previous "cleanings." He had begun with Hal Roach in a character he termed "Willie Work," a sort of tramp wearing nondescript clothes with high padded shoulders, and not altogether a person to win favor with women. Willie lasted only a few months.

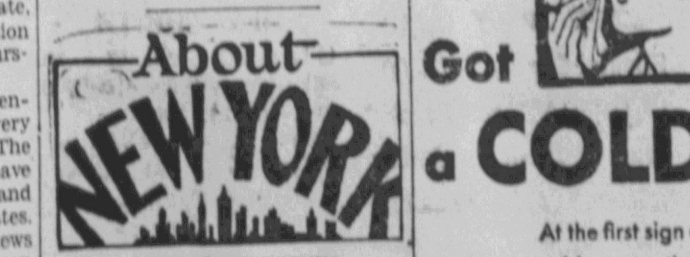

Next came "Lonesome Luke" with his tight-fitting pants, coat, big shoes, fedora which sat atop his head, and a dot of mustache under each nostril. "Lonesome Luke" survived three or four years, and Lloyd prospered.

When after a preview one night he overheard a patron remark: "Isn't that fellow who imitates Chaplin very funny?" Harold decided to take steps. Anyway, he wanted a character that would be Lloyd.

The Third "Cleaning"

Over opposition to any change, he produced the smooth-shaven youngster with horn-rimmed spectacles who made him famous in his own right, as Harold Lloyd.

The passing of that figure will be an event in screen comedy.

Hints on Contract Bridge Up-to-Date

Squeezing A Grand Slam By TOM O'NEIL

With the expert, the uncertainties of breaks and finesses are avoided, especially in slam play, when the squeeze often is the only means of success with justifiable grand slam contracts.

In illustration is a grand slam made by Mrs. Maude Hilda Zontlein in a duplicate game at the Deschamps Club, New York, which gave her and partner, Gerald Grosbeck, a big top.

Mrs. Zontlein, sitting north, became the declarer on the following hand:

NORTH: S-Q 7 3 2; H-A Q 3 2; D-A K Q J 2; C—none.

WEST dealer: S-9 8 5; H-8 5; D-10 9 7 4; C-9 7 6 3.

SOUTH: S-A 10 4; H-K 10 6; D-3; C-A K Q 8 5 2.

EAST: S-K J 6; H-J 9 7 4; D-8 6 5; C-J 10 4.

The bidding, with west and east passing all the while, went: north one diamond; south three no trump; north four hearts; south five no trump; north seven diamonds; south seven no trump.

Under new conventions the hand could have been bid as follows: north one diamond; south three club; north three hearts; south four no trump; north five no trump; south seven no trump.

The ten of diamonds was led. Mrs. Zontlein noted that if the club tops took the adversaries' stoppers the contract would be easy to fulfill, but such luck seemed unlikely.

Indeed the diamond suit proved to be the only one that could be run out. A spade finesse would be of no use.

In the dummy Mrs. Zontlein took four diamond tricks, setting up the deuce. The ace and king of hearts then were played, followed by the three to clubs. Dummy was put in with the queen of hearts. The cards were then as follows:

NORTH: S-Q; H-2; D-2; C—none.

WEST: S-8 6; H—none; D—none; C-9.

SOUTH: S-A 10; H—none; D—none; C-8.

EAST: S-K J; H-J; D—none; C—none.

The lowly deuce of diamonds put the pressure on east. He shed the jack of spade. Declarer threw away the eight of clubs. Then dummy's ace and ten of spades were covered by the queen of spades was covered by the 13th trick. Had east discarded the heart knave the deuce of hearts would have taken the 12th trick.

Success with a grand slam a contract essayed because a bid was insufficient after a psychic start, is among the accomplishments of Walter Pendleton of New York. Here was the hand, in which he sat

CATS TAKE LONG CRACK AT DUKEMEN

Durham, N. C., Feb. 7.—The Davidson Wildcats, after getting away to a slow start this season and then vastly improving to turn in some fine games, will take a crack at Duke's fast-traveling Blue Devils in Duke gym tonight at 8:15 o'clock.

Duke will risk their record of five straight victories in North Carolina's Big Five race, a string of wins that has now run to seven in a row and will also carry into the game the prestige of being in the commanding position of the Southern Conference race.

Since their one-sided defeat at the hands of Navy, Duke has not lost a game of the even played. At the start of the season the Devils were off to six victories before being head by Maryland and then the Middies. Thus, the Duke boys have a season record of thirteen wins in fifteen contests.

The game tonight is a crucial one for the Blue Devils in their campaign for a fourth consecutive Big Five title. Victories over the Cats tonight and over Carolina in the Tar Heel Saturday night, although three two games form a mighty tough assignment to handle, would give the Devils undisputed control of basketball in the State for another year.

Coach Eddie Cameron has uncovered a new star recently who will be seen in action tonight, Dud Clark, sophomore guard, who made his bow against V. M. I., continued his great play when sent in against Carolina and reached stardom on the Devils' victorious three-game campaign in Virginia.

Duke's swimmers were in Richmond, Va., today where they are slated to meet the Richmond Y. M. C. A. team tonight. They will also engage William and Merv tomorrow before returning to face Washington and Lee in the Duke pool Friday.

The Teachers continued the fast breaking and close guarding that was so outstanding in the Chowan game last Saturday night. For E. C. T. C. King was high with 13 points, while Dickens, former college star, accounted for half the losers' 20 points.

The next game at the college will be a double-header Friday night. The Teachers will play Wake Forest Frosh and the High School will meet Roanoke Rapids High School. The high school game will be played first, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Summary: E. C. T. C. Forwards: Barrett (10), Bostic (4), Deal (3), Centers: Burnette (4), Tucker (9), P. King. Guards: Eason, King (13), Lominae, captain, (1); Jolly.

New York Cotton

New York, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, unchanged to five points lower in response to disappointing Liverpool cables partially offset by trade buying.

Selling was off to 6.02 for May at the start, but prices rallied a point or two. The market was quiet and steady and within a point or two of yesterday's close.

The market held generally steady later in the morning. At midday May was selling at 6.06 with active months showing advances of four to seven points.

Stock Market

New York, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Stocks dragged along on a level plane in today's market. Tobaccos again softened in spots and a little more softening on gold issues, but on the whole prices changes negligible.

General Motors dividends were too widely expected to prove an important factor, although prices advanced fractionally.

American Tobacco dragged about a point, and other tobaccos sagged fractionally.

Sales are mostly steady or firm with exception of Union Pacific.

Recently heavy utility sales showed some sign of short covering with Public Service of New Jersey gaining rationally.

American Can and American Telephone were firm while National Biscuit eased moderately.

A slow rally during the last hour failed to hold entirely but American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Allied Chemical, and American Can were up a point or more towards the close. Sales $30,000 shares.

Garibaldi of Mecklenburg, had reported back. Seeking to regulate the payment on gas taxes and to curtail bootlegging, a bill free gas, the House passed the Doughton bill prepared by the state revenue department which shortens payment by thirty days. The measure went to the Senate. The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill to allow extension of one year in payment of loans to World War veterans granted by the state. Rep. Doughton of Allegheny introduced into the House a bill to completely change the license fee sale of all motor vehicles operating in the state.

The agriculture committee did not act on the measure to complete a set-up of the department while the House judiciary committee group favorably reported the Scarborough bill to establish the 55-hour week in industry.

Recommend Removal of Barry Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Immediate removal of David Barry as Senate sergeant-at-arms for writing a magazine that some members of Congress accept bribes was recommended today by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

The case comes up in the Senate automatically this afternoon for final determination. It was conceded that the committee recommendation would be adopted, Barry already being under suspension.

Motion by Senator Robinson to recommend to permit the 74-year-old officer to resign was rejected by a vote of 11 to 4.

Push Farm Relief Plan Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—(AP)—A decision to draw up and push toward enactment of an emergency measure for farm mortgage relief was made by the Senate Banking Committee considering the problem.

The subcommittee, headed by Senator Fletcher, decided it would be useless to seek action at this session on any of the huge proposals for revising the whole agricultural credit structure.

The group decided to meet tomorrow in another session, and without further hearing to formulate a bill to give a breathing space from the foreclosure, that has brought disorder to the farm belt.

"If we can't get the bill out this week it will be no use to try to get it through this session," said Senator Stetson, member of the group.

Boosts Eight Months School. Raleigh, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Senator A. D. McLean of Beaufort, author of a bill now before the General Assembly education committee to set up a state-wide and state supported 8-months school term, today said there are four sound reasons to compel the adoption of the eight months school law at this session.

First, he said, is that it will make a better school system. Second, the improvement cannot be regarded as premature because it is based on efficiency and economy.

Third, it will avoid almost a break down of extended terms in hundreds of districts and more than half of the counties of the state following revaluation of property.

Fourth, the outstanding reason is that state-wide control would abolish 14,000 special act districts and remove ad valorem taxes now levied for schools. He estimated the average tax of 35 cents on $100 would result from the eight months term.

Admits Whipping Prisoners. Greenville, S. C., Feb. 7.—(AP)—B. V. Southers, whose discharge as captain of the county chain gang, said today in a statement he whipped prisoners who did not maintain discipline and that J. Ed Means, county supervisor, had released him because of public opinion.

Southers and two guards were released because they were declared no longer in employ of the county. Southers said he never whipped David Craft, 14, Newark youth.

Talks To Parents (Screen Actress) It is amazing how few women realize they have elbows. How frequently we see a woman who has lavished time and care on her make-up, but whose elbows are red or even roughened.

It takes only a moment a day to care for them. I keep a pot of scented bleaching cream on my dressing table. Every night I rub the thinnest film of the cream into the skin.

U.N.C. WORKS HARD TO TAKE DUKE IN TOW

Chapel Hill, Feb. 7.—The Carolina basketball squad will return home from a strenuous four-game northern tour Wednesday morning at nine o'clock to devote its undivided attention to getting ready for the return game with Duke here Saturday night.

Duke won the game on its floor 36-32, wiping out a six-point lead which Carolina held when only six minutes remained to play and forging on to victory with a brilliant and beautiful rally. The Tar Heels are intent on revenge, and with Carolina having the home court advantage this time, all indications are for another great game.

Carolina didn't have much luck at Maryland Friday night nor at Navy Saturday night. But Duke had fared no better on its earlier sortie into the northland, and the Carolina team was hardly expected to take two such powerful quintos on their own floors, despite the fact that Carolina had won all seven games prior to its first loss to Duke.

The Tar Heels also showed the expected improvement at V. M. I. last night and, if they can take the strong team at Washington and Lee tonight, the conference as well as the Big Five lead will be inextricably tied up with this Carolina-Duke natural Saturday night.

Western Schools May Develop Own Rowing Classic

Berkeley, Calif., (AP)—Carroll "Ky" Ehrhart, crew coach of California, hopes the Pacific Coast will have a regatta rivaling the temporarily defunct Powhkeepsie classic on the Hudson within a few years.

Ehrhart, the man who coached two world championship crews in four years, said such an event was entirely possible, since the University of California at Los Angeles has entered the intercollegiate field this year against California and Washington.

Southern California, he said, has gone in for interclass rowing to develop interest in the sport, while Oregon State is a possibility, as in Stanford.

Three good courses are available for a regatta—the Olympic course at Long Beach, Oakland estuary and Lake Washington in Seattle.

Expensive trips to the East would be eliminated and the crewmen's vacations would not be shortened as they have been in the past, Ehrhart pointed out.

More Work for Needy Kinston, N. C., Feb. 7.—The historic courthouse green here, with never a tree nor shrub on it before, is being landscaped. It will be converted into a miniature park. Laborers have been hired for the work, being supervised by the commissioner of streets and the Community Service League. The only adornment on the grounds has been a granite boulder inscribed with a brief history of Kinston.
