THIRTY PERSONS KILLED BY TORNADO IN 2 STATES

Two Hundred Injured As Twister Strikes Border Of Kentucky-Tennessee

BIG PROPERTY DAMAGE ALSO IS REPORTED

List of Dead Grows as Reports Trickle in From Rural Districts; Nashville Feels Full Force of The Storm With Eight Dead; Property Damage Estimated at $1,000,000; Communication Lines Badly Crippled

Nashville, Tenn., March 15.—(AP)—A March tornado lashed the Tennessee and Kentucky border from Mississippi to the Cumberland last night and left behind it thirty dead, more than two hundred injured and property damage estimated above $1,000,000.

The twister struck Kentucky in the night after preliminary blows at Arkansas and the Missouri side of the Mississippi and mowed a path of destruction from the valley to the mountains through Nashville, Harrogate, Jellico and Kingsport, Tenn., catching many small villages on the way.

Throughout the night and today the toll of dead and injured grew as reports trickled in from rural sections over crippled communication lines.

Nashville, a city of more than 150,000, and the Tennessee capital, felt the full force of the storm as the driving wind dipped over the hills and cut across a vast portion of the community, blowing over houses, damaging buildings, uprooting trees, and littering the streets with debris. At least eight were killed.

TONSIL CLINIC AT PACTOLUS

Twenty Children Operated on in Fourth Clinic Conducted Yesterday

The campaign to improve the health of the children of this county was carried into Pactolus yesterday and twenty-six children were operated on for adenoids and tonsils.

The clinic was to be carried to Stokes Friday, where a similar number will receive the services of nose and throat specialists working under direction of the Pitt County Department of Health.

The Pactolus clinic was the fourth held since beginning of the campaign several weeks ago. The first two clinics were held at Grimesland and the third at Winterville.

The campaign will be continued until every school of the county has been visited. Operations have been limited to twenty per school. Although the work is being conducted under direction of the public health department, it is being paid for through the Reconstruction Corporation funds appropriated to this county.

Interesting Session Held at The Woman's Club Building Yesterday

The monthly meeting of the Eighth District of the North Carolina Nurses' Association was held at the Woman's Club here yesterday with thirty representatives of the organization present.

The district is comprised of 23 counties in the eastern part of the state and virtually every section was represented.

Miss Davis Dickinson of Weldon, president, presided, and delightful refreshments were served by members of the Junior Woman's Club at the expiration of the program.

The principal address was delivered by Dr. R. J. Ely, professor of chemistry at East Carolina Teachers College. He spoke on the subject of "The Factors that Enter Into a Balanced Diet," and brought out many interesting facts in connection with vitamins as they pertain to keeping the body in a healthy condition.

Resolutions were adopted opposing the measure now before the General Assembly that would prohibit nurses graduating in this state from accepting employment in other states. Other matters concerning the welfare of the organization were discussed at considerable length.

Mrs. Dink James and Miss Agnes Fullilove delighted their hearers with two duet numbers. They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ray Tyson.

The meeting was described as one of the most interesting in many months, and the visitors expressed gratification over the splendid reception accorded them while here.

RULES FOR PLAINTIFFS IN SUIT OVER BUILDING

Laurinburg, N. C., March 15.—With the jury temporarily dismissed, Judge Harding, of Charlotte, listened to counsel arguments in the action of Laurinburg graded school trustees to dispossess W. L. Roper of property used as Laurinburg's first public school, and decided in favor of the plaintiff trustees here today.

The property, near the center of Laurinburg, and now containing a large frame structure, was deeded, in 1871, to the school trustees by Colonel James T. Roper, grandfather of the defendant Roper, and the will contains a clause, Roper alleges, to mean that when the property was not used for school purposes for any two-year period, it reverted to the Roper heirs. Judge Harding, however, held the deed to be in fee simple.

BANKS RESUME SERVICE HERE THIS MORNING

All Banks of The City Re-open Following National Banking Holiday

All banks of Greenville resumed unrestricted operation this morning following the National and State banking holiday declared by President Roosevelt and Governor Ehringhaus the first of last week. Scores of other institutions throughout the State likewise re-opened after being declared in sound condition by the State Banking Commission.

No withdrawals except for absolute necessities were reported here this morning, and it was indicated the closing this afternoon would show that deposits far exceeded withdrawals.

Bankers were hearty in their praise of the spirit of co-operation shown by people during the banking holiday, and declared the spirit of loyalty should play an important part in improvement of the financial fabric of the community.

MORAL ISSUES MARK SERMON

Rev. Albea Godbold Discusses Subject, "Why Be Moral?" at Revival Services

Rev. Albea Godbold spoke last night on "Why Be Moral?" The text was taken from the 15th chapter of Luke, 17th verse: "I will arise and go unto my father." "Why be moral?" is a pertinent question and is being asked by many persons. This generation oftentimes takes morals too lightly. Some people think that morals are a psychological hangover from the preceding generations. These having moral scruples today are classed as out-of-date. Morals are divided into two parts, one possessing a feeling of "I ought," the other with a feeling of "I ought not." We are all moralists, we are either following, "I ought" or "I ought not." The prodigal so passed from morality to immorality and back again. This fact will give some light as to whether we ought to be moral.

Immortality didn't pay this prodigal son physically nor spiritually. He went from bad to worse, and this condition was not in accord with his best nature. This condition produced a selfish conduct and he went against the voice of God. When he started back home again it paid him materially and spiritually. This step was in accord with his best nature and produced a social conduct. He was determined to get along with people. These are reasons enough to be moral. Be moral because—

(1) It pays materially and spiritually.

(2) It is in accord with one's best nature. Some look upon morality as being foreign to nature. The Ten Commandments and the principles of the Sermon on the Mount were true before the time of Moses and Jesus. They are in the Bible because they are true and in accord with the nature of the universe.

(3) It is fulfilling responsibility toward fellow-men. Some say that morals are something that society clamps on the individual and man should be free—without restraint to do as he pleases. Men must live together and therefore we must have standards of conduct. There are three things we must possess in order to live in society—truthfulness, honesty and a sense of duty.

(4) It is in accord with the will of God. Jesus said: "Be ye therefore perfect even as your Heavenly Father is perfect." When the prodigal son found that he was immoral he immediately found his life miserable. (Continued on Page Four)

Rum Makers Alarmed By Big Beacons

Warsaw, March 15.—(AP)—A lot of fires were extinguished under stills belonging to negroes in Duplin county today.

The U. S. Geodetic Survey working in the county, set up lookout stations at a number of points and by night members from the top of the towers signalled one another with beacon lights. From the signals data is compiled for their permanent information.

Negro distillers believed the towers were new fangled things used by the revenue officers for spying on their stills. So many fires were put out.

SEEK FEDERAL AID IN CALIF.

Relief Workers Will Ask R. F. C. Funds For Restoring Homes Of Citizens

Long Beach, Calif., March 15.—(AP)—While repercussions of last Friday's earthquakes continued in milder shocks, service organizations of Long Beach today planned an appeal to Congress that the Reconstruction Corporation be allowed to aid in restoring private citizens' homes.

The 42nd and 43rd tremors of the series of strong shocks rapping all sections of the vast earthquake zone were felt at 9:40 last night and at 3:14 a. m. today.

The first lasted about five seconds. The second came in three quick jolts. It was preceded by a loud rumbling at Huntington Park. At Long Beach it stopped police station telephones and jarred loose bricks from buildings already partially wrecked by the former shocks but apparently it did no serious damage.

EIGHT CASES BEFORE COURT

Minor Charges Disposed of in Regular Session of County Court Tuesday

County court disposed of eight cases in a brief session here yesterday. The majority of charges consisted of larceny and violation of the prohibition laws.

Two men charged with possession of whiskey were fined $50 each. They were Jennings Stokes and M. Spence.

Major Gray, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was ordered to pay a fine of $25.

Judgment was suspended in the case of Earl Smith, 16, charged with larceny.

Prayer for judgment was continued in the case of George Atkinson, colored, charged with abandonment. Judgment was continued in the case of Harvey Moore, appearing on a charge of reckless driving.

Walter Barrett, colored, paid a fine of $30 for assault with a deadly weapon.

James Evans and Napoleon Richardson, colored, were found not guilty of larceny.

PLEAS FOR PROHIBITION MADE IN ELIZABETH CITY

Elizabeth City, N. C., March 15.—Speaking on the evils of liquor and opposing repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, George J. Burnett, of Greensboro, Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, and Dr. J. C. Owen, of High Point, Assistant Superintendent, led a corps of anti-liquor workers here Sunday, the speakers occupying the pulpits in several local churches.

Congregations at the City Road and Blackwell Memorial Baptist Church heard the visiting speakers at the morning services, while the First and Free Will Baptist congregations heard them at night. The lectures generally were well attended.

FIREMEN ARE FETED HERE

Wives of Fire Fighters And City Officials Also Attend Barbecue Supper

Members of the fire department, their wives and city officials were guests at a barbecue supper given at the firemen's hall last night by W. M. Jones, who has long been interested in the development of fire fighting here.

The occasion was well attended and the way barbecue disappeared under the impetus of compelling oratory lauding the firemen for their excellent work was amazing. But Mr. Jones had provided liberal supplies of Pitt county pig cooked in the generally accepted and favorable style and the gastronomic faculty of all the guests was relieved very pronouncedly.

The speakers of the evening were Mayor R. C. Flanagan, Dink James, Key Brown and George Gardner, chief of the fire department.

Mayor Flanagan stressed the protection thrown about the city by the firemen and said their record the last several years should be the pride of the entire citizenship.

Judge James and Mr. Brown were also warm in their commendation of the firemen, while Chief Gardner promised that his men would continue to be on the alert to render the best of service at all times.

He urged the cooperation of the public, declaring this highly imperative if the best interests of all was to be served.

FATALLY INJURED IN A FIVE-FOOT FALL

Winston-Salem, N. C., March 15.—(AP)—Willie Ewell Bell, 32, formerly of Richmond, Va., was fatally injured in a five-foot fall from a window in the R. J. Reynolds Company tobacco plant here Monday. The funeral will be held in Richmond, Va., Wednesday.

Late News Flashes

Tdoya In The Legislature. Raleigh, March 15.—(AP)—The Senate voted today to give the governor of North Carolina the veto power while the House was passing the 1933-35 revenue machinery act which made provision for levying ad valorem taxes on foreign stocks. The upper assembly passed 39-1 a bill for rewriting the constitution.

Senator Moore of Craven alone voted against the constitution measure.

The House rejected 65-32 the advice of its finance chairman to keep the ad valorem provision for foreign stocks in the machinery act and passed it on a viva-voce vote and send it to the Senate. The measure cannot set tax rates but provides means and methods of taxation and valuation of property for taxation.

Under the constitutional bill passed by the Senate, if the measure gets favorable vote by three-fifths of the House membership the people of the state will vote at the next election giving the governor veto power. The governor is the only chief executive not invested with veto power.

With the machinery act on third reading, passage was indicated when the House refused 55-36 to allow the exemption of Polk county from ad valorem taxation as asked by Rep. Maensenburg.

RED CROSS TO AID SUFFERERS

Local Chapter Seeks Liberal Contributions For Sufferers In California

The American National Red Cross has been designated as the official relief agency for the sufferers from the southern California earthquake, and the Pitt County chapter has been called upon to help, along with all other local chapters. There are about 7,500 families whose homes have been destroyed or badly damaged, and for the most part these families have no resources of their own.

The people of California have for many years been most generous in contributing to Red Cross disaster relief funds in behalf of other sections of the country. This present appeal is the first that has been made in their behalf since the San Francisco disaster in 1906. It is hoped that their call for aid will not be in vain.

While the great bulk of this relief fund will be raised throughout the State of California, there must be contributions from other parts of the country if the relief attempts is to be successful. Who knows when a disaster may hit this section of the country? Were such to occur, the American Red Cross would come to our aid and call upon other sections of the country to contribute to our relief. Let us, therefore, contribute as liberally as possible for our fellow-countrymen in California.

Contributions will be received within the next few days at the office of Wm. J. Bundy, chairman of the Pitt County Chapter, directly opposite the court-house. Bring or mail your contributions as soon as possible to Mr. Bundy, or, if more convenient, to any of the following chapter officers: W. A. Darden, attorney; Mrs. George F. Hadley, A. B. Ellington, K. T. Futrelle, Dr. J. M. Barrett, Mrs. Selma C. Moore; in Farmville, give your contribution to Dr. Paul E. Jones; in Bethel, to S. C. Ives; in Ayden to Rev. Dodd; in Winterville, to C. D. Ward.

Scores Of Institutions Given Permission For Resuming Work In N. C.

ROOSEVELT IS OTHERS WILL PLANNING NEW GET LICENSES FARM MESSAGE IN SHORT TIME

President to Ask Congress For Passage of Unemployment Bill At Once

Washington, D. C., March 15.—(AP)—President Franklin D. Roosevelt will probably send a message to Congress tomorrow on emergency farm and unemployment measure for immediate action. The unemployment program calls for employing the idle in cities for immediate work on reforestation in all sections of the country.

The farm plan will be a one-year experimental proposition looking to acreage control for increasing the value of farm products. Democratic leaders have given the President assurance that the great party majority in both branches of Congress will work for the expeditious enactment of both proposals.

First they made plain that the cooperation is on getting the economy and beer bills—both in the Senate—to the President for signature. The Senate may vote late today on the economy authority for the President and next on the 3.2 per cent beer bill passed late yesterday by the House.

Under the latest farm relief plan the bill does not include price fixing. It does make provisions for selling on a broad scale of marginal plans to take them out of production.

It was emphasized that the list was incomplete, and that because a bank was not listed, this could not be taken as a reflection on its standing or solvency.

This morning the Banking Department was busy preparing to add new names to the list. There were sixty-four State banks licensed last night and today and all were given permission to resume business today.

New York, March 15.—(AP)—"Banking hours," long the facetious synonym for sequestration, continued today to belie the implication of leisure as the work of re-opening of the nation's sound banks was pushed forward. In most Federal Reserve Bank centers officials worked well into the night and made effort to hasten the authorization for the banks to re-open today.

State banking heads and their officers also found the task a heavy one. Everywhere the ambition was to authorize openings as quickly as office routine could be completed. More than 1,500 banks have been opened during the first two days, and included in that number are major banking institutions of the country.

The number of those awaiting the signal to do business today were greater in number by far than those already opened, but they were small. Despite their lack of pretension many of the banks which awaited the signal for re-opening play an important part in the movement of products of the soil.

And it was this fact that so many of the smaller banks were delayed in re-opening that prompted the Chicago Board of Trade and the New Orleans Cotton Exchange to defer renewal of trading. Much of the business of the two exchanges were in agricultural districts served by the smaller banks.

Every Federal Reserve Bank district had opened a sufficient number of banks within its territory to provide impetus for business of the area.

FIFTY-ACRE FARM PREPARED FOR NEEDS

Goldsboro, N. C., March 15.—A 50-acre farm belonging to the city of Goldsboro, located near the city airport, has been plowed, harrowed, and made ready by planting by men employed by relief funds. Plans have been made for raising two crops of vegetables during the year for use of needy families of the city.

Frank Seymour and G. A. Newwood are directing the work for the relief committee.

VALIANT DUST by Percival Christopher Wren. Chapter 33 THE LEGION ARRIVES. The bugles... The crisp, clear, ringing notes of the silver-vaned or brazen-tongued bugles. The very sound of them did one good, thought Margaret. Bracing like a cold bath, after the noises of the shrill native instruments. The breath of the bugles, albeit foreign bugles, was a breath from home. Foreign bugles. Bugles of the Foreign Legion, Otho's Regiment. It was entirely possible that there might be a man in that detachment, marching far below, through the Mekazzen city, marching up to this very Citadel, who had known Otho Belleme, anyhow—the man who had defeated the Senegalese boxer (who had fought and beaten the champion of Europe) in what must have been one of the finest and stubbornest fights ever seen. That was what the Echo d'Oran had called it, anyhow. Would it be possible to get to know some of the men, and to find out if any of them had known him? If the detachment left Mekazzen before she did, it might be the quickest way of getting a letter to him. But why should the detachment leave Mekazzen before she did? Why should she not leave with them—or at least more or less under their convoy and protection? This Major Riccoli, whose acquaintance Herr Schlicht was anxious for her to make, might prove most useful. If he would help her to escape, could she not follow the detachment wherever it went, until it reached civilization again—or within a camel journey of civilization. Anything to get away from this sinister terrifying prison. After all, this Riccoli was an officer and a gentleman of sorts, presumably; and he and his men were Europeans with whom a white woman would be safe. Yes, surely, she could manage Major Riccoli, if only he could, and would, procure her a camel and what little else was necessary. Swiftly completing her toilet, she locked her incongruous-looking dressing-case, unbarred her door, and ran down the steep and narrow flight of steps to the point of vantage whence she could see the soldiers march into the Citadel. Yes—there they came, an officer riding ahead—he must be the peculiar Major Riccoli—then the bugles blowing their march, then the little column with a tall non-commissioned officer in front. How swaggering smart, self-confident, up-standing and alert, "steady and strong, marching along, like the boys of the Old Brigade"—like the guards themselves for style, bearing and discipline. But oh, how dusty and dirty, weary and worn and hollow-eyed they looked, in spite of their brave swagger. Margaret felt a rush and glow of emotion. A feeling in the throat, and a tear. Very foolish. Otho's Regiment. Later that day a tall, broad-shouldered young legionnaire stood on sentry outside the guard-room by change and curtailing the business life of the nation. It is no effort by the government to compel you to put your money in the bank if you do not wish to, or if you need it for immediate use, but under the law you must not keep it hid away out of use in large amounts. Money is but a medium of exchange upon which all business is conducted and with the amount of money limited every dollar in circulation changes hands several times each day, keeping the wheels of business and industry turning. In view of this fact it can be readily seen that when money is hid away where it cannot circulate it curtails business to an extent many times greater than just the amount of money itself. In view of this fact we do not believe that our people would wilfully keep large amounts of money out of circulation and hurt business especially now that they have the assurance that there are safe places in which to keep their surplus funds without hiding them away out of circulation. There is no necessity for keeping large sums of money out of circulation.

About NEW YORK by WILLIAM GAINES. New York—Broadway extends from the Battery to Albany, but from reading the Broadway commentators one might suppose that showmen and showmanship are confined to the stretch between Herald Square and Columbus Circle. Such is not the case. One of the greatest showmen on Broadway holds forth at 124th Street—Dr. Christian P. Reiser, pastor of the Broadway Temple M. E. Church, who envisages a skyscraper tower rising above his house of worship and entertainment. And he is a showman who has faced no empty pews in the pinch of the depression. A theater manager who formerly had the vaudeville house at 181st Street and Broadway tells of trying to compete with the doctor. "He gave me many a slow Sunday, not to mention a lot of other nights when the only place on Washington Heights that was standing then up was the Broadway Temple." All-Star Sermons. On a recent Sunday, at his regular evening service, Dr. Reiser presented Cal Calloway and his Harlem night club orchestra, doing spirituals, of course. They packed them in to such an extent that the doctor ordered the Four Mills Brothers for a later appearance. He has offered on other occasions stars like Eddie Cantor and speakers, including Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Joseph Lewis, the militant atheist. The congregation is encouraged to applaud freely while the entertainment is on—but Lewis says the good doctor did draw the line at letting his flock applaud his atheism. On Thursday night there are free movies. On Saturday night, and sometimes several nights of the week, there are free basketball games. But something is billed to yank in the crowd, every night. Although the doctor's methods are sensational, his religion is ultra-conservative. He preaches fundamentalism and prohibition. He is a tall, well built man, with white hair and a benign expression. When he speaks a baby spotlight of theatrical vintage plays upon him, and when he calls for prayer the church is darkened and a red neon cross glows above him against black velvet. Behind the removable altar is a fully equipped stage, where the entertainers hold sway. The doctors' exploitations have brought him realms of publicity. He is fully aware of his abilities at winning public attention and tells the story, that Bruce Barton, the advertising man, once offered him a salary of $40,000 a year to go into that business. But Dr. Reiser preferred his own. On one occasion he delivered a sermon from behind a pulpit of ice—a tie-up with an ice company. Certainly that must have chilled the eternal heat of Satan's realm. After Dr. Reiser discusses plans for some elaborate church stunt in the brisk, business-like terms of men who do things on a big scale, he calls upon his assistants to bow their heads while he speaks a solemn prayer for the success of the undertaking. Shorthand Magic. When Billy Rose, the Broadway producer, was a champion shorthand writer, he could take notes on a pad concealed in his pocket. He still can, for that matter, but he's not so slick these days. Amelia Earhart's preference to clothes runs to browns.

STATE TONIGHT!! GEORGE ARLISS THE KING'S VACATION BILIOUSNESS. "My trouble was biliousness—the whole spring and summer I was almost down, felt so sluggish, tired and dizzy," writes Mr. S. W. Taylor, of Joplin, Mo. "I remembered that at one time Black-Draught had helped me. I went to the drug store and bought a package and began taking it at night. After that, I felt as well as anyone. I am full of pep and get out on the farm and do a real day's work, so I feel that I owe my good health to the use of Black-Draught." Children Like the New Pleasant Tasting SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT. Free from the sickening after-effects often felt from taking mineral drugs. Costs only 1 cent or less a dose. THEODORE'S BLACK-DRAUGHT.

NOW UP TO THE SENATE. The House of Representatives took a step in the right direction yesterday when it voted to repeal the exemption from taxation now enjoyed by stocks in foreign corporations. We have always contended that every dollar's worth of property, regardless of its kind, should bear its just share of the state's tax burdens as outlined by the Constitution. Ten years ago the privileged holders of foreign stocks in this state engineered through our legislature this measure that would exempt that form of property from taxation and now we congratulate the present members of the House upon their action in repealing this exemption. Indications now are that the repeal will face a hard fight to get through the Senate, but if the Senators believe in the Constitution of our state which they have sworn to uphold, they cannot do otherwise than repeal this exemption and return the stocks in foreign corporations to the tax books.

TO BETTER DAYS. The attitude of our people during the recent banking holiday and a continuation of this attitude of confidence and a desire for co-operation is most gratifying. Open today for full business without restrictions, our banks faced no difficulties but instead did more business in deposits than withdrawals. The restoration of confidence was absolutely necessary if our country was to begin to make its way out of the depression of the last few years and present indications are that the people have regained this necessary confidence. While this is just the first step out of our difficulties it was the necessary foundation upon which we must build and now we believe that we can safely say that we have ceased our descent and again turned our eyes and our steps upward. WHAT IS HOARDING? What is hoarding? That is a question that has been asked many times since the enactment of the federal anti-hoarding law by those who wish to know just to what extent the law goes. While we are no authority in the matter, it is our belief that this law was intended not to intimidate our people and deprive them of their rights to do as they please with their money so far as the spending of same is concerned but to prohibit the practice of storing away out of circulation idle sums of money thereby restricting the national medium of exchange and curtailing the business life of the nation. It is no effort by the government to compel you to put your money in the bank if you do not wish to, or if you need it for immediate use, but under the law you must not keep it hid away out of use in large amounts. It Takes More Than Salts, Calomel, Mineral Waters, Oils, or Laxative Pills to Arouse a Sluggish Liver. They Give Only Temporary Relief From Constipation and Biliousness, Because They Have No Effect Whatever on the Liver or Its Production of Bile. Bile is nature's own laxative and your stomach and bowels require at least one quart of fresh bile every day to keep them clean, pure, free from fermentation, putrefaction, gas and disease germs. When your liver becomes torpid or sluggish the bile stagnates and stops flowing freely. The contents of your bowels become the breeding place for germs and poisons; your food does not digest—it just ferments and decays in the bowels. The blood absorbs these poisons and you suffer from constipation, gas, sick headaches, biliousness, nervousness and sour stomach. Sargon Soft Mass Pills will remove the cause of this condition and purify your entire system in nature's way. They are not like any other medicine you have ever taken. They are so gentle, thorough and natural in their action that there is nothing about them to remind you that you have ever taken a medicine, and most remarkable of all you gradually reduce the dose until you no longer require a laxative at all. Five years ago it was generally believed that calomel and laxative drugs stimulated the liver, but modern science has proved that calomel, salts, mineral waters, oils and other laxatives have no effect whatever on the liver. Sargon Soft Mass Pills act directly on the liver because they contain two amazing substances which highest medical authorities agree are the only effective stimulants to the bile-producing activity of the liver known to modern science. These substances stimulate and invigorate the liver to cleanse and purify itself through increasing its production of bile. This fresh bile immediately starts to work neutralizing acids and poisons, stopping fermentation and decay, cleansing and purifying the bowels and sweeping out accumulated poisons. Unless you have tried Sargon Soft Mass Pills you can have no idea of the effects produced by this natural cleansing of your liver and bowels. It makes you feel years younger, stronger, healthier and happier. It brings back life and color to faded eyes and cheeks, restores the appetite and sound digestion—gives you a new outlook on life itself. Insist on genuine Sargon Soft Mass Pills. Don't be misled. There are only two known substances which will actually stimulate a torpid or sluggish liver to cleanse and purify itself by increasing its production of bile. Sargon Soft Mass Pills contain both of these substances and no other advertised medicine on the American market today does contain them. Only 60c for a full 30-day treatment. FIRST LADY KNITS IN CONGRESS

The house of representatives, called in extra session, caught its breath in surprise upon discovering the wife of the President, hatless and informally dressed, knitting away on a sweater in the gallery. Beside her sat Mrs. Mary Baker, daughter of Louis Howe, her husband's secretary, also with her knitting. Rules require that the gallery audiences shall not engage in activity other than watching. But nobody cared and apparently Mrs. Roosevelt is welcome to bring her knitting whenever she wants to. (Associated Press Photo)

DISCIPLINING BABY

(By Alice Judson Peale)

What constitutes discipline during the first 18 months of life?

The baby is too young to be reasoned with and yet there are a good many things he must begin to learn now if the next few years are not to be very painful and difficult indeed.

We want him to eat and sleep regularly, to cry only for good reason. We do not want him often to show violent impatience and rage, for we know that these responses will be hard for him to unlearn.

Here are some suggestions for disciplining the baby:

See that he is fed, bathed and put to sleep with absolute regularity. The regular rhythm of his days keeps him happy, knowing what to expect, and soothed by his pleasant familiar recurrence of his experiences.

Waiting for meals while he suffers pangs of hunger is bad for his disposition. It teaches him to be angry and impatient, and to erect this way whenever the fulfillment of his wishes is either delayed or denied.

Never allow anyone to tease the baby by keeping a toy just out of reach or holding him in a position to which he objects, or in any other way.

If he cries for attention let him cry. Teach him to amuse himself alone. His rattles, rubber dolls and soft animals can be fastened by ribbons to his crib, so that he can soon learn to get hold of them for himself when they slip out of his grasp.

Try to teach him bowel or bladder control only through the regularity with which you attend to his needs and through approval for success. Punishment, scoldings or trying in any way to force this sort of cleanliness is harmful.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS
Hollywood—(AP)—If more movie players followed Aline MacMahon's working principle there might be fewer failures.

She knows what she wants before she tries to get it, and usually gets what she wants.

The application of the rule, of course, cannot be general. Many extra girls want to be actresses, whereas Aline had not only the desire but an ability and personality that make her remembered in pictures whose stars are forgotten.

When she signed a contract last November, after several months of busy free-lancing, Aline knew what she wanted and had it incorporated in the agreement. She wanted variety in roles, and she has had it. She wanted to play in only five productions a year, and that's in, too. Next year she'll play only four.

This Irish-Jewish girl from New York is a departure from the common run of screen idols in more ways than one.

She has made a hit without the aid of conventional beauty, and she averaged being made a "type" when by every Hollywood precedent she should have been nothing else. Her screen debut in "Five Star Final" might easily have been followed by other portrayals of the same character. It wasn't—she saw to that.

"I've been unusually fortunate in not depending on my work for my bread and butter," she says, "and that has allowed me to be more independent. It (variety) is the beginning and end of all I want in acting."

When Aline, straight from school, went to the stage in New York she knew what she wanted, too. She had fun appearing in revues, but when it became apparent they would lead to no dramatic opportunity, she saved her money and then went looking for drama.

She found it, of course. Her plans worked out—as they usually do for people like her.

As she modestly emphasizes, she has been aided by the fact that always she has had a home and family, with no fear of starvation to force her plans awry. Her studio friends declare that the ability and personality of Aline MacMahon have had more to do with her success than any financial independence.

In person, Miss MacMahon is one actress who leaves her acting on the set.

TWO YOUNG NEGROES TRIED FOR MURDER

Smithfield, March 15.—Sixty special veniremen reported for service in the superior court yesterday for the purpose of selecting a jury to try Willie Gill and Leon Watson, two young colored men charged with murdering Ezekiel Hinnant, farmer and merchant, who lives near Wendell on the evening of December 20, last.

The State contends that Gill went to the home of Hinnant and called him out of the store, upon the pretense of wanting to buy some cigarettes; that the front porch was lighted with an electric light, and the porch of the store, situated directly across the road, was also well lighted; that after Gill went into the store with Hinnant a pistol shot was fired and about that time Mrs. Hinnant, who was standing at her front door, saw two men run away from the front of the store, one being Willie Gill, whom she recognized.

SOUTHERN PINES VETS STAND BY PRESIDENT

Southern Pines, March 15.—(AP)—Two Southern Pines veterans, father and son, who are drawing compensation from the government, Monday headed the signers of a petition to Senators Bailey and Reynolds to support the Roosevelt economy program.

The two, W. M. Milan, who served in the Spanish-American War, and his son, Billy, a soldier in the World War, receive $78 a month from the government.

The elder Milan, a local dairyman, said he had little income aside from what he receives from the government, but he urged other veterans to back the President.

The petition was signed by one hundred citizens of Southern Pines.

One day last week as high as five hundred people were here, but when they found that the rush was so great many of them returned home to await a more auspicious moment.

TWO ARRESTED IN WAREHOUSE ROBBERY

Laurinburg, N. C., March 15.—L. A. Hodge, 30, well-known Benson man, who defaulted on a two-thousand dollar bond while on trial here for complicity in looting a wholesale grocery warehouse, and Derwood Hicks, 35, sought in several States on the same charge were in jail their arrest by Deputy Sheriff McComb of Benson, with Thomas Woodall, chief of police, assisting.

The warehouse was looted of cigarettes, etc., to an alleged value of eleven hundred dollars, last summer, and in a spectacular round-up of alleged gangsters in the Fayetteville-Benson section in which police of four counties joined forces, twelve men were arrested for the crime.

Included in the number was Isham R. McLamb, prominent merchant and town commissioner of Benson, and Thomas C. Ray, township constable of Cumberland County.

Hicks never was apprehended until now. At trial, a jury disagreed as to McLamb and Ray and mistrial was ordered.

GRANT LOSES TO CAROLINA NET PLAYERS

Chapel Hill, March 15.—Captain-elect Bryan Grant will not be available to the Carolina tennis team this spring, Coach John Kenfield announced today.

He dropped out of college to accept a job in Atlanta, his home town, and to continue play in a round of the nation's leading tournaments.

Grant was former southern and national claycourt champion, singles runner-up in the national intercollegiate last summer, and number one player on the undefeated Carolina teams of the last two years.

The loss is a heavy one although Carolina will still have six letter-men, Hines, Wright, Shuford, Abels, Dillard and Morgan, back from last year's team, plus three good sophomores, Harris, Levitan and Willis.

Tom Spencer of Charlotte has been appointed student manager of Carolina's basketball team for next year, while Edwin B. Kerr of Clinton and James T. Barnard of Philadelphia, have been named to serve another year as manager of the boxing and wrestling teams, respectively.

John D. Leak of Wadesboro, was named manager of freshman basketball, while William McKee of Sylva and George Blanton of Shelby were picked as assistant varsity basketball managers.

F. E. Harlee of Greensboro and Francis L. Bowen of Lumberton, were named assistant managers in wrestling. The assistant managers for the boxing team have not yet been named.

SPORT SLANTS By ALAN GOULD

The University of Virginia has a 65-year-old boxing coach, John S. LaRowe, but hasn't the slightest idea of emulating the University of Chicago's example by retiring him under an age limit or for any other reason.

In the first place LaRowe is the "father of boxing," not only at the Virginia institution but in behalf of intercollegiate punch-tossing throughout the South. He furnished the funds a dozen years ago for Virginia's first boxing team to take a trip to Philadelphia to meet Pennsylvania.

LaRowe was prominent in the developments leading up to the first Southern Conference boxing tournament in 1927, which Virginia won, and has coached championship Cavalier teams four times altogether, including successive title-winning aggregations in 1931-1932-1933. He's getting better with age.

Virginia's boxing record, regarded with as much enthusiasm as anything the Cavaliers have done on the gridiron or in any other sport, shows a total of 44 dual meet victories out of 64 contested in twelve years.

The Virginia fishermen's winter conferences consist of twelve winter by outfitting the Navy boxers, coached by "Spike" Webb, 5 to 3, making the first setback for the sailors in their home ring in fourteen years.

Question of Horsepower The college athlete who finds it difficult at times to believe that consistent devotion to training regulations pays dividends, should lend an ear to the story often told by the late "Pooch" Donovan of Harvard.

As Frank Ryan relays the yarn, Harvard had a great runner working under "Pooch" who had been beaten several times by an athlete of another college. He went to the coach one day and said to him: "How is it that I train so faithfully and yet I cannot win against 'So-and-So,' who I know and you know does not keep the same training rules? Is this strict training of use to me?"

To which Donovan replied: "You have a fifty horsepower motor driving you when you run. He has a sixty horsepower motor in him. If you operate on 100 per cent efficiency and he operates at 85, he will still lick you. Your hope is to get him some day when he can operate on only 80 per cent efficiency. Then you will lick him."

Frank doesn't say so, but let's assume the proper ending: "P. S.—He did."

Maybe They Knew Best It won't make any difference to him when he takes up his new job as head football coach at the Clark Shaughnessy's record, as now straightened out by Lou McKenna of St. Paul, shows he did not play high school football or basketball before entering Minnesota and making a name for himself as a player under the late Dr. H. L. Williams.

It seems that they didn't sponsor either sport at North St. Paul High School until after Clark departed, in 1908. In view of Shaughnessy's later development as a one-man wrecking crew on the gridiron, high school fears may have been justified.

Gold Trickles Into BANK AT LAURINBURG Laurinburg, N. WOMAN FOUND DEAD. RESULT OF POISONING

Salisbury, N. C., March 15.—(AP)—An auburn-haired woman, apparently about 21 years old, was found dead in her room in a hotel here today from poisoning.

She registered yesterday under the name, Ruth Palmer, but gave no address. Officials were checking names of residents of Abingdon, Va., and Caldwell County, N. C., found on letters in her possession, in an effort to establish her identity.

Stock Market New York, March 15.—(AP)—Maturity markets surged upward as trading was resumed today. The quick resumption of free and normal trading with rising prices was a bright contrast to the month of highly restricted dealing by which trading was started again before last the instant closing coincident to the outbreak of the World War.

Many stocks gained due to eight points, virtually canceling losses of the last half of February. While the market rested for time after first surge it moved up again in the early afternoon to near highs for the currency recovery.

Case and Owens' Illinois Glass showed exceptional gains of eight points while advances of five or more appeared in such issues as American Telephone, Allied Chemical, American Sugar, Union Pacific, Corn Products, Norfolk and Western and Mac.

Gains of three to four points were numerous, embracing such issues as U. S. Steel, American Can, Santa Fe, South Porto Rica, Sugar, National Distillers, National Dairy, American Tobacco, Sears-Roebuck, Consolidated Gas and others.

General Motors, Montgomery and Ward and Kennecott were among issues up two or more points. The late tone was buoyant. Transfers approximated 3,000,000 shares.

Economy Bill Nears Passage.

Washington, March 15.—(AP)—The Senate held its third day of discussion of administration economy bill with debate limited and passage was predicted by leaders before adjournment.

Already approved by the House, it had been amended considerably during the ten hour session that carried well into last night but its sponsors said it involved only half a million dollars to be saved in veterans benefits. Democratic leaders conceded some further amendments might be adopted but were confident the basic principle of the bill would be passed.

Seccks Bound Upward.

New York, March 15.—(AP)—Scores of leading issues on the New York stock exchange swept up $2 to $11 higher today in a spectacular rally that greeted resumption of trading after the banking holiday.

The rush of short covering in the afternoon gave the market the sharp est rally in several years.

Beer Bill Nears Approval

Washington, D. C., March 15.—(AP)—The House beer bill neared final Congressional approval today with a favorable report from the Senate Finance Committee.

The only change made in the House bill was an amendment to legalize wine and fruit juices of 3.2 per cent alcoholic content, which is the same limitation as will apply to beer.

Meeting President Roosevelt's request for fast action, the committee approved the bill without record vote after consideration in executive session.

Chairman Harrison said the beer bill would be called up in the Senate immediately after the pending economy bill which he predicted would be passed today. This would put the Senate to begin debate tomorrow on the beer measure under the schedule which leaders said would send the measure to the White House by the end of the week.

The measure would become effective fifteen days after Roosevelt's signature.

NEGRO BOUND OVER ON CAPITAL CHARGE

Gatesville, March 15.—(AP)—Bud Hampton, 52-year-old negro of Corapeake, was held for superior court yesterday following a preliminary hearing on a charge of criminal assault upon Miss Leora Brinkley, 4, of the Corapeake section.

At the hearing, Miss Brinkley identified Hampton as her assailant. Webb Simpson, negro, held under suspicion, was released.

Hampton, who had no attorney, took the stand and protested his innocence. He will be tried at the court term beginning March 25.

MY BEAUTY HINT By EDNA CALLAGHAN (Screen Actress)

Whenever I tire of the usual cosmetics, I tell the milkman to leave an extra bottle of cream. After cleansing my face with it, I pat some more of it on, leaving it while I take a warm bath. Then I remove the surplus, and find my face refreshed again without a trace of anything left to clog the pores.

OKLAHOMA RELIEF CAMP FEED 4,000 EVERY DAY

Oklahoma City.—(AP)—A State relief camp, operated here under direction of Gov. W. H. Murray, is feeding approximately 4,000 persons daily at an average cost to the State of one cent per meal.

Gifts of food by restaurant and hotels aid in keeping down the cost. Flour and meat are paid for by voluntary contributions. Meat is purchased for four cents a pound and bread is baked at a cost of one cent a loaf. In return residents of the camp do what work is required by Captain S. D. Krihow in charge.

OFFER $1,000 REWARD FOR SLAYERS' ARREST

Charlotte, N. C., March 15.—(AP)—Authorities were spurred in their search today for the slayers of John W. Brown, veteran street-car motorman, by a $1,000 reward offered by the Southern Public Utilities Company for their capture.

Brown was shot Saturday night when he resisted three negroes who attempted to rob him after he had stopped his street-car at the end of the run.

While the search for the slayers went on, arrangements were completed for an inquiry today into the death of Winifred Thomas, 35, negro, who was fatally wounded by E. D. Bartlett, street-car motorman, in less than an hour after Brown was killed. Bartlett said the negro pointed a pistol at him and attempted to rob him, but that he wrested the gun from the robber and shot him as he fled.

USE TEAR GAS TO SUBDUDE PRISONERS

Portsmouth, N. H., March 15.—(UP)—Tear gas bombs were used today to subdue four prisoners, one of whom has been held on a murder charge, who attempted to start a riot at Rockingham County jail.

The prisoners hurled mugs and other missiles through windows, shouted and rattled their cell doors. Jail officials said none of the other twenty-three inmates joined in the demonstration.

The trouble started last night when the four were refused cigarettes because of insubordination. They demonstrated until midnight and today refused to eat in their cells, demanding that they be permitted to join the other prisoners in the dining-room.

Conditions became serious last night and Portsmouth police were called. The prisoners were subdued with tear gas and placed in solitary confinement.

The new section of the highway at the James City end of the bridge has been cleared.

Sometime during this month it is expected that contracts will be let for the paving of the Trent River bridge approaches, both at the New Bern end and at the James City end.

Bridges on the Beaufort-Atlantic road have been about completed, it is reported; and work is progressing on the Dover-Kinston highway. No contract has as yet been let for the part of the highway that will extend from the Central Highway to Dover through this county.

Contract has been let, but work has not been started yet on the Grantsboro highway project, it is said.

The work on the fills for the Swansboro road project has been finished, and the authorized bridge is now being constructed. Grading on that route has also been completed.
