SAYS WOMEN SUPPORTING RECOVERY ACT

Local Chairwoman Says Women All Over The County Are Behind NRA

There is every indication that the great masses of the women of the United States are standing loyally behind the government's drive to end unemployment and the depression. Mrs. J. B. Spillman, chairman of the Consumers' Drive of Pitt County, said today.

"Reports and messages reaching local N. R. A. headquarters from Washington," said Mrs. Spillman, "indicated that women's organizations all over the country are officially going on record with wholehearted endorsement of the special efforts being sponsored by Uncle Sam to find jobs for the unemployed and end the distress brought about by the business slump. Recently Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, with a membership of 2,000,000 returned to her home in Washington after a four weeks' speaking campaign on behalf of the recovery program. She traveled over a number of States in the West and Southwest. Everywhere she found women more optimistic and more willing to patiently await eventual good from N. R. A. She stated that women in Wyoming, Idaho, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, New Mexico, Colorado and Texas are taking an active, intelligent interest, and are loyally patronizing the shops and industries lined up with N. R. A."

"And in the same spirit the Idaho State Federation of Women's Clubs at its recent convention adopted a resolution approving the National Recovery Act. The Michigan State Council of the United States Daughters of 1812 at their recent convention in Detroit unanimously pledged its influence for support of the National Recovery Act. The Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women in a convention assembled at Rochester passed resolutions expressing their satisfaction at the achievements which the N. R. A. has already effected, especially in the re-employment of over 4,000,000 wage-earners and the outlawing of child labor. The Missouri Daughters of the American Revolution were among the many other women's organizations to go on record officially as working under the banner of the Blue Eagle."

"These are just a few of the many concrete evidences of the fine support which the women of America are giving this special effort Mrs. Spillman pointed out."

Tarboro, N. C., Nov. 14.—Willie Whitaker, colored, was arrested by Chief of Police James T. Parker and J. R. Parker, of Pinetops, for having in his possession a large quantity of liquor. ## POSTPONE THE ADVERTISING COUNTY TAXES

Judge Frizzelle Signs Order Delaying The Advertising Until December

Advertising of Pitt County delinquent tax lists scheduled to have begun today has been postponed until the first week in December with the sale to be held on Monday, January 1, in an order signed Saturday by J. Paul Frizzelle. The tax advertisements had previously been deferred by a judicial order, and Saturday's action was just an extension of the previous order to give taxpayers further opportunity to pay up and avoid being advertised. In seeking the extension it was pointed out that with crops now being sold and the farmers especially getting end some money, it was believed nearly all would pay if given this opportunity, and it was on these grounds that Judge Frizzelle permitted the extension. It was made clear, however, that there would be no further extension after the first week in December, and that the delinquent list would then be published and the sale held as scheduled.

During the past week taxpayer have been making their payments, and hope was expressed by the authorities that this extension would make it possible for hundreds of others to clear up their tax accounts before the expiration of these days of grace. Attention was also called to the fact that on all 1931 taxes, and those for prior years, there is a 10 per cent discount if paid before the first of December, and it was believed that many would take this opportunity to save the 10 per cent.

Potato Shaped Like a Snake

The Reflector this morning was presented another freak potato this "one" that had grown in the form of a coiled snake. Already this season we have received large potatoes, small potatoes, potato-shaped like human bodies and others grown in the form of a cross but this morning's offering was the first of the snake type we have received this season.

The potato brought in this morning was grown by J. R. Buck who resides in the Clay Root section of the county. Our collection of potatoes this season has created no little attention on the part of those who have viewed them from time to time in our office window. So interested were others in the potatoes that our collection has now dwindled almost to nil. Our best specimen grown in the shape of a human body with neck and all, was so perfect that we presented it to the recent carnival that was here to add to its collection of freaks. Our largest potato, weighing nine pounds 14 ounces and grown on the county farm was presented to a friend to send to Tennessee in order that the folks out there might know what Pitt County was doing. Another of the large specimens was given to a friend from West Virginia who likewise wanted to let his folks know how things grow in Eastern North Carolina.

BRITISH HOPE TO CALL NEW ARMS PARLEY

Believe Germany Will Take Part if Conference is Not Held At Geneva

London, Nov. 14.—(AP)—On the heels of the threat of Arthur Henderson to resign as president of the disarmament conference, came a report in the Daily Mail today that the British government is taking steps to call a further parley elsewhere than at Geneva, with Germany represented.

The Mail's political writer said that the British government has not given up hope of getting Germany back into some kind of a disarmament meeting. He thought, the writer said, that Germany might agree to resume conversations provided that they not be held at Geneva from which place the German delegation left so abruptly a month ago today.

It was added that no place for the meeting had been decided upon. Henderson said that unless the government changed its attitude toward Germany, he would resign his post.

"No results are likely to be achieved by the attitude adopted by the various delegations at recent meetings of the conference," the writer said, "and it is useless to remain here (Geneva) unless this attitude is changed."

SEEK NEGRO HOLDUP MAN

Woman Held up And Robbed at Home Near Court House Saturday Night

Right under the shadow of the court house and jail was the scene of a hold-up in this city Saturday night and officers today continued to follow available meagre clues in the hope of apprehending the negro who staged the crime.

On Saturday night Mrs. Clifford Stokes, who is employed in one of the local stores returned to her home on the court house square just behind the court house and jail when a negro entered her home and commanded her, at the point of a pistol, to turn over her money to him. The negro took the purse, removed its contents consisting of $3 dropped the purse and fled from the house with the money.

Officers were immediately called to the scene, and later blood hounds were used in an effort to track the robber, but so many people had passed the house that it was impossible for the dogs to pick up the trail.

The woman described the negro as wearing a pair of overalls and old coat. Beyond this description details were few and the officers had little upon which to work.

Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh staid aboard their seaplane in the harbor here last night after being forced down by fog on a flight from Santos, Spain, to Lisbon, Portugal, and were taken ashore early today by a Spanish gunboat. ## CUBAN UNREST CONTINUES TO CAUSE STRIFE

Bomb Explosion and Shooting of Officer Mark Today's Activities

Havana, Cuba, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Colonel Fulencio Batista, army chief of staff, today ordered the arrest of Guillermo Martinez Marquez, director of the newspaper, Obara, apparently in line with the government policy of curbing what it considers dissemination of unfavorable news regarding unrest in the island. Marquez was detained in the police station, where he said he did not know why he was arrested unless it was because his paper had published reports of unrest in the interior.

Police said they had been ordered to arrest Marquez by Mario Labourdette, police director of the city, who had received his instruction from Colonel Batista.

Reports from the interior indicated that several rebel bands are roaming the countryside. There were two disturbing incidents in Havana last night. Firing broke out in the barracks today after one officer had shot and killed another following a personal quarrel. Gill Abad Ferrera was killed and Ramon Martinez seriously wounded in the exchange of shots between the men. A short time before a bomb was exploded before the Atenas Club seriously wounding an aged man passively.

The capital was mainly interested in a statement that the Cuban press would be asked to appeal to the people from tranquility.

Spain's Political Trend Put To Test in Election

By STEPHEN McDONOUGH, Jr.

New York.—(AP)—Wives of nineteen Columbia University professors are enjoying more leisure because they put their heads together and adopted some of industry's efficiency rules.

It all came about after they had concluded, "Housekeeping has not kept pace with industrial production," and worked out a co-operative plan to put their work in step.

Mrs. Irvin Bussing, wife of a professor of economics at the university, suggested the idea to President Nicholas Murray Butler and, when it was approved, found an immediate reception among wives of the school's junior officers.

So the nineteen families move into a remodeled building near the university and began an experiment which after a month was reported running smoothly.

Deciding that child care was the most wasteful of a mother's time, they devised a plan whereby one mother with the aid of a paid supervisor, could take care of the twenty-five children in the group.

One apartment in the building was converted into a nursery and play-room for rainy days, one on the roof, six stories above the noise and dirt of the street, they built a sunny, airy playground surrounded by a high climb-proof fence.

Each mother takes her turn for half a day each week watching over the children with the aid of the supervisor. The children of pre-school age spend from 9 to 12 o'clock each morning and from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon playing together.

The idea is being extended to include providing noon lunches and at small additional expense, care of the children during the evening by nurse.

A laundry in the basement of the building is being used co-operatively by the entire group at a considerable saving.

Elimination Duplication
No effort is made to interfere with normal family relationships, Mrs. Bussing declared.

"The entire project is merely an effort to eliminate much of the senseless duplication of common tasks in the home and to enable wives and mothers who must operate on small budgets to gain some leisure time and other advantages which are ordinarily possible only in the home which has several servants," she said.

GREENVILLE NEARLY 1,000,000 POUNDS AHEAD OF ANY OTHER MARKET AND GREENVILLE PRICES HIGHER THAN ANY MARKET IN THE BRIGHT BELT.

Better Grades Up to $80.00

Greenville market continues to lead the entire Bright Belt both in number of pounds sold and prices paid for tobacco.

We urge you to grade more closely, making sure to keep green, reddish and dark leaves out of your bright tobaccos.

Thousands of dollars are lost every year through improper grading.

Let us suggest that you give preference to marketing your good and fancy tobacco. More tobacco is bringing from 40c to 75c than in years, and if you have good tobacco, it looks unwise to hold it back.

Tune in on Greenville's Radio Station WEED every day (except Sunday) at 9:45 A. M., 12:45 P. M. and 4:45 P. M. for latest tobacco market reports. Will find it on your dial around 142 or 1420.

Mrs. J. B. Kittrell, president, thanked Mrs. Hillman and her co-workers for the program which gave us an insight to the needs in the Far East. "Men make the roads but the women teach the children to talk on them" was left with us to think on and to inspire us to move forward in doing our part toward the building of the Kingdom.

As a token of love and appreciation, Mrs. Hillman was presented a life membership certificate by Mrs. J. H. Rose from the Auxiliary. Mrs. Rose paid Mrs. Hillman a beautiful tribute. FAMOUS ZIEGFELD FOLLIES ACT TO BE HERE

The Kelo Brothers, famous stars of Ziegfeld Follies, in their attempts to out-do each other present probably the cleverest acrobatic dance acts ever seen in Greenville.

They will appear in the show of stars brought to the State Wednesday by Ray Teal.

Keeping perfect time with Ray Teal and his orchestra they perform aerial tricks which appear to defy the laws of gravity. One of the brothers does a body spiral before his feet return to the floor, in a somersault. They do comedy tricks that are so unexpected the audience does not know when to laugh.

For three consecutive years their sensational act was held in what everyone knows to be the world's greatest show, the Ziegfeld Follies.

DR. MCGINNIS ATTENDS N. C. COLLEGE CONFERENCE

Dr. Howard J. McGinnis, registrar of East Carolina Teachers College, attended the thirteenth annual meeting of the North Carolina College Conference that met in Greens boro last week. Dr. McGinnis served on two committees and he was vice-president of the Conference this past year.

The conference is composed of all North Carolina Colleges and Junior Colleges. The meetings are held annually for the purpose of discussing problems that concern them. The central theme of this meeting was "Cooperative Relations Between High School and the College."

Questions were brought up as to whether or not the aim of the high school is to prepare students for college, or to prepare them in vocational measures for a future that does not include a college education.

Another outstanding question that was brought up was whether or not the valuation of the High School should be placed on the quality of the graduate (this to be reckoned by achievement tests) or on the physical basis. The latter pertains to the number of books in the library, amount of science equipment, or the number of buildings.

The outstanding addresses of the Conference was made by Dr. George Roomer, of Peabody College, Rr. A. T. Allin, State Supet. of Public Instruction, and Dr. William H. Frazer.

Dr. McGinnis served on two committees. They were "Student Morality" and "Cooperative Research". Dr. Frazer Hood is President of the Conference for next year, and Dr. H. T. Hunter is Vice-President.

In connection with the College Conference the Registrars of North Carolina Colleges also had a short meeting. It held only one session and that met Friday afternoon after the final session of the College Conference that morning.

Don't let jangled nerves rob you of poise

Foot tapping... table drumming... just can't sit still... Immediately you brand such a person as lacking in poise... "jittery." Foot tapping is a definite sign of jangled nerves... nerves out of tune.

Watch your nerves. Get your full amount of sleep every night. Eat regularly and sensibly. Find time for recreation. And smoke Camels—for Camel's costlier tobaccos never get on your nerves.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand of cigarettes!

How are YOUR nerves?

TEST No. 9

Hold a needle with a large eye between thumb and index finger of left hand—upright position. Take a piece of strong cotton thread, roll it until it is firmly pointed. Hold the thread through the eye without touching the needle with the eye on the third try. The average score is hitting the eye on the third try. Frank White (Camel smoker), famous pilot, member of Adventurers Club, threaded his needle the first time.

The sight of his old officer sent a warm glow through Curt. During those seven years with the Police, Marlin had been his fine friend, a kind of second father to him.

the Mounted without ever having a dime ahead or the pleasures that other young men had, and his year down north had been the first sunlit period in his whole life.

His affection for Curt, his broad human sympathy, prompted him to say nothing about this other matter. But necessity left him no choice.

The Silent Squad had worked on it all winter, he had worked on it himself, the Commissioner had sent two specials from Ottawa; but no body had got anywhere with it.

"CURT"—he glanced around and lowered his voice, and then plunged directly into the business—"what I wanted to see you about is this: Over at Vancouver there is a man called Farrell, a speculator and promoter of the shady type. He

New York Cotton

New York, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened firm, eight to twelve points higher on active commission house buying, steeper Liverpool cables, higher government gold prices, and the decline of the dollar abroad.

Southern selling here was comparatively light, and while the volume of general business tapered off after the close of Liverpool prices showed continued firmness.

This is GAS AND OIL MONEY —BELIEVE IT OR NOT! Sally: "Really? Tell me about it, Helen." Helen: "Well, as I use the car most of the time these days and actually buy the oil and gas, Dick thought it a good plan to turn the car budget over to me entirely." Sally: "How does that give you extra money?" Helen: "I have more time than Dick and have learned some surprising things about the cost of car operation. Dick thought all gas and oil sold at approximately the same price were of equal value. When the motor broke down, he considered it just hard luck and paid the repair bill." Sally: "Isn't it?" Helen: "No! It is poor motor protection. More than half the entire motor wear occurs during the few minutes of starting when the motor is cold. Only one brand of oil—Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil—penetrates the metal so that a portion of it, nearly a quart, stays up in your motor, greatly reducing the wear. So checking back on repair bills that were paid before I changed to Conoco, we've saved a lot of money this last year." Sally: "What about gasoline?" Helen: "To me that choice depended on quick starting—Dick used to choke the car until he was wild. It wasted so much gasoline in cold weather—ran the battery down and the nerves, too. With Conoco Bronze, the motor starts at the first turn and has power galore—goes further on each gallon and is anti-knock also. So you see how I did it?" Sally: "I certainly do, Helen—and I think you're a very clever girl!"

CONOCO at the sign of the Red Triangle Full motor protection, especially in cold motor starting, can be found in Conoco Germ Processed (Paraffin Base) Motor Oil because the penetrating oiliness, called "The Hidden Quart" stays up in your motor and never drains away. Instant Starting and Lightning Pick-up can best be obtained with Conoco Bronze Gasoline, and without sacrifice of Long Mileage, Greater Power and Anti-Knock advantages. For cold weather starting it cannot be excelled. When planning a trip for business or vacation, write the Conoco Travel Bureau, Denver, Colo., America's largest Free Travel Bureau.

"How did you get this data?" asked Marlin.

ically as in spirit. As head of intelligence in the western divisions, he had led a hard life, fraternizing with gangster circles, following trails to European capitals, and living for months with the narcotic traffickers on the west coast.

Three years of that work usually put a man on the rocks; but Tennyson had been in daily contact with it, and the very worst of it, for seven years. Besides nearly wrecking his health, it had distorted his whole outlook. He had seen so much of crime, he had looked down into depths of depravity so long and so steadily that he had lost faith in human virtues.

"Thank God, you've come out of it, son!" Marlin thought fervently. For he saw that Curt had completely shaken off that misera. A year in the far North prospecting, flying, hunting the gray phantom packs, had put him in shape again.

"Haven't had breakfast, Curt?" he asked. "Neither have I. Let's go down. We can talk there." He took a document from a locked brief case and thrust it into his pocket. "Rosalie'll excuse us; she has hers sent up."

As they went down the corridor he inquired, "What sort of an offer did the Consolidated make you, son?" "Oh, nothing to write home about," Curt stilled, wanting to find out first what Marlin's "proposition" was. "It's just fair, and rather unexpected."

"When would you have to be on the job with them?" "By the end of this week. The job is on now, and the summer in the country is so short that every day counts."

Marlin said nothing more just then. They went down to the breakfast room, found a window-table to themselves. When the waiter had brought their coffee and taken their order, Marlin dropped a lump of sugar into his cup and thoughtfully watched the bubbles come up.

He could see that Curt was eager about the Consolidated job, and for several reasons he hated to break about those plans. As he well knew, Curt's boyfriend on that bleak Montreal term had been harsh and exigent. He had given seven years to
