MARYLAND SOLDIERS' ARREST ALLEGED LYNCHERS

Governor Sends Out Troops To Capture Slayers

NINE MEN ARE ARRESTED IN NEGRO DEATH

Governor Ritchie Ac's Following Refusal to Take Men in Custody Without Information Before Grand Jury; Citizens at Saulsbury Criticize Governor; Guardsmen act to Avoid Violence

Salsbury, Md., Nov. 28.—(AP)—A picket battalion of Maryland National Guards acting under orders of Governor Albert Ritchie today conducted a systematic round-up of suspects in last month's lynching in Princess Anne. Moving from Baltimore last night with war-time secrecy the 300 militiamen were brought to Salsbury where they made headquarters, and from there moved into Somerset County to seize those accused of aiding in the lynching of George Armwood, negro, on October 18.

The soldiers were under the command of Brigadier General Milton Beckford, Adjutant General of Maryland, who was ordered by the governor to "proceed to arrest and hold such persons as may be alleged or suspected to have participated in the lynching of Atwood."

The governor's order followed the refusal of the State's Attorney of Somerset County, John B. Robbins, to arrest nine men on information secured by State's Attorney-General W. Preston Lane, Jr. Robbins contended the proper procedure was to take the accused before a grand jury.

The arrests were made on a series of carefully planned forays. Five men squads, accompanied by G. A. Anderson, special assistant to the Attorney General, and Lieut. Joe Ithwal and Sergeant Flynn, both of the Baltimore Detective Bureau, surrounded the house. All the prisoners were taken from their beds and brought to the Salsbury armory to be held.

They were placed under special guards in small rooms in the building. Clusters of townspeople began to gather near the armory after daybreak and criticism of Governor Ritchie and Attorney General Lane could be heard.

In order to guard against possible violence or at attempt to liberate the men, National Guard officers had equipped themselves with enough ammunition with which to handle any assault.

SPRING HILL TOWNSHIP BONE DRY THROUGH FIRE

Laurinburg, N. C., Nov. 28.—Spring Hill Township, Scotland County, widely heralded in pre-election forecasts as the most arid of all this section, was "bone dry" today as a checked of a recent fire in Wagman showed that the last establishment selling beer was a total loss.

The fire, which started in the center of the wholesale district, destroyed a filling station (the beer dispensary) and two nearby warehouses, property of John P. Shaw. The warehouses contained fertilizers and hardware.

The station operator said he thought the fire might have been due to faulty wiring or his coal stove.

AGED WOMAN DIES IN FIRE

Mrs. Charity Wiloughby Burned to Death at Home in Lumberton Area

Lumberton, N. C., Nov. 28.—(AP)—Miss Charity Wiloughby, 80, was burned to death today in a fire which destroyed her brother's home in Wisard's Township.

Pink Wiloughby, her brother, said the aged woman escaped from the building, but ran back to get some belongings and never came out. The remains of the body were found in the ashes of the home.

Coroner D. W. Biess and Rural Policeman E. C. Wade investigated the death and decided an inquest unnecessary.

The house caught fire from a forest fire. Besides the home, several outbuildings were burned.

LENGTHY HEARING IS BEGUN AT NEW BERN

New Bern, N. C., Nov. 28.—A lengthy hearing is the Meadows fertilizer case was under way here Monday in the Federal court-room before J. O. Carr, attorney of Wilmington, who was some time ago appointed by Judge Henry A. Griddy, of Clinton, Superior Court jurist, as referee to hear all evidence and report on findings of fact and conclusions of law.

The original suit was brought for $1,500,000 by four creditors of the former E. H. and J. A. Meadows Company, of this city, now bankrupt, against the Meadows Fertilizer Company, the Davidson Chemical Company, and its former president, C. Wilbur Miller, of Baltimore, alleging conspiracy to destroy the local firm and its subsequent destruction. Both the Meadows Fertilizer Company and the Davidson Chemical Company are now in bankruptcy.

TWO ARE ARRESTED AT FINELY EQUIPPED STILL

Goldboro, Nov. 28.—Paul Swinson white man and Bright Grant, negro were arrested Saturday at a still only 60 yards from Highway 40 and within half a mile of the northern city limits of Goldboro. Officers found the still hidden in a shelter at the junk yard operated by Swinson.

This was reported to be one of the most complete and up-to-date stills ever discovered in the Goldboro section. A five-horsepower steam boiler provided heat. A deluge plant to one side furnished lights for the operations and for the junk yard business. The still was a 60 gallon porcelain affair with two condensers. Officers found 400 pounds of sugar, four cases of jars, one case of whiskey packed for shipment, four gallons of packed, 15 bags of charring and coloring material and 10 gallons of huckleberry wine.

CITY GETTING IN SHAPE FOR THANKSGIVING

Turkeys Become Suspicious as Last Minute Preparations get Under Way Here

Mr. Turkey cocked his eye suspiciously at the people today and wondered vaguely what would happen next as the populace began making last minute preparations for the annual celebration of Thanksgiving.

Although nothing big has been planned for Greenville, stores and public buildings will be closed in observance of the occasion and hundreds will hie away to the woods in search of game that probably will be as hard to find as the needle of haystack fame.

Still others were looking forward to attending pigskin contests and visiting relatives and friends in some other parts of the country. But the greatest undertaking of the day will be the annual disposition of turkey and cranberry sauce, and judging by the number of turkeys to be heard singing mournful tunes in the back yards of the city, the slaughter is going to be one of the most pronounced and extensive of years.

The people will be given an opportunity to express their appreciation of the many blessings bestowed upon them during the year at a special service to be held at Jarvis Memorial Methodist church. The person will be delivered by Rev. W. S. Harden of the Presbyterian church, and the Methodist choir will provide special music.

The service is sponsored annually by the Ministerial Association in appreciation of the bountiful blessing received by the section each year. It will probably be of greater significance this year than any recent year because conditions have been much more favorable to people in all walks of life.

The public generally has been urged to attend and express thanks for the things which have been given so liberally to them.

CHURCH BOARD NAMED IN SUITS TO RECOVER

Greensboro, Nov. 28.—The board of education of the Methodist Protestant Church in North Carolina is named as defendant in two suits filed yesterday in Guilford Superior court by Gurney P. Hood, commissioner of banks, on behalf of the North Carolina Bank and Trust Company.

Recovery of $53,388 is asked in one suit for money loaned on a note in 1932. Also sued in this instance are five endorsers, namely, C. C. Robbins, J. S. Pickett, A. M. Rankin, R. M. Andrews and J. Norman Wills. Recovery of $4,970, also loaned on a note, is sought in the other suit. In a third suit recovery of $1,700 is asked from High Point College.

AWAITS TRIAL FOR ATTACK WITH A DEADLY WEAPON

Tarboro, Nov. 28.—James Westcott, negro, is in prison here awaiting trial on a charge of shooting General Barron, negro, with a shotgun. It was said that 150 or more shot struck Barron from his ankles to his head and it was believed Barron would lose the sight of one of his eyes. Westcott, who lives near Saratoga, was arrested by Chief of Police J. T. Parker of Pinetops, and brought here for trial.

Child Band Leaders Hopes For Broadway

Amarillo, Tex.—(AP)—When Buddy Meyer, aged 11, rehearses his juvenile orchestra in the family garage—studio to "Them Texans"—in imagination he sees a Broadway night club with his band as a feature attraction.

Ages of the dozen orchestra members range from the 6 years of Billy Thurman, crooner, to 12.

Buddy, once offered a movie contract only to meet stern paternal objection, plans to take his "kid" band to the world's fair in Chicago next year.

When "Them Texans" played for the Amarillo horse show last summer, Buddy took time out to win first prize in the cowboy riding class, then returned to orchestra duties.

He is a saxophonist and sometimes pinch-hits for his vocal soloists.

Late News Flashes From Over World

MOB STORMS ARMY.
Salsbury, Md., Nov. 28.—(AP)—Troops sent by Governor Ritchie to arrest nine suspects of the Princess Anne lynching today evacuated the armory here and started back to Baltimore after a mob of over 1,000 stormed the building and were repulsed with tear bombs and bayonets.

They took with them four men they arrested in early morning forays into nearby Somerset county where the lynching occurred on October 18.

ROTES HOSTS TO THE LADIES

Annual Ladies' Night Program Enjoyed by Local Club Here Last Night

Annual Ladies' Night was observed by members of the Rotary Club last night, and in addition to wives and sweethearts, the clubmen had as their guests a number of visitors from other towns of this section.

Ladies' Night is always one of the most important occasions of the year for the Rotates and they had prepared a program last night that surpassed anything in recent years.

K. W. Cobb, club president, presided, and the program was in charge of J. B. Kittrell. The building was appropriately decorated in keeping with the Thanksgiving season and miniature gobblers and such like ran riot over the tables. A delightful turkey supper was served.

The highlight of the program was a music and dance program put on by a group from Rocky Mount headed by Rotarian Dewey Wallace and his wife. They entertained with banjo and guitar numbers, while Miss Sue Bailey produced delightful melodies from the piano. Marvin Woodall's sword with several selections which he coaxed from an ordinary saw. Doc Harris did a piece of tap dancing that won much applause.

A number of contests were put on under the direction of Mr. Kittrell, and those taking first place were presented with gifts. The wives also were presented with favors.

CITY OF NEW BERN SUE FOR INTEREST ON BONDS

New Bern, N. C., Nov. 28.—A suit has been filed against the city of New Bern by A. T. Shaw, counsel for the Sun Life Insurance Company of Baltimore, for the collection of $4,000 and interest on bonds given as a subsidy on the Pamlico and Oriental Railroad about thirty years ago, he stated yesterday. The case will be tried in the future in the Federal Court here. Mr. Shaw, the representative, formerly resided and practiced law here, recently moving to Raleigh.

GRASS FIRE CAUSES CALLING OUT OF FIREMEN

MUCH 'WEED' OFFERED FOR AUCTION HERE

Heavy Sales Yesterday and Today With Same Condition Expected Tomorrow

Sales were heavy on the local tobacco market yesterday and today and indications pointed to the same condition tomorrow, the last sale day before the tobaccoists turn their attention to the celebration of Thanksgiving.

The official report of yesterday's activities given out this morning by K. W. Cobb, supervisor of sales, showed the market sold 1,258,506 pounds of tobacco for $271,704.85 at an average of $21.59 per hundred pounds.

With heavy offerings on the floors of the various warehouses today the price situation continued firm with all grades showing the same strength reflected the last several days.

After completion of Wednesday's sales, the market will suspend operation until Monday to give tobacco men an opportunity to take part in the annual observance of Thanksgiving. Sales during the day were expected to be probably the heaviest of the week as growers bring in their offerings to get some money on hand to carry them through Thanksgiving.

Sales here are expected to be heavy until the Christmas holidays and the full corps of buyers will remain on the job to take care of the offerings. This assures growers of the best of service until the bulk of the crop is disposed of and those who bring their tobacco here will be able to obtain the same kind of service they have had all season.

Prices, which have been rising gradually since the growers-buyers conference in Washington about two months ago, are expected to continue to show strength during the remainder of the season and that means growers will have more cash in their pockets this Christmas than they have had in many a day.

INFANT DIES FROM BURNS

Seven Months Old Child of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Nelson Succumbs to Injuries

Seriously burned while playing near the first at the home of his parents in the Shelmerdine community last Wednesday, Henry Allen Nelson, seven-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Nelson, succumbed to his injuries at Pitt Community Hospital yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The child was playing in front of an open fireplace before which some clothes were drying on a chair when it was some unaccountable way the chair overturned and threw the clothing into the fire. The clothing caught fire and the child was almost completely enveloped by flames before he was rescued. He was immediately rushed to the hospital for medical aid, but his injuries were so serious that little hope was held out for recovery.

Funeral services were conducted from the home this afternoon at 2 o'clock by Elder W. H. Laughins, house Free Will Baptist minister, and burial was made in the Hardy graveyard near the home.

Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Nelson.

Farmville Nov. 28.—Funeral services for Dexter L. Jones, highly esteemed and well known tinner and carpenter, who died in a Greenville hospital early this morning as the result of an automobile accident Friday night, will be held at the home just outside of the incorporated limits of Farmville tomorrow afternoon.

The accident which occurred within sight of Mr. Jones home is said to have been unavoidable as the wagon he was driving carried no light and was made invisible to J. W. Parker, Farmville citizen and driver of the car colliding with the wagon by the bright lights of an approaching automobile.

Montana has 56 counties, an average of one for each 10,000 of population.

WOMAN AGAIN ON STAND IN ASSAULT CASE

Mrs. Victoria Price Identifies Patterson As One of Scottsboro Assaultants

Cleatour, Ala., Nov. 28.—(NAP)—The searching cross-examination of Mrs. Victoria Price by Samuel S. Leibowitz, Chicago counsel for Haywood Patterson, one of seven negro defendants in the Scottsboro case, was resumed today in Morgan Circuit Court.

There were many vacant seats in the court-room as Mrs. Price, who yesterday named Patterson as one of her alleged assaultants, took her place on the witness stand.

Mrs. Price under the cross-examination described injuries she said were received in the alleged attack.

"I object to the interruption," Leibowitz said, as Judge W. W. Callahan said: "She has answered."

The objection was overruled and exception taken.

The court frequently had to interpret words Leibowitz propounded to Mrs. Price.

SPEAKERS ON BOTH SIDES TAKE STUMP

Father Charles Coughlin Takes Crack at Critics of President Roosevelt; Other Elements Seek to Bring in Monetary Policy in Series of Meetings in Metropolis

New York, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Two schools on monetary thought played oratorical "dog o' war" with the American dollar at mass meetings here last night.

On one side was the Rev. Charles Coughlin, "radio priest," of Royal Oak, defending at the Hippodrome the Roosevelt monetary policy.

On the other side were the crusaders urging "sound money" and "decreasing inflation."

Coincident with the two meetings, a manifesto signed by thirty-seven Columbia University College professors was made public. It urged an expedient return to the gold standard by the United States.

Still another element was added to the differences of opinion concerning the American monetary policy by a letter to Senator Borah, of Idaho, which James Warburg, banker, suggested "a modernized international gold standard."

The mass meeting at the Hippodrome attracted a crowd of 20,000, only 6,500 of which was able to gain entry. A force of 176 policemen had difficulty in keeping traffic lanes open and several were hurt in the crush.

Father Coughlin pointed his catory as well as Wall Street, the "Tory" press of Alfred Smith, J. P. Morgan and all critics of the Roosevelt money program. He referred during his address to the sound money meeting at Carnegie Hall, saying: "There are only about 1,000 persons there and 500 of them are my friends. That meeting was intended to ruin President Roosevelt and build up 'Oogie Mills,' Ogden Mills, former Secretary of the Treasury, for President in 1936."

NEGRESS FOUND DEAD IN ROOM OVER GARAGE

Goldboro, N. C., Nov. 28.—Gertrude Sanders, negress, was dead in bed in the room of Roy Sykes in the servants' quarters over the garage at the home of Senator Hugh Dortch on South Stocumb Street at 10 o'clock Sunday.

Senator and Mrs. Dortch were out of the city. Paul Howell, who rooms in the Dortch home, went to the janitor's room to see why he had not fired the furnace, and saw the woman on the bed and notified police. Policeman L. C. Rhodes investigating, found the woman dead, and Sykes wounded in the head. When questioned, Sykes stated that the woman had said she was ill, and that he himself had fainted and fallen, striking his head.

There were no signs of injury on the woman's body. An autopsy was held Sunday afternoon and the stomach was sent to the State Health Department in Raleigh for examination. Sykes is in jail.

HIGH TO MEET WASHINGTON IN FINAL TEST

After several days of negotiating, the high school finally scheduled Washington to play for the final game of the season. This is without doubt the biggest game of the season for Greenville team. Washington has always been the local's chief rival, and whenever they are met, the season's record of both teams doesn't matter. It is very much like the traditional Army-Navy game, when previous scores don't mean a thing.

Washington has experienced its poorest season in years. They have failed to win a single Conference game. Williamson, defeated them, 32 to 0. The locals lost to Williamson 6 to 0, after getting everything but the score, as numerous chances were lost through fumbles and incomplete passes that were labeled touchdowns. The latter happened on two occasions, as the man for the pass was in the clear near the goal line.

However, as already stated, scores don't mean a thing, and Washington is coming over here Friday with the definite idea of winning this ball game, and it is going to take the very best play of the season for Greenville to win this game. Greenville will also be handicapped by the loss of Hodges for this game. This game will be played under Conference rules, and as he has played the limit of time, he will not be used. This has been decided upon after Washington protested his playing. His loss will be keenly felt.

The game will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock. School is out for the Thanksgiving holidays, and it is understood that the tobacco markets are doing the same thing. Therefore it is expected that the season's largest crowd will witness this all-important game. A large delegation of fans from Washington will be on hand, as they had rather beat Greenville than any other place. This will be the last game of the season, and those who haven't seen the current edition of Greenville High's football team should be on hand for this game and lend their hands towards making this a gala day in the sport annals of Greenville High. Don't forget the date is Friday, December 1. The opponent is Washington, the long-time rival. The place is our Third Street Stadium. The time is 2:30 o'clock. Everybody be there for this final and most important game of the season.

Ford Truck Breaks High Speed Mark

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 28.—Smashing all previous speed records for motor trucks on a transcontinental trip, a Ford V-8 truck carrying a full two-ton load of merchandise sped into Los Angeles at 8:13 o'clock the other night after crossing the continent in 71 hours, 12 minutes and 33 seconds elapsed time. The run was made under the official observation of Glenn Walde for the Keystone Automobile Club, who accompanied the truck.

The truck out-distanced by four hours the fastest regular passenger train service between Atlantic City and Los Angeles. Today Mayor Shaw of Los Angeles, together with city officials and representatives of automobile associations received the crew of four drivers who made the run in a typical California civic ceremony. The drivers presented letters of greeting from Mayor Harry Bacharach of Atlantic City and Mayor J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia.

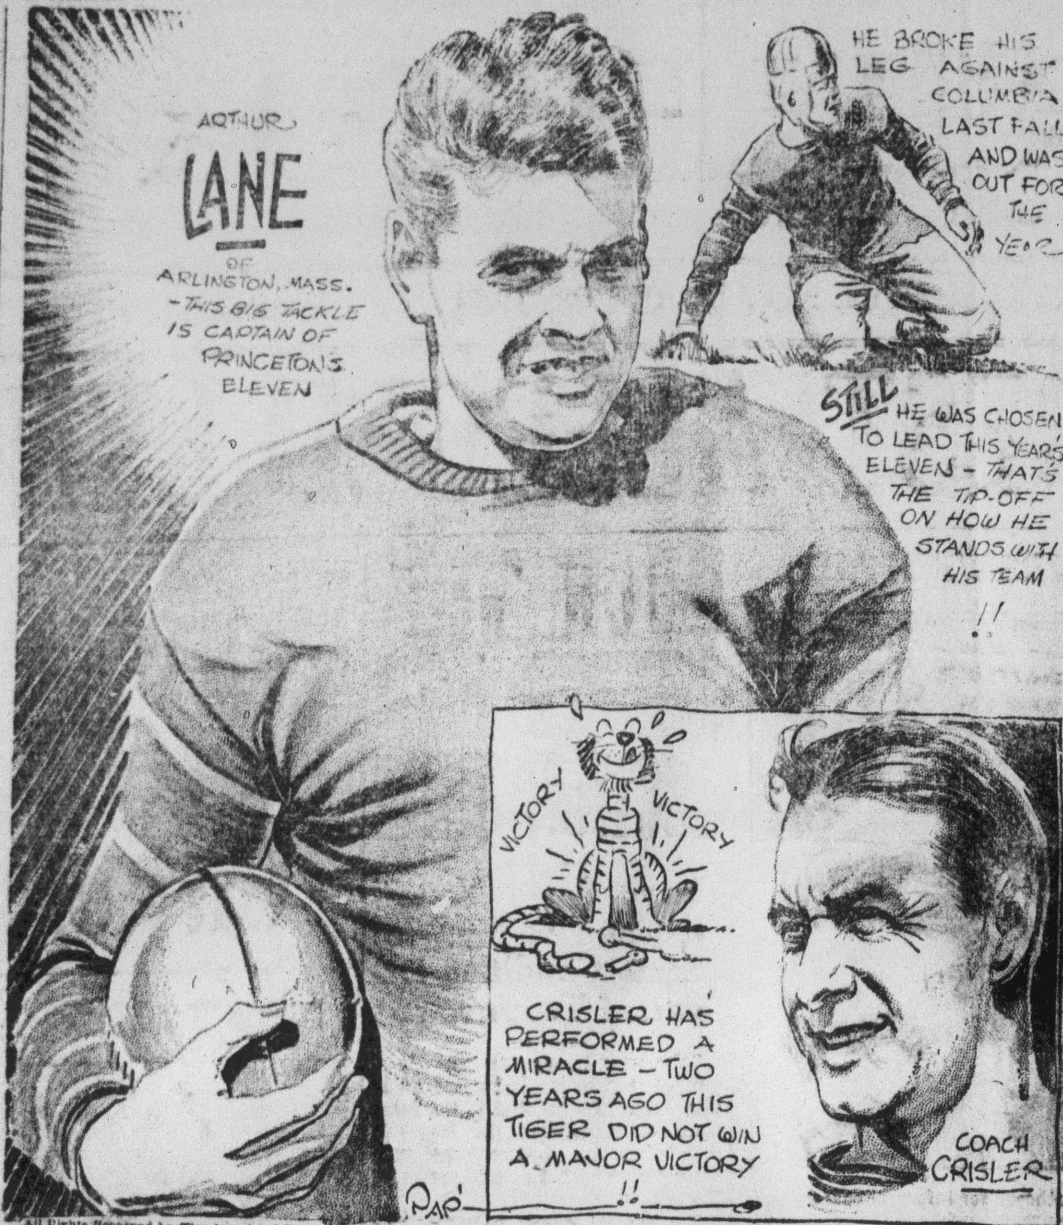

The Transcontinental Freighter was welcome at the Los Angeles city limits last night with all spectacular enthusiasm of a Hollywood opening night. Nearly 3,000 people were on hand to greet the transcontinental drivers to California in a blaze of floodlights. Following the termination of the run the truck was checked officially on the Southern California Automobile Club thirteen mile check run and the speedometer found accurate to two-tenths of a mile for the thirteen miles.

In making the 2,945 mile run the Ford freighter clocked an average of 41.3 miles per hour, which resulted, according to officials, from safe-driving all the way under police escort and not by dangerous bursts of speed. The transcontinental run required 322 gallons of gasoline and five quarts of oil, the final quart not being used. Only one pint of water was added to the radiator during the entire trip.

In addition to its full load of merchandise the Ford freighter carried improvised bunks for the relay drivers and the official observer of the Philadelphia Club. It stopped only for gasoline and oil, three hours and 27 minutes being lost in refueling stops, making the net running time across the continent 67 hours, 45 minutes and 30 cents. The Transcontinental Freighter is a stock model Ford V-8 one and one-half ton truck.

BIG CROWD EXPECTED AT VA.-N.C. GAME

Chapel Hill, Nov. 28.—With advanced seat sales, which have been the heaviest of the year pointing to a crowd of 20,000 to 25,000 spectators, the Carolina and Virginia squads today will begin putting the finishing touches to the strategy they are planning to employ in their annual Turkey Day classic here Thanksgiving. The sale of reserved seats took another big jump today at the ticket office of Coach Bo Sheppard. Kenan Stadium will seat 24,000 and extra stands can be erected behind the goal posts and at the other end of the field, if needed. General admission tickets will not be placed on sale until the day of the game. The Athletic Association's huge canvas covering will insure a dry field, regardless of weather conditions before the game, which will be called a 2 o'clock.

A brilliant battle is expected between Virginia's driving 177 pound backfield and the stellar Carolina line, which held State to three first downs, Wake Forest to six, and Duke to seven, but which will hardly possess top strength due to injuries. Tommy Johnson, 198 pound triple threat quarterback will head the invading forces and will be ably assisted by Berger, who scored the other touchdown that best Carolina last year, and Busky Harris, and Gene Munster.

Among the powers in the Carolina line are George Barclay and Eddie Kahn, guards, and Jim Tatum and Bill Collins, tackles. The ends Brandt, Frankel, Barwick, and Moore, will be in much better shape than they were against Duke, and are expected to turn in a performance which will compare with that of the other linemen.

The game with Virginia marks the 38th renewal of the South's oldest and most colorful Turkey Day clash. This year finds the 2-year rivals unusually well matched and a brilliant game is expected on the order of the 14-7 Virginia win of last year and the Carolina 13-7 triumph of 1931.

been first or second in runs batted in for the past four years. In common with most other sluggers, his home run production has fallen off somewhat with the less lively National League ball, dropping steadily from 43 in 1929 to 28 in 1933, but he has been at the top in this specialty, too, for three successive seasons. His principal rival is Mel Ott of the Giants, now that Hack Wilson has subsided.

With an attractive right-field bleacher target to shoot at during his home stands with the Cubs next year Klein should fatten his home run totals. This barrier in the one that Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig had so much fun using for a target in the 1932 world series.

Break For Chuck
Although has has never been known to squawk about it, Klein's term with the financially embarrassed Phillies has been marked by the lowest salary paid any star of his dimensions in either league.

While Babe Ruth was collecting $80,000 for a couple of seasons and Hack Wilson drawing down over $36,000 on the strength of one big year, Klein was on the pay-roll for only $7,500.

Chuck finally wangled a new contract despite the depression but it is doubtful if it called for more than $10,000 per annum. He may get twice that much when he comes to terms with the Cubs and not even have to argue about it.

TAR HEELS POLISH LINES FOR VIRGINIA

Chapel Hill, Nov. 27.—With only three days left before its traditional Thanksgiving game with Virginia, the Carolina football squad today began putting finishing touches to the intense preparations being made for this important contest.

The Tar Heels and Cavaliers will clash in Kenan Stadium here on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the 38th game of the South's oldest and most colorful Turkey Day rivalry.

The squad begins the last lap of practice in much improved shape physically and in the highest sort of spirit. A few injuries remain as a reminder of the grueling games behind, but they are much improved. And the cripples will throw away their crutches, if need be, to get in this game.

Five of the Tar Heels, Captain Bill Croom and Kay Thompson, halfbacks, Bill Collins, tackle, and George Brand and Julian Frankel, ends, are looking forward to this year's game with unusual interest. They featured in the 13-7 victory of 1931, starred again in the 14-7 loss last year, and now they are out to close their college careers and settle accounts with their traditional rival in proper style. The Cavaliers who likewise will be playing their last game are Cap-

Mrs. Clifton Entertains.

Mrs. Thomas Clifton was hostess to members of her bridge club and a number of additional guests at a very delightful meeting Friday afternoon. Tables were placed for bridge in an attractive setting of yellow chrysanthemums. Following the game, Mrs. Marvin Suag was given a snake plant in a hand-painted bowl for high club score. A similar prize was given Mrs. W. H. Bradsher for high visitor's score, and Mrs. M. R. Long who was married the past summer.

The decorations in the dining room were especially pretty. The table was covered with a cloth of lace, centered with a silver bowl of yellow chrysanthemums and silver holders with yellow candles.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Clifton was again hostess to a number of guests. At this time the home was decorated in yellow and lavender chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Dink James was awarded a winter plant in a hand-painted bowl for high score. A delicious salad course was served.

At both parties the Thanksgiving idea was carried out in the decorations.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism Denounced" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 26.

The golden text was from Jeremiah 15:21: "I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the land of the terrible."

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? For the living to the dead? To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not, according to this word, it is because there is no light in them."—(Isaiah 8:19-20).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The ancient prophets gained their foresight from a spiritual, incorporeal standpoint, not by foreshadowing evil and mistaking fact for fiction—predicting the future from a groundwork of corporeality and human belief. When sufficiently advanced in Science to be in harmony with the truth of being, men become seers and prophets involuntarily, controlled not by demons, spirits, or demigods, but by the one Spirit."

REV. J. A. McIVER SPEAKS AT VESPER SERVICE

Rev. J. A. McIver, pastor of the Immanuel Episcopal Church of Greenville, brought the students of the college an inspiring message at the Y. W. C. A. vesper service Sunday night. He compared lives to music, in that both may be marred by any one or all of three things. These are: A lack of harmony between the different parts; a poor accompaniment; and a lack of observing the proper silences. The last he gave is perhaps the most important in the analogy, for if one does not know how to meditate silently, how to "be still and know that I am God," he can hardly expect to hear His voice.

This year the careful buyer is not satisfied with merely a price—but is demanding something more than that—quality, the ability of an article or a service to stand up! OUR PRESIDENT

Since Roosevelt launched the NRA He has given more men a job. Depression leaves us day by day. There is no more a loafing mob.

Whistles shriek from factories big. Rail road trains once more run. Mines in coal mines begin to dig. Hurrah, prosperity has begun.

Roosevelt makes speeches over the air. People like his manner and such. But Hoover never gave a care. Nobody liked him much.

We have a good President now. He knows how the poor folks feel. So all that I can say and how. Is "three cheers for Roosevelt!"

Bethel, N. C., Nov. 27.—The Bethel Parent-Teacher Association held its regular meeting on Tuesday night in the school auditorium, with Mrs. Roy Craft as president, and Mrs. Royal Carson as secretary.

During the business meeting the committees gave reports. The welfare committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Cecil Garrenton, reported the progress made in providing clothing and lunch for the under-nourished children.

At the October meeting of the P. T. A., the teachers were "at home" in their respective rooms to the patrons of the school. Some of the work was on display and the parents had the opportunity of seeing the type of work done in the various grades and subjects.

The Thief

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

"Let us in," Honey and Jelly Bear growled softly.

And there, in the darkness, Willy Nilly could see the figures of the two bears.

"We have found the thief," they exclaimed as they went inside. "He's none other than Grandpa Grouchy Galump!"

"What?" cried Willy Nilly. He called to Christopher, who was upstairs with Top Notch and Rip. They all listened as Jelly Bear told his story.

"We were just walking around Grandpa's back yard," Jelly Bear commenced.

"We weren't going to take anything, but Honey Bear had an idea that if there were any old tins around that might have scraps of food in them we could get a little extra meal without doing anyone any harm."

"Well, as we were going by Grandpa's window we saw him lifting up a mossy package and taking out money and counting it several times. It looked like a good deal of money. I'm sure it must have been $2.15."

"I wonder if you are right," said Willy Nilly, very much puzzled.

HELP TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS

Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, which means that thousands of North Carolinians will travel the highways to and from the football games while others will take the holiday as an opportunity to spend the day on a hunting trip.

It goes without saying that as usual many persons who attend the Thanksgiving games will prove a menace to other travelers on the highways and it behooves all travelers to be extremely careful.

While no doubt there will be some accidents, caution on the part of our people will tend to hold the number to a minimum.

Fly To Europe By "Hop, Skip And Jump"

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Editor)
"New York to London in 30 hours"—the big seadrome men have hopes of victory in the first round of a three-cornered contest for establishing regular transatlantic flying service.

These hopes rest on the announcement that the Public Works Administration is considering granting a $1,500,000 loan for immediate experiments on a quarter-section of a seadrome—a floating island of steel. It is one of five projected to be anchored every 500 miles on a path across the Atlantic.

Two Other Contestants
The two other contestants are the dirigible advocates, on one hand, and the one-hop plane advocates, on the other. The latter point to an order by one of the big air lines for six planes with a 3,000-mile cruising radius.

The seadromes, as modeled, resemble flat oval docks on tall piers, their tops almost completely bare steel flooring, under which are two floors of hotel and hangars. This superstructure stands on hollow steel columns, with buoyancy tanks at the bottom to keep the drome afloat.

The flying deck is to be 1,225 feet long, 300 feet wide amidships, 150 feet in girth at the rounded ends. The columns will be 300 feet long, holding the deck one hundred feet above the surface.

Cable Three Miles Long
The drome will be fastened by a three-mile cable to a 1,500-ton anchor, saucer-shaped and made of a float until inner chambers are flooded with water. The anchor will be hitched to a buoy, from which the seadrome will swing by a cable. It is expected to keep its head constant toward the wind.

Hundred-foot waves, it is predicted, will pass completely under the deck. Down where the buoyancy tanks are designed to float the water remains still.

Edward R. Armstrong, of Holyoke, Delaware, father of the idea, started making models in 1913.

ENGLISH RAILROAD READY FOR PROSPERITY'S DAWN

London. (AP)—The London and North Eastern railway has announced plans for work in 1933 involving the expenditure of $11,500,000.

The decision was motivated "in consequence of the return of better trade conditions throughout the system and in order to enable the line's undertaking to meet the possible requirements of a revival of industry," the directors announced.

The work will include construction of 10 locomotives, 62 coaches, 5,579 freight cars and renewal of 43 bridges and 371 miles of track.

The WORLD OF STAMPS

By QUINTON JAMES

The condition of a rare stamp has a great deal to do with the amount of money it will bring. That was demonstrated at the recent sale in New York of the late Arthur Hind, Jr. collection of rare United States stamps, for which an offer of $450,000 at one time was refused by the famous collector.

Just as an example, one stamp in good condition brought $71, somewhat above the catalog listing while an identical stamp, but damaged, sold for only $17. Present day condition standards demand that a stamp be uniform, be centered inside the perforations, be practically free of postmark if used, be the original gum and otherwise give the appearance of a perfect, unused copy.

Some years ago this situation did not prevail; stamps having a corner torn off, even being regarded almost as valuable as whole ones, particularly if they were rare.

They'll Still Pay.

As one commentator put it: "Apparently there is still plenty of money to buy high grade stamps."

While there were instances in the sale where prices paid were considerably under the standard catalog ratings, other sales topped them to varying extents, from $5 to $10,000. One of the outstanding features of the sale was the payment of $10,500 for a rare philatelic piece—a stamp affixed to an envelope and issued by the city of Baltimore, Md., before the United States officially recognized stamps. Known as a "U. S. provisional," it is a plain piece of bluish paper, with the name, "James M. B. Shannon," and the face value 10 cents, printed in black within a plain border. The stamp has a catalog rating of $12,000.

This stamp was purchased by a Boston dealer, W. H. Colson, and at the time of its sale the original owner-collector, Ilimon E. Deats of Flemington, N. J., who back in 1894 paid $5 for the cover, was introduced to the bidders. Another instance of a price higher than the catalog was the $7,000 paid by Elliott Perry of Westfield, N. J., for an unused copy of a 15-cent 1869 stamp with an inverted center. The catalog rates this one at $6,000. In 1917 this same stamp was sold for $4,100. However, a 24-cent stamp inverted of the same issue, sold in 1917 for $2,800, brought only $1,400.

Tips on CONTRACT

By TOM ONEIL
Beware Friends

Possession of the ace and king of trumps and two other aces and a king would seem to warrant a double of a vulnerable game contract. But a hand of great distributional strength can offset a defending powerhouse.
