Accuse Il Duce Of Tossing Dirt In Eyes Of French

PARIS TOLD TO STAY OFF AFRICAN ISSUE

Mussolini Gives Encouragement to the Re-Arming of Germany; Several Powers Believed Ready To Oppose Italys Championship of Hungary's Demand; French Charge Deception

Paris, March 19.—(AP)—Mussolini's bold language in his speech at Rome yesterday in which he reviewed Italy's foreign relations was described today as like "throwing dirt" in the eyes of the French officials.

They were keenly disappointed fearing the Il Duce had upset the applicator, they thought was heading toward French-Italian and Little Entente friendship.

Il Duce told fascists that none of the problems with France in 15 years had been solved and warned Paris not to block Italian progress in Africa and encouraged re-arming of Germany.

Success of the accord was doubted as the Czech, Yugo Slavs and Rumania of the Little Entente are believed certain to oppose Mussolini's championship of Hungary's territorial demands.

The French and their allies previously were willing to let Il Duce make his own plans for Central Europe believing he would let revision of the treaty of Versailles slip into the background.

The French charge Italy with deception and indicated the feeling that Il Duce took advantage of the Paris conference.

PENNSYLVANIAN IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

Fayetteville, March 19.—Fred Clason, 69, of Homestead, Pennsylvania, was knocked down, run over and seriously injured on Ramsay Street by A. R. Williams, of Long this county, Clason, traveling Saturday was $4,500 but it will be reduced to about $4,000 this week with another slash in the offering for the coming week.

CWA forces throughout the nation will be demobilized March 31 and workmen then will be transferred to the Emergency Relief Administration.

Two divisions will be involved in the new program, one taking care of urban work and the other rural rehabilitation.

The rural rehabilitation will provide for unemployed farmers, the government making an effort to secure land for the down-and-out farmer, at the same time furnishing money for his farm operations.

All work in the county is being pushed forward rapidly at this time and it was believed that the bulk of projects now under construction would be virtually completed by the time the demobilization order becomes effective. These include swimming pools, community buildings and school improvements.

WORKERS OF OPERATIONS OF BOGUS COLLECTOR

Littleton, March 19.—"Some person is covering the state trying to collect dues and subscriptions for this association; he is a fraud since nobody has a right to receive any money for this association except the secretary-treasurer," said J. L. Skinner, secretary-treasurer of the State Association of County Commissioners yesterday, Mr. Skinner continued.

"The press is requested to ask that any one having knowledge of this man will please communicate with me at once. The police are requested to arrest and hold for us."

"We have notified every county and city in the state to be on the lookout for this person. He has a stolen copy of our annual proceedings and has a pad of forged receipt forms."

WILL SEEK TO BRING MORE LAND UNDER CULTIVATION

Seaboard, March 19.—The Northampton county re-employment office through its manager Lee Parker, is calling attention on farm placement service in keeping with State policy. Estimates show that 12,000 acres of tenable land were idle in Northampton in 1932 and it is planned to produce food crops and feed for stock on this in order to reduce the heavy relief load and provide better living conditions among the rural tenantry.

CWA WORKERS FACE NEW CUT

Fifteen Per Cent of Present Force Expected to be Laid Off This Week.

CWA workers of Pitt county face another cut this week but just how many men will be affected had not been fully determined today by K. T. Futrell, county director.

Although he had not been notified of the reduction this morning, Mr. Futrell said he expected that 15 per cent of the working force of the county would be involved.

Three hundred and sixty-six workers took the field today after 61 had been dropped from the payroll last Thursday. The payroll Saturday was $4,500 but it will be reduced to about $4,000 this week with another slash in the offering for the coming week.

CWA forces throughout the nation will be demobilized March 31 and workmen then will be transferred to the Emergency Relief Administration.

Two divisions will be involved in the new program, one taking care of urban work and the other rural rehabilitation.

BODY FOUND IN CREEK AFTER FOUR WEEKS

Tarboro, March 19.—The body of Frank Lewis 75, was brought here Friday afternoon in a small creek that empties in Chowan river near Fuers.

He had been missing for four weeks. He had been living in a camp and the supposition is that he fell into the creek. A small sum of money was found on his body. There was no evidence of foul play.

Destroy Monument.

Alicante, Spain, March 19.—(AP)—A great 60-foot stone cross, erected to commemorate the advent of the 20th century, was dynamited and destroyed last night. The vandals have not been identified.

Figures published in London show that Canadians made more telephone calls in 1932 than any other people, averaging 223 calls each. The United States had 222 calls a person, while Britain had only 33.

STATE AIMS ANOTHER BLOW AT DILLINGER

Russell Clark, Member of Gang, Faces First Degree Murder Trial Today

Lima, O., March 19.—(AP)—The state aimed its third blow today at Dillinger gangsters accused of helping their chief make his first escape from prison.

Russell Clark was called on trial for first degree murder in the slaying of Sheriff Jess Sarber, who was shot down when a gang descended on the county jail last October and liberated John Dillinger.

Harry Pierpont and Charles Mackley already have been convicted on similar charges and will be sentenced to death.

The state contends that Clark stood guard outside the jail while three other men entered and killed Sheriff Sarber.

GOVERNMENT COLLECTIONS SHOW GAIN

Revenue Shows Tremendous Gain Over The Previous Fiscal Year

Washington, March 19.—(AP)—Government receipts for the 1934 fiscal year which ends June 30, reached $2,132,545,000 or more than was collected in the entire fiscal year of 1933 when receipts came to $2,079,696,742.

New taxes, including those of the agricultural processing and distilled spirits were important contributors to the large revenue.

Income tax collections for the fiscal year to March 16, the latest date available, were $484,212,000 as against $453,070,000 last year.

Deposits on income taxes during March were $125,005,359 as compared with $69,667,920 last March when banks were closed. Actual collections have exceeded $150,000,000, but this will not show on the Treasury's statement until they have cleared and cashed in on deposits.

Expenditures for the fiscal year to date were $4,589,680,050 as compared with $3,595,000,000 last year.

THREE HURT IN COLLISION

Greenville Young Men Injured When Their Cars Collide in Dust Cloud

Three young men of this community were injured, one seriously when their cars collided at Venters' Cross roads, about 12 miles from Greenville, Saturday night.

Charles Whedbee, son of Mrs. H. W. Whedbee and the late Judge Whedbee, was the most severely injured. He received two broken legs and a broken nose.

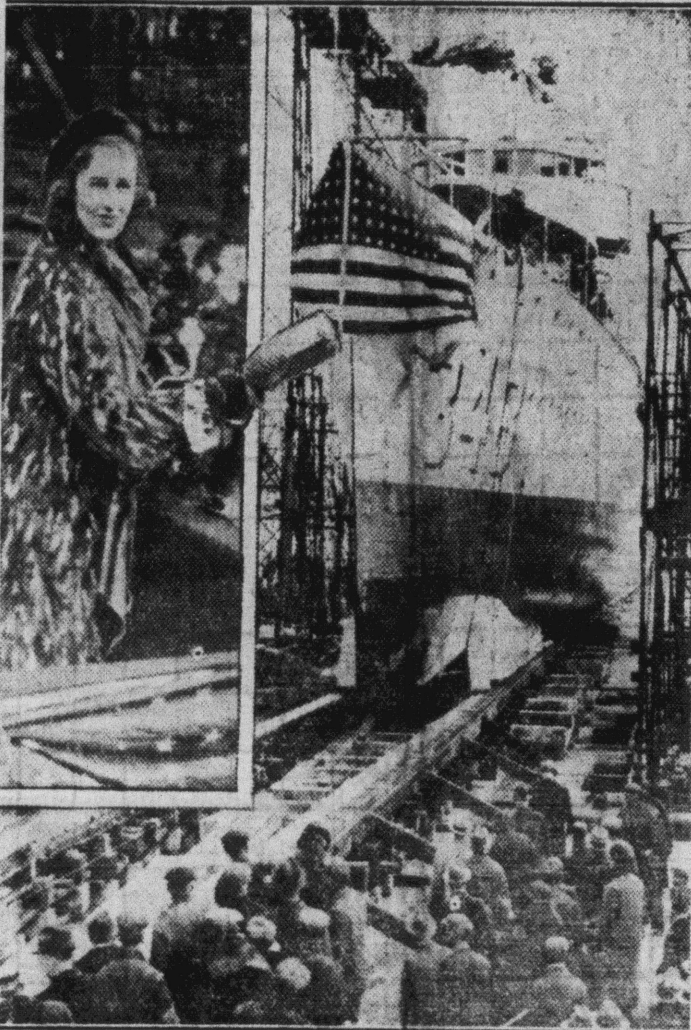

Frank Wooten, Jr., son of Judge and Mrs. Frank Wooten, driver of the car in which Whedbee was an occupant, received injuries of the face which required a number of stitches.

Jerome Hardee, driver of the other car, suffered a broken ankle and fractured nose.

The accident was said to have occurred when the two cars ran into a cloud of dust made by another car. The dust was so thick that neither of the drivers was able to see the road ahead. The cars were demolished by the impact.

The three were rushed to the local hospital for medical attention. They were reported as getting along as nicely today as could be expected.

Late News Flashes From Over World

Passes Cotton Control Bill. Washington, March 19.—(AP)—The Bankhead compulsory cotton control bill was passed today by the House.

It now goes to the Senate. The House count was 251 to 114. Its advocates urged enactment on the ground that it would be a boon to cotton producers and opponents based their objections on the compulsion principle.

Only eight Republicans sided with 238 Democrats and all five Farmer-Laborites in voting for the bill.

Twenty-eight Democrats joined 65 Republicans voting against it. Speaker Rainey voted "yes" and two Democrats, Doughton of North Carolina, and Gray of Indiana voted present.

Designed to stabilize cotton prices the administration measure would limit production in the United States to 10,000,000 bales (Continued on Page Four)

LEAF SIGNUP CLOSES HERE

Committeemen Busy Today Turning in Revised Contracts of Pitt Growers

turning in revised tobacco contracts at the farm department office here and the papers will be forwarded to the Agricultural Adjustment Administration at Washington late today or tomorrow.

The signup came to a close Saturday night and E. F. Arnold, director of the farm office said growers had responded in a commendable way. He said a few scattering contracts yet remained to be secured but expressed belief they would be on file in his office by nightfall.

Virtually 90 per cent of the growers of this county were required to file new contracts because of the fact that they placed their figures too high in the original campaign conducted several weeks ago. An additional 12,000,000 pounds of leaf must be taken out of cultivation in this county before the government is ready to okay the signup.

Committeemen were stationed at their old places in every township to assist farmers in filing revised contracts and this did much toward speeding up work.

Mr. Arnold expressed himself as highly gratified over the way growers responded to the government's request for new figures and said he believed Pitt county would be among the first to finish the task.

AGRICULTURAL STUDENTS DO BETTER IN COLLEGE

Columbus, O.—(AP)—Boys who study agriculture in high school do better college work than those who have no such previous training, says Lyman E. Jackson of the Ohio State university department of agricultural education.

Jackson bases his assertion on the records of 172 boys, 86 of whom had such preliminary training. He said the superiority showed not only in agricultural studies, but also in others.

ARMY FLIERS AGAIN BEGIN FLYING MAIL

Planes Resume Flight Over Skeletonized Routes in Safety First Campaign

Washington, March 19.—(AP)—Mail laden army planes again zoomed over a skeletonized system of airways today with "safety first" the order of the day.

Grounded for a week because of a death list of ten—now increased to eleven—the army fliers took the air again over eight routes.

Flight operations were started during the night.

The war department waited for report of a board of inquiry in the crash that took the life of Lieut. H. G. Richardson at Cheyenne Saturday.

When Brigadier General Oscar Westover, chief of the air mail activity, gave the word that his men were all set, the fliers were provided with carefully inspected plains newly equipped for flying day and night and with improved radio facilities.

Coincidentally, some indications were seen here that President Roosevelt might acquiesce to modification of the permanent air mail bill.

Congressional leaders acted to speed the bill after a conference at the Whitehouse yesterday, which was attended also by Attorney General Cummings and postal officials.

Although all were silent, it was generally conceded that at least one clause would be deleted. It would bar any company from receiving new contracts because of the wholesale contract cancellation.

PITT QUIET ON WEEK-END

Officers Report Only One or Two Minor Arrests During Saturday and Sunday

Pitt county had another quiet week-end here credit this week. Officers here reported today that no arrest of any consequence were made Saturday and Sunday, the various courts had little to do.

Only one or two minor arrests were reported last week. The highway patrol reported a couple of wrecks in which four persons were injured but only one arrest was made, that being at Ayden where a man was taken into custody on a hit-and-run charge.

Chief of Police George Clark reported this morning that his men had little to do with exception of traffic work and covering their regular beats. Only one or two minor arrests were made during the period the officers said.

Sheriff Sam Whitehurst said his men also were inactive during the period with no disorders of any kind requiring their attention.

Other law enforcement officers also found themselves with little to do but were poised ready for action when business opens up again.

POLICE VICTIM OF HIT AND RUN DRIVER

Statesville, March 19.—(AP)—Ross White, 46, member of the Statesville police department was fatally injured by a hit-and-run driver last night while investigating a wreck at a street intersection.

With his skull and face crushed by contact with the speeding car, White died a few minutes later at Davis Hospital.

Tom Griffin, a negro, who was standing near the officer, was hit by the same unidentified motorist and he suffered a broken leg and other injuries.

White, who had been a member of the police department three years, is survived by a widow and two children.

RAT TRAP SNARE RABBITS AND GOAT

Brunswick, Ga.—(AP)—Rats were not the only thing snared in a municipal campaign to rid the city of rodents.

Workers employed by the Civil Works administration placed steel traps at strategic places and let them set overnight.

Next morning they found lots of rats, four cats, two dogs, a rabbit and a goat.

RUMORS SAY INSULL HELD BY KIDNAPERS

Gangster Story Widely Played by Newspapers of Greece Over Week-End

Athens, March 19.—(AP)—A rumor that Samuel Insull is at the mercy of gangsters who slipped aboard the little greek freighter in the Piraeus harbor roused excitement in Athens today.

It was said that gangsters intended to kidnap the 74-year-old runaway from American justice and hold the former Chicagoan for ransom in a cave on an island nearby.

Commenting on this latest and wildest of all the sensational stories which accompanied Insull's most recent escape on the steamer Maitos, denied that any kidnapers could have boarded the vessel while it was in the Athens port.

The gangster story was widely played in the Greek papers.

Aside from this, there seems to be no foundation for the rumor other than the Pirates harbor master's announcement that he had received no message in which Insull is bound for some unknown asylum.

The Associated Press made an attempt to check the report but received no reply to a wireless query sent direct to Insull aboard the ship.

PLANE FOR SLIM PURSES LANDS AT 26-MILE SPEED

Youngstown, O.—(AP)—What is claimed to approach the government's ideal of an airplane fitting the ability and pocketbook of the "average citizen" is a new 500-pound model which a Youngstown factory expects to market.

Designers claim it will land at a speed as low as 26 miles an hour in still air and if facing a little wind at a speed not much faster than a man can run. Most larger planes require landing speeds from 40 to 75 miles an hour.

The plane carries a pilot and one passenger, has a top speed of 90 miles an hour, is powered with a 45 horsepower engine and nets approximately 30 miles to a gallon of gasoline.

HIT AND RUN DRIVER HELD

Willie Cox of Chicod Township Arrested For Running Over Man in Ayden

Willie C. Cox, of Chicod township, was scheduled to receive preliminary hearing in Ayden today on a charge of hit-and-run driving on the streets of Ayden Saturday in which Bill Manning of the Ayden community was severely injured.

Cox was taken into custody yesterday afternoon and was released under bond for his appearance before Mayor Dick Cannon sometime today.

Manning was said to have been attempting to cross a street in Ayden when struck by the car, said by police to have been operated by Cox. Cox immediately vanished and was not heard from until he was taken into custody yesterday afternoon.

An eye-witness to the accident took the number of the hit-and-run car and this was turned over to members of the highway patrol. The number was sent to the Motor Vehicle department at Raleigh and identified as that of Cox, officers said.

Manning was said to have received painful bruises and lacerations and probably internal injuries.

Registration for the 1934 municipal election in Kansas City set a new high mark, estimates placing the list at 220,000.

Sanford, March 19.—Clinton McNeill, age 25, son of Mrs. Sallie McNeill and the late Bernice McNeill, died at Lee County Hospital about noon yesterday following wounds self inflicted about 10 o'clock in the morning at the home of his mother, R. F. D. No. 2, Jonesboro, with whom he lived.

The young man was alone in his room at the time. Members of the family hearing the shot found that he had shot himself in the left breast. He was hurried to the Lee County Hospital, death ensued shortly after arrival there. They say they know of no reason for the act.

Musgarve, 55, prominent Goldsboro merchant for 16 years, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with a pistol at his store on North Johns street between 8 and 9 o'clock yesterday morning. THE GREAT AMERICAN GAMBLE

An insurance company has issued a booklet entitled "The Great American Gamble." It consists of an analysis of the automobile accident problem, along with graphic illustrations of the price we pay for allowing carelessness, incompetence and recklessness to run riot on our highways.

Last year automobiles killed 29,200 people and injured 840,000. The record of fatalities on a per accident basis was 5.9 per cent greater than in 1932. Excessive speed was the main cause of death, closely followed by driving on wrong side of road, carelessness on part of pedestrians, running off the roadway, passing on hills, curves, etc.

Some of the most vivid illustrations in the booklet deal with the potential destructive power of an automobile. A car going 40 miles an hour, for example, is four times as capable of inflicting damage as one going twenty. At 50 miles an hour damage becomes nine times as great. A car moving at this last speed has the same capacity for damage as if it were driven off a building 120 feet high.

To use another illustration, a car going 20 miles an hour occupies 38 feet of roadway in addition to its length. A car going 60 occupies 268 feet stopping distance.

The horror of the automobile accident problem continues to grow. We have safer roads and cars but we have so exaggerated the safety margins that we have actually made them more dangerous. The American highway is a shambles. Every reckless or incompetent driver and every car which is in a dangerous condition, menaces hundreds of lives.

BUSINESS INDEXES SHOW RISES

For a number of consecutive weeks, standard business indicators have shown advances.

Car-loadings, steel output, electric power production, life insurance sales, construction contents, the wholesale commodity price—all are up. An encouraging sign is that the advance has not been sporadic and erratic—it has been gradual and is apparently the result of a general strengthening of the nation's economic foundations.

Judith Lane

By JEANNE BOWMAN

SYNOPSIS: Judith Lane, who just has moved into her new home with Norman, her husband, has promised her old employer, the engineer, Tom Bevins, that should he die she will carry out his plan to the letter for his dam and reclamation project at Rio Diablo.

Chapter 13 STRUGGLE BEGINS

With an eye to dramatic effect, made the announcement a proclamation. Judith, a gay Columbine, was in the act of twirling in Slim Sanford's arms to show Norman and Poppy Neville, (their next door neighbors) how a "swale-step" should be executed.

Judith paused and stood breathless as the servant swung back the drapes, held up a yellow-palmed hand and said—"Ma's Bevins is dead. He dropped dead ten minutes ago. Miss Matilda, she say Ma's Norman is to come to her, soon's he kin git there."

Braced against Sanford's supporting arm, Judith wondered which pain was the sharper, the fierce throbbing of jealousy at Mathie's command, or the shock of her beloved old friend's death.

Norman waited only long enough to change clothes then with a hurried kiss to the now drooping Columbine, rushed for his car. The guests left, all but the Sanfords. Clia, taking Judith to her room, seemed on the verge of saying something several times only to stop, light a fresh cigarette, and dash it out in the nearest ash-tray.

He complained of feeling dizzy... got as far as the door.

"I'll call my office," she said at length and went downstairs. Judith stared into the mirror. Methodically she removed paint and powder with fresh tissue, folded each piece carefully, and tossed them into their basket.

"Dead," she thought vaguely, "he's dead, Big Tom." "I should feel something," she said aloud to the white faced girl in the mirror. "I really should but I don't... just sort of numb... and queer."

She slipped out of her costume, then went to her wardrobe, and reached for a robe, made careful selection. She chose one of peach glow, so Norman when he returned wouldn't notice how pale she looked; peach glow with soft elderdown about the wide sleeves and hem.

"Big Tom is dead and I'm dressing up."

A QUEER noise intruded itself into her calm. She went to the window, opened it. There were lights in the servants' quarters and through the unshaded window pane she could see Delphy seated, alone thrown over her head, rocking back and forth and moaning. What a relief it must be to release pent up feelings like that.

"Judy," Clia was at the door, a tray in her hand. "Slim's been taking liberties. I felt the need of a cocktail so he shook up one for each of us."

The Signor

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

"Well," said Willy Nilly, the little gnome-like man, to himself, "I don't know when I'll get at my chores and I don't know when I'll be able to fix my pointed, sticking-out ears now for a while with a circus staying in Puddle Muddle, but it certainly is exciting. We don't have to travel and see the world. It comes right here to our ruts and puddles."

He walked out-of-doors and saw now that most of Puddle Muddle was taken up with tents in which the circus people were living, and wagons in which the animals were spending their time. Some of the animals, such as the ponies and horses and elephants, were wandering around, and the door to the monkeys' cage was open.

Now the owner of the circus came toward Willy Nilly.

"Good-morning," he said in a very grand manner. "I, Signor Grandilorgousuperfine Kentorabolora, greet you." "Good-morning," said Willy Nilly. "I am sorry but I do not believe I could ever pronounce your name."

"That's all right, my little friend," said the Signor magnificently. "Just call me Signor. That is what all my friends of the circus call me. It is only when I get into the big ring and announce our splendid and beautiful and stupendous and superlative and superior and breath-taking acts that I use the whole name."

"I notice, Signor, that you are pretty well settled here," Willy Nilly said. "Ah yes," smiled the Signor. "This is a splendid place for us to stop. In fact I may stay longer than I had first planned." Willy Nilly sighed to himself.

LEGION POST TO MEET HERE

Former Soldiers to Celebrate 15th Anniversary at Meeting Tuesday Night

The Pitt County Post of the American Legion will hold its regular meeting tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Field House at Third Street school. Supper will be served. This supper is a gift from six members of the Legion who have clubbed together to pay for it. Several vital matters will be taken up at this meeting, among them the matter of the number of cases of Tuberculosis in Pitt county. At the last regular meeting a committee composed of Dr. S. M. Crisp, Mr. D. J. Whichard, Dr. McGeachey, Mr. H. H. Duncan and Mr. P. J. Majette was appointed to study this matter, and to make a report at the March meeting. The Legion has expressed itself emphatically along the line that Pitt county cannot wait any longer to face the problem of Tuberculosis.

Another matter that will be taken up at tomorrow's meeting is in line with the program of the organization of the Legion. The Legion has let it be known that it is going to do all within its power to help save the American schools. The National Headquarters of the American Legion is putting more time and emphasis on this program at the present time, than they are putting on any other one piece of work.

The State Headquarters of the American Legion has sent out notices that it intends to put in the next twelve months working for the public schools in North Carolina.

State Commander Tom C. Daniels of New Bern has let it be known in all his public utterances recently that the public schools situation of North Carolina is his chief concern. Therefore the North Carolina Department of the American Legion is sponsoring a State wide essay contest. The topic of this essay is "Why and How North Carolina Should Support Its Schools."

All high school students in North Carolina are eligible to compete. The first prize for the best essay is $25.00. The second prize is $15.00 and the third prize is $10.00.

The local Post of the American Legion has appointed, according to National Headquarters orders, the committee which will deal with this problem locally.

Tomorrow night the Legion also will celebrate its 15th anniversary. The American Legion was formed at a caucus in Paris, March 15, 1919.

The local Post now has 213 members, a larger membership than it has ever had before.

By ALAN GOULD

What of the "new Jones" Walter Hagen is talking about at the very time that the original article R. T. Jones, Jr., is planning to re-enter the list at Augusta against the best professional golf talent in the land? What makes the pro so enthusiastic about placing the responsibility of tackling the great Georgian right smack up to young Paul Runyan?

Part of the answer may be that Runyan now resembles the Jones of say, 10 years ago, before the Georgian took on a bit extra around the waist line and filled out generally. Runyan is about the same height as Jones. They walk alike and use the same putting stance. Paul is a little chattier than Bob, on or off the course, but he also has similar moments of absolute concentration.

The main thing, however, is that Runyan can hit every golf shot well, that he is extremely cool under pressure and is without doubt the most consistent shotmaker around the greens of any pro in the big time circuit.

He Plays His Own Game

I asked Runyan what his personal feelings were in looking forward to playing as the favorite against Jones; whether it disturbed him or affected his plan of action.

"Not a bit," he replied, "for, you see, in the last four years I have trained myself to play only my own game in every tournament. I make it a rule never to inquire about anybody else's game and I never even look at the score-board unless it happens to be unavoidable. I don't make any calculations about 'what I will have to score to beat so-and-so.' My idea simply is that if I play the best golf I can I will do my job for the day. That's what I intend to do at Augusta."

This throws a bit of light on the unhappy episode at North Shore last summer, when Runyan was disqualified in the national open after 36 holes because of the discovery of an error in his card. Paul detected it himself but not until after the card had been turned in and it was too late to do anything about. At the time he signed the card, he explained, he did it automatically and without stopping to analyze the figures in detail. He says he won't make that mistake again.

Step To Eminence

Runyan's tournament path followed that of Jones only twice before the Georgian retired in 1930 with his "grand slam". The boy from Arkansas, then only 19, played in the national open in 1928 at Olympia Field but he didn't see Jones play a single shot until the playoff with Johnny Farrell. Runyan was absolutely last.

Two years later after he had moved east to take a job as assistant to Craig Wood at Bloomfield, N. J. Runyan met Jones for the second and last time, at Augusta. Just the week previous Runyan had captured the North and South open as a "dark horse" but he was nowhere in the Augusta open, in which Jones spread eagled the field by a margin of 13 strokes.

Four years more have elapsed the drama returns once again to Augusta and Runyan is ready to challenge Jones for the main role.

New York Cotton

New York, March 19.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened barely steady 3 to 5 futures under liquidation and foreign selling.

The demand was slow awaiting action on the Bankhead bill. Trading continued quiet after the call prices sagged a few points. May sold off to 12.07 and October to 12.28 by the end of the first half hour making declines of about 6 to 8 points.

The market continued to work lower in the morning. Prices worked down to 11.97 for May and 12.20 for October with the general list showing declines of 14 to 17 points at midday.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, March 19.—(AP)—Financial markets were subject to shake and shivers today as the labor situation appeared to be coming to a head.

Stocks pointed downward from the start but trading was dull until early afternoon when a 15 minute selling flurry put the ticker tape behind and brought losses from one to around three points.

There were a number of mild recoveries later but support was of the ultra-caution sort. Commodities furnished no stimulus for any rallies, grains, cotton and silver and rubber were heavy.

Bond were quiet and mixed. Aside from a brief flurry around noon offerings were quiet. The lower levels carried into the late dealings and losses of one to around two points were shown by Chrysler, American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Union Pacific and Bethlehem.

Transfers were 1,600,000 shares.

Termed and emergency measure, it would have a life of 2 years and could be extended a third year by presidential proclamation.

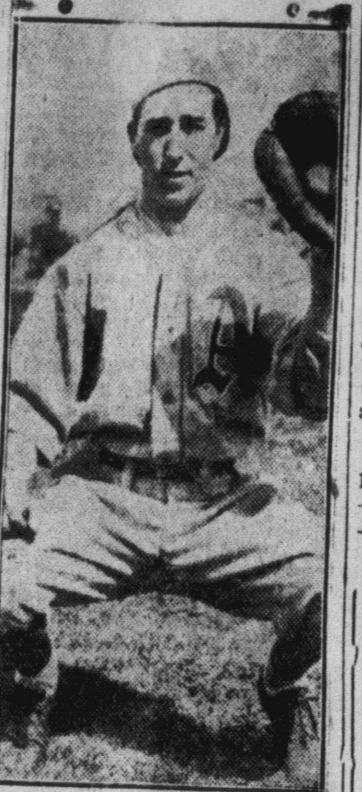

Production in the second and third years would be decided by the secretary of agriculture and two-thirds of the growers approved continuation of the law. The President would be empowered to suspend it at any time.

Advocates of the measure were surprised by the vote piled up for the Bankhead bill. They had expected a close vote. Many Democrats who had previously indicated they would oppose the bill approved it.

Philippine Bill Passes House

Washington, March 19.—(AP)—The McDuffie-Tydings Philippine independence bill passed the House today and was sent to the Senate. It would grant the country until October 1 to organize a republic.

There was not even a record vote in the House. Having administration approval the measure was brought up by Chairman McDuffie of the insular committee under a suspension of rules which required at least two-thirds majority for passage.

President Roosevelt requested the legislation somewhat more liberal than the Latched-Hawes-Cutting act but embodying most of its important features.

Early favorable Senate action is expected by administration followers.
