RELIEF WORK TO BEGIN IN A FEW DAYS

K. T. Futrell, Relief Director Returns From Conference At Raleigh

K. T. Futrell, local Federal Emergency Relief Administrator, returned yesterday from Raleigh where he attended the annual meeting of social service workers.

The Corn-Hog production campaign will come to a close in Pitt county May 15 and all persons who desire to take part in the federal government's effort to reduce the supply of meat this year, are urged to get busy at once.

No new contracts will be started after the closing date, Mr. Arnold stated, and growers desiring to participate are urged to visit the farm office immediately and get their contracts filled out.

Property Settlement Los Angeles, May 3.—(AP)—The Examiner says a property settlement has been made between John Gilbert, screen actor, and his estranged wife, Virginia Bruce.

North Carolina will spend $125,000 renovating the state penitentiary at Raleigh in order to make it fireproof.

Justice Department Seeks More Money For Fighting Gangsters

LEAF CHECK RUSH STILL UNDER WAY

$310,000 In Rental And Benefit Payments Paid Out To Growers In County

Farmers of Pitt county who are taking part in the government's tobacco production campaign are jingling money in their pockets and others will do the same thing as rental and benefit checks continue to roll into the local farm office.

The farm department has been literally besieged with farmers seeking benefit and rental checks the last several days and this morning was no exception to the rule.

Mr. Arnold said that some 300 rental checks and probably 1,000 benefit checks still remained to be received by his office.

It was indicated growers are fairly well pleased with this addition morning to the tobacco crop sold the past season, and make their way to the banks and get the cash or deposit the check almost as soon as they reach their hands.

FRANCE PLANS LONGER TERM IN MILITARY

Lengthening Of Service Planned In Face Of Threat From German Sources

Paris, May 3.—(AP)—France is considering lengthening of military service in the face of danger the government sees in the policies of Chancellor Adolph Hitler of Germany.

Premier Gaston Doumergue, reliable sources said, is backing a proposal by Marshal Henri Petain, war minister to increase by stages the 12 month conscription service until eventually it reaches two years.

The French parliament has been hostile to such a measure, but the reduction in births during the war has resulted in diminishing the size of the army and the cabinet favors bold action to keep the government strong in the face of a situation regarded as full of danger.

TWO MILLION DOLLARS WILL BE REQUESTED

Shortage Of Federal Artillery Believed Responsible For New Demand To Be Made Of Congress; Machine Guns Used By Gangsters Are Brought Into Service

Washington, May 3.—(AP)—The Justice Department outlined today a $2,000,000 thrust at crime.

It will ask congress for this sum to buy more guns and employ more men.

A shortage of federal artillery was believed to have led to the arming of federal Dillinger chasers with machine guns captured from the mobsters.

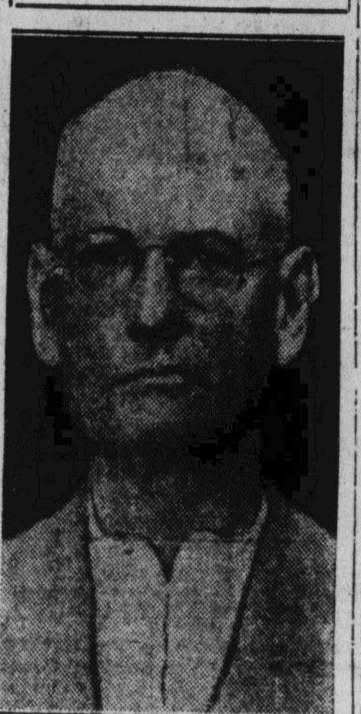

Several machine guns taken from Harvey J. Bailey, Albert Bates and George "Machine Gun" Kelly, convicted as kidnapers of Charles Urschel, Oklahoma oil millionaire, have been removed quietly from their cases at the department in the last few days and issued to agents assigned to Dillinger case.

Attorney General Cummings was reported to be ready to ask congress for a sufficient sum to engage additional divisions of investigation many as two or three hundred agents and to equip them not only with guns but motor cars.

The Justice Department appropriation for the present fiscal year totaled $41,231,835. For the year beginning July 1, the department has been allotted only $28,700,778.

With congress speeding all federal anti-crime legislation, officials anticipated there would be little trouble for the money request.

William Elmer "Christian Kid" Mead, an ex-convict, was sought in a nationwide search after it was revealed at Chicago that he was the "finger man" in the $200,000 kidnaping of Edward G. Bremer at St. Paul. It was Mead, police said, who picked Bremer as a kidnaping victim. (Associated Press Photo)

CONTEST FOR TWO WARDS IN CITY ELECTION

J. D. Simpson Opposes Joe Taft In Third; Norris Opposed By Corbett In Fourth

The filing time for candidates taking part in the city aldermanic election next Monday closed last night with contest in only two of the three wards involved in the battle of ballots.

It was announced this morning from the city hall that J. D. Simpson, manager of the local express office, had filed against Joe Taft, incumbent in the Third ward.

In the Fourth ward, W. H. Norris, incumbent, is being opposed by F. S. Corbett, who announced several days ago he would seek the aldermanic seat.

In the Second ward, Mrs. J. L. Hassell is unopposed. Ballots will be cast at the court house next Monday and persons desiring to have a say in selection of the next alderman in the two wards involved are urged to go to the polls and vote their conviction.

Less interest is being manifested in the election than in any other in recent years and only a small vote is expected to be cast.

Mr. Simpson, the last candidate to file, has been living in the city for a number of years and has a great number of friends who will be interested to learn of his entrance into the race.

Joe Taft who also announced this morning, has served for one term. He is a well known furniture store operator and has been quite active in the economy movement inaugurated by the board and which has resulted in considerable saving to the city.

Mr. Cox played an important part in the economy program launched by the Board of Commissioners which resulted in saving of thousands of dollars for the taxpayers of the county.

He said if re-elected he would endeavor to render the highest type of service to the people of all sections of the county.

NEGRO HELD FOR ROBBERY

William Atkinson Charged With Entering Bluebird Filling Station Here

William Atkinson, colored, was arrested by police early today and charged with robbery of the Bluebird Filling station last night.

The negro, police said, entered the building through a rear window sometime during the night, obtained between $8 and $10 from the money drawer and escaped through the front door.

Police were notified of the robbery shortly after the place was opened for business this morning and nabbed Atkinson before he left his home. Part of the money, said to have been enclosed in a bag taken from the Bluebird money drawer, was found in Atkinson's possession, officers said.

Chief of Police George Clark said Atkinson had a criminal record back of him, having served a term in State Penitentiary sometime ago for robbery here.

The negro probably will be given preliminary hearing the latter part of the week and bound over to the next term of criminal court for final action.

CHILD SUCCUMBS, VICTIM OF BURNS

Goldsboro, May 3.—Betulah Pope, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pope, of Leucama, died in the Goldsboro Hospital at 2:30 Tuesday morning. She was brought to the hospital just before noon on Monday, having been badly burned about the face, chest, abdomen and thighs.

The little girl was playing alone in the kitchen, and it is believed that she struck a match from which her clothing became ignited. When her parents reached her, her clothes had been burned from her body.

FEAR MISSING CHILD IS DEAD

Eight Day Passes Without Word From Abductors Of Little June Robles

Tucson, Ariz., May 3.—(AP)—The unvoiced fear that little June Robles may never be found alive was felt by many here today—the eighth day since she was kidnaped.

If the family had any reason for new hope of her return the fact was not made known. The only definite facts are:

The six-year-old child is still missing and the ransom money—$15,000 in bills of $5, $10 and $20 denomination is ready.

There had been no definite developments to lend substance to the belief the child may have been killed by her abductors other than the continued silence of the kidnappers in the face of the family's readiness to meet terms of payment for June's return.

Goldsboro, May 3.—A compromise in the Grantham will case was reached in Wayne Superior Court Monday afternoon after 11 jurors had been selected. Under the compromise, George Grantham, plaintiff, will receive one-fourth of the estate before debts are paid.

The other eight children will pay the debts of the estate, and divide the remainder.

COX SEEKING RE-ELECTION

Winterville Man Announces He Will Again Be Candidate For Commissioner

Roy T. Cox, of Winterville, announced today his candidacy for re-election to the County Board of Commissioners subject to the action of the Democratic primary in June.

Mr. Cox has served on the board for one term during which time he stood for the things he deemed of best interest to the people at large. He is a prominent manufacturer of Winterville, operating the Cox Manufacturing Co., in addition to being closely allied with the business and financial interests of the community.

Mr. Cox played an important part in the economy program launched by the Board of Commissioners which resulted in saving of thousands of dollars for the taxpayers of the county.

He said if re-elected he would endeavor to render the highest type of service to the people of all sections of the county.

About twelve candidates have filed for the five seats on the board and the fight promises to be one of the most conspicuous of the forthcoming ballot fight.

DEFER NAMING A PERMANENT COLLEGE HEAD

Fact Finding Body Will Consider Names For Office; Meadows Temporary Head

After naming Dr. L. R. Meadows as temporary president, the Board of Trustees of East Carolina Teachers College, meeting in monthly session in the administration building at the college yesterday, selected a committee to serve as a fact-finding body and to consider names for the presidency of the institution to succeed the late Dr. R. H. Wright.

The committee, to report its findings at the pleasure of the board, is composed of A. B. Andrews, Raleigh, chairman; E. G. Flanagan, Greenville; Henry C. Bridgers, Tarboro; and O. P. Makepeace, Sanford.

The board also appointed a committee to draft resolutions of respect in honor of the deceased president. This committee is composed of F. C. Harding, E. G. Flanagan and Mrs. Charles Forbes, all of Greenville.

The board also approved the action of the officers of the college in arranging for the two summer school sessions, June 12 to July 18, and July 19 to August 24.

In selecting Dr. Meadows to carry on work of the presidency, the board authorized him to perform all administrative and executive duties heretofore performed by the president of the college.

The statement regarding action of the board was issued by Dr. A. T. Allen, chairman, shortly after three o'clock yesterday afternoon after the trustees had been in session since 11 o'clock in the morning.

Members of the board attending the session were: Dr. A. T. Allen, Raleigh; Henry C. Bridgers, Tarboro; E. G. Flanagan, Greenville; R. P. Taylor, Greenville; F. C. Harding, Greenville; O. P. Makepeace, Sanford; A. B. Andrews, Raleigh; W. J. Boyd, Ayden; Meadames W. B. Murphy, Snow Hill and Charles Forbes, Greenville; John G. Dawson, Kinston.

Members unable to attend were J. K. Warren, Trenton and W. S. Moke, Rocky Mount.

Dr. L. R. Meadows, is too well known in Greenville to need introduction.

He has been connected with the College since the first year, coming here at the opening of the first summer school, June 1910, which was the beginning of the quarter of the first year. He is head of the English Department. He has acted as dean for the past five years, ever since Prof. H. E. Austin retired from active service. He has been secretary of the Board of Trustees and director of the Summer School since 1922, succeeding Prof. C. W. Wilson in both of these positions.

He has been very closely associated with the late President Wright and with the administrative affairs of the college throughout the years, serving on various important committees. He has represented the college at various educational meetings and on committees of educational organizations. He has been in demand as a speaker and has a strong hold on the alumnus.

He has been absent from the campus on leave of absence three times, twice for graduation study at universities and for war service.

He was born and reared on a farm near Haynesville, Louisiana, which is near Shreveport, and attended the public school near his home. He attended Besby College, receiving a two-year diploma from that institution. He then went to Baylor University at Waco, Texas, from which he received the A. B. degree in 1908. From there he went to Yale University, from which he received both the A. B. degree, in 1909, and the M. A. degree, in 1912. He studied at Columbia University two years, 1913-14 and 1927-28. He received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from that University in 1928.

He taught in Crockett, Texas, just one year, the only year that he had ever taught before coming here.

WORK ON POOL TO BE RESUMED HERE FRIDAY

Twenty Men To Be Placed At Work; Fountain - Farmville Projects Approved

Work on the Greenville swimming pool, which was suspended when the CWA was disbanded March 31, will be resumed tomorrow, it was made known today from the office of K. T. Futrell, Federal Emergency Relief director of this county.

Mr. Futrell also announced the approval of two other projects, a swimming pool at Farmville and street paving at Fountain.

Mr. Futrell said twenty men would be placed to work on the local swimming pool tomorrow and that they had already been selected from the lists in his office. He said it would be futile for persons to apply at his office for work in view of the fact that men had already been picked for all projects so far approved.

Only workmen in dire need will be given employment under the new emergency organization, Mr. Futrell said, and they will not be permitted to work more hours than absolutely necessary.

Only a part of the pool itself had been completed when orders for suspension of CWA activities were issued the latter part of March and completion of the other part of the structure, building of both houses and filtering plant yet remains to be done.

Original plans called for completion of the pool by the first of May but disbanding of the CWA because of lack of funds will delay opening until summer gets under full way. However, it was said this work would be rushed to completion as rapidly as possible and that the pool could be thrown open to the public at the earliest date.

The projects in Farmville and Fountain were also partially completed when the disbandment order came, and it is the object of the relief forces to push these projects to completion as early as possible.

SEN. THOMAS PRESENTS NEW SILVER BILL

Measure Outlined As Mandatory Proposition To Increase Price Of Metal

Washington, May 3.—(AP)—Senator Thomas, Democrat, of Oklahoma, joined senate leaders today with a new silver monetary proposal.

The white haired, smartly dressed Oklahoma man, who is responsible for much of the new deal monetary legislation, brought his new sixteen point plan before the senate as a rider to the pending bank bill.

Thames' latest proposal in the house is similar to the Cies Bill in a new dress.

He outlined it as a mandatory proposition looking to increased use of silver as a monetary base and ultimately to a bi-metallic currency foundation consisting of 30 per cent of silver and 70 per cent of gold.

The president was described by associates today as still desirous of aiding silver prices but was looking to avoid any proposal that would tie his hands in a possible international agreement or confine him to one plan in the face of rapidly changing world currency conditions.

Unbreakable Eggs. Chicago, May 3.—(AP)—Joe Paprock and his friend, Harold Riley, were fined $210 and $60, respectively, after housewives pounded on eggs without being able to break them. They complained that some of the "eggs" they bought from the pair were not eggs at all, but stones of the same shape.

The WORLD of STAMPS

By QUINTON JAMES

Frederick Setana, famed Bohemian operatic composer who wrote "The Bartered Bride," is being honored in a special postage stamp by Czechoslovakia. He was born 110 years ago and died in 1884.

The stamp follows the general design of the recent issues of Czechoslovakia but bears a portrait of Setana. The decorative border running down either side contains the familiar laurel leaves together with musical symbols. The value is 50 halera and the color is green. Setana spent a large part of his life in the musical center of Prague and in addition to his compositions he was renowned as a pianist. In fact he began playing the piano when only six years of age. He is known as the "Czechoslovakian Beethoven."

Belgian Parcel Posts.
A somewhat radical change in design for the parcel post stamps of Belgium is apparent from three values of a new issue just received from abroad.

They picture the latest type of railroad engine used on European lines, and there has been considerable simplification of the border design. A post horn is shown in the upper left and the lower right corners, with the values in the other two corners.

The three values so far announced are 3, 4 and 5 francs. As usual the name of the country as well as the purpose of the stamp, "parcel post," is printed in both French and Flemish.

Transatlantic Airpost.
Plans are being made by Roger Q. Williams to carry a limited amount of mail when he makes his proposed non-stop flight in a monoplane from New York to Rome. It is intended to use specially designed envelopes, which in turn will be placed in waterproof pouches.

How many letters will be taken has not yet been determined, the prime purpose for including them on board being to demonstrate the feasibility of carrying mail across the Atlantic via the air. The letters would be postmarked New York and backstamped at Rome.

Topical Trends.
In addition to the portrait of Queen Wilhelmina, which has been placed on the newest issue of the Dutch Indies on values above 10 cents, the lower denominations have a farm scene showing a team of oxen at work with a plow.

All of the latest German stamps are on paper bearing a swastika watermark. Included in this group are the new colors and values supplementary to the von Hindenburg birthday issue of 1932.

Among the latest additions to the airmail groups of South America are a 2-peso and a 5-peso stamp by Chile. The 2-peso deep blue has two planes in flight; while on the 5-peso red orange is a seaplane.

From the Indian state of Cochin has come a new 4-anna adhesive, identical in design to the 21-4-anna stamp of 1932-33. It is also yellow green.

Foreigners Rush In To Buy A Dollar's Worth For Fifty Nine Cents

By RADER WINGET

New York—(AP)—"Just run moment, please," said the foreign looking person. "I want I should get a biture of a typical American before a typical American sky-scraper."

So John Smith, a clerk in the Empire State building, stands patiently while the foreign visitor snaps his pose in front of the world's tallest building.

And the photographer is only among the first in the grand tourist rush fondly expected by leading steamship lines and tour companies for 1934.

"They are coming to America with devalued dollars jingling in their pockets.

"Just think," they exclaim, "in real money the dollar is worth 59 cents only."

Breathlessly they dash down the gangplank, eager to see the strange sights of New York. They snap up 45 typewriters which in their own country would cost $80. They buy strange fruits in chain grocery stores at prices unbelievably low to them. They take thousands of snapshots to show the folks back home.

A consensus of steamship and tour company officials points to three causes of the new tourist invasion: revival of business in foreign lands, the devalued dollar, and the world's fair in Chicago.

Douglas Malcolm, advertising manager of the American Express, said his guess would put foreign travel to the world's fair at 50 to 60 per cent over last year.

"Foreign travelers are coming to America to see New York first, then the world's fair, Niagara Falls, Washington and Mammoth Cave in Kentucky," he said.

"The British still are the best travelers, and there are many tours from Holland and Switzerland, both countries on the gold standard with currencies high compared to the dollar. The French are not much for travel. The Germans were big travelers in tours on business until recently. The blocked reichsmarks had kept them from traveling so much."

W. H. White, general manager of Thos Cook & Son Wagon-Lits, Inc. said his and other organizations were redoubling their efforts this year to get tourists for America. Many persons are coming from Australia to the west coast, going through Chicago and sailing from New York for Europe, he said.

The recent arrival of 122 five-day tourists from Europe in New York took the big city by storm. The natives were amazed when the tourists asked to see someone actually chewing gum on the streets, and they stood for many minutes before the "off the arm" eating places marveling at the rapidity of America's eating.

Subway rides thrilled the older folks, and the young men quietly took in one of the several burlesque shows in the midst of Times Square's bright lights.

The private bank of J. P. Morgan held more interest than the New York stock exchange, and the height of the Empire State building had to be translated into meters before the French tourists would believe it was taller than the Eiffel Tower in Paris.

Tired and dusty, but thoroughly thrilled, the first of the tourists pulled themselves up the gangplank to sail for home as New York scanned the horizon for the smoke of the next tourist steamer from the east.

"They were very fine people," said a bell boy at their hotel, "but they didn't tip much."

Washington Daybook

By HERBERT PLUMMER

Washington—(AP)—For the first time since women have been members of the House of Representatives a first class feud has developed between one of them and a male representative.

The principals are Mrs. Mary T. Norton of New Jersey, chairman of the committee on the district of Columbia, sometimes called the "mayor of Washington," and Tom Blanton of Texas.

Blanton, a member of the subcommittee on appropriations which controls the purse strings for the District, and Mrs. Norton rarely see eye to eye on questions pertaining to the welfare of the capital.

On District days in the House the two all but come to blows at times.

The gentlewoman from New Jersey neither asks nor expects favors of the gentleman from Texas. Nor does she get any.

She boasts of the fact that she plays the game of politics in practical fashion; that she is the first woman Democrat ever elected to Congress and the first to be appointed chairman of a major congressional committee.

Especially does it irritate her when Blanton, in his most gallant and chivalrous manner, addresses her in debate as "the lady from New Jersey."

"No matter what the lady says to me," he declared to her one day, "I have to smile and bear it, because I am a gentleman and cannot talk back. I never say anything unkind to a lady."

This was too much for the gentleman from New Jersey. With eyes flashing and her temper plainly aroused, she turned on Blanton with:

"Please do not designate me as 'the lady.' I am a member of the House, with exactly the same credentials as the gentleman from Texas, and I want no concessions because of my sex."

"Then everything will be lovely," Blanton shot back.

The differences between Mrs. Norton and Blanton are of long standing. They date back almost from the time she took over the chairmanship of the District of Columbia committee when the Democrats recaptured the House in 1930.

Earlier in this session the fiery Texan led the fight in the House for a reduction of the amount of money appropriated by the federal government for the upkeep of the District.

In all matters affecting the District he takes an active and keen interest in the House. He boasts of the fact that much of his career in Congress has been devoted to studying these problems.

Although not a member of Mrs. Norton's committee, he probably causes her and the residents of the District more anxious moments than any other member of Congress.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET AT COLLEGE CANCELLED

The Junior-Senior banquet of East Carolina Teachers College, which was scheduled for the evening of May 5, has been cancelled out of respect to the memory of the late President Wright.

MRS. HOOKER HOSTESS TO BOOK CLUB

The Sans Souci Book Club met with Mrs. W. E. Hooker on Tuesday, May 1. The home, lovely with flowers and summer accessories, with the beautiful garden surrounding, made a most fitting place to gather on May-Day. It inspired the old feeling to make merry and pay tribute to the goddess of flowers.

After the routine of business, the program was turned over to Mrs. Louis Skinner, the subject being Emily Dickinson—that woman of the Victorian age, modern enough to fall in love with a married man, but with the background and control to withstand temptation. What that resistance cost her is evident in the most impassioned poems written by any woman except Sappho. Her lines run the gamut of love in absence, the unreason of emotion, the long lethargy of grief. She never thought of publication, nor had any thought to capitalize her emotions. It was four years after her death that her first volume of poems was published and forty years later that an accident unearthed 176 that had been hidden away.

Having retired to an almost cloistered life, Emily Dickinson saw deeper where others saw wider. Seldom true to form but ever true to thought, terse and epigrammatic, her poems have a peculiarity all their own and have established her securely among the major poets.

After Mrs. Skinner read some of Emily Dickinson's poems, the club, in the spirit for more poetry, imported its own poetess—Mrs. W. L. Hall, to give some of hers which were, as always, greatly enjoyed.

Beautiful plates, garnished by pansies, were served by the hostess, after which the guests adjourned, passing out through the garden, each carrying a memory charged with the fragrance of flowers and the beauty of rhyme.—Reported.

College Pageant Is Postponed

The pageant celebrating the first 25 years of the history of East Carolina Teachers College will not be presented at the commencement this year, as planned, but has been indefinitely postponed.

The idea of presenting a pageant setting forth the history and spirit of the college and the 25 years of service of its only president, Dr. R. H. Wright, has not been given up, but right now does not seem the fitting time. The musical recital as usual, will open the commencement exercises on Friday night, June 1, the time that had been set for the pageant. Saturday will be Alumnae Day, as usual, with alumnae meeting in the morning and the dinner in the college dining hall.

There will not be the class day exercises on Saturday afternoon as the class contributions have been incorporated in the pageant.

Rocky, Mount, May 3.—William Franklin Parrish, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Parrish, victim of a shotgun accident, was buried in the family cemetery near the Nash county home of his parents Tuesday afternoon.

Funeral services preceded the interment and were conducted from the home, with J. B. Ferrell, Free Will Baptist minister of Nash county, officiating.

The child was shot late Monday afternoon while he was playing with a shotgun which he had removed from a rack on the walls in the Parrish home. He accidentally pulled the trigger and the load took effect in his head.

He was rushed immediately to a local hospital, where he died two hours later. His father, Mr. Parrish, is a well known Free Will Baptist minister of Nash county.

Tips on CONTRACT

WHEN TO SQUEEZE
(By Tom O'Neil)

If one trick already has been lost at a little slam contract, the expert who has a long suit will look for squeeze possibilities rather than risk a finesse.

Lewis Osborn, director of the squeeze specialist. He explains that besides the long suit, the necessary elements of a basic squeeze are: first, the declarer is one trick short of the goal and necessary losses have been taken; the hand with the long suit has an entry to the other hand; in the suit containing the high card entry there is also a card of lower rank which will be a loser unless the squeeze will make it a winner; there is a menace card in a third suit in the hand of the declarer or the dummy.

When the to-card menace and one-card menace are in the same hand, only the opponent under that hand can be squeezed. When the one-card menace and the two-card menace are in different hands, either adversary can be squeezed.

Here is a hand played by Osborn:

FOIL ATTEMPT TO ROB STORE

Policemen Frustrate Robbery Of Home Grocery Store Here Last Night

Robbery of the Home Grocery Store, corner of Evans and Fourteenth streets, was nipped in the bud by police last night, but the would-be robbers escaped. It was reported from the local police department this morning.

Two officers patrolling the area saw the front door of the store opened and pulled up to the curb to investigate. As they did so two men ran out of the building and escaped.

Chief of Police George Clark said the men had a considerable amount of cigarettes and other goods in their possession but dropped them as they made their get-away.

It was reported that clues were being followed today and hope was expressed the men would be rounded up in a day or so.

FIFTH SUIT RESULTED IN TRUCK ACCIDENT

Durham, May 3.—The fifth suit against Doyle Florist in connection with a collision April seventeenth in which a negro was instantly killed was filed today. The litigation, brought by Frank Petty administrator of the estate of Roy Petty, who was killed, seeks ten thousand dollars damage, claiming the accident was caused by the negligence and recklessness of the defendant's agent.

Four other suits were brought with the Florist truck and the three women hitch-hikers riding in the former vehicle.

discarded on the low diamond South.

Had West opened a diamond and had East led a diamond when in with the ace of hearts, West could not protect both the high diamond and the club king. The North hand would have had a one-card diamond menace and the South hand a two-card club menace. As long as the king of clubs is held by the adversary who has most of the diamonds not held by the contracting partnership, the squeeze will work.

Osborn went up with the club ace and played the queen and knave of hearts, a diamond being discarded West and South hands had to make four discards each.

South shed two clubs and two diamonds. On the last spade from the North hand, West had to let go a diamond or the king of clubs. If he discarded the king, North's jack would win and the last two tricks would be taken with ace and king of diamonds. If he discarded a diamond the last three tricks would be taken with the ace, king and a law diamond, the jack of clubs being

Built Up Strength By Taking Cardui

Here's her own account of how Mrs. T. W. Hardin, of Greer, S. MURDER AT MOCKING HOUSE BY WALTER C. BROWN

SYNOPSIS: Pierre Dufrene, after receiving a series of threatening letters, is shot at on a lonely road. Sergeant Harper, assigned to protect him, does not understand to him why he has been chosen. They decide to open Dufrene's Pouchata Terra house as bait for the killer. Harper is talking with Sheriff Doyle, a reporter, when word comes that Officer Hamill and another man have been found dead in Dufrene's house.

Chapter Eight CRIME SCENE LET us go back a short time and follow the adventures of Bandit Chaser No. 18. With Hillery driving and Connally calling the turns, the speedy little car headed for Officer Hamill's territory. They had to drive slowly, for the headlights could not cut very deeply into the teeth of the storm and the automatic windshield wiper just about held its own against the fiercely-driven snow.

Connally kept a sharp lookout, but in vain. At every street intersection Hillery sounded the whirring siren call, familiar to every patrolman's ear, as the signal of the "Flying Squad."

Hillery brought the car to a halt beside the call-box from which Hamill should have reported. It bore a conical cap of snow, leaning crazily to one side from the force of the wind. All around was a white wilderness, inches deep, and gaining steadily. Unbroken in its smooth, wind-drifted reaches, only a gentle bulge showed where the curbstone was set.

Connally borrowed the heavy flashlight from the car's equipment and got out of the machine. The policeman shined on the beam and flashed it in a circle. Here and there were unmistakable ridges and hollows which roughly outlined the imprints a shoe had left earlier in the storm.

There were a few tire-marks in the street, but no other tracks along the sidewalk, and, having struck the scent, Connally automatically started along the trail. Hillery drove the car at a snail's pace on a parallel line. For two blocks they continued so, when, upon crossing an intervening street, Connally found that he had lost the trail.

Retracing his steps, he found that a radical alteration had taken place in Hamill's course. The old tracks showed that Hamill had crossed about a third of the width of the street, when something had induced him to set off at a sharp angle. The almost obliterated footprints led along the intersecting street.

SOME prompting of instinct induced Connally to break into a run. He pulled up, panting, at the entrance to the front lawn, a flat, desolate level of virgin snow, bounded by bare hedges and skeleton bushes. The flashlight showed that the footprints had turned in there. It also picked out the bronze numerals, "34," on one of the stone pillars of the gate. The massive front door, after its fitful booming, stood open invitingly, due to a lull in the wind.

Hillery got out of the car, and, side-by-side, the two policemen walked up the path and scanned the front of the house, a three-story stone mansion standing in its own grounds. There was no light, no sign of life anywhere about the place. The hall beyond the yawning door was merely a black cavity leading into the unknown.

HELPS FOR HOUSEWIVES

ELIMINATING 'MOTH DANGER' IN SPRING HOUSECLEANING

Spring cleaning calls for dusting cleaning closets and bureau drawers and beating rugs, but it is even more important to make sure that moths do not get into your household.

If clothes, blankets and similar articles are wrapped carefully in newspapers without gaps or loop holes, moths will be kept out. Camphor flakes, balls or gum camphor may be inserted for good measure by the very careful housewife.

WINTER-DIRTY CURTAINS BRIGHTENED BY TURNING

The appearance of a pair of curtains which have become discolored during the winter heating of a house may be improved by turning the curtains upside down, just a little hemming and pressing, and new life appears in them.

Making Melba Toast

Remove crusts from thin slices of white bread, spread bread on shallow pan and bake in moderate oven until toast is delicate brown color and very crisp.

Wise Washing Ways

A little lime water will remove stains made by iodine. Do not hang up white silk shirts or blouses which you fear may turn slightly yellow. Roll them in a white cloth after washing and iron while still damp but not thoroughly wet.

My Beauty Hint

For daytime, a very small amount of eye-shadow should be used, and only on the lids. In the evening, the shadow can be blended up to the eyebrow. Used to excess, eye-shadow can be ruinous to the appearance.

By JEAN CHATELAIN

When applying mascara to the eye-lashes, if brilliantine is used instead of water a much more flattering effect is attained. The brilliantine gives the lashes a lovely luster and at the same time prevents their becoming brittle.

KIWANIS - HIGH BALL CONTEST IS RAINED OUT

The Kiwanis and High school baseball game set for Third Street school athletic field yesterday afternoon, was postponed on account of rain, but indication today were that the two clubs would probably get together the first of next week.

The game yesterday was being looked forward to with much interest by members of the Kiwanis club, the high school student body and members of citizens by reason of the fact that it was to be played for the purpose of raising funds for Sheppard Memorial Library and the High school athletic club.

The Kiwanians started a campaign for a library book fund some time ago and the ball game was one of the ways to increase the gifts to the cause.

Although the Kiwanis club has a game scheduled for the latter part of next week, and the high school has a busy week ahead, it was indicated by leaders of both clubs today that they might be able to get together the first of the week. Each club was in fine trim for the encounter scheduled for yesterday and both were confident of winning and while the rain gave them a temporary setback, as far as aspirations are concerned, they are not expected to be less capable when they eventually cross bats.

The public was urged to keep the game in mind and be ready to attend in large numbers and in that way help boost two funds that will mean much to the cultural and athletic development of the city and community. Full information, it was said, will be given in ample time to attend the game.

OAK RIDGE TO PLAY COLLEGE TEAM FRIDAY

Colonel E. P. Holt and his Oak Ridge Cadets arrived today but were unable to play the Pirates of East Carolina Teachers College because of a wet field.

Roger Taylor, local boy, is very likely to pitch tomorrow. He has not lost a game this year. When he is not pitching Taylor holds down an outfield post.

Lefty Dean, Mt. Airy youth, who was a member of the local team last year, is a member of the pitching staff. During this year, Dean has developed a well controlled curve ball.

The Pirates will be without the service of Captain Ridenhour who was injured in practice last Tuesday.

Troy Turner, Greenville boy, is to pitch for the locals. During his two starts Burnette has won both of his games. Joe Gaston, who reported late in the season, has been showing up very well and will likely see some service in tomorrow's game.

Come out and see the boys in action. The game will be played at College Park at 3:30.

Kinston Golfers To Take On Local Outfit Saturday

U. N. C. READY FOR COMING OF VIRGINIA

Chapel Hill, May 3.—As it approaches the week-end's crucial games with Virginia, the Carolina baseball team is hitting the ball for a cool average of .327, according to the official figures released today.

Which goes a long way toward explaining why the Tar Heels have won 12 straight college games this year and are being hailed as one of the greatest nines in Carolina history.

The games with Virginia here Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock and in Greensboro Memorial Stadium Saturday night at 8:15 o'clock promise to be two of the hardest as well as the most important on the Tar Heel schedule.

Although Virginia was beaten 3-1 in the first game this year, the Cavaliers won the honor of being the only team to hit the fence-busting Conference champs, and have a veteran club and an unusually brilliant mound staff in Pipers, Luck and Lawler.

With the return to eligibility this week of Nate Andrews, no-hit pitcher of last year, however, the Tar Heels will have their full strength for the first time this year, and will shoot the works to extend their great record.

The Tar Heels will send one of the hardest hitting college clubs ever developed in the South against the Cavaliers. Except for the catcher and pitchers every regular on the team is hitting in the select .300 class or better.

Thurman Vick, flashy little centerfielder, tops the list with .462. The other leaders are Irwin, .370; Weathers, second base, .370; McIver, left field, .351; Captain Brandt, first base, .344; Leonard, third base, .311; and Tatum, right field, .308.

Sundown Stories

Marbles
By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

"Willy Nilly," exclaimed Rip, the dog, Top Notch, the rooster, Christopher Columbus Crow, and the ducks, "it is springtime and we should be playing marbles."

"Haven't you some in the big box that holds Things Just for Fun?"

"I do believe I have," smiled Willy Nilly, as he stroked his side whiskers. "It seems that something always comes up to keep me from attending to my chores. But it won't take me long to get the marbles."

"If I don't attend to my work and my sticking-out, pointed ears soon don't know what will happen. Certainly it will mean that I have no more backbone than a mud pie."

"Oh," said the ducks, "we'll have to make mud pies first, and then we'll play marbles."

"I shouldn't have mentioned them," sighed Willy Nilly, "but as long as I did I'll help make a few."

Willy Nilly's mud pies were beautiful to behold, and after they had nished making a great many he set out the marbles. He gave each his same number, and to each he also gave a particularly beautiful right blue marble.

"Look, Top Notch!" cawed Christopher Columbus Crow. "Look in our mirror! Your red comb has hanged to pale pink."

Not only did Top Notch get out its little mirror and look at his red comb but the others looked at Top Notch, too.

"Why it's not pale pink at all," rowed Top Notch, but Christopher disappeared—and so had the right blue marbles.

SPORT SLANTS

By ALAN GOULD

Making the rounds of the press coops:

This year's American League pennant race, say the boys behind the chicken wire, will be one of the hottest scrambles since Connie Mack sold his first playing card. Instead of emerging from the cover of spring training as standouts, both the Washington Senators and New York Yankees have exhibited serious flaws and reasons for believing they will by no means dominate the proceedings. So far, however, pitching is much more of a problem to the Senators that it is to Marse Joe McCarthy. The Washington staff has been coming apart like John Dough, the Gingerbread Man.

The grapevine buzzer reports that Lyn Lary, extra Cankee infield wheel, probably will wind up with Cleveland in a trade by which the Yankees will get another pitcher, who will not, however be Oral Hildebrand, Monte Pearson, Mel Harder or Willis Hudlin. Nor Wes Ferrell, either. No one in the league seems willing to take a chance on a come-back by the Carolina flinger who checked up 20 or more victories in his first four major league seasons. Ferrell's case is one of baseball's biggest mysteries. Red Rolfe, the pride of Dartmouth who came up to the barrier with such sensational promise as a shortstop, hasn't been doing so well since the season started and the boys predict he will share the chores with Frankie Crosetti until further notice.

Red Sox Pack 'Em In
The real sensation of the first few weeks of campaigning is the way the Red Sox have pulled back the crowds at Boston. The eagle-eyed critics say rebuilt Fenway Park is the finest in either league although the location of the press box, on top of the upper deck (like Shibe Park) involves a terrific daily strain on the legs and heart. The fish-net screen in front of the Yankee Stadium press-box has the correspondents bleary-eyed and they have demanded its removal, even at the risk of being an unprotected target for foul balls.

One more reason for the latest outburst of home-run hitting with the leveler ball is the removal of the upper panel of the right-field wall at Cincinnati. Chuck Klein cleared the lowered barrier twice with a half dozen circuit smashes within the first week. Jarrett Hauser of Minneapolis is off to another big start. Joe knocked 69 over the fences last year for a new all-time record in organized ball. But no major league club wanted him, even in the draft.

Lonnie And Carl
Connoisseurs of the pitching arts are waiting anxiously for the day when Lonnie Warneke, the one-hit screwball ace of the Giants, hook-up in their first duel of the National League season. It should revive memories of the days when the immortal Christy Mathewson and Mordecai (Threefinger) Brown were arch rivals on the same teams. Remember how Warneke went into a clubhouse tantrum last year after losing four or five low-score games in a row?

Lefty Grove looked al right agains Holy Cross, but what has that got to do with the way he performs against pennant rivals? Even yith a sore arm Lefty has enough stuff to scare most collegians, although a lad named Moriarty belted him for a home run at Worcester. Incidentally the Yaukees may wish they had Bill Werber, the Duke alum, back at shortstop. He is one of the big reasons why Bucky Harris has the Red Sox going at top speed.

Zeke Bonura, the White Sox slug-ging sensation, was a champion javelin thrower in high school and college. Frankie Hayes, the new backstop of the Athletics, who looks like a great prospect, was graduated only last year from prep school.

MODE GIVEN EXOTIC NOTE BY FLOWERS

Paris—(AP)—Flowers from foreign lands give an exotic touch to this season's costumes.

Chinese poppies, Japanese wisteria and hollyhocks, and bright Dutch tulips appear on many new spring dance frocks instead of the gardenias and rose which long have been favorites.

Natural Blossoms One black chiffon gown has a waist-length cape covered with big red poppies made of sheer blistered crepe.

Flower Bracelets Flower bracelets and headresses are made of the same small blooms to wear with summer evening clothes.

Flowers are here on spring hats, too. A little wreath of wild flowers circles under one side of the brim of a natural colored bengal straw.

New York Cotton

New York, May 3.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened barely steady unchanged to two higher with trading quiet and no decided trend in developments.

Business continued quiet after the call and prices fluctuated within 3 or 6 points.

Prices held fairly steady during the first half hour with July selling around 10.98.

The market continued very quiet later in the morning.

This brought a little more buying and the market rallied partially with July selling at 10.92 around midday.

Futures closed fairly steady 7 to 8 lower; spots quiet; middling 11.00.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, May 3.—(AP)—The stock market showed signs of rejuvenation today although traders were still cautious and the activity restricted.

Commentators spoke of at least a technical rally of moderate proportions and buying in some of the groups was attributed partly to this hope.

The short interest was said to be relatively small and stimulation for recovery was being awaited from other sources.

Equities received no assistance from grins. The cereals were cozy as further reports showed throughout the district were received.

Silver futures came back but the bar metal was only advanced 1-8 of a cent an ounce to 43 3-4 cents.

Bonds were irregular although U. S. Government securities pushed to a new high for the past year or longer.

The late trend was toward moderately high levels. Transfers were 950,000 shares.

Late News Flashes

(Continued From Page One) on taxes abandoned the Couzens amendment that would have increased the amount indicated, had to pay by 10 per cent. House refusal to accept the same led to the senatorial retreat.

The Senate debate on silver legislation was postponed until Monday to await the result of a conference with President Roosevelt on Saturday by members of the silver bloc.

More trouble appeared in store, too, on the 30-hour week bill and attempt to force a House vote contrary to administration wishes was initiated.

Concerning the variety of other occurrences the RFC abandoned its plans to make loans to municipalities. It became known that this giant agency had disbursed over $5,000,000. Repayments averaged $3,000,000 daily.

France Gets Japan Told. Paris, May 3.—(AP)—The French government today called upon Japan to observe the nine power treaty to the letter in a straightforward reply to the Tokyo note explaining "Asia for Asiatics" doctrine.

In the opinion of the French government, the French reply said, "the only equitable and satisfactory solution of China's affairs lies in the principles of the Washington document notably by application of the friendly procedure exercised by Article 27 of Feb. 6, 1922."

The Japan statement to which the French reply was made is identical to that given to Washington and London stating that Japan had no intention of enfeebling China's independence or interest and assuring the western power that treaties will be respected.

Cannon Wins Test Vote. Jackson, Miss., May 3.—(AP)—Bishop James Cannon, militant dry crusader of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, today won his preliminary fight to continue in office as Bishop when a test vote in the quadrennial general conference ordered his name added to the list of Bishops commended for elective reassignment.

The voting was 299 for re-assignment and 170 against or a majority of 99 for Bishop Cannon giving the Bishop a pronounced victory over opponents.

Bishop Cannon's face wreathed in smiles over the decision the conference to retain him as an active member of the college of Bishops. After the vote was announced, he said he had not statement to make, that the conference had spoken and it was their business.

He occupied his accustomed seat on the rostrum among fellow bishops during the fiery debate over his proposed super situation which came suddenly and deferred regular order of business.

Two Held in Slaying. Wilmington, May 3.—(AP)—Patterson Gore, farmer of the Castle Hayne section, and Robert Johnson, a negro, were arrested today in the laying and robbery of Carl Hayduck, 26, last Saturday.

Sheriff C. Davis Jones took Gore into custody, charging him with accessory to the slaying, and said Johnson had been arrested at Goldsboro and was being brought here.

Gore was one of two farmers reported finding Hayduck beaten to death late Saturday. The other, Jake Mazur, was held as material witness to the crime.

Mazur was ordered held by Colonel Asa Allen after an inquest at which Mrs. F. M. Floyd, a camp operator and Miss Nancy Wilson, an employe of Mrs. Floyd were witnesses.

Mrs. Floyd testified Mrs. Gore told her she had seen Gore give Hayduck $50 to keep for him in Johnson's presence.

Mrs. Wilson told of Mrs. Gore's being notified that Hayduck had been slain and quoted her as explaining over and over, "I love Carl better than anything."
