'New Deal' Congress Suspends Activities Nazi Extremist Policies Cause Much Criticism

APPROPRIATES BIG SUMS FOR RELIEF WORK

Estimated $7,000,000-000 Poured Out in Emergency Step to Aid American People; One Man Filibuster Features Closing Session

Washington, D. C. June 19.—(AP)—The Seventy-third "New Deal" Congress, which, among other things, appropriated $6,800,000,000, passed into history today.

The Congress, besides appropriating nearly $7,000,000,000, a sum without peacetime equal probably in the records of any Congress or Parliament in history of the world—guaranteed an estimated $7,000,000,000 in home mortgages and farm bonds, set up a two billion dollar stabilization fund, passed thousands of bills, approved between six and eight thousand nominations and ratified a score of treaties.

The closing came last night after party independents arose in the Senate and smote the opposition of the Dill-Crosser bill to set up a national board to conciliate labor and employers in their disagreements in the railway industry.

President Roosevelt and party leaders had wanted the bill to go over to the next Congress for they feared final action would mean a prolonged session.

The insurgents with such Senators as Wheeler, of Vermont, and La Follette, of Wisconsin, in the forefront, kept driving ahead for action, overcoming a one-man filibuster by Senator Hastings, of Delaware, and finally winning against the opposition of administration leaders.

The administration housing program providing for partial government guarantee of land for home building and repair and other measures to get the construction ball rolling, was the last major item to go through.

He said conference reports on it were missing, and suggested that John Dillinger would do well to hide with the lost papers.

Plans For Meeting of District Association In July Now Under Way

Hope that a district meeting of the North Carolina Association of Justices of the Peace would be held in Greenville during July was expressed today by H. L. Jenkins, justice of the peace of this city.

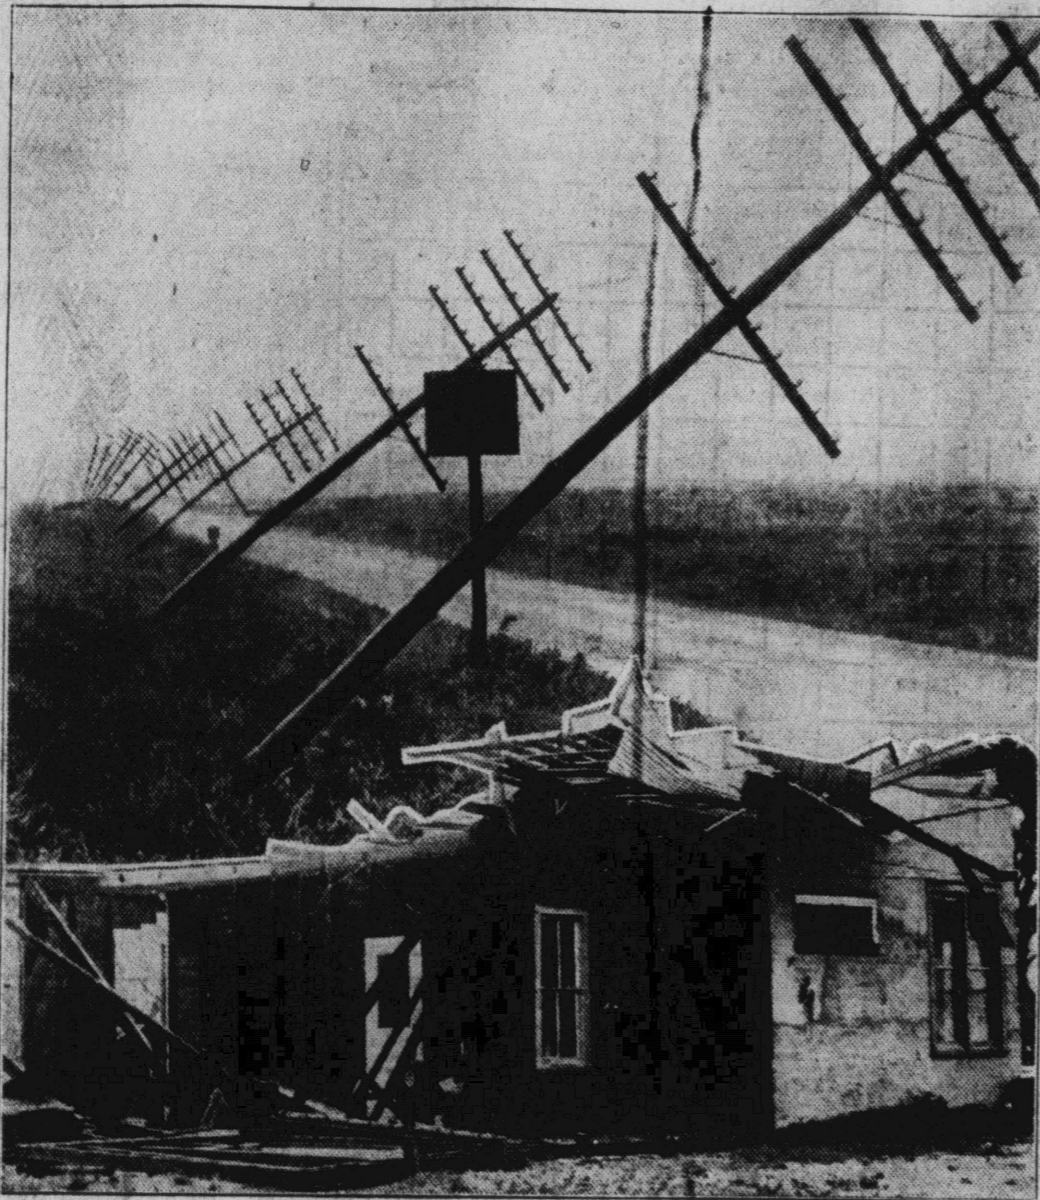

In speaking of the prospective meeting here, Mr. Jenkins also called attention to a notice he had received from Goldsboro relative to a meeting of justices of the peace of Wayne and surrounding counties to be held in the Wayne County capital Saturday night, June 3, at 8 o'clock, in the courthouse.

H. H. Koonitz, of Lexington, president of the North Carolina Association of Magistrates, and Berch Willard, Winston-Salem, secretary, will attend the Goldsboro meeting and explain the objects, purposes and plans for the Magistrates Association recently formed in this State.

Important matters pertaining to the office of justice of the peace will be discussed, and all magistrates have been urged to attend.

Mr. Jenkins said effort was now under way for a district meeting here during July, the date yet to be determined, and that due announcement would be made in the near future.

Southern Louisiana Ravaged by Hurricane

The picture below shows the wreckage of a home at Morgan City, La. Practically every dwelling house in that town was reported to be damaged. A preliminary survey showed one death, the injury of six or more persons and property damage that ran into the millions. About 250 families in the Morgan City area and 100 in the vicinity of Franklin, La., are homeless. Associated Press Photo.

REVIVAL HERE NEW GIFTS TO BOARD NAMES APPRAISERS

Attendance at Presbyterian Church Last Night Good in Spite of Bad Weather

In spite of threatening weather, a real good crowd attended the second night's service of the series of revival services which opened at the Presbyterian Church here Sunday morning.

Singing again was very good and the congregation through the message of song was prepared for the sermon delivered by Rev. J. R. Potts, on the subject, "Indifference." The text was taken from Lamentations 1:12: "Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?"

The sermon was an appeal to Christian people to cast aside their indifference to the spiritual condition of others.

"A few years ago," Mr. Potts said "when the southern section of our country was devastated by great floods, an appeal was made for funds. In a single morning thousands and tens of thousands of dollars were contributed. This we can understand. When the newspapers flashed the announcement of the sinking of the Titanic, faces were white. Strong men grew faint and sick. A wave of sympathy spread over the world. Everywhere interest was quickened. Funds were immediately forthcoming for all who needed help. It is not strange that in this city there are hundreds of men, women and children without Christ, and we who are Christians are not much concerned about them."

The evangelist appealed to parents and Sunday school teachers and ministers to cultivate a passion for souls, and to become concerned about the spiritual condition of others.

"If I could be assured this evening that you who are believers would go back to your homes and fall upon your knees and never rise until you had placed yourselves at God's disposal, then I should prophesy one of the most wonderful miracles of grace we have ever seen."

The subject of tonight's sermon will be, "A Great Salvation." Friday night the service will be especially for young people and large attendance was urged.

Late News Flashes

Believes In Kerr Bill. Washington, June 19.—(AP)—Representative Burch, Democrat of Virginia, whose district grows more tobacco than any other in his state believes the Kerr bill will take care of the small farmers, at the same time bolstering prices by forcing production curtailment.

The Virginian pointed today to amendments adopted just before legislative action was completed yesterday which empowers the agricultural secretary to increase allotments of growers who authorized production under voluntary adjustment contracts is less than 1,500 pounds.

The increase for each county would be limited to six per cent. A portion of the six per cent also might be allotted by the secretary to persons who have no base acreage because they did not grow the commodity in the years 1931 to 1933 inclusive. That provision was substituted by the Senate for the flat 2,000 pounds exemption.

The provision, Burch said, would permit the AAA to take care of the farmers cut down to less than a living income under the control campaign.

Commissioners Sit as Equalization and Review Board Here Yesterday

The Board of County Commissioners, acting as a Board of Equalization and Review, met in Greenville yesterday at 10 o'clock to receive corrections pertaining to property valuations for taxes for the year 1934.

Complaints as provided under the Machinery act involve sub-divisions, property improvements and changes made as result of fire or wind-storms.

The board named an appraisal committee to view property involved in complaints, and ordered the employment of five additional workers to assist in compilation of tax returns.

J. C. Coward, county auditor and also head of the tax department, stated that tax returns reflected an increase in abstracts in the 1934 listing to the extent of 7 or 8 per cent.

In view of the fact that this is not the regular quadrennial assessment year, the board had very little to do in the way of considering complaints and adjourned within an hour after it met.

DRIVE CAREFULLY TODAY

KEEP OFF CAR TRACKS

It is not safe to drive your car on the street car tracks, especially if the tracks are wet. A skid or inability to stop may result. It is reasonable to assume that many serious and even fatal accidents have occurred because of the inability of a driver to quickly turn his car off the tracks.

In turning off of street car tracks, first be sure your course may be changed in safety, then turn the wheels sharply instead of gradually. Acquiring this habit may prevent an accident.

HOME OWNERS BANK TO MOVE TO NEW HOME

Both Bank and Legal Department to Move To Edwards Building July 1

The district Federal Home Owners' Loan Bank will move to new quarters in the Edwards building July 1, or earlier, it was made known today by R. B. Davis, manager of the institution.

Mr. Davis said the building was being remodelled at this time and that moving operations would begin as soon as work was completed.

The bank at this time is located on the second floor of the postoffice building with the legal department in the office of W. L. Whedbee. Both the bank proper and the legal department will be moved to the new home.

Announcement was made yesterday that the district attorney's office of the bank, formerly located at Salisbury, had been moved to Greenville. B. B. Jones, Kinston attorney, is district attorney, and W. L. Whedbee of Greenville, assistant district attorney.

In addition to these two officials, other employees of the legal department as Miss Mary Powell Phippen, of Littleton, and Mrs. Ethel J. Tucker, formerly of Grimesland, but who has been living in Charlotte for some time. Mr. Sloane, of Salisbury, will be in charge of the record department in the district attorney's office.

The Federal institution was located in Greenville about a year ago, and since that time has rendered great assistance to thousands of home-owners in the twenty-five counties of the territory which it serves.

Mr. Davis said today work was being pushed as rapidly as possible on improvements to the new home in the Edwards building, and that indications pointed to completion by July 1 at the latest. In event work is completed for that time, moving operations will begin immediately, he stated.

KERR TOBACCO BILL PASSED

Measure to Compel Tobacco Reduction Given Okay in Final Session of Congress

Washington, D. C. June 19.—(AP)—The Kerr bill to compel tobacco crop reduction today awaited President Roosevelt's signature to make it law.

Congressional action was completed late yesterday when the House adopted Senate amendments. The measure provides a tax of from 25 to 33 1-3 per cent of the sale price, on all tobacco sold in excess of quotas to be fixed by the counties by the Secretary of Agriculture. It would apply to the 1934-1935 crop with Maryland and Virginia leaf and cigar leaf excepted.

Producers will receive exemption warrants for the amount of their quotas. When the bill is signed reduction will be compulsory for cotton, sugar and tobacco.

VON PAPEN IN ATTACK ON HITLERITES

Growing Dissatisfaction of Conservative Element With Nazi Program Rumored As Cause of Split; Count Nadlony, Ambassador To Russia, Resigns in Face of Blast Against Government

Berlin, June 19.—(AP)—Indications of a possible split between Pres. Von Hindenburg, Germany's "grand old man," and Chancellor Adolph Hitler over Nazi policies were seen today as an aftermath of a startling blast against the government.

This criticism was mainly from Von Papen, vice-chancellor, and understood to be very close to Hindenburg.

Observers were quick to couple his attack on the Nazi extremists with the resignation of Count Rauldolf Nadlony as Ambassador to Russia. Count Nadlony is a friend of Von Hindenburg and one of the first officials of the regime to resign.

Growing dissatisfaction of the conservative element, including Hindenburg and Von Papen with the Nazi program, was rumored.

An answer regarded as official—to Von Papen's speech—was made at Potsdam by Herman Goering, minister of aviation and premier of Prussia. He said that without reason for doubt distrust was really justified, but these are isolated cases.

SIX KILLED IN N. Y. GAS FIRE

Score Burned Serious In Explosion of Two Tanks at Jamestown Plant

Jamestown, N. Y. June 19.—(AP)—Fire that followed a terrible explosion of gas tanks which killed six persons and injured twenty-three burned itself out early today.

The district attorney's began at once an investigation to determine responsibility for the tragedy. A tank truck believed to have caused the fire was found burning yesterday afternoon after Heber Johnson, the driver, started the machine. While he was causing the fire department the flames spread first the office building of the wholesale distributing department and then quickly to three 20,000 gallon gas tanks.

Fifteen minutes after the fire started in the truck the two huge tanks exploded almost simultaneously. An excited crowd gathered to watch the firemen fight the truck fire was hardly more than 150 feet distant from the tanks when the blast occurred. They had resisted efforts of policemen to drive them back out of danger.

At the terrific blast which sent flames skyward the laughter of the crowd turned to cries of fear which quickly became screams of agony as vast tongues of flames billowed out sideways.

COUNTY COURT BUSY TODAY

Light Docket Expected to Enable Tribunal to Quit Work by Mid-Afternoon

County court was in session today with indications that work would be completed during the mid-afternoon.

Only a minor number of cases found their way to the court docket from other sections of the county this week and Greenville's contribution, always ahead of other towns of the county, was smaller than usual.

Chief of Police George Clark said today his men made only three or four minor arrests over the weekend and the majority of these were disposed of in mayor's court yesterday morning. Charges of inebriety constituted the main part of the police docket.

The county court docket was light last week but the week before, because of two weeks of idleness for civil court, nearly two days were required to clear the docket.

Although it has not been mentioned in official circles as yet, the time is just around the corner for county court to declare its annual summer holiday of one month. Judge Dink James is expected to take some action in this connection the next few weeks as the weather puts on additional steam and the fish begin biting at the rate of one a minute in surrounding streams. The judge isn't much of a fisherman himself—but he likes to see court attaches and attendants get in their annual share.

THE SLOT MACHINES ARE SLIPPING

Several cities of North Carolina—Charlotte among them—have definitely decreed that the slot machine must go.

Church organizations in Raleigh last Sunday adopted resolutions urging that the people of that city cooperate in banning this gambling evil from stores and other places where they have been doing a flourishing business for several years.

Newspapers in all sections of the state continue to express themselves vigorously on the subject and are urging immediate action be taken relative to banishing the machines from public places.

It is a campaign which has the support of the press and the people everywhere. It is a campaign, that is worth while, because there is no question but that the slot-machine evil is one which is doing an immense amount of harm. Not only are the machines deliberately robbing the people of thousands of dollars every month, but the habit of gambling is being instilled into boys and girls who are being converted into profitable customers of the gambling contrivances.

A considerable agitation has been stirred up over the matter. It is up to the people to decide whether it is going to end in a lot of talk or whether the example of Charlotte and other cities and towns shall be followed.

Civic clubs and other organizations can do much to help bring about some sort of action in their separate communities. They should take advantage of the progress which the campaign has made thus far and help out the machines at as early a date as possible. — (The State).

The half-billion dollar drought relief appropriation shows how deceptive surface appearances sometimes are.

To the public eyes Congress presented a dashing picture as it sped to the relief of the drought sufferers. Back-stage were these facts and figures.

The government was ending the fiscal year with about $3,000,000,000 of emergency funds left over. A pending appropriation bill added $1,000,000,000 more, and by making available the borrowing power of the RFC, opened up a potential reservoir containing roughly still another $5,000,000,000.

Here was some $10,000,000,000, the expenditure of which Mr.

MURDER AT THE MOCKING HOUSE BY WALTER C. BROWN

SYNOPSIS: Sergeant Harper just has told Pierre Dufresne and Mrs. Whitmore that one of the other to guilty of the murder of two men in the Dufresne house two days before. And now he is shocked by the fact that Donaghy the Dufresne chauffeur, has been found dead with a note beside him saying he was committing suicide and had been the "murderer" himself. He tells where a mysterious piece of rope and other articles may be found.

Chapter 48 METHOD OF ESCAPE

HARPER went on digging out the contents of the tire. Out came a worn pair of man's suede gloves, a leather wallet with the gold initials "H. D." stamped inside, a key case holding three keys, a pocket handkerchief with the initial "D" in one corner, a thin gold watch with a link chain, a cigarette lighter, and a man's signet ring with the same initials intertwined.

Dusting off his hands, he took stock of the collection. The use of that thin, tough rope with its ringed ends came readily to his mind. He looked through the snow-trimmed panes toward the big house. That baffling escape from the scene of the crime had been a simple affair after all, once one had a glimpse of the modus operandi. He put down the rope and went over to the fingerprint man. "How does it stack up?" he asked.

The man looked up. "They're smears," he replied, "and there's not a perfect print on the gun, but there's no doubt about them, checking it that's what you mean."

Harper approached the police surgeon. "Find anything, Doc?"

The O'Connell's man shook his head. "Not a thing. It's a good, clean outside," he concluded with callous humor, "everything according to Pop!"

Harper made a cursory examination of the other rooms, then gathered up the articles retrieved from the old tire, wrapped them in a towel, pecked on O'Connell, and left the garage.

Sending the policeman ahead with the bundle, Harper made a complete circuit of the walls of the main house, with occasional digressions over the snow-covered grounds. When he had finished he understood exactly the use which had been made of that brownish yellow rope with its ringed ends. He was just about to re-enter the house when he saw Lafferty's spare figure hastening in at the gate. The tall detective was greatly excited over this latest development and piled Harper with questions as they proceeded to the breakfast-room, where O'Connell had put the recovered evidence on display.

Lafferty seized on the skein of rope at once. "Hello, what's this?" he queried.

"You are holding in your hands the answer to the great puzzle—how did the murderer get away without leaving any traces in the snow? With five minutes' practice you or I or any one could do it as well."

He pointed through the window. "You know the small porch on this side of the house? Well, there's a sturdy iron hook driven into the wall right by the porch. And do you see that tree, just on the other side of the boundary wall? Another hook was driven into that."

"The rings on each end of the rope hooked on to those, leaving the rope seven or eight feet above the ground. This miraculous escape was made by the murderer going along that rope, hand over hand, with the feet drawn up clear of the snow."

The big detective plumped down in a chair. "Well, I'll be damned!" he exclaimed.

supporting this latest spending program. That is all it meant unless, as already stated, the President actually is launching on a new spending plan of unprecedented scope and is fearful that $10,000,000,000 will not be enough to carry it through.

Spending's An Issue

That he does mean to spend even more liberally than in the past is the deduction drawn by some politicians, but they are in the minority. The President is committed to a balanced budget by 1936, and the impression of those in his confidence is that he means to hold to that specification, even though Senate Leader Robinson alluded the other day to balancing the budget "by 1935 or 1937." Presumably that was just a slip of the tongue.

One thing is certain. The Republicans are planning to say a great deal about spending during the campaign despite the fact that most of them voted for the appropriations; and the public reaction will be weighed carefully at the White House as the debate proceeds.

WANT ADS PAY

"Was that usual?" Harper interrupted.

"Oh, yes. We always get Joseph up that way. He has to get out of bed to answer the 'phone, and I let it ring till he answers."

"How long did you ring this morning?"

"Quite a while. Then I got angry at him and hung up. When John came up from the cellar I told him to go across and get him up."

Placid John Whitmore nodded sagely to this account. The detective turned to him. "Tell us your part."

"I went out to the garage," Whitmore began, "never dreaming what I was going to run into—"

"Were there any footprints in the snow when you went there?"

A Tribute

(In Memory of Mrs. Zilphia Williamson)

Sweet memories to you of your mother, As you sit in the twilight and mourn,

In life's path can never another shed over you so happy a beam;

For she watched the play of your childhood, And seldom in anger would chide,

And home, in the fields, or in the wildwood, Your mother was still by your side;

How silky and black were her tresses, How gentle her kindly black eyes,

How tender her loving caresses; Ah! why need such a one to die?

You mourn in the desolate gloaming, And sunrise doth not bring you peace;

Afar over the earth you may roam, Yet your sorrows can never cease.

And you shall never behold the light of those black eyes again,

Shall never more enfold her hands in pleasure or in pain;

Beneath the drift of winter's snows, And sprays of summer flowers,

She is sleeping, while you wait Alone through all the lonely hours.

Yet soon will ship's mantle spread over you,

And you up above shall rejoice, You'll see her sweet face then before you.

And listen again to her voice, Where never has entered a pain,

Where never has a grief invaded, Where earth from your spirit has faded,

You'll be with your mother again. "Blessed are the dead, which die in the Lord from henceforth."—Rev. 14:13.

Christian Science Services.

"God the Preserver of Man" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all churches and societies of Christ. Scientist, on Sunday, June 17.

The golden text was from Isaiah 31:5: "As birds flying, so will the Lord of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it."

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases." (Ps. 103:2-3).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christian Science deals wholly with the mental cause in judging and destroying disease. It succeeds where homoeopathy fails, solely because its one, recognized principle cause its one, recognized principle of healing is mind, and the whole force of the mental element is employed through the science of mind, which never shares its rights with inanimate matter. Christian Science exterminates the drug, and rests on mind as the curative principle, acknowledging that the divine mind has all power."

MANGLED BODIES OF THREE BOYS FOUND

Charlotte, N. C., June 19.—(AP)—Three youths mangled almost beyond recognition early Sunday on the Seaboard Railway tracks near here were identified last night as Allen and Leroy Ferrell, of Charlotte, and Lee Chandler, of Winston-Salem.

Chandler was killed instantly while the others died a short time later at a local hospital. The three boys were either struck by a train or fell from it as they were beating a ride.

The three boys were in their late teens. Police said an investigation had revealed that Leroy Ferrell and Chandler had taken french leave from Jackson Training School a few days ago. Allen Ferrell, until recently, was a member of the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Philco Dealers Meet At Bayview

More than one hundred Philco dealers and salesmen of Eastern North Carolina will witness the introduction of the new 1935 Philco radios at a meeting held today at Bayview by Carolina Kelvinator Company, the local Philco distributor.

This meeting will furnish local Philco dealers and salesmen with their first opportunity to see the new Philco line and will feature presentation of sales and merchandising plans for the coming season. Jas. T. Little, of the distributing organization, will explain the many new features and show the dozens of new cabinet designs which distinguish the new Philco line.

"We feel that this meeting will be the most successful we ever held," says Mr. Little. "For this year we are able to present the most complete and sensational line in Philco's history. Important new features, outstanding advances in radio reproduction and strikingly beautiful cabinet work characterizes these marvelous new models. We are more than enthusiastic about the new line and we know that every dealer planning to attend this meeting has a tremendous treat in store. With these great new radios, Philco is certainly headed toward another year of supremacy in the radio field."

SEE SOME HOPE FOR BADLY INJURED MEN

Laurinburg, June 19.—The condition of Colin and William McKenzie, John Watts and Frazier Hilton, wounded in a knife battle here Sunday when J. P. Watts, blind mattress worker had his head almost cut off, was reported as still critical but rather favorable.

Colin McKenzie, Hilton and John Watts were stabbed to the lung. William McKenzie had a deep cut in the side.

Policemen Deaton and Todd answered a three alarm police call about one o'clock Monday morning and found, just south of town, one man dying, four cut almost to death, one slightly injured and one unharmed.

The small hospital was plunged into an uproar as police rushed the wounded in and went after a surgeon.

MRS. ENNIS IS FREED OF PERJURY CHARGE

Durham, June 19.—Perjury charges against Mrs. Myrtle Ennis, formerly of Raleigh, for which she had been held in the county jail for the past 13 days awaiting grand jury action, were dropped yesterday and amended to a contempt of court count, ordering that she be held for 17 more days or a total of 30 days. She has been held in default of $300 bond.

Judge J. R. Patton, Jr. made the charge chiefly because of the testimony of physicians who declared that her physical condition warranted her release. Her husband, Billy Ennis, a former champion of the local ERA Protest League, is in a local hospital recuperating from injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

HOSPITAL STAFF BUSY WITH ACCIDENT VICTIMS

Windsor, N. C., June 19.—The local hospital staff was kept busy Sunday afternoon attending victims of automobile wrecks.

George Leggett, Vernon Brown, Miss Evelyn Edwards and Miss Virginia Evans were in a truck wreck near the Edgewood Cemetery. Mr. Leggett, who was driving the truck, lost control of the machine in passing a car and ran into a tree. The truck was damaged badly. Mr. Leggett received an ugly gash in his leg. Mr. Bowman was cut and his arm broken in three places. Miss Edwards was cut and bruised and Miss Evans received a bad scalp wound.

The victims of two other wrecks, all of whom were negroes, were even more seriously injured. One negro man had both eyes knocked out.

Black-tailed jack-rabbits are abundant through all of Eastern Colorado and also on the dry plains of the southwestern section.

Acorn Cups

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

"We've brought Honey Bear the most delicious water in all of Puddle Muddle and probably in all the world, quack, quack," said Mr. Quacko Duck. "We took it from the little spring that runs into our pond."

"You see," he continued, "we know there is no water like that spring water. It is so fresh, so clear, and its taste is so delicious, quack, quack. And we wanted to let Honey Bear have enough of it."

"So we puzzled over the best way to carry it to her and each one of us wanted to do the carrying. Finally we decided on a plan. Each of us went to that little grove in the woods where there are so many acorns left from last fall, and each took one."

"Then we returned to the stream and we're bringing the acorn cups filled with water."

"Oh, you are so good to me, growl, growl," growled Honey Bear, as she drank the water from each acorn cup in turn as the ducks handed them to her.

"The water is certainly delicious," she said, "and I was very thirsty. I really feel myself now!" She stood up, and all the others moved aside a little as Honey Bear took up quite a bit of room.

"Yes, the water you've brought me, and all that Jelly Bear and Willy Nilly have done for me, make me feel as fit as ever."

"I think I'd better have a look around to make certain that we have no more fires with everything so dry," suggested Willy Nilly. He looked up to the sky and hummed softly as he noticed dark, heavy clouds floating along. It had been clear and hot for some time.

"Wait!" cried the ducks in chorus. "Wait! Wait!"

Raleigh, N. C., June 19.—Otis Hayes, 28, of Malboro, N. J., was jailed yesterday afternoon by police of a drunken driving charge after his car struck one driven by H. S. Isenhardt, of Raleigh, and overturned it.

Isenhardt, who was alone in his car, escaped uninjured. A woman companion of Hayes sustained lacerations about the head, but she was not taken to a hospital.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Morgan and Person Streets. Hayes' car, police said, struck Isenhardt's machine in the side, causing it to turn over.

REQUEST WIFEY FOR WIFE MURDERER

Raleigh, June 19.—Hendersonville and Henderson county officials appeared before Commissioner of Paroles Edwin Gill here yesterday to plead for the life of Joe Dalton, Hendersonville man scheduled to be executed Friday for the murder of his wife.

Police Chief Otis Powers of Hendersonville and Sheriff W. A. Garner of Henderson county, joined M. M. Redden, Dalton's attorney, in asking clemency. Redden also presented petitions urging clemency, which he said were signed by the 13 jurors in the case, all prosecuting witnesses and about 3,000 other Henderson county citizens.

TWO DROWN SUNDAY IN WINSTON-SALEM AREA

Winston-Salem, June 19.—(AP)—Drowning accidents took two lives over the week-end in this vicinity.

Robert Fulton, 19, lost his life on a swimming party at Idols on the Yadkin river Sunday night and Edith Dotson, one of his companions, owes her life to Herbert Thomas, a life saver, who pulled her to safety.

$40,000 DAMAGE SUIT IS SETTLED FOR $2,000

Kinston, N. C., June 19.—A suit through which Mrs. Sam Henry Jones, Lenoir county, sought to collect $40,000 from the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company because of the fatal injuring of her husband near Granger last year was settled in Superior Court here with a compromise whereby she will receive $2,000.

The compromise was had after witnesses had testified for more than three days and counsel had argued about half of its argument. Jones met his death at a crossing when a train struck a truck.

Elimination of water-filled buckets, cans and other stagnant water from the yard will help keep mosquitoes from a house.

Very Much Improved After Taking Cardui

"I have suffered a great deal from cramping," writes Mrs. W. A. Sewell, Sr., of Waco, Texas. "I would chill and have to go to bed for about three days at a time. I would have a dull, tired, sleepy feeling. A friend told me to try Cardui. Thinking it would help me—and it did. I am very much improved and do not spend the time in bed. I certainly can recommend Cardui to other sufferers."

See how Golden Ply tire saves motorists' lives

...how it prevents great cause of blow-outs

"2 killed; 1 injured as blow-out throws car out of control"

TRAGIC headlines like this I appeared in the newspapers nearly every day. Due to higher and higher speeds and smaller wheels, tires were running hotter and hotter. And heat causes blow-outs. The human toll was terrific. Something had to be done.

Goodrich engineers worked like beavers. For months. Finally they struck it. The amazing Life-Saver Golden Ply—An invention that withstood the strain of terrific high speeds. That made "the safest tire ever built" 3 times safer from blow-outs. This claim is not just shop talk. And here's proof!

Racing daredevils tested the Golden Ply out at breakneck speeds. Tested it on the world's fastest track. Not one blow-out. Similar tires without the Life-Saver Golden Ply failed at one-third the distance the Golden Ply Silvertowns were run. And what's more, the Golden Ply Silvertowns kept right on eating up the miles.

No extra cost! Remember, you pay no price premium for this extra safety—this extra mileage. The new Goodrich Safety Silvertowns with the Life-Saver Golden Ply cost no more than other standard tires. So put a set on your car today.

This insignia indicates that the Goodrich Company complies fully with the tire manufacturing industry code.

FREE! This handsome Safety League emblem with red crystal reflector to protect you if your tail light goes out. No obligation. Just join Silvertown Safety League at your Goodrich dealer. Endorsed by Traffic Officials.

LEAGUE PLAY WAGNER GRABS BEGINS TODAY BATTLING LEAD THIRD WEEK OF

The third week of play in the Coastal Plain League got under way today with Kinston playing Greenville.

The beginning of another week found Ayden more firmly entrenched than ever at the top of the standing of clubs' column with ten wins and no losses to her credit.

In pathetic contrast to Ayden, Tarboro was at the bottom of the column with ten losses and no victories to their credit.

Greenville occupied fifth place with a percentage of 300 with seven losses and three victories.

However, the Greenville club is expected to show renewed strength this week with changes already made in the line-up and impending changes now in prospect.

Officials of the club, dissatisfied with the way things have been going the last two weeks, agreed that something should be done, and wires have been kept hot from day to day in the hope of improving the situation.

The pitching staff has come in for the greatest amount of improvement and fans from now on will have the opportunity to see some real hurling backed up by timely stick work, if plans carry.

Tarboro, tail-enders, also are expected to show a change of form during the week with the reported addition of new players.

Kinston, in second place, with seven wins and three losses, plans to crowd Ayden for first place, with Snow Hill in third place and New Bern in fourth, all making attempts to capture higher rungs on the ladder.

May, former University of North Carolina hurler, is one of the new pitching acquisitions to the local club, and with Wagner behind the bat, a perfect U. N. C. battery may be seen in action.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, June 19.—(AP)—Wall Street followed its old-time system of selling on the good news today, and stocks after firming at the opening were subjected to considerable profit-taking.

Although the belated adjournment of Congress was seen as an entirely cheerful omen speculative forces were thought to have largely discounted this expectancy in equities which had recently shown the most substantial gains suffered reactions or fractions to around two points.

The trading volume dwindled appreciably in the week of the declining furries. Commodities developed some nervousness.

Wheat and corn eased and cotton relinquished some of its morning advances. Silver futures turned upward at the signing of the silver bill appeared imminent.

Stocks developed nervousness and dropped lower. Activity picked up and transfers wtre 850,000 shares.

BILLY BROWN AND FARLEY ARE RELEASED

Officials of the Greenville baseball club announced today the release of "Billy" Brown, first baseman and outfielder, and Farley, third-sacker.

Brown, local boy, who played with the team last season and who also took part in the championship series was switched to the outfield in favor of Weaver about a week ago, and then definitely released.

"Bing" Miller, also a member of last season's championship team, was released several days ago, and was reported today to have joined the Tarboro club.

Joe Smith, who played with the club last year, and who reported for work three days ago, will take Farley's place at third, and Walker, University of Alabama player, who reported here during the week-end will succeed Brown in the outfield.

A general shake-up has been made in the club because of the losing streak suffered the last several days, and it was said by officials that a number of new hurlers would be acquired in the next few days.

SMASHES SPEEDWAY RACE RECORD!

—and then he smoked a Camel!

BILL CUMMINGS FOUGHT OFF a fast field of daring drivers for over 4½ exhausting hours of nerve-racking, record-breaking speed to take the 500-mile classic at the Indianapolis Speedway. Press wires flashed: "Cummings, after stretching himself, first requested a cigarette." It was a Camel! For Bill is a Camel smoker of 12 years' standing, and knows that smoking a Camel gives you a quick "snap-back" in energy!

TRY THIS EXPERIENCE

in increasing energy quickly when worn out!

If you have ever tried to clock 300 or 400 miles in one day's drive you can imagine the terrific output of energy a racing driver crowds into "the 500" at Indianapolis. As Bill Cummings said himself after the race: "For 200 grueling laps...I had to average 104.863 miles an hour, the new world's record for 'the 500'...sometimes hitting it up to over 2 miles a minute...to win. 4 hours and 46 minutes of this wrings the vitality out of a man. I felt pretty well played out at the end of the race. My mechanic and I turned to Camels for the first luxurious smoke that always chased that tired feeling away. Any time I'm 'all in' I know that Camels will give me a 'lift' in energy. I smoke them steadily, too, because I know that Camels will never jangle healthy nerves."

This "energizing effect" in Camels, long recognized by Camel smokers, has recently been studied and confirmed by a famous research laboratory in New York. It is harmless, refreshing. You'll like Camels—a matchless blend of costlier tobaccos. You can "get a lift with a Camel" as often as you wish. Camels never get on your nerves, no matter how many you smoke.

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish, and Domestic—than any other popular brand
