Lab Dispute Swings Into 'Smoother Channels' Today

LABOR BOARD ATTEMPTS TO DIVERT STRIKE

General Strike Committee Tells Strikers to 'Arbitrate or Lose Our Support'; General Johnson Terms Strike As 'Bloody Insurrection To Deprive People of Necessities Of Life'

(By The Associated Press) From Oregon to Alabama the nation's turbulent labor currents swing into smoother channels today.

The most striking example was in San Francisco where the general strike board of strategy took the lead to divert the longshoremen's controversy into a more peaceful course.

Arbitrate or lose our support, the general strike committee virtually told the maritime workers. "Left wing" leaders roared in vain. The waterfront employers association was to decide today its stand on the arbitration proposal. Police and self-appointed vigilantes raised each other's late yesterday to raid Communist and other radical centers in a determined drive to dam the unrest at its front. Police arrested 340 and said they would see how many could be deported.

Across San Francisco bay National Guardsmen took charge of the Oakland waterfront. Motorized machine gun squads went in search of bands of "strong arm" squads reported to be terrorizing business areas.

Portland's proposed general strike was held in abeyance to permit labor leaders to confer with Senator Wagner, the government's representative, in a move for mediation. The public was promised 24 hours' notice should a general walkout be called.

In Berkeley, Calif., General Hugh S. Johnson termed the general strike "civil war." It is "bloody insurrection to deprive a whole people of necessities of life," he said.

The mayor of Houston, Texas, named a committee to seek a solution of the maritime strike which has taken three weeks here.

Miners at the Raymond Red Ore mines, near Birmingham, Ala., returned to work. Their agreement with the steel corporation wrote the last chapter in a strike which called out 8,000 workers and cost two lives.

In Montana where 5,800 employees of the Anaconda Copper Mines were on strike, mine properties at Butte were stormed.

Rioting at one mill inaugurated the textile workers' strike in North Alabama. The walkout in consequence shut down and left an estimated 15,000 employees of twenty mills idle. Strike leaders predicted 22,000 would be out soon.

'ARMY' DRIVE ON THURSDAY

Salvation Army to Make Canvass in behalf of "Dollar Emergency Drive"

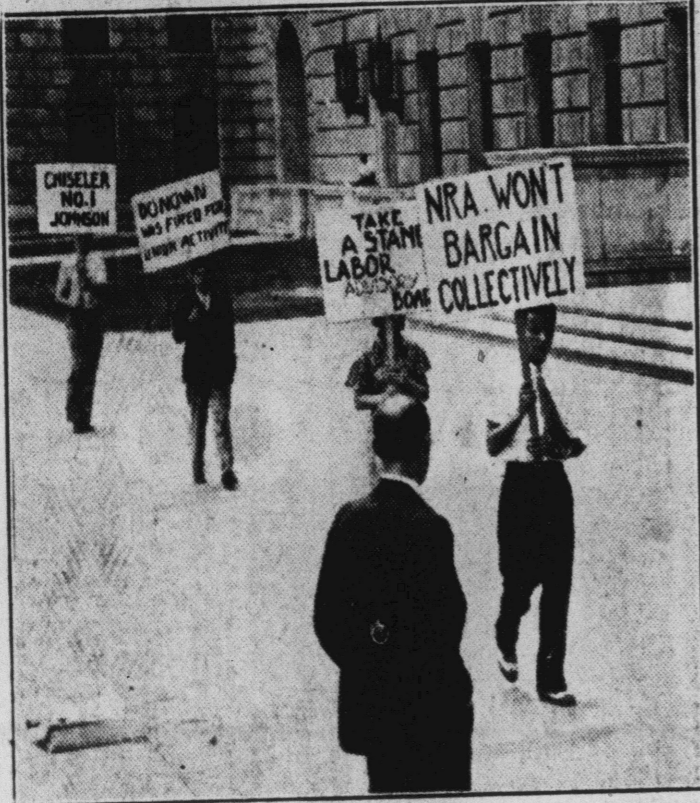

The Salvation Army "Dollar Emergency Drive" will get under way tomorrow and persons interested in the work of the organization have been asked to contribute $1.00 each to the fund. The goal is $150.

The campaign will be under the personal direction of Captain and Mrs. Stratford assisted by volunteer workers of the organization. A canvass of the business district will be made.

The drive is the result of the failure to raise the amount of this year's budget and as a result the organization has experienced difficulty in carrying on its work, it was said.

Captain Stratford said this morning that since the announcement of the campaign several days ago that a number of citizens had contributed to the cause.

THE 'LAW' HAS DROP PROBE VACATION HERE OF KIDNAPPING

Crime Takes a Holiday and Law Enforcement Officers Find Little To Do

"Oh, where, oh where, has my little arrest gone?"

This was the tune hummed by law enforcement agents in this county today as they cast about for something or somebody to arrest without being able to find anything.

The last several days has been the quietest in the history of the county and none of the law enforcement agencies have had anything to report since the first of last week.

The situation is so dull, in fact, that Chief of Police George Clark hied away the first of the week to Morehead City to spend his vacation. Reports from there are to the effect that the chief is making a big splash in the Atlantic and splurging as much as his pocketbook will permit, and that isn't so much because he has not been able to fully recover from the ill effects of the depression.

The sheriff's office, highway patrol and police department had nothing to report this morning but they were casting about in an earnest endeavor to earn their pay and out more money into the city coffers.

It may be the heat and improvement of the employment situation in various sections of the county that has cut down the number of violations but whatever it is the officers are glad to see the improvement if it does cut down their business.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF MANUFACTURING LIQUOR

New Bern, N. C., July 18.—Arrested on Saturday after a short chase by county officials from a 100-gallon liquor still between Bridgeton and Truitts, Avon G. Gaskins, 21, was arrested on a charge of violation of the State prohibition laws. He was released under $200 bond for his appearance here Tuesday for a preliminary hearing before Magistrate R. H. Kehoe.

Confiscated with the still were four boxes of beer, each holding around 200 gallons, and two and a half cases of whiskey, containing about twenty gallons.

L. A. STOCKS DIES AT HOME NEAR COX MILL

Funeral Services to be Conducted From the Late Home Tomorrow Afternoon

Louis A. Stocks, 44, prominent farmer and a leader in the fraternal circles of this county, died at his home in the Cox Mill section this morning at 6:45 o'clock after declining health of the last several years and serious illness of two weeks.

Funeral services will be conducted from his late home tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock by his pastor, Rev. E. H. Canady, of the Winterville Baptist Church, and burial will be made in the family burying ground, better known as the Henry Jordan Williams place.

The service at the grave will be in charge of Greenville Masonic Lodge No. 284 together with Withlacoochee Tribe of Red Men.

Mr. Stocks was a former member of the Board of County Commissioners, serving from 1924 to 1926. He was past master of the Shelmardine Masonic Lodge, later consolidated with the Greenville organization, and past sachen of the order of Red Men.

He was born and reared in Pitt county, spending his entire life in the community where he died. He was a good farmer and citizen and stood for the best interest of the community. Well known throughout the county, news of his death was received with widespread sorrow.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Nannie Stocks; four sons, Linwood, Thomas, Edward and Louis, Jr.; two daughters, Misses Myrtle Ruth and Nannie Louise; two brothers, Leon and Jesse Stocks; two sisters, Mrs. C. L. McCoy and Mrs. C. M. Newbey of Bell Arthur, and a number of other relatives.

Police Announce That Bobby Connor Merely Wandered Away From His Home

Hartsdale, N. Y., July 18.—(AP)—The kidnapping theory in the Bobby Connor case collapsed today.

While the little curly-haired son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Connor lay seriously ill in a hospital to which he was taken after being found yesterday in a Bramble thicket near his home by Federal agents and police announced the probe was ended.

They were convinced, they said, that the 24-month-old Bobby, who disappeared last Thursday, was not kidnapped at all. Evidence showed, they declared, he had toddled alone into the woods and had spent the five days there.

Suffering from starvation and exposure, the child "is very sick," but has a "fair" chance to recover, said Dr. Claude W. Munger, attending him at the Grasslands Hospital.

Frank Fay, agent in the Department of Justice, announced the end of the Federal investigation. In a statement he said it had been established that Bobby simply wandered from home.

Police Chief Phil O. McQuillan said he concurred in Fay's statement.

Bobby gained a pound last night after being given a quart of glucose and water by injections. Physicians said an attempt to speed the child's recovery might lessen his chance to live.

At four-hour intervals he was being given a spoonful of whiskey and water.

TRACT IN BUSINESS CENTER LINED WITH HITCHING POSTS

Latta, S. C.—(AP)—Horses and mules haven't capitulated to the automobile after all.

For the convenience of farmers, who come to town in great numbers on Saturdays, citizens of Latta set apart a tract near the business center and lined it with hitching posts.

Just so there will be no mistaking, the lot is identified by a big sign that reads: "Free Landing Field for Horses and Mules."

PROBE M'ADOO SEPARATION

Superior Court Judge Will Determine If Process of Law Was Carried Out

Los Angeles, Calif., July 18.—(AP)—The divorce of Senator William Gibbs McAdoo and Mrs. Eleanor Wilson McAdoo, daughter of the late President Wilson, faced an inquiry today by Presiding Judge Frank C. Collier of the Superior court.

Mrs. McAdoo was granted the divorce by Superior Court Judge Allan B. Campbell in a hearing lasting about five minutes yesterday—within 20 minutes after she had filed suit.

"It would be possible for a complaint to be filed and go through the regular processes in the time which the action took," Judge Collier said. "But I want to know that all the processes were duly followed in the case."

Judge Collier said his investigation "will not void the decree."

Mrs. McAdoo secured the divorce on grounds of incompatibility.

CLUB TO FETE BALL PLAYERS

Greenville Club to be Guest of The Local Kiwanis Club Friday Evening

Members of the Greenville club of the Coastal Plain League will be guests of the Kiwanis Club at the regular meeting of the organization Friday evening, it was made known today by D. C. Moore, Jr., club secretary.

The program had not been worked out completely today, but it was said that every effort will be made to provide additional inspiration for the boys who are hiking for a higher place in the standing of clubs.

Some hot air, not as much as usual owing to the heat wave, will intersperse the program.

G. V. Smith, president of the club, is expected to be the main speaker, followed by Milton Harrington, manager. Other members of the team will be given a chance to say something about the outlook of the ball club, but after the game in the afternoon they are not expected to be very loquacious, with little comment to make.

It was not revealed who will take over the spell-binding task for the clubmen, but as there are a number of efficient wind-jammers in the organization, the task of securing a speaker will not be a difficult one.

The baseball club, which remained next to the cellar the most part of the first half of the schedule, has shown a spurt lately, and if indications count for anything, the same dynamite stuffing into the bats recently will continue to be used the rest of the season.

GOES INTO COURT FOR 'PRINCIPLE OF THE THING'

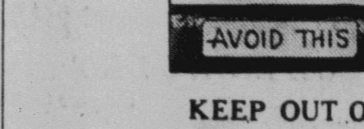

Fayetteville, July 18.—(AP)—Joe Brewington, Wilmington road storekeeper, is going to Superior court for the principle of the thing.

Saturday William Burns came into his store and asked for a two-for-a-nickel cigar. Brewington allowed Burns refused to pay him for the smoke and he had Burns arrested for larceny.

Magistrate W. C. Davis dismissed the case as frivolous and malicious and taxed Brewington with the cost. Brewington appealed to Superior court.

Seamen, who during the last three years have retired to other employment, are reported again flocking to the water-front as indications point to an increase in shipping.

SOLDIERS ARE CALLED OUT TO AVOID TROUBLE

Governor Clings Tenaciously To Office Against Charges of Conspiracy to Obtain Contributions From Relief Workers; War Department Has Received No Call For Federal Troops In North Dakota

Bismarck, N. D., July 18.—(AP)—Governor William Langer today ruled North Dakota by military force in defiance of a State-Supreme Court order ousting him from office.

He clung tenaciously to his office, placing the entire state under martial law in a move to prevent Lt. Gov. Ole H. Olson from taking over the duties of governor.

Service of a writ of Quo Warranto on the governor was necessary to complete the Supreme Court proceedings in which the justices ruled four to one last night that Langer's conviction of a conspiracy to solicit political contributions from federal relief workers disqualified him from holding office.

The court intends to use the writ today but in the meantime Langer continued to exercise authority and the national guards moved under his orders.

Lawyers were questioned whether Langer's authority ceased with the issuance of the court decision or must await issuance and service of the writ.

Langer gave as his reason for the declaration of martial law the possibility of threats to peace and order by federal relief workers of Bismarck who conducted demonstrations in front of the state house Monday.

Political opponents charged that Langer inspired the strike to serve as a basis for his declaration of martial law.

Washington, July 18.—(AP)—The War Department has received no request from Lt. Gov. O. H. Olson or any other North Dakota official to send federal troops to that state because of Gov. William Langer's refusal to surrender his office.

SEEKS TO IDENTIFY HI-JACKERS OF TRUCK

Baltimore, July 17.—Luther W. Johnson appeared in police headquarters today to view photographs at the Bertillon bureau and see if he could identify any of the three gunmen who hijacked his truck yesterday of a tobacco cargo near Elkton, Md.

The truck was bound from Charlotte, N. C., to Philadelphia. Johnson told police the gunmen forced his truck to the roadside, blindfolded him and drove off with the truck toward Baltimore. He was held prisoner for a time and finally was dumped out near the town of Abingdon. The value of the stolen cargo was given as $15,000.

SPEED AND YOUR POCKETBOOK

Excessive pressure on the accelerator has sent thousands of automobile passengers, drivers, and pedestrians hurtling to destruction, and is responsible for more than half of our 30,000 deaths and 850,000 injuries annually.

Thus far, humanitarian considerations apparently have not impressed drivers as a reason for exercising greater care in regard to speed. However, recent investigations of Clarence P. Taylor of the Massachusetts Motor Vehicle Department, constitute a serious challenge to the average driver's pocketbook, and may therefore bear greater weight.

It is vastly more expensive Mr. Taylor found, to operate an automobile at speeds in excess of 30 miles per hour. The faster a car goes beyond that rate, the more gas it consumes per mile—at 75 miles per hour over twice as much gasoline is required to go the same distance as at 20 miles per hour. In addition, wear and tear on the tires and on the car mechanism itself is greatly increased, so that a motor vehicle habitually driven at high speeds wears out much quicker than a car driven at moderate speeds.

The subject of "safe speeds" is everywhere controversial, but it is agreed that conditions on the highway must govern acceleration. It is frequently as dangerous to drive slowly on an express highway as it is to speed through congested districts. Speeds in excess of 45 miles per hour, it is said, are almost always in the danger zone.

Drivers, moderate your speeds to suit them to conditions on the highways. You will save money in gasoline consumption, repair bills, taxes and insurance costs—and, above all—you will save lives.

SPITE MARRIAGE

SYNOPSIS: The one thing Marsha tries to hate has become her fate. She has married him because she believed Geoffrey Tarleton would be another girl. And now Geoffrey has come to see her. Too late, Geoffrey realizes that Marsha has grown to love him far more deeply than she ever had cared for him.

Chapter 21

NO COMPROMISE PERHAPS three minutes after Marsha had dropped to the stool near the fire, she heard Geoffrey Tarleton's car start, its motor grow loud and then, with distance, dim and fade to nothing. Shock had imbued for her every faintest sound with a fierce and an unnatural intensity.

She raised her head to glance around the room wherein she had found new life and the code she needed. The tranquillity of the room mocked her. The tranquillity now was one of the lies she had once thought necessary for the existence of any beauty. It was not true; it only seemed.

She heard a dull descending tread upon the stairs and she rose quickly to wait, tense, trembling. Bob entered the room to move toward her. His suddenness, his pallor and his blank eyes told her something of how deeply he had been hurt; she felt the smart of tears in her eyes. She had entreated the vague, far something to keep her from having any part in hurting him. And she knew suddenly that his suffering mattered more to her than ever could here; or rather, that it was more truly hers than could be her own.

"Bob," she appealed. He looked at her but a moment, and then away. He answered after a long-stretched, pulsing minute with, "Well?"

"Will you listen to me, Bob, and believe me?" she questioned. "How can I, Marsha? I—" he floundered, paused.

"I am going to speak the truth," she stated in a voice that broke. "I want the truth!" he said loudly. He drew a deep breath. "Answer this question. Had you decided to marry me before you thought Geoffrey Tarleton was married?"

"Bob—" "Had you?" There was an awing insistence and weight in his tone; hearing it, her face grew more white than it had been. She faltered, she became confused, she felt her last chance for happiness slipping from her because she could not lie as she had before knowing him.

He repeated his question; she stammered, in answer. "No, Bob, no, but I—you must believe me—Bob!" she ended, but she could not soften him with any frantic appeal, nor, with appeal, keep him near.

He had turned to move toward the door; she heard him cross the hall to mount the stairs. She closed her eyes to shut out the whirling of every object in the room. There were curious and disturbing black spots in the air too.

When she opened her eyes she saw her world as steady, but the new, numbed normal was worse than had been the sudden onslaught of sickness. She drew a deep breath, in an effort to dispel the drawn feeling that oppressed her lungs and that cramped her heart, but found no ease.

"CURIOUS," she thought, "how physical this is." And yet, she reflected further, she had learned through Bob that blend of flesh and spirit that makes perfection. That perfection that was now gone, of course. And perhaps some day she would see Geoff's "dropping in" as amusing. "No," she said half aloud, "it will never be amusing."

She found herself straightening the turned-up corner of a rug. That was strange to do. But one kept on with the absurd, small, meaningless motions; squirrels in cages.

She gathered in her palm some rose petals that had dropped to the top of the piano, roses Bob had brought her. She dropped these to a basket. She had never liked to toss them to the leaping flames. . . they seemed, somehow, still alive.

What strange paths a mind would follow. It loosed from the leash, she thought. Here she was thinking about rose petals with surface thoughts and in the deep still pool of the mind which never sleeps and never rests was the feeling of finality; the knowledge that it was over, that Bob was suffering.

She settled in a stiff-backed chair from which she could see the stairs.

what is the result? A suspended sentence on the roads or a no! pros. Not so long ago this very thing was done right here in this county. There were no extenuating circumstances. Hardened old offenders let off without even a fine. Whose fault? Why cannot these law breakers be punished just as any other criminal is punished?

We are earnestly and devotedly for prohibition but it seems that our courts are not.

Just a few days ago Judge W. F. Harding on the bench said it is no longer a shame and a disgrace for women to get drunk.

Washington Daybook

By HERBERT PLUMMER Washington, D. C.—(AP)—It will be open to debate probably for some time to come as to just what brought General Hugh Johnson around to his decision that "the period of one-man administration of NRA is ready to be terminated."

Apparently the man who generally is recognized as second only to President Roosevelt as the most colorful figure in the "new deal" is soon to go into eclipse.

It has been evident for a long time that certain factions within the administration's inner circle have felt the time had come for the general to relinquish the controls of

NRA. Although quick to admit he has performed the task originally assigned to him in magnificent fashion, they insisted the present situation in NRA required a more peaceful, a calmer administration than that afforded by Johnson.

Tete-a-Tete? Some content that the most persuasive and soft-spoken "big shots" of the "new deal" were delegated to woo the General to this way of thinking. It is even hinted the wooing took place during a recent short vacation Johnson took while he golfed and rested at a spa in upstate New York.

The whole thing had to be handled with gloves. The general's capacity for "blowing up" is known to all.

Only his intense loyalty to the President, amounting to devotion, and his determination to finish the job he set out to do, are declared to be the reasons has has remained as long as he has.

Worn Out On Task Those who saw the General at his press conference on the day he announced he had made his recommendations to Mr. Roosevelt were struck by his appearance of utter fatigue.

No one doubts the fact that he is worn out physically. He has driven himself almost to the point of exhaustion and collapse by the long and punishing hours he has put in on the job.

The best guess of Washington observers is that he will make his swing through the west a last and vivid event, in keeping with those in which he has figured so prominently since NRA was born. Then, they hazard, he'll quit—probably before Congress reconvenes in January.

WOMEN LAWYERS FORM OWN BAR ASSOCIATION Kansas City.—(AP)—Nine years ago two young women lawyers applied for membership in the Kansas City bar association—and were denied. Now, along with 25 other attorneys of their sex, they have incorporated the Women's Bar Association of Kansas City.

The decree of incorporation declares the purposes of the association to include encouraging women in the study of law and cultivating social fellowship among members; efforts to eliminate discrimination against women under the law; and co-operation with all lawyers in upholding the ethics of the legal profession.

Gladys J. Miniacie is president of the new association. Tiera Farrow, who with Louise M. Byers sought membership in the men's organization in 1925, acted as attorney the decree of incorporation.

An old cemetery formerly occupied the site on which the lumber company erected its building in 1915.

The grave of Boggs, originally not more than ten feet from the present location of the headstone, is believed the westernmost of any veteran of the Revolutionary War.

TWIN PINCH-HITS FOR ELECTED KIN Lillington, N. C.—(AP)—Fred Thomas recently was elected to the State legislature and party leaders called a meeting to celebrate.

Fred and Ed kept their secret awhile, but finally it leaked out.

At the entrance of the rose arbor were Mrs. Jack Edwards and Miss Elizabeth Parker.

From an attractively appointed table in the arbor, Mrs. Hattie Skinner and Mrs. E. B. Ficklen served apricot ice, cakes, mints and salted nuts. Assisting Mrs. Skinner and Mrs. Ficklen in serving were Misses Virginia Perkins, Frances Harvey, Marjorie Savage and Helen Burnett.

Mrs. Larry James and Mrs. Penn Watson of Wilson, directed guests to the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Whedbee which was artistically decorated in vari-colored garden flowers, where they were registered by Miss Annie Rosamond Horne and Miss Zelle Foley.

Miss Ward Moore and Mrs. R. A. Tyson bade adieu to the several hundred guests who called from five-thirty to six-thirty.

To Show Fight Picture At State.

Maxie Baer will knock down and knock out Primo Carnera for the benefit of Greenville folks who'd like to see the Livermore Larruper climb the Leaning Tower in the bout which transferred the world's heavyweight championship from Primo to Maxie.

Baer and Carnera will repeat their title scrap a number of times each day on Thursday and Friday. The State Theatre will be the scene. The battling, to be sure, will be done on the screen—but the film contains the entire bout and fans will be able to settle for themselves whether Maxie knocked down Primo a dozen times or not and many other debated points.

Films of heavy weight championship bouts always prove good drawing cards. However, the Carnera-Baer scrap turned out to be such a slam-bang battle—with Maxie doing the slamming and Primo banging to the floor—that films of this latest championship fight should set a new high.

"It's all there, from the opening dcing until Baer's hand is raised in token of victory after the referee had stopped the bout in the 11th round; our advance information is that it's a top-notch picture," yesterday said T. Y. Walker, manager of the State Theatre.

Erin Puts Silence On Jazz.

Limerick, Ireland (AP)—The Thomond festival committee here was told by Patrick O'Flannagan that the death knell of jazz had been struck in the Irish Free State. The Athlone radio station has cut synoptical music from its programs and O'Flannagan said efforts would be made to wipe out all foreign dance music.

LARGE CANTALOUPE SHIPMENTS MADE

Edenton, N. C., July 18.—Approximately 31,000 cantaloupes were shipped out of Edenton on Friday, according to a report issued today from the packing plant at the Norfolk Southern freight station. Prices were considered good.

T. M. Britt, local representative of the Florida concern which is buying the melon here, said the first of this week that he did not expect the season to reach its height until next week.

The plant employs a number of girls and boys and men, who act as foremen. The melons are graded and picked over, then turned over to the girls for wrapping and packing into crates. Men gather these up and nail the tops on. They are then packed into refrigerator cars to begin their journey to Northern markets and tables.

Christopher In Danger

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER
"Well," said Willy Nilly to himself the next morning, "I must attend the weeds in my garden. My animal friends like to eat, and I must admit that I do, too."

"Then my automobile Two-Ways needs to be gone over thoroughly. And after I've finished all this I'll surely be able to attend to my stinking-out, pointed ears."

"In these nice summer days the Puddle Muddlers can find plenty to do without getting into any trouble. I think I'll go out to the garden at once and commence work."

But just then he noticed that every one was going for a swim, and Willy Nilly thought he would feel more refreshed, and work a great deal better. If he took a swim too. After hating him, he decided.

It was great fun there in the water with all his little friends, and the coolness of their bathing place made it all the more pleasant.

They all played water games and had swimming races and then Willy Nilly said:

"Now, there is no need for any of you to come with me, but I am going back to work in the garden."

The others asked him, (rather half-heartedly) if he wanted any help, but Willy Nilly said that he would accomplish a great deal more if he were alone.

So back he went along the ruts and bumps that were in the road that led to his place.

NEW BERN RIDES BUGS 10 TO 8 WIN

New Bern, N. C., July 18.—Smoky Ferebee's home run blast over the right field wall scored Manager Doc Mathis ahead of him in the twelfth inning to give New Bern a 10 to 1 victory over Greenville here yesterday.

Pandemonium reigned in the stands as the home run ball sailed into the gathering twilight to assure New Bern first victory since July 4. Mathis had walked with two out.

Each club collected 15 hits during the overtime thriller which saw Dean and Smith share the pitching duty for Greenville and McEvoy and Wheaton do the hurling for New Bern.

Ty Wagner clouted a homer and two singles to lead the Greensies, while Smoky Ferebee led New Bern with a double and a single in addition to his home run.

Although Smokey furnished the winning punch, the day was temporarily saved for New Bern by Bill Wheaton as his single in the ninth sent in the tying run. It was the second hit made by Wheaton, who had relieved McEvoy in the sixth, and the blow sent Dean to the showers.

Wings Shipp fielded sensationally for the locals. New Bern erred twice for the game's only misplays. Potts caught for Greenville. Timmerman made his debut as catcher for New Bern.

ROGERS MURKS SHUTOUT
Kinston, N. C., July 18.—With the season six week bid, the Snow Hill and Kinston clubs met yesterday in their first Coastal League Plain League game and Kinston lucked a 1 to 0 win.

Cecil Longest, former University of North Carolina pitcher, hurled for Snow Hill and dropped the decision to Olin Rogers, University of Virginia mound ace. Kinston made six hits, one of the scratch type; Snow Hill made three, one a scratch.

Rogers had his strikeout ball working nicely and whiffed an even dozen, including the veteran Peahead Walker who appeared in a pinch-hit role.

The lone run of the game came in the eighth. Catcher Jim Tatum singled. Rogers hit to center. The ball got away from Tuck, Snow Hill outfielder, and Tatum scored. From the stands Rogers' blow looked like a single and an error, but the umpires were positive that Tuck didn't get his tongue on the ball, and so the hit was recorded as a double.

Neither team was charged with an error. Lane, Kinston outfielder, cut off an apparent hit with a spectacular stab. Roy caught for Snow Hill.

The victory boosted to four full games Kinston's margin of leadership over the runner-up Ayden club.

TARBORO WINS AGAIN
Tarboro, N. C., July 18.—Tarboro's improved and hustling ball club made it three victories in a row by defeating Ayden yesterday, 3 to 1, behind good pitching at Dave Jenkins.

Jenkins, home town boys and Davidson College athlete, gave nine hits, but he kept them well separated. Ayden's lone run came in the eighth. Miller opened with a triple and, after two were out, scored on Knowles' single.

Tarboro made only seven hits off Byrd, Ayden flinger, but the safeties were mixed with errors to produce more than enough tallies to win. The locals counted twice in the second when Bill Croom's hits, an error, and a walk to Manager Perritt filled the bases and Pitcher Jenkins won his own game by hitting a single to bat in two tallies.

The other run came in the fifth on Longhkn's single, an error, Croom's long fly, and Longmire's single.

Mipiler, former Tarboro player, hit a triple and two singles to feature for Ayden. Knowles, with two hits, was next. No Tarboro player made more than one hit.

Bill Croom, former Carolina football captain, covered lots of territory in centerfield to handle six chances and feature defensive play.

Ayden made three errors; Tarboro made one.

Batteries: Ayden—Byrd and Stephenson; Tarboro—Jenkins and Perritt.

NEW BERN GERMAN 'WOVEN LEATHER' MAKES NOVELTY PRODUCTS

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—"Woven leather, a novel product for shoes, ladies' handbags, upholstery, etc., now being produced in Germany, has brought inquiries from many countries, in fifteen of which it is protected by patents, says the Department of Commerce.

Lightweight sheepskin is cut into squares, the edges beveled for seamless joints and glued together in an endless band. This is cut on a special machine into continuous strips. A weaving loom weaves the multi-colored strips into a fabric in which the warp is leather, while the deft is strong yarn.

CORNCOB KID—HE'S TWO AND A HALF, BUT LIKES HIS PIPE

Pittsburgh, Pa.—(AP)—Two-and-a-half-year-old Mickey Baehr's favorite pastime is smoking his grandfather's corncob pipe—which is plenty strong.

The pipe prodigy, whose parents live on Pittsburgh's north side, comes from a long line of smokers.

On the feminine side, his great-grandmother—aged 103—still smokes regularly.

The child's father, W. J. Baehr, said Mickey learned to smoke by soothing his gums on the corncob while the grandfather nodded in his chair. He had formed the habit before he was found out.

"If you want to see him raise a rumpus," said the father, "just try to take the pipe away from him."

New Drug Store Will Open Here In September

Messrs. Paul Bissette and C. W. Bynum, of Wilson, were Greenville visitors yesterday preparatory to opening a retail drug store about September 1.

While here Mr. Bissette signed a lease on the building on Evans Street at present occupied by the Smart Shoppe. The building will be remodelled and when completed the new store will be opened. The firm will operate under the name of Bissette's Drug Store, Inc. and will be under the management of Mr. Bynum.

Mr. Bissette said work on the building would be rushed to completion as soon as possible, but that it would probably be around September 1 before it was ready for occupancy.
