Stratosphere Balloon Sets Altitude Mark

BAG REACHES 22,000 FEET AT BRUSSELS

Max Cosyns and Nere Vanderlist Establish New Mark in Scientific Investigation Above Clouds; Balloonists Reported Suffering Severely From Cold; Present Record 16,210 Feet

Brussels, Aug. 18.—(AP)—It was announced today that a wireless report from the stratosphere balloonist stated today that Max Cosyns and Nere Vanderlist had ascended 22,000 meters (72,178.7 feet), a height which, if verified, has broken all existing altitude records.

The message was reported received at 3:20 p. m. (9:20 a. m. Eastern Standard Time), at which time the balloon was supposed to be above Creche-Slovakia and still able to remain in the air five more hours.

The balloonists were reported suffering from cold, but were well. Mr. Cosyns' present flight is for the purpose of scientific investigation rather than to set a record for altitude.

The scientist is co-holder with Professor Auguste Piccard of the present record of 16,210 meters set in a flight in Switzerland August 18, 1932.

LEAF BUYERS ARRIVE HERE

Advance Guard of Tobacco Men Arrive Here For Opening of Market Thursday

The advance guard of tobacco buyers from the Georgia tobacco markets began arriving in Greenville today for the opening of the bright leaf market here next Thursday morning.

Additional buyers were expected to trickle in from day to day between now and the opening period to be on the job ready to buy the tremendous offerings of golden weed of this section when the auctioneers begin their cry.

The first load of tobacco arrived on the local market Thursday afternoon and beginning Monday the pilgrimage here is expected to hit its stride. By the day preceding the opening all warehouse floors will be crowded with the golden weed as farmers attempt to determine the trend of prices.

Warehousemen and factory men reported the first of the week they were ready for receiving the golden harvest. They have improved their facilities to such extent that sales will be handled in the most expeditious manner in years.

Nine warehouses, including a new one in the heart of the tobacco district, will receive the offerings of growers from a radius of many miles of Greenville, and every comfort and convenience has been provided for the visitors while waiting for their tobacco to be sold.

Large and airy rest rooms, running ice water and other conveniences will be found at many of the houses, and ample sales forces also have been provided to handle the largest offerings with speed and precision.

With prices continuing to hold good in other belts, growers of this territory were looking forward to a good break Thursday with prices away above those of last season when the government took a hand to attempt to improve the condition of the industry.

PLAN FIELD EVENT HERE

Many Contests to Mark Greenville Kinston Game Here Next Wednesday

Wednesday, August 22 will be field day at the Third Street Park when Greenville and Kinston meet for the last time this season. The various contests will take place at 3:30 p. m., half hour before the game starts.

Numerous prizes will be given by the merchants and business houses to the winners of each event.

One of the stunts will be a barrel placed on second base and every player on both team will have one chance to throw at the barrel. The player who hits the ball's eye on the barrel will be the winner. Awards will be given the players on extra base hits, the player getting the most hits during the game, the player scoring the most runs, and the player that runs the bases in the shortest time.

T. Y. Walker, manager of the State Theatre, have invited the Greenville baseball players as his guests to see the show, "Baby Take a Bow," Tuesday night, August 21.

A large crowd is expected to be on hand next Wednesday for the field day exercises. Supt. J. H. Rose will be asked to officiate at the exercises. A number of the tobacco buyers and book men will be back from Georgia and it will be their last chance to see the Greenville players in action before the tobacco market opens.

DRIVE CAREFULLY TODAY

14% OF FATAL ACCIDENTS DOES NOT INCLUDE THE OTHER FELLOW

BE ALERT AND CAUTIOUS

The "Other fellow" isn't always to blame for automobile accidents. A recent study shows that in about 14 per cent of fatal accidents, the driver simply ran off the road—on other cars, no pedestrians involved. Inattention, failure to observe sane speed limits and caution signs probably caused most of these crashes. Be alert, be cautious.

BOOSTER MEET WOUNDED BOY DRAWS CROWD CHANGES TALE

Ticket Sale to Gathering Here Monday Night Continues to Increase

Interest in the "Community Booster" meeting to be given at the Yum Yum Barbecue Palace next Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock continued to increase today, and the ticket sales committee reported that nearly two hundred persons had made reservations for seats at the banquet table.

The object of the gathering is to boost the Greenville tobacco market, which swings open next Thursday morning, and all persons interested in the industry are urged to attend the meeting and do their bit toward boosting the single greatest industry in this section.

J. C. Lanier of Greenville, tobacco warehouse code administrator, will be the principal speaker. He will speak on the subject of the code as it relates to the various tobacco belts. Mr. Lanier has spoken in numbers of the code administration and his address here was being looked forward to with keen anticipation.

Ralph Deal, member of the faculty of East Carolina Teachers College, will be toastmaster, and three-minute talks will be made by members of the various professions represented at the meeting.

The ticket sales committee is composed of R. L. Powell, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and D. C. Moore, Jr., secretary of the Kiwanis Club.

CIVIL COURT TO OPEN MONDAY

Two Week Mixed Term of Superior Court To Hold Forth Next Two Weeks

A two week mixed term of Pitt County Superior Court will convene here Monday morning with Judge R. Hunt Parker of Roanoke Rapids, presiding.

The first week will be confined to the hearing of civil cases and the last to criminal.

The civil calendar completed last week contains something like forty cases, the majority of which are expected to be completed during the week's sitting, either through direct hearing or compromise.

The criminal docket will contain many cases, featured by two or three murder actions and numbers of charges of robbery and other cases of a similar nature.

This will be the first time Judge Parker has ever held court in this city. He has been on the bench for a number of years, serving in other sections of the state and his coming here was being looked forward to with interest by member of the bar and court attaches.

Although civil court will bring only a handful of people here from day to day, the criminal session will be marked by tremendous crowds and the courtroom probably will be crowded to overflowing each day.

North Carolina schools, which serve free lunches to pupils, report a noticeable increase in attendance.

Under Suspicion

ONTARIO LEAF CROP DAMAGED

Cyclone and Hail Storm Causes Widespread Damage in Three Counties

George Kittrell, of the Winterville community, who is now engaged in instructing Canadians how to cure tobacco in the Delhi, Ontario, community, wrote The Daily Reflector today of widespread damage caused by a cyclone and hail storm recently visiting that section.

He said between 1,000 and 1,200 acres of tobacco were flattened by the wind and hail which struck the rich Norfolk County area. The area affected was a mile wide and twelve miles long.

Many buildings were razed, stock yards destroyed and highway littered with three and debris.

Areas of Ingersoll, in Oxford County, Delhi, in Norfolk County, and Guthrie, in Simco County, felt the brunt of the storm, although the immediate vicinity of Delhi was not as severely damaged as the remainder of the territory.

Delhi, Kittrell said, is in the center of the flue-cured tobacco industry of Ontario.

He stated that Norfolk County had nearly 700 tobacco curers from North Carolina and Virginia already on the job with others on the way.

Kittrell described the Canadian crop as fair to medium as result of a long spell of dry weather. He said the crop was two weeks later than usual.

SEEK TO MAKE ROYAL MATCH

King Alexander Seeks to Promote Marriage of King George's 4th Son

Bled, Yugo-Slavia, Aug. 18.—(AP)—King Alexander's object in inviting Prince George of England to be his guest in the royal summer palace here, was learned on high authority today to be directed towards promoting a marriage between the British king's fourth son and Princess Mariana, the third daughter of Prince Nicholas and Princess Olga of Greece.

This authority stated that Prince Paul, Alexander's nephew, who is very close to the king and has been designated as match-maker because he speaks fluent English.

It was further said that the fact that Paul is an Oxford graduate makes him peculiarly fitted to deal with George who arrived here several days ago.

POOL TO BEGIN CLOSING AT 10

Municipal Recreation Center to be Open From 6 to 7 P. M. for Business Men

The Greenville swimming pool will begin closing at 10 o'clock Monday night, August 20, it was made known today by Eric Tucker, manager of the municipal project.

Tucker said in order that business men may enjoy a swim between closing time and supper the pool would not be closed from 6 to 7 o'clock. He said it was the desire of the city to run the pool for the convenience of the public, and if enough people take advantage of the hour from 6 to 7 it will continue as a part of the regular schedule.

Tucker also stated that Mr. Uzzle, city chemist, had made an analysis of the pool water and stated that it was pure and free of bacteria. He said the chemist declared there was not enough chlorine used in the water to affect the eyes and ears.

It was also declared emphatically that Devil's Grip and ear infections were not caused by going in the pool, and that swimmers of the community may enjoy the pastime in the utmost safety.

PHILLIPS TO SPEAK HERE

Hookerton Minister To Deliver Sermon At Union Services Sunday Evening

Rev. J. G. Phillips of Hookerton, will deliver the sermon at union services on the court house lawn tomorrow evening, it was made known today.

Mr. Phillips, who is supplying for Dr. G. R. Combs, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church tomorrow evening, is considered a forceful speaker and members of the denomination are looking forward to his appearance here with pleasure.

The following Sunday evening Rev. J. R. Potts, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will be the speaker. It will make the second time Mr. Potts has spoken at the series of services which opened about two months ago. His sermon will conclude the series.

The largest crowd of the summer was present last Sunday night. Every available seat was taken and scores stood on the outskirts of the crowd, listening intently to the strong gospel sermon brought by Rev. R. F. Pittman of Ayden.

Indications today were that the crowd tomorrow evening would be as great as the previous Sunday and special efforts were being made today to provide sufficient seats to take care of the attendance.

The services are sponsored by the Ministerial Association, of which Rev. A. W. Fleischmann, pastor of Memorial Baptist Church, is president, and every effort is being put forward to make the two concluding services the best of the summer.

Members of all denominations were urged to be present and help swell attendance to the largest yet. Song services will be in charge of the Methodist choir.

C. H. Bishop, Greenville tobaccoist, died at the government hospital at Lake City, Florida, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, according to information received here late yesterday afternoon. He was 37 years old.

Mr. Bishop, who was employed for two weeks by Moore and Lassiter, Valdosta, Ga., warehousemen, was stricken while carrying the book on a sale August 1, and was immediately rushed to Lake City for medical attention.

Meager reports received here stated an examination revealed he was suffering from a tumor of the brain and death resulted from a cerebral hemorrhage.

W. Z. Morton, member of the tobacco warehouse firm of Forbes & Morton, where Mr. Bishop was employed here, said he received a telegram from a brother of the deceased telling of the death and stating that funeral services would be held in Carrollton, Ky., this afternoon.

SAYS HE WAS DRIVEN ABOUT THE COUNTRY

Minister Tells Nashville Officers he Was Kidnapped by Three Men at Raleigh, N.C. Talked to by Day and Given Sleeping Portion at Night; Wife Expresses Thanks on Receipt of News

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 18.—(AP)—R. H. Askew, 28-year-old North Carolina evangelist, walked into the Nashville police station today and said he had been in the hands of kidnapers since last Tuesday.

Dressed in overalls, the "four-square" gospel minister said his three abductors had taken his clothes away from him in Washington and then driven him around the country until about midnight this morning when they put him out on the edge of Nashville.

He told of being driven to Richmond, Va., Washington, Knoxville, and "I don't know where else."

Askew said he was en route from Goldsboro to Smithfield with about $40 to buy some brick for his church when he was stopped by a man at a cross-roads between Catch-Me-Eye and Pine Level.

The man, the evangelist told officers, told him he had a sick child in Raleigh and asked to be driven to a hospital there.

Arriving in Raleigh, the evangelist continued, they stopped near a city park so that his passenger might go to a nearby hospital. A car drove up with three men, and one poking a pistol against his ribs, told him to "Step in."

"I got in," he added.

The evangelist related that the three men gave his passengers "some money," and then started off with him, talking to him by night and in the day time forcing him to swallow some kind of tablets—"something that made me sleep."

A letter demanding $25,000 of Amy Semple McPherson, the evangelist, for the release of Askew was turned over to Los Angeles police yesterday, but the minister said he did not know why he was abducted and said he had not been asked to sign any note.

Asked by detectives what the three men talked to him about during their travels, he replied:

"They were trying to find out if I had any money or my people or Mrs. McPherson had any. I told them my people did not, and I didn't know whether Mrs. McPherson did, but if she did it couldn't be very much, as she is like everybody else."

He told of being relieved of the $40 that he intended to use for his church.

The three men did not mistreat him, Askew told his questioners, "but talked rough and shoved me around some."

Goldsboro, N. C., Aug. 18.—(AP)—Mrs. R. H. Askew received the news that her missing husband was safe in Nashville today with an expression of divine thanks. The news was given her by Talbert Patrick, publisher of the Goldsboro News-Argus, whose Associated Press wires brought the information to Goldsboro that the missing 28-year-old evangelist was safe.

As Patrick brought his car to a stop before the two-story frame house where the Askews live, Mrs. Askew was sitting on the front porch with a brother of Watagua County and other relatives.

"Good news, good news," called the publisher.

Mrs. Askew, who is about 50 years old, and a large woman, got up heavily from her chair and took a stumbling step down from the porch.

"Mr. Askew has been found in Nashville, Tenn.," Patrick said.

She lifted her hands, palm upwards above her head, and looking to the sky, said: "Glory be."

Chapter Four BIG BERTHA

SOME of the ballyhoo posters were still in place, and if you had judged from these and not from the smallness and shabbiness of the tents, you would have judged that the Mataasort Circus was of monstrous caliber and world fame. The dark jungle beyond was lighted here and there by long strong slanting shafts of sunlight.

Bowers and his Malay chauffeur hunted about for traces of an animal trainer. In the first three ideshow tents they found only evidences of hasty packing and abandonment. But in the fourth tent, which was very little, they found a woman who was big.

The ballyhoo posters without, had informed them that her name was

"And only a guinea aac." said Bowers. "I find that I cannot be happy with less than six."

He selected six of the photographs pretty much at random, pocketed them and paid for them. This was the easiest money that Big Bertha had seen in many a day, and she wondered if by any chance, the young and obviously rich young man was one of those very rare Americans who admire fat. His next question seemed to suggest to her heart, which easy money rendered extremely susceptible, that he was.

"Now that the show is on the rocks," he said, "what are you going to do for a living?"

Big Bertha bridled and even simpered. "In Oriental countries," she said, "women of my type don't have to worry about the old daily bread. If she thought to have made a conquest, she was undecieved by the next question which was asked her. It was asked in a very businesslike way.

"Can you perhaps," said Bowers, "tell me if the animal trainer is still on the premises?"

Big Bertha became instantly cold and distant. Doubtless she thought she resembled a queen dismissing an unsatisfactory subject.

"I'm reading 'Eat and Grow Thin'."

Big Bertha, that she was a genuine English lady, and that she weighed six hundred pounds. To many Orientals, adiposity and beauty are synonymous.

At the sight of the representation of the vast woman on the poster, the Malay chauffeur, who was young and by nature predatory and a waster where women were concerned, made a clicking noise with the tip of his tongue. Big Bertha, who must actually have weighed very close to six hundred pounds, dressed in her best pink tights and velvet trunks, sat on a tin trunk, reading a book.

She had clear-cut features of the usual size; but by the scale of her body, they seemed small and a can. It is probable that she heard the sounds of the two men entering the tent, for they had lifted a flap of the canvas and let it fall rattlingly behind them, but she did not look up. Bowers cleared his throat and said:

"I beg your pardon."

With a most snobbish imitation of an English gentleman's way of speaking, and transferring her gaze from the book to the intruders, Big Bertha murmured the one word: "Granted." Then she laid her book open and face down, on the trunk beside her, and picked up a handy sheet of highly varnished photographs.

"You will 'ardly wish to show up at 'ome," she said, "without one of these."

BOWERS took the photographs in his hands and looked through them. While he was thus engaged, Big Bertha perceived that the chauffeur stood rooted and gazed upon her with awe and rapture. She dropped him a wink, accompanied by faint twisting of her gigantic torso.

This incontinent romance was interrupted by Bowers, who had been reading the fine print at the bottom of the photographs.

"Did you really weigh twenty nine pounds at birth?" he asked, and his voice there was a kind of horrified admiration.

"Twenty-nine pounds to an ounce," said Big Bertha, "and the water only a little sprite of a woman. Fancy!"

reputations in national politics desired promotion to the Senate. Both Jacob L. Milligan and Jack Cochran saw their hopes smashed by the powerful political machine of "Boss" Pendergrass of Kansas City.

"Will Youth Be Served?"

Down in Tennessee the handsome and youthful Gordon Browning debated for a long while whether he should attempt entry into the Senate from the House by running against the veteran Kenneth McKellar or a newcomer to the field of national politics, Nathan Bachman-appointed to fill the vacancy created when Cordell Hull became Mr. Roosevelt's Secretary of State.

Browning finally decided to run against Bachman and was decisively beaten. What has been called one of the most promising careers among the younger Democrats in Congress has been halted abruptly.

And so it has gone. The political fate of other youngsters of both parties will hang in the balance between now and the November elections. ■■■■■

Monday, Bowers meets a strange young woman.

He gathered presently that the voice was the voice of an exasperated mother, dressing down a daughter who had misbehaved. The scolding came to a sudden stop, and Bowers had begun to lift the flap of the tent, when it started up again.

Eastern Cotton Oil Co., Gives Annual Picnic

Roy L. Harris, district manager of the Eastern Cotton Oil Co., gave the annual picnic of the concern at Core Point yesterday. Six hundred farmers enjoyed the hospitality of the firm and ate heartily of the bounteous supply of barbecue, fish stew and other things going along with the two favorite dishes.

After the dinner, guests enjoyed bathing and fishing.

The Eastern Cotton Oil Co. is distributor of fertilizers and Mr. Harris is manager for the Eastern North Carolina district.

Berlin.—(AP)—With a generous and paternal hand the Nazis are dealing out recreation and sugar-coated propaganda simultaneously to thousands of workers by the "power through joy" movement.

Theater parties, sports, night classes, museum trips and vacation journeys to various parts of Germany and to Norway's fjords, serve to remind the worker that a benevolent government is interested in strengthening his cultural life.

Report Claims Big Success

Great claims to success are made for the first months of the movement. One report states that in one month alone 70,000 men and women attended performances in the People's Theater, 12,500 were taken on conducted tours through museums, 32,000 had vacation trips and 3,500 Berlin resident took night courses in English, French and shorthand.

During the recent vacation of storm troopers many of the brown shirts enjoyed trips arranged by the bureau.

"The Nazi 'power through joy' movement in greater Berlin is proud of its accomplishments," says the review. "It is progressing along its difficult road. Everyone is marching with us: Our aim is 'joy in life for German work'."

Excursions Cost Little

Excursions lasting a day or a week are offered at surprisingly low costs. For about $9.00 a worker can spend seven days in the Black Forest. For less than $17 he can have a week's voyage to Scandinavia. One-day trips from Berlin cost from $1.20 to $1.80.

Instruction in swimming, gymnastics, tennis, and boxing is given for less than a dollar for courses of seven lessons.

Brightly-colored posters emphasizing the value of sound bodies, a swimming "week" with the slogan "every German a swimmer," and a mounting interest in the coming Olympic games help to arouse enthusiasm for sports.

More than 200,000 persons have seen the propaganda play, "The Whitsuntide Organ," at the People's Theater—once the playhouse of the famous producer, Max Reinhardt, but now in the possession of the "power through joy" organization. Tickets cost 20 cents or less.

"We are pioneers of a new standard of life," exclaims Guenther Adams, a Nazi district leader, in reviewing the ambitious program of the movement.

Teach Worth of Workers

"We national socialists have put new meaning into the lives of German people, but our work must not end with the achieving of political power. On the contrary, our battle for the soul of the people will continue for years.

"The German worker of the brain and hand must not live only to carry on the daily struggle for bread. The laborer ought to know his own value.

"We are building a new social order and, what is more important, we are arousing a new consciousness of culture; it is task of the national socialist power through joy organization to make the valuable German culture available to every worker."

SUSTAINS PENALTY IN BURLINGTON CASE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 18.—(AP)—The board of tax appeals today had sustained a 1929 income tax deficiency and penalty of $4,953 levied against the Liberty Hosiery Mills of Burlington, N. C.

The board denied a bad debt deduction of $19,291.27, which the Liberty Company charged to its sales account for 1929, but did not then claim as a bad debt deduction and deductions of commissions and taxes, but allowed amounts paid in settlement of a royalty claim and bonuses to employees.

CLARK CALLS THREAT OF STRIKE 'MERE BLUFF'

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 18.—(AP)—David Clark, publisher of the Textile Bulletin, asserted today there was "no threat of a general strike among the textile workers of the South."

Clark termed the threat of a general strike at the annual convention of the United Textile Workers in New York "merely a bluff."

"Southern textile workers are not going to obey any general order for a strike. There may be a few workers in a few isolated cases that would strike, but as a general thing a program of this kind is destined to failure.

The reason Southern textile workers are not going to strike is that they have no reason to strike and the know it."

Announcement of W. S. Moye CENTRE BRICK WAREHOUSE

GREENVILLE, N. C.

TO MY FARMER FRIENDS:—

I am now ready for the OPENING of the GREENVILLE TOBACCO MARKET. I am ready to receive and weigh off your tobacco when it comes.

We expect a good season for the farmers. TOBACCO will sell high, and we farmers will get the frown of our faces that we have worn so long, AND SMILE AGAIN.

I want to express my appreciation to my Farmer friends for their liberal support in the past, and assure you that it will be my pleasure to help you when I can in the future.

I have sold a liberal share of the tobacco in Greenville since I have been on the market. I have been running a sale for fifteen years, and my business has grown each year. I sold last year more than I have any season before. I own, operate and finance my own business and can be found at the same place every year.

My business has been built on a high standard by dealing FAIR AND SQUARE WITH THE FARMERS AND BUYERS. The buyers know they will get a square deal in my house, and the farmers know they will get the highest market price for their tobacco when they sell with me.

My average has been right much above the market price for the past several years.

I have a courteous and competent force this year, and am better equipped than ever before to serve you.

If a full set of buyers are on to start with, I will have first sale opening day, Thursday. If not, I will have first sale Friday and Monday.

Every warehouse in town has a large iron safe, and sufficient clerks to take care of your selling cards, if you want them to do so, I would advise you to take care of your own cards, so you can sell where you please.

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—Ambitious youth's aspirations for a larger stake in the sphere of national politics, nurtured and encouraged by both major political parties in recent years, has found both hope and despair in developments to date.

Bold gestures have been made thus far by the younger politicians in this by-election year. Some have been successful—brilliantly so; others have fizzled in rather miserable fashion.

The outstanding achievement to date is the coup of the 29-year-old Rush D. Holt, of West Virginia, in capturing the Democratic senatorial nomination in that State. This youngster, who will be six months short of the constitutional age requirement of thirty, elected to the Senate in November, routed two old-line politicians in his conquest.

One, Clem Shaver, former chairman of the Democratic National Committee, had the "personal" endorsement of Jim Farley. The other, William A. Chilton, is a former U. S. Senator.

On the Other Hand—

Gratifying as Holt's victory in West Virginia may be to young hopefuls of the Democratic party, however, the fate of others who aimed high is not forgotten.

There's the case of young Joe Bailey, of Texas, who aspired to occupy the seat in the Senate once held by his illustrious father. In a bitterly-fought primary campaign against the veteran Hom Connally, Bailey was not only defeated but in the opinion of veteran Texas politicians, utterly flattened. It may take years from him to recoup his lost prestige in the Lone Star State.

In Missouri much the same thing happened. Two of the younger members of the House from that State who had achieved considerable

Brewer-Clarke.
A wedding of unusual beauty and charming simplicity was solemnized this afternoon at three o'clock when Miss Mary Louise Clarke and James W. Brewer were married at the home of the bride. Rev. J. R. Potts of the Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. Only the immediate family and a few intimate friends were present.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Olive Clarke, sister of the bride, played "I Love You Truly," at which time the tapers were lighted. "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses" was softly rendered during the ceremony.

The interior of the home was softly lighted by candle glow. Ferns, long-leaf pine and baskets of white asters formed a background for the altar. On either side of the altar were tall standards filled with white lilies and fern and tied with large bows of white mauline.

To the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin the bride descended the stairs and was met by the bridegroom. Together they entered the living room and proceeded to the altar where the vows were spoken.

The bride wore an ensemble of brown triple-sheer crepe with fingertip jacket. Her accessories were brown and she wore a lovely shoulder corsage of briarhuff roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos O. Clarke. She was educated in the city schools and was graduated from East Carolina Teachers College in 1932.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brewer. He attended the city schools and is connected with the city Water & Light Commission.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left by motor for Washington City by way of the Shenandoah Valley. Upon their return they will be at home at 1018 Dickinson Avenue.

Presbyterian Auxiliary To Meet.
The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will meet in the basement of the church Monday afternoon at 4:30.

All members are urged to attend.

Summer School Closes Friday.
The summer school of East Carolina Teachers College will come to close on next Friday, August 24. Commencement exercises will be held at ten o'clock in the Austin Auditorium. Dr. L. R. Meadows, acting president and director of the summer school, will deliver the address.

There will be more than fifty graduates, with the group of those receiving degrees only a little smaller than those receiving diplomas for completion of the two-year course.

The exercises will not be long, but they will be of the same dignified, formal nature as the regular June commencement, with a short musical program, an address, and the formal awarding of degrees and presentation of diplomas. Marshals in full regalia will manage the audience. A number from a distance are expected to attend, members of the families and friends of the graduates, and other interested in the college.

College Faculty Entertains.
The festive scene on the college campus on Thursday evening, from nine to ten o'clock, shared honors with the swimming pool in the interest it aroused in spectators. Those who were driving on Fifth street were attracted by the Japanese lanterns, gay groups, and the music. It was an old-timey lawn party given in honor of the summer school students of the second term.

Miss Thomas was at the piano most of the time, with a group around her, singing one favorite after another until the finale "Good-Night Ladies."

Misses Hooper and Newell were the hostesses for the faculty. At a signal all lined up and filed by a table from which they were served ice cream and cake. Small groups assembled here and there sitting on the grass or benches and gossiping or swapped yarns.

The younger generation seemed to enjoy the novelty of a party outdoors that left them to their resources to amuse themselves, while the minds of the older ones flashed back to the days when lawn parties and ice cream suppers were frequent.

Every Thursday afternoon or evening since the opening of the summer school there has been some special social affair. There will be just one more big social event this summer. A dinner in honor of the graduating classes will be served on next Thursday evening. All of the graduates from both the four-year and two-year classes, members of the faculty and staff and their wives, will be the guests.

Debutante Ball September 28th.
Raleigh, Aug. 18.—Beautiful young women from the whole State of North Carolina will assemble in Raleigh on Friday, September 28, to be presented to society at the annual Debutante Ball. The ball which will be held in the Memorial Auditorium, is the fourteenth consecutive affair of its kind to be held in this State. It is sponsored by the Terpsichorean Cotillion Club of Raleigh, an organization composed of a group of prominent young men of this city.

More than 300 invitations will be issued during the coming week to girls of North Carolina. Immediately following the acknowledgment of these invitations, the girls will receive dozens of other invitations to events which precede and follow the Debutante Ball itself. The whole week is given over to debutante activities in Raleigh and the young women present for the occasion are feted throughout each day.

Every year the Debutante Ball in Raleigh has become better known until at the present time its fame has reached far beyond this State. Hundreds of visiting boys and girls of college age and more, come from Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia and Maryland to attend the affair. The flashing white of uniforms of untold numbers of midshipmen from Annapolis and the glint of their brass buttons add glamour to the scene, which of course features the lovely debutantes gowned in shimmering white.

Committees on arrangements have been working on the Debutante Ball for some time in Raleigh and elsewhere. An unusually large attendance is expected this year at the event which officially opens North Carolina's winter social season.

Party For Mrs. Cannon.
Washington, N. C., Aug. 17.—On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Harding entertained at bridge honoring their house guest, Mrs. A. R. Cannon of Greenville.

The spacious living room, where the tables were arranged, was made very lovely for the occasion with many summer flowers, a color scheme of pink and green being carried out in the tallies, favors and refreshments.

While the card games were in progress delicious iced punch was served.

Mrs. Andrew Hodges won high score among the ladies, while Mr. Watson was the gentleman holding the top score. Each was presented an attractive gift. In addition to the guest of honor prize, going to Mrs. Cannon, Mrs. Thomas Segrest of Orlando, Fla., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Bowen, was awarded a remembrance.

Ices with cakes and mints were served when the card games were concluded.

Africa's Veteran Premier Mal Rule As King's Deputy
By GIDEON SEYMOUR
Capetown.—(AP)—General J. B. M. Hertzog, one of the few political leaders in the world who has been able to ride out the depression, has entered upon his eleventh year as prime minister of South Africa.

Political circles hear that his career may be crowned next year by appointment to the governor generalship of the Union.

Would Placate Boers
Designation by King George of a "native son" instead of an Englishman as governor-general of a British commonwealth would not be unprecedented. But in the case of Hertzog it would have unusual significance as a climatic gesture in Britain's long effort to placate the Boers.

For "Barry" Hertzog is a Boer, won his military title fighting the English at the turn of the century, and came into office in 1924 as a nationalist insistent upon South Africa's right to independence even to the extent of secession and establishment of a republic.

Hertzog Views Change
In ten years Hertzog has turned gradually to the conviction that the future of South Africa is a self-determining unit of the British empire. But he still is looked to as leader by many Dutch farmers whose yearnings for increased home rule would be gratified by his selection for a post hitherto held by English earls.

If General Hertzog, who is 67, should leave the prime ministry, it probably would fall again to General Jan Smuts, himself a Boer commander against England but an ardent advocate of co-operation with the English.

He was in the first union government of General Louis Molha and became the second prime minister. Although he was overthrown by Hertzog in 1924 he became Hertzog's minister of justice in a coalition government last year. The twain made political peace complete by fusing their parties, which together hold 138 of 150 seats in parliament.

If general elections in 1935 should see the united party returned to power, the stage would be set for the appointment of Hertzog as governor-general — perhaps when he attends the celebration in London next year of King George's silver jubilee.

Grandson of T. R. In Russian Garb At Soviet School
Moscow.—(AP)—Kermit Roosevelt, Jr., grandson of the Rough Rider President, and other American students of the summer school at Moscow University, have bought themselves gayly-embroidered Russian blouses.

They are not distinguishable from Muscovites as they wander through local museums or join "comrades" at the recreation parks and theaters.

The "third soviet house" in which the 200 Americans live, is a rambling three-story building with a shaded garden. Lecture rooms, dormitories and dining rooms are all under one roof.

Large, airy rooms containing from five to fifteen hospital beds, each have been provided for the visitors. There are also study rooms and a library.

On each floor there are shops which supply Russian clothing, post cards, stationery, curios and sweets.

The Americans are taking chiefly courses in Russian history, literature, art and politics. Lectures on the soviet system are supplemented by visits to various institutions in Moscow and the immediate vicinity.

After four weeks in Moscow the Americans will travel for two weeks to various parts of the Soviet Union.

Man Gets Permit To Hang Himself
Sordevolo, Italy.—(AP)—One of the most unusual permits ever granted by the constituted authorities allows Domenico Otella of this town, a butcher and sometimes an actor, to hang himself.

He may do so whenever and as often as he pleases. His announced intention is to make immediate use of the authority by suspending himself from the limb of a tree.

Domenico has hanged himself many times without harmful results. But whereas in the past he has been able to remain hanging only five minutes he believes now he can lengthen that period to ten.

Achievement of such a feat, however, requires practice and it is for that purpose Domenico obtained the permit.

He takes the part of Judas in the annual passion play given here. Once yearly for more than two decades audiences have applauded while he dangled from a tree.

Inhabitants of Sordevolo have long since ceased to be alarmed when Domenico casually suspends himself in this neighborhood. But when two small boys perceived him decorating a limb in an apple orchard in nearby Saint Vincent, they dashed through town screaming the news. The villagers flocked to the spot to find him preparing for a second try. They brought him down by sheer force, exchanged meaning glances over his explanation, then telegraphed his parents to come immediately.

Fearing something tragic had happened, they came, but they found that their son had merely been hanging himself. Thereupon they accompanied him to the village authorities and obtained the permit whereby Domenico, without interference from the public may hang to his heart's content.

Words And Squeals
By MARY GRAHAM BONNER
"You're a pig," shouted one pig to another.
"Of course I am, squeal, squeal, and a pride and joy to my mother. Always be a real pig," she has told me many times, and I try to do as she has taught me."
"But that's mine," said the first pig.

"The one who gets it has it," grunted the other. "Don't you know pig rules? You're very ignorant."
"Don't you get enough to eat at home?" asked a third pig of yet another.
"I never get enough to eat," the pig answered. "Besides, I can see through your little tricks. I've got a good pig head on my shoulders. You want to shame me into not eating here by making me want to act as though I had such good food in my own pen that I couldn't be hungry anywhere else. I see through you."
The pigs were pulling at the food Willy Nilly had given them—each pig living up to the lessons which had been taught in the home pen. The chief lesson of all had been: "Grab, grab, grab."
Willy Nilly thought they had harmed the place so much there was little else they could do.
The hens and roosters and chickens were ruining his garden with their scratching and digging, the pigs were everywhere, but the ducks were at last being led down to the pond for a swim. Willy Nilly thought Mr. and Mrs. Quack were very clever to have managed this.
But now Willy Nilly heard angry, barking growls. Would there be a dog fight too? Puddle Muddle was in an uproar.

Words And Squeals
By MARY GRAHAM BONNER
"You're a pig," shouted one pig to another.
"Of course I am, squeal, squeal, and a pride and joy to my mother. Always be a real pig," she has told me many times, and I try to do as she has taught me."
"But that's mine," said the first pig.

"The one who gets it has it," grunted the other. "Don't you know pig rules? You're very ignorant."
"Don't you get enough to eat at home?" asked a third pig of yet another.

"I never get enough to eat," the pig answered. "Besides, I can see through your little tricks. I've got a good pig head on my shoulders. You want to shame me into not eating here by making me want to act as though I had such good food in my own pen that I couldn't be hungry anywhere else. I see through you."

The pigs were pulling at the food Willy Nilly had given them—each pig living up to the lessons which had been taught in the home pen. The chief lesson of all had been: "Grab, grab, grab."

Willy Nilly thought they had harmed the place so much there was little else they could do. The hens and roosters and chickens were ruining his garden with their scratching and digging, the pigs were everywhere, but the ducks were at last being led down to the pond for a swim.

Willy Nilly thought Mr. and Mrs. Quack were very clever to have managed this. But now Willy Nilly heard angry, barking growls. Would there be a dog fight too? Puddle Muddle was in an uproar.

Woodworth, with three singles, and Weaver, with a double and a single, led Greenville. Memborn and Newsome, each with two singles, topped Snow Hill. Perry hit a homer for the visitors.

The locals out-hit Snow Hill, 10 to 9.

TARBORO BEATS KINSTON
Tarboro, N. C., Aug. 18.—Tarboro checked Kinston's winning streak and high-scoring habit by taking a 6 to 5 victory here yesterday afternoon. The loss did not alter Kinston's position at the head of the league race as other division clubs also were beaten.

Most of the big toins in the game here came in the eighth inning. The visitors rallied in their half to score three runs and take a 5 to 3 lead, but Tarboro came right back in the home half to match the Kinston trio and set the score at its final count of 6 to 5.

Biggs opened Tarboro's eighth by hitting a homer. Loughn's double, Longmore's single, and Richardson's double brought two more runs. After Richardson had doubled, Bolger came in to relieve Physic on the mound for Kinston. The southpaw retired the side.

McKeithan started on the hill for Kinston, but retired for a pinch-hitter during the visitor's eighth. McKeithan hit a homer in the fifth. Rogers, who took singles in three tries, led Kinston's attack. Biggs hit a homer and a single, and Richardson hit two doubles for Tarboro.

The locals out-hit Kinston, 10 to 9. Tarboro made two errors, only miscues of the game.
Batteries: Kinston—McKeithan, Physic, Bolger and Tatum; Tarboro—Shoaf and Richardson.

NEW BERN TOPS AYDEN
Ayden, N. C., Aug. 18.—New Bern handed Ayden a ten to four defeat yesterday afternoon in a game that was marked principally by complaints by players and fans on the work of Umpire Stanford.

The visitors tallied half of their runs in the fifth, and that big innings proved enough to win behind the pitching of Stuart Flythe. Flythe allowed six hits. The visitors made nine safeties off Doug Johnson and Jim Shields. Seven of their tallies came against Johnson, who pitched seven innings.

Patton, with three hits in four chances, and Mathis, with two for three, led New Bern. Doc Smith, with two hits in as man tries, was high for Ayden.

Royal, Ayden shortstop, made four of the locals' six errors. However, he also turned in several brilliant plays to feature on defense.
H. Ferebee caught for New Bern; Doc Smith caught for Ayden.

New York Cotton

New York, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened easy, three points higher to two points lower, with steadier Liverpool cables offset by herge selling, liquidation and the unfavorable textile labor situation.

December declined to 13.32 and May to 13.56 right after the call making net losses of about four to six points, but offerings were not heavy and were well taken. At the end of the first half hour December was holding around 13.34 with the general market showing losses of three to four points.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Extreme apathy tended to drag prices downward today in one of the dullist Saturday sessions in the stock market in more than ten years. Much of the list was barely changed, but there were numerous losses of fractions to more than a point. The closing tone was easy.

Transfers were 180,000 shares. Such commodity markets as were open failed to provide any stimulus to shares.

Grains rallied in the early trading but cotton moved narrowly. The bond market held about steady.

Week-end business surveys continued to stress the prospect of an autumn pick-up. The volume of retail trade was regarded as healthy for this season, and with the vacation season drawing to a close, scattered improvement in industrial operations was expected as soon to be apparent.

Notes Down Fund For Strikers
New York, Aug. 18.—(AP)—The United Textile Workers of America today voted down a proposal carrying a tax on workers designed to raise $15,000 a month as a "war chest" for the projected strike of 500,000 cotton textile workers.

At the same time Francis J. Gorman, the first vice-president of the union, announced that he would open strike headquarters in Washington Monday at which time executive officers will confer with President William Green of the American Federation of Labor.

Condemned Negro Dead.
Raleigh, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Death cheated the North Carolina electric chair today of an intended October victim.

Ell Spencer, Moore county negro, convicted slayer of his wife, who was brought to state prison yesterday to await execution October 18, fell dead today while he was being finger printed by Capt. Bowen Dorsey.

The negro sought to escape the chair by taking his own life in the county jail at Carthage a few days ago but the effects of the poison he drank were not immediately fatal.

Sheriff C. J. MacDonald of Moore county, reported that he had apparently recovered and early this morning there was nothing to warn of his condition.

As Capt. Dorsey, who has never seen an execution, took the negro's hand to make a fingerprint Spencer collapsed and fell to the floor. Before the prison physician could be summoned he was dead.

To Confer On Strike.
Washington, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Robert Bruere, chairman of the Industrial Relations Board for the cotton textile and silk and wool manufacturing industries, told reporters today he would call meetings of both groups next week to discuss the projected general strike in the textile industry ordered by Sept. 1.

REVENUE MEN WILL CHECK ON LEAF SALES

Winston-Salem, N. C., Aug. 18.—It is expected that at least one, and probably two, internal revenue department men for each set of buyers, will be located on the local leaf tobacco market the coming season, according to information received Wednesday morning from Frank Hancock representative of this district in Congress. Mr. Hancock has recommended a group of men to act in this capacity and appointments are expected to be made in a short time by the Department of Agriculture.

The men will keep check on the local sales throughout the season in regard to execution of certain provisions of the Kerr-Smith act. In this connection attention is being called to the necessity of keeping proper records as to handling of the tobacco crop in the warehouses. The phase of the work relates to agricultural warrants providing for certain exemption, and the other phase pertains to the payment of tax by affixing revenue stamps on the sales tickets.

SEEK TO RE-ESTABLISH GOVERNMENT OFFICE

New Bern, N. C., Aug. 18.—With a view to re-establishing the customs office here, if conditions are found justifiable, John B. Boone, customs agent at Norfolk, was here Thursday as a special representative of the Federal government to confer with Representative C. L. Abernethy, other leaders and shippers, as to shipping through the local port.

Mr. Boone was sent here by James H. Moyle, Commissioner of Customs, at the request of Congressman Abernethy, who with C. L. Abernethy, Jr., had a conference with Commissioner Moyle in Washington on July 31, urging re-establishment of the local port office, abolished October 13, 1933, by executive order of President Roosevelt, who at the same time abolished the customs office at Manteo, both for falling off of shipping through the ports. Forty-three ships were registered at the local office during the last three months of its existence, it is reported. The Congressman has been working for some time for reinstatement of the local customs office.

LOUISE DOLLAR DIES OF ACCIDENT HURTS

Durham, N. C., Aug. 18.—Louise Dollar, 15, daughter of E. F. Dollar, of the Pickett road, near Chapel Hill, died last night in Watts Hospital from injuries sustained while walking with four others along the Pittsboro-Chapel Hill highway August 8, when an automobile ran into the group.

With the death of Miss Dollar, the toll mounted to two fatalities. Alton Blake, young Pittsboro road farmer, died in Watts Hospital a day after the accident.

Two other victims, Sephaline Luck of near Greensboro, and Dewey Williams, of the Pittsboro road, were seriously injured, but are expected to recover. Ruth Luck, sister to Sephaline, the fifth victim, received minor injuries.

BLAMES COMMUNISTS FOR THREATENED STRIKE

Hickory, N. C., Aug. 18.—(AP)—R. B. Ellison, former investigator for the American Coalition of Patriotic Societies, charged in an address here today that Communists are responsible for the general strike called for September 1 in the cotton textile industry.

He further charged that Communists will attempt to instigate a general strike of Southern furniture workers in October.

Speaking before a joint session of the Hickory Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs on "Methods, Purposes and Activities of the Communist Party in the United States," Ellison said the party is strongly entrenched in the northern and western parts of the country and now is concentrating on a campaign to acquire a foothold in the South. He said they are appealing especially to unemployed and negroes for support.
