BOARD NAMES REGISTRARS

Complete New Registration to Begin in Greenville and Chocod October 13

F. C. Harding, chairman of the Pitt County Board of Elections, announced today the list of registrars to conduct a complete new registration of voters in Greenville and Chocod Townships.

The new registration was ordered by the board decided to hold four voting places in Greenville Township and three in Chocod. Each township previously had one voting place.

Along with the order, the board instructed the holding of a complete new registration in each of the townships with newly indexed and typed-up election books.

Although the number of voting places in Farmville Township was increased, the board also ordered a complete new registration to be held there to take the place of the book misplaced sometime ago.

The extra voting places were created in Greenville and Chocod to relieve the congestion which has existed in each place the last several years and to expedite the counting of the ballot which for the last two elections have required from a day and a half to two days.

The registrar follow: Chocod Township: Precinct No. 1: Leslie Fleming. Precinct No. 2: Marvin Smith. Precinct No. 3: L. C. Venters. Greenville Township: Precinct No. 1: Mrs. Lottie B. Butler. Precinct No. 2: Burney S. Warren. Precinct No. 3: Key Norris. Precinct No. 4: J. Key Brown.

COURT ORDERS IMPOUNDING OF WARD VESSELS

Action Taken as Result of Suit Growing Out of Morro Castle Disaster

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 3.—(AP)—An order impounding all vessels of the Ward Line has been issued by the admiralty court in a damage suit resulting from the burning of the Morro Castle which cost 130 lives.

The order provides for the impounding of the Orienta, sister ship of the liner which was burned September 8, the Siboney and the Arxaba, if they are found within the jurisdiction of the court for the first district of New York.

Helen Sherman, executrix of the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Greshner, obtained the order against the New York and Cuba Mail Steamship Company, the Ward Line, and its parent concern the Atlantic Gulf and East Indies Steamship Lines. She is suing for $50,000, alleging that the Greshners lost their lives as result of negligence.

PLEADS GUILTY OF ROBBERY

Three Men Sentenced To Prison For Robbery of Postoffice at Harbinger

Columbia, N. C., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Three men charged with robbing the Harbinger, N. C., postoffice on August 10, this morning entered pleas of guilty in Federal Court here.

Thomas William Winslow, formerly of Elizabeth City, was sentenced to five years in Federal prison. Norman Thomson Cooke, of Norfolk, Va., five years, and Earl Hamlin Allen, of Norfolk, Va., to three years. The pleas of guilty were entered this morning when court convened.

MASONS PLAN THANKSGIVING SERVICE HERE

Members of Eastern Star to Take Part In Event Sunday Before Thanksgiving

Members of the Eastern Star and Masons will sponsor a Thanksgiving service Sunday afternoon preceding Thanksgiving Day. It was announced today by members of two organizations.

Plans for the service has not been completed, but it was said every effort would be made to make the occasion the greatest of any similar service ever held here.

Although speakers and the church where the services will be held had not been decided upon, representatives of the organizations said this probably would be worked out during the latter part of this week or the first of next.

The services will be marked by a single principal address, but several short talks will also be made by leading figures of the community in an effort to give more widespread expression of appreciation for the many blessings bestowed upon the section the past year.

The first service of Thanksgiving was held at the Presbyterian Church several weeks ago and the congregation was particularly blessed in view of the disastrous elemental disturbances experienced in other parts of the nation.

It was said the forthcoming service would be held for the benefit of the entire community and everybody will be given a cordial invitation to attend.

The general Thanksgiving service sponsored by the Ministerial Association every year will probably be held again this year, although plans have not yet been announced. Services in past years have been very inspirational, and this year is expected to be no exception to the general rule in view of the return of prosperity to the community after years of depression accompanied by greater physical suffering than any other time in the history of the nation.

TWO NABBED IN WHISKEY CASE

White Man Arrested While Delivering Liquor to Negro Store On Bonner's Lane

Two men, one white and the other colored, were arrested by police this morning on charges of transporting and possession of whiskey for the purpose of sale.

S. C. Brannon was taken into custody as he allegedly delivered 10 gallons of whiskey to the store operated by Ike McKoy, colored, on Bonner's Lane, and McKoy was later taken into custody on a charge of possession of whiskey for the purpose of sale. Brannon was charged with transporting whiskey for sale.

In addition to the ten gallons of fine beverage found in the store, police said they also discovered about a gallon and a half of rum in Brannon's car.

Officers posted themselves in close proximity to the store when they were "tipped off" that a load of whiskey was to be delivered during the morning. When part of the load had been placed in the building, the policemen came out of hiding, and broke up what apparently was destined to be a successful sale.

The two men were held in jail for hearing in mayor's court Saturday morning.

Liquidate Bank At Walstonburg

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Gurney F. Hood, State Commissioner of Banks, today announced the completion of the liquidation of the Farmers and Merchants Bank at Walstonburg with depositors having been paid $2,557,94 in full settlement of their claims.

During liquidation the bank made money, an unusual occurrence. The bank closed in 1930 with listed assets of $32,350, of which $10,232 was realized on the liquidation.

No capital stock assessment was made. Assets listed at $15,127 were returned to stockholders.

Late News Flashes

Set Date In Hauptmann Trial. New York, Oct. 3.—(AP)—County Judge James M. Barrett in the Bronx today set October 11 as the date for opening of the trial of Bruno Richard Hauptmann on an indictment charging extortion in the Kindberg kidnap case.

Judge Barrett denied a request of defense counsel James Fawcett who asked to be given 60 days to prepare his case.

Hauptmann was led into the courtroom for the proceedings. He wore a grey suit, a lean blue shirt, and appeared more worried than at any previous court appearance.

As a preliminary to the motion for the setting of a trial date, District Attorney Samuel J. Foley asked the court to order a special jury panel drawn tomorrow in preparing for the trial.

Hauptmann, as in the case of his other two court appearances, said nothing. Foley requested that the case be brought to trial October 11.

Explosives Still Missing. Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Twenty pounds of polint, the most powerful explosive known, was still missing from the Remington Arms Co. M. C. Company reservation today. As police resorted to publicity to warn the thieves it could destroy half a city.

As an inducement for the thieves to return the explosives company officials promised immunity from prosecution if they would return the powder to safeguard persons in the vicinity where it may be.

LEAF PRICES REMAIN FIRM

Average of $37.55 a Hundred Registered On The Local Market Yesterday

Tobacco prices cling tenaciously to their high peak yesterday, and an average of $37.55 a hundred was shown today in the official report of K. W. Cobb, supervisor of sales.

The figure was established on 893,764 pounds of leaf for which the market paid $335,649.74.

Sales were again light today with indications that work would be completed during the early afternoon.

The market for the last two or three weeks has paid out in the neighborhood of a half million dollars daily, and on two or three occasions the figure went above the half-million mark.

Farmers are jubilant over the fine prices they are receiving for their offerings and continued advances in evidence from day to day are watched with general satisfaction throughout the community.

While the rush to market has dropped off slightly the past two days, it was expected sales would continue heavy the remainder of the week, as farmers rush their better grades to market in an effort to take advantage of the splendid prices.

PICKPOCKET PAYS FINE IN COUNTY COURT

Several Other Actions Disposed of in One Day Sitting Here Yesterday

James Jackson, colored, pocketbook snatcher, arrested by county officers after he had picked the pocket of another negro on the circus grounds here last week, was fined $25 and cost by Judge Dink James in County Court here yesterday. Upon failure to pay the fine, Judge James ordered that Jackson be sent to the roads for six months.

Jackson, officers said, attempted to snatch a pocketbook containing a small sum of money and was attacked by the owner and a friend standing nearby. An officer saw the fight as it got under way, took Jackson into custody and lodged him in jail to await hearing.

Around twenty cases were given hearing in the one day sitting, the first if the past two weeks by reason of the one-week term of the civil court which adjourned last Friday.

Among the actions were several charges of violation of whiskey and transportation laws and the defendants either paid fines or found themselves bound over for the county roads. The remainder of the actions follow:

- Jim Scott, possession of liquor, $25. Guy Moore, non-support, pay one-third of his earnings to his wife. Willie Eborn, colored, drunk and disorderly, $25, cost deducted. Willie Barnhill and Chummy Joyner, assault with deadly weapon, one-half cost each. Sarah Watson, colored, liquor for sale, $50, cost deducted. Jack Atkinson, colored, liquor for sale, $100, cost deducted. G. A. Andrews, driving drunk, $50 and license revoked for ninety days. Joe John Moyer, colored, driving drunk, $50 and cost and license revoked for ninety days. Lizzie Braxton, colored, liquor for sale, ten months; claimed she was sick and ordered held in jail for examination. Ike Anderson, Robert Teel and Will Staton, colored, gambling, $5 each. Lee Duncan, colored, carrying a concealed weapon, $50 and cost. Preston Langley, driving drunk, $50 and cost and license revoked for ninety days. Roosevelt Bryan, colored, assault with a deadly weapon; pay doctor's bill for persecuting witness and cost. Zack McLaughlin, assault with a deadly weapon; judgment suspended on payment of cost. Arthur Ricks, driving reckless, $25 and cost. Thad Braxton, driving drunk, $5 and cost and license revoked for ninety days. Sampson Forbes, colored, driving drunk, $50 and cost, and license revoked ninety days and pay $37.40 to owner of car which he damaged in wreck.

MEN SOUGHT AS TEACHERS

College Placement Bureau Reports More Calls Than Can Be Filled at Present

Men who are qualified to teach athletics and teach certain high school subjects, or who can teach the seventh grade and serve as principals of elementary schools, are in demand as teachers. The Placement Bureau of East Carolina Teachers College has had more calls for these than it can fill.

Besides placing the six men graduates of this college, it has also placed several men graduates of other colleges who came to E. C. T. C. to get their professional credits in addition to their liberal arts credits.

Calls for superintendents for teachers with degrees or with Class C certificates are much greater than formerly.

GENERAL CAMP LEADS GUARDS TO STRIKE AREA

Pickers Herded At Rome, Georgia As Troops Decide What to do With Strikers; Chairman Of Strike Committee Among Those in Picket Lines; Other Picket Lines Scattered

Rome, Ga., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Adjutant General Lindbergh, Camp's force of 500 State troops, today broke picket lines of striking stove foundrymen for the first time since July 21 and officials of the four plants planned to reopen immediately. "The General led his military firing squad at the end of the National Guard trucks as the three-mile long caravan moved into the city and took a stand at the stove plant. Arriving first at the Rome Stove and Range Company the General ordered his men to herd picketers across the street and guard them until he decided what he would do with the strikers. Everything was peaceful as the National Guards took over duties. Gus Latham, chairman of the strike committee here, was among those in the picket line which the troops scattered at the Rome Stove Company.

JURY PANEL IS SOUGHT FOR HAUPTMANN

District Attorney Foley Begins Work In Effort to Bring Kidnap to Trial

New York, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann was taken from his cell in Bronx County jail today and hurried to the Bronx County building to the office of District Attorney Samuel J. Foley.

Hauptmann stayed in Foley's office about five minutes before the prosecutor prepared to go into county court to petition for an order calling for a special panel from which to select a jury to try Hauptmann on an indictment charging extortion of $50,000 from Colonel Charles Lindbergh.

VANDERBILT CASE HALTED

Fight to Obtain Custody of Gloria Vanderbilt Delayed Until Friday

New York, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Supreme Court Justice John Carew announced today the hearing of the suit of Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt for custody of her ten-year-old daughter, Gloria, had been adjourned until Friday.

Justice Carew's announcement said the case would be over until Friday. It was made after a conference with attorney in the case.

In some quarters the adjournment was interpreted as an effort to bring about a settlement, but Justice Carew declined to comment. So starting has been the turn of the family fust that Supreme Court Justice Carew is debating whether or not it would not be in the public well to make it a strictly private affair. A Parisienne said, petite and pretty, was responsible.

The maid, Mile. Maria Calliot, a witness yesterday in the action brought by Mrs. Vanderbilt to wrest guardianship of her daughter from Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, the little heiress's aunt, testified of incidents involving her employer and Lady Milford Havens, a relative of the King of England.

THREE HURT IN CAR CRASH

Two Negro Women Unconscious After Truck Hits Car on Bethel Highway

Three colored women were injured, two probably seriously, when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a truck on the Greenville-Bethel highway, about a mile and a half from the city this city, this morning, about five o'clock.

Laura Short and Kathleen Short were carried to the hospital in an unconscious condition shortly after the wreck and were believed to be suffering from internal injuries. Rosa Devane suffered painful lacerations about the head and knees but was able to return home after receiving medical aid.

L. D. Devane, colored, driver of the car, was held by officers today on a charge of reckless driving and will be given preliminary hearing as soon as the condition of the two women is determined.

The car was entering the highway from the Pactolus road when it was struck by a truck driven by Maxwe Way. The truck was bound from Beaufort in the direction of Bethel and was unable to stop in time to avoid hitting the car.

Officers permitted Way to continue his trip, declaring that he was not responsible for the crash.

Funeral Held For H. L. Pate

Funeral services for H. L. Pate, father of Mrs. H. L. Taylor of this city, were conducted from his late home in Kinston yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock and burial was made in the cemetery there. Mr. Pate died Monday at 4 o'clock. He was well-known throughout the Kinston community and news of his death was received with sorrow.

Ludith Lane Marian Gordon by JEANNE BOWMAN

SYNOPSIS: Marian Gordon has gone to town to break the news to Silver that she has broken up with him. Silver is shocked and tries to make her love her with the words that Marian telephoned her when she was broken-hearted. She says her editor telephoned her when she was broken-hearted. She says her editor telephoned her when she was broken-hearted.

Chapter 10 ENTER JEALOUSY

HAMLIN went to the door and swung it wide. Marian jumped to her feet, for into the warm light of the cabin stepped Lionel Casad. "You have the distinction of being the only woman who ever tried to fly out on a date with me," he said to Marian. "Couldn't let you get away with it, so here I am."

With a snarl, Hero rose to attack.

he had spent the night driving east to see her. She wondered how he had learned she was leaving and longed to ask him. And then she was conscious of Silver's moving to her side, but not until she heard her soft, studied, "And this is another reporter?" said as only Silver could say it, did she realize how altogether desirable he must look to any woman.

"Mr. Casad, a friend of mine," Marian made the introduction mechanically. How did Silver manage to imbue ordinary words with such subtle innuendo? In that simple phrase she had told Lon Casad that in him she recognized a definite challenge to her charm, and found him worthy of conquest.

MARIAN'S eyes were answer enough and the two men departed leaving the four of them. Silver, eyes narrowed speculatively, smiled at Lon. "You won't mind being left alone with Ian, while I change to something comfortable, will you?" she added plaintively. "I've been through such an ordeal."

Mrs. Flanagan Club President.
The regular meeting of the Junior Woman's Club held Friday afternoon in the Woman's Club building, was very enthusiastic. Mrs. Hilton, the former president, gave a splendid talk about the convention which she attended in Hot Springs, Ark., in May. She was given this trip because of the high honors the Junior Woman's Club won at the state convention last year. Following her interesting talk, Miss Laura Foley and Mrs. Tom Clifton served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Dink James presided over the business meeting. The most important item of business was the election of Mrs. R. C. Flanagan, Jr., for the office of president. Mrs. James turned over the chair to Mrs. Flanagan, and the latter presided over the remainder of the meeting. Mrs. Jesse Moye gave a fine report on Tag Day and the members of the club voted to spend the entire amount for library books for children. Mrs. Red Corbett also gave a very good report in regard to the tournament. The club decided to co-operate with the mayor of the city in canvassing Greenville in the Red Cross drive. Another tournament was planned and Mrs. Hilton was appointed chairman of the committee. The date for this tournament will be announced later.

The club members adjourned the meeting feeling very much elated over their new president and feeling confident of a good year under her leadership. —Reported.

Cocktails, according to an English expert are about the worst form in which alcohol can be taken.

Celebrates 73rd Birthday.
(By Rev. C. J. Harris)

Mr. Nehimah (Pig) Garris most bountifully entertained his many selected friends, at his seventy-third birthday anniversary, in a very unique reception given in honor of his advanced years, at his home near Winterville.

The delicious dainties served consisted of two well cooked barbecue pigs, with many other rich viands to gratify the taste. The crowd in attendance was estimated to be between 140 and 200 people. Among those from Greenville were Judge Dink James, E. F. Tucker and as a matter of course, Pitt County's two famous politicians, J. Frank Harrington and Claud C. Gaskins, were on hand displaying their personality among their many friends.

Winterville was represented by Mr. Roy T. Cox, Dr. J. S. Liverman and others. In fact, there were people present from Goldsboro, Snow Hill and Washington.

As to the preachers, they were numerous. Those being present were the Reverends R. H. Broom, R. F. Pittman, M. A. Woodard, D. A. Windham, C. J. Harris, W. A. Dall, R. H. Mason and J. A. Davidson.

At the request of the host, Rev. R. H. Broom of the Methodist Church, and Rev. C. J. Harris preached.

There were many valuable gifts presented, the largest one being a $10.00 bill given by Dr. J. L. Liverman.

Mr. Nehimah (Pig) Garris is one of Pitt County's best citizens. He has many distinguished qualifications. And as to his integrity, his equal would be hard to find.

He has not tasted any intoxicating liquors for 58 years. And in honor of that event he has given 57 birthday dinners to his good friends. He has served as deacon for the Reedy Branch Church for 35 years, being absent only four times.

Courage, brother, do not stumble. Though thy path be dark as night, There's a star to guide the humble. Trust in God and do the right. Let the road be rough and dreary, And its end far out of sight, Foot it bravely, strong or weary, Trust in God and do the right.

"May the Lord bless you. Brother Garris," were the words of his departing friends.
With joyous anticipation his friends are waiting for the 2nd day of October, 1935, to come around, which will mark his 74th milestone.

THREE BOUND OVER ON ROBBERY CHARGE

Tarboro, N. C., Oct. 3.—A preliminary trial of J. E. Bryant, L. M. Horne and Robert Horne, young white men of Wilson, charged with entering the store and filling station of J. H. Alford at Wiggins Cross Roads in No. 8 Township on September 16 and taking therefrom a quantity of goods valued at about $100, was conducted by Justice of the Peace Ed. D. Foxhall in the courthouse today.

The defendants were held for Superior Court under bonds of $500 each. They were represented by Attorney George M. Fountain.

APPLE CORE NEARLY CAUSES BOY'S DEATH

High Point, N. C., Oct. 3.—An apple core almost spelled death for two-year-old Bobby Walton Sunday night, but a sudden cough is believed to have saved his life.

The child, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Walton, of 310 Park Street, got an apple core lodged in his throat, shutting off air from the lungs. The boy was rushed to a local hospital, but the core could not be removed, and he then was carried quickly to the Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem.

By the time the boy arrived there he was black in the face and hope for his recovery was about given up. Suddenly, however, as he got on the elevator in preparation to going to the operating room, he gave a hearty cough. The apple core came up and he began to breathe regularly again.

LITTLE GIRL KILLED IN FALL FROM AUTO

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 3.—Virginia Hubbard, eight-year-old daughter of J. H. Hubbard, was killed instantly this morning when she fell from an automobile while on her way to the Stedman school in the eastern part of Cumberland. Thinking the school bus would not call for her, Virginia started for school with two other children in a roadster driven by her cousin, Wesley Gainey. Rounding a curve at moderate speed, the car door came open, and the child was thrown out and under a rear wheel.

A few minutes later the school bus came upon the scene of the tragedy.

Acting Coroner D. E. Gowdy determined that the accident was unavoidable and that an inquest was unnecessary.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from Magnolia Baptist Church.

POCKETBOOK GAME IS WORKED ON NEGRO

Halifax, Va., Oct. 3.—The old pocketbook film-fam game is being worked upon the farmers selling their tobacco in South Boston, and authorities are warning all persons to be on the lookout for two persons dressed as farmers, who have duped at least one victim, John A. Asher, negro farmer, of Brookneal, out of the entire proceeds of his first sale of tobacco.

Two persons work the pocketbook racket together, one pretending to find a pocketbook containing a large sum of money near the farmer whom he has picked as his victim. Offering to divide the contents with the farmer if he will help make change, he procures the innocent victim's money with the promise of going to the bank to make correct change—and, of course, never returns.

RE-TRIAL IS ORDERED IN SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 3.—The suit of Mrs. Jean F. Boot against Miss Ruby Bruton will be tried over this fall. Mrs. Boot is the wife of the principal of Grainger High School here. Miss Bruton the principal of an elementary school. With Mrs. Bruton's mother they went on a trip to Brantford, Va., some months ago. Mrs. Bruton and Mrs. Boot were injured when the automobile in which they traveled, driven by Miss Bruton, overturned a short distance from Bristol. Mrs. Boot, who spent some weeks in a hospital, brought suit for $15,000.

Last week a jury in Superior Court here gave Mrs. Boot $2,500. Monday it was announced the verdict had been set aside and a retrial ordered by Judge J. Paul Frizzelle.

PLANTIFF LOSES APPEAL TO U. S. CIRCUIT COURT

Richmond, Oct. 3.—Hattie Harris was denied a re-hearing today in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in a case involving a war risk insurance policy which was decided against her at the last term of district court. The case was from Fayetteville, N. C., the government winning the decision there as well as when it was appealed.

DETERMINE IDENTITY OF ACCIDENT VICTIM

Tarboro, Oct. 3.—Dr. R. E. Broward acting coroner, learned that the Negro whose head was crushed when he was struck by a passing car near Leggett was Edgar Hunt, of Pitt county. He was about 24 years old and came from Washington, D. C., recently to visit his father Nelson Hunt. He borrowed his father's car to go to Norfolk. The identity of the operator of the car that killed Hunt has not been learned here.

Tips on CONTRACT

PUZZLE IN LEADING

By Tom O'Neil
One of the most discussed hands at the opening of the new Algonquin Club in New York is a risky three no trump contract at which the declarer succeeded by keeping an adversary with a long suit out of the lead. After objection of the hand to analysis it was decided that the only way to beat it was an opening lead from a tripleton headed by a queen.

Mrs. Maud Zentlein, North opened the auction with one heart. East bid two diamonds. South and West passed. North said two no trump. East passed. Having no good suit, South counted on a bit of a fit in hearts and the possible assistance of three diamonds to the jack as a stopper in diamonds in addition to the one shown by North's no trump bid. He could find no bid but three no trump.

East had no certain re-entry and thought it best to lead his fourth best diamond, hoping that West could help force out the enemy's stopper. The first trick was taken in the North hand with the eight-spots.

North led the ace, jack and deuce of spades. Since he had no more diamonds, West laid off until the third round of spades an then led the king of hearts. North clattered up with the ace, throwing the jack on it from dummy. On the ten spot East showed out and West laid off. West took the nine of hearts with the queen. To avoid leading a club up to the king-ten and the good spade suit, north continued the hearts, winning the eight and then leading the six into North's seven.

North led the ace of clubs and then finessed the ten spot. After taking with the jack west had to lead to South's king of clubs and the seven of spades took the game-going trick. The contracting partnership made three spades, three hearts, a diamond and two clubs.

Had the ace, king and a small diamond been led, North would have thrown the queen on the king so as to create an entry South for a heart finesse. The defense would have taken two diamonds, a heart and a spade. It would have taken the same tricks had there been an open trump suit.

The lead that would have set the contract was the deuce of clubs. West's club nine would have forced the ace. The declarer could not have avoided losing two diamonds, spade, a club and a heart.

MAINE NATURALIST IS PUZZLED OVER WHERE EAGLES GO

Wiscasset, Me.—(AP)—Where do the bald-headed eagles of the New England coast fly, once they spread their wings?
James E. Stinson, noted naturalist, has sought to solve the problem for forty years.

"It has taken more than forty years of time and thousands of miles of travel from Labrador to the Everglades for me to locate some twenty eagles' nests," he says.

"Each spring each nest has reared two healthy eaglets that flapped their wings to the season along the rocky shores. Then when the cold swept down from the north they faded silently into the horizon and never came back."

"What becomes of them? In all the fifty years I have followed the pursuit of natural knowledge I have never met anyone who ever saw an eagle die of old age."

A nest in an old pine tree on the Sheepscot River near here has hatched two eaglets each year, he said.

"I have visited it since 1888 and in all that time there has never been but one pair of eagles in the vicinity. Where do the young birds go?"

GIRL KILLED WHEN CAR STRIKES TRUCK

Thomasville, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Mary Sophia Traver, 15, was killed and two of her brothers were seriously injured tonight when their automobile crashed into a parked lumber truck on a highway near here. Her brothers, Allen and James, were badly hurt, but are expected to recover. A third brother, Joe, escaped unhurt, while their father, Charles, who was driving was cut about the face.

REDUCE COMPENSATION OF PROFESSIONAL JURORS

New Bern, Oct. 3.—So-called "professional" jurors, or takers, who are called to jury duty direct from the court room and have not been summoned in advance for regular jury work, will receive hereafter only 50¢ per day, without mileage allowance, it was decided Monday by Craven county commissioners. This ruling to go into effect immediately. Jurors summoned in advance for duty will continue to receive $3 per day, with mileage allowance.

LYRE BIRDS SURVIVE TRIP BY PLANE TO TASMANIA

Hobart, Tasmania.—(AP)—Thanks to the airplane, the Island of Tasmania, south of Australia, hopes to populate its national park with lyre birds, carrying out a bequest made several years ago by an anonymous donor.

The birds are profuse in the Australian bush, but they are short-lived in captivity and numerous efforts to transplant them by boat have failed.

H. C. Howe, an experienced bushman, recently trapped a pair near Melbourne, placed them aboard a plane for Hobart within forty-eight hours, and thus enabled their release in the park.

Vogue says: "A world of silhouettes cast their shadows through 1935. Be a sylph in a narrow slip. Break up your shadow with tunic or ties. Go Greek in fringe. Sail forth in a picture frock." But what of a figure to go with these fashions?

You must have "a proud carriage". Bosom rounded and high. A beautifully defined waistline. Thighs that taper smoothly to the knee. And besides, a look of youth and freedom. In a word corsetry is back of the mode, and your corset the most important item in your wardrobe.

HEELS WILL GIVE VOLS GREAT FIGHT

Chapel Hill, Oct. 3.—The Carolina Tennessee game here Saturday at 2:30 promises one of the most spirited scraps since the Tar Heels fought Tennessee's great 1931 team off its feet the last time they met here only to lose on a fumble 7-0.

Both teams were impressive in their opening games. Carolina surprising powerful Wake Forest eleven 21-0 and Tennessee brushing aside the best Centre eleven in several years 32-0.

The Vols have an extra incentive. This is Major Bob Neyland's last season as coach and they vow to make it his best. And the Tar Heels are just as intent on taking advantage of their last opportunity to repay Ney and for past reverses and to show their new coach they can go places.

Indications are that one of the largest crowds of the season will turn out to see the battle that is expected.

The two teams will stack up on approximately even terms in the matter of weight, experience, and physical condition.

Tennessee's starting line averages 191 to Carolina's 189, but the Tar Heels number one backfield outweighs the Vols 175 to 173 pounds. The Carolina eleven lists eight lettermen, of whom four are Seniors and four Juniors, and three sophomores.

Although Tennessee is being called a new team, all the members have gone through Neyland's finishing school and learned their lessons well. The starting eleven last week had nine Seniors and two Juniors.

Both squads came through their opening games in good shape. Captain Hatley and Alvey of Tennessee and Pendergraft and Melver of Carolina were about the only casualties, and their injuries were minor. By an odd coincidence all four boys play guard.

Each team is expecting to have extra power ready Saturday. Carolina is counting on Jackson, back, and Barwick, end, who were held out due to injuries last week, and Tennessee or Craig and Perkins, backs, and Crawford and Humpherys, linemen, who saw the first game from the bench due either to injuries or scholastic deficiencies.

With the two teams stacking up on such even terms, the dope is that the outcome will turn on team speed and fight or on the individual feats of some of the many star backs in the two camps.

In this line Carolina has Jackson and Shaffer, the veteran sparkplugs; Dick Dashiell, the sophomore jack-rabbit; Jim Hutchins, rookie line-buster, Harry Montgomery, and others.

Tennessee offers another fine half-back combination in the Pug Vaughan, who does the passing, and Toby Palmer, an expert kicker, plus a coterie of star ball carriers, including Krouse, Moses, Craig, Dorsey, Anderson, Dickens, and Paty.

Nation's Business Reflects Increase

New York.—(AP)—General business activity as measured by the National Industrial Conference Board increased from 62.7 in July to 63.3 in August, a rise which was less than expected at this season.

Production of passenger cars and trucks in the United States and Canada in August was 11.8 per cent under July and 1.0 per cent over August of last year. During the first eight months of this year production by units gained 53.5 per cent over the corresponding period of last year. Retail sales of passenger cars in July were 21 per cent greater than July last year, but a per cent lower than June of this year.

Building Contracts Up
Building and engineering contracts awards in August rose 0.5 per cent over July in 37 States east of the Rocky Mountains to a point 13.3 per cent over August, 1933. Publicly financed construction awards continued 5.2 per cent of total August contracts let. While residential and non-residential awards declined, awards for public works increased.

Steel production in August measured by daily average output was 14.3 per cent under the July average. August steel operations were at 22.3 per cent in July and 48.8 per cent in August last year. Operations during the first six months of this year were reported far ahead of the corresponding period of 1933. Pig iron production in August declined 13.9 per cent under July measured in average tons per day of operation.

Electric Power Production Rose
Electric power production in August increased slightly, an advance which was less than seasonally expected. "The greatest declines in power output manufacturing industries are located," the board reported.

General distribution and trade increased during August with rail shipments of all classes of commodities showing an increase of 4 per cent over July. "The advance this month was due to increases in shipments of livestock, coal, forest products, merchandise and miscellaneous items," the board reported.

Department store sales showed an increase of 20 per cent in dollar value of turnover from July to August, far greater than the estimated seasonal rise of 6.5 per cent in recent years it was shown. Prices of department store items were 0.2 per cent higher in August, than in July and 8.9 per cent higher than in August, 1933.

Fancy Tobacco Is Selling From 60c to 88c Pound

New York Cotton

New York, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened barely steady, two to four points lower under Southern and foreign selling on nervousness over foreign exchange. Offerings were comparatively light and appeared to be quite readily absorbed around the initial prices by trade buying and a scattering demand from local and New Orleans sources. Prices worked up from 12.27 to 12.32 for December and from 12.45 to 12.49 for May, or about two to three points net higher during the early trading.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A quiet upturn in stock prices appeared in early market dealings today. Textiles and merchandizing shares were rather firm as were metals. Fractional advances were numerous in other parts of the list. The market milled about during the second hour without much change in prices.

Late News Flashes

Small quantities because of the terrific force was taken from the reservation at the Stratford-Bridgeport line more than 24 hours ago. Indictment in Code Violation. Jackson, Tenn., Oct. 3.—(AP)—The first indictment in Tennessee charging violation of the code under the National Industrial Recovery Act went on record in federal court here today. Named as defendants in the indictment were Lawrence and Oscar Hickerson accused of failing to comply with the lumber code in the operation of saw mills at Beacon, Tenn., and Chesterfield, Tenn. Push Recovery Program. Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Laying the ground work of policies aimed at producing widespread benefit for the industrial order continued today to occupy major administration attention. Administrative problems facing the industrial recovery board kept the new governors of the board busy. Meeting for the first time yesterday to tackle the task of reorganizing the NRA machinery the board apparently saw a head a sizeable job. "We took no action" Chairman Clay Williams reported. "These discussions will continue for several days. Across the way at the White House President Roosevelt himself gave attention to his proposal for a strike in industrial war. While industry and labor speculated over what Mr. Roosevelt's specific move toward that objective would be they had the assurance today of an informal statement that the plans did not contemplate disturbing the collective bargaining section of the recovery act or interfering in any way with the guarantee clause. Robbers Get $4,000. Shawano, Wis., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Three men terrorized the village of Gresham, ten miles west of here, for two hours early today before escaping with $4,000 obtained by dynamiting the safe of the First National Bank. Several persons were fired upon but were not struck. Car Sales Improve. Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Sales of new passenger autos and trucks in North Carolina in September aggregated 5,490 compared with only 3,673 in the same month of 1933. L. S. Harris, head of the State Motor Vehicle Bureau, reported today. Total sales of cars and trucks for nine months this year was 49,966 compared with 24,478 during the similar period last year. New passenger cars sold in September totaled 4,893 compared with 4,318 in August and 2,531 in September, 1933. New trucks sold last month aggregated 1,047, one of the highest totals since records have been kept compared with 913 in August and 732 in September, 1933. Mother of Gangster Arrested. Richmond, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Mals, 58, the mother of Robert Mals convicted killer who shot his way out of Richmond City jail last Saturday was herself lodged

HOLDS STAGE IN KIDNAP PROBE

She was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging her with aiding and abetting in the case of her son and Walter Legena, convicted of murder for participation in the same holdup. Mrs. Mals the police said smuggled two pistols to her son and Legena in a can labeled "baked chicken." The guns were used to shoot down three officers during their break for freedom. The woman was searched as she arrived at the jail last night and $138 in bills and a razor blade were found fastened in her dress. She had been under detention as a voluntary prisoner since Saturday.

Council Organizer Can't Stay Out Of 'Good' Fight

By Bess Furman Washington, D. C.—(AP)—A slow and steady fight is meat and drink to Miss Sue White, now aide to Mrs. Mary Rumsey in organizing county consumers' councils. To women throughout the country, Miss White is "Sue," intelligent, humorous, battling with breezy letters for some cause. She started as a young girl on woman suffrage and was in the thick of the last whirlwind campaign which brought Tennessee into the column and put over the nineteenth amendment to the constitution. When the Democrats were the minority party she was teamed with Nellie Taylor Ross, then director of Democratic women's work, organizing women Democrats all through the Hoover campaign. The Democratic landslide, like the winning of suffrage, almost left her without a tough problem. But somehow word got around that somebody cares about the consumer, the Sue White was right at the side of Mrs. Mary Rumsey, heading the consumers' cause. The Demonstration Stage. By slow, steady drumming away at it, Mrs. Rumsey, aided by Miss White, at last has brought the county consumers' council out of the nebulous into the demonstrative stage. The county consumers' council at St. Louis was in the thick of the fight against the coal prices set by the code authority; one of a series of situations credited with resulting in the resignation of the coal code authority. The Providence County Rhode Island Consumers' Council found out hard coal prices in Providence were $5.25 more a ton than at Boston, where prices formerly had run about the same. "Two hundred counties have been chosen, rather arbitrarily, for these councils," said Miss White. "Since there are more than 3,000 counties in the country, these are obviously on an experimental, demonstration basis. It all is being done on a volunteer basis, which means that our chairmen must be both public spirited and objectively minded, willing to devote time and energy to something that is nobody's business, and therefore anybody's business. Aided By Colleges. "Add to that the intricacies of price economic, and you can understand something of what the consumer's movement is up against. "Our county consumers' councils are providing decidedly effective, not so much along the line of individual price complaints, but in meeting situations. "The coal fight in St. Louis is an example. There are many others." Miss White, one of those who helped picked the counties in which councils were to be tried, described how it was done. "We had a trade center map before us, although that was not the deciding factor. We chose some agricultural counties. We wanted to experiment in some of the industrial centers, and in many instances we chose counties where universities and colleges could aid us with economists are volunteers."

A Washington Day Book

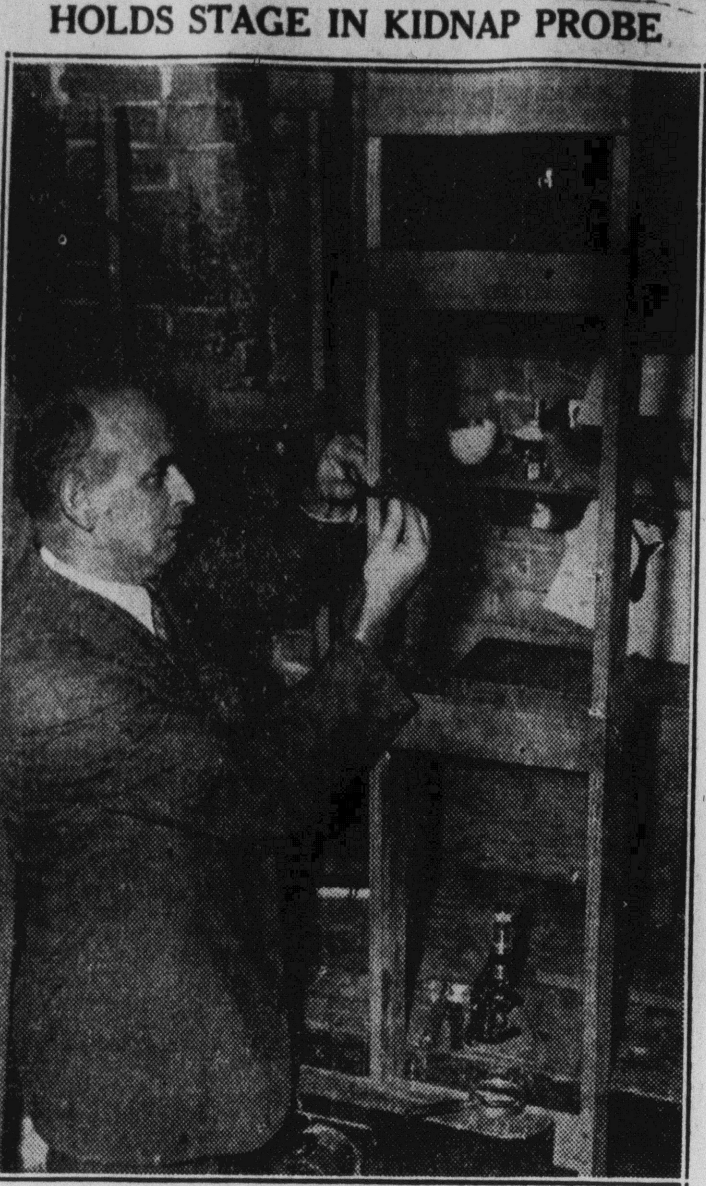

By HERBERT PLUMMER Washington, D. C.—(AP)—There is a "Hoover policy" on the side of law today that augurs for sensational turns before the last is heard of this Lindbergh case arrest. Back of it is the vigorous lawyer-sleuth, J. Edgar Hoover. It is, to use his words, "not only to get the criminals themselves but also all those who have aided or harbored them in the slightest." When he spoke, it was the country at large attacking crime through the justice department bureau of investigation which he heads. In the lesser aspect, it was a card catalogue mind; a mind replete with painstaking addenda by which to develop clues. That power now is definitely united with the police authority of New Jersey on one side and of New York on the other until justice has been served against the killers of the Lindbergh infant. No final disposition is expected for some time. Two and one-half years of detailed labor had to be put in before the big break came. The latest break itself presents a mass of minute possibilities, each of which has to be tracked down to make the "Hoover policy" a more feared and valuable weapon against the lawless. FBI Search Continues. What does it mean? It means that simply nothing will be taken for granted until every last dollar of the $50,000 ransom that can be accounted for is accounted for. Less than one-half has been located. Every bill above that is a potential lead to one who aided or harbored the kidnapers. Every one point has passed through hands that might conceivably have been able to point to the guilty, but did not. To carry the "Hoover policy" out completely means to trace those bills even more assiduously than in the months past, and—if the abduction was not a one-man job—more prosecution. It has been done before, and by Hoover's men. "In the Urschel kidnaping case," he reminded recently, "we arrested fifteen who aided the snatch-men; and, what's more, convicted every one. Before long the gangsters will find it unsafe to touch a man or ransom money sought by our agents, and it will ease our task." When he talks like that, it explains why some say they would rather be hunted by "wolves than by the Federal men."

KNOCKED OUT OF BED BY SPEEDING SEDAN

Warrenton N. C., Oct. 3.—A negro woman and two children were knocked out of their bed by a Chevrolet sedan yesterday morning about 1 o'clock when the vehicle left the highway at a curve at Mason, traveled approximately 75 yards parallel with the road, sideswiped a hunkhouse, tore down a wire fence and then buried itself into the home where the negroes were sleeping. The sleeping woman and her small children were not seriously hurt when they were thrown from their bed across the room by the force of the impact, but two of the negroes riding in the Chevrolet were badly hurt and were carried to a hospital in Roanoke Rapids. The heavy logs of which the house was constructed on the rock foundation upon which it rested are, it is believed, responsible for the negroes in the house being alive today. Even the rock foundation did not prevent the car from crashing through the wall against which the bed was located. You'll Be Saving Money Soon. She was contemplating marriage, and she had put the suggestion to her father. "But, my dear girl," he exclaimed, "you can't seriously think of marrying Young Brown! Why, he only earns $15 a week." She sighed happily. "I know, Dad," she returned, "but a week passes so quickly when you are in love."—Brockett Enterprises.

"I should like to buy some nice new novels, please." "Do you wish something light?" asked the clerk. "It doesn't matter, really, I have my car with me."—Selected.

With the finding of two ladder rungs in the cellar of Bruno Richard Hauptmann's Bronx home, the study of Arthur Koehler, wood technologist of Madison, Wis., of the ladder used in kidnaping the Lindbergh baby and wood in the German carpenter's cellar, commands the interest of officials seeking further clues to definitely pin the kidnaping on Hauptmann, already indicted for extortion in connection with the $50,000 ransom money.
