DENIES BOND MRS. GRICE AND SASSER

Prisoner Brought Here From Death Row to Testify in Hearing Yesterday

Judge R. Hunt Parker late yesterday declined freedom under a writ of habeas corpus for Mrs. Ruby Grice and her brother, Donald Sasser, of Goldsboro, held under charge of complicity in the slaying of the woman's husband, Herbert Grice.

The woman and her brother were arrested in connection with the crime only to have their cases postponed with leave when Rufus Satterfield was sentenced to die in the electric chair for the slaying.

They were re-arrested last week when Satterfield, in a statement from his cell on Death Row at State Prison, declared that Sasser was the actual slayer of Grice, and that the crime was committed at the request of Mrs. Grice, who declared that she must have "protection" against her husband, even if Satterfield and Sasser had to kill him to give it to her.

Satterfield was brought here from State's Prison at Raleigh yesterday morning as witness in the hearing. The hearing was begun just before noon and did not conclude until late in the afternoon, with Judge Parker's decision not to grant the freedom sought.

Satterfield was immediately returned to State Prison at Raleigh and Mrs. Grice and Sasser were returned to Wayne County to be held without privilege of bond.

Mrs. Grice, on the stand, denied any part in the slaying or any knowledge of any plan to say her husband. Sasser did not take the stand. Satterfield, the last to testify, talked for about an hour, during which he traced his friendship with the family, asserting he had been intimate with Mrs. Grice, his various conversations with Sasser, her brother, and finally the night of the slaying when he said at the request of Mrs. Grice, he got Sasser and carried him to the Grice home to take steps to give Mrs. Grice the requested protection against the mistreatment and threats of her husband.

Satterfield said that as they approached the Grice home he gave his shotgun to Sasser and remained in the background while Sasser approached the house. He said that talking dogs came to come out of the house to ascertain the trouble and that as Grice stood on the steps of the house Sasser fired.

In his statement Satterfield likewise testified that on a previous occasion he had been present when Sasser had told Mrs. Grice to make sure that her husband's insurance was kept up and in good standing. The court-room was crowded to capacity during the hearing.

Big Lot Of Whiskey Seized By Officers

Washington, Oct. 30.—Earl Russell's place on the Williamston road a short distance out of the city, was raided Saturday morning by three county officers and one of the largest hauls of liquor ever taken by local officers was found there.

The capture of the liquor by Sheriff William Runley and Deputies Bryan Marslender and Ed Hoyt Jr., called attention to the fact that there are local users of the beverage could obtain liquor with well known brands on the bottles, despite the fact that this is a dry state.

A private hearing was held before Judge John A. Mayo Saturday morning on a charge of possession of intoxicating liquor and was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail, sentence to be suspended upon the payment of $25 and costs and good behavior.

On two previous appearances in the local Recorder's Court, Russell was found guilty. On April 17th of this year on a charge of assaulting female by choking her, he was fined $50 and costs. On April 7, 1933, on a charge of possession and transporting 12 gallons of whiskey he was fined $15.00 and costs.

A small amount of the liquor captured in the raid Saturday morning was found inside the building and the remainder was located in the barbecue pit, the officers said.

The haul included: nine pints, Cavalier gin, and one 4-5 quart; eleven pints A. M. E. liquor and four 4-5 quarts; six 4-5 quarts Crab Orchard; 18 pints Two Naturals; 11 quarts Two Naturals; four quarts Brandy; one quart and two pints of corn liquor of the type made in Beaufort county.

In 1925, the newly-formed Aero Club of New York could raise only $1,000 to purchase the patents of the Wright brothers, because the business men of that day said aviation was merely a fad.

CALL MORE DYE WORKERS FOR STRIKE

10,000 More Silk and Rayon Dyers Today Asked to Take Part In Walkout

Paterson, N. J., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Union leaders today extended their tie-up of silk dyeing plants to Pennsylvania and Rhode Island centers of the industry. A call to 10,000 workers at Belvidere and Oxford in New Jersey, Sunbury, Shamokin, Williamsport and Allentown, Pennsylvania, and Providence, Rhode Island, was issued last night by the Federation of Silk and Rayon Dyers and Finishers of America.

Twenty thousand dyers in the Passaic Valley and 10,000 others in metropolitan New York walked out Thursday. The Pennsylvania and Rhode Island workers have been invited to strike later this week.

Renewed efforts of strike leaders and employers to reach an agreement collapsed yesterday.

THREE ARE INJURED IN CAR-TRUCK CRASH

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 30.—Three persons were injured, none critically, today when an automobile operated by Dr. Claude Voils, Mooresville, collided with an oil truck driven by Albert N. Smith, Concord, on the highway near Bolton.

Dr. Voils, his mother, Mrs. Emma Voils, and Smith were injured and were brought to a local hospital for treatment. Their condition last night was reported as being favorable.

The machines were reported as having collided when the drivers' vision was obscured by smoke which covered the road.

By GEORGE DURNO Washington, Oct. 30.—Epic: Calm prediction of the winner in next Tuesday's red-hot California gubernatorial race from a distance of 3,000 miles requires too much guessing for this column to compute.

Washington has, however, received some long-range reports from its political ear-to-ground department that provides interesting speculation in advance of the official result.

Democratic outsiders send back word that the tide has turned against Socialist-Democrat Sinclair and that Republican Acting Governor Frank Merriam will win. This isn't news but the rest of the report is.

Reports trickling east across the continent continue to the effect that although Sinclair seems to be a loser he has succeeded nevertheless in selling his EPIC plan to California. Revival and broadcast of Sinclair's early religious views and prejudices are figured as his personal stumbling-block.

Disinterested observers here are speculating on the situation that would develop if Sinclair loses his race for the Governor's Mansion and then carries on to force adoption of his "End Poverty" program through the state's initiative and referendum.

DEADLOCK IN LONDON NAVAL CONFERENCE

No Session Today as Delegates Give Time For Differences to Cool

London, Oct. 30.—(AP)—In an effort to cool disagreement which had deadlocked naval negotiations among the three sea powers meetings tentatively scheduled today were called off. The Japanese delegates had hoped to meet with the Americans, but it was understood these delegates along with the British decided it was best to postpone the talks until tomorrow.

Japan held her ground in the face of American and British opposition to her proposal for a new naval treaty based upon the principle of tonnage equality. The delegates from Tokyo are convinced they can dent the opposition by further conversations. As a result, they asked a new meeting with the Americans, but the Americans feel that concessions should come from the Japanese.

Norman H. Davis and Admiral William H. Standley told the Japanese delegates that the junking of the Washington and London naval treaties would not give Japan equality because the other powers, Britain and America, would keep ahead of her in building.

Revival To Close Wednesday Night

There was a large congregation to hear Rev. R. F. Pittman last night at the Free Will Baptist Church. The special song service consisted of a solo by Rev. Pittman and "Cast Thy Bread Upon the Waters," sung by the members of the Free Will Baptist quartet.

Rev. Pittman's subject was "What a Person Misses Who Is Not a Christian." His text was Eoh. 2:11-12. He stated that "Sensible people wish for themselves the best that life holds, yet so many were living without any apparent relation to Christ. They are mistaken to think they are better off without Him. We miss: a sense of peace with God; power, a clue to the meaning of life; inspiration to do hard tasks, and hope. Sin and suffering are life's great mysteries. Jesus came to save men from sin. We have nothing to lose by being a Christian, but everything to gain."

The meeting will continue through Wednesday night. The public is urged to attend these last two services.

DRUNK TRUCK DRIVER IS KILLED BY HIS SON

Bowden, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Joe Pinyagella, 55-year-old truck operator was shot to death by his son, Joe, Jr., at their home here yesterday.

The younger Pinyagella told officers his father had been drinking and was threatening him with a butcher knife when he fired a shot gun at him at close range. An inquest was called for Wednesday morning. Young Pinyagella was not arrested pending the inquest.

Chickens shouldn't be counted before they crack the shell but at least the possibility of such a situation gives food for entertaining thought.

Sunk: Merchant ship concerns are sweating blood. The cards are stacked against them in the ocean mail industry. Postoffice officials headed by Big Black Jim Farley himself are out to kill the contracts regardless of the subsidy policy of Congress.

The probers have declared their intention. FDR stands ready to adopt their recommendations. He has power to cancel or modify contracts.

Both FDR and Secretary Roper are committed to a direct ship subsidy. But what ship concerns fear is that a long gap may occur between loss of present contracts and enactment of a subsidy bill.

UNEMPLOYED NUMBERED 9,976,000 IN SEPTEMBER New York, Oct. 30.—Unemployed workers numbered 9,976,000 in September, 1934, according to the preliminary estimate of the National Industrial Conference Board announced today. This is an increase of 177,000 over August and 1,037,000 over the low point of 8,939,000 in May, 1934.

In manufacturing and mechanical industries, 4,217,000 were unemployed in September; in transportation industries 1,296,000. The textile strike was a cause of the increase of 345,000 in unemployment in the manufacturing group in September.

HOLD TWO FOR QUESTIONING

Officers of Crown Point Jail Held in Connection With Dillinger Escape

Crown Point, Ind., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Lewis Baker, warden at Crown Point jail and Ernest Blunk, fingerprint expert, were taken into custody early this morning by Deputy Attorney General Ray Edward Barce for questioning in connection with the escape of the late John Dillinger from the jail last March 3.

Barce, accompanied by three automobile loads of State policemen and other officers, took Baker and Blunk to an unannounced destination. Other than to say each man was taken into custody for questioning in connection with Dillinger's escape, the deputy attorney-general withheld comment.

Dillinger, who escaped from the Crown Point jail by using a wooden pistol, was shot to death in Chicago last July 22 by Federal officers as he left a motion picture show. Deputy Attorney General Barce has been investigating the notorious criminal's escape for several months.

Barce said a number of other persons would be taken into custody during the day. He said he could not reveal details of his actions.

Blunk was indicted after Dillinger's escape, but was acquitted by Special Judge Maurice S. Crites, who termed the entire procedure as a comedy of errors. Blunk at that time said he was forced by Dillinger to accompany him through a garage near the jail and in an automobile as far as Pothone, Indiana.

TELLS OF TRIP TO EUROPE AND THE HOLY LAND

Dr. J. L. Peacock Delivers Address to Rotary Club Here Last Night

Last night the Rotarians had the privilege of hearing Dr. J. L. Peacock, pastor of the First Baptist church of Tarboro, relate his outstanding observations and experiences from a trip through eleven foreign countries. Dr. Peacock landed in Cuba in the midst of its revolution this summer. His hotel was the revolutionary party's headquarters. What he advised his sister was the collision of two autos turned out to be the sound of the bomb that killed twenty people.

The thrifty hard working people of France impressed the tourist also. It jarred him to see the women in the fields working as day laborers. However, he said he did not see any signs of any prospects of starving for these French people for they have learned diversified farming and can do such wonders at production on limited quantities of land.

Going to Germany over the protest of friends and family because he felt safe traveling as an American citizen, Dr. Peacock had a glimpse of Germany through the eyes of his host who was an American citizen of German birth who was in Germany taking post graduate medical work in the University of Berlin. The German people are going along as though nothing had happened with seemingly loyalty. But the undercurrent of objection to Hitler impressed the traveler until he predicts that Hitler will be assassinated in six months.

Hitler in spite of every effort to secure a unanimous vote in the recent plebiscite to elect him president received a vote of nay from six million Germans primarily the intellectuals who dislike Hitler's denial of all freedom. Ex-Kaiser William would like to see Hitler removed and open the way for the return of the rulers. The Lutheran church which was the State church under former rule has thirty thousand ministers kicking against the goad of Hitler's regime.

The intellectuals feel that the persecution of the Jews was a grave mistake on the part of Hitler. The largest department store in the world is in Berlin. Its head is a Jew. Hitler's minions told him to fire all Jews. He refused flatly but he is doing business as usual.

Also regarded as a mistake on the part of Hitler was his assumption of the title of President as well as that of Chancellor. As one German expressed it upon reading of the new act of Hitler "I am sorry; another mistake of Hitler. Mussolini never makes mistakes."

Mussolini has cleaned up Italy of rubbish, beggars, old buildings and the like. The Italian King cannot blow his nose without Mussolini's permission but Mussolini is glad to hold the handkerchief. This situation of acceptance of the continuance of the Monarchy in Italy is one thing that keeps Mussolini in power.

Switzerland is the most prosperous nation in Europe. They are not burdened with taxes for the support of army and navy.

Port Said is not the most wicked city in the world any more. Alexandria has assumed this role. Dr. Peacock experienced the sad occasion of seeing a boy of ten being used to purvey vice.

Dr. Peacock biggest thrill came in putting his foot on the soil of Palestine. He entered the old port of Joppa. He was impressed there with the Milton dollar Y. M. C. A. building and endowed with American money.

In Palestine he found race hatred at its worst. New Cities have grown up. Old ones have been added to. Jewas are being sent there to (Continued on page Three.)

WINDS KEEP OCEAN FLIERS TO THE GROUND

Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith Awaiting Good Weather For Hop Across Pacific

Honolulu, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Adverse winds kept Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith and Captain T. G. Taylor grounded today awaiting a take-off on the third and last leg of their perilous over flight from Australia to California.

Advised of a storm moving southward along the west coast of the United States, the Australian flier and his navigator decided to remain here until conditions were more auspicious for their 2,400-mile hop to Oakland or Los Angeles, Calif.

"I am not out for any records," said Sir Charles. "It all depends on the weather."

Government Looks To Unemployment Insurance Plan

Washington, D. C., Oct. 30.—(AP)—The government facing another winter of widespread unemployment placed new emphasis on work and loans today—rather than a dole. Beyond that—it looked into the future and worked on a plan for a direct tax on rolls to support unemployment insurance designed to rob depressions of some of their terrors.

Big Fire Loss At Oxford Today

Oxford, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Fire of undetermined origin early today destroyed one of the workshops of the Chase Buggy Company and also a building of Clark-Elliott Company in the center of Oxford's business section. Local firemen had a hard fight to save Owen warehouse and other adjoining buildings but were successful.

The loss was heavy but had not been estimated this morning.

SET TERRELL HEARING FOR TOMORROW

Special Venire of 100 Summoned For Rape Trial Tomorrow Morning

The case of C. A. Terrell, charged with rape of a Greenville young woman on October 11 was set for trial here tomorrow morning in Superior Court by Judge R. Hunt Parker today when Terrell arraigned before the court entered a plea of not guilty. The grand jury yesterday returned a true bill in the case. Judge Parker today ordered a special venire of 100 persons summoned to appear in court tomorrow morning from which the jury is to be selected. Former Judge Alton Dunn is appearing as counsel for the defendant and the prosecution will be handled by Solicitor D. M. Clark assisted by L. W. Gaylor.

A week's term of criminal court with Judge Parker presiding, got under way here yesterday morning but little of the docket was called yesterday because of the fact that most of the day was taken up with the special habeas corpus proceedings under which Mrs. Ruby Grice and her brother Herbert Sasser of Goldsboro, sought release under bond. The pair were being held in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Grice's husband.

Only one case was disposed of yesterday morning before the court turned its attention to the habeas corpus hearing. Amos Beaman, deaf mute was charged with stealing an automobile and wrecking same in a highway collision. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

This morning Bennie Smith pled guilty to a charge of breaking and entering and was sentenced to a term of 18 months in jail. True bills returned by the grand jury yesterday included the following: Gertrude Green, larceny; Eddie Smith, Bubber Taylor and Helen Taylor, robbery; Levi Taylor, forgery on two charges; Jesse Dudley, assault with a deadly weapon and inflicting injury; Willie Johnson, breaking and entering; Dennis Wilson, murder.

Arest Man Wanted In New Orleans

Bay City, Mich., Oct. 30.—(AP)—A man who called at the post office for a letter addressed to "Thomas A. Robinson" was taken into custody today by a deputy United States Marshal and officers here said it was understood that he was wanted for questioning about a forgery case in New Orleans. Officers said the request for Robinson's detention came from the U. S. Secret Service office in Detroit.

Similarity in the names and the fact that the arrest was ordered by federal agents gave rise to early belief that the man sought might be Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., suspected kidnapper of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll, Louisville society matron. In Detroit, however, William Larsen, chief of Department of Justice forces there said there was no connection between the arrest and the Stoll case.

Special Message At Tent Revival This Evening

Evangelist R. L. Erickson will tell those who attend the revival at the tent, corner Third and Colanone Streets, how to "know that you are saved." This very special message will be given tonight at 7:30 o'clock. This is information that every person should have, and it is vitally important. It would be better to know this now than to find it out when too late.

This is the fourth week of this revival, and if you are interested in the salvation of some lost one now is the time to act. The Erickson evangelistic party came to Greenville after a four months' campaign in Rocky Mount, N. C., having gone there to stay three weeks. They are now in this city to help the lost find God, and the deceived be enlightened as to their souls' welfare.

Those who have failed to attend are missing a great blessing, that the preaching of Bible truth could bring to their lives and experiences. Sunday night Evangelist Erickson told his hearers that the "wages of sin is death," and between twenty-five and thirty people lifted their hands as a request for prayer that they might not die the spiritual death but live forever. These services are different; come, see and hear for yourself.

DRIVE CAREFULLY TODAY

EVERYBODY KNOWS DYNAMITE

It doesn't seem quite right that a man should be in more danger of losing his life while taking his family out for a Sunday afternoon drive than if he were at work in a powder plant. It is a fact, however. The manufacturers and handlers of a high explosive recognize the dangers in connection with it. Somehow motor vehicle operators must be brought to understand the dangers attendant upon careless car driving.

BANISH THE RECKLESS DRIVER

Reports from police departments, state traffic authorities and safety organizations in all parts of the country show a startling increase in automobile accidents.

Every driving crime is on the rise. The result, if the present trend continues, will be that 1934 will see the establishment of a new high in fatalities.

The automobile accident problem, which has been a major issue for many years, has reached a crucial stage.

The old-fashioned type of safety campaign, restricted both in time and area, must be replaced by a real safety campaign, engineered and enforced by the general public.

Chapter 23 LON'S BIG NEWS

Marian was serving the dessert when Lon drove in, halted them all with a laugh, kissed Marian's unresponsive cheek, quickly turned to the car and asked for food.

"Do you call dining with Silver Hondon a business conference?" asked Marian, making no move towards the kitchen.

"What do you mean?" he asked. "Silver telephoned here half an hour ago. Told us to go ahead with dinner as you were staying there."

"Oh, did she?" asked Lon with interest. "Well they did try to make me stay but I balked. I would have called you myself only Silver said McSwain was expecting a long distance call and they were keeping the wires cleared."

Marian believed him; that was what Silver would say and do. She served his dinner while he cleaned up, looked at him as he came in. He was happy. His face was shining with soap and water and small boy satisfaction.

"Lon," Marian was on her feet, a white anger searing her mind her heart beating in thumps which seemed to shake her entire body.

not much is said about it in public. The abolition of such returns is sheer poison to holding company set-ups. Not only will they no longer be able to use the losses of weak units as a tax offset to the profits of more prosperous associates, but such items as bond interest paid by a holding company will be a much heavier burden.

Bilbro-Hobgood.
Kinston, Oct. 28.—The marriage of Miss Lettie Mae Hobgood to Cecil Octavius Bilbro of Greenville, was solemnized today at high noon at the First Baptist Church, Rev. C. T. Johnson pronouncing the marriage vows.

The church was decorated with yellow and bronze chrysanthemums, a grouping of yellow candles emphasizing the background of green palms and ferns.

The bride's attendants were her sister, Miss Sophia E. Hobgood, as maid of honor, and Miss Edna Helms of Cherryville, bridesmaid. They were attired in coral velvet, worn with hat and other accessories of brown. Their arm bouquets were of Tullisam roses and bronze chrysanthemums.

The bride entered with her father by whom she was given in marriage, and was met before the altar by the bridegroom accompanied by Tyson Bilbro as best man.

The bride wore a model of dark green wool trimmed with blue fox collar, and green accessories, a small hat with pointed nose-veil completing the ensemble. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley daintily showered.

Ushers were John F. Mewborne of this city, David Evans, Wesley Harvey, Bruce Bilbro and Fred Forbes of Greenville.

The wedding music began at 11:30, a program of instrumental numbers including "Venetian Love Song," "Still As The Night," "Melody in B Flat," and other selections rendered by Mrs. Kola B. Farabow, organist, and Robert Rhodes, violinist. Frederick Allen sang "All For You" and "Because." "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" was played softly during the taking of the vows.

Mr. and Mrs. Bilbro left immediately following the marriage service for a wedding trip to Florida. Upon their return they will occupy an apartment in the home of Mrs. Jack Temple.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Dee Hobgood. She was educated at State Teachers' College, Harrisburg, Va.

The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Octavius Bilbro of Greenville, attended Fork Union Military Academy, Fork Union, Va., and is now employed by Hooker Brothers wholesale concern, with headquarters in Kinston.

Following the rehearsal on Friday evening the parents of the bride entertained at an informal reception honoring the bridal party. Guests were members of the bridal party, intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom and out-of-town guests.

In the dining room, a color note of white and yellow was affected in table decorations and refreshments. The bride's cake, centering an arrangement of white tapers, represented a miniature arch before which stood a replica of a bride and bridegroom.

Anniversary Luncheon.
On Sunday Mrs. R. W. King entertained her children at a delightful luncheon at the Friendly Dining Room in celebration of her wedding anniversary and the anniversary of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gaylord.

At the same time the grandchildren had luncheon at the home of Mrs. King on Dickinson avenue.

SAYS STATE MUST ASSIST IN RELIEF
Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Addressing a meeting of 200 relief workers from twenty counties here today, Mrs. Thomas O'Berry, State Relief Administrator, said that unless the State furnished funds to aid in the work the Federal Government would discontinue its relief efforts in North Carolina.

Mrs. O'Berry said she expected the next General Assembly to do something toward providing relief funds.

She revealed also that the number of families on relief rolls in this State has grown from 55,000 last year to 77,000. Part of this increase she attributed to the crop curtailment program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

JURY TO INVESTIGATE FATALITY ON HIGHWAY
Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 30.—A coroner's inquest will be held here Wednesday afternoon on the death of Sattie Mae Cumbee, four-year-old daughter of Sergeant L. L. Cumbee, of the Seventeenth Field Artillery, Fort Bragg, who was run over yesterday afternoon by a car driven by R. J. Patterson, manager of the State game farm near here. The accident occurred on the highway near the home of the child's parents at Bonnie Doon. It was investigated by highway patrolmen, who placed Patterson under bond pending the inquest. Patterson formerly lived at Asheboro.

Funeral services for the little girl were conducted from the home this afternoon.

Talks to Parents

"Where Brook And River Meet"
By BROOKE PETERS CHURCH

Where childhood ends and manhood or womanhood begins is a very uncertain boundary line. Some children attain years of discretion earlier than others, some never seem to reach them at all.

Somewhere, however, the break from irresponsible childhood must be made, and parents must once and for all take off the leading-strings and treat the child as they would any other grown person.

Even if the child continues to live in the house and to be dependent upon his parents for support, he must be permitted unquestioned freedom when his schooling is over and he has reached the place where he would normally be self-supporting. If he is unable to be trusted with the responsibility he is either not normal, or his parents have been at fault in the way they have brought him up.

But in many cases the real fault lies in the parents' not being willing to take their hands off and let the child fend for himself. They have managed and guided him for so long that it has become a habit, and they still remind him of bedtime, insist on knowing where he is going, what time he came in the night before, and a dozen other details.

If he were living out and earning a livelihood he would be treated as an equal by employers and fellow-workers; only his parents continue to regard him as a child.

There is no moment in a child's life when he can be told, "Now you are grown up." The process steals up gradually, and parents can only try more and more to withdraw from interference until by the time the youngster has passed the shadowy limits of childhood, they have become his friends and not his mentors.

INJURED IN ACCIDENT.
Wilson, Oct. 30.—H. G. Whitehead and Tom Anderson were reported to be painfully but not seriously injured in a motor accident near Ioulesburg yesterday. Details of the accident were unknown here but it was said Mr. Whitehead suffered the loss of several teeth and was bruised and shocked and Mr. Anderson sustained only minor injuries.

ANOTHER FREAK POTATO IN REFLECTOR WINDOW
The Reflector is in receipt of another freak potato from W. G. Allen, formerly of Greenville, but who is now making his home in Kinston. Mr. Allen brought in a sweet potato which very much resembles a goose in appearance. Carrying out the idea, Mr. Allen supplied matches for eyes and wooden feet, and the result is an almost exact replica of one of the fowl.

Sundown Stories

Hallow'en Plans
By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

"It's almost Hallow'en," said Willy Nilly, "and I think we should have a party. I know I haven't any more backbone than an old brown leaf just ready to be blown off the tree, but we always celebrate Hallow'en in Puddle Muddle."

No one in Puddle Muddle ever objected to a party. So Willy Nilly set to work, the others running and getting things as he needed them.

First of all he hung apples fastened through with strong string from the railing on the porch.

"You see," he explained, "each one in turn will see if they can get a bite from the apple as it swings from the string."

Then he made little boats out of walnut shells and said: "We'll launch these in a tub of water and each one will have a boat named after him. The boat that does not upset, even though we all blow the water to make it rough, will show that its owner is going to have an unexpected treat. But the one that upsets first will show that his owner is going to get into mischief."

"Oh dear," sighed Christopher, "my boat will probably upset and I'm really and truly not thinking up any mischief at the moment."

"You can think up mischief quickly enough," said Top Notch, the rooster.

"Thanks for the compliment," cawed Christopher.

Willy Nilly chuckled, and then he continued with his plans. He decorated the house with jack o'lanterns, he gathered apples for bobbing and put a penny each in three of these apples. And then he hid nuts wrapped up in orange colored paper so they could have a nut hunt.

Tomorrow—"Hallow'en Party"

WANT TO RELIEVE TIREDNESS?
GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!
TOBACCO MEN ALL KNOW:
Camels are made from finer, More Expensive Tobaccos—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.
Bill Miller, famous all-around athlete and 4 times National Single Sculls champion, explains in this way the "lift" he experiences from smoking a Camel: "Many people have commented on how quickly my energy seems to come back after a hard race. The secret is, I think, that it is my custom to smoke a Camel after a race. With me, as with other smokers, Camels quickly refresh me and revive my energy. And Camels never upset my nerves."
