WORK ON PLAN TO TRANSFER NRA TO AGENCIES

President Makes Announcement At Conference

FINAL DETAILS TO BE WORKED OUT

President Explains Plan for Balance of NRA's Life, or From Now Until April

Washington, Dec. 20.—(AP)—The administration is working out plans for transferring the activities carried on by NRA to two or three established government agencies, but details have not been finally determined.

President Roosevelt said at his regular press conference that plans were being considered to transfer NRA to various department dividing its functions among them.

He explained that the plan was only for the balance of NRA's life, or for the period from now until April.

But he said details were still to be worked out and he named none of the departments involved. He denied that the federal trade commission would be one.

Seal Sale Drive Far Short Goal Set by Officials

Dr. Ennett, County Chairman, Asks Citizens to Place Seals on Packages and Cards

The Tuberculosis Christmas seal campaign in Pitt county is several hundred dollars short of the goal of $2,000, Dr. N. Thomas Ennett, chairman for the county announced today.

The county chairman said that the campaign was meeting with a ready response on the part of a good many of the citizens, but urged the people of the county not to forget to secure the stickers and attach them to their Christmas cards as well as packages. The seals are on sale at the various drug stores and postoffices.

Dr. Ennett said the $2,000 goal was far from being reached at the latest tabulation, but that the response from the various sales campaigns indicated that the proceeds would surpass the fund raised last year.

Of the total realized from the drive, 75 per cent will be kept in the community, five per cent will go to the national organization and 20 per cent to the state fund.

President Getulio Vargas of Brazil took a leaf from President Roosevelt in vetoing a bill providing bonus payments to disabled veterans. "Not only would the measure weigh onerously on the nation," his veto message read, "but it would be unfair because it would not include all army and navy ranks."

ALL PERMITS BEEN MAILED

All Drivers' License Should Have Been Received

Lieut. Lester Jones, head of the Eastern division of the State Highway patrol, said today all persons having applied for their drivers' license before November 1 should have them.

The Patrol head said all applications, except those which were not filled out complete, had been mailed from Raleigh and should be in the hands of the applicants.

Lieut. Jones added that anyone having made application for the driving permits more than a week ago and not yet received them should write a post card to the Division of Highway Safety, Department of Revenue, Raleigh, giving their full name and address and approximate date the application was made and asking for full particulars relative to their application.

The law provides that motorists must have the licenses on their person at all times and if they are unable to produce them are subject to arrest.

Christmas Spirit Is More In Evidence As Schools Close

City Schools to Reopen Thursday, January 2, County System to Start on January 6

The Christmas holiday spirit was more in evidence today in Greenville and throughout the county as city and county schools closed for the holidays.

The City schools closed at noon for a short respite from class room duties. They will be reopened Thursday, January 2. Supt. J. H. Rose said it was necessary to re-open the schools before two full weeks of vacation in order to get in the extended term of nine months.

The county schools closed this afternoon and will not reopen until Monday, January 6. County Supt. D. H. Conley said, however, it is hoped the Winterville school will be able to open a week earlier. The school has already been closed two weeks while a deep well is being dug, and if it is opened December 30 it will be only one week behind.

Students at East Carolina Training college began leaving Tuesday and Wednesday.

Leland Forlines and Norman C. Gaskins Are Hurt

BOTH RESIDENTS OF WINTERVILLE

Taken to Hospital After Motorcycle They were Riding Crashes Into Automobile

Two young Winterville men were seriously injured this afternoon when the motorcycle they were riding struck an automobile head-on on Dickinson avenue at Young's store.

The full extent of their injuries had not been determined at Pitt General hospital, where they were taken by ambulance.

Leland Forlines was suffering from injuries about the head and face. It had not been determined whether or not he had a fractured skull. Norman C. Gaskins had an injury to the back. Both were about 20 years old. It was not determined which was driving the vehicle.

Chief George Clark said the two boys were headed East on Dickinson avenue and quoted witnesses as saying they were running at a fast rate of speed. He said his information was that R. B. Jones of Grifton, driver of the car which was struck by the motorcycle, saw them coming and stopped his car.

The motorcycle, Chief Clark reported, swerved from one side to the other and then ran into the front of the automobile. Each of the boys were thought to have been flung against the car. The police chief said Mr. Jones was on his right side of the street and the boys' motorcycle struck it headfirst.

Borah Offers To Co-Operate Fully With Republicans

Declares His 1936 Objective Was a Liberal Platform For Republicans In Campaign

Washington, Dec. 20.—(AP)—Senator Borah of Idaho formally declared today his 1936 objective was a liberal republican platform and said he would "cooperate fully" with plans of any progressive groups endeavoring to line up convention delegates pledged to his own candidacy.

"My primary objective" Borah said in a formal statement is "a convention of liberal delegates which will write a liberal platform and name a liberal candidate. To that end I shall devote my efforts. If it is thought better to pledge the delegates to some other liberal I shall cooperate just as fully." Borah added that as he says the political situation a man would be seeking immolation to take a nomination upon any other than a liberal platform.

In handing his brief statement to an interviewer Senator Borah indicated this would be as nearly to a formal statement as to his candidacy as he would make before the Republicans meet at Cleveland, June 9.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

News Behind The News

Washington By RAY TUCKER BEREPT: Republican graybeards drank no toasts and sang no songs of good fellowship to pestiferous Progressives at their Washington reunion. It was steered entirely by Old Guardsmen.

In fact they secretly rejoiced at an unnoted but extremely important political development of recent years, defeat and Franklin D. Roosevelt have combined to purge the GOP of trouble-making insurgents. The mavericks who wrecked the mighty vote-getting machine of the early twenties are growing old, indifferent, or moving into Rooseveltian pastures.

Norris and LaFollette have cut fallen into a serene slumber. Nye stands hitched except on a few issues. Borah is a prey to ambition. The others—Norbeck and Frazier—possess almost no political or parliamentary influence. Likewise the farm issue, which plagued Harding, Coolidge and Hoover, marches toward settlement through gradual, bi-partisan adoption of a modified AAA program.

TAPPERS: Some Rooseveltians welcome the Townsend plan's amazing growth in popularity as a blessing in disguise. They have persuaded themselves that the doctor's prescription will be a more disagreeable pill for Republicans than for themselves. They reason, though not aloud, that the presence of a noisy, belligerent block of Townsendites in the (Continued on Page Four)

London Sources Declare England Seeks Mobilize Nations Against Attack

PEACE PLANS ABANDONED

Meanwhile Spirited Fighting Halted As Askari Warriors Celebrate Victory

(By The Associated Press) The British government, abandoning the Franco-British plan for peace between Italy and Ethiopia, was described in London today trying to mobilize other members of the league of nations to meet a possible attack by Italy.

This disclosure from a high British source indicated that British envoys already were attempting to gain iron clad guarantees from other nations of support in case of military hostilities.

Although the potential allies were not named, it was assured that they were all Mediterranean powers.

Prime Minister Baldwin's successful negotiation of a stormy, parliament sea was followed by an official announcement in Paris that the head of the French government, Premier Laval, also would remain in office.

The possibility that the Italian government might attempt to place both Great Britain and France in an embarrassing diplomatic position was indicated by a spokesman for the government at Rome.

He said Italy still regarded Great Britain and France as bound by the Anglo-French people plan pending a decision by the Fascist grand council.

League of nations circles at Geneva enthusiastically hailed the breakdown of the British-French peace suggestions. Peace prevailed where there had been agitation and despair.

The British ministry turned its thoughts to selection of a successor to Sir Manuel Hoare, resigned foreign secretary who emerged from the critical House of Commons debate on foreign policy with cheers from the bench.

Premier Laval returned to Paris from Geneva to prepare his defense to expected fire from the French Chamber of Deputies over the Franco-British recommendations.

On the actual battlegrounds spirited fighting of three days was halted as 2,000 Askari warriors celebrated with victory dances in the Mai Timchet valley near Asmara. Casualties of the Ethiopian flank attack and the resulting Italian counter attack was set at more than 1,000, heaviest since the start of the yet undeclared war.

The Italian northern army reported defeat of an Ethiopian force south of Abbi Addi, 25 miles west of Makale, including "considerable losses."

DEFENSE UNIT IS SUGGESTED IN LEAGUE CIRCLES TODAY

Geneva, Dec. 20.—(AP)—The suggestion was advanced in international circles today following today, following the lead of Prime Minister of Great Britain, that the league of nations council should consider asking league members to contribute fighting units to a league military force.

This military force would include land, sea and air forces, and would be used for the protection of the league covenant.

Sources which disclosed the suggestion explained that the league forces would not be intended for aggressive purposes against Italy but would be mere acting Great Britain he was not sure alone in the Mediterranean.

Such action is permitted under article 16 of the covenant under which the league imposed economic and financial sanction against Italy.

The opinion prevailed in every quarter, however, that the suggestion would not be followed up.

BAIKAN COUNTRIES ARE REPORTED BEHIND MILITARY DEFENSE UNIT

Paris, Dec. 20.—(AP)—Diplomatic sources asserted today that Turkey, Greece and Yugoslavia had expressed willingness to take military and naval precautions against any attack brought on by the application of sanctions against Italy.

Observers interpreted the statement as referring to the decision of the Balkan entente at Geneva for "strict loyal application of the covenant as well as commenting of action in the present circumstances."

LATE MAYOR IS HONORED

Memorial Service Is Under Tree At Home

The late Mayor Roy C. Flanagan was honored at a memorial service held under a lighted Holly tree in the yard of the home last night under the auspices of the Greenville Woman's club.

A large number of local people gathered on the lawn of the home on West Fifth street to pay tribute to the memory of the late Mr. Flanagan. Mrs. J. H. B. Moore conducted the program and the High School Glee club, with those attending joining in occasionally, sang several Christmas carols.

Rev. Worth Wicker delivered the invocation. Mrs. Moore then introduced Martin Swartz of the City Water and Light commission, which organization lighted the tree. Mayor Marvin K. Blount, who succeeded the late mayor to the city's number one position, then made a few remarks, declaring that an evergreen tree was a fitting memorial to Mr. Flanagan.

J. H. Rose, superintendent of the City schools, on behalf of the school children, spoke briefly.

After Mrs. Moore had reminded those present of a few of the virtues of Mr. Flanagan, and the group had joined in singing Silent Night, Rev. W. A. Ryan said the benediction.

Mrs. Moore officially announced that a holly tree would be planted in the park, near the swimming pool, at a future date and similar services would be held under it each Christmas time.

GILLIAM MAY DRY HOPEFUL CONTEST KERR FOR FRANKLIN

Three-Cornered Race Seen in Second District

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.
Raleigh, Dec. 20.—Second district here yesterday and the day before say that early in January Collector Don Gilliam is going to announce his candidacy for congress against John H. Kerr, incumbent, and A. O. Dickens, Wilson lawyer who has entered the race against Mr. Kerr.

Solicitor Gilliam is represented as being less excited over this prospect than any of his opponents. But the presence here of Congressman Kerr Wednesday did nothing to abate the talk. Mr. Dickens has run once and got encouragement enough to make the second try. If the two get into the contest, Congressman Kerr this second will be the battleground of the district in 1936.

The story of the urge behind Mr. Gilliam's candidacy is the oldest of his friends that Mr. Dickens could succeed him as solicitor. The judgeship of that district is now held by Judge M. V. Barnhill, who lives in Rocky Mount where he is partly a Nash and partly an Edgecombe county citizen. Mr. Gilliam lives in Edgecombe. Should the congressional honor go to Edgecombe after a long residence in other counties, Halifax and Warren, the judicial district honor might spread a little, it is contended. Nash is not in the second congressional district, but Edgecombe is in the Willamette and Nash judicial districts.

Mr. Gilliam, it is said, does not care greatly for the agitation in his behalf, but he is represented as quite willing to race Mr. Kerr if there is demand enough for him. He rates among the best equipped men of any age in North Carolina and his friends believe nobody could beat him in polling votes. By the first of the year it is expected that he will state his position and indicate whether he is willing to go through such a campaign.

DRY HOPEFUL FOR FRANKLIN

Liquor Referendum is to Be Held Next Monday

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.
Raleigh, Dec. 20.—With an election just three days off the dries of Raleigh believe they have certainly an even chance to beat the wets in Franklin in the Monday poll to determine whether Franklin shall open a liquor store in Louisville and Franklinton and perhaps other towns.

The courts gave Franklin a setback when the tide seemed to be with the dries. They had made a better fight than the wets had and appeared to be on the verge. But they caught a restraining order to prevent the election and got it. But it was not the right remedy. The supreme court held that the state's prohibition counties opened their liquor stores some tax relief was needed and the swing of the earlier activity had died out. A new campaign was necessary and the wets with a half-court support went with more heart into this one.

If the wets carry the county no stores will be opened before the next year. Counsel for the commissioners thought it unwise to bid for the holiday trade. Franklin has sold its tobacco and cotton crop and there will be available much less money than there was in the early fall. There is very little interest in Franklin and visitors to Franklin say there is no home excitement.

Still, if Franklin adds itself to the list of counties now making considerable reduction in taxes by reason of the liquor sales, the task of the absolute dries and the wets believing in state rather than county control, will be made much harder. It is hard to get an agreement as to what has been the effect of these stores in the counties which have voted them. But there is no quarrel over one fact—the stores have sold enough liquor to make everybody know that there is a lot of it being consumed. And one of the pledges of the ABC advocates was that there should be intelligent direction of these sales.

Gardner's Visit To Ambassador Still Question

Reported Former Governor Went to Mexico to Pledge Support to Ambassador Daniels

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, Dec. 20.—Sleuths, imported and local, have been trying to fathom a recently published rumor or speculation of one man, undertaking to explain the late visit of former Governor Max Gardner to Mexico City as the guest of Ambassador Josephus Daniels.

Mr. Gardner, it was guessed, went down to the conquistadores, to pledge his truth to Mr. Daniels and to offer the ambassador all possible Gardner help if the minister to Mexico would resign and return to North Carolina to run against Senator Josiah William Bailey. The equal of that story has not been written since Arthur Talmadge Abernethy found out that George Washington thought to be king. As the story arose in dry territory it is quite impossible to believe that liquor could have moved a scribe to such dreams.

The visit of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner to Mr. and Mrs. Daniels was news enough, albeit, despite the persistent pounding of Gardner by the ambassador while the Washington big time lawyer was governing, the Gardner and the Daniels did not break socially. It was a great gift of the Gardner administration that it could take it without the impulse to give it. More than once Mr. Daniels expressed his belief that Gardner was the worst governor the state ever had. And the crowning sin of Gardner was his defeat of both forms of the sales tax so passionately presented by Mr. Daniels and so reprobated now by him. It is hardly conceivable that Mr. Daniels called Mr. Gardner down below to make a mend for past abuse and to commend him for beating the odious sales tax.

But quite apart from any such speculations, Mr. Gardner hardly is boosting Mr. Daniels for the senate. Time was when Mr. Daniels was interested enough in the senate to ask for the personnel of the Gardner organization. That was shortly after the return from the naval service of eight years in the Wilson cabinet. There will be no difficulty of Mr. Gardner's part in supporting Senator Josiah William Bailey who is one of the steadiests of the Gardner admirers and anything but disposed to leave the senate for Mr. Daniels, who has shown little desire to try for any elective honors in North Carolina.

Industrial Board Holds Dog Bites Due Compensation

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, Dec. 20.—When a dog bites a man it may not be news.

Josh Cody (above), former mentor at Mercer university, Clemson college and assistant at Vanderbilt university, his alma mater, since 1931, has signed a three-year contract as head football coach at the University of Florida. (Associated Press Photo) but if the bite of the dog injures the man while in the performance of his work, then the injury is compensable and his employer must pay him compensation for time lost from his job, according to an opinion just handed down by the State Industrial Commission, in the case of G. E. Mathis against the New South Express Lines Corp. of Mecklenburg county.

In this particular case it was found that Mathis was required to leave his employer's premises and go into a back yard to get a wagon body, where he was bitten by a dog. The commission allowed compensation for the injury resulting from the dog bite on the grounds that even though the claimant was injured by an animate object, it was no less the result of accident to which he was exposed by being sent onto the strange premises where the dog bite him.

In eight other opinions handed down by the commission, compensation was allowed in one, denied in five, while the other two opinions did not involve the question of compensation. The other case in which compensation was allowed was that of E. T. Peasire against the City of Greensboro.

The five cases in which compensation was denied are:

- G. W. Russell, against Mecklenburg county, because claimant failed to give notice of injury within 30 days.
- W. F. Jennings against M. G. Morrisette Co., Elizabeth City, because claimant could not remember any accident or sudden injury.
- P. G. Lilly against Belk Bros. Mecklenburg, failed to give notice of injury.
- T. E. Meacham against Entwistle Mfg. Co. Rockingham county. (No reason).
- Frank Nash against Liddell Co.,

Mecklenburg (No reason). The other cases decided involved the amount of attorneys fees, the cancellation of insurance and whether a claimant was barred from seeking compensation because of an adverse verdict in a suit against a third party.

Townsendite Win Cause of Concern Of Intellectuals

Michigan's Special Congressional Election Results in Win for Townsend Candidate

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, Dec. 20.—Michigan's special congressional election in which a Townsend congressman running Republican won by taking two thirds of the votes made the intellectuals who were gathered here Wednesday think.

Some of them were Republicans, but most of them Democrats. Michigan was considered fairly safe for conservatism and of course one congressman no more makes a law than one swallow precipitates a summer. But the election leaves the oldtimers to wonder whether the Literary Digest poll, anti-New Deal in an alarming way, is against the administration because it has been mildly Townsendish, or because it is too mile. In a word, the defection from Roosevelt may mean that he has been too conservative.

Certainly it was hard for the regular Republicans to get any comfort from Michigan. And the steady Democrats of this section do not find everything pleasing. It has been a poorly authenticated rumor many weeks that Townsend clubs will be organized in this state and a campaign conducted for his $200 a month pension to the sexagenarians. The Tar Heel loves to think this state would be deaf to such dumbness as the Townsend plan suggests.

Then again, there is Dr. Ralph W. McDonald, not a Townsend man by commitment, but a fearful assailant of the sales tax and a rampage proponent of better salaries for everybody, old age pensions, unemployment insurance and such other proposals as will hasten the millennium. Dr. McDonald unquestionably is reaching many North Carolina people. Nobody thinks he can deliver with or without the sales tax, with or without the soak-the-rich legislation, chanted all over the country, but the mood of Michigan, a fairly well satisfied state, may be the mental state of many other commonwealths. Roosevelt Democrats and anti-Roosevelt-ers of all parties may find the unexpected unity right here. Undoubtedly there is abroad in the land a spirit which if directed by a real rouser of the populace, may prove tough for all warty organizations.

Anti-New Deal symptoms in New York, Maine and Pennsylvania are now found in another part of the country and for a very different reason.

Denies Slaying

This man, who claims he is Charles T. Davis, Tennessee farmer, went on trial in Denver for the slaying of Erwin C. Thompson, Iowa engineer, in 1932. He was identified by the prosecution and Mrs. Stella Ross Williams, who claimed she married him shortly after the slaying, as Harry E. Ross. The defendant denied their identification and knowledge of the slaying. (Associated Press Photo)
