

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

NEWS FOR THE READER
RESULTS FOR THE ADVERTISER

TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION

THE WEATHER

Partly cloudy to unsettled, possibly with scattered showers Wednesday and in extreme west portion and near the coast tonight.

VOL. 99 NO. 158.

Leased Wire

GREENVILLE, N. C., TUESDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 9TH, 1936.

Associated Press

Price: Five Cents

JUNE PRIMARY RETURNS NEAR FINAL COUNTS

Hoey Continues To Hold Slight Margin For Governor

FOUNTAIN HOPES ARE UNDAUNTED

Contest for Lieutenant Governor Appears Closest One on State Ticket

Charlotte, June 9.—(AP)—Clyde R. Hoey of Shelby had a 3,958 vote lead over Dr. Ralph W. McDonald of Winston-Salem, for governor as returns from 1,834 of 1,856 precincts in Saturday's Democratic primary were tabulated here today.

In the senatorial contest, Senator J. W. Bailey maintained a 28,000 majority over his three opponents with returns compiled from 1,636 precincts. The vote stood: Bailey 214,748; R. T. Fountain 153,237; Davil L. Strain 11,978; William H. Griffin 20,962.

Paul Grady held to his lead in the three-way race for lieutenant-governor and W. P. Horton kept ahead of George McNeill. Reports from 1,601 precincts gave Grady 140,466; Horton 119,630; and McNeill 114,424.

Charlotte, June 9.—(AP)—With unofficial returns tabulated from 1,587 of 1,856 precincts, Senator J. W. Bailey held a 29,000 majority today for re-nomination, but R. T. Fountain, second high man, predicted he would be forced into a second primary.

Fountain, former lieutenant-governor, said he was confident final returns would leave Bailey lacking a majority and that he would demand a second primary on July 4. He did not give out any definite figures.

The standing of the candidates was: Bailey 210,234; Fountain 149,488; Griffin 19,869; Strain 11,894. All seven of the state's eleven congressmen who had opposition in Saturday's primary appeared to be safely renominated on the face of fairly complete returns.

Clyde Hoey still maintained a narrow lead over Dr. Ralph McDonald in the four-cornered race for governor. A run-off contest between the two was assured.

With only 38 small precincts missing, the standing in the governor's race: Hoey 190,181; McDonald 185,611; Graham 125,486; and McRae 6,830.

The contest for lieutenant-governor appeared particularly close with 1,587 precincts counted, the vote was: Paul Grady, president pro-tem of the Senate, 139,675; W. P. Horton 118,822; George McNeill 113,857.

Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham trailed W. Kerr Scott, Grange leader, by 10,000 votes with more than two-thirds of the precincts reported.

Summer Term For Teachers' College Opens Here Today

Regular Classes For Session Scheduled to Get Underway at 8 o'Clock Tomorrow Morning

The first term of the Summer School of the College opened this morning at nine o'clock. The registration of students continued throughout the day, and regular classes will begin at eight o'clock tomorrow morning.

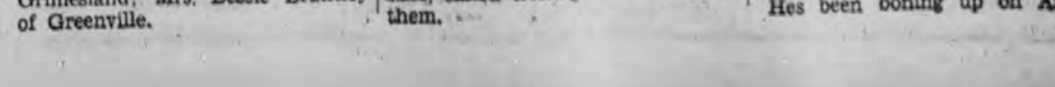

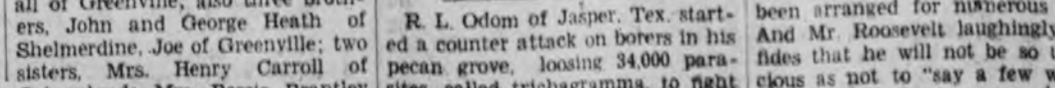

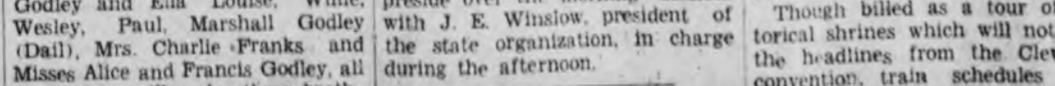

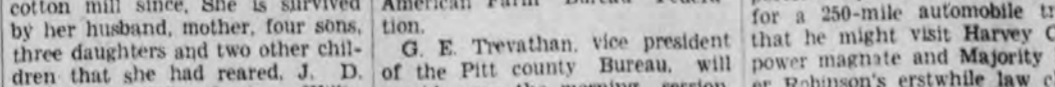

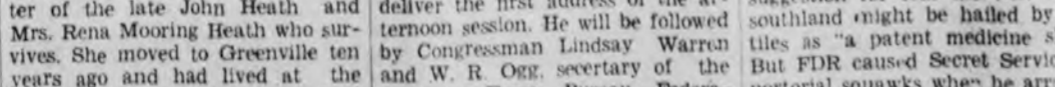

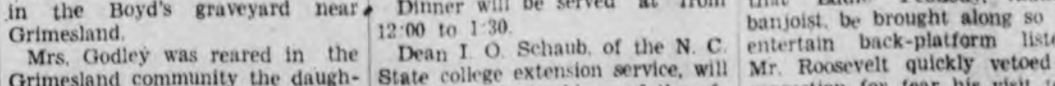

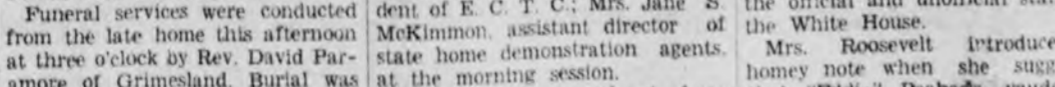

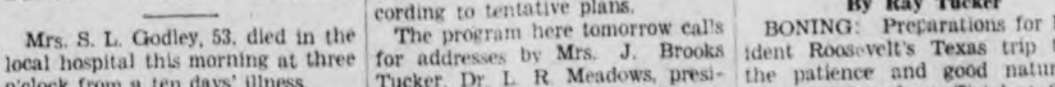

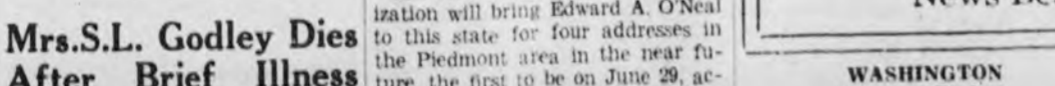

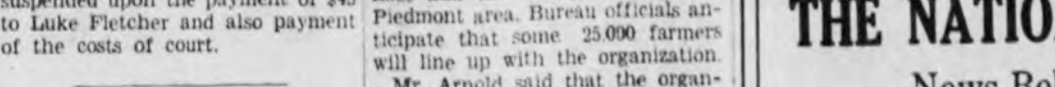

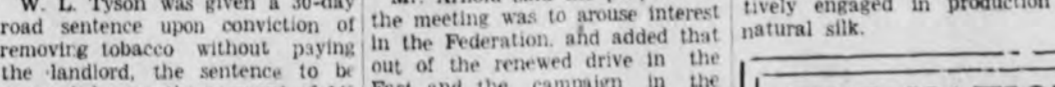

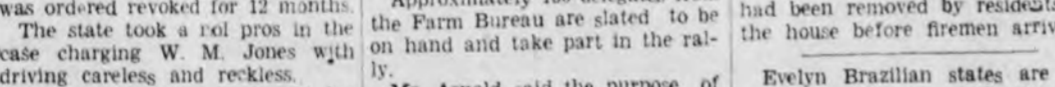

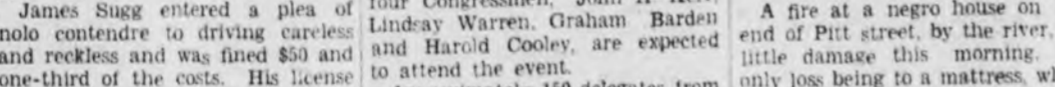

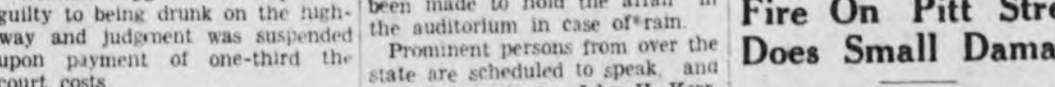

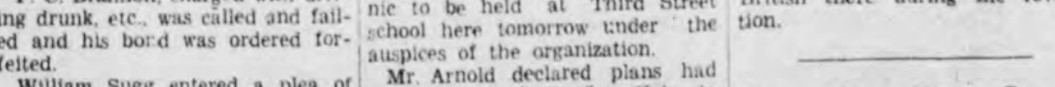

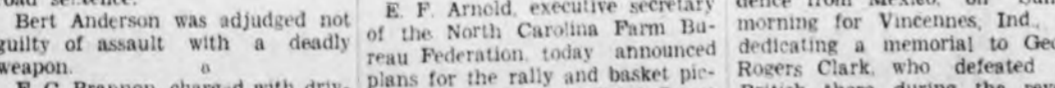

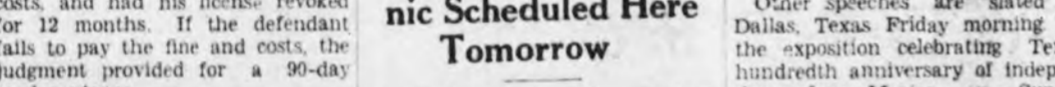

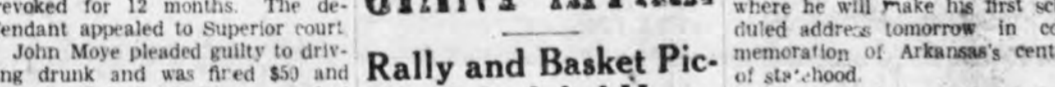

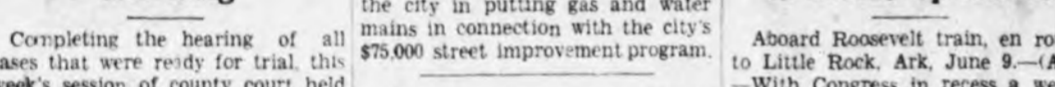

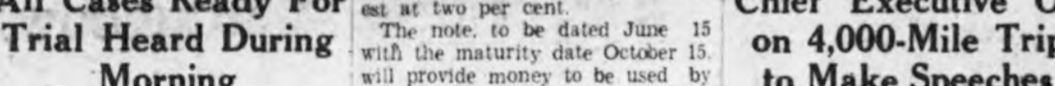

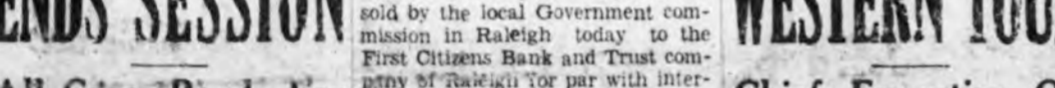

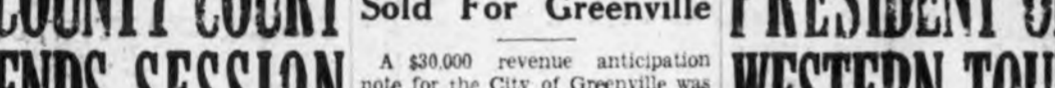

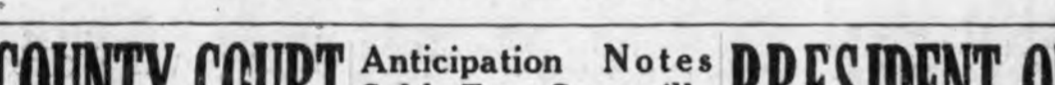

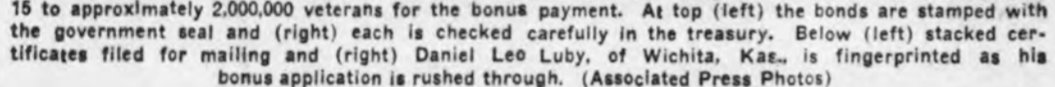

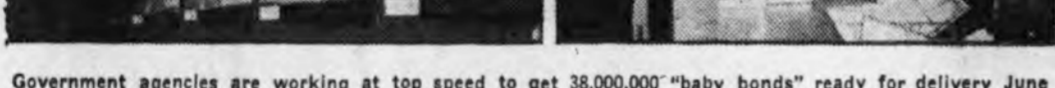

The members of the touring party who assembled here yesterday will leave on the New England-Canadian tour early tomorrow morning. Professor J. B. Cummings is chairman of instruction and has charge of the work in geography.

V. M. Mulholland, critic teacher of English and head of the English Department in the High School, has charge of the English, and T. C. Bryan, critic teacher and head of the History Department in the High School, has charge of the History.

Paul T. Ricks is manager of the tour. Mrs. J. B. Cummings is hostess. Yesterday and today the groups have been meeting their instructors and getting ready for the study work connected with the tour. On their return, they will spend several days on the campus completing the work in the classrooms.

The party will go first to Washington City where they will spend two days, then go to Philadelphia, New York, into New England, spending some time around Boston and Providence, then into Maine, from there to Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, back into the United States by Niagara Falls, through the Susquehanna trail down the Pennsylvania, and home through the Shenandoah Valley,

GOVERNMENT SPEEDS BONUS BONDS

Government agencies are working at top speed to get 38,000,000 "baby bonds" ready for delivery June 15 to approximately 2,000,000 veterans for the bonus payment. At top (left) the bonds are stamped with the government seal and (right) each is checked carefully in the treasury. Below (left) stacked certificates filed for mailing and (right) Daniel Leo Luby, of Wichita, Kas., is fingerprinted as his bonus application is rushed through. (Associated Press Photos)

COUNTY COURT ENDS SESSION

All Cases Ready For Trial Heard During Morning

Completing the hearing of all cases that were ready for trial, this week's session of county court held a busy morning and adjourned before lunch.

John Taylor was acquitted on a charge of possession liquor for the purpose of sale.

Gold Bagmond was found guilty of driving drunk and fined $50 and costs and had his driving license revoked for 12 months. The defendant appealed to superior court.

John Muey pleaded guilty to driving drunk and was fined $50 and costs, and had his license revoked for 12 months. If the defendant fails to pay the fine and costs, the judgment provided for a 90-day road sentence.

Bert Anderson was adjudged not guilty of assault with a deadly weapon.

F. C. Brannon, charged with driving drunk, etc., was called and failed and his bond was ordered forfeited.

William Sugg entered a plea of guilty to being drunk on the highway and judgment was suspended upon payment of one-third the court costs.

James Sugg entered a plea of nolo contendere to driving careless and reckless and was fined $50 and one-third of the costs. His license was ordered revoked for 12 months.

The state took a rol pro in the case charging W. M. Jones with driving careless and reckless.

W. L. Tyson was given a 30-day road sentence upon conviction of removing tobacco without paying the landlord, the sentence to be suspended upon the payment of $45 to Luke Fletcher and also payment of the costs of court.

Mrs. S. L. Godley Dies After Brief Illness

Mrs. S. L. Godley, 53, died in the local hospital this morning at three o'clock from a ten days' illness.

Funeral services were conducted from the late home this afternoon at three o'clock by Rev. David Parmore of Grimesland. Burial was in the Boyd's graveyard near Grimesland.

Mrs. Godley was reared in the Grimesland community the daughter of the late John Heath and Mrs. Rena Mooring Heath who survives. She moved to Greenville ten years ago and had lived at the cotton mill since. She is survived by her husband, mother, four sons, three daughters and two other children that she had reared, J. D. Godley and Ella Louise, Willie, Wesley, Paul, Marshall Godley (Dall), Mrs. Charlie Franks and Misses Alice and Francis Godley, all of Greenville; also three brothers, John and George Heath of Shelmerville, Joe of Greenville; two sisters, Mrs. Henry Carroll of Grimesland; Mrs. Bessie Brantley of Greenville.

Anticipation Notes Sold For Greenville

A $30,000 revenue anticipation note for the City of Greenville was sold by the local Government Commission in Raleigh today to the First Citizens Bank and Trust company of Raleigh for par with interest at two per cent.

The note, to be dated June 15 with the maturity date October 15, will provide money to be used by the city in putting gas and water mains in connection with the city's $75,000 street improvement program.

BUREAU PLANS GIANT AFFAIR

Rally and Basket Picnic Scheduled Here Tomorrow

E. F. Arnold, executive secretary of the North Carolina Farm Bureau Federation, today announced plans for the rally and basket picnic to be held at Third Street school here tomorrow under the auspices of the organization.

Mr. Arnold declared plans had been made to hold the affair in the auditorium in case of rain.

Prominent persons from over the state are scheduled to speak and four congressmen, John H. Kerr, Lindsay Warren, Graham Barden and Harold Cooley, are expected to attend the event.

Approximately 150 delegates from the Farm Bureau are slated to be on hand and take part in the rally.

Mr. Arnold said the purpose of the meeting was to arouse interest in the Federation, and added that out of the renewed drive in the East and the campaign in the Piedmont area, Bureau officials anticipate that some 25,000 farmers will line up with the organization.

Mr. Arnold said that the organization will bring Edward A. O'Neal to this state for four addresses in the Piedmont area in the near future, the first to be on June 29, according to tentative plans.

The program here tomorrow call for addresses by Mrs. J. Brooks Tucker, Dr. L. R. Meadows, president of E. C. T. C.; Mrs. Jane S. McKimmon, assistant director of state home demonstration agents, at the morning session.

Dinner will be served at from 12:00 to 1:30.

Dean I. O. Schaub, of the N. C. State college extension service, will deliver the first address of the afternoon session. He will be followed by Congressman Lindsay Warren and W. R. Oeg, secretary of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

G. E. Trevathan, vice president of the Pitt county Bureau, will preside over the morning session, with J. E. Winslow, president of the state organization, in charge during the afternoon.

R. L. Odum of Jasper, Tex. started a counter attack on farmers in his peepan group, losing 34,000 parasites, called trichogramma, to fight them.

PRESIDENT ON WESTERN TOUR

Chief Executive Off on 4,000-Mile Trip to Make Speeches

Aboard Roosevelt train, en route to Little Rock, Ark., June 9.—(AP)—With Congress in recess a week, President Roosevelt was off today on a 4,000 mile tour of the West and speaking engagement in Arkansas, Texas and Indiana.

Leaving Washington at midnight by special train, the President was headed today to the mountains of Tennessee for Little Rock, Ark., where he will make his first scheduled address tomorrow in commemoration of Arkansas's century of statehood.

Other speeches are slated for Dallas, Texas Friday morning at the exposition celebrating Texas' hundredth anniversary of independence from Mexico, on Sunday morning for Vincennes, Ind., in dedicating a memorial to George Rogers Clark, who defeated the British there during the revolution.

The reliability checks of the 1935 census, when compared with the United States farm census were surprisingly closed, it was pointed out.

The figures gathered are put to profitable use by the agencies of state and federal government working out various farming problems and fixing benefits and ratios.

The quality of the information received year by year has continued to improve, while the subjects covered have steadily grown in number.

Rosalind Russell, the actress, has written a screen play.

Fire On Pitt Street Does Small Damage

A fire at a negro house on the end of Pitt street, by the river, did little damage this morning, the only loss being to a mattress, which had been removed by residents of the house before firemen arrived.

Evelyn Brazilian states are actively engaged in production of natural silk.

WASHINGTON By Ray Tucker

BONING: Preparations for President Roosevelt's Texas trip taxed the patience and good nature of the official and unofficial staffs at the White House.

Mrs. Roosevelt introduced a homey note when she suggested that "Biddy" Peabody, vaudeville banjoist, be brought along so as to entertain back-platform listeners.

Mr. Roosevelt quickly vetoed that suggestion for fear his visit to the southland might be halted by hostilities as "a patent medicine show."

But FDR caused Secret Service reporters squawks when he announced that he might visit Harvey Couch, power magnate and Majority Leader, Robinson's erstwhile law client.

Though billed as a tour of historical shrines which will not steal the headlines from the Cleveland convention, train schedules have been arranged for numerous stops.

And Mr. Roosevelt laughingly confides that he will not be so ungracious as not to "say a few words."

DOZEN PERSONS HURT IN FIGHT

Socialists and Communists Engage in Bitter Clash Inside Munitions Factory

Paris, June 9.—(AP)—New strikes spread rapidly through the provinces today as the socialist government and the general federation of labor strove to induce strikers to observe agreements signed with employers.

Factory workers in north France continued their walkout in sympathy with 150,000 strikers who were occupying their shafts.

Socialists and communists strikers fought inside a munitions factory at Valenciennes today as fresh walkouts spread over the nation.

A down season in the clash after communists refused to accept a labor agreement submitted by operators of the plant.

Under the fields of northern France, 150,000 miners continued their dispute with coal operators.

Premier Leon Blum and his cabinet worked to give final shape to the Socialist legislative program before it is handed to the Senate and chamber of deputies for approval.

Make Plans Start N. C. Farm Census For Current Year

Ninety-five Per Cent of State's Crop Land and of Acreage Planned to Be Shown in Report

Raleigh, June 9.—Ninety-five per cent of North Carolina's crop land and of the acreage planted, will be reported in the state farm census this year, it was announced today by the Department of Agriculture.

This work started in 1918 and has shown a steady improvement since that time.

North Carolina, as a state, takes its own farm census once a year, as compared with five-year surveys by the United States government. Information gained through cooperation with local officials has proved to be exceedingly accurate.

Agricultural statisticians point out. Such cooperation, it is said, is steadily increasing and this naturally enhances the thoroughness of the figures, which are acceptable to and commended by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The reliability checks of the 1935 census, when compared with the United States farm census were surprisingly closed, it was pointed out.

The figures gathered are put to profitable use by the agencies of state and federal government working out various farming problems and fixing benefits and ratios.

The quality of the information received year by year has continued to improve, while the subjects covered have steadily grown in number.

Rosalind Russell, the actress, has written a screen play.

Fire On Pitt Street Does Small Damage

Tar Heel GOP Delegation Moves Into Landon Camp

Advantageous Position Held by Governor of Kansas Acknowledged on All Sides As Convention Called Into First Session

Cleveland, June 9.—(AP)—North Carolina's delegation was said today by one of its leaders to have moved into the camp of Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas.

The delegation was expected to record itself on a presidential nominee at its second caucus tomorrow. As the Republican convention was called into its first session, Charles A. Jonas of Lincoln national committeeman for the state said 21 of the state's 23 votes were favorable to the Kansas governor.

Whether the big majority of the state's votes would go for Landon on the first ballot would depend, he said, the showing the Kansas had made when North Carolina is reached on the roll call.

Eight of the state's votes were pledged on the first ballot to federal Judge, I. M. Meekins of Elizabeth City.

Meekins, however, has issued instructions to release delegates pledged to him if there is a possibility of a first ballot nomination.

Conventions of some state delegations later in the day were considered more important for the ultimate outcome than the opening session itself if decisions on whom to support were to be reached.

Under the guiding gavel of Chairman Henry P. Fletcher the routine was dispatched in less than an hour.

Some of the delegates and many of the holders of gallery tickets did not even show up.

Caucuses of some state delegations later in the day were considered more important for the ultimate outcome than the opening session itself if decisions on whom to support were to be reached.

Under the guiding gavel of Chairman Henry P. Fletcher the routine was dispatched in less than an hour.

Some of the delegates and many of the holders of gallery tickets did not even show up.

Caucuses of some state delegations later in the day were considered more important for the ultimate outcome than the opening session itself if decisions on whom to support were to be reached.

Under the guiding gavel of Chairman Henry P. Fletcher the routine was dispatched in less than an hour.

Some of the delegates and many of the holders of gallery tickets did not even show up.

Caucuses of some state delegations later in the day were considered more important for the ultimate outcome than the opening session itself if decisions on whom to support were to be reached.

Under the guiding gavel of Chairman Henry P. Fletcher the routine was dispatched in less than an hour.

Some of the delegates and many of the holders of gallery tickets did not even show up.

Caucuses of some state delegations later in the day were considered more important for the ultimate outcome than the opening session itself if decisions on whom to support were to be reached.

Under the guiding gavel of Chairman Henry P. Fletcher the routine was dispatched in less than an hour.

Some of the delegates and many of the holders of gallery tickets did not even show up.

Caucuses of some state delegations later in the day were considered more important for the ultimate outcome than the opening session itself if decisions on whom to support were to be reached.

Under the guiding gavel of Chairman Henry P. Fletcher the routine was dispatched in less than an hour.

Some of the delegates and many of the holders of gallery tickets did not even show up.

Caucuses of some state delegations later in the day were considered more important for the ultimate outcome than the opening session itself if decisions on whom to support were to be reached.

Under the guiding gavel of Chairman Henry P. Fletcher the routine was dispatched in less than an hour.

Some of the delegates and many of the holders of gallery tickets did not even show up.

Caucuses of some state delegations later in the day were considered more important for the ultimate outcome than the opening session itself if decisions on whom to support were to be reached.

Under the guiding gavel of Chairman Henry P. Fletcher the routine was dispatched in less than an hour.

Some of the delegates and many of the holders of gallery tickets did not even show up.

Caucuses of some state delegations later in the day were considered more important for the ultimate outcome than the opening session itself if decisions on whom to support were to be reached.

SHOWERS EASE WIDE SECTION DROUGHT AREA

Damage Already Done Estimated At $150,000,000

FORECASTS FOR SCATTERED RAIN

Eastern Tennessee and Central-Western and Georgia Relieved of Arid Weather

Atlanta, June 9.—(AP)—Rains cut a slice from the Southern drought domain over the week-end, but did little toward reducing a possible crop loss of $150,000,000 or more.

Eastern Tennessee and central western Virginia reported enough rain Saturday, Sunday and Monday to break the drought.

The Carolinas, northern Georgia, northern Alabama and middle Tennessee shared in these showers, but obtained no general relief.

Southern forecasts for today called for more partly cloudy weather with scattered showers.

The relief afforded Virginia came too late to reduce crop losses of some $7,000,000, however, much damage it may have prevented.

Tennessee university farm authorities still figured the damage in that state would run up to $30,000,000 or more, although the dry spell was ended around Knoxville.

In Georgia it was figured that the last week increased the state's prospective losses from some $30,000,000 to between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 despite the showers.

North Carolina's apparent toll also stood in the neighborhood of $30,000,000, while South Carolina's damage was set at a minimum $10,000,000 with the possibility that it could exceed $20,000,000.

Representatives from Stricken Section Press For Federal Aid, Despite Reports of Rains

Washington, June 9.—(AP)—Representatives from the drought stricken southeast pressed for federal aid today despite reports that scattered rainfall had broken the long dry spell back home.

They told agriculture department officials that rains came too late to save this season's plantings in many sections of Georgia, the Carolinas, Alabama, Florida, and Virginia. If surplus funds of the department will not provide adequate relief, they said, legislative aid for added amounts will be urged before congress adjourns.

Representative Hampton P. Fulmer (D. S. C.) said the agriculture department announced a complete report of its survey in the drought area would be available in a few days. Until then, he said, little can be done toward obtaining relief money.

Representative Carl Vinson, of Georgia said he would call a conference of Southeastern congressional delegations later this week to map definite plans.

Fulmer said he believed the agriculture department would have a surplus of about $15,000,000 that could be turned to drought relief. He said the department's study had not shown so far whether that would be sufficient.

Six Held For Trial In Black Legion Probe

Detroit, June 9.—(AP)—Six men accused of Black Legion night riding activities were ordered held today for trial on charges of "seizing and confining" Robert Penland, a steel worker, who was abducted and "tried" by a group of masked men last October.

Penland related at the examination of the six that he was seized by three of them and taken before a meeting at which he was accused of "disobeying orders" and not attending meetings, but he said he was not flogged.

Frederick A. Guley, identified by Penland as the man who lured him into the automobile in which he was taken to the meeting, contradicted Penland's testimony on that point, however. He testified today that Penland was lashed with a blacksnake whip.

Other developments today included the detention of Mrs. Margaret O'Rourke, who says she is the wife of Dayton Dean, Black Legion executioner who is held with 12 others for trial on kidnaping and murder charges in the slaying of Charles A. Poole.

Commissioner of Agriculture W. Kerr Scott—3430. William A. Graham—4697.

State Senator E. G. Flanagan—4922. Arthur B. Corey—4657.

House of Representatives. W. J. (Dick) Burdy—4416. J. Ficklen Arthur—2589. John Hill Paylor—4714. J. S. Moore—4784.

Sheriff J. Knott Proctor—4036. S. A. Whitehurst—5760. (Continued on page six)

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

News Behind The News

WASHINGTON By Ray Tucker

BONING: Preparations for President Roosevelt's Texas trip taxed the patience and good nature of the official and unofficial staffs at the White House.

Mrs. Roosevelt introduced a homey note when she suggested that "Biddy" Peabody, vaudeville banjoist, be brought along so as to entertain back-platform listeners.

Mr. Roosevelt quickly vetoed that suggestion for fear his visit to the southland might be halted by hostilities as "a patent medicine show."

But FDR caused Secret Service reporters squawks when he announced that he might visit Harvey Couch, power magnate and Majority Leader, Robinson's erstwhile law client.

Whether the big majority of the state's votes would go for Landon on the first ballot would depend, he said, the showing the Kansas had made when North Carolina is reached on the roll call.

Eight of the state's votes were pledged on the first ballot to federal Judge, I. M. Meekins of Elizabeth City.

Gypsy Weather

BY MARGARET BELL HOUSTON

Chapter 41
BADGER GAME

"RODDIE was no angel, but he hadn't been like this," Hope went on. "That tequila that Torrobin sold made him wild."

"Torrobin wasn't selling it now. He was hiding. That's, he was hiding. When I rode back into the hills to the little 'dobe' house where they were, he denied that Roddie was there. But Roddie heard my voice, and came out. I hope I forget what he looked like."

"They seemed to be waiting for another man... for some word of him. When I told them I wanted him, and that rangers had chased me, and about the bank-robber who was killed, they decided without a word to leave."

"I understood. All at once I knew. But I made Roddie tell me. When Torrobin went out to make arrange-

"I made a hit. To my surprise, Torrobin seemed glad to see me. It turned out that he wanted me to take Leonard's place in the game he and Chowdhury were playing—a sort of badger game."

"Chow would predict to her client that he would soon meet a dark lady—it was written in the stars—and that happiness or fortune or both hung upon this meeting. Just how this dark lady was to solve his problem was not clear, even to Chow, but the prophecy proved a sufficient introduction for beautiful Leonard, at least in one case."

"A troubled Hobokenite whose problem was a misunderstanding wife, looked for the lucky dark lady every time the clock struck. When Leonard with her eyes and her Spanish accent walked into his office one morning, selling calendars, he knew that his hour had come."

"It was more than a matter of calendars with him. But Leonard was young. She was demure and shy. America was so very strange, she said. He had to do a lot of persuading, but he finally got him to cross the Hudson River with her and they went to a New York hotel. Whereupon Torrobin, following almost at once, tracked them to their room, and entered into the rôle of the outraged and dangerous father."

"I didn't go to the hotel. Instead I found out where you lived, and came here to your home—came by subways and surface cars. It was a long trip. I thought I would never finish it. But I knew you would help me if I could find you."

"It was Rupert I found. I thought Chow had made a mistake. In my wild state I never thought there might be more than one Joris who was a lawyer. But he was a lawyer. He assured me of that. And since I had come so far... I found though I couldn't tell him everything, it seemed I couldn't trust anybody with Roddie's secret... even Pipolo and Olga. I believe I could have trusted you. But that was before..."

"Rupert questioned me about other things. I told him the truth, everything except my name. Even that was the truth. Hope is really my name, though I've never been called that. My father named me Lasca. You know 'Lasca'?"

"... Lasca used to ride on a mouse-gray mustang, close to my side."

"With blue serape, and bright-belled spur..."

"Cowboys like the poem. But my mother tucked in the name of Hope. I think Hope Devins is a... it's embarrassing as a name. But I felt if Rupert knew my name—the name I was known by—he might be able to trace Roddie through it. He might... He wasn't himself that night. He might somehow give Roddie away—for I mean to tell him all I must to get advice."

He knew his hour had come.

"I worked like magic. At least for the moment. The gentleman from Hoboken had money and he paid it gladly to escape with his life and his good name. He had, too, though you might suspect it, a certain amount of intelligence. He was not long in connecting the dark lady and her rearing father with Madame Chowdhury. He quietly started investigations, and later trapped Madame at this same game in Atlantic City."

"Whether Leonard got wind of these investigations, or whether Carlo—Carlo had the lions; he and Leonard were sweethearts—whether he suspected what she was doing, I don't know, but they disappeared before anything came to light. Neither Chowdhury, who was supposed to know everything, nor Torrobin, realized that these investigations were under way. Torrobin privately invited me to take Leonard's rôle in future dramas of the sort."

"I declined, perhaps without much tact. He used arguments, and then insults. Pipolo, the trapezist, overheard the insults. Pipolo threatened to wring his neck. That was the day I stole Roddie's gun. I was afraid that Torrobin would take up with Roddie the suggestion of my playing Leonard's rôle."

"That very night Roddie had his accident in the ring. Torrobin pushed me down the van steps. You saw him, and knocked him down."

"I wanted to see you again that night—I hardly knew why. I knew only that I was worried about Roddie, and that you would help me."

"You were gone, but Torrobin and Chow were there, back in the little curtained booth, talking. She was telling him all about you, all she had got from that girl—that Natalie Page who had her fortune told."

"She told him not to mind because I wouldn't come into the game—she called it 'the business.' Said there were plenty of dark girls, fair ones, too. That besides you had seen me here, and I wouldn't do for you."

(Copyright, 1935 Margaret Bell Houston)

"The tangled events of Hope's wedding night are explained, tomorrow."

"I couldn't think clearly, as I say. I only knew I was sorry Roddie was known as Roddie in the circus. Only there he was known as Roddie Torrobin. Every one assumed he was Torrobin's son. Only Olga and Pipolo knew he was not."

"Rupert wouldn't advise me, but he offered me a refuge. Such a refuge! It was like a door into heaven. Looking back, I see how silly my thoughts were. I thought he wanted me because he liked me."

"Of course I realized he hardly knew what he was doing, but even die now sparked with gems of thought, that should have the effect of arousing a deep interest in the cultivation of that kind of initiative to create something in the individual student to live a worthwhile life and thereby make useful citizens. Prof. Junius H. Rose gave wholesome advice to the seniors and the immense audience to strive to produce something rather than depend on the dials. Diplomats were presented to the graduates by James L. Little. Certificates were presented to forty-four candidates for admission to the High School by B. B. Sugg. Perfect attendance cards presented by Prof. T. S. Inboden, principal of Edgecombe High School."

"I want to be a Christian in My Heart" was sung by Choral Club. Benediction by Rev. Brown, ending the 33d session of school.

—Submitted.

NEGRO HIGH SCHOOL HAS COMMENCEMENT

Commencement exercises of the Negro Industrial High School of this city was largely attended on the night of June 3d in the auditorium of the A. M. E. Zion church. The graduates marched in by the processional, God of our Fathers, led by the principal.

The principal, C. M. Epps, announced the beginning of the exercises, with singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," by approximately two thousand voices. The principal introduced his assistant, Willie H. Davenport as Master of Ceremonies. Music by the Choral Club, under the direction of N. W. Cherry pianist, sang the Negro National Anthem. Devotional followed.

The Master of Ceremonies presented the honor speaker, Robert Atkinson, who surpassed all expectations. The subject, Negro Spirituals was presented in such a way that he captivated the great audience who hung on his every utterance. The Choral Club sang "When He Cometh," and "I love Life." The principal, C. M. Epps, briefly introduced the commencement speaker, Dr. George E. Davis, executive secretary of the Negro Teachers State Association. Formerly Rosenwald Agent, Professor at Johnson C. Smith university, The address high-

Negro High School Has Commencement

Commencement exercises of the Negro Industrial High School of this city was largely attended on the night of June 3d in the auditorium of the A. M. E. Zion church. The graduates marched in by the processional, God of our Fathers, led by the principal.

The principal, C. M. Epps, announced the beginning of the exercises, with singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," by approximately two thousand voices. The principal introduced his assistant, Willie H. Davenport as Master of Ceremonies. Music by the Choral Club, under the direction of N. W. Cherry pianist, sang the Negro National Anthem. Devotional followed.

The Master of Ceremonies presented the honor speaker, Robert Atkinson, who surpassed all expectations. The subject, Negro Spirituals was presented in such a way that he captivated the great audience who hung on his every utterance. The Choral Club sang "When He Cometh," and "I love Life." The principal, C. M. Epps, briefly introduced the commencement speaker, Dr. George E. Davis, executive secretary of the Negro Teachers State Association. Formerly Rosenwald Agent, Professor at Johnson C. Smith university, The address high-

Chapter 42

UNTANGLED

DIRK remembered. Remembered Madame's mention of a pale girl—a fair girl. He said, "I remember." He had never thought of it again.

"Torrobin said if you were a lawyer you weren't a safe prospect. Chow said yes, you were, because you were young. Young enough to be a fool. She gave him your name, said you lived in Westchester, and to look you up. She gave him Freddy Nevin's name, too. Natalie was certainly a talker. But Torrobin said lawyers were out. Said he'd like to get you, himself. Meaning about his nose."

"I went back to the van, and Olga, Pipolo's wife, was there. She said Pipolo had gone out to phone for an ambulance, that we must get Roddie to a hospital. We took him to Bellevue that night. He was still unconscious, and seriously hurt."

"I found your name in the phone-book. More than ever I wanted to see you, since I knew you were a lawyer. I knew that Roddie had to break away from Torrobin, what ever happened. I wanted to know about extradition laws; to know if—with only Torrobin's word as evidence—they could take Roddie out of New York and bring him down to Texas."

"Looking back now, seeing more clearly, I know Torrobin could have proved nothing without involving himself. He had used the money. But then—then I was frightened. I couldn't think. I wondered if they would take Roddie while he was ill."

"They said that Roddie would live—with an operation, and at the right care. I wanted him to have everything. I would take money. Pipolo said he could get the money, would bring it to me. Monday night."

"The show was going to Atlantic City, and Pipolo and Olga were going with it in their trapeze act. But Pipolo would come back. Olga gave me some money that night, so that I could go to a hotel. They wouldn't let me stay at the hospital with Roddie."

"I didn't go to the hotel. Instead I found out where you lived, and came here to your home—came by subways and surface cars. It was a long trip. I thought I would never finish it. But I knew you would help me if I could find you."

"It was Rupert I found. I thought Chow had made a mistake. In my wild state I never thought there might be more than one Joris who was a lawyer. But he was a lawyer. He assured me of that. And since I had come so far... I found though I couldn't tell him everything, it seemed I couldn't trust anybody with Roddie's secret... even Pipolo and Olga. I believe I could have trusted you. But that was before..."

"Rupert questioned me about other things. I told him the truth, everything except my name. Even that was the truth. Hope is really my name, though I've never been called that. My father named me Lasca. You know 'Lasca'?"

"... Lasca used to ride on a mouse-gray mustang, close to my side."

"With blue serape, and bright-belled spur..."

"Cowboys like the poem. But my mother tucked in the name of Hope. I think Hope Devins is a... it's embarrassing as a name. But I felt if Rupert knew my name—the name I was known by—he might be able to trace Roddie through it. He might... He wasn't himself that night. He might somehow give Roddie away—for I mean to tell him all I must to get advice."

"I didn't dare. I didn't know what you might do, how you might feel. My whole thought was to get Roddie well, and away. I didn't need Pipolo's money that night, and I was able to pay back what Olga had given me. I had deposited my check from Rupert, and I had brought money for Roddie's operation, and care."

"You had money on you," Dirk said, "in addition to the jewels? I'd have been more worried still if I had known. It was I following you. I think you know my motives now. I had just got home, when you came to the gate and waved, and went off alone in a taxi, and later picked up a man..."

"Pipolo," she said. "He was staying with his brother, Tony Fazzini. But I hadn't the jewels on. I had taken them off and given them to Rupert. All except the coronet, and it dazzled him. I knew it would."

She smiled. "So I kept it on, and the dress, too. I wanted Roddie to see them. I wanted him to see me all prosperous and happy—the last thing before he went under the ether. I was so afraid for him."

"That was why I had gone to church the day before, and prayed and prayed. I don't think I had ever prayed till then."

(Copyright, 1935 Margaret Bell Houston)

the public knows about it the better," commented Justice Goddard. The explanation is that British taxicabs are not licensed as express carriages, which only may carry passengers at separate fares under the road traffic act of 1930. "The law may seem hard," said Lord Hewart, "but there is no reason why it should not be enforced. If grotesque results follow, it may be a reason for amending the law."

DANZIG'S JOBLESS LIST CUT AS GERMANY ARMS

Danzig. (AP)—Germany's rearmament has had a good effect upon the Free City's unemployment problem. But Polish officials here are worried.

The unemployed number sank by 3,000 in March. The big factor in this was said to be volunteer enlistments of Germans, who are citizens of the Free City, in Hitler's army and labor service.

This is what worries the Poles. They fear that Danzig will become closer to the reich through the training received by Danzigers in Germany.

Marsha Hunt rides horseback and plays tennis on alternate days. Says lots of exercise keeps her healthy. James Melton serves spaghetti suppers, prepared by himself, to 25 to 50 guests at a time.

ROTARY HOLDS REGULAR MEET

Eight New Members of Club Identify Themselves

By WYATT BROWN

Leading off with three weathered spell binders Herbert ReBarker finished off his program at the Rotary Club last night with eight yearlings. But, no, the very first thing under the aegis of the redoubtable ReBarker was a song led by Yo Walker—arm waving and everything.

"Early next morning I went to the hospital, and they let me see Roddie for just a minute. I told Mary I had been to church, and I had. There was a service at the hospital."

"I went and got my trunk, too, with the money Olga had lent me, and I telephoned Pipolo in Atlantic City. I told him where I was staying. Nothing more over the phone. He said he would meet me, as he promised, would send for me."

"He sent a taxi for me, a taxi owned by a friend of his. That was the night of 'The Black Swan.' I told him that night about my marriage—not how it had happened, only that I had married, and whom. Pipolo warned me not to let Torrobin know."

"Pipolo had sensed that Torrobin had some deadly hold on Roddie and me, and he feared, since I had married well, that he would try extortion of some sort."

"That was why I hadn't wanted it in the papers—my marriage, I mean. That was why I was glad I had used the name of Hope. Torrobin had never heard that name."

"Torrobin did not show up at the hospital while Roddie was there. He was probably nursing his bruised face. Pipolo—knowing I had a secret—asked me if I had made a clean breast of everything to Rupert, and when, I said no, he was troubled."

"I was troubled, too. It began to look as if marriage might not prove a solution. Yet Rupert seemed to want me to be happy, to be trying to please me. I still hoped I might win him."

"That night the taxi-driver thought some one was following us, and later he told Pipolo that a man came to his house and questioned him, accused him of wrecking his car. Pipolo supposed it was some scout of Torrobin's, but the description of the questioner sounded as if it might have been you. I couldn't believe it was you. But I began to be afraid. Afraid that Torrobin might have been to you with the truth about Roddie, and poisoned your mind against me."

U. S. Beach Erosion Board to Visit Tar Heel Coast

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, June 9.—Members of the U. S. Beach Erosion Board, a group of leading authorities of the nation on matters dealing with the erosion of the forces of nature on the shores of the country, are expected to visit North Carolina the middle of this month to make an inspection of the State's beaches and inlets.

The group will be met by T. S. Johnson, chief engineer of the Department of Conservation and Development, in Virginia and conducted on a tour along the coast.

One of the particular points on the itinerary of the visitors will be Cape Hatteras for an inspection of erosion around the famous cape. They will be asked for recommendations for the protection of Cape Hatteras lighthouse from encroachments by the sea.

R. Bruce Etheridge, director of the Department of Conservation and Development, has requested the U. S. Lighthouse Service to turn over the old lighthouse, tallest on the American coast, to the state for preservation, as a feature of Cape Hatteras State Park which surrounds the old beacon.

When the structure was first built it was more than a mile from the water, but the land in front of the lighthouse has been steadily eaten away by the force of the waves and tides until only a hundred or so feet separate it from the ocean.

The group will also inspect Ocracoke and New Inlets north of Cape Hatteras where the winds and tides are constantly changing the coast line. Other points scheduled to be visited by the board members include Fort Fisher and Wrightsville

ROTARY HOLDS REGULAR MEET

Eight New Members of Club Identify Themselves

By WYATT BROWN

Leading off with three weathered spell binders Herbert ReBarker finished off his program at the Rotary Club last night with eight yearlings. But, no, the very first thing under the aegis of the redoubtable ReBarker was a song led by Yo Walker—arm waving and everything.

"Early next morning I went to the hospital, and they let me see Roddie for just a minute. I told Mary I had been to church, and I had. There was a service at the hospital."

"I went and got my trunk, too, with the money Olga had lent me, and I telephoned Pipolo in Atlantic City. I told him where I was staying. Nothing more over the phone. He said he would meet me, as he promised, would send for me."

"He sent a taxi for me, a taxi owned by a friend of his. That was the night of 'The Black Swan.' I told him that night about my marriage—not how it had happened, only that I had married, and whom. Pipolo warned me not to let Torrobin know."

"Pipolo had sensed that Torrobin had some deadly hold on Roddie and me, and he feared, since I had married well, that he would try extortion of some sort."

"That was why I hadn't wanted it in the papers—my marriage, I mean. That was why I was glad I had used the name of Hope. Torrobin had never heard that name."

"Torrobin did not show up at the hospital while Roddie was there. He was probably nursing his bruised face. Pipolo—knowing I had a secret—asked me if I had made a clean breast of everything to Rupert, and when, I said no, he was troubled."

"I was troubled, too. It began to look as if marriage might not prove a solution. Yet Rupert seemed to want me to be happy, to be trying to please me. I still hoped I might win him."

"That night the taxi-driver thought some one was following us, and later he told Pipolo that a man came to his house and questioned him, accused him of wrecking his car. Pipolo supposed it was some scout of Torrobin's, but the description of the questioner sounded as if it might have been you. I couldn't believe it was you. But I began to be afraid. Afraid that Torrobin might have been to you with the truth about Roddie, and poisoned your mind against me."

ROTARY HOLDS REGULAR MEET

Eight New Members of Club Identify Themselves

By WYATT BROWN

Leading off with three weathered spell binders Herbert ReBarker finished off his program at the Rotary Club last night with eight yearlings. But, no, the very first thing under the aegis of the redoubtable ReBarker was a song led by Yo Walker—arm waving and everything.

"Early next morning I went to the hospital, and they let me see Roddie for just a minute. I told Mary I had been to church, and I had. There was a service at the hospital."

"I went and got my trunk, too, with the money Olga had lent me, and I telephoned Pipolo in Atlantic City. I told him where I was staying. Nothing more over the phone. He said he would meet me, as he promised, would send for me."

"He sent a taxi for me, a taxi owned by a friend of his. That was the night of 'The Black Swan.' I told him that night about my marriage—not how it had happened, only that I had married, and whom. Pipolo warned me not to let Torrobin know."

"Pipolo had sensed that Torrobin had some deadly hold on Roddie and me, and he feared, since I had married well, that he would try extortion of some sort."

"That was why I hadn't wanted it in the papers—my marriage, I mean. That was why I was glad I had used the name of Hope. Torrobin had never heard that name."

"Torrobin did not show up at the hospital while Roddie was there. He was probably nursing his bruised face. Pipolo—knowing I had a secret—asked me if I had made a clean breast of everything to Rupert, and when, I said no, he was troubled."

"I was troubled, too. It began to look as if marriage might not prove a solution. Yet Rupert seemed to want me to be happy, to be trying to please me. I still hoped I might win him."

"That night the taxi-driver thought some one was following us, and later he told Pipolo that a man came to his house and questioned him, accused him of wrecking his car. Pipolo supposed it was some scout of Torrobin's, but the description of the questioner sounded as if it might have been you. I couldn't believe it was you. But I began to be afraid. Afraid that Torrobin might have been to you with the truth about Roddie, and poisoned your mind against me."

EROSION BODY PLANS SURVEY

U. S. Beach Erosion Board to Visit Tar Heel Coast

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, June 9.—Members of the U. S. Beach Erosion Board, a group of leading authorities of the nation on matters dealing with the erosion of the forces of nature on the shores of the country, are expected to visit North Carolina the middle of this month to make an inspection of the State's beaches and inlets.

The group will be met by T. S. Johnson, chief engineer of the Department of Conservation and Development, in Virginia and conducted on a tour along the coast.

One of the particular points on the itinerary of the visitors will be Cape Hatteras for an inspection of erosion around the famous cape. They will be asked for recommendations for the protection of Cape Hatteras lighthouse from encroachments by the sea.

R. Bruce Etheridge, director of the Department of Conservation and Development, has requested the U. S. Lighthouse Service to turn over the old lighthouse, tallest on the American coast, to the state for preservation, as a feature of Cape Hatteras State Park which surrounds the old beacon.

When the structure was first built it was more than a mile from the water, but the land in front of the lighthouse has been steadily eaten away by the force of the waves and tides until only a hundred or so feet separate it from the ocean.

The group will also inspect Ocracoke and New Inlets north of Cape Hatteras where the winds and tides are constantly changing the coast line. Other points scheduled to be visited by the board members include Fort Fisher and Wrightsville

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE OF REAL PROPERTY

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain Deed in Trust executed and delivered to J. J. White, Trustee, by C. W. Hearne and wife, Georgia P. Hearne, on the 8th day of April, 1933, which said Deed in Trust is duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County in Book Q-19, at page 343, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured, the undersigned will offer for sale for cash at public auction before the Court House door in the Town of Greenville, Pitt County, North Carolina, at the following described real property, to-wit:

12:00 o'clock, Noon, on Monday, June 22, 1936

That certain parcel or lot of land, lying and being in the Town of Greenville, North Carolina, more particularly described as follows: Lying at the southeast intersection of Colanah and Second Streets and BEGINNING at said intersection and running thence in a southerly direction with the eastern boundary of Colanah Street 51 feet to a stake; hence easterly and parallel with Second Street 137 feet to lot No. 37 in the plan of the Town of Greenville; thence north with said lot 51 feet to a stake on the south side of Second Street; thence westerly with Second Street to the BEGINNING. It being the same property that was conveyed to J. W. Murphrey on October 5, 1919, by Deed recorded in Book H-13, at page 85, and later conveyed to J. D. Murphrey by J. W. Murphrey and wife by Deed recorded in Book S-14, page 3, of the Public Registry of Pitt County, and the same property deeded to C. W. Hearne and wife by Deed dated November 2, 1928, recorded in Book O-17, page 509, in the office of the said Register of Deeds.

This the 20th day of May, 1936.

J. J. WHITE, Trustee

J. B. James, Atty.

May 20-11w-4wk.

Hooker & Stallworth
MUTUAL, FIRE, LIFE and CASUALTY
Hood Bank Bldg. Greenville, N. C.
It will pay you to see us before placing your insurance

Announcement!

In keeping with the custom for the past several years of the businesses of Greenville closing during the Summer months, we, the undersigned, will observe this custom of closing each Wednesday afternoon beginning tomorrow, June 10th.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOONS

Cascade Laundry
Rainbow Laundry
Eureka Laundry

To The People of Pitt County

May I take this opportunity of expressing to each of you my sincere appreciation of your interest and support of my candidacy in the Primary on June 6, 1936.

JACK SPAIN

To The Voters of Pitt County

I wish to thank those who voted for me for Solicitor of the County Court in the Primary, and to my friends known and unknown, who worked for me during the campaign I am especially thankful. I can truthfully say that I am as grateful for the support I received as if I had been elected.

Toward those who saw fit to support my opponent I hold nothing but the best of feeling.

HARRY BROWN

To The People of Pitt County

I wish to use this means of expressing to each one of you my sincere appreciation of your vote and support. I shall do, my level best to make you a good solicitor.

Chas. Harry Whedbee

DOG OWNERS

Beginning tomorrow (Wednesday) June 10th, and extending through Saturday, June 20th, I will hold daily clinics at the Court House. This is your last opportunity. After July 1st owners who have not complied with this law WILL BE PROSECUTED!

Paul Fitzgerald
Rabies Inspector Greenville Township

TO THE PEOPLE OF PITT COUNTY

May I take this opportunity of expressing to each of you my sincere appreciation of your interest and support of my candidacy in the Primary on June 6, 1936.

JACK SPAIN

To The Voters of Pitt County

I wish to thank those who voted for me for Solicitor of the County Court in the Primary, and to my friends known and unknown, who worked for me during the campaign I am especially thankful. I can truthfully say that I am as grateful for the support I received as if I had been elected.

Toward those who saw fit to support my opponent I hold nothing but the best of feeling.

HARRY BROWN

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my appreciation to the voters of Pitt County in again nominating and electing me your Sheriff.

As I have always done in the past, I shall do my best to fulfill every duty required of me.

Most sincerely yours,

S. A. Whitehurst

S. A. Whitehurst
Rabies Inspector Greenville Township

Tuesday, June 9, 1936

Social and Personal

Social Calendar

TUESDAY

7:30 p. m.—The Council Degree of Pocahontas will meet.

8:00 p. m.—The Young Women's Auxiliary of Immanuel Baptist Church will meet with Miss Christine Palmer.

8:00 p. m.—Circle No. 2 of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will meet with Mrs. P. M. Johnston.

THURSDAY

7:30 p. m.—The choir of the Presbyterian Church will meet in the church.

Stewards Meeting

The Board of Stewards of Jarvis Memorial church will have their regular monthly business meeting at the church tonight at eight o'clock.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Humbles announce the birth of a son, Leslie Harold, on Saturday, June 6.

Notice To Girls

Girls belonging to the G. A. A. of Greenville high school, who are interested in bicycling to Ayden on Thursday morning at 6:30 o'clock, get in touch with Nancy Lee Moore and Helen Hyman, or phone 270-J.

OLD LINE OBSERVERS PICK HOEY TO WIN 2ND PRIMARY

(Continued from page one) effect of his being in first place, especially when the McDonald leaders were so sure the Winston-Salem professor would lead by a big margin or, even get the nomination with a majority. Most political observers now agree that many of those who voted for McDonald did so entirely because of what is generally known as "band wagon psychology" or because they felt sure he would be high man if not the winner. As a result of the fact that he failed to lead and ran second, a very large number of these "band wagon jumpers" will now switch over to Hoey in the second primary, many observers here are convinced. This same factor will also help to attract many of those who voted for Graham to Hoey in the second primary.

Still another factor regarded as decidedly in Hoey's favor is that fact that the Hoey forces have already demonstrated their superior organization and the conviction that this organization can and will be kept in tact throughout the second primary campaign. The further fact that McDonald's reported strong organization did not function as had been expected and failed to get out as large a vote as his supporters had predicted, together with the generally admitted fact that the McDonald managers have been scratching gravel for campaign funds for many weeks now with little or no prospect of getting any additional funds for a second campaign, is regarded as decidedly in Hoey's favor. For it is generally agreed that Hoey will not be lacking for additional campaign funds in the second primary, even though it is conceded that as much if not more money has been spent in Hoey's behalf in the campaign which ended Saturday than has ever before been spent in a gubernatorial primary campaign.

In summing up the situation, most observers agree that it is as follows:

Hoey — by being in first place, he has the advantage of a winning psychology, which attracts those who want to be on the winning side and who always want to get on the band wagon. He also has the advantage of an airtight, smooth functioning organization with the prospect of unlimited campaign funds for the second campaign.

McDonald — by running in second place, he has lost the appeal of the psychology of the winner, with the result that he cannot hold many of those who have been with him so far. His failure to get more votes than he did indicates that his organization is not as effective as it was believed to be, while his admitted lack of campaign funds is also regarded as being a very serious drawback.

Past political history shows that the winning candidates have, almost without exception, had a winning psychology, good organization and plenty of campaign funds back of them. That is why all of the old timers here are picking Hoey rather than McDonald to win in the second primary.

Wardrobe Worries Of Daylight Savers Bring New Fashions For Early Diners

Here is a daylight dining frock designed to be worn before dark, and dubbed "Commuter's Delight" because it is suitable for afternoon shopping as well as for dinner and the theatre. It is a two-piece design of sheer black silk mousseline edged in crisp white pique and finished with a white suede belt. A wide brimmed white hat, bag, and gloves complete the costume.

in Greenville, N. C., on or before July 6th, 1936, or within 10 days thereafter and answer or deny to the petition filed in this cause or the plaintiff or petitioner will be granted the relief prayed for in the cause.

This June 4th, 1936.
J. F. HARRINGTON,
Clerk Superior Court
of Pitt County.
11wk-4wks-6-5-36.

ADMINISTRATRIX NOTICE

Having qualified as administratrix of the estate of B. E. Jenkins, deceased, late of Pitt County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons holding claim against said estate to present same before me, in writing, on or before the 8th day of May, 1937, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. At persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate settlement. This 8th day of May, 1936.

MRS. BEULAH JENKINS,
Administratrix.
Dink James—Atty.
5-11, 116wks.

ADMINISTRATRIX NOTICE

The undersigned having duly qualified as administratrix of the estate of Z. V. Whichard, this is to notify all persons having claims against said estate to present same within 12 months from date of this notice will be pleaded in bar. Those indebted to said estate will please make immediate settlement.

This May 19, 1936.
MRS. CADDIE BRILEY, Ad-
ministratrix, Z. V. Whichard Estate.
May 20-11w-4wk.

EVERYTHING FOR A KIDDIE'S SUMMER

We know kiddies nowadays are practically sun babies. They need plenty of play suits for the week days and a cute little bathing suit for the beach. But we also know mother likes for her children to look cool and sweet when she dresses them up. That's the reason for our unusually dainty collection of sheer cotton frocks, linen play suits and other things.

- Sheer Cotton Frocks, sizes 1 to 3, 3 to 8..... 1.00 to 1.98
- Sleeveless Linen Play Suits, sizes 1 to 3..... 1.29 to 1.65
- Bathing Suits..... 1.00 to 2.95
- Sun Suits..... 39c to 1.98

Blount-Harvey

BELL COMPANY RATE LOWERED

Reduction Be Shown on Bills Mailed for Month of June

Reflector Bureau,
Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, June 9.—The new reduced rates agreed by the Southern Bell Telephone Company will become effective with the June bills dated during June. Utilities Commissioner Stanley Winborne said today, while amounts paid on all other bills will be refunded back to October 1, 1935. Hence those who have received bills for their telephones at the old rates, will pay only the new rates, since the difference between the old and new rates will be refunded to each telephone user for each month back to October, 1935. Winborne pointed out:

"Some telephone users who expected their June bills to show the new rates, have complained because they were billed at the old rates." Commissioner Winborne said. "But if these people will look at their bills, they will find they were billed late in May, even though the bills were not received until June. But all bills dated on and after June 1 will be at the new lower rates."

"A good many telephone users also are of the opinion that they must have all their reshipped bills back to October 1 in order to get any refund. But this is not correct, since under the court order, the telephone company must make the refunds to every telephone user between Oct. 1, 1935, and June 1, 1936 and they will receive checks for the amounts due as soon as the telephone company has complete the figuring of the refunds for some 81,000 telephone users. Indications are that approximately $250,000 will be paid back to Bell Telephone subscribers within the next few weeks, in addition to the lower rates they will have to pay from now on. Winborne said. At least 81,000 subscribers are expected to share in this refund. Those with hand sets or monophone sets, will also pay less for these or only 25 cents a month instead of 50 cents a month as in the past. And when this charge has been paid for 18 months it will be discontinued under the new rate schedule.

SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION

North Carolina, Pitt County, In Superior Court before the Clerk W. H. Garrett vs. Sam Sumrell, Daniel Sumrell, Eddie Sumrell, Hattie Sumrell, Viola Sumrell, et als.

The defendants, Sam Sumrell, Daniel Sumrell, Eddie Sumrell, Hattie Sumrell and Viola Sumrell, or by whatever name by known, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been instituted in the superior court of Pitt county, North Carolina, for the purpose of having and securing a partition and division of the following lands owned by plaintiff and defendants and others as tenants in common.

Located in Pitt County and on north side of Tar river and at X roads near Mayo's store and known as the Jane Stancill or Jane Sumrell lands, containing 2 acres, more or less, and being same lands described in that deed recorded in book X-17, page 73 of Pitt County registry;

And the said defendants and each of them will take notice that they are required to appear before the clerk of the superior court of Pitt county, North Carolina, at his office

Special For Wednesday Morning Only! COTTON

LACES

- * White
- * Aqua
- * Navy
- * Green
- * Blue
- * Tearose
- * Violet
- * Pink

29c

Yard

Valued at 59c yard

This value is for one morning only! Wednesday from 8:30 to 12:00 o'clock! The lace is a guaranteed 59c value. 36 inches wide. Lovely pastel colors. Be here early—because we think it's going to be a sell out!

Blount-Harvey

WE GUARANTEE WATCH REPAIRING—JEWELRY REPAIRING—Engraving—Reasonable Price LAUTARES'

CHEERING ROOM ONLY! Starts WED.

FURY

NOTHING LIKE IT SINCE "BIG HOUSE," "FUGITIVE FROM THE CHAIN GANG." You'll forget your best theatre manners and cheer it!

PITT

BRODY'S Ladies Dept. Store

Wednesday Morning SPECIALS

Doing a Day's Business in 3 1-2 Hours Requires Real Values. Here are three Special Values that will bring you to Brody's Wednesday Morning—

1 3 6 Silk Dresses

Values to $5.95

PRINTED SILKS
WASHABLE SILKS
PASTELS—

In Every Wanted Style—

WEDNESDAY MORNING ONLY

$3.39

STORE HOURS—8:30 to 12

Knee-Length Stockings

3 Thread
42 Guage
First Quality
Ringless
All Shades

50c pr.

Guaranteed Fast Color

Cotton

Dresses

Eyelet Batistes
Flock Dot Voiles

Just 72 Dresses in the lot, but sized from 14 to 50... They are Real Values at $2.

WEDNESDAY MORNING ONLY

$1.50

BRODY'S

EXCLUSIVE BUT INEXPENSIVE

Miss Edna Ross of Stokes, and Yates James of Fayetteville, were week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. James, 309 Paris avenue.
Mr. and Mrs. Reid Perkins and children of Florence, S. C., are visiting relatives in the city.
Miss Mary Lee Williams is home from Nashville, Tenn., where she has been studying art at Ward-Belmont College.
Mr. and Mrs. Rhoderick Williams are home from Vanderbilt University.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kittrell and children left today for a visit to Atlantic Beach.
Mrs. W. E. Padgett and children of Greensboro, are visiting Mrs. Padgett's father, J. G. Moye.
Miss Rebecca Williams has returned from Farmville, Va., to be with her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Williams.
Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Fullilove and Miss Mammie Fullilove, of Watkinsonville, Ga., are visiting their daughters, Mrs. Dink James and Miss Mammie Fullilove.
Mrs. O. W. Harrington, of Asheville, is the guest of Mrs. J. P. Fleming.
Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ernest and daughter, Rose Marie, of Miami, Fla., are the guests of L. M. Ernest.
Miss Marjorie Fleming is spending sometime in Asheville with Dr. O. L. Harrington and family.
Mrs. Harry Johnson and son, are spending sometime in Raleigh.
Miss Janie Gold Hardee has returned home from Durham, where she has been teaching physical education in one of the city schools.
Miss Odell Armstrong of Hobgood, is visiting Miss Adell Kittrell.
Mrs. N. E. Ward is visiting relatives in Durham.

Attend Tea
Mrs. Berry Bostic and Miss Margaret Bostic have returned from Benson where they attended a tea given in honor of Miss Mary Belle Wilson, whose wedding to Clifford Bostic, of this city, will take place June 23.

Hodges-Staton.
Bethel, June 9.—The following invitation has been issued:
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vernon Staton request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Margaret Bunting to

Mr. Samuel Murray Hodges on Tuesday, June the sixteenth at four o'clock in the afternoon Methodist Church Bethel, North Carolina. No invitations issued in Bethel.

Library To Observe Wednesday.
During the summer months Shepard Memorial Library will be open from 2 p. m. to 9 p. m., each week day except Wednesday. Wednesday hours will be 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. The library will be closed on Wednesday afternoon as long as the business houses observe this holiday.

James Roosevelt Talks Wild West

By ROGER D. GREENE

London, (AP) — Harvard-educated James Roosevelt, eldest son of the President, picked up a new accent within 24 hours of his arrival in England — but not a British accent.

The tall, sunny-smiling American, who uses a fastidious Back Bay Boston accent, found that his interview with British journalists came out in print in the phraseology of an old-time Wild West cowboy.

"Gosh!" he was quoted as saying, when asked what people in the United States thought about the maiden voyage of the giant new liner Queen Mary. "I reckon I guess about half the good ole U. S. A. is a-comin' over here to sail back on 'er!"

The tendency to dress up every visiting American as a verbal Daniel Boone, whether university professor or Nobel prize winner, is as hard-dying in England as the tradition, in America, that every Briton wears a monocle, spats, silk top-hat and drop stitches by the bushel.

A typical example of this deathless guffaw appeared recently in a London newspaper — a cartoon depicting a "typical" American, clad in flaring plus-fours and a ten-gallon hat, standing in front of the English Speaking Union headquarters in London.

"Say!" he addresses the high-chinned British doorman. "We guys kinda blab the same lingo, huh, pardner?"

Coincidentally, the humorous magazine Punch coined its readers with an example of what happens when an English vicar attempts to pronounce an American song title: "You can't do that the-ah he-ah."

The Daily Reflector

Every Afternoon Except Sunday. Established 1882

DAVID J. WHICARD, Jr. Owner and Publisher

TELEPHONE 54

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C. as second class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

One year $5.00, Six months $2.50, Three months $1.25, One month .50

Subscription will be discontinued at expiration of time paid.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES: Theo. F. Clark Co., Inc., New York, Chicago, Indianapolis, Philadelphia, Kansas City.

DON'T BE FOOLED AGAIN

For the past two days we have been asked many questions as to what we think of the accuracy of the newspaper straw vote in view of the result of the primary voting. While from our own standpoint the poll was on the up and up and we believe revealed the real sentiment in the state when the ballot were cast in the poll, it was unfortunate for Dr. McDonald that the poll was run because it revealed to his opponents just where his strength lay and offered the opportunity for a combined effort to concentrate on these centers in the "Stop McDonald" drive.

CHAIRMAN SNELL COMES TO TOWN

Congressman Bertrand H. Snell of New York, permanent chairman of the Republican National convention, waves a greeting to the crowd upon his arrival in Cleveland. Behind him is Mrs. Snell.

be controlled by the machine and the big interests it represents they will rally to McDonald in the run-off primary.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

(Continued from Page One) and Texas history—and politics—for a month. You can't find a book on those states in the Congress, he replied with a twinkle in his eyes: "We understand each other. I'm a scientist and so is Mr. Garvan. We're applying scientific practices to agriculture all the time."

AWKWARD: American aviators who run the navy have prescribed a bitter pill for Great Britain at a moment when John Bull can't afford to swallow any more sour medicine.

The 1930 naval treaty requires the signatories to reduce their tonnage to the 5-5-3 ratio by December 31, 1936, when the agreement expires. Although Great Britain, the U. S. and Japan have tonnage in excess of treaty limits, the pact set up no date or machinery for scrapping. For five years the three countries have violated the spirit of the agreement.

So 10 Downing Street sent out feelers. It asked if the U. S. would permit England to keep these over-treaty ships until December 31, when all restrictions would be off, and in return we could keep ours. It was supposed to be a good cover inquiry. But the admirals blabbed that they had turned down the request. They insisted that, in accord with the treaty, we must explain why she should have extra ships. And the last thing the Baldwin-Edey government wants to do is admit publicly that it's afraid of a challenge by Mussolini in the Mediterranean.

DIFFERENCES: Mid-marinered Henry Wallace struck the last blow in his fight with doughy Harold Ickes for supremacy over millions of acres of grazing lands now in control of the Secretary of the Interior. It balanced Ickes' move to steal the forest and conservation services from the Secretary of Agriculture.

In the last hours of Congress Mr. Wallace forwarded to Capitol Hill a 1,400 page report explaining why grazing acreage should be placed in his charge. He declared that the Department of the Interior had neglected these resources for years, permitting cattle barons to exploit them to the disadvantage of the small, independent cattle owner. It was a blistering document.

Mr. Ickes exploded when he heard of the attack. "Why," he retorted, "we got control of these lands only two years ago, when the Taylor grazing act was passed." Then he publicized the hidden cause of their feud, adding: "And Mr. Wallace's men tried to persuade the President to veto that law." Except for these differences, Messrs. Ickes and Wallace are good friends and two of FDR's topnotch New Dealers.

DUET: For three years another feud has split the Federal Communications Commission. The two principal duellists are Chairman Anning Prall, Tammanyite, and George Henry Payne, an ex-Bull Moose.

They differed over petty and major issues. For a while they did not speak when they met in the corridors or at commission conclaves. Mr. Prall regarded Mr. Payne as a mischief-maker, and Mr. Payne insisted privately that the chairman was not aggressive enough in ruling the air. Again and again the President was warned that their set-to was sabotaging effective administration. Though normally deaf to such tips, eventually the President intervened. "You two have got to talk to each other," he said. At the next meeting Mr. Payne leaned across the table and whispered in Mr. Prall's ear, and the latter repeated the pantomime. They looked and acted like marionettes moved by the same string. And the story is they haven't exchanged a word since they made up that first time.

New York By JAMES McMULLIN RAP: Watch for an eloquent blurb out of Cleveland to the effect that Alfred M. Landon is being nominated in the teeth of united opposition from big business and finance. Every effort will be made to disassociate the Kansas as completely as possible from the taint of Wall Street approval. It is hoped that this strategy will nullify Borah's insinuation, and the indicated plan of the New Dealers to identify Landon with the "forces of greed."

In point of fact, most business leaders who have had personal contact with Landon think well of him. But if it will help the cause any for them to take the rap as having tried to block him, they can be counted upon to play the role faithfully. The boys are fast learning the subtleties of politics.

DISCREET: Republican fund raisers—copying the Democratic example—have been canvassing advertisements from corporations for their own campaign book quite strenuously of late. They have been helped by the desire of many companies to play neutral by giving their ads to both sides.

But in general the G. O. P. book is a sort of poor relation to the elaborate Democratic publication. Its advertising rates are much cheaper, for one thing. It doesn't pretend to compete with the "guaranteed" Democratic circulation of 2,000,000 (officially for a campaign only) a modest million copies distributed. Both parties are seeking the profitable business as never before.

Ad writers for the Democratic masterpiece have learned direction from experience. They try to sell space as a straight business proposition—so much circulation so much money. They have abandoned their earlier argument that their ad should advertise as a gesture of good will towards the New Deal in order to forestall the wrath that advertisers to some they often lean backward the other way. If a prospect starts to talk politics they politely beg to be excused.

EMPHASIS: The Supreme Court's decision on the New York minimum wage law for women was a big break for Roosevelt. The thorn on the rose is that it may complicate the ordery session planned for Philadelphia.

Informed New Yorkers get word that it may not be possible—as FTR evidently wishes—to keep the constitutional amendment issue deep in the background. There is latent dynamite in the sentiment among Democratic leaders that the conservative Court majority has his time come too far in its personal interpretation of the basic law. The vitriolous dissenting opinions of Hughes and Stone strengthen getting resentment. Only the strictest discipline can prevent convention explosion on the subject.

However, the Democrats can console themselves with the knowledge that the G. O. P. convention will have to tackle the same problem before they do. Plenty of Republicans besides Hans Fish are worked up about the Court's "blessing on exploiters of labor."

COAT: Financial insiders understand that it was Herman Oliphant personally—original author of the plan to tax corporate surpluses—who persuaded the President to insist that the tax bill must be drafted on this principle despite obvious Senate hostility.

It is further reported that Secretary Morgenthau had nothing to do with the matter—feeling that no useful purpose could be served by stirring up fresh controversy between the White House and Capitol Hill.

It looks as if Oliphant will wind up the goat—perhaps be shown to the nearest exist—but comment

Daily Cross Word Puzzle

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

Word puzzle grid with clues for Across and Down. Clues include: 1. Sheets of glass, 6. Land measure, 10. Italian lake, 14. Color, 15. Quack, 17. Country in China, 18. Carved gem, 20. Article, 21. Hangings repeatedly, 22. Point, 23. Spread, 24. Loosely, 25. Compass point, 26. Number, 28. On condition that, 31. Root, 32. East, 34. Exclamation, 35. Traditional tale, 37. Hindu woman's garment, 39. Cut lengthwise, 41. Angry, 42. Discernible, 46. Old musical note, 47. Mexican laborer, 48. Give information, 49. Additions to buildings, 51. Toward, 52. Kind of red dye, 53. Permits, 56. Jumbled type, 57. English letter, 59. Genus of the olive tree, 61. Snug room, 62. Short letter, 64. Goes up, 65. Artificial language, 67. French coin, 68. Ravine, 70. American black snake, 72. Chronicle of events, 74. Wrathful, 75. Princely, 76. Italian house, 77. Diner, 12. Part song, 13. United, 16. Easy gait, 22. Display cases, 24. Type measures, 26. Ornamental silk hanging, 28. Prickly plants, 30. Lose brilliance, 32. Rodent, 34. Turkish name, 36. Walked slowly, 38. Tear apart, 39. Center of the solar system, 40. Article, 42. Profound, 43. State bordering on Lake Michigan, 44. Stuffy stuff, 45. Entirely, 50. Obstinate, 52. Foreigners, 54. Cylindrical, 55. One who breathes loudly in sleep, 58. Plant of the lily family, 59. Musical instrument, 60. Nest of a bird of prey, 63. Evict, 64. Operatic song, 65. Fanciful name, 67. Pronoun, 69. Sphere, 71. Feline animal, 73. Symbol for tellurium.

15x15 crossword puzzle grid with numbers 1-77 indicating starting points for clues.

runs that he asked for it.

BUSY: Sir Charles Morgan Webb—British advocate of managed money—recently made a radio speech in this country telling of the good standard and urging the United States to follow the British example by refusing to stabilize. He especially emphasized that English industry is opposed to any return to gold and child English bankers for their old-fashioned views on money.

It isn't generally known, but Sir Charles was imported for the occasion by the Committee for the Nation. This organization would probably have slipped into oblivion by now if the big farm groups had not become so interested in its monetary theories. As it is, the Committee is enjoying something of a renaissance.

Amos Pinchet—brother of Gilford and formerly identified with the Committee—is busy as a flock of bees trying to sell both parties a managed money plank. The money doctors appear to have got their second wind after a long period of relative inactivity.

SPORT SLANTS

The sophomore year in the big leagues, the year that very often breaks the heart of a young ball player who seemed definitely headed for stardom on the strength of a sensational freshman season, almost did for Hal Trosky, big Cleveland first baseman. But, somehow or other, Hal managed to weather the storm and this season has been living up to the promise he showed when he came up in 1934.

Trosky was often nominated as the logical candidate for the slugging crown vacated by Babe Ruth on the strength of his prodigious slugging in 1934. Hal's first season in the big show. But the following winter layoff seemed to have robbed him of his ability to hit. Or perhaps the American league hurlers got together and compared notes on the rookie. At any rate, Trosky's bat was anything but potent when the 1935 season started. In desperation Hal tried every remedy or suggestion offered by well-meaning friends and relatives. He shifted back and forth across the plate so often that he was all tangled up.

Just another morning glory who faded when the early enthusiasms of his freshman season faded, just another freshman gone stale, he was labeled. But Trosky never gave up trying. And when Steve O'Neill took over the reins late in the pennant race Hal began to show signs of life again.

This spring Trosky looked like the Trosky of 1934. Home runs have been rattling off his bat but his pressing Jimmy Foxx in the race for the 1936 home run title. And in the important "runs batted in" column you will find Trosky topped only by Bill Dickey of the Yankees. The Dimagios, the Lewises, the Brubakers, the Mizos and the other first year men who are riding so high as freshmen had better watch their step. The list of freshman stars was equally as imposing in 1935 as in 1936. And just glance over last year's roll today. Cy Blanton won 20 games for the Pirates last season, his first in the majors, and led National league hurlers in effectiveness. Compare that with his 1936 record of being unable to complete a single game so far. Clyde Castleman of the Giants won 15 games while losing six last season. He has been taking his share of the bumps this year, and has only one victory to recommend him.

The National league in 1935 was proud of its crop of freshman pitchers fellows like Roy Henshaw, Orville Jorgens, Ed Heusser, Fabian Kowalik and John Pessulo—yet they have failed to live to the Lehigh, Alex Kampouris, Phil promise they showed. Terry Moore, Cavarretta, Jose Gomez and Mel Almada are having a tough time holding on to the jobs they won last season.

The situation in the American league is no different. John Whitehead, Vernon Wilshire, Joe Sullivan and Vito Tamulis were sensations on the mound a year ago, but today they are lost in the crowd. Tamulis has returned to the minors. Whitehead, Sullivan and Wilshire have shown little this spring. The outstanding members of this year's freshman crop are for the most part infielders and outfielders. Few first year moundmen have crashed into the spotlight as they did a year ago. So there is a possibility that a greater percentage will beat the sophomore hoodoo.

Elephants Made Free Game Lourenco Marques, Africa (AP)—Elephants are increasing so rapidly and killing so many natives in this colony of Portuguese East Africa, that authorities have declared the beasts "noxious," meaning that they may be shot at any time in any number without a license.

Sixteen murders in Cincinnati during the first 137 days of 1936 were 14 less than for the corresponding period in 1935.

TO THE VOTERS OF PITT COUNTY

Wish to use this means of thanking each and every one in the Primary Saturday for their vote. I shall endeavor to represent my county to the very best of my ability.

JOHN HILL PAYLOR

TO THE VOTERS OF PITT COUNTY

Since it is impossible for me to thank each of you personally, I wish to use this means of expressing my sincere appreciation of your support in the Democratic Primary on Saturday.

J. FICKLEN ARTHUR

Nash and Lafayette advertisement featuring a car, a woman, and a man. Text includes: 'JUST SEE HOW MUCH MORE YOU CAN GET FOR AS LITTLE AS $595', 'Even in the lowest-priced LaFayette, Nash gives you the extra room and vital engineering features that other manufacturers put only in their higher-priced cars!', 'GAS-SAVING AUTOMATIC CRUISING GEAR!', 'MORE HEADROOM, WIDER SEATS THAN IN HIGH-PRICED CARS!', '7-BEARING CRANKSHAFT—FULL-PRESSURE LUBRICATION!', 'NASH and LAFAYETTE', 'CONVENIENT LOW PAYMENTS THROUGH 6% C. I. T. BUDGET PLAN', 'LAFAYETTE $595 AND UP', 'NASH "400" $665 AND UP', 'Distributor SUGG MOTOR COMPANY', '118-120 E. 3rd St.', 'Other Nearby Dealers', 'RALEIGH NASH COMPANY, Raleigh, N. C. HUNTER OIL COMPANY, Rocky Mount, N. C.'

RED TOP ALE. When you're thirsty and tired, there's nothing so satisfying and stimulating as good, old "RED TOP". Always "refreshing"! Order from your dealer! JEFFREYS & SON, Distributors Goldsboro, N. Car.

GREENIES WIN OVER KINSTON

Local Team Racks Up Third Consecutive Victory

The Kinston Eagles dropped a game to the local nine at Third street stadium here yesterday afternoon by a 4-1 score, giving the local in their third consecutive win of the season.

There were only two scheduled games on the Coastal Plain League roster yesterday, and the clash between the locals and Kinston was one of them. The other was played by Snow Hill and the Williamson Martins, the latter losing by a score of 6-2.

Watson, local hurler, who is making good headway in every game in which he participates, did the mound work for the Greenies, and allowed the Eagles only five scattered hits. His opposition on the Kinston staff—Rambert—also tossed a nice game, holding the locals to only six hits.

The second and third innings were the God-sends yesterday, and to make them good, the Greenies secured two runs in these two innings, bringing about the total number of runs obtained throughout the entire game.

The Kinstonians failed to make good all of their five hits, however, they did cut loose in the second inning and score their only run of the tilt.

Ace Parker lead with the stick for the locals, while Sweeney and C. Kellar were outstanding for the visitors.

This afternoon the Greenies are engaging the Williamson Martins at that place, and are aspiring to produce a quadruplet of wins in their behalf.

Probable Pitchers

The three leading batters in each major league for play to date:

Player	G.	Ab.	R.	H.	Pct.
Terry, Giants	29	76	16	30	.395
S. Martin, Cds.	38	125	31	48	.384
Medwick, Cds.	48	198	28	72	.364
Gehrig, Yanks	50	195	61	71	.364
DiMaggio, Y.	33	160	36	58	.363

Salute to a Sailor

It's graduation time at the Naval academy in Annapolis. And so we found this scene in Lovers' Lane—Laura Young of Waycross, Ga., offering her congratulations to Midshipman Jack Baumelster of Pensacola, Fla. (Associated Press Photo)

HOME RUNS

Home runs yesterday:

Fox, Red Sox	1
Cronin, Red Sox	1
Gehrig, Yankees	1
DiMaggio, Yankees	1

The leaders:

Fox, Red Sox	14
Trosky, Indians	12
Ott, Giants	11
Gehrig, Yankees	11

League totals:

American	236
National	214
Total	450

HOW THEY STAND

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Louis	31	17	.646
New York	28	21	.571
Chicago	26	21	.543
Pittsburgh	26	22	.542
Boston	24	26	.480
Cincinnati	23	26	.469
Brooklyn	19	31	.380
Philadelphia	19	31	.380

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	33	16	.673
Boston	32	20	.615
Detroit	28	24	.538
Cleveland	25	22	.532
Washington	25	25	.500
Chicago	22	25	.468
Philadelphia	16	31	.340
St. Louis	15	33	.313

PIEDMONT LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pct.
Norfolk	31	16	.660
Portsmouth	24	21	.533
Rocky Mount	25	22	.532
Durham	22	26	.458
Asheville	19	27	.413
Richmond	19	28	.404

COASTAL PLAIN LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pct.
Ayden	5	0	1.000
Kinston	4	2	.667
Snow Hill	4	2	.667
Greenville	3	3	.500
Williamston	3	3	.500
Goldsboro	1	4	.200
New Bern	1	4	.200
Tarboro	1	4	.200

Yesterday's Results

COASTAL PLAIN LEAGUE
Greenville 4, Kinston 1.
Snow Hill 6, Williamston 2.
Others not scheduled.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Pittsburgh 2, Brooklyn 1.
Chicago 3, Philadelphia 0.
Cincinnati 7, New York 3.
Others not scheduled.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Boston 6-3, Detroit 3-12.
New York 12, St. Louis 3.
Philadelphia 5, Chicago 4.
Cleveland-Washington, rain.

PIEDMONT LEAGUE
Portsmouth 5, Durham 4.
Asheville 3, Norfolk 2.
Rocky Mount 8, Richmond 0.

Today's Games

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Detroit at Boston.
St. Louis at New York.
Cleveland at Washington.
Chicago at Philadelphia.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Philadelphia at Chicago.
New York at Cincinnati.
Brooklyn at Pittsburgh.

PIEDMONT LEAGUE
Richmond at Rocky Mount.
Norfolk at Asheville.
Durham at Portsmouth.

Coastal Plain League

Tuesday, June—Kinston at Snow Hill, Goldsboro at New Bern, Greenville at Williamston, Tarboro at Ayden.

Wednesday, June 10—Snow Hill at Kinston, New Bern at Goldsboro, Williamston at Greenville, Ayden at Tarboro.

Thursday, June 11—Greenville at Snow Hill, Tarboro at New Bern, Kinston at Williamston, Goldsboro at Ayden.

Friday, June 12—Snow Hill at Greenville, New Bern at Tarboro, Williamston at Kinston, Ayden at Goldsboro.

Saturday, June 13—Tarboro at Snow Hill, Greenville at New Bern, Goldsboro at Williamston, Kinston at Ayden.

Sunday, June 14—New Bern at Greenville, Snow Hill at Tarboro, Williamston at Goldsboro, Ayden at Kinston.

STRANDED FRENCH SHIP IRKS DANISH CUSTOMS

Copenhagen (AP)—For more than six months the French steamer Adrar, 6,000 tons, has rested on dry land, with full crew on board, awaiting a spring flood to take it out to sea again.

Thrown ashore at the island of Sylt by a heavy gale last October, the ship has now sunk deep into the sands.

A long ladder permits the crew to "go ashore" for water.

Provisions are sent regularly from France raising the question with the customs authorities whether the craft is part of the island or is foreign ship territory.

Cushions 'Sissy' Say Hitler Boys Berlin (AP)—Upholstered furniture is singled out by Nazi boys for ridicule in an exhibition of what they term a "Spieserheim," or home of a complacent bourgeois.

In one of Berlin's town halls they have assembled plush sofas, chairs and spider-leg tables of the time when "daddy was a boy." These may look innocent and comfortable to any average person but the young Nazi considers them "sissy."

The lady received the furniture as donations to equip district headquarters.

OVERCOMING OBSTACLES

By PAP

suggestion of Senator Vandenberg of Michigan early in the spring for a "coalition cabinet" under a Republican President. Then followed the drive for a Republican President and a Democratic vice-president.

There have been many coalition cabinets, perhaps including the present one where Harold I. Ickes, long a progressive Republican, is secretary of the interior, and a former Republican, Henry A. Wallace, is secretary of agriculture.

Early history saw a number of "coalition" governments. Before the constitution was amended it was provided that the candidate receiving the most electoral college votes should be President, and the next highest should be vice-president.

Many political and mechanical difficulties immediately presented themselves in consideration of the present proposal. Several of the outstanding Democrats suggested for the vice-presidential post, intimidated or said outright they would not accept such a position.

If elected, in which party council would such a vice-president sit?

In European ministerial governments the various coalition factions represent specific groups in the parliament. For what group could a "coalition" vice-president in the American system speak?

As Senator Borah suggested in frowning on the idea, even the nominee's own state might repudiate him.

Autos Cut Polish Income Tax Warsaw (AP)—Polish income tax payers will benefit by an exemption of $1,900 from their assessable incomes if they become automobile owners between now and January, 1938. The allowance is made to stimulate motorization of the country.

Joseph Calleja is one of the few actors in town who can play a saxophone. But he never does in public.

SPORT SLANTS

By PAP

Choose a baseball career, young man—if you have the stuff.

So advises "Uncle Billy" Disch, 61, baseball coach at the University of Texas. And he should know whereof he speaks—for he has given most of his life to the game.

William J. Disch is the grand old man of baseball to Texas fans. His Longhorns have won something like 21 Southwest conference titles in the 25 years they have been under his guiding hand.

"Baseball offers as many opportunities to a young man equipped for the sport as law, engineering and other professions, in proportion to the number who participate," says Disch. "The salaries in most instances are better, and while a baseball career is comparatively short, a player who uses judgment is well taken care of when his active playing days are over."

Younger players, says Disch, have easier sailing today than when he started his career.

"The older players are more willing to help the youngsters than before," he explains. "When I hit the diamond back in '97 I had to know my baseball or get out, because the veterans had little use for a green rookie. Even the umpires delighted in calling bad ones on us to see if we could take it. If we did, and handed something just as good back at them, we were regulars."

Prospects are promising for college players, the veteran mentor estimating 68 per cent of the major league recruits last year were college men. In his quarter century at Texas, Disch has sent an average of one player each year to the big time.

He regards Big Falk, former Chicago White Sox and Cleveland star, and Pinky Higgins, Philadelphia Athletics' third sacker, as his most finished players.

Baseball offers an opportunity to combine intellectual talents with physical ability, Disch adds, continuing:

"The game is mentally stimulating to one who is really interested in it and is one of the best forms of exercise."

Baseball players, Disch declares, are neither born nor made. They are developed. He opines:

"The ball player needs both a rugged physique and brain. He must have an even temperament, and of the three, I believe the last is most important. Many a good player has failed to reach stardom because he lacks the proper temperament."

Brains, to "Uncle Billy" are even more important than physical qualifications. He cited Evers, Maraville and Keeler as a few physically small but mentally alert players who have made good in fast company. Pat Ankenman, former University of Texas star, who is back with the Columbus Red Birds in the American Association after a trial with the St. Louis Cardinals this spring, was known as "half-pint" during his college days.

Disch teaches his players strategy, not the least important of which is keeping the umpire in good humor.

He recalls the story of how "Ox" Blanton, the great Texas athlete recently burned to death, captivated an umpire during an exhibition tour.

"The umpire said, after the tour, he was glad there were no more games because Blanton had won him over so completely he was afraid the home team fans would mob him for being prejudiced in favor of my boys," Disch explains.

Senator Dickinson of Iowa and many others.

A second step toward it was the

...and remember, his Pontiac cost him just a few dollars more than the lowest-priced cars!

Miles mean nothing to those who ride in a Kneec-Action Pontiac, for this big, full-weight car gives a true hullyaby ride. What's more, Pontiac's "Turret-Top" Body with No-Draft Ventilation, Triple-Sealed Hydraulic Brakes and scores of other special safety features keep minds as well as bodies always at ease. Rest as you ride—drive a Pontiac.

*One of 11,000 Pontiac owners who recently have written voluntary letters of praise about their cars. No paid testimonials!

PONTIAC

SIXES AND EIGHTS
BROWN-WOOD
635 Dickinson Avenue
Greenville, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SPECIALS

PENNEY'S

J. C. PENNEY COMPANY, Incorporated

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By PRESTON GROVER

Washington—The idea of a coalition government—often used in England and France—encountered such difficulties of presenting it popularly in America that it moved on the Cleveland convention scene with the opposition of many outstanding leaders.

The idea has been tossed about for months, evidently arising from the outbursts of those Democrats who do not approve of the Roosevelt administration.

Republicans seeing an opportunity to consolidate this Democratic protest with their own drive against the administration began early to plead for support of "Jeffersonian Democrats." It was a plea voiced by

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON!

In the Louisiana senate which his father once ruled, Russell Long, son of the late Senator Huey P. Long, now sits as assistant secretary. The youth bears a strong physical resemblance to his father and is said to have some of the characteristics which made the "Kingfish" a political dictator. (Associated Press Photo)

To My Loyal Friends And Supporters of Pitt County

Publicly I want to thank you for your support in nominating me for the Senate, and wish it was so I could see each one of you in person and shake your hand. I promise to the best of my ability to work in the Senate of North Carolina for such laws, that will be for the best interest of my county and state, both morally and financially.

With Best Wishes,

E. G. FLANAGAN

MARKET REPORT

Richmond Livestock

(Courtesy J. N. and J. L. Williams)
 Richmond Livestock market. Hogs receipts fairly liberal, market steady top $10.25, unchanged, paid for choice $175-225 pound corn rec butcher stock; soft and oily hogs subject 50 cents to $1.50 discount as to condition. Veal top steady at $6.00 on choice, $5 to $8.50 on good, culls as low as $6.00; cows steady $3.50 to $5.50; bulls $4 to $6.00. Heifers $4 to $7. Common and medium steers from $4.50 to $7.00. Good steers quotable to $8.00. Sheep about steady, ewes $3 to $4. Spring lambs from $8.50 to $10.50 as to quality and condition. Wool receipts moderate market steady, choice fleeces $1 at 33 cents a pound burry and dirty wool as to quality and condition.
 Weather, fair; temperature 72.

Chicago Grain Market

(Courtesy Vernon Parrish)

	Open	Close	Prv. Cl.
WHEAT:
July	837-8	841-2	84
Sept.	84	85 1-4	84 3-4
Dec.	87	87 3-8	86 3-4
CORN:
July	60 3-4	61 3-4	60 5-8
Sept.	57 1-2	58 1-8	57 1-2
Dec.	52 5-8	53	52 3-4
OATS:
July	24 5-8	24	24 5-8
Sept.	25 1-4	25 3-8	25 1-4
Dec.	26 3-4	26 7-8	26 3-4
RYE:
July	53 5-8	54 1-8	53 5-8
Sept.	54	54 1-2	54

New York Cotton

New York, June 9.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady two to five higher on relatively steady Liverpool cables and trade buying.
 The market held steady after the call with October working up to 10 1/4 or six points net higher.
 After selling off from 10 1/4 to 10 3/8 October recovered the loss while March sold up from 10 1/2 to 10 3/8, with prices around noon showing net advances of about 3 to 6 points.
 Futures closed barely steady, one to 1 1/2 higher, spot steady, middling 11 7/8.

Courtesy of E. A. Pierce and Co. Wilson, N. C. Phone 813

July	11.85	11.64	11.63
Oct.	10.90	10.97	10.88
Dec.	10.87	10.94	10.84
Jan.	10.89	10.95	10.85
Feb.	10.86	10.95	10.84
May	10.89	10.97	10.86

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, June 9.—(AP)—The stock market today got its feet no another high rung of the price ladder.
 Gains of fractions to a point or so were the rule near the start of the fourth hour with retail store shares popular, in reflection of next week's bonus distribution.
 The close was firm. Transfers approximated 700,000 shares.

N. Y. STOCK LIST

American Radiator 20 3-4	American Telephone 170 1-2	American Tobacco 85 1-4	Atlantic Coast Line 34 1-2	Atlantic Refining 27 1-2	Bendix Aviation 27 7-8	Bethlehem Steel 52 3-4	Chrysler 95 1-8	Columbia Gas and Elec. 19 5-8	Commercial Solvent 16 1-2	Continental Oil 11 1-2	DuPont 144 1-4	Electric Power Light 16 1-2	General Electric 38 5-8	General Motors 62	Liggett and Myers 108	Montgomery Ward 44 1-2	Southern Railway 16 3-8	Standard Oil 58 1-8
--------------------------	----------------------------	-------------------------	----------------------------	--------------------------	------------------------	------------------------	-----------------	-------------------------------	---------------------------	------------------------	----------------	-----------------------------	-------------------------	-------------------	-----------------------	------------------------	-------------------------	---------------------

(Courtesy E. A. Pierce & Co., Wilson, N. C. Phone 813)

Otis Steel 15	Western Union 81 1-2	Radio 12	Simmons 29 3-8	Standard Brands 15 1-2	Packard 10 1-8	International Telephone 13 7-8	Anaconda 33 5-8	U. S. Steel 62 1-8	Reynolds 55 1-8	Texas Gulf Sulphur 35 7-8	Lorillard 22 7-8	Texas Corporation 31 1-2	United Corp. 6 3-4	Elec. Bond and Share 20 3-4	American Radiator 20 5-8	Seaboard 7-8	Coca Cola 101
---------------	----------------------	----------	----------------	------------------------	----------------	--------------------------------	-----------------	--------------------	-----------------	---------------------------	------------------	--------------------------	--------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------	--------------	---------------

TAR HEEL GOP DELEGATES MOVE INTO LONDON CAMP

(Continued from page one)
 The convention recessed until 8 p. m., when Steiwer will deliver the keynote speech.

TAR HEEL

Cleveland, June 9.—(AP)—Storms signals aloft the Republican convention set off today toward a Presidential nomination in clock form of profound import for the party, and perhaps national destiny.
 The advantageous position held by the forces fighting for Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas as was acknowledged on all sides.
 Outwardly a deceptive calm prevailed. But underneath the surface struggles over places on the ticket and principals on which to oppose

Alabama Sponsor

Jane Haralson, Birmingham—Southern college co-ed, will represent Alabama as official state sponsor at the annual Rhododendron festival in Asheville, N. C., June 15-19. (Associated Press Photo)

The New Deal raged unabated. Bereft of the usual keynote speech, which was deferred until this evening in the vast auditorium, the opening session at 11 a. m. (EST) was confined to formalities.
 A get-down-to-business mood seemed to be asserting itself among the delegates as they awaited the keynote tonight by Frederick Steiwer of Oregon.
 Delegates noted that the frequent expressions of confidence coming from Landon leaders now contained fewer references to a bandwagon rush. At the same time the failure of any coalition of anti-Landonites to materialize had its effect. No signal "stop Landon" leader has emerged.
 The arrival of Colonel Frank Knox, Chicago publisher, and former President Hoover possibly today was expected in some quarters to produce more indication of how the actual contest underway might shape up.

OFFICIAL VOTE IS TABULATED

(Continued from page one)
County Treasurer
 Chas. Laughinhouse, Jr.—3574.
 J. Vance Perkins—5847.

Coroner
 W. Clarence Taylor—2223.
 A. A. Ellwanger—7171.

County Commissioners
 First District
 E. T. (Pig) Forbes—735.
 Walter Cherry—3930.
 R. A. Tyson—1401.
 S. I. Dudley—2933.
 Third District
 H. F. Owe's—2961.
 B. M. Lewis—5430.
 Fifth District
 W. L. McLawhor—2779.
 Frank M. Kilpatrick—3501.
 Dr. G. H. Sumrill—2769.

Judge of County Court
 Jack Spain—4819.
 Dink James—4886.

Solicitor of County Court
 Harry Brown—4090.
 Chas. Harry Whedbee—5183.

BEER TRAFFIC MIXED IN BERLIN SAFETY DRIVE

Berlin, (AP)—Berliners are made "traffic-minded" while lifting their mugs of foamy beer.
 Restaurants and hotels in a new safety campaign supply guests with coasters and napkins bearing pictures of traffic violators.

So when one says "prost" in the German capital now he sees a bicyclist carrying his girl on a handlebar or a child hitching on a truck or a pedestrian crossing a street against a stop light.

"Are you smiling against regulations like these?" asks the text under the picture and warningly adds: "You shouldn't do it."

Bound Feet Cause Chinese Death
 Chungking, China (AP)—An old-fashioned Chinese woman lost her life when her bound feet prevented her from scrambling out of the way of an airplane taking off before a great crowd at the new airport here.

Jean Hersholt, the Dane, has been adopted by the Seneca Indian tribe.

STARTS TOMORROW

Sugar and Spice and Everything Nice—

That Is What "Fury" Is Not Made Of

FURY

PACKS A WALLOP!

Walter Winchell Says—
 "Better Than a Fugitive From a Chain Gang"

PITT
 A NORTH CAROLINA THEATRE

Durham Man Elected To Head Lion Clubs

High Point, June 9.—(AP)—V. J. Ashbaugh of Durham was unanimously elected governor of the 31st district of Lions Clubs at the annual convention here today, and Charlotte was selected as the 1937 convention city.

William Rogers was chosen lieutenant governor of clubs east.

The Murphy club this morning was presented with the cup for the best report of activities during the year. Honorable mention was given the Charlotte, Goldsboro, Raleigh and Shelby clubs.

SPRING MEANS 'FIGHT' FOR TURKEY GOBBLEERS

San Angelo, Tex. (AP)—The sun-rise screams of gobblers signal the end of a peaceful winter for wild turkeys in the Hill country.

When those shrill cries echo among the trees, the hens go half way to meet their mates but battles between gobblers often occur when another invades the trysting place.

Danish Shipbuilders Busy

Copenhagen (AP)—A boom in international shipping is indicated by 35 vessels of from 2,000 to 15,300 tons under construction in Danish shipyards, which was on the brink of liquidation a few years ago, 6,000 men are working day and night on nine ships.

WANTS

RATES: 1c per word (minimum 25c) per insertion, this size type. Larger type, double price. Persons not having regular account with this office must send or bring cash with copy. No want ads taken over telephone.

FOR SALE—6-ROOM DWELLING in good condition. Corner lot on Paris Ave.—terms 15 per cent cash, balance in small monthly payments. B. W. Moseley, Real Estate Agt. 8-2t

FOR SALE—BOAT, WITH OR WITHOUT Evernude "Sportsman" Outboard Motor. See F. W. Heslep, Chas. Horne Drug Store. 8-tf

EAT AT THE BELMONT GRILL—Our specialty—25c plate lunches; also 40c, 50c and 75c dinners. Fountain service. Cigarettes, 12 package. Cold Beer. 19-tf

1931 FORD COACH—THIS CAR has been thoroughly reconditioned and is ready for many miles of good service. Our price is only $165. White Chevrolet Co., Inc., Greenville, N. C.

100 HAND ENGRAVED PANEL Calling Cards, with free plate, $1.85. 100 engraved Wedding Announcements, complete, $10.00. Latest designs. Phone 940-W. Tige's Novelty Exchange. 18-tf

WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY

THE Voice of Bugle Ann

Here is the answer to the world's challenge for a screen drama that is different! Out of the foothills of the Ozarks sweeps an amazing saga... of young love defying the harsh code of its elders... of simple human feelings to touch your heart with sympathy and pity...

with LIONEL BARRYMORE MRS. O'SULLIVAN - LINDEN
 —Added Bits—
 "It Happened All Right"
 comedy news REEL STATE
 TODAY—"SKY PARADE"

FOR RENT—NEW BRICK BUNGALOW

on corner opposite Third St. School. Has vestibule, living room, dining room, kitchen, breakfast room, enclosed back porch, hall, two bedrooms and bath. Mrs. Jesse R. Moyer, phone 12. 8-tf

POULTRY FEEDS—ALL KINDS—Starting Mash, 275 bag; Growing Mash, $2.35 bag; Laying Mash, $2.35 bag; 24 per cent Dairy, $1.70; Hog Feeds, Soy Beans, Mixed Peas. Pitt FCX Service, Greenville and Ayden.

PHONE 619
 If It's Laundry or Dry Cleaning, The Old Reliable—We Know How! RAINBOW CLEANERS

SNOWDROP FLOUR AND A good cook means a good biscuit. Try a bag, money guarantee with every bag. Warren Feed Company. 20-tf

WE ARE DEALERS FOR BALL fruit jars, jar rings and jar tops. All sizes. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions.

SEE US FOR YOUR POULTRY wire and screen wire. Prices are low. Let us quote you. Warren Feed Company. 20-tf

BEFORE YOU BUY HYDRATE Lime—choice Timothy Hay—Cotton Seed Meal—Cotton Seed Hulls—get our prices. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions. Apr. 30-tf

LAYING MASH, GROWING mash, starting mash baby chick feed, scratch feed—at low prices. Warren Feed Company. 20-tf

When you want—what you want In Cleaning and Pressing Guaranteed satisfaction—always call CAROLINA DRY CLEANERS Phone 176 Leon Smith, Prop.

FARM SUPPLIES, SEED, FEED, Provisions, Starting Mash, Dairy Feed, C. S. Meal and Hulls. Greenville Dist. Co., L. L. Rives, Prop. 1-tf

HOW ABOUT A LAWN MOWER—good one for $7.50, and better one for $10.00. Warren Feed Company. 20-tf

WE CAN SUPPLY YOU WITH any kind of paint for any type paint job, inside or outside. Get our prices and estimates. J. A. Watson—Seed, Feed, Provisions. 24-tf

J. D. AMAN, WHOLESALE AND retail Plumbing and Heating Supplies, 423-25 Cotanche St., Greenville, N. C., Phone 734. 25-tf

COW PEAS, SOY BEANS, CORN

at good prices. Let us quote you. Warren Feed Company. 25-tf

EVERYONE IS REQUESTED TO save the Trade-marks from OCCO-NEE-CHEE FLOUR and turn them over to any Pitt County school child, teacher or school official as these will help the Pitt County Schools to more quickly secure the Centralized Radio and Sound Equipment for which every County School is working. May 21-1 mo.

ROBERSON BATTERY STATION formerly Greenville Tire and Battery Co., Seiberling Tires, Batteries Recharged and Repaired. Ignition Parts for all cars. Phone 459. B. O. Roberson, Prop. 5-6t

NOTICE TO FARMERS! SEE B. T. Clark for tobacco trucks. Our new model is made of better material and will furnish your need. Washington Street. Phone 76. 25-tf

FRESH POTATO CHIPS DAILY People's Bakery.

BRICK—BRICK—BRICK—BRICK—buy your bricks from a home owned concern. We deliver. Sellars Brick Co., plant phone 2305—residence, 525-W. May 11-1 mo

SERVICE—CALL 281—WASH AND Greased. $1.50. For better gas buy Texaco Fire Chief. Change oil with new Texaco motor oil. Court View Service Station, L. E. Ross. 5-6t

NORTH CAROLINA STATE Employment Service affiliated with United States Employment Service. Free to employer and employee. When in need of any kind of worker please call 700. Evans Street. Library Bldg. 4-6t

TO THE FARMERS—PLOW works of all kinds. Cultivators, cotton and turning plows, rakes, and all works for the farmers. Give us a trial and you will see that our prices are right. Warren Feed Company. 20-tf

WANTED—TO RENT A 5 OR 6 room house. Call Mrs. Little, 239-J. 9-tf

Just Completed—
 1936 VERSION
"SHOW BOAT"
 Coming PITT June 15-16

ALL KINDS POISON, DUST OR

Liquid, Paris Green, Arsenate of Calcium or Lead, Black Leaf "40," Nu-Spray and many other kinds. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions.

FOR RENT—LARGE FURNISHED bedroom. Call after 5 o'clock, 300 E. 4th St.

SAVE $50 ON THIS 1933 CHEVROLET Master 4-Door Sedan, with radio, original black finish, new tires and interior like new. Was $375—special sale price $325. White Chevrolet Co., Inc., Greenville, N. C.

LOST—WHITE POCKETBOOK with keys, vanity case and other articles. Also card bearing name of owner, Miss Marjoria Jane Montgomery, 618 Evans St., or call 74. 9-2t

FOR SALE—BABY CHICKS

Rocks, Reds, and crossbreeds—every Tuesday, eight cents each. Jenness Morrill, Jr., Falkland, June 2-1 mo.

COLLARS AND BRIDLES AT reduced prices for next two weeks. Warren Feed Company. 20-tf

SEE US FOR PRICES ON SUDAN Grass Seed—Mixed Cowpeas and Soy Beans—all varieties in stock. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions. Apr. 30-tf

C. L. RUSS—REGISTERED Plumber & Steam Fitter, State License No. 245. Fairbanks-Morse Water Systems and Refrigerators. Superflex Oil Burning Refrigerators. Shop 312 Evans St., Greenville, N. C. Business Phone 636; Residence Phone 337-WX. Apr. 30-tf

FOR SALE—COW PEAS, IMMEDIATE DELIVERY.

Phone 303. 8 2t.

WANTED A FEW PEKIN DUCKS. Write P. O. Box 508, Greenville, N. C. 9-1f

1933 FORD V-8 DE LUXE COACH—owned right here in the city and very clean, and carries an OK tag. Was $365—now only $300. Also 40 other clean OK'd used cars that are priced to move. White Chevrolet Co., Inc., Greenville, N. C.

Don't let the name fool you IT'S ALL NEW "SHOW BOAT" PITT MON.-TUES.

Ends Today—"UNDER TWO FLAGS"—with Ronald Coleman—C. Colbert

STARTS WEDNESDAY

IT HAPPENED ON THEIR WEDDING NIGHT!

Two lovers victims of mob violence. A drama with the blow of a blackjack because it could happen to any one of you!

SYLVIA SIDNEY SPENCER TRACY in "FURY"

"Better than a Fugitive from a Chain Gang" says—
 WALTER WINCHELL

with BRUCE CABOT EDWARD ELLIS

More Show OUR GANG COMEDY "LUCKY CORNER" Exciting Sport Reel

At The PITT A NORTH CAROLINA THEATRE

with COOL

Just Completed—
 1936 VERSION
"SHOW BOAT"
 Coming PITT June 15-16

Ceylon is famous for Spices
 Brazil is famous for Coffee

...but Turkey is famous for Tobacco
 ...the aromatic Turkish tobacco that adds fragrance and flavor to Chesterfield Cigarettes.

It's the right quantity of the Turkish tobacco blended and cross-blended with the best home-grown tobaccos raised in this country that give Chesterfields their mildness and better taste—another reason why Chesterfields Satisfy.

CHESTERFIELD CIGARETTES