Solicitor Zeb V. Nettles, who will head the prosecution, said he state would use 30-odd witnesses. The defense has not disclosed any plans.

Moore was arraigned only on a murder charge, although the grand jury indicted him also for first degree burglary.

Convicted Murderer Dies Awaiting A Second Trial

John Henry Houser Dies Natural Death in Hospital

Winston-Salem, Aug. 18.—(AP)—John Henry Houser, aged killer of his son-in-law some years ago died here today.

The oldest man to be convicted of murder and sentenced to die in the state of North Carolina, Houser rested comfortably in a hospital in Winston-Salem awaiting death from natural causes rather than being electrocuted by the state.

Convicted and sentenced to death, the superior court of the state sent his case back to the superior court for another trial but before it could be heard he had to be taken to a local hospital for treatment. That was four years ago—and he remained in the institution with the charge of murder hanging over him and the courts awaiting an opportunity to retry his case.

Dixie Warehouse Is Fully Equipped Provide Services

Will F. Moore and Biggs T. Cannon, Owners and Operators, Prominent on Market

Will F. Moore and Biggs T. Cannon, owners and operators of the New Dixie Warehouse, although having one of the largest houses on the Greenville tobacco market, realized in 1934 before the season had far advanced that there was not enough floor space to take care of their patrons. Early last year, determined to render every convenience and service to the tobacco growers, they constructed a large addition which provides them with one of the largest and best arranged warehouses of the east.

During the several years these two men have been operating the warehouses together they have enjoyed a continuous increase in business. They need no introduction to the tobacco farmers of Eastern North Carolina, as they are well known and liked by all who have patronized them since they have been connected with the Greenville market.

Mr. Moore who will have charge of the sales division of the warehouse is a man of long experience in the warehouse business and is a judge of tobacco second to no man in the business. His judgment of tobacco and experience as a warehouseman assures every one that his interest will be looked after when they sell with the Dixie Warehouse.

Mr. Cannon, who will be auctioneer has been connected with the Greenville market for many years and it is admitted by one and all that he is a real auctioneer as well as a good judge of tobacco. He knows what a pile of tobacco should bring and will never let it go until the highest price is bid.

The Dixie Warehouse is a big asset to the Greenville Tobacco Market and will do its part in keeping Greenville on top as 'The Best Tobacco Market in The State.'

DARK MYSTERY OVER SHAKEUP

High Officials Offer No Explanation for Firing Mask

Raleigh, Aug. 18.—An air of deep dark mystery still surrounds the sudden firing of Homer H. B. Mask, until a few days ago Regional Director of Resettlement in this district, composed of North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia and Tennessee and the appointment of George S. Mitchell, a former Virginia college professor who has been an assistant to Rexford G. Tugwell, Director of Resettlement in Washington, as Mask's successor.

The mouths of all these connected with the Resettlement Administration here are tightly sealed and none can be found who will discuss the sudden shake-up in the regional organization, at least for publication. Some are wondering if the Resettlement Administration is now using red adhesive tape as well as red tape and if the primary requisites of a successful Federal job holder are not to hear nothing, see nothing and say nothing, if not to know nothing.

It is intimated from sources close to the Resettlement organization here, however, that the reasons Mask was summarily removed last week as regional director are that he was inclined to do too much independent thinking and directing on his own responsibility without consulting Dr. Tugwell and his miniature brain trust in Washington, also that he did not show sufficient respect and consideration for some of those who had been sent from the Washington office down to the Raleigh offices.

The heads of the personnel and finance offices here were assigned to these posts directly from Washington and without Mask's knowledge or without his being consulted. It is intimated that some of these felt they had just as much to say about things as Mask, although he was director of the entire regional organization, and that they hence resented it whenever he made any suggestions about the conduct of their respective divisions. Accordingly, many believe Mask was given the gate because he refused to bow down and salame to the Tugwell brain trusters and to the Tugwellians sent down here from the Washington offices.

Mitchell, the new director, is 34 years old, a native of Virginia and a former professor of economics in Columbia University, New York City. Mask had had 20 years practical experience in farm matters in North Carolina and other southern states.

NEGRO SOUGHT MURDER COUNT GIVES SELF UP

James Gray Walks Into Chicago Police Headquarters

DENIES KNOWING ABOUT SLAYING

Officers Had Been Seeking Gambler in Connection With Murder in Hotel

Chicago, Aug. 17.—(AP)—James Gray, 26, negro gambler sought for questioning in connection with the hotel room slaying of Mrs. Mary Louise Trammel, last Sunday surrendered today to the police.

Gray walked into police headquarters and said he had read in the newspapers that he was being sought.

He told police he knew nothing of the slaying, but identified a bundle of laundry held at the station as his property.

Police Sergeant Peter Bernacchi said Gray told him he was robbed of a notebook, a laundry check and a small amount of cash while sleeping in Grant park not far from the slaying scene about a week ago.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Detectives investigating the slaying of Mrs. Mary Louise Trammel today swung into a wide-spread search for James Gray, 31-year-old negro gambler.

Assistant Prosecutor Morris Meyers said Gray had a police record as a "peeping tom" and ordered police squads to comb the south side negro quarter for him.

A notebook and a gaudy green and white shirt prompted the hunt for Gray for questioning in connection with the death of the 24-year-old bride who was fatally beaten and choked by an assailant who crept into her hotel room Saturday night.

One telephone number led detectives to Audrey Tetum, a negro entertainer. They hurried her to the laundry where the ticket was issued. The bundle of clothing left there was produced. From it the girl picked out the green and white shirt. She said it was worn by Gray when he recently visited the cabaret where she danced. She also identified a police picture of Gray.

Three Planes In Readiness Move Government Heads In The Event Madrid Falls

Information Reported in Uncensored Advices

REBELS DECLAR'D READY TO STRIKE

Capital Authorities Urge Women Make Ammunition And Call for Volunteers

(By Associated Press) Heads of the beleaguered Madrid government were reported in uncensored advices reaching Gibraltar today to have three air liners in readiness for flight—in the event of the capital falls.

The advices said rebels, firmly entrenched in the Guadarrama mountains north of Madrid, had only to await reinforcements from other sides of the capital before launching an attack which seemed 'the' of success.

In any event it became apparent the government expected no quick victory. Today the Madrid authorities urged women of the nation to make ammunition and winter clothing and called for volunteers to form a new 'battalion of red lions.'

Up in the north of Spain 'two' big rebel warships resumed a fierce gun duel with government land batteries at Fort Guadalupe, defending the Irun-San Sebastian sector. It appeared the naval shells were finding their marks.

Worried French officials set up a rigid border patrol. The fighting is just across the international line.

The first charges that either side was using gas came from rebel headquarters at Burgos which contended the government air forces had been dropping gas bombs. A Madrid official was quoted in a Paris dispatch as acknowledging that gas bombs had been utilized in "defensive" fighting.

(By Associated Press) Six inch shells from the rebel cruiser Almirante Severa silenced the guns of the government fortress of Guadalupe defending the Irun-San Sebastian sector of Spain's Bay of Biscay today.

The fierce duel of big guns, ending in an apparent insurgent advantage coincided with uncensored dispatches from Madrid which stated government leaders feared the fall of the capital were reported to be hold three air liners in readiness for flight.

In Rome well informed sources said that Premier Mussolini was ready to aid the Spanish fascist openly if France continues openly giving assistance to the government at Madrid.

At Hendaye Beach, France, American ambassador Claude G. Bowers set up a temporary embassy in a hotel; after completing an evacuation of Spanish cities on the Bay of Biscay.

He added his personal denial to that of the Washington state department concerning reports he had been ordered ashore from the cutter Cayuga, following a dispute with navy officers.

From their supreme headquarters at Burgos meanwhile members of the rebel junta announced they would inform foreign governments and the international Red Cross that Spanish government forces were using poison gas.

Housewife To Spend More In Purchasing Groceries

Experts Estimate It Will Take More Money for Food

Washington, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Experts "guessed" today that it won't be long before the housewife lays out from $11 to $12 for the same basket of food she now buys for a $10 bill.

Government and private experts admitting that exact estimates are impossible, nevertheless forecast an upward revision of the family grocery budget.

They explained that when the scorching sun shriveled crops in recent months the dollar food purchasing power went into a dive. It already has effected milk, butter and eggs in some places and eventually will reach meats, they said.

The experts said their "best guesses" were based upon what happened after the drought two years ago. Consumer purchasing power which was on the upgrade after the 1934 drought and has been reported increasing since, also plays an important part in food prices they said.

An intricate check upon average food cost is kept by the Bureau of Labor Statistics placed at 100. The bureau reported the food cost rose from an index of about 73 at the start of the 1934 drought to a peak of 82 in 1935 or about 12 per cent.

The last retail food index in food cost because of the present drought may go much higher than the peak which came after the arid period in 1934, it was said.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG News Behind The News

WASHINGTON By Ray Tucker

DYNAMITE: While the Lewis-Gree" dispute has monopolized public attention for its spectacular issues and figures, the administration's labor experts have guided their eyes elsewhere. They are chiefly concerned over the prospect of a general strike on the Pacific coast in October—on the eve of the election.

The maritime workers' agreements expire on October 1, and the lines are forming for resumption of a threatening clash. The longshoremen will submit new demands, and they have been brought to a belated mood. Recently they elected Harry Bridges, alleged communist

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

That might deliver a carload of political dynamite to the G.O.P. which backgrounds probable developments by charging that the administration's pro-labor policies cause discord.

REFUSAL: Despite strong temptation the Treasury will not tap its $2,000,000,000 bill to handle the government's September 15th financing. It will pay cash for part of the $507,000,000 notes falling due then if anybody demands it, but its major operation will be an old-fashioned refunding proposition.

Some high officials argued for retiring the notes with 69-cent dollars in full and on the line. It would have been the first move toward lowering the public debt since Mr. Roosevelt took office, thus minimizing this issue. It would also have answered the new charge that the administration is using the hally-bouable "recoverables" (repayments to the Treasury from RFC and other financing agencies) for current expenses instead of whittling down its long-time debt.

But the contentions of the political opportunists commanded remarkably little support. There was the fear in inner circles that it would be hailed as juggling with Federal finances for partisan reasons. And Henry Morgenthau, a stubborn, conscientious, and would rather pull a political boner (he often has) than get a reputation as Secretary of the Political Treasury.

STRAW: Books, magazines and pamphlets extolling Governor Landon's fitness for the White House have begun to sprout where presidential literature never appeared before in such quantities. The know-Landon movement is a well organized drive.

Sympathetic and superlative stuff has shown up in Pullmans, in trans-Atlantic liners' libraries and book-shops, in buses, in clubs. At the bookshops on some vessels plying between the U. S. and Europe they retail at remarkably low prices. A curious wayfarer claims to have discovered the explanation. He reports that business men, manufacturers, financiers, etc., usually buy a few extra copies before making a trip or voyage, and deposit them in strategic centers.

A famous liner recently blossomed out with vote-for-Landon material. It apparently proved effective in the saloons and staterooms where the straw vote was 90 per cent for the Kansas figure. But on the lower decks the figure was different; it was 70 per cent for the President. Pro-Roosevelt partisans gaily predict a similar phenomenon in November, despite the propaganda showers.

CHANCE: John L. Lewis' unremitting war on A. F. of L. President Owen and Governor Landon has furnished the G.O.P. with a sound opportunity for wooing organized labor's vote.

An authoritative tabulation of A. F. of L. leaders' sentiments discloses that the big majority favors FDR. There are, for instance, seventeen members on the executive council—President Green, Secretary-Treasurer Frank Morrison and fifteen vice-presidents. Messrs. Green and Morrison will publicly assume a neutral attitude but they are in FDR's corner. Of the fifteen vice-presidents only three will be openly for Governor Landon. They are Tenth Vice-President Hutchison who once had a fist fight with Mr. Lewis. He will head Mr. Landon's labor committee; First Vice-President Matthew Wolf and Fourth Vice-President Coenfeld will cooperate. Two other vice-presidents—Frank Duff of Indianapolis, and T. A. Rickett of New York—will try to keep out of the fray.

Most of these leaders, however, control only their own vote. The average working man will not vote for Mr. Roosevelt or Mr. Landon simply because his craft, chiefdom has prejudiced one way or the other. Mr. Roosevelt has the edge now because of his record, but Mr. Landon has a chance for a better break than most people believe.

THE WORLD WITH A FENCE

A New Novel by Marian Sims

SYNOPSIS: Carol Torrance has left Ashboro, and a year of teaching in high school. She has arrived two days ago in Greenville, and has emerged determined to find her first job in Atlanta. Her only real chance seen for a job with Blake Thornton, advertising man; a little she has given her. The salary is only $100 a month, but if after a summer of teaching she has not found a better job, she promises her father, Carol, she begins work with her family in Asheville.

Chapt. 22 RIDE HOME

Blake glanced at his watch; saw that it was after five. "Where are you staying?" he asked abruptly.

"With Margery Craig, on Elmwood."

"Then if you're going out now I'll drive you. It's right on my way home."

She hesitated, and then laughed. "I ought to start getting used to street cars and buses, but I'll wait till July. Thanks a lot."

In the car he put off his brusqueness like a cloak. "Listen here, Carol, his voice was earnest, "this isn't going to be any bad of roses."

She shrugged. "What if?"

ing around June first, and if she found what she wanted they'd hold it for her, especially since she'd probably have to sign a year's lease. He had half a dozen places listed that ought to suit her; he'd be tickled to death to take her around in the morning.

Carol accepted promptly. A year's lease would be one more argument against the soporific effect of Meredith; one more link in the chain she was attempting to forge. She and Margery and Harry began their search the next morning.

Harry was in high spirits. He was a very definite type; easy-going and witty and incurably enthusiastic. Not even the last four years in real estate had quenched his gaiety, and in his presence Margery recaptured something of her earlier zest. They spent most of the morning laughing.

Between inspections Harry kept up a barrage of chatter. He had just come back from a business trip to New York, and Carol suspected that New York must have enjoyed Harry as much as Henry enjoyed New York.

He stopped the car before a big apartment building, and his manner changed suddenly.

August production schedule that exceeds even its own capacity output. Officials won't confirm it but an informed source stated that something like 60,000 units will be put out this month. To accomplish this plants will work twenty-four hours a day seven days a week. It is remarkable in that other automobile makers are slowing down in preparation for 1937 models.

The tip-off is that new car buying continues big. Since Ford and Chevrolet are easing their production output Plymouth is anxious to "cash in" on the new car demand.

CREDIT: Despite the gloom being spread by corporate heads that current business improvement is due to artificial government spending the heavy industries are said to be in excellent position to do better. Indications are that the capital goods market is experiencing a real revival which started last month. Trade insiders insist it will continue. Shipbuilding, railroad equipment, pipe lines are among the fields benefiting. Steel makers and machinery manufacturers, too, continue active. The current year is expected to be the best since 1930.

constructive. Public spending is greater and optimism prevails. The usual seasonal declines characterized during summer weeks is absent. It is confidentially admitted in commercial banking houses that the outlook for the balance of the year is bullish. It is also admitted that even though the whole of the improvement started on artificial spending it now carries enough momentum to move along on its own steam. And—it may sound strange—business and banking interests do credit President Roosevelt for the starting gun. But they say it only in confidential conversation.

Conley-Powell
Grifton, N. C., Aug. 17.—Charming in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Eugenia Salome Powell of Grifton and Donald Hayes Conley of Greenville, on Sunday morning, August 16, at nine o'clock, in a quiet ceremony at the Grifton Christian Church. The Rev. Perry Case of Wilson, officiated.

The church was simply decorated with tall standard baskets filled with lilies, gladioli, asters and fern.

Proceeding the entrance of the couple, Miss Gladys Charles, at the piano, played "Liebestraum," by Liszt. During the ceremony, MacDowell's "To A Wild Rose" was softly played.

The bride wore for her wedding an early fall model of brown crepe made tunic. This was shirred and trimmed with satin, the softly gathered neckline was tied in the back and held in front with two rhinestone clips. Her accessories harmonized with her costume. She wore a shoulder corsage of tallman roses.

Mrs. Conley is the daughter of Mrs. Edgar Eugene Powell and the late Mr. Powell. She received her education at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. For the past three years she has been a member of the Winterville school faculty.

Mr. Conley, a native of Lenoir is a graduate of Duke University, a member of Phi Beta Kappa. For several years he was principal of the Winterville school. He is now superintendent of the Pitt county schools.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Conley left for a trip through the Shenandoah Valley, after which they will be at home in Greenville.

Troop 30 Boy Scouts
Troop 30 Boy Scouts will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the basement of the Methodist Church for their regular weekly meeting.

Boy Scout Chairman Meet.
The chairman of the Greenville District of Boy Scouts held their regular monthly meeting for August at the new campsite that has been made available by the Greenville County Club, Monday afternoon at five o'clock.

After a brief review of the campsite by the members of the committee, a very successful business meeting was held. In the absence of Dr. G. R. Combs, chairman of the district, J. H. Waldrop acted as the presiding officer.

The progress already made by the boys was commended and it was the desire of all present to start work on the cabin as soon as the material could be made available.

It was voted that every scoutmaster or assistant scoutmaster in the Greenville district, Pitt and Greene counties, be given an opportunity to learn and pass the Red Cross Life Saving course. Ralph H. Mose, assistant scout executive recently completed the requirements for examiner and was given his commission to do that work in Pitt county and will proceed with that training shortly after the completion of the East Carolina beach camp to be held at Nags Head.

SEEK BAN ON LIGHTS NEAR GIANT TELESCOPE
San Diego, Calif. (AP)—Clusters of lights will be prohibited within a three mile radius of Palomar observatory, home of the giant 200 inch telescope, if California Institute of Technology officials have their way.

The Palomar site in the mountains 80 miles northeast of here was chosen partly because of its isolation. The Institute's observatory council anticipates, however, that camps and resorts will spring up near Mount Palomar when the big telescope is put in use and has asked the San Diego county board of supervisors to establish a zone of three miles about the observatory in which no clusters of bright lights will be permitted.

Utah Rabbit Decline
Salt Lake City, (AP)—Jackrabbits once typical of Utah's mountain country are rapidly decreasing in number, says R. Scott Zimmerman, district agent of the U. S. biological survey. He blames drought, rodent-poisoning activity, disease and hunting.

Lake Mead Cools Desert
Los Angeles, (AP)—Lake Mead, the man-made body of water behind Boulder dam, is having a definite cooling effect on the nearby desert country of Nevada, according to L. W. Goss, airline operations chief.

Two young Americans Francis A. Flood and James C. Wilson, were the first to ride motorcycles across Africa laterally. Their course lay between Lagos and Eritrea, north of Lake Chad.

Article by Secretary Rotary International Is Heard

By WYATT BROWN

"Higher business standards are inspired by the ethics of Rotary; your business is your greatest opportunity to serve others," read Ollie VanNortwick, Junior, last night before the Rotary Club from an article by Chester R. Pery, secretary of Rotary International. The meeting was under the direction of A. B. Stalworth who contributed directly to the program by citing a Rotary inspired code of business ethics.

John Winstead, Joe Dreebach and Wesley Harvey, answered the question "Who I am and Why." J. B. Kittrell reported to the club his recent opportunity to see the benefits of the play ground toward which the Rotary Club contributed equipment. He urged other members to look in on the groups. He also requested scrap lumber and had more than enough offered by Rotarians to be sent today.

Mayor Blount was a guest of the club last night and remarked how it is service clubs which are the "life blood of any community." Also a guest of the club was Paul Waters of the Washington Rotary Club. Thomas Burnett won the attendance prize given by Wyatt Brown, J. B. Kittrell president of the club presided.

WHY WE NEED A PUBLIC LIBRARY

The system of free public libraries now being established in this country is the most important development of modern times. The library is a center from which radiates an ever widening influence for the enlightenment, the uplift, the advancement of the community.

Every man cannot select his environment or enjoy the advantage of personally meeting the acutest minds of his day. Fortunately, however, many of these great men have committed the reasons for their own deductions to books. The inestimable blessing of libraries is that they give everyone the opportunity of getting in touch with these ideas.—Wilfred T. Grenfell.

TARBORO FAILS SHOW UP FOR CONTEST HERE

Umpire Awards Tilt To Greensies, 9-0; Final Decision Not Announced, However; 'Lefty' Kennel Beats Old Team-mates, 6-2; Kinston Wins Slugfest From Goldsboro, 10-9

Greenville won a game yesterday when Tarboro failed to show up here for the play-off of a rained out game and the umpire declared the contest forfeited in favor of the locals, 9 to 0.

There appears to be some misunderstanding, however, and the final decision probably will be made by the league president.

The local boys went out on the field as usual and a fair crowd was on hand to witness the contest.

Tarboro is said to contend that its team declined to come here for the contest because they were not promised a sum for expenses. Such a promise was considered here, however, as unusual as the contest to have been played was in place of one that was rained out recently.

There is some talk of a double-header being played here Friday when the two teams are scheduled to meet. No definite announcement has been made by club officials.

"Local Boy Makes Good"

New Bern, Aug. 18.—A local boy made good today—and it cost the home folks a ball game.

Lefty Kennel, her, for the first time in a Snow Hill uniform, allowed his former team-mates just three hits as he pitched the visitors to a 6-2 victory. Kennel poled a mighty homer over right-field fence in the seventh to add the finishing touches, if any were needed, to his performance.

New Bern went hitless until the seventh. Dairymple best out a bouncer and Burnette walked. Kurdyne scored them with a single after Harrington had advanced them with an infield out.

Kurdyne singled again in the 9th. Snow Hill scored four runs in the second on three hits, two errors and a walk. Bolden's double and a single by Spell sent another across in the third.

Chappell, with three singles in five trips, topped the visitors' attack.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Snow Hill . . . 041 000 100-8 10 0 New Bern . . . 000 000 200-2 3 4 Kennel and Spell; Parker and Smith.

Kinston Marches On!

Goldsboro, Aug. 18.—Kinston defeated Goldsboro, 10-9, yesterday in a game of 31 hits. The visitors also held an edge of one in total hits. The Eagles scored runs in the second inning. Homers by Charlie Keller and Humphrey featured this attack.

Keller, with four for five, and Stonebraker with three for five, featured the visitors' 16-hit offense. Crisler of the locals made four for four, and Stowe made four for five. Yesterday's fine leading batter, Keller, the league's leading batter, brought his homer total to 14 and his base-hit total to 100.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Kinston . . . 025 000 030-10 16 0 Goldsboro . . . 131 020 020-9 15 1 Pathe, Smith and Wagner; Bedien, Culler and Williams.

Karpén "PIL-O-REST" MATTRESS

The "Pil-O-Rest" is a Karpén masterpiece in mattress comfort. The unique feature of this marvelous mattress is the fluffy pillow attached top and bottom. This feature, as well as the entire Karpén inner-spring unit, is fully patented and cannot be bought elsewhere. The hinged-type spring unit is double tempered—encased in muslin—insulated with sisal—surrounded with deep layers of felted cotton and covered with muslin. Then the mattress-size pillows are attached top and bottom and the entire mattress covered in a beautiful and durable imported striped damask in lustrous pastel shades. This is why the Karpén "Pil-O-Rest" conforms to the body with the gentle softness of a pillow and supports it perfectly from head to foot. See the "Pil-O-Rest" at our store.
