Ayden Bests Martins; New Bern Trounces Snow Hill, 7-6; Bugs Trim Kinston, 18-17; Season Ends Sunday

Tarboro, Aug. 21.—Tarboro scored three runs in the eighth inning to finish the job of taking a victory over Greenville today. The final score was 5-4. The defeat robbed the Greensies of a chance to take the league lead from Williamston, which lost to Ayden yesterday.

A fight between Umpire Allen and Walter Latham, Greenville player, ensued the contest in the last inning. Latham turned on the ump after being ruled out on a called third strike.

Fairley, first up in the ninth, hit a homer.

A single by Bragan started Tarboro's eighth. Rand sacrificed, and Bragan tallied on Gadd's single. Bassin tripled and later scored when Strayhorn singled.

Maynard hit a homer for the Bunnies in the seventh.

Amber, with a double and a single for four, led Greenville.

Bassin with a triple and two singles to bat 750, lead the Bunnies. Huston and Maynard made two for four.

Bears Whip Snow Hill.

New Bern, Aug. 21.—New Bern defeated Snow Hill, 7-6, today in a 10-inning contest.

A bit of real stepping by Centerfielder Cross brought the winning run. With two away, Cross poked a single to center. Kirdyse then singled to the same spot, and the fleet footed Cross kept right on going after rounding third. He collided with Catcher Parrish and the latter dropped the ball.

Goldsboro, Aug. 21.—They ran and they ran. Goldsboro and Kinston scored 35 runs and made 40 hits in a loose, but hard fought game here today. And the Bugs finally won—by scoring six runs in the ninth inning. A single by Crisler drove in the winning run.

Seven pitchers figured on the receiving end of the frequent hits, and included among them was Charlie Keller, Kinston outfielder.

Bradford, of Goldsboro, hit homers in the sixth and eighth. Culler hit one in the third, and Patheere of the Eagles hit one in the fifth.

Ayden Trounces Leaders.

Ayden, Aug. 21.—Big Jim Whatley, who plays first sack for the Aces, hit two homers today as Ayden handed the league-leading Williamston club a 8-2 set-back.

Today's performance boosted Whatley's season's total to 18 circuit clouts. Worliss Knowles of the Aces homered with two on in the third for his 16th of the season and advanced into a tie with Jim Taber, a team-mate, for second place. Whatley recently forged into the homer limelight by hitting six homers in successive times at bat.

Birch Douglass hit a homer for the Martins.

OPERATION OF CENTRE BRICK CHANGES HANDS

The Centre Brick warehouse, shown above, will be operated this season by M. Dow Lassiter, Jack Moye and Harvey Ward, all experienced job-contractors. Mr. Simon Moye, who has operated the warehouse for the past 15 years, retired at the end of last season, but will still maintain an office at the warehouse.

LOOP'S SERIES OPENS MONDAY

Aces, Martins, Greenies and Eagles in Post-Season Play

Ayden, August 21.—The Coastal Plain League's post-season play-off will be started Monday in the home parks of the clubs finishing first and second for the season's first. Williamston and Greenville are waging a nip-and-tuck battle for top honors.

The team finishing first will meet the fourth-place club in one end of the semi-finals. The second and third teams will meet in the other. The semifinals will be for the best-three-of-five games. Winners in those series will meet for the championship, playing on best-four-of-seven basis.

Directors were not called on last night to consider a game forfeited to Greenville last Monday when Tarboro's club did not appear. The Greenville club's representatives announced that they did not care to have the game credited to them by forfeit. The Tarboro club, decided not to play at Greenville on the league holiday when the latter club declined to share the third club declined to allow them a certain percentage of the receipts. The league has no rule requiring the home club to share receipts of regularly scheduled games or of postponed games which are played off on league holidays.

Latham And Umpire in 9th Inning Fight

Tarboro, Aug. 21.—Tarboro fans went out to the ball park yesterday to see a ball game. They saw a close game—which the home team won by a score of 5-4 over the Greensies—and they saw a boxing-wrestling match as an added attraction.

Walter Latham, Greenville player and Umpire C. G. Allen were the combatants in the rough-and-tumble fight, a sudden addition to ninth-inning doings.

Latham, a catcher, was sent into the game as a pinch-hitter with one out in the ninth. Umpire Allen called a third strike and Latham turned and struck Allen a sharp blow across the mask with his bat. The umpire removed the mask and threw it down, and Latham then slugged Allen in the mouth with his fist, causing the blood to flow freely.

Allen grabbed Latham, threw him to the ground, and started pounding him in the face. Others rushed in and put a stop to the affair.

Latham Arrested.

Latham, arrested and taken to the city jail, was released a short while later when Layton Blount, a Greenville fan, put up $100 bond. The player will have to return here to stand trial on a charge of assault.

Throughout the incident, player-umpire battle, the fans whooped it up.

Dr. Meadows responded by disclaiming the sole credit for recent improvements and declared that they had been accomplished by co-operation—co-operation of students faculty and staff, and trustees. He urged the graduates to take with them from the college, not only the knowledge acquired there, but also some of the spirit.

The program was concluded with the college song.

Tobacco Festival Ball.

Atlantic Beach, Sept. 21—The tobacco towns of Greenville, Kingston, Wilson, Goldsboro, Rocky Mount and Tarboro are cooperating in helping the management of Atlantic Beach stage the first annual East Carolina Tobacco Festival Ball on Saturday night, August 29th.

Over 1,000 invitations have been issued to the warehouse owners, workers, buyers and those interested in the tobacco business.

William Fenner of Rocky Mount has been asked to lead the Grand Ball March at the beginning of the evening. Jimmie Livingston and his N. B. C. orchestra will play for the occasion.

A unique stunt to be tried is to have a small pile of tobacco from each town participating to be auctioned off on the floor during the evening, and the proceeds to be devoted to charity or some organization locally.

Final arrangements will be made during the coming week. K. W. Cobb of Greenville, in cooperation with the supervisors of sales in the other towns, are acting as a committee on arrangements.

WHY WE NEED A PUBLIC LIBRARY

I would like to see over the doorway of every free library the inscription: "Hope, learn and achieve, all ye who enter here."—Victor King, mayor of Camden, N. J.

The library is . . . the noblest exponent of the American spirit. It is the most vital, indispensable public utility in town. It means beauty, happiness, intelligence and well being, the prosperity and thrift of its community.—W. F. Seward, librarian, Historical Society, Binghamton, N. Y.

Library work as it is understood by the best librarians today ranks with the highest movements afoot for the fulfillment of the gospel of democracy. It is an aggressive missionary work, the kind that goes out to meet souls to save and does not wait behind the desk for the clock to strike the hour. Mary Antin, author.

Sparks Brings Circus Sept. 3rd.

Late last night the advance advertising cars of the Sparks managed Downie Bros. Circus arrived in the city and early this morning the advertising crew under Irish Horan, exploitation director, started to brighten the billboards, windows, barns and fences with the varied colored circus posters announcing that Thursday, Sept. 3 will be circus day in Greenville. Arrangements have already been completed for the circus to stage its matinee and night performances on the fair grounds.

The 1936 cast of the big circus includes Jack Hoxie, famous cowboy screen star, who appears in person with his entire company of cowboys and cowgirls including Miss Dixie Starr, leading lady of many of his screen thrillers and his wonder horse "Scout," the sturdy all white stallion that has carried the star through thousands of feet of thrilling western film. Many of the most outstanding names of the circus world round out a highly pleasing and interesting program augmented by two herds of performing elephants, three groups of high school-ed horses, trained seals and the world's greatest high jumping horses.

The circus has been considerably enlarged and many innovations in seating and lighting arrangements will delight the circus followers while they enjoy the two hours of thrills, novelties and spectacles as well as the old and new antics of the army of clowns.

The poetic and sentimental legend that birds sleep with their heads under their wings is not true.

 better, but he looked like her last chance. I don't believe she ever cared glancing at a mirror, and the hat fell instantly and rakishly into place.

 She said: "And thanks for the nightcap," and was gone, leaving a swift smile that lingered like music in the room.
ROCKBROOK, according to the advertising folders, "nestles in the cool heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, at an altitude of 2,675 feet." It boasts "a superb cuisine, jewel-like lakes for swimming and fishing, a magnificent eighteen-hole golf course designed by Donald Ross." It has, too, its rocking chair squadron of elderly women who wear bouclé suits by day and quantities of amethyst jewelry by night.
 Irma Thornton was the darling of the squadron. Her bridge and her clothes were faultless if unimaginable, and she was enough younger than the rest to fatter them with her attention and to be flattered by their gratitude.
 Among these old women Irma was a "girl," and Irma's faltering ego preferred feeling young in the midst of age to feeling old in the midst of youth. That was why she chose to spend her summers at Rockbrook.
 She sat this afternoon at one of the bridge tables; a still handsome woman exquisitely dressed in white.
 Irma's clothes were her career and her religion: she judged other women inflexibly by their appearance, taking them in with one sweeping glance that never missed the minutest detail. A week or a year later, Irma could tell you what Mrs.

 Browne had worn on a certain occasion.
 Her features were classically regular, but her mouth was already pinched, as if someone had pulled it together with a drawingstring, and the pure line of her throat and chin was broken in several places.
 She fanned her cards expertly open and eyed them shrewdly.
 "One club."
 Mrs. LaConte was fumbling through her cards. "Wait a minute; you're too fast for me." She squinted long and carefully at her hand and then peered over it at Irma. "What did you say you bid?"
 "One club."
 She leaned slightly forward. "And you passed, partner?"
 "It wasn't my bid," her partner said patiently. "Mrs. Thornton dealt." "Oh, I see." She settled back and squinted once more. "Well . . . I pass."
 "Two diamonds," Irma's partner said firmly.
 Mrs. LaConte said cheerfully:
 "They must have the deck, partner," to the disgust of Mrs. Terry, who was prepared to inject a nuisance bid.
 When Irma's hand was faced for a six diamond contract Mrs. LaConte turned brightly to her.
 "I hear your husband's coming for the weekend."
 "Yes," Irma said sweetly, hoping her partner wouldn't require much concentration to make the contract.
 "That's lovely. (Was that card from the dummy, Rose? Then it's my play, isn't it?)" She smiled gaily at them. "It's so hard to follow the play when you haven't got a face card. . . ." Whereupon Rose altered her intention and fessed towards Mrs. LaConte. "When are you expecting him?"
 Irma glanced at her jewelled watch. "Any time now." She assumed an expression of bride-like anticipation, and Mrs. LaConte beamed her approval.

ers—not they—are running the show.
 It is true that many outstanding utility men have been invited to participate by submitting papers outlining their views. Most of them —scarcely a trap and wishing to retain complete freedom of action —have declined. The one notable exception is Floyd Carlisle of Consolidated Edison of N. Y. and Niagara Hudson—who will outline a "basic plan" for a permanent national power policy. Mr. Carlisle's willingness to play "the government's game" stirs caustic comments among his colleagues.
REMEDY: New York Republican insiders are greatly cheered by the designation of ex-governor Myers Y. Cooper of Ohio as "general in charge" of G. O. P. national headquarters in Chicago during the absence of chairman John D. M.
 Hamilton.
 Already reports are being circulated about the possibility of a cabinet post for Cooper, who has had an active background in agriculture, business and government.
 The best posted sources say such talk is premature and that Cooper's "availability" for the cabinet will depend chiefly on the services he renders between now and November.
 The important angle—as astute New Yorkers see it—is that Cooper as executive officer has the political experience to give Jim Farley keen competition on his own battleground. It has been a common complaint among G. O. P. backstagers since Hamilton took office that the new chairman was botching his job because he didn't know what it was all about. Cooper is well qualified to remedy shortcomings in that direction.
DISSATISFIED: An outstanding mid-western editor, noted for his sound judgment in GOP councils, offers the following election prognosis:
 "At present it looks as if the only thing that can beat Roosevelt is the dissatisfied organizations, such as the Townsendites, Leukites, etc. Apart from that he can make a lot of mistakes and still win.
 "No doubt the opposition knows this and will give F. D. R. a fight on this basis. I therefore look for a battle right up to the closing of the polls. All other maneuvers are either standardized or discounted or both."
STIMULANT: On the other side of the picture, a noted conservative Democratic editor in New England predicts that Maine will show a heavy plurality against Roosevelt next month, and maintains that a similar trend is well established throughout the rest of New England.
 He further contends that the New England verdict—represented by Maine—will afford an accurate clue as to the way the middle west in general will vote.
 His belief is that the numerous midwestern descendants of New England stock are sure to demonstrate their ancestral soundness of judgment. He is confident that the final November outcome will not be close and that Maine's example will encourage Republican workers all over the country to clinch the victory.
EDGE: Tammany's private primary fight in New York City is working out exactly as planned by the anti-Roosevelt forces inside the Tiger organization which did not deem it wise to go on record openly as opposing the President.
 Jim Farley evidently underestimated Tammany's capacity to cheerish resentment when he had Sheriff William Brunner selected as official Democratic candidate for the key New York City post of President of the Board of Aldermen. Brunner, who belonged to Farley's McKee-Recovery party

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
 appeared that resentment might spread to states where the colored people swing a mighty fist at the polls—New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana.
 AAA investigators were dispatched to the cotton belt almost overnight. They buttonholed compliaints, issued interviews on future plans and attended rallies where problems of the negro farmer were discussed. Preliminary reports indicate that the political insurrection has been quelled. At a meeting in Texas President F. D. Patterson of Tuskegee Institute declared to a gathering of his people: "No administration could have set itself more sincerely or energetically to get for the farmer a square deal amid circumstances more difficult to master than has the present administration."
 This remark was flashed to influential colored leaders and newspapers in the North. Democratic rural leaders interpret it as a personal endorsement of the administration by one of their most respected educators. He has not related this interpretation and the New Dealers are jubilant.
CHARGES: Members of FDR's official household are spying the outcome of the Talmadge-Russell race for the Georgia Senate nomination. For his "advised state" to let down the President would cause the G. O. P. almost as tremendously as when Maine goes Republican.
 Few expect Governor Talmadge to win, though he is waging a furious and smart campaign. But it would be unfortunate from a presidential standpoint if he should run a large protest vote. FDR has held several conferences on the situation with Georgia politicians.
 Though he once edged toward the Huey Long reservation, Talmadge is now posing as a Roosevelt supporter. But he dubs Senator Russell a "parrot" and pledges that he will do some thinking for himself if elected.
 Mr. Russell's backers are hurling the Governor's record at his head. Recalling his connection with the "grass roots" conference at Macon, they charge that he is a "du-Pont Republican." That's 1935 siding for the 1928 moniker of "Hoversat" and it's a reference to suspicions that the American Liberty League financed the Macon meeting.
USEFUL: Various administration agencies are furnishing background aid to the La Follette investigation into alleged espionage of workers by employers. It is believed that the inquiry's revelations may furnish political ammunition to the New Deal ticket.
MEAT: of the preliminary evidence of supposed un-American practices revolves around certain branches of the steel industry. Some involve several corporations with a nominally close tieup with influential G. O. P.-ers of 1936 and present.
 As a matter for lip-smpering, but federal officials are saying that the investigation will turn up insufficient evidence to justify industrial espionage charges.
DEVELOPMENT: would serve to discredit important groups heading the battle against FDR. "It would reinforce John L. Lewis in his move to nationalize the steel industry. It might, in fact, furnish the force needed to enable the President to carry Pennsylvania, and it wouldn't hurt him in many other states.
CLOVER: Surest undercover evidence that business and industry are coming back in a fast and big way is the rapid reemployment of industrial lobbyists, publicists and "front men" at Washington. They're back on the payroll.
 It was during the Coolidge-Hoover boom that banks, business houses and corporations took the need for hiring representatives at the Capital. They needed men who were a combination of lawyer, lobbyist-publicist-salesman. Salaries ranged from $10,000 to $50,000 a year. Ex-employees, ex-Congressmen and ex-bureaucrats grew rich on these jobs.
 During the depression they lost out. They were the first to be fired, faction in 1933, is an ideal target for dissension sowers. It looks as if Frank Prial, Bruner's primary rival who cordially dislikes Farley, will sweep every borough by an impressive margin — thus knocking Big Jim's pretensions on the head.

 It is significant that bosses Ed Flynn of the Bronx (Farley's most important protégé in New York City) and James J. Dooley of Tammany each declined the other's invitation to name this year's candidate without opposition. Both are gunning for bigger game—the mayoralty next year. Tammany already has a long edge in this contest.
