COMMISSIONS PLAN DISCUSS VITAL ISSUES

To Consider Problems Hanging Since Legislature

LIQUOR PROBLEM WILL BE HEARD

Road Debt Commission To Hear 75 Counties Seeking Refunds from State

Raleigh, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Vital problems of state, some of which have been hanging ever since the 1935 general assembly adjourned will be discussed by four of North Carolina's important commissions scheduled to be in session here during the latter part of the week.

The State Highway and Public Works Commission will meet here Thursday to prepare its formal request to Governor Ehringhaus for the allocation of $2,800,000 from the highway surplus fund. The money from this would be used as part of the $10,000,000 program destined to improve secondary roads and school bus routes during 1936-37.

At the same time the liquor commission authorized by the 1935 legislature and appointed by the governor July 17 will meet here to investigate liquor control laws in 17 "wet" counties. The commission, of which Victor Bryant of Durham, is chairman, also is scheduled to meet in Wilson Friday and in Wilmington Saturday.

Petitions from perhaps as many as 75 counties asking that the state refund an estimated total of $50,000,000 will be discussed by the commission investigating county highway debts which will be in session here Friday.

Carl Bailey of Washington county, chairman of the investigating body, said today he had received claims totalling $24,696,832.80 from 65 counties. The deadline for filing the petition is midnight.

Also to meet here Friday is the recently appointed commission to study the advisability of the establishment of state-owned gasoline terminals.

Son Of Secretary Freed Of Charges Of Driving Drunk

Robert H. Ickes, Foster Son of Secretary of Interior, Acquitted by Judge Arthur Eno of Lowell

Woburn, Mass., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Judge Arthur E. Eno of Lowell today acquitted Robert H. Ickes, 22, foster son of the secretary of the interior Harold Ickes of driving while under the influence of liquor.

Young Ickes employed on a public works administration project pleaded innocent to the charge and declared he had one bottle of beer several hours prior to his arrest the night of August 10.

Two policemen, including Sergeant Charles Arnold, who arrested Ickes, testified he showed no signs of being intoxicated after his car bumped another machine in parking.

Harold said, only after questioning Ickes about his license and registration, did he smell his breath and believe he might have been drinking.

Ickes' arrest brought from his stepfather the charge that his foster son was the victim of unfair publicity inspired by "unfair political reasons."

Harold, however, denied the secretary's declaration.

JULY CORN PRICE BOOST CALLED BEST ON RECORD

Ames, Ia. (AP)—Iowa State college agriculture economists say that the July boost in corn prices was one of the sharpest on record, even sharper than during July of 1934, drought year.

"The price of oats, barley, wheat and other corn substitutes will determine in large measure in the next few months, however, what corn can sell for," they said. "Already some western feeders are reported feeding wheat in place of corn."

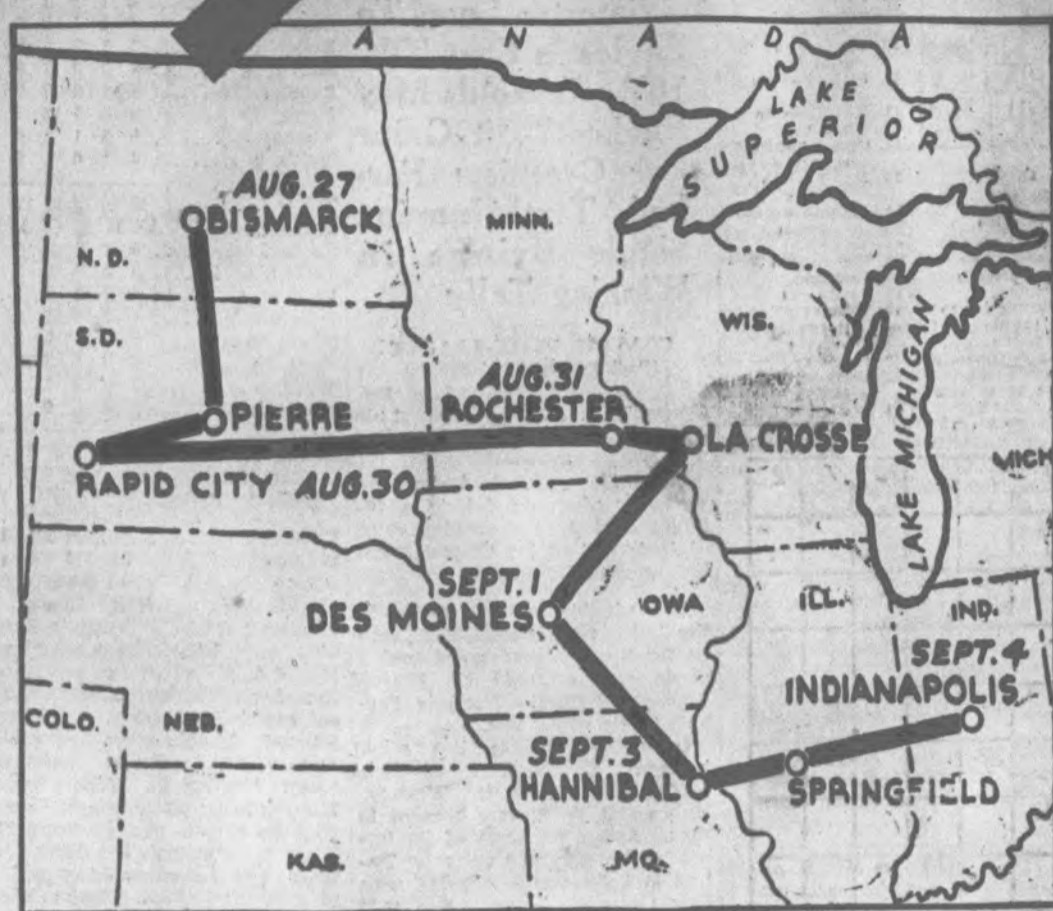

CHURCH GROUP COOKS TO EARN MORE MONEY

Lehigh, Ia. (AP)—The ladies aid society of the Christian church here found a new way of making money—feeding threshing crews in the church basement.

In two weeks they served dinner to 22 different crews, averaging as high as three crews totaling 48 men, some days.

Net result—$91.90 in the society's treasury.

PRESS ASKED SUPPORT MOVE

Nation's Newspapers Called on Suppress Publicity Evil

Boston, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Thomas D. Thatcher, former solicitor general of the United States, called upon the press of the nation today to support the American Bar Association in rigging the courts of the publicity evil.

Referring to the Hauptmann murder trial as "the most shocking example of the evil practices which have surrounded the trial of sensational cases in this country for many years," Thatcher called for a halt "upon the sensational outpourings of emotion and prejudice through the columns of the press and over the radio."

The former solicitor general did not, however, exempt other agencies from blame for the sensational trial.

In an address before a conference of bar association delegates here for their 56th annual convention of the organization, he placed responsibility for the situation impartially upon the public appetite for details, upon the reluctance of the court to use their powers to halt the flow of prejudicial publicity upon lawyers for both sides who freely discussed in advance the evidence they intend to present and upon police who cooperate in ballyhooing criminal procedure.

Landon Goes Into Conferences Plan Campaign Moves

Republican Nominee in Speech at Chautauque Calls for Freedom of Education, Press and Radio

Ripley, N. Y., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Governor Alf M. Landon moved deeper into New York today for conferences on presidential campaign strategy after declaring that "widespread use of the machinery of the federal government to maintain the present administration in power created a propaganda danger."

The Republican nominee, who in a speech at Chautauque last night called for freedom of education, press and radio, turned toward Buffalo to discuss with party leaders plans to win New York's 47 electoral votes.

Governor Landon presaged his speech in the Chautauque amphitheatre with the statement: "In Kansas we believe that our schools—public, parochial and private—must be kept from all control by the federal government."

"In Kansas we insist that no teacher should be required to take any other not required of all other citizens. In Kansas we believe in academic freedom and we practice it."

"There must not be censorship of what is spoken or written and equally important there must be no control of the source of news."

Montgomery, Ala. (AP)—Mrs. James Pitts Hill, president of the Alabama Congress of Parents and Teachers, said property assessments in Alabama had dropped 26 percent in the last five years and caused a shortage in school revenues.

Georgia Growers Get $17,585,270.27

Atlanta, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The first three weeks' sales on the Georgia tobacco market brought farmers $17,585,270.27, the greatest sum in the history of the industry in this state.

Garland Bagley, statistician of the State Department of Agriculture, said sales totaled 81,586,738 pounds or an average of 21.35 cents a pound.

Some of the markets still are in operation, but the auction will end throughout the belt within a few days.

MOVE STARTED HALT PROJECT

Rotary Club Joins In Seeking Postpone Underpass

Effort is to be exerted by the Rotary Club to get a postponement of the construction of the underpass at the Railroad crossing on the Farmville Highway.

On the motion of Haywood Dall the Rotary Club at its regular weekly meeting last night went on record with a unanimous vote to cooperate with the Tobacco Board of Trade and other Civic organizations to effect a postponement of the underpass construction. A committee composed of Fordy Harding, Haywood Dall and Gerald Mitchell was appointed to represent the club. A telegram was dispatched last night to Capius M. Waynick of the State Highway Department requesting deferment of the construction.

By contrasting the United States with European nations, Dr. Howard McGinnis brought out emphatically to the Rotarians the right of citizenship in the U. S. over like privilege in foreign nations. The speaker introduced his remarks by declaring that so often people in the United States do not think enough of "appreciation of our own country."

Then he went on to cite some of the superior things about the United States such as no major war in the past 250 years, our country has progressed steadily, we have a stable government, our chosen leaders try to do what we want them to—do from the highest to the lowest they are our neighbors, kin, and friends. This speaker compared with Europe where throughout history there has been a threat of war with adjacent countries, their jealousies, animosities, racial differences of centuries ready to flare up at any time. Italy has taken Ethiopia, Spain is in revolution. In the face of this the speaker proudly declared our president jeeps up America's traditional policy of neutrality and we all ought to be glad we live in the United States. Let's appreciate, protect, and make our country better year after year.

Harry P. Harding of Charlotte was a visitor for last night's meeting. Judson B'ount gave the attendance prize won by Bill Lee, J. B. Kitzel, club president, presided.

PRIMARIES IN THREE STATES

National Attention on Miss., S. C., and California

(By Associated Press)

Primaries in three states today commanded national attention.

In Mississippi the veteran senator Pat Harrison, after a campaign in which he stood on his record as a new deal supporter, contested with Former Governor Senoet Conner for the Democratic senatorial nomination. Conner was aided by senator Bilbo, colleague, but foe of the senator. The party will also nominate seven representatives, one unopposed.

In South Carolina there is a clear cut fight between Senator James F. Byrnes, administration stalwart, and two new deal critics—Thomas P. Stoney, former mayor of Charleston, and Colonel William C. Harlee, a retired marine—for the Democratic senatorial nomination. Six representatives also will be nominated, two being unopposed.

In California where Townsend endorsed candidates sought nomination in the 20 congressional districts, the old age pension movement met a test in the places of its origin. The endorsement did not follow party lines. E. A. E. J. Margold, the pension plan's manager, predicted victory in at least 15 districts.

Old County Families Plan Reunion Sunday

The Churchwell Moore and Wyatt Gardner families will hold their ninth annual reunion at Timothy church in Pitt county next Sunday.

As usual, the meeting will begin at 10:30 a. m. for a business session. A devotional and memorial service will follow.

A speaker for the occasion has not been secured as yet but the program committee promises that some prominent persons will be secured to deliver the principal address.

The president, Paul S. Moore, is urging all families to attend bringing their own baskets well filled. It is hoped by members of the families this year's reunion will be a banner year in attendance.

FIRING SQUAD ENDS CAREERS CONSPIRATORS

Soviet Officials Execute 16 Bolshevik Leaders

BLAME TROTZKY FOSTERING PLOT

Included Among The Executed Were Two Former Aides Of Joseph Stalin

Moscow, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Death before a firing squad ended today the careers of 16 confessed conspirators, many of them once high in the ranks of Bolshevik leadership. They had been convicted a little over 24 hours before the death sentences were carried out secretly.

A tense statement announced the execution after the central executive committee of the soviet union declined an appeal for mercy.

All had confessed their participation in the plot to which exiled Leon Trotsky, former minister of war and one time revolutionary leader, was blamed as leader.

The communique announcing the fulfillment of sentences said: "The president of the central executive committee declined the appeal for mercy of the persons (the 16 conspirators herewith named) condemned by the military collegium of the U. S. S. R. August 24."

The sentence in regard to all has been carried out.

Soviet officials did not say where or how executions were performed, a customary procedure.

Included among those who died were Leon Kameneff and Gregory Zinovieff, once members with Dictator Joseph Stalin of the triumvirate at the head of the soviet union.

Gravely Declines Continue Serve On Liquor Commission

Rocky Mount Solon Gives Press of Business as Cause For His Resignation From Post

Rocky Mount, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Saying that his business duties made it impossible for him to serve, state senator L. L. Gravely today tendered to Governor Ehringhaus his resignation from the commission to study the liquor situation in North Carolina.

"It seems to me that in order to make recommendations to the general assembly," Gravely said "it will be necessary for the commission to study conditions as they exist in the 17 so-called 'wet' counties and in the other counties in the state, also making study of conditions as they exist in other states as the different types of state control. This is going to take a great deal of the time and I do not feel that at this time of year I can afford to assume any more duties than I now have."

Mrs. B. T. Clark was taken to Pitt General hospital today for treatment when she turned her ankle over, fell and broke both bones in the left leg.

Mrs. Clark stepped down from a room to a porch, her ankle gave way and she fell. She was immediately taken to the hospital, but her husband said he thought she would have to remain there only a short time before she would be able to return home.

PLANS APPEAL GLASS TO VOTE FOR MURDERER FOR ROOSEVELT

Society for Colored People Seeks Save Martin Moore

Asheville, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Members of the family of Martin Moore, negro, convicted slayer of Helen Cleveland, New York university student, said today they would not appeal the case, but the local members of the national association for the advancement of colored people said they would carry it to the supreme court.

Tom Moore, brother of the prisoner, said the family considered an appeal "a hopeless cause" and would not continue it.

Rev. M. L. Breeding, negro president of the Asheville chapter of the national association, for the advancement of colored people, said the organization was going forward with plans to raise funds with which to finance the appeal.

Moore was convicted of slaying the 18-year-old girl in her room at the Battery park hotel. The death date was set for October 2, but prison officials said he probably would not die before Christmas if an appeal were perfected.

Mrs. J. B. Spilman Leaves This City On September 1st

Local Woman To Take Up Her Duties as Vice Chairman Democratic Executive Committee

Mrs. J. B. Spilman, vice-chairman of the North Carolina Democratic Executive Committee, said today she would leave Greenville on September 1 for Raleigh, where her headquarters will be for several years.

Mrs. Spilman said she expected to be in the state capital much of the time but her duties are expected to carry her into practically every part of the nation, probably into every state.

Mrs. Spilman was named to the post, the most coveted position open to women in the Democratic party by the committee at its recent session after she had been endorsed by Governor-nominee Clyde R. Hoey.

In announcing she expected to leave the city in the near future, Mrs. Spilman invited her friends to call by to see her at the State Democratic headquarters to be set up in Raleigh.

J. Wallace Winborne of Marion was re-elected chairman of the executive committee and he and Mrs. Spilman will have charge of conducting the campaign in this state and will lend efforts to Democrats in other states.

SEEK TO HALT BRUTALITY IN CIVIL STRIFE

Proposals Considered By Great Britain and France

DESIRE TO END MISTREATMENT

European Tension Increased By German Expansion of Compulsory Service

(By Associated Press)
Diplomatic proposals destined to check brutality of the Spanish civil war were authoritatively reported today to be the subject of consultations between France and Great Britain.

The foreign affairs committee of the British cabinet was believed to have taken the proposals under consideration.

Since the war started in Spain there have been frequent reports of the mistreatment of prisoners and civilians by both the socialist government and the fascist rebels.

The civil fires burned on in Spain toward their ultimate fascist or socialist embers in a European atmosphere made suddenly more breathless by Nazi-decreed expansion of the German army.

Not concerned directly with the civil war in which Spain's socialist government and fascist rebels, Adolf Hitler's doubling of the universal military term in the Reich served nevertheless to throw the whole international conflict between right and left into sharp dispute.

This decree of two year compulsory service under arms was aimed directly at what the Nazis called aggressive soviet Russian militarism.

Madrid dispatches told of a new purge of the capital of fascists including execution of four royal officers.

Loyalists and rebels broadcast conflicting claims of victories in Guadalupe, a mountainous holding just north of Madrid.

The rebels reported their aerial bombardment of Iruya on the Bay of Biscay. There was 1924 damage.

Story of Killing And Suicide Told By Victim's Mate

Officials Quote Wife of Dead Man As Saying Husband Shot Her Companion Then Flew Self

Fredericksburg, Va., Aug. 25.—(AP)—A double killing which authorities said they were told was a murder and suicide, terminated a wild auto ride early today in which a woman participated as an unwilling third party passenger.

The two dead are Oliver L. Snyder, 26, of Washington, and Clifford Thomas, 28, also of Washington.

The two officials said Mrs. Thomas related that her husband jumped upon the side of the car as she returned from a ride with Snyder in Washington at 12:30 a. m.

Holding a revolver against Snyder's side with his left hand, he took over the wheel and drove out of Washington to Woodlawn, Va. She was quoted as saying her husband then shot Snyder through the heart while the auto was in motion.

Mrs. Thomas said that when the car finally stopped at Fredericksburg, Thomas got out of the car, walked 50 yards and shot himself through the head, dying instantly.

Burn More Coffee
Rio Delaneiro.—(AP)—Despite efforts at crop reduction, the national coffee department announced it had burned 269,463 sacks of coffee, 69 kilos each, the first two weeks to July, compared with 12,729 for all of June. COVERED: At Washington Miss... The Secretary of Labor mingled compliments to the I. L. O. with a few wistful words for herself.

When they were alone Carol said abruptly: "Blah, it's perfectly insane for you to work all summer. It's not even good business, because you're bound to pay for it sooner or later. Why on earth don't you go to Rockbrook for at least a week or ten days?"

She sighed, and gave him up. For the rest of the way they sat wrapped in their own thoughts.

At the Sherwood she faced him impulsively, moved by the loneliness that lay so often behind his eyes.

Suddenly he looked years younger, and for the first time she glimpsed Irma Thornton. Heretofore Irma had been a shadowy subject for speculation, but a man who could be the man suspected of such treasonable intent to check up on and ascertain their plans for political activity, if any.

These scouts reported at a private luncheon gathering of New York big shots last week. The tidings they bore were more gratifying than anyone expected.

THE WORLD WITH A FENCE

Chapter 23 BOSS FOR DINNER... BLAKE dropped several sheets of paper on Carol's feet.

"The Acme Cleaners have just installed the starter equipment, and they want a quarter-page ad about it. Here's the technical information; you'll know how much of it a customer would be interested in."

"If you don't mind waiting ten minutes I'll drive you home." She said frankly: "I'd wait an hour to avoid that street car."

"No, but I've seen several of its cousins. Even if it bums you, you ought to have several days of rest. Bored people usually get fat, don't they? 'Fat and bored'; they go together like ham and eggs."

"Rot. You can't afford not to." "Well, I'm not going to, so you might as well save your thoughtfulness for a worthwhile subject. Not," he added softly, after several seconds, "that I'm not baffled as the devil to have it."

"No, I've done that twice already. I've got food in the refrigerator that has to be used, and it's no more trouble to fix it for two. Maybe eating too many restaurant meals is what's dragging you down."

poorer districts, offering half a dollar for each postcard handed over to them unmarked. The four sets will be a lot more valuable to the poor voters than the postcards, so a good response could be expected. Then of course the ballots could be properly marked.

EFFECT: A second suggestion from this source for the benefit of the enemy has to do with betting odds. "If I were Republican headquarters, I would have a million dollars handy towards the end of the campaign to bet on London to win. A million should be enough, if judiciously placed, to knock the odds down from 7 or 8 to 5 to 4 to 5. There is no doubt that a lot of people would respond to the bandwagon psychology and vote for London in order to be on the winning side."

INTERLUDE: Informed financial circles expect the Securities Exchange Commission to reopen public hearings in its investment trust inquiry fairly soon after Labor Day. Hearings were adjourned early this month partly to await further reports from the research staff and partly because they were not capturing as many or as large headlines as the Commission thought they should. Hence an interlude to devise a line of attack better calculated to attract editorial and public attention.

REINS: Eastern business and financial circles which have been worried about the obvious bungling of G. O. P. organization and publicity work and sharply critical of national chairman JOHN D. M. Hamilton for failing to rectify such conditions were heartened by Governor Landon's quiet insistence upon having the final say about the composition of the official party which accompanied him on his Pennsylvania trip last week.

NOISE: An official of a New York bank recently transferred to London, writes home as follows: "You don't have to be over here very long to acquire a much more sympathetic feeling for Roosevelt and the New Deal. In New York we always think of England as the stronghold of capitalist individualism. That's the bunk. The British pay much heavier taxes than our business men, they are much more strictly regulated and 'regulated,' they have an 'unstable' currency, an 'empty' never-dream-of-complaining. They take these things as a matter of course. It seems to me our main trouble is that we make too much noise about everything we do."

GREENIES TAKE SERIES OPENER FROM ACES, 5-4

Williamston Loses To Eagles in First Tilt, 10-3; Reynolds May Pitches 7-Hit Game For Greenies; Farley's Tenth Inning Single Brings in Winning Tally

COASTAL PLAIN LEAGUE (Post Season Semi-Finals) Greenville 1 0 1.000 Ayden 0 1 .000

Greenville defeated Ayden here yesterday afternoon, 5-4, in a 10-inning contest, the opening game of their end of the Coastal Plain League semi-finals series.

The winning run was made in the 10th, when Boozer, first man up for the Greenies, poked out a single and advanced on Wayne Ambler's sacrifice. Manager Farley's single scored him.

Greenville scored in two other innings. In the first, Ambler's double and singles by Winfrey Brown and Ty Wagner brought in runs. Ayden got three of its tallies in the fifth on singles by Tatum and Johnson—mingled with four Greenville errors and a wild pitch by May. Ayden's final tally came in the eighth, when Johnson reached second on Billett's error in left field and scored on Tabors's single. The locals came back to tie the score at four-all in its half of the eighth when May and Boozer singled, Ambler tripled, then scoring on Farley's infield out.

Reynolds May, who has been with the Greenville club for several seasons, went the entire route for the locals, and excepting the fifth inning was never seriously threatened. Woody Uphurch, who hurled nine full innings and started the tenth for Ayden, was pulled when Young Boozer singled in the 10th. Brownlee relieved him.

Jim Tabor, with three singles and Tatum with two singles, led Ayden. Ambler with a triple and double, and Boozer and Wagner with two hits each, paced the locals. The game was played in a slow drizzle of rain for the first six frames.

Greenville journeys to Ayden today for the second game of the post-season semi-finals.

Holland or Card will probably hurl for the Greenies this afternoon in Ayden.

Thinks That Soybeans Fill Important Place

Raleigh, Aug. 25.—Soybeans are destined to fill a prominent place in North Carolina agriculture, according to C. B. Williams, head of the State College agronomy department.

There is a growing demand for the products of this soil-building, money crop, he said, and North Carolina farmers are in a good position to raise and market it. "We have another advantage inasmuch as cotton oil mills can be used to crush soybeans cheaply during seasons when the mills are not crushing cotton seed," Professor Williams pointed out.

Outside the cotton belt, it costs more to process the beans in mills that have to be operated for bean crushing alone, he added. As an indication of the rapid growth of the soybean crushing industry in this State, he pointed out that during the 1934-35 season, two of the State's largest mills crushed 2,854 tons of beans.

During the 1935-36 season, these two mills expect to crush more than 5,000 tons of beans.

Professor Williams also pointed out that the 16th annual meeting of the American Soybean association will be held September 14, 15, and 16 at Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa, and at Cedar Rapids and Hudson, Iowa.

The association is composed of growers, processors, dealers, manufacturers of food products, and interested in the production and utilization of soybeans.

Mrs. Feaden At Home. Friends of Mrs. Elbert Feaden will be glad to learn that she has returned from Rocky Mount where she has been in Park View Hospital.

First Church of Christ, Scientist. "Mind" was the subject of the lesson-lesson in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 23.

The golden text was from Psalms 147:5: "Great is our Lord, and of great power; his understanding is infinite."

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-lesson was the following from the Bible: "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart."

The lesson-lesson also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The understanding that the ego is Mind and that there is but one Mind or Intelligence, begins at once to destroy the errors of mortal sense and to supply the truth of immortal sense. This understanding makes the body harmonious; it makes the nerves, bones, brain, etc., servants instead of masters. It is man governed by the law of divine Mind, his body is in submission to everlasting Life and Truth and Love."

King's Daughters House Party.
The Hortense F. Moye Junior Circle of the King's Daughters and Sons of Greenville spent a very delightful summer vacation of one week at Atlantic Beach. The party consisted of Misses Helen Flanagan, president of the circle, Virginia Clark, Margaret Harris, Mary Lorraine Horne, Miriam James, Elizabeth Gates, Marian Tyson, Bonnie Lou Soales, Jane, Ada Kelly and Mary T. Smith, Ethel Gaston. Visitors for the week were Misses Mabel Glenn Best and Florence Grimes. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Hortense F. Moye, state president of the Order, assisted by Mrs. W. L. Best.

Devotional services were held each morning at the breakfast table, and included Bible verses and study, information concerning the Order and the marvelous work which the order does, followed by the general prayer of the Order, a blessing by one of the girls.

Swimming and dancing were the chief amusements enjoyed by the crowd. The girls hated dreadfully to leave the beach, but comforted themselves by planning something even better for next year.

Tea For Two Recent Brides.
Washington, N. C., Aug. 24.—Friday afternoon at the Country Club Mrs. Joe Whitehead entertained charmingly at a tea in honor of Miss Geneva Benthall of Woodland, who was married Wednesday evening to James Shields Livermon and Mrs. Lionel Meredith Buchanan, formerly Miss Elizabeth Higgs of Greenville.

The porches and rooms of the club house were decorated with beautiful summer flowers of all shades.

Mrs. Gus Bowers and Mrs. Leonard Trueblood of Washington greeted the guests on the porch and Mrs. Moulton Avery of Washington received them just inside the door. Mrs. John Keys of Washington, sister of Miss Benthall, introduced the guests to the receiving line which was composed of Mrs. Whitehead, Miss Benthall, Mrs. Buchanan, Miss Nell Benthall of Woodland, Mrs. Louis Thornton of Buffalo, N. Y., Miss Lella Higgs of Greenville, Mrs. J. W. Dickie of Southern Pines, and Mrs. S. J. Everett of Greenville.

Miss Rita Carter of Washington and Mrs. C. H. Neville of Scotland Neck, directed the guests to the dining room where the following ladies received: Mrs. Swanson Graves, Mrs. Fred Outland, Mrs. Sam Blount, Mrs. Peyton Holloman, Mrs. Hortie Moore of Washington, and Mrs. Wade Dickens, Mrs. Irwin Clark and Miss Lela Speed of Scotland Neck.

Misses Fay Memory Shields of Scotland Neck, Elizabeth Everett of Greenville, and Mary Elizabeth Bell, Virginia Vaughan, Rebecca Vaughan, Dorothy Vaughan and Mrs. Rose Daniels of Washington, served delicious ice cream, cakes, nuts and mint.

Leaving the dining room the guests were directed to the punch bowl by Mrs. B. T. Brodie of Scotland Neck and Mrs. Joe Davis of Washington. Mrs. C. A. Holmes and Mrs. Harry Gurganus of Washington, served the delicious beverage.

Goodbyes were said by Mrs. J. A. Hodges and Mrs. John Campbell of Washington.

Throughout the afternoon soft music was rendered by an orchestra. A large number of guests called during the hours.

"Gone With the Wind," by Margaret Mitchell, is rated the fastest selling novel since the war.

WHY WE NEED A PUBLIC LIBRARY

The library should be a mental irritant in the community; it should help to make the old fresh, the strange tolerable, the new questionable, and all things wonderful.—John Cotton Dana, librarian, Newark.

Wherever we can fix the habit of selecting and reading worthwhile books, the emotional and intellectual life of the home, the community, and the nation will be strengthened. The work of organizing libraries and training librarians is in this large sense a very fundamental work in the building of better character and better citizenship.—Francis G. Blair, president, N. E. A.

A community without a library is a community whose soul is asleep.

Complete Changes School Bus Routes In North Carolina

Re-Surveying of All Courses to Mean Greater Efficiency in Operation of School Trucks

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, Aug. 24.—The surveys of the many school bus routes in the state have been completed and revision of many of the routes is almost finished so that by the time all the rural schools open, each bus driver will know exactly what his route will be this year, Secretary Lloyd Griffin of the State School Commission said today. All of the 400 new buses purchased by the school commission have been allocated and most of them have already been delivered, Griffin said.

The re-surveying of all the school bus routes during the summer is going to mean greater efficiency in the operation of the school buses this winter, as well as reduce the cost of operating these buses, Griffin believes. In many cases the buses have been re-routed so that they will serve more families but without increasing mileage, while in other cases routes have been consolidated so that one bus driver will cover the same territory in which two were formerly used.

The finest kind of cooperation has been given the school commission in making its bus route surveys by the county superintendents and principals this year, Griffin said. They have assisted the representatives of the commission in many ways and have made many valuable suggestions. When the first survey of bus routes was made by the commission last summer many of the county superintendents were opposed to it and in some cases refused to give the commission any cooperation. But the transportation system functioned so much more smoothly last winter despite the bad weather and at so much less expense, that most of the superintendents now agree the survey of the bus routes and the re-routing of the buses were decidedly worth while. They also found that since the re-routing was done by the school commission instead of by them, they were not blamed for the changes made.

Secretary Griffin is convinced that the school transportation system is going to function more smoothly and economically this year than ever before.

PHILIPPINE PRESIDENT FOUND EASY TO REACH

Manila, P. I. (AP)—Members of the Philippine National Assembly find it comparatively easy to reach the chief executive, President Manuel L. Quezon.

After the executive moved into Malacanang Palace, former home of American governor generals, he then announced that this section of the palace would be a sort of club for the assemblymen and declared that he expected to meet all the lawmakers there frequently.

Five former caddies at Pebble Beach, California, played the course again when, as famous golfers, they participated in this year's California open.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS & SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

Hollywood—One year later, Rogersville-by-Hollywood is little changed from the days when its genial master walked its streets and uttered homespun philosophies on its front porches.

Rogersville-by-Hollywood is virtually a separate community on the film lot where the one-time mayor of Beverly Hills made movies that put him first in the hearts of film fans.

To the casual visitor, driving through its streets, it looks like just another series of movie sets, comfortable, substantial homes and plain, every-day stores and buildings. There is a village square and a courthouse and a dignified old steepled church. All in all, Rogersville-by-Hollywood covers perhaps 200 square yards of the lot.

On the film production charts this section is still noted merely as "New England street" and "New England town square." Occasionally a film troupe goes there, sets up cameras for a shot or two in a new picture, but when it goes, the place again assumes its character as a "town" imbued with the personality of the man whose last flight brought personal tragedy into millions of lives.

There are some changes of course. That old southern waterfront of "Steamboat Round the Bend" his last film, was changed later for an Arctic setting in "White Fang." But even so, you can still see Will Rogers strolling along there, chinning with Irvin S. Cobb and making some kindly wise-crack at Ann Shriver.

In the village square the Confederate soldier's statue is gone, because a new film required a bandstand there instead. But you can remember how Will chortled when he changed that soldier from Federal to Confederate simply by chopping off his cast-iron hat and putting on another.

Will's houses, his homes in "Dr. Bull" and "Mr. Skitch" and "David Harlan" and "Judge Priest" still stand along that quiet residential street. The paint is cracked on some of them and the front window curtains are dusty like the floors and sills, but the flowers and shrubs have grown and blossomed richly.

There is a sound stage dedicated to Will Rogers on the lot, but Rogersville-by-Hollywood, until it falls as it must some day before time and picture needs, remains a better memorial. It was built for the characters that Rogers was in pictures, which usually was Rogers himself.

Hollywood—Tenderly, in the movies are supposed to keep quiet and do as they're told. But Frances Farmer has ideas and doesn't see why she shouldn't express them. She does express them, and what more: Howard Hawks, a director whose pictures long have given proof that he knows his business, has accepted several of them.

He says he thinks she is one of the most intelligent girls he has directed. When they're in the middle of a rehearsal and Frances thinks of a gesture or bit of "business" that might improve her characterization, he will out with it; not imperiously, just inquiringly. And Hawks likes this. If he doesn't approve the idea, he will tell her why. But often he approves.

Miss Farmer is making her fourth picture—her first role of any real importance to her, she says. Romancing Will Bing Crosby in "Rhythm on the Range" merely was an ingenue's assignment, in her valuation, but the role of Lotia in "Come and Get It" is a chance to act. At 21 she is intensely serious in her emotion.

She is serious about pictures, too, although her ultimate ambition is the stage. She wishes more pictures would realize their potentialities, utilize the screen medium for worthwhile ends.

"Too often pictures do things that are meant to entertain—and don't," she says. "It's like a really good writer doing pulp stories."

Pretty, with uncommon poise to match, Frances Farmer won an essay contest in her home town, Seattle, Wash., which gave her a trip to Moscow. She saw Europe and met Dr. George Gladstone, who introduced her to a theatrical producer, who took her to picture scouts, who brought her to Hollywood with a contract. She skipped all the usual hard knocks of a beginner in pictures, for after two lesser roles she drew a lead.

"I don't think I missed anything, though," she says. "I don't believe discouragement is helpful. But

'SMALLEST BABY' HUSKY NOW

Called the "World's smallest baby" at birth last January 14, Jacqueline Benson of Chicago has become a chubby youngster, weighing 12 pounds and two ounces as compared with 12 ounces the day she came into the world. Doctors say she is normal in every respect. Jacqueline is shown with her mother, Mrs. Lester Benson. (Associated Press Photo)

Even so, I've had my share of it." Clothes are not among her weaknesses, although she dresses as smartly as the next one. For rehearsals she prefers the comfort of a rough sweater, slacks and tennis shoes. Omar Kiam, the designer, said of her that "draping her with fancy clothes is like overlooking a cathedral." She has a quality that calls for simplicity to do it justice, he says.

Not long after coming to Hollywood Miss Farmer married Lef Erikson, a young contract player on her home lot, who shares her interest in tennis golf and their past. They like to "get away from Hollywood" even though they live there.

She writes poetry, some of which has been published, but her principal desire still is to make the grade as an actress. Hollywood thinks she will.

UNIVERSITY GETTING READY FOR OPENING FALL QUARTER

Chapel Hill, N. C., Aug. 22.—The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill will begin next week to speed up preparations for the opening of the fall quarter.

Although a number of applications have been turned down for one position or another, the applications approved to date indicate the enrollment in the freshman class likely will show an increase of about 20 per cent over that of last year.

Indications also point to an increase in the number of transfer students.

Registration for freshmen is scheduled for Wednesday, September 16, while upper-classmen will register Thursday. Classwork will begin Friday, September 18. Latecomers may register 24 hours through September 24.

Extending the formal opening of the University, Freshman Week, a spirit-diet set aside for the purpose of aiding freshmen in getting adjusted to University life, will be held from Friday, September 11 through Thursday, September 17.

WOMEN ON WPA RECEIVE HIGHER WAGES THAN MEN

Washington, (AP)—A Works Progress Administration report shows women have received higher wages than men on WPA projects in Kansas.

The average monthly wage in Kansas, as of March, 1936, was reported at $39.99—$40.05 for women and $38.76 for men. Actual earnings were $34.68—$37.63 for women and $34.05 for men.

Mrs. Cordie Austin, 16, of Honolulu, has won the women's territorial golf championship for the third year in succession.

62 and Dr. Potest comes in for good measure. Moreover, they tell it, on the Wake Forest campus that Dr. Richard T. Wann once president of Meredith College, is shockingly modern on the subject.

Davidson College, old dancers mean to the worldly feet and gave up disciplining students who shake their trotters. Davidson does not dance at home, but in Charlotte, Hildebre, Wake Forest did not dance here, but here in Raleigh. There is a sort of understanding here that when the trustees get back to the issue of the opening of school they will suggest that the dancing be done elsewhere.

And the state convention in November may order that it be done nowhere.

In pre-war days Serge Koussevitzky, conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, was both conductor and financial backer of his own symphony orchestra in Russia.

WE THANK YOU

We wish to take this opportunity of thanking the hundreds of citizens who called by our modern funeral home last week and inspected our establishment.

New York Cotton

New York, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, two to four higher on steady Liverpool cables and continued high temperatures in the western belt. At the end of the first hour the market was quiet and steady holding with a point or two either way of yesterday's closing quotations. The market at midday was quiet as no advances of seven to 10 points. Futures closed steady, six to nine higher spot quiet, middling 11.91.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Another jagged stock market today pushed selected stocks, amusements and sugars up a fraction to three or more points. Buying stimulus was provided by additional showing business and industrial news. There was no rush for the general run of equities however, and near the fourth hour the activity was small. The late tone was firm with transfers around 650,000 shares.

COMPLAINT GIVES COP GEOGRAPHY LESSON

Dallas, Tex. (AP)—Police Sergeant Roy Richberg, a former school teacher, recently had a surprise geography lesson. A woman complainant telephoned: "Send the police quick—some boys have broken the street lights on Georgia and Alabama and they are running north on Michigan." The sergeant gave instructions to the radio announcer, then remarked: "Next thing you know the squad will be going through Arizona." The first wireless distress signal from a ship at sea was sent August 11, 1866.

ATTENTION ON LIQUOR BOARD

Commission Claims More Interest Than Other Two

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, Aug. 25.—Evidently because there is much more drama in it than in highway loans or in gasoline prices, more interest centers in the three hearings this week on liquor control than on the refund of the advancements or on a state-wide reduction of gasoline prices. Governor Ehringhaus some weeks ago named three commissions to make state surveys. One is to inquire into the wisdom of port terminals for the distribution of gasoline. Prices, uniformly high in North Carolina, cannot be justified. Governor Ehringhaus has intimated in former hearings that gave no remedy to the state. Dealers in this state say North Carolina could reduce prices to the level of Virginia's and even to those in the District of Columbia. Some Virginia cities meet those prices. The establishment of a terminal on the coast with the advantages of water freight rates would help, many people think. The Morrison administration proposed a general development of port terminals based upon a bond issue of $10,000,000. That was defeated at the polls in the general election of 1921.

Port terminals to bring down gasoline prices would reach everybody's interest, but there is mighty little concern about that commission a body appointed to make a survey to ascertain the righteousness of the request from 44 counties that their lands or donations to the state for highways be refunded. There is $8,000,000 involved in this proposal. It touches these 44 counties deeply, but there is no talk about it. The inquiry that is to be made with the public has been Thursday to ascertain what is the best thing to be done about liquor. There are only 17 counties which have a sort of vested interest in that business, but the interest of the public extends to the entire commonwealth of 100 counties. Veterinarians say many mad dogs are merely dogs running around looking for a drink of water in hot weather.

LOU MEYER—WINNER OF INDIANAPOLIS AUTO CLASSIC. Sandwich in one hand and his Camel in the other, Lou shows little of the strain of the 500-mile grind. Here is an epic example of how smoking Camels at meals and after aids digestion and encourages a sense of well-being. In Lou Meyer's own words: "I'll hand it to Camels for setting my digestion to rights! They make my food taste better and help it to digest easier. As long as I have a Camel, I know I'm headed for a swell feeling of well-being."

Others have found that good digestion and a sense of well-being are encouraged by Camels... so

"I'LL TELL YOU WHAT I DO," says Miss Claire Huntington, expert stenographer, "to aid my digestion, I smoke Camels while I'm eating and afterwards."

for Digestion's sake Suckle Camels!

Good digestion and a sense of well-being are helpful allies for every one!

PEOPLE in every walk of life... men and women... agree that Camels ease strain and encourage digestive well-being. Millions of smokers find that "Camels set you right!" Camels increase the flow of digestive fluids... alkaline digestive fluids... so necessary to good nutrition. Camels never tire your taste or get on your nerves.
