

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION

NEWS FOR THE READER
RESULTS FOR THE ADVERTISER

THE WEATHER

Mostly cloudy tonight and Friday.
Occasional rains tonight; warmer tonight.

VOL. 101 NO. 47

Leased Wire

GREENVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, FEBRUARY 4, 1937.

Associated Press

Price: Five Cents

TRADE POLICY IS LINKED WITH NEUTRAL PACT

House Leaders Con- sider Extending Tariff Law

SENATORS ENJOY DAY OF RECESS

Ban on Sales of All Commodities To Warring Nations Is Opposed by Baruch

Washington, Feb. 4.—(AP)—House leaders, studying proposed extension of the reciprocal tariff law, heard the administration trade policy closely linked today with neutrality legislation.

Bernard Baruch, financier and war-time chairman of the war industries board, told the house military affairs committee belligerents should not be barred from buying commodities, other than munitions, on a cash and carry basis.

He said a ban on sales of all commodities might influence nations to make trade agreements with countries other than the United States in order to be assured of non-military war supplies.

Consideration of extension of the reciprocal tariff law for three years was the principal business on the house calendar. Some Democrats joined the militant Republican minority in the house to oppose extension.

Despite some objections, approval of this trade bargaining power for President Roosevelt by early next week was taken for granted.

The senate took the day off after sending the $950,000,000 relief deficiency bill into conference with the house late yesterday for minor differences.

County 4-H Team Will Be Entered In State Contest

C. D. Griggs Announces Pitt Will Be Represented at Seed Judging Event in Goldsboro

C. D. Griggs, assistant county agent who is in charge of 4-H club work, said today he planned to take a team of three and one alternate to the state-wide seed exposition in Goldsboro February 9-10.

Mr. Griggs said he had not picked his team, but expected to be able to announce the members within a few days.

Individuals and county teams will compete for prizes in judging the quality of crop seeds and in identifying specimens of plants, seed, weeds, and plant disease, Mr. Griggs said.

Seed to be classified according to quality will include shelled corn, wheat, oats, rye, soybeans, cowpeas, and lespedeza. A number of the State's most important crops, together with their diseases, will be ready for the contestants to identify, he continued.

The seed exposition will be held in connection with the third annual conference of the North Carolina Crop Improvement Association. The judging contests will be held Wednesday, February 10.

The main objective of the exposition and conference is to promote the work of the Crop Improvement Association in encouraging North Carolina farmers to produce more certified seed and to plant the varieties that will give the best results in their communities.

Farmers from all parts of the State who have been producing good seed will have samples on exhibit, Mr. Griggs said. The displays will include legumes, grains, potatoes, peanuts, tobacco, and cotton.

There will also be addresses on better crop production, the 1937 soil-conservation program, rural electrification, dairy cattle feeding, and other timely subjects, he pointed out.

Grange Lecturer To Speak In Pitt County

Harry B. Caldwell, lecturer of the North Carolina Grange and also legislative representative for that organization, will make two speeches in Pitt county this week.

Mr. Caldwell will address a group of farmers at Pierce's Grange near Ayden on Thursday night. He will speak at Arthur.

Mr. Caldwell is declared to be well versed in the problems of the farmers, a fluent speaker and capable of representing agriculturists.

All Pitt county farmers are urged to attend, with their families, one of the meetings.

The columbine, which blooms on lofty mountain peaks, is the state flower of Colorado.

SHERIFF READS INJUNCTION TO AUTO STRIKERS

Sheriff Tom Welcott (center) reads an injunction to sit-down strikers in the Fisher Body plant No. 2 at Flint, Mich., giving them 24 hours to leave the building. At some plants the sheriff was lustily booed, but the strikers remained orderly. Deputy Gerald Rubby (left) and Col. Edward Carrier accompanied the sheriff on his rounds. (Associated Press Photos)

PUBLIC FORUM HERE TONIGHT

Educational Project To Be Held in School Library

The first meeting of the Public Forum will be held tonight in the High School Library at eight o'clock. Dr. Larson of the Rockefeller Foundation will be the Forum leader.

Three hundred seats have been moved into the library of the high school and it is expected that every one of them will be taken. Members of the city school faculty and of the college faculty, students of the Greenville High School and of the college have shown great interest in this first Public Forum and are planning to be present.

The Forum topic is "Juvenile Delinquency, Some Causes and Some Cures." The Forum was held in Goldsboro last night and there were six hundred fifty people present in the high school building. Mr. Ross, Superintendent of Schools, stated that he would have the seats in the High School auditorium and have it heated, so that, in case there was a crowd larger than the library would accommodate, the meeting would move into the auditorium.

The idea behind the Forum is to get people to discuss intelligently the vital topics of the day. Following Dr. Larson's address, there will be a barrage of questions, which she will answer or get some member of the audience to answer.

The Board of Trustees of the Greenville City Schools, together with the college authorities and the Board of Trustees of the County Schools, are backing this movement and supporting it. The money for the speaker is being furnished through the office of the U. S. Commissioner of Education, J. W. Studebaker, of Washington City. There is no charge for admission, and all people are cordially invited to attend. The time is eight o'clock.

J. W. Studebaker, United States Commissioner of Education, sent the following letter to local officials of the Forum explaining the project.

I wish I could be in Greenville as the new program in adult civic education is launched to present in person my greetings and wishes for the success of your enterprise. That is impossible, however, because similar programs are being operated in various parts of the country. However, let me assure the people of Greenville by a brief written statement that we who are interested in improving the educational preparations of the masses of people to function effectively in a democracy are watching with deep interest the planning and organization of your forum demonstration. I hope that at least three things will be kept in mind as this program gets under way:

1. Its management and organization are exclusively in the hands of your own local leaders. While our office in Washington wishes to be of the utmost assistance in providing helpful materials and promoting an exchange of ideas among the demonstration centers, we do not view it as our function to direct the program. The subject to be discussed are determined and the forum leaders are selected by the local management of public education with the help of your citizens' ad-

(Continued on page two)

Forces Clash In Malaga District

(By Associated Press)

Spain's insurgent legions on land, water and in the air, started their "big push" against Malaga today in an effort to cut off that strategic Mediterranean shipping center from the rest of government-held Spain.

A comparative lull fell over Madrid's battlefronts, 266 miles to the north, while practically every available fascist facility of men and machines, was shoved toward Malaga.

The insurgent's naval fleet steamed in the direction of Malaga. Nine bombing planes left Spanish Morocco to join General DeLano's southern army drive.

RELIEF FUNDS REACH $4,630

Officials Issue Cor- rected List of Don- ors in Campaign

Red Cross flood contributions received today were $27.57 making total contributions for this county to date of $4,630.08.

During the course of handling the large number of contributions several minor errors in listing the names of the donors were made and a corrected list of these donors appears at the bottom of today's list. Previously reported $4,601.51

Error in amount listed	1.00
J. R. Turnage, Ayden	10.00
Rev. M. A. Woodward, Winterville	2.00
Cash	1.25
J. A. Mills	1.00
Red Oak Sunday School	4.57
J. O. Bryant, Fountain	1.00
Mrs. J. W. Crawford	3.00
W. S. Baker	2.00
Eks Lodge (colored)	1.50
Four Child School children as follows:
L. B. Venters	1.00
H. C. Haddock	1.00
Retha Fornes	1.00
Jimmie Tripp	1.00
Total	$4,630.08

Correct Listings of Previous Errors:

Mrs. E. W. Harvey	1.00
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Edwards	2.00
Roy Craft, Bethel	1.00
Mrs. Pattie Lanier	1.00
G. Clinton Eiks, Grimesland	1.00

E. H. Taft, Jr., Joins With Blount, James

Announcement was made today that E. H. Taft, Jr., has become affiliated with M. K. Blount and Dink James and the new law firm will operate under the name of Blount, James and Taft.

Mr. Taft, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taft of this city, is a life long resident of Greenville. He received both his A. B. and LL.B. degrees at Duke University.

The new member, who passed the State Bar examinations last August, has moved into offices adjoining those of his two partners in the Blount Building on Third street.

Safety council tests show only 25 per cent of the nation's motor car drivers have perfect vision.

EXPECT AMEND COMPACT BILL

Supplementary Act To Tobacco Meas- ure Being Drafted

Reflector Bureau.

Raleigh, Feb. 4.—A supplementary bill to the tobacco compact bill, which became law when it was passed by the senate unanimously on all three readings Wednesday, is now being drawn by a special subcommittee of the senate agriculture committee.

This supplementary bill will set up machinery for hearing the appeals of farmers who may be dissatisfied with the quotas assigned to them under the main compact bill and will take the place of several amendments offered to the main compact bill and rejected in both the house and senate, when proponents of the bill feared that the adoption of these amendments might endanger it and make it less likely that South Carolina and Georgia would enact it.

The members of the subcommittee which will prepare this supplementary bill are Senators L. Y. Balfentine of Wake county, who at first advocated the amendments; J. C. Eaves of Wilson; Jeff D. Johnson, Jr. of Sampson and W. W. White of Vance. This subcommittee is expected to meet today and to bring in the completed bill within the next day or two.

Present indications are that it will provide for the election of a county board of appeals in each county to be composed of three tobacco farmers, to be elected by the farmers in each county in county-wide meetings. All appeals from the decision of the boards created in the state compact bill can be taken before these county boards for hearing. If the appeals are without merit, they will be dismissed by the county boards, but if regarded as worthy, will be certified to the state commission for hearing.

In this manner, the supplementary bill is expected to provide more acceptable machinery for the hearing of appeals than was provided in the main bill and to meet all the objections of those who at first were not favorable to the compact bill on the grounds that it did not provide sufficient means for the hearing and clearing of appeals from dissatisfied farmers.

Wanted Sanitation

London (AP)—Judge Dumas to witness at Westminster County Court: "Why did you kiss your thumb instead of the book upon taking the oath?" Witness: "Oh sanitation, that's all."

Elizabeth City Man Held On Charge Of Kidnapping

Chapel Hill, Feb. 4.—(AP)—William J. Anderson, Elizabeth City radio dealer, was held for superior court on a charge of kidnapping his brother-in-law's wife, Mrs. Louise Cochran, also of Elizabeth City after a hearing heard today before Recorder James Phipps. His bond was fixed at $2,500 which he posted.

Mrs. Cochran, blonde 23-year-old wife of Walter Cochran, prosecuting attorney for Pasquotank county, swore Anderson kidnaped her 11

RENEW EFFORT FIND SOLUTION TO END STRIKE

Another Conference Underway in De- troit Today

UNION CHIEFTAIN ON HAND EARLY

Meeting Called For Purpose of Finding Basis for Truce Dur- ing Negotiations

Detroit, Feb. 4.—(AP)—Another effort to find a solution to the General Motors strike, now in its fifth week, began at 10:10 a. m. eastern standard time, this morning in the chambers of Recorder Judge George Murphy.

As was the case in yesterday's first meetings, today's conference was closely guarded and the participants were under agreement "there should be no talking" outside.

It was learned on authoritative sources, however, the conference definitely was seeking the basis for a truce during which peace negotiations might be carried on. There was no basis, these sources indicated, for the belief final negotiations were now being carried on.

Presiding again was Governor Frank Murphy, who yesterday informed the opposing sides the meeting was called "at the wish of the President of the United States."

The governor and John Lewis, C. I. O. chief, were among the first to arrive, being in the court room chambers before 10 a. m. William Knudsen, executive vice president of General Motors, arrived eight minutes later.

Governor Murphy appeared pleased with the undisclosed results of two sessions with representatives of the corporation and the union as he called the conference to another meeting here.

Another factor reducing the uneasiness in the troop - patrolled strike zone was a press signed by the U. A. W. A. and Flint civil authorities.

Heated Campaign Being Waged For Two Justice Posts

Selection of Two Supreme Court Judges Left Entirely Up To Gov- ernor Clyde R. Hoey

Reflector Bureau.

Raleigh, Feb. 4.—The battle was on already, but action of the Senate Tuesday in passing the bill adding two members to the state Supreme court added to intensity of the already heated campaign.

The upper body's approval completed legislative action and put the selection of justices squarely up to Governor Clyde R. Hoey.

Of course campaigns for judges' posts are never quiet as bald and brazen as those waged for mere lay posts, but all who know anything about them unhesitatingly term these fights even bitterer.

In the present instance there are more than the usual number of angles and the stake is bigger. It follows, accordingly, that the under cover drives of various and sundry candidates are even more energetic than is customarily the case.

Outstanding feature is the "Bar against Bench" angle, as well as the contention over geographic distribution of the posts.

A large group of practicing lawyers are determined that at least one justice, and preferably both, shall be chosen from their number and not from among those already wearing the figurative robes of a superior court judge.

These lawyers are busy boosting Stanley A. Winborne, chairman of the Democratic executive committee, from the west and former Judge L. R. Varsar, Lumberton, from the east. That is, some of them are. Others have their own ambitions or are backing other prominent lawyers.

As for the superior court judges, there's hardly a one of them who

(Continued on page four)

Levees Expected Weather Thrust Of Flood Waters

Army Engineers Directing Nation's Greatest Anti-Flood Offensive Remain Confident, But Warn of Great Tests To Come.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 4.—(AP)—The tide of battle against record flood crest ran favorably along the upper Mississippi today, but the war to save the valley from untold disaster was not yet won.

Army engineers directing the nation's greatest anti-flood offensive remained confident of victory, but pointed out the crests now passing Cairo, Ill., will test hundreds of miles of levees before they reach the Gulf, some two weeks hence.

Danger lurked at every bend in the 1,000-mile sweep from Cairo to New Orleans and there was no relaxation of efforts among the 120,000 pick and shovel laborers working day and night on the embankment protecting the South's most fertile farm lands.

Cairo's struggle was far from over—the situation at Hickman remained critical—the worst of the river's rampage remained ahead for Melwood and Ferguson in Arkansas and the secondary levee system in Northwest Tennessee awaited its most serious test.

However, crest waters flowed by Cairo with full three feet of seaboard left on the city's flood defenses. The situation was considered excellent by engineers after sand boils had "quieted down." The fall of the Ohio at Paducah further cheered the embattled city.

Fate Of County Control Left Entirely To Senate

Important Provisions Of Liquor Measure Explained

Reflector Bureau.

Raleigh, Feb. 4.—Whether or not North Carolina will set up a combination state and county system of liquor control and liquor stores under a county option plan, is now up to the senate, as a result of the action by the house Wednesday in definitely rejecting the Hutchins state-wide liquor referendum bill and adopting the committee substitute.

The prevailing belief in most circles here which have been watching the liquor control fight within the general assembly are convinced that the senate will also adopt the committee substitute, with the result that any county in the state which wants liquor stores may call an election and if the proposal is approved, open one or more liquor stores.

The committee substitute presented to the house by Chairman Sam Blount of Beaufort county, and which was written by a committee headed by Representative Victor S. Bryant of Durham, is essentially a compromise bill and was worked out as a result of numerous conferences between the advocates of both state and county control.

It is regarded as containing the best features of both plans, but is more of a victory for the county control advocates than for the state control advocates, since it leaves most of the authority in the counties, giving the three-member state liquor commission only general supervisory powers over prices, policies and the location of stores, with power to veto the appointment of county ABC board members only for specific cause and to remove them only in case of gross inefficiency and mismanagement.

The more important provisions of the bill, in brief, are as follows:

1. Permits the board of county commissioners in any county to call an election on whether or not the county will set up a system of liquor control and liquor stores and requires such an election to be called on petition of 15 per cent of the registered voters.

2. Any county which votes for liquor stores, can open one store at once at any place in the county decided upon, without consulting the state board, but the locations for any additional stores must be approved by the state board, while approval for opening additional stores must also be obtained from the state commission.

3. Counties which do not vote for liquor stores and liquor control will continue to remain dry and under the provisions of the Turlington Act with the enforcement of this act remaining up to the county and city officers in such counties, as at present.

4. Creates a state Alcohol Beverage Control board or commission of three members to be appointed by the Governor, the chairman to be a full-time salaried official, the other two members to be part-time officials paid on a per diem basis.

This board will fix uniform prices for the sale of all liquors, set up uniform rules and regulations, prescribe a uniform accounting system for all county control boards and liquor stores, and have general advisory supervision over the county boards and stores, with power to remove members of county boards in cases of gross inefficiency or mismanagement.

5. Authorizes the creation of a county Alcohol Beverage Control board in each county which votes to set up liquor stores, which board shall have direct and immediate supervisory of the stores in each county, the location of stores, selection of employees and direct the

(Continued on Page Two)

SENATE SENDS WHISKEY BILL TO COMMITTEE

Cale K. Burgess, Dry Leader, Requests Public Hearing

WOULD BAN SALE GAS TO DRUNKS

Proposed Death Pen- alty for Kidnapping Re-referred to Sen- ate Committee

Raleigh, Feb. 4.—(AP)—The senate sent the county option liquor bill to a committee today and debated and re-referred a proposed constitutional amendment to authorize the death penalty for kidnapping, while the house killed a bill to prohibit fireworks in the state.

The senate judiciary committee No. 1 got the whiskey measure and Chairman Gold said it would meet tomorrow. He said Cale Burgess, a dry leader, had asked another public hearing.

The lengthy tobacco pact measure was not ready for the perfunctory ratification ceremony, but probably will become law tomorrow. The governor has no veto power and it will become law when signed in routine course by the presiding officers of the senate and house.

Rep. McBryde of Cumberland offered bills to make it unlawful to sell gasoline under the influence of alcoholic liquors and to make it a misdemeanor to operate a car on the highways at a speed in excess of 45 miles an hour.

Divorced women would be allowed to resume use of their maiden names if the legislature passed a bill offered by Representative Murphy of Beaufort and the chairman of the senate judiciary committee, and law examiners to meet to discuss actual expenses for each re-nomination period.

WINLOW INVITED Attend National Farm Conference

President of North Carolina Farm Bureau and Dr. Clarence Poe Asked Repeal State

J. E. Winslow, president of the North Carolina Farm Bureau Federation, said today he had accepted an invitation to attend a national conference of agricultural leaders in Washington February 8-9.

Mr. Winslow and Dr. Clarence Poe, editor of the Progressive Farmer, were the two Tar Heels who were asked to attend the session.

The meeting has been called by Henry A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture.

A group of more than 50 farm leaders from over the Nation have been asked to meet with Senator E. D. Smith and Representative Marvin Jones, chairman of the Senate and House committees on agriculture, the dean stated.

Washington officials and Members of Congress wish to learn what recommendations these leaders will make after a study of the proposed ever-normal granary plan and other proposals affecting agriculture.

The ever-normal granary plan would provide for storing surplus agricultural products in years of plenty so they would be available in other years when uncontrollable factors curtailed production, Dean Schaub pointed out.

Such a system would tend to prevent wide price fluctuations by equalizing the amount of the various commodities placed on the market each year, he said. It would also work to prevent acute shortages in poor years.

Although the full list of those invited to attend the conference was not announced, it was stated that it includes representatives of the American Farm Bureau Federation, National Orange, Farmers National Union, National Cooperative Council, and Farmers National Grain Corporation.

Tar River Receding; At 18.6 This Morning

The Tar River here began falling yesterday afternoon after having crested at a fraction more than 18.7 feet.

The stream was standing at 18.7 feet at 8 o'clock yesterday morning and rose only a fraction higher before the waters began receding slowly. At 8 o'clock this morning it was standing at 18.6 feet.

Although the river overflowed its banks, reaching several hundred yards beyond the bridge on both sides of the road, little damage was reported.

City Aldermen Meet At City Hall Tonight

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Aldermen will be held at the City Hall tonight.

A number of routine business matters are scheduled to be taken up by Mayor M. K. Blount and the aldermen.

Telegraph messenger boys in Oklahoma City are equipped with white rain capes as a safety measure.

(Continued on Page Two)

The Daily Reflector

Every Afternoon Except Sunday. Established 1882. DAVID J. WICHARD, Jr. Owner and Publisher

TELEPHONE 36 Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as second class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES (Payable in Advance) One year $5.00 Six months $3.50 Three months $2.25 One month .50

Subscription will be discontinued at expiration of time paid.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES: The F. Clark Co., Inc., New York, Chicago, Indianapolis, Philadelphia, Kansas City.

The Red Cross needs every cent it can get for relief work in the flood area. Pitt county's contributions to the fund have been generous but there are still a number of people, no doubt, who have not contributed to the fund.

The first of a series of Public Forum discussions for this city will be held in the High School auditorium tonight. This program of adult education is proving well worth while throughout other sections of the country and people of this community should take of the advantage offered them through these Public Forums.

Although admitting that inequalities existed in the way in which the state had dealt with the various counties in the way of payment for highways built by the counties, the commission appointed to investigate the claims of the counties made its report without recommending what should be done in the matter.

DEAN SPEAKS HIS MIND ABOUT NEUROTIC TEACHERS

Iowa City, Ia. (AP)—Tight-lipped and tense school teachers, commanding a quiet and well-disciplined schoolroom, may seem efficient, but Dean George D. Stoddard of the University of Iowa graduate school says such a teacher actually teaches children the least.

"A teacher who is frustrated, over-eretical or underdeveloped emotionally is likely to go toward the neurotic escape," says the professor.

"Some of the things she teaches should never be taught," she said. Her chief lesson is that you must not be yourself, that you must not express yourself and that you must postpone present safety in the vague promise of a happier future."

Dean Stoddard recommends three rules for improvement of teachers' mental personality: face reality; develop some special or unique usefulness; and get some sort of change at intervals such as a new job or summer study in a different locality.

ESCAPE IF YOU CAN

BY FREDERICK JACKSON

SYNOPSIS: Count Vronski, who was blackmailing Anne Phelps with love letters, is shot dead in Anne's studio. Bigelow, the American from Paris, finds Anne and Karanaskoff, the glamorous dancer, staring at the corpse. They hide it during a party, then Bigelow and Dr. Austrelitz, the psychologist, move it to Vronski's room. Police arrest Thorne Dryden, a wealthy chap who hated Vronski, and his wife, Lorna, a woman who and Bigelow set out to find her, getting a clue as to her whereabouts from Madge, the night club hostess.

Chapter 27

A Race Through Traffic

AS Anne and Bigelow left Madge's, a newsboy at the door was offering the early morning papers at slightly advanced prices. Bigelow sought them while the doorman hailed a taxi and in the cab, they examined them eagerly.

There was a new development. A taxi-driver had come forward who had driven a woman to Vronski's address at a little after 5 A. M. on the night of the murder. He said that she was young and dark and was wearing a small hat with an eye-veil and a mink coat. He had picked her up on Park avenue near the corner of 62nd street, which was the street on which Thorne Dryden lived.

Shown photographs of Lorna Dryden among those of other attractive dark women, however, he had been unable to pick Mrs. Dryden out, but he thought he might recognize his passenger again if he saw her.

Meanwhile, the papers reported, the police had instigated a nationwide search for the missing beauty and they confidently expected to locate her within the next 24 hours.

Bigelow put down the papers and looked thoughtfully out of the window. If Mrs. Dryden had gone to Vronski's apartment at something after five the morning, her husband would have seen her from his place of concealment across the street. Was that why he thought there must be some connection between her and Bigelow and Austrelitz? And was he why he was withholding from the police the information he had?

"Do you suppose it was Lorna who robbed the apartment?" asked Anne. "I think she had been blackmailing her. She might have, you know, in a desperate effort to recover her letters."

"But would she have stolen the Vronski jewels as well?" "Perhaps to cover up her tracks and conceal her real purpose. She might have figured, too, that she was only getting some of her own back—if she had paid him a good deal of hush money?"

"It's a possibility, I suppose," nodded Bigelow. "I hope it was Lorna," murmured Anne. "Then she'd have got my letters as well. I've been wondering why I haven't heard from the thief about it. She'd have to have mentioned the fact, don't you?"

"Probably—although one can't be sure of that. Hagedorn is a wily devil. He might be keeping a card or two in his sleeve. And I hardly imagine you'd hear from the thief about them just now. To admit possession would be too incriminating."

"Yes, I suppose so," sighed Anne. "I only hope she'll get them back and see them destroyed."

"Are you resenting the fact that I haven't told you all about them?" Anne asked wistfully. "I've no right to resent anything you do," Bigelow reminded her just a little stiffly. "It's for you to give or withhold your confidence as you see fit, of course."

"So she was shielding somebody else? With a sinking heart, Bigelow wondered who the man could be."

That Little Man Again AS he emerged from the elevator into the hotel lobby the next morning at half past eight, his glance lighted on an inconspicuous little man waiting near the door—the same man who had been following him for the past few days. And Bigelow stopped short, scowling with rage. He was beginning to find the silent espionage of the little man unbearable. "I never see him," he said, "but I know he's there."

"I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said.

"I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said.

"I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said.

"I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said.

"I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said.

"I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said.

"I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said.

"I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said.

"I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said.

"I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said.

"I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said. "I've nothing to say about it," Bigelow said.

defeated as much by the New Hanover man as by any other one soldier.

Arguments are still hot over Speaker Cherry's refusal to recognize Willie Lee Lumpkin when the Franklin man tried to move an amendment during the Child Labor amendment fight Monday.

The discussion is purely academic all agree, because the result would have been just the same in any event. The House was set to shout down Mr. Lumpkin's motion.

Another thing that is unanimously conceded is that the Speaker did not intentionally roll a steam roller over Mr. Lumpkin. For all his hard-boiled manner, Mr. Cherry is acknowledged to be as fair as anyone ever to sit in the presiding officer's chair.

Chewin's Jack White apparently went off on a one-man tangent when he moved Tuesday to take the Hutchins liquor referendum bill away from the committee considering it and bring the matter to the floor of the House.

Certainly the control forces did not want such action and it is highly improbable that Mr. White, who claims to be as wet both personally and politically as any man in the legislature, was acting for the referendum forces.

Nobody has yet been able to give a plausible explanation of his performance.

Stubborn and persistent fellows, those folks from Sampson. After Representative Wilson had been defeated in his prolonged and desperate efforts to amend the Tobacco Comports bill, his Senate colleague, Jeff Johnston, held up immediate action in the upper branch.

When all is said and done, however, the bill substituted by the House committee for the original draft will very likely become the law of the state.

It is well to remember that operation of the law is subject to enactment of similar legislation in Virginia, South Carolina and Georgia.

House Republicans either regard themselves as unimportant or they feel it safer not to record themselves on important matters. Every roll call so far has shown about half the G. O. P. delegation (which numbers 8 in all) absent.

FATE OF COUNTY CONTROL LEFT ENTIRELY TO SENATE

(Continued from page one)

administration of the law and its enforcement in the county, under the rules and regulations promulgated by the state board. The county board will also be charged with the enforcement of the control law, including the running down and prosecution of bootleggers and activities as they may see fit.

6. Permits the 17 counties now having liquor stores to retain their stores without calling another election, and to retain their present county liquor boards until July 1, 1938, when new boards will be selected in the manner prescribed in the new bill.

7. Wilson county will give up the operation of the liquor stores in Pinhook and Southern Pines, in Moore county, but these stores will remain in operation by each of these municipalities, regardless of whether Moore county holds an election or not, with the provision that if the county votes for liquor stores, they shall come under the control of the county board.

8. The question of any division of profits between the counties and the cities and towns in which the liquor stores are or may be located, shall be decided by the county control board, the board of county commissioners and the governing bodies of the cities and towns involved in any particular county.

9. No provision is made for any division of the profits from the operation of the county stores with the state, so that all the revenue from the stores will go into the county treasury, subject to division with cities and towns as may be subsequently agreed upon.

10. The state will get its revenue under the Revenue Act, under a tentative agreement whereby the state will levy a sales tax of either 6 or 7 per cent on the gross sales in the county stores, the revenue from this tax going into the state's general fund.

PUBLIC FORUM HERE TONIGHT

(Continued from page one)

visory committee. 2. The program has much wider influence and significance than the immediate results which it may achieve educationally in Greenville. I know you are aware of the fact that the leaders in American life are watching with genuine interest the development of your program. These leaders are looking for practical and effective plans of community-wide civic education by which citizens may become better prepared for participation in a democratic society. Your experience in operating your program will contribute to the development of a

visory committee. 2. The program has much wider influence and significance than the immediate results which it may achieve educationally in Greenville. I know you are aware of the fact that the leaders in American life are watching with genuine interest the development of your program. These leaders are looking for practical and effective plans of community-wide civic education by which citizens may become better prepared for participation in a democratic society. Your experience in operating your program will contribute to the development of a visory committee. 2. The program has much wider influence and significance than the immediate results which it may achieve educationally in Greenville. I know you are aware of the fact that the leaders in American life are watching with genuine interest the development of your program. These leaders are looking for practical and effective plans of community-wide civic education by which citizens may become better prepared for participation in a democratic society. Your experience in operating your program will contribute to the development of a visory committee. 2. The program has much wider influence and significance than the immediate results which it may achieve educationally in Greenville. I know you are aware of the fact that the leaders in American life are watching with genuine interest the development of your program. These leaders are looking for practical and effective plans of community-wide civic education by which citizens may become better prepared for participation in a democratic society. Your experience in operating your program will contribute to the development of a visory committee. 2. The program has much wider influence and significance than the immediate results which it may achieve educationally in Greenville. I know you are aware of the fact that the leaders in American life are watching with genuine interest the development of your program. These leaders are looking for practical and effective plans of community-wide civic education by which citizens may become better prepared for participation in a democratic society. Your experience in operating your program will contribute to the development of a visory committee. 2. The program has much wider influence and significance than the immediate results which it may achieve educationally in Greenville. I know you are aware of the fact that the leaders in American life are watching with genuine interest the development of your program. These leaders are looking for practical and effective plans of community-wide civic education by which citizens may become better prepared for participation in a democratic society. Your experience in operating your program will contribute to the development of a visory committee. 2. The program has much wider influence and significance than the immediate results which it may achieve educationally in Greenville. I know you are aware of the fact that the leaders in American life are watching with genuine interest the development of your program. These leaders are looking for practical and effective plans of community-wide civic education by which citizens may become better prepared for participation in a democratic society. Your experience in operating your program will contribute to the development of a visory committee. 2. The program has much wider influence and significance than the immediate results which it may achieve educationally in Greenville. I know you are aware of the fact that the leaders in American life are watching with genuine interest the development of your program. These leaders are looking for practical and effective plans of community-wide civic education by which citizens may become better prepared for participation in a democratic society. Your experience in operating your program will contribute to the development of a visory committee. 2. The program has much wider influence and significance than the immediate results which it may achieve educationally in Greenville. I know you are aware of the fact that the leaders in American life are watching with genuine interest the development of your program. These leaders are looking for practical and effective plans of community-wide civic education by which citizens may become better prepared for participation in a democratic society. Your experience in operating your program will contribute to the development of a visory committee. 2. The program has much wider influence and significance than the immediate results which it may achieve educationally in Greenville. I know you are aware of the fact that the leaders in American life are watching with genuine interest the development of your program. These leaders are looking for practical and effective plans of community-wide civic education by which citizens may become better prepared for participation in a democratic society. Your experience in operating your program will contribute to the development of a

Daily Cross Word Puzzle

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

ACROSS 1. Africa 2. Kind of mineral 3. Series of wares 12. Precious tribe of Israel 13. Crisp cookie 14. Any person 15. Money of account 16. Recipient 17. Antwerp 18. League 21. Vessel for heating liquids 22. Kind of cheese 23. Connected with 24. By contr. 25. Bulgarian coin 27. Beautiful and imaginative 29. Elevation 31. Devoured 32. Kind of necrotic 33. Term of address 34. Fruit 35. African 36. Tavern 37. Cows 38. Old musical note 39. Singing voice 40. Fragrance 42. Passageway 43. River in Africa 44. Proprietor 45. Printing necessity 49. Feminine name 50. Land measure 51. Paid public notice 53. Speaks 55. Affirmative votes

DOWN 1. Quite 2. New comb. form 3. Not straight-forward 4. Flexible slender branch 5. Manuscript abbr. 6. In a full manner 7. Eccentric rotating piece 8. Desire for food 9. Dresses 10. Open court 11. Planet 12. That fellow 13. Pertaining to the car 20. Unfastened 21. Speak thoughtlessly 23. Nerve network 24. Portions of a discourse or composition 25. Composer of "Good-bye" 26. Domestically 27. Southern automobile horns 28. Even 29. Continent 41. Tear apart 42. In that case 43. Wings 44. Age 45. Legal action 51. Symbol for arsenic nation-wide plan to insure real civic enlightenment.

11x11 crossword puzzle grid with numbers 1-55 indicating starting positions for words.

3. This short period of your demonstration sponsored and financed in large part by the Federal Government through the office of Education should be but the beginning of a continuous program of adult civic education in your own community. No one would propose to operate a high school program for six months or a year and expect that the educational values of it would be sufficient for several years to come. If educational preparations are essential to intelligent participation in democracy, careful plans for enabling adults to study and discuss problems as they arise must be made by the people in the local community. Our people already have established great professional agencies of education which should in my opinion be concerned with the educational needs of our citizens literally from the cradle to the grave. We have only begun to meet the needs of our American democracy when we have organized educational plans for children and youth.

With these three general points in mind let me express the hope that the people of Greenville will participate freely in the discussion of the problems which they consider vital and important. The program will succeed if the people themselves use it as a means towards a better understanding of the social, economic and political problems of our day.

NOTICE OF POWER

By virtue of the power of sale in that certain deed of trust from Elias X. Dail and Daniel W. Dail and wife, Amanda B. Dail, dated September 10, 1928, of record in the Register's office of Pitt county in Book N-17, page 211, the undersigned Receiver of the Trust Company of Washington, trustee, will on Monday, February 5, 1937, at noon offer for sale at public auction for cash to the highest bidder at the courthouse door in Pitt county, all that certain tract or parcel of land in Pactolus township, Pitt County, North Carolina, adjoining the lands of J. J. Rollins and others and known as the James L. Lanzley land, particularly described as follows:

Beginning at the intersection of the Lansley and Rollins line with the East line of the Creek Road from Pactolus to Greenville, said point being located at right angles from a point South 25 feet from an iron stob in the West edge of said road, which stob is the corner of the Rollins and T. E. Gray lands, thence running with said road N. 10 E. 92 feet, N. 34 E. 44 feet, N. 7 E. 100 feet to the South edge of a lane, S. 82 E. 634 feet, thence with the lane and a line of marked trees, N. 63-10 E. 2800 feet to the center of the run of Grindie Creek, thence down the center of the run of Grindie Creek to the corner of the Rollins land (it being a straight line S. 21 E. 2900 feet), thence with the Rollins line N. 77-45 W. 4659 feet to the beginning, containing 142.21 acres, more or less, as per survey of J. B. Respass, This January 8th, 1937.

L. A. SQUIRES, Receiver of the Trust Company of Washington, Trustee. By McLean & Rodman, Attorneys.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGEE'S SALE

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain Mortgage executed and delivered to J. E. Winslow Company by J. H. McLawhorn and wife, Virginia Anna McLawhorn, on the 30th day of January, 1930, which said Mortgage is duly of record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County, North Carolina, at the following place: At Efrid's Dept. Store - Sat., Feb. 6 - One Day Only.

Advertisement for Woodbury's Sensational Deal Face Powder. Includes text: 'THIS CERTIFICATE IS WORTH $4.41', '59c', 'FREE!', 'WOODBURY'S SENSATIONAL DEAL WOODBURY'S FACE POWDER (Large Size) THIS CERTIFICATE IS WORTH $4.41', 'NOTICE TO AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS', 'In accordance with our agreement you are authorized to deliver Woodbury's Face Powder FREE with each purchase of Woodbury's Perfume, Woodbury's Lipstick and Woodbury's Cold Cream at 50c and this coupon.', 'Woodbury's Perfume $1.00 ALL FOR 59c', 'Woodbury's Lipstick .50', 'Woodbury's Powder .50', 'Woodbury's Cold Cream .50', 'Total Value $3.50 & this Advertisement', 'Mail Orders: If Extra. No Stamps or Checks Accepted. Note: These are Genuine Wm. A. Woodbury Products. LIMIT TWO SETS TO A CUSTOMER. COUPON NOT REDEEMABLE AFTER THIS SALE. THIS COUPON GOOD FOR SATURDAY ONLY.', 'ADD 6c FOR MAIL ORDERS', 'SPECIAL FACTORY SALE - SATURDAY, FEB. 6, 9 A. M. TO 9 P. M.', 'EFIRD'S'

INTERSTATE TRUSTEE CORPORATION, Trustee. Durham, N. C. Jan. 24-21-Feb 7-14-14w4wks.

WOMEN WHO ARE DEPRESSED YOUNG women who suffer from monthly pains, headache or side-ache and women of middle age who suffer from heat flashes, due to functional menstrual disturbances, need a tonic like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Read what Mrs. Nettie Butler of 1421-9th Ave. N., Nashville, Tenn., said: "I was not able to force myself to eat and had headaches and nervousness. It was not long after I started using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription that my appetite returned. I gained in weight and really felt just like a new girl."

J. E. WINSLOW COMPANY, Mortgage. 125 Elm St. Atty.

SALE OF VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon us in a deed of trust executed by B. B. Tetterton and wife, Margaret Hyson Tetterton on the 10th day of December, 1935, and recorded in Book F-20, page 529, we will on Saturday the 20th day of February, 1937, at 12 o'clock noon in Pitt County, Greenville, N. C., sell at public auction for cash to the highest bidder the following land, to-wit:

Beginning at a stake on the public road, the Southeast corner of lot or tract No. 3 of the C. M. Ross farm as plotted and recorded in map book 2, page 53, of Pitt County Registry, and running N. 59-00 E. 1160 ft.; thence N. 72-30 E. 1425 ft.; thence E. 2346 ft. to Grindie Creek; thence with Grindie Creek S. 15-00 E. 290 ft.; thence again S. 10-00 W. 320 ft.; thence again S. 3-30 W. 430 ft.; thence again E. 13-30 W. 210 ft.; thence again S. 32-30 W. 230 ft. to a corner of tract No. 1 of said division, C. M. Ross lands; thence W. 499 ft.; thence N. 64-30 W. 1118 ft.; thence N. 68-00 W. 279 ft.; thence N. 69-15 W. 755 ft.; thence N. 77-00 W. 237 ft.; thence N. 83-15 W. 300 ft.; thence S. 25-00 W. 1425 ft. to the public road; thence with the public road N. 41-00 W. 1269 ft.; thence N. 37 W. 40 ft. to the beginning, and containing 112.1 acres, more or less.

This land is sold subject to all unpaid taxes.

This sale is made by reason of the failure of B. B. Tetterton and wife, Margaret Hyson Tetterton, to pay off and discharge the indebtedness secured by said Deed of Trust.

A deposit of 10% will be required from the purchaser at the sale. This the 13th day of January.

Advertisement for Virginia & Florida Fruit Store. Includes text: 'Fresh Load of FRUITS AND VEGETABLES Will Arrive Tonight From Florida', 'Fresh Tender Snaps, Squash, New Potatoes, oranges, tangerines, grapefruit, etc.', 'VIRGINIA & FLORIDA FRUIT STORE (Old Greenville Cafe Bldg.)'

Advertisement for Jacob Ruppert Beer. Includes text: 'ALWAYS worth asking for... this rich, mellow, balanced flavor!... So be sure to order it by name', 'JACOB RUPPERT BEER', 'AMERICA'S FAVORITE', 'Jacob Ruppert, New York City'

Advertisement for Efrid's Dept. Store. Includes text: 'At Efrid's Dept. Store - Sat., Feb. 6 - One Day Only.', 'WOODBURY'S SENSATIONAL DEAL WOODBURY'S FACE POWDER (Large Size) THIS CERTIFICATE IS WORTH $4.41', 'NOTICE TO AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS', 'In accordance with our agreement you are authorized to deliver Woodbury's Face Powder FREE with each purchase of Woodbury's Perfume, Woodbury's Lipstick and Woodbury's Cold Cream at 50c and this coupon.', 'Woodbury's Perfume $1.00 ALL FOR 59c', 'Woodbury's Lipstick .50', 'Woodbury's Powder .50', 'Woodbury's Cold Cream .50', 'Total Value $3.50 & this Advertisement', 'Mail Orders: If Extra. No Stamps or Checks Accepted. Note: These are Genuine Wm. A. Woodbury Products. LIMIT TWO SETS TO A CUSTOMER. COUPON NOT REDEEMABLE AFTER THIS SALE. THIS COUPON GOOD FOR SATURDAY ONLY.', 'ADD 6c FOR MAIL ORDERS', 'SPECIAL FACTORY SALE - SATURDAY, FEB. 6, 9 A. M. TO 9 P. M.', 'EFIRD'S'

LEGISLATIVE CHAFF and CHATTER

Raleigh, Feb. 4.—Defeat of Tom Cooper's measure to give immunity to newspaper editors, reporters and workers by prohibiting any court from making them divulge their source of information was due, practically all observers agree, to the fact that it was a bit too wide in scope and inclusive in its terms. As a matter of fact it granted such blanket protection against almost any sort of investigation that many newspaper men regarded it as extremely unwise, although almost so strongly opposed and which was

Advertisement for Capudine. Includes text: 'Miss RIE LEE says Capudine relieves NEURALGIC PAIN quicker because it's liquid... ALREADY DISSOLVED'

Thursday, February 4, 1937

Social and Personal

Mrs. W. R. Jones is at home from Wilmington for a few days.

Mrs. Travis Hooker has returned from a South American tour.

Miss Louise Hooker returned to Baltimore today after spending several days with her parents.

Mrs. Susie Warren left today for Burlington where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. George Sharpe.

Miss Abiah Person of Wake Forest is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Person.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Johnson of Cattaraugus, N. Y. and Dr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Buffalo, N. Y. who have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. K. B. Pace, left this morning for Florida and Mexico.

Dr. and Mrs. James Brown, Jr. who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, have returned to their home in Baltimore.

Roy Hearne of Washington was a Greenville visitor today.

O. G. Rucker has returned from Maysville, Ky. where he has been on the tobacco market.

Tea for Mrs. Spilman The End of the Century club will entertain at a tea on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 4:30 at the home of Mrs. R. M. Garrett.

Birth Announcement Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Moore announce the birth of a daughter, Eleanor Delano, on Saturday, January 30, 1937.

Mrs. McLawhorn III Mrs. Charles McLawhorn of Winterville is in Kinston in Memorial General hospital for treatment.

Returns from Richmond Mrs. S. F. Thornton has returned from Richmond, Va. where she has been for the past week on account of the illness and death of R. W. Hammersley.

End of the Century Club The End of the Century club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. A. D. Frank on Tuesday afternoon at her home on East Eighth street.

An attractive assortment of Spring flowers decorated the living room. A large attendance of the club was present with the following visitors: Mesdames Woodard, Garris, Grant, Sugg, Harding and Guller.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of Miss Katherine Holtzclaw, Home Economics teacher of East Carolina Teachers College. In a very interesting and instructive manner she discussed "The Costumes of the Past and Present." Her talk was illustrated with dolls dressed in costumes of different countries and gave to her listeners a knowledge of the past, as some ideal always predominated in every age. She declared that no phase of life is so decisive as our dress.

Costumes were shown in keeping with war, social ideals and poverty stricken people of current happenings. She pointed out that whenever a country conquers another they never adopt their dress. In referring to the nobility, she told about the Elizabethan age, in which all classes followed. She then told of the decline of the royal costume. She said that the royal costume lost after the Revolution. It was then that women began to give up the full-trimmed skirts, the small waist line and the men their trousers with fancy buckles at the knee. This was followed with grave colors along simple lines with simple collars.

In talking about the Revolutionary war she said that all wars have an immoral reaction. She gave as an illustration Queen Victoria, whom she described as being very immoral at as it was reflected in the costumes of her day. She declared that morals change with the ages with each country having their own code of morals. In speaking of early American history she said that the people used the cheapest cotton materials, but later on imported costumes of great value were used.

She discussed socially, politically and economically the influence that the stage and screen has played on costumes of the present.

In closing she referred to Milton, who said, "The body is the shell of the soul, and the clothes the hull of the shell, but the husks often tell what the kernel is."

Following this delightful talk by Miss Holtzclaw, the hostess served tempting refreshments, being assisted by Mrs. R. J. Slay.—Reported.

MASONIC NOTICE Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. & A. M. will hold a special communication on Friday evening at 7:30. There will be work in the first degree.

T. I. MOORE W. M. N. R. JOYNER Sec.

Social Calendar

THURSDAY 7:45 P. M.—Piano Recital of Mrs. Charles A. White's pupils in Third Street School.

8:00 P. M.—Dr. Edith Larsen, of the Rockefeller Institute, will speak in the high school library.

8:00 P. M.—The Nurses' Council will meet with Mrs. Bruce Hooker.

FRIDAY 10:00 A. M.—Presbyterian Auxiliary program for Home Missions in the home of Mrs. R. C. Deal.

3:30 P. M.—The George B. Singletary Chapter of United Daughters of Confederacy will meet with Mrs. T. A. Person.

3:45 P. M.—The Junior Woman's Club will meet in the club house. Hostesses will be Miss Jane Hadley, Mrs. Ficklen Arthur and Mrs. Fred Haar.

SATURDAY 3:00 to 4:30—The End of the Century club will entertain at tea at the home of Mrs. R. M. Garrett, honoring Mrs. J. B. Spilman.

Mrs. Wooten Club Hostess Mrs. W. I. Wooten was gracious hostess to members of her bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on Elm street.

Following a tempting luncheon, bridge was played. Tables were placed in the drawing room in an attractive setting of Japanese quince and first breath of spring.

For high score Mrs. A. J. Moore was given a piece of pottery. Mrs. James Brown, Jr. of Baltimore, was remembered with a boutonniere. Mrs. F. E. Johnson of Cattaraugus, N. Y. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Buffalo, N. Y. with lovely handkerchiefs.

Troop 30 Boy Scouts Members will meet in the basement of the Methodist church tomorrow night for regular weekly meeting.

Gold Fish We have all kinds of Gold Fish for sale at Baker & Davis Home Co.—Adv. Wed.—Thurs.

Former Students Visit College Mrs. S. J. Wright, from Philippine Islands, who was Miss Gertrude Chamberlain one of the first two A. B. graduates, of East Carolina Teachers College, is spending the day visiting the College and old friends in the town.

She and Miss Virginia Pigford, who is now Mrs. E. H. Johnson, of Goldsboro, received their degrees at the close of the summer school in 1922, and were the first to complete the four-year course. They taught together in the Sanford schools and nine years ago went to the Philippines to teach. Both married Americans whose work was in the Philippines. Mr. and Mrs. Wright returned to the United States last fall, coming to California, and will probably make that their home. Mrs. Wright came east to visit her mother, who lives in Cheron, S. C., and her sister, in Sanford.

Rehearsal for Glee Club At the rehearsal of the men's glee club yesterday, it was evident that there were many of the voices of fine timber. Several of the members have been in high school glee clubs, so the director finds that he has something more than saw material to work with.

The deep basses were clear and resonant, the first basses sang as though much previous experience was theirs; the second tenors were getting better all the time, and the first tenors, while perhaps still finding it difficult to cling to the high notes, did well. The men have already achieved some proficiency in rendering three songs. The basses and tenors are almost evenly divided in numbers.

Approximately twenty-four men comprise the present college glee club, but Dean Teber is hopeful of increasing this number.

Little Theatre Players The hilarious comedy "She Stoops to Conquer" which will be presented tomorrow night by the Rocky Mount Little Theatre Players in the Austin building of the College at 8:30 o'clock, affords an excellent chance for outstanding character portrayal.

Tony Lumpkin, most enjoyable of all comic characters, the supposed dillard who is actually cunning and clever, is delightfully played by Cy Edson. One of the most entertaining characters in the play, Mr. Hardcastle, the pompous, boastful, vain, yet wholly lovable old country gentleman, is played by Leon Barton. Mr. Hastings, the companion of young Marlowe and co-perpetrator of the great hoax in the play, is ably portrayed by Samuel Whitehead.

Mrs. W. H. Skeels takes the part of Mrs. Hardcastle, the tighty, scatter-brained, yet loving mother. Mrs. Jameson Bunn Dowdy is an excellent Miss Hardcastle. The part of the companion of Miss Hardcastle, Constance Neville, is played with great finesse by Miss Claude Aycock. James Ediston has a double role, that of Stingo, the landlord, and also that of Sir Charles Marlowe. Miss Frances Walker plays well the part of the maid.

The famous eighteenth century comedy, which is enjoyed as much by audiences today as by those of a century and a half ago, struck a vigorous blow at the sentimental comedy then popular. In spite of the fact that the first manager predicted that the new comedy, by Oliver Goldsmith, would meet with ill success and the actors threw up their parts, it secured at once a triumphant success when it was finally presented in 1773 in London; and has been on the boards ever since, never failing to please audiences.

The Rocky Mount Players consider their production of this great play one of their greatest successes.

Forest Resources Study Being Made In North Carolina

Completion of Program in State Depends Upon Continuation Federal Conservation Funds

Raleigh, Feb. 3.—The entire University of North Carolina consolidation question is likely to be plumped right back into the general of the action of the board of trustees and its executive committee Saturday in upholding President Frank P. Graham and in continuing to give him virtual dictatorial authority over all of the units of the Greater University, at least as far as athletics are concerned.

For the State College alumni and the others who have been advocating complete home rule and autonomy for the State College and Women's College units of the University are not going to stop fighting and are now ready to back legislative action to abolish consolidation and restore State College and the Women's College as entirely separate units, with their own presidents and boards of trustees as they were prior to consolidation, it was evident here today.

This same group feels that it could have carried its motion in the board of trustees to at least get complete autonomy for athletics at Walter (Pete) Murphy of Salisbury, State College but for the motion of the Executive Committee with full power to settle it as it saw fit. The State College "home rule" group contends that the Murphy motion was out of order and should never have been put until after the motion pending at that time for the appointment of a special committee to report back to the board at a later date, has been put. Some of them also feel that Colonel J. W. Harrelson, administrative dean of State College, went back on them.

It is now conceded even by the most ardent "home rule" advocates and anti-Graham alumni that President Graham is back on top of the heap as far as the board of trustees is concerned and that it is a waste of effort to try to get any changes made or any concessions from the board. For in passing the entire athletic controversy as to who had authority to hire and fire coaches at State on to the executive committee, most observers believe the board knew it was passing it on to a committee overwhelmingly pro-Graham and that the committee would vote to do whatever President Graham wanted it to do.

The committee met almost immediately and adopted a motion made by Governor Clyde R. Hoey which in effect gave President Graham and Dean Harrelson authority to select a new coach if the State College Athletic Council failed within a week to select a coach which would meet with the approval of Graham and Harrelson. The athletic council is expected to meet tonight and go through the perfunctory process of approving a candidate for football coach which will be approved. If it fails to approve such a candidate, President Graham and Dean Harrelson will then have authority to select whoever they may want as coach.

The prevailing belief here is that regardless of the action taken by the athletic council, that the job of coach at State for next year will be offered to William (Doc) Newton, at present head football coach at Davidson College. It is known that Newton has agreed to "consider" the offer of the job at State, but that he has not yet said he will accept it if it is offered to him. At the meeting Saturday President Gra-

U. N. C. MUDDLE YET UNSOLVED

Consolidation Question Heads For Legislature

Raleigh, Feb. 3.—The entire University of North Carolina consolidation question is likely to be plumped right back into the general of the action of the board of trustees and its executive committee Saturday in upholding President Frank P. Graham and in continuing to give him virtual dictatorial authority over all of the units of the Greater University, at least as far as athletics are concerned.

For the State College alumni and the others who have been advocating complete home rule and autonomy for the State College and Women's College units of the University are not going to stop fighting and are now ready to back legislative action to abolish consolidation and restore State College and the Women's College as entirely separate units, with their own presidents and boards of trustees as they were prior to consolidation, it was evident here today.

This same group feels that it could have carried its motion in the board of trustees to at least get complete autonomy for athletics at Walter (Pete) Murphy of Salisbury, State College but for the motion of the Executive Committee with full power to settle it as it saw fit. The State College "home rule" group contends that the Murphy motion was out of order and should never have been put until after the motion pending at that time for the appointment of a special committee to report back to the board at a later date, has been put. Some of them also feel that Colonel J. W. Harrelson, administrative dean of State College, went back on them.

It is now conceded even by the most ardent "home rule" advocates and anti-Graham alumni that President Graham is back on top of the heap as far as the board of trustees is concerned and that it is a waste of effort to try to get any changes made or any concessions from the board. For in passing the entire athletic controversy as to who had authority to hire and fire coaches at State on to the executive committee, most observers believe the board knew it was passing it on to a committee overwhelmingly pro-Graham and that the committee would vote to do whatever President Graham wanted it to do.

The committee met almost immediately and adopted a motion made by Governor Clyde R. Hoey which in effect gave President Graham and Dean Harrelson authority to select a new coach if the State College Athletic Council failed within a week to select a coach which would meet with the approval of Graham and Harrelson. The athletic council is expected to meet tonight and go through the perfunctory process of approving a candidate for football coach which will be approved. If it fails to approve such a candidate, President Graham and Dean Harrelson will then have authority to select whoever they may want as coach.

The prevailing belief here is that regardless of the action taken by the athletic council, that the job of coach at State for next year will be offered to William (Doc) Newton, at present head football coach at Davidson College. It is known that Newton has agreed to "consider" the offer of the job at State, but that he has not yet said he will accept it if it is offered to him. At the meeting Saturday President Graham asked the board of trustees to approve the selection of Newton as coach, but the board decided that the selection of football coaches was not its business. It is conceded by everyone here now that Coach Hearley W. Anderson is now definitely gone, even if not yet forgotten, as far as State College football is concerned and that the new head football coach to take Hunk's place will be selected within the next few days, possibly at the athletic council meeting tonight.

A good many State alumni, however, especially those belonging to the Hunk Anderson - Dave Clark group, are determined not to let the matter drop but to carry it right into the general assembly. Dave Clark announced here Saturday that he was going to carry his fight into the courts as well. In that he was still convinced that President Graham had exceeded his authority in overruling the election of Anderson as coach for another year.

The anti-Anderson faction of alumni, students and faculty members, however, are much pleased with the action that was taken, feel that it would have been very unfortunate if the trustees had permitted Anderson to remain another year. They are also much pleased with the possibility that Doc Newton may become the State football coach and feel he can make good.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

WE GUARANTEE WATCH REPAIRING - JEWELRY REPAIRING Engraving - Resizable Pairs LAUTARES Chest Colds Yield quicker to the Potent Vapo-action of VICKS VapoRub

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook

By Preston Crover

Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress.

Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

Washington Daybook By Preston Crover Washington - Before another day passes we must let you in on some of the important legislation before this congress. Take, for instance, the matter of barbers. Rep. James L. Quinn of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill to license Washington barbers, require special training and a thousand hours of experience in apprenticeship.

Could that have happened to Mr. Quinn and be the explanation of his bill's stern words? Rep. Malcolm Tarver of Georgia has introduced a bill to require anyone transporting guns interstate to get a permit from G-man Hoover. That includes duck guns as well as "tommy" guns but it is intended primarily to trap criminals who forever are carrying guns back and forth across state lines. Just so sportsmen would not be horribly outraged by such a measure, the bill would authorize Hoover to exempt them from too much regulation.

Casimir Pulaski was one of those dashing European officers who lent military skill and social prestige to the American revolution. A Polish noble, he attempted to capture King Augustus in 1778 without success and soon was Philadelphia - bound minus his estates. He fought two years in the American revolution as a general, dying of wounds at Savannah, Ga., October 11, 1779.

Pulaski associations and individuals have memorialized state legislatures and congress for years to have October 11 set aside as a holiday. President Roosevelt vetoed one such bill in 1934 with the explanation that many generals from abroad helped as much as Pulaski

LISTEN!

Everyone Is Talking About It

Many Greenville citizens have turned a new financial leaf this month by joining the Installment Thrift Plan. These people are experiencing something that they have always heard . . . the ease and convenience of saving by use of this plan. They conveniently set aside a certain amount each week or month knowing that their money will be safe and will yield substantial dividends. Come by our office and let us go over the plan best suited to your particular needs.

BOOKS FOR OUR 85th SERIES ARE NOW OPEN!

Home Building & Loan Association

PHONE 49 ESTABLISHED 1906 403 EVANS STREET GREENVILLE, N. C.

PIRATES SHOW IMPROVEMENT

Local Teachers To Meet A. C. C. Team Here Tonight

Showing steady improvement as the season goes along, E. C. T. C. Pirates beat Guilford College on Tuesday night, 31-20, who on the previous Friday night had topped them 44-36.

Thursday night A. C. C. comes to town with the strongest aggregation that has ever represented the school. Their only defeat of the season was at the hands of N. C. State, who are among the pace-setters of the Southern Conference. Boasting of an array of stars, led by their tall center, Dawson, they have set aside Guilford, Lynchburg and other strong opponents.

Two weeks ago they defeated E. C. T. C. in Wilson by the tune of 42-28 and will be seeking their second conquest over the locals. Led by Shelton, a real sharp-shooting forward, and Ridenhour, a steady guard, the home club will endeavor to turn the tables on them as they did against Guilford Tuesday night.

The Pirates will go into the game as underdogs but with a spirit of revenge and renewed confidence that will make them dangerous opponents. The Bulldogs from Wilson will have to be in top shape and then they will have their hands full to be able to go back with a victory.

The 25-piece band from A. C. C. will be here to aid the cause of their team.

Carolina Sales Team Wins Bowling Match

The Carolina Sales bowling team defeated the Blount-Harvey team 1688 to 1601 in a match at the Automatic alleys last night.

Vincent of the losing team made the highest score of the match, 455. He was paced by B. Cox of the winning team with 449.

The score card follows:

Carolina Sales
B. Cox	154-144-151-449
Journey	80-114-124-318
Campbell	136-157-126-419
Whitescarver	118-133-108-359
Burnette	102-111-130-343
Total	1888
Blount Harvey Co.
Proctor	96-96-98-290
Pillar	75-99-78-252
Vincent	149-181-125-455
Stanclil	97-87-112-290
Barrett	92-118-104-314
Total	1601

CONCORD MAN OFFERED POST

W. M. Sherrill Expected to Succeed Mrs. May Evans

Reflector Bureau Raleigh, Feb. 2. — William M. Sherrill, of Concord, editor of The Concord Tribune, is expected to accept the appointment which has already been offered to him by Governor Clyde R. Hoey and the Unemployment Compensation Commission as Director of the State Unemployment Service, although no official announcement of Sherrill's appointment has been made as yet.

But Sherrill is here today conferring with Governor Hoey and Chairman Charles G. Powell of the Unemployment Compensation Commission and before the day is over Sherrill is expected to have accepted the post. He will succeed Mrs. Mae Thompson Evans who has just resigned to accept a post with the National Democratic Committee as assistant director of the women's division.

Although the appointment of Sherrill as director of the Unemployment Service is not occasioning much surprise, since it has been known in confidential circles for some time that Governor Hoey has been seeking a post for Sherrill here, it is regarded as significant in that most observers regard the appointment as having been made almost directly by Governor Hoey rather than by Chairman Powell of the Unemployment Compensation Commission.

HEATED CAMPAIGN IS BEING FOR TWO JUSTICE POSTS

(Continued from page one) I'm hoping that political lightning may strike in his back yard and knock him clear into the Supreme court.

All in all, it's a great fight — to watch from the sidelines.

The Pitt county Bar association has unanimously endorsed Judge Albion Dunn for a position on the Supreme court and the Greenville lawyer has backing in other eastern counties.

While Judge Dunn has not made any statement regarding his desire for the position, it is known that he would welcome being named to a post considered the highest in his profession.

Richmond Livestock

(Courtesy J. N. and J. L. Williams)
Livestock market hog receipts fairly liberal market at $9.75 top for choice 190-250 lbs corn fed butcher stock. Vealers more plentiful market steady to $11.00 top for choice and select. Cows steady $3 to $5.50. Bulls $3 to $6. Heifers $5 to $7.50. Common and medium steers $5.50 to $8. Good steers with finish to $9. Sheep nominal steady cows $2 to $4.50. Lambs $7 to $10 as to quality. Vealers closed weak, late bids sales at $10.50 for some offerings.
Weather cloudy, temperature 32

Chicago Grain Market

(Courtesy Vernon Parrish)
Open Close Prev. 41

WHEAT:
May	132 1/4	130 3/4	131 1/4
July	115	113 7/8	114 1/2
Sept.	111 5/8	110 1/4	111
CORN:
May	108 1/8	106 5/8	107 1/2
July	112 1/8	109 1/2	101 5/8
Sept.	96 1/8	94 1/4	95 5/8
OATS:
May	51 1/4	49 7/8	50 7/8
July	45 1/8	44	45
Sept.	42 1/2	41 1/8	42 1/4
RYE:
May	111 7/8	109 7/8	111 5/8
July	102	100 3/8	101 1/2

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Feb. 4. — (AP) — Specialties pushed to the fore in today's market, but many of the leaders, after posting new recovery prices, met sufficient resistance to reduce or cancel early improvements of fractions to two points.

The activity, pronounced at the start, dwindled near the fourth hour.

Bonds were quiet and narrow. Major commodities pointed upward.

N. Y. STOCK LIST

2:00 P. M. QUOTATIONS

American Radiator 29 1/4	American Telephone 153 7/8
American Tobacco 99 3/4	Atlantic Coast Line 49 1/4
Atlantic Refining 34 3/4	Bendix Aviation 27 7/8
Bethlehem Steel 84 1/2	Chrysler 129 5/8
Columbia Gas and Elec. 17 7/8	Commercial Solvent 20 1/8
Continental Oil 17	Dupont 173 1/4
Elec Power and Lite 23 3/8	General Electric 63

General Motors 68 3/8
Liggett Myers 113 1/4
Montgomery Ward 58 5/8
Southern Railway 30 3/4
Standard Oil 71 5/8

(Courtesy of E. A. Pierce & Co. Wilson, N. C. Phone 313)

Otis Steel 19 1/8
Western Union 78
Radio 11 5/8
3 mmons 55 1/4
Standard Bands 16
Packard 11 3/4
International Telephone 12 5/8
Anaconda 55 5/8
U. S. Steel 99
Reynolds 56 3/4
White Motors 29 1/4
Faxes Gulf Sulphur 42
Lorillard 26 3/8
Texa: Corporation 58 1/2
Coca Cola 135
United Corp. 7 1/4
Elec. Bond and Share 25 3/8
American Radiator 29
Packard 11 3/4
Ford Limited 8 1/8
Comm. Solvent 20
Consolidated Oil 16 3/4
Nas: Kelvinator 23 3/8
U. S. Realty Imp 17
Allied Stores 18 1/4
Warner Pictures 15 1/4
Calumet Hecker 18 1/4

New York Cotton

New York, Feb. 4. — (AP) — Cotton futures opened steady, two to seven points advance on higher Liverpool cables and trade and commission house buying.

May sold off 12 1/2 to 12 1/4 and prices generally at the end of the first half hour were two to three points net higher.

May eased to 12 5/8 with the general markets selling off to net losses of two to six points by midday.

(Courtesy of E. A. Pierce & Co. Wilson, N. C. Phone 313)

Mch.	12.83	12.75	12.80
May	12.65	12.59	12.62
July	12.50	12.43	12.45
Oct.	11.90	11.83	11.88
Dec.	11.85	11.80	11.83
Jan.	11.85	11.79

Dad and Son Students Reading, Pa. (AP) — Edward W. ater, 21, is a pre-medical student at Albright college.

One of his fellow students is Dr. Joseph A. Winter, his father, who takes a few courses in his spare time.

Winter, Sr., said, "It's never too late to learn something."

Kansas is the nation's leading wheat producing state.

JUNIOR HIGHS TO PLAY HERE

Quint to Meet Durham Team 7:30 Tomorrow Night

Playing their first home game the Junior High School basketball team will tangle with the Durham Junior team tomorrow night at 7:30 in the local gym.

The two teams met in Durham two weeks ago and the Bull City quint won by a score of 44 to 10, but Coach Leroy Bloomingdale stated that the locals have improved greatly and are expected to bring the Durham quint under control.

The locals have some promising players who probably will be of varsity calibre during the next few years.

After the Junior game the Class B. varsity men will have a game with the Stokes High School team.

WANTS

Rates—1 1/2¢ per word (minimum charge 35¢ for 25 words) one insertion. Three insertions $1.00; six insertions $1.85; month $7.00. Indented lines known as classified display; or larger than regular size type, double price.

Other than to business houses having regular accounts with us no want ads will be charged. Send or bring cash with order. To prevent errors, want ads will not be taken over the telephone.

POULTRY AND EGGS WANTED: Highest cash prices paid at all times. Pitt Poultry Co., near A.C.L. Station. 12 1mo

SHRUBS — CAMELIA JAPONICA, azaleas in full bloom, boxwoods, pink dogwood and many other kinds. Call from 3 to 4 p. m. Mrs. M. L. Wright. 2 2t

WE HAVE INSTALLED EQUIPMENT for cutting and edging any kind of glass, such as automobile window glass, mirrors, table and dresser tops, and all window glass and plate glass. Call us for prices. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions. Ot-1f

OUR STOCK OF HEATERS ARE still complete, all sizes. Wood Heaters, Coal Heaters, Heatrolas, Oil Heaters, Portable Electrical Heaters. Priced right. HOME FURNITURE STORE. 3-11

SPECIAL FOR FRIDAY, CHOCOLATE Cup Cakes and Lemon Pies. People's Bakery.

LET US QUOTE YOU PRICES ON genuine Peruvian Fertilizers. Save money by buying early. Can deliver your Peruvian fertilizers from our warehouse at any time. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions. 1f

PHONE 30 OR 619 If It's Laundry or Dry Cleaning. The Old Reliable—We Know How! RAINBOW CLEANERS

JUST RECEIVED—SHIPMENT OF Cephovite, Spirea, Japonica and Nandina. White's Stores, Inc. 3-2t

OUR STOCK OF HEATERS ARE still complete, all sizes. Wood Heaters, Coal Heaters, Heatrolas, Oil Heaters, Portable Electrical Heaters. Priced right. HOME FURNITURE STORE. 3-11

DISC HARROWS. OLIVER Plows, Poultry Wire, Garden Seed, Paint and everything in the hardware line. Baker & Davis Hdwe. Co. Phone 32. f3 1mo

ROOMS FOR RENT: GENTLEMEN preferred. Steam heat and hot water in room. Garage for rent also. Phone 232W. Mrs. L. B. Tucker, 914 Evans St. 29 6t

WHEN A COLD STRIKES STRIKE BACK WITH A ANDO THE ORIGINAL LIQUID—DIFFERENT! IT WORKS Your Guarantee! SATISFACTION OR YOUR 25¢ BACK

OUR STOCK OF HEATERS ARE still complete, all sizes. Wood Heaters, Coal Heaters, Heatrolas, Oil Heaters, Portable Electrical Heaters. Priced right. HOME FURNITURE STORE. 3-11

BABY CHICKS: PLACE YOUR order early for quality chicks. All blood-tested and from State-approved hatcheries. We will have chicks each week. Pitt FCX Service. 10 1f

CLEANING and PRESSING The Correct Kind Work Guaranteed—Called for and Delivered. CAROLINA DRY CLEANERS Dickinson Ave. Phone 176

PERMANENT WAVES $3.50 to $10.00. We use first quality materials. Why not lock your best? We specialize in treatments of all facial, skin and scalp diseases. Phone 798. Cinderella Beauty Parlor, over Key Brown Drug Company.

PLUMBING AND HEATING State License No. 245. Fairbanks-Morse coal stokers and water systems. C. L. RUSS Shop 314 Evans St., business phone 636, Greenville, N. C. Residence phone 362J. 29 1f

FRESH POTATO CHIPS DAILY at Peoples' Bakery.

TODAY - FRIDAY

She Stunned a Nation... By Marrying the Greatest Scoundrel of His Time! KAY FRANCIS in "STOLEN HOLIDAY" with Claude RAINS and Ian HUNTER Also Clyde Lucas and Orchestra. PITT Paramount News

FOR RENT — FOUR ROOM apartment unfurnished. Miss Lill B. Wilson, 129 7th St. 1tp

USE MORE BENJAMIN MOORE paint. Let us quote you our low prices on paint brushes, white lead, linseed oil, turpentine and other paint supplies. J. A. Watson, Seeds-Feeds-Provisions. 1f

CAMELIA JAPONICA 50¢ EACH Greenville Floral Co. 4 1wk

OUR STOCK OF HEATERS ARE still complete, all sizes. Wood Heaters, Coal Heaters, Heatrolas, Oil Heaters, Portable Electrical Heaters. Priced right. HOME FURNITURE STORE. 3-11

GOLD FISH FOR SALE GREENVILLE Floral Co. 4 1wk

FOR SALE — PURE GEORGIA Cane Syrup-Molasses in cans and barrels at whole. W. H. Davis, 329 McDonough St., Savannah, Ga. 4

HAVE CABBAGE PLANTS, ONION sets, and seed garden peas. It is time to plant now. J. A. Watson, Seeds-Feeds-Provisions. 1f

ANTIQUES FROM VIRGINIA Estates for sale at Episcopal Parish House Saturday, February 6, from 9 A. M. until 6 P. M. Large display. Prices reasonable. 3-3ts

OUR STOCK OF HEATERS ARE still complete, all sizes. Wood Heaters, Coal Heaters, Heatrolas, Oil Heaters, Portable Electrical Heaters. Priced right. HOME FURNITURE STORE. 3-11

LADIES—

Bowling is recognized as one of the most Healthful Exercises yet found. In order that you may bowl — our price to ladies is 5¢ per game until 7 P. M.

Automatic Recreation

FRIDAY - SATURDAY A Western that Volleys Its Punches with Machine-Gun Speed! Starring The Ace of All Screen Riders! —Also— "DARKEST AFRICA" and Comedy

Today — "KING OF HOCKEY" with Dick Purcell

Herbert Marshall says: "...a light smoke is a joy to the throat"

"Before I came over to this country an English cigarette appealed to me because it was firmly packed. In America I tried various popular brands looking for the same virtue. Lucky Strike led all the rest. And what's more—I soon discovered that Luckies were a light smoke and a positive joy to the throat."

Herbert Marshall
HERBERT MARSHALL
FAMOUS RKO-RADIO PICTURES' STAR

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Mr. Marshall verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen, and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat!

A Light Smoke "It's Toasted"—Your Throat Protection

AGAINST IRRITATION—AGAINST COUGH

THE FINEST TOBACCOS— "THE CREAM OF THE CROP"

Like Sleeping on a Huge Downfilled Pillow

PIL O' REST By Karpen

The Luxury of A PILLOW TOP attached to a Karpen Inner-spring Mattress

Nationally Sold at $39.50 Box Spring same price

Downy Comfort With Perfect Body Support

When you stretch your full length on a Karpen Pil o' Rest you revel in a sense of well-being. No effort to hold yourself in a comfortable position. Just let down and the fluffy pillow-top—attached to the inner-spring mattress in large downy tufts—conforms to the body and supports it perfectly from head to foot. No sagging softness to strain the muscles... just supreme comfort.

You Never Slept on a Mattress Like It!

Star Points Of Superiority . . .

- Luxurious pillow-top filled with extra fine quality layer felt.
- Mattress made in muslin before pillow-top is attached.
- Insulated with interlaced sisal pad above spring unit.
- Abundant layers of felted cotton specially garnetted to prevent lumping.
- Karpen patented hinged type inner-spring unit encased in muslin slip. (The finest made, we believe.)
- Coils scientifically retempered and interlocked with helical springs.
- Spring unit built to edge of mattress to prevent side packing.
- Imported woven striped damask in pastel colors. Stitched in square tufts to prevent stretching. Stitched pre-built border, embroidered eyelets, screen ventilators and handles.

QUINN-MILLER & CO.

Exclusive distributors for Karpen furniture and mattress in Greenville and Pitt County
GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA