NEW DISPUTES BREAK OUT ON LABOR FRONTS

Overshadow Elation Over Pacts With Steel Industries

40,000 WORKERS SAID TO BE IDLE

Gains Made by John Lewis Group Fail to Heal Breach With A. F. of L. Officials

New strikes and outbreaks of violence in old ones emphasized today the prevalence of industrial disputes, almost forgotten in the jubilation over organized labor's contacts with the steel industry.

Upwards of 40,000 workers were idle in disputes affecting a half-hundred business and industrial firms.

While strikers and employers sought compromises, leaders of the C. I. O. viewed with satisfaction its contract with the Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation and mapped plans for the eventual unionization of all industrial workers in the nation.

Supporters of John Lewis, dominant figure on in the C. I. O., said the drive in the steel industry would be extended to the oil, automotive and textile industries. C. I. O. units sought recognition as the sole bargaining agencies for Chrysler Motor corporation and General Electric corporation employees. A shoe union war was projected by the New England C. I. O. council.

C. I. O. gains did not heal its breach with the American Federation of Labor, President William Green said the Federation would not tolerate extension of support to a dual and rival organization.

Several additional steel firms announced higher wages.

A sit-down strike of 6,000 night shift workers halted operations at a Detroit plant of the Briggs corporation, builders of car bodies. A union official said the strike was in protest against a speed-up of the assembly line "beyond human endurance."

Two drivers were beaten and two trucks were burned by 2,000 striking Rhode Island truck drivers who struck for a closed shop, 48-hour week and wage increases.

Edenton Assembly Expected Be Held During Next Week

Exact Date of One-Day Legislative Session in Former Capital is Yet to Be Selected

Reflector Bureau, Raleigh, Mar. 4.—The exact date on which the general assembly will go to Edenton for its one day session in the state's former capital has not yet been definitely determined, but it is now expected that it will go to Edenton some time next week, between Tuesday and Friday.

It has already been definitely decided that the assembly will not meet in Edenton over any weekend, since it was agreed that it would be impossible to get anything like a full attendance of the membership, due to the usual long week ends taken by most of the members.

The Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the house have agreed to hold a conference Friday and at the time set the date for the meeting in Edenton. Representative John Fernando White of Chowan county and Edenton, said today. "Indications are, however, that the date selected will come along in the middle of next week since most of the members of both houses seem to agree that it will be better to make this trip in the middle of the week rather than at the weekend."

No decision has been reached as yet as to whether the members will make the trip in buses or by train, although indications point strongly towards the use of buses, since one of the large bus transportation companies here has offered to provide buses for the trip without any cost to the members, provided the trip is made during the middle of the week instead of over the weekend. It is understood that this bus company has agreed to supply as many buses as may be needed provided the trip is made on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday of any week.

The Norfolk Southern railroad offered to run a special train from Raleigh to Edenton, with luxurious chair cars and parlor cars for the legislators, at a cost of only $4 for the round trip. Regulations prevent its carrying the legislators free. Accordingly, the betting is now on the buses.

TO BE HONORED HERE TONIGHT

President Roosevelt and his two main chiefs, Vice-President Garner and James A. Farley, will be praised at "Victory Dinners" to be held at Express dining rooms tonight at 7 o'clock. J. H. Rose, chairman of the local committee, said he expected a large crowd to be on hand to sing the praises of the chief executive. W. T. (Tom) Bost of Raleigh will deliver the principal address here.

BRITAIN'S MODERNIZED ARMY PLANS RECORD EXPENDITURES

SECOND CHILD IS FOUND DEAD

Morvan Case Solved, Authorities Probe Another Slaying

New York, Mar. 4.—(AP)—Murder by rape was the conclusion written by police today on the sordid death of four-year-old Joan Morvan, but by coincidence New York authorities were confronted with the unsolved and violent death of another child, a boy 15 months old.

Within a period of three days the two children died, the Morvan from injuries inflicted, the state charged, by Howard Magnussen, 36, candy maker.

But the death of Gordon Keith, Jr., an infant in arms, Bronx officialdom knew little Louis Lefkowitz, a medical examiner, reported the boy, a son of Mrs. Catherine Keith, a waitress employed in Manhattan, had succumbed yesterday to a fractured skull, a brain injury and severe contusions of the arms, legs and abdomen.

How and when the injuries were suffered no one professed to know.

Postpone Inquest Into Death Woman Pending Autopsy

Authorities Investigating Cause of Death of Woman Accused of Slaying Her Husband

Salisbury, Md., Mar. 4.—(AP)—The coroner's inquest into the death of Mrs. Jeannette Trader, accused husband slayer, was postponed today until reports are available on the autopsy, expected to give the jury scientific information on causes of the widow's death.

Because autopsy reports will not be finished for at least a week, the possibility today's session of the inquest would be merely a perfunctory session loomed as the jury was scheduled to meet at 10 a. m. Postponement followed shortly afterward.

In recent years Virginia has supplied from 30 to 50 per cent of the apple crop exported from this country.

Anti-Slot Machine Bill Considered All-Inclusive

Reflector Bureau, Raleigh, Mar. 4.—The anti-slot machine bill the Senate adopted Wednesday was the most rigid ever presented to the General Assembly.

The Senators did it without a record vote, but over the vigorous objection of Senator Wall C. Ewing, from Cumberland the so-called "Slot Machine Capital" of North Carolina.

Sum Sought Almost Half Again as Much For Last Year

London, Mar. 4.—(AP)—Britain's "mechanized and modernized" army told parliament today an estimated expenditure for 1937 "in defense of the empire and discharge of international obligations" would total $410,870,000, almost half again as much as for 1936.

With yesterday's 1937 naval estimate of $525,325,000, the total army and navy figures comprise the biggest armaments bill Great Britain ever has known in times of peace—$986,195,000. The air force estimates are still to come.

Alfred Cooper, secretary of state for war, told the House of Commons $95,270,000 of the $131,465,000 increase over the 1936 expenditures would be raised by loans, leaving $315,600,000 as the official estimate for the budget.

The army personnel, he said in discussing the army's share of Great Britain's greatest peacetime rearmament program, would be increased to $168,900, exclusive of units in India, as compared with $158,400 in 1936 and $186,400 in 1934.

The increased expenditure, he expaled, was due mainly to "expansion and acceleration of the program for bringing our military preparations up to date."

Pitt County Farmer Dies of Pneumonia

John Witherington, 65, died at 11 o'clock last night at his home in the Juniper Chapel community, near Vanceboro, following an illness of two weeks with pneumonia.

Funeral services were conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the late home by Rev. Alonzo Dail, pastor of Juniper Chapel Free Will Baptist church. Burial was in the Morris family cemetery.

Mr. Witherington was a farmer and spent his entire life in the Juniper Chapel community. He is survived by two brothers, Charlie S. and Mack Worthington; and two sisters, Miss Polly Worthington and Mrs. Sallie Morris, all of the Juniper Chapel community.

They Surprised Folks, Durant, Okla. (AP)—Mrs. T. A. Hill, 70, and W. S. Jones, 71, "just slipped off" from their homes in Caddo recently and were quietly married here. "We wanted to surprise everyone," they said.

that eastern Senators had established the local option principle in enactment of the county option liquor law and should permit the Stokes board of county commissioners discretion in the matter of banning slot machines.

Senator Flanagan's bill is all-inclusive and will be a complete ban on any sort of gambling device, its sponsor believes. In unmistakable language it forbids the manufacture, sale, lease, possession, etc. of any and all sorts of slot machines which can be by any stretch of imagination be termed gambling devices. It would exempt only those machines which automatically deliver the same packages of merchandise every time a coin is inserted (automatic vending machines for cigarettes, chewing gum, stamps, etc.) and machines which play any form of music or show pictures.

At present superior court judges differ as to the interpretation of the state's slot machine law. There will be no difference possible if the Flanagan bill passes, the House.

REBELS SLAIN BY EXPLOSION

Dynamite Used in Effort Break Spanish Deadlock

Madrid, Mar. 4.—(AP)—Human moles burrowed under the University City's no man's land today, carrying dynamite with which to break the deadlock of weeks of fighting.

Insurgents have made repeated subterranean thrusts at the government positions in the clinic hospital on the northwestern outskirts of Madrid and the government defenders have laid protective mines.

A government mine was exploded last night, plunging the sector into another spasm of intensive fighting—each side thought it was a signal for attack by the other.

The insurgents apparently were digging a new tunnel toward the hospital when they hit a protective mine laid several weeks ago by government troops. The explosion ripped apart a small section of the building. Several insurgents were reported killed.

Capital Over-run By Lobbyists For Various Railroads

Mass Lobby Descends on Raleigh To Induce Legislators to Vote Against Pipe Line Bill

Reflector Bureau, Raleigh, Mar. 4.—An observer who knows his railroad men when he sees them would have thought Wednesday that a convention of every branch of the rail service was being held in Raleigh.

The observer would have been wrong. It was just the "mass" lobby brought into the capital to impress legislators and induce them to vote against a bill giving the power of eminent domain for the purpose of running pipe lines for the distribution of petroleum products.

The measure was on the Senate calendar, but was not reached before tired legislators called it a day and adjourned.

From the looks of things the railroads must have run special trains to bring in all their benchmen, though closer investigation might have revealed that many of them came in private automobiles and some even road the anathema of all good railroad men—the buses.

There were executives, clerks, auditors, passenger agents, freight agents, engineers, firemen, trainmen and even yard brakemen. The only category not represented, it seemed, were the Pullman porters; not one of whom was observable.

It grows more and more evident daily that the railroads are dead set and determined to defeat the pipe line bill if such a thing is humanly possible. Their contention is that construction of the pipe lines will make it necessary for them to reduce their number of employees.

Advocates of pipe line construction, on the other hand, assert that the newer method of distribution is cheaper to the consumer, more efficient, more economical and, in short, is nothing but the natural result of progress toward better methods in transportation of these products.

FINAL PASSAGE DUE FRIDAY ON PENSIONS BILL

House Passes Measure on Second Reading by 84-2 Vote

CHILD HELP IS PROVIDED IN ACT

Senate Committee Frowns on Administration-Backed Constitutional Changes

Raleigh, Mar. 4.—(AP)—The house approved on second reading, 84 to 2, today the senate-passed old age and child assistance special security bill.

The measure must pass final house reading tomorrow or later and go back to the senate for concurrence in amendments.

At an afternoon meeting, the senate committee on constitutional amendments unanimously reported unfavorably the administration-backed bill introduced Monday night to submit four constitutional amendments which would:

Give the governor veto power; prohibit special and local laws; provide a new state education board; and prohibit legislators from taking jobs they helped create.

A "without prejudice" report was given the Senate bill to submit an amendment to abolish capital punishment.

The house, 65 to 42, refused to adopt the Ward substitute, previously rejected in committee, to eliminate county contributions and reduce benefits, and then debated the senate-passed proposal.

Senators argued over religious freedom in discussing a measure to require inoculation of every child in the state against diphtheria and then killed the bill after amending to exempt religious objectors.

Representative Ward of Craven told the house he believed the social security program "will break the state and nation unless the trucks are put on."

Senator Separk of Gaston sent in a measure to prohibit liquor advertising in magazines and newspapers published in North Carolina and ban them from signboards.

In quick order more than 70 bills were passed by the two divisions, most of them local in nature.

Anderson Final Rites Held On Wednesday

A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral yesterday afternoon of James L. Anderson, well-known Greenville man, who died Tuesday morning from a heart attack suffered Monday night.

The rites were conducted at the home of his sister, Mrs. Luther Ausborn, by Rev. T. M. Grant, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church. Assisting in the services was Rev. W. A. Ryan, pastor of Eighth Street Christian church. Burial was in Cherry Hill cemetery.

Mr. Anderson was born and reared in this community. He is survived by three sisters, several nieces and nephews and one aunt.

MAYOR'S TALK CALENDAR SET ROUSES NAZIS FOR BIG COURT

German Embassy in Protest Against LaGuardia Speech

Washington, Mar. 4.—(AP)—The German embassy protested to the state department today against a speech made in New York yesterday by Mayor P. H. LaGuardia in which he was quoted as referring to Hitler.

LaGuardia was quoted as having suggested at a luncheon of the women's division of the American Jewish congress that the 1939 New York world fair have a "chamber of horrors" in which a European political figure, which he described as a "brown-shirted fanatic" would be the chief exhibit.

Legislative Vote To Pardon Mooney Attracts Interest

Rules Committee of California Assembly Recommends Prisoner Be Exonerated of Bombing

Sacramento, Calif., Mar. 4.—(AP)—A state legislative committee vote to give Thomas Mooney a pardon and a new avenue today of peace to the man who was convicted of the 1916 parade bombing in San Francisco.

The action by the California Assembly's Rules Committee, recommending passage of a pardon resolution shipped immediate news from Mooney's room to light to exonerate.

He has a habeas corpus petition pending he was convicted through perjury now is before the state supreme court on recommendation of Referee A. E. Shaw that it be denied.

Proposed Bill Requires Permit To Obtain Liquor

Reflector Bureau, Raleigh, Mar. 4.—A bill to require each person in North Carolina who buys or desires to buy legal liquor in any legal liquor store in the state to first purchase a liquor permit and to present this permit whenever purchasing liquor, has been prepared and may be introduced any day now. It was learned today. The enactment of this bill is being advocated both as a temperance and revenue measure by former Representative Billy Sullivan of Asheville, Buncombe county.

The permit system is required in Canada, also in several foreign countries, such as Norway, Sweden and Finland. In order to obtain one of these permits to purchase liquor, an individual must prove a good character and the absence of any police record. Upon conviction of drunkenness, drunken driving or the participation in any crime or felony, the permit is revoked. In Canada and the countries which use the permit system, it has aided greatly in bringing about sobriety and temperance, since those who have permits know that if they are arrested for drunkenness or any other violation of the law, they will lose their permits to purchase liquor. The permit cards are regarded by many as testimonial of good character and are highly prized by those who are able to get them.

It is not known yet just what restrictions would be put into effect by the proposed bill, but those favorable to it maintain it would make it impossible for habitual drunks, known crooks and underworld characters to buy liquor. It is also pointed out that if these permits should be sold at $1 each, as is proposed, they should yield at least $1,000,000 a year in revenue. The bill would allot half of this revenue to the counties, leave the other half to the state.

Many doubt, however, if the bill will pass since a large number contend that all the permit system would accomplish would be to drive those who could not get permits to become customers of bootleggers, and that it would thus help the bootleggers.

SENATE HEARS '36 CAMPAIGN COST BIG SUM

Committee Reports Battle Most Expensive in History

BODY SUGGESTS STRICTER LAWS

President Roosevelt To Be on Air From 10:30 to 11 O'clock (EST) Tonight

Washington, Mar. 4.—(AP)—The senate heard today the 1936 presidential campaign was the most expensive in history.

From its campaign expenditures committee learned the reported cost of the big political fight, centered around President Roosevelt and Republican nominee, Alf M. Landon was $23,973,329.

The figure included the expenses of a variety of independent organizations, as well as those of major parties.

With its report on cost the committee submitted an estimate that the whole outlay for the election may have run to $48,000,000. It also proposed a drastic tightening of election laws.

President Roosevelt rounded out his fourth full year in office with a light schedule of engagements which allowed him to prepare during the afternoon a speech he is to deliver tonight to Democratic "victory" dinners.

On the air between 10:30 and 11 p. m. (EST) the President is expected to take up some of the nation's major problems, but to refer chiefly to the Supreme court issue.

Chairman Wheeler (D. Mont.) of the senate railroad finance committee asserted J. E. Morgan and company "looted around" financing of the Van Van Sweringen rail and industrial interest among New York banks. The Morgan firm supervised the underwriting of $516,000,000 worth of Van Sweringen securities.

The anniversary of Roosevelt's emergency - keyed first inauguration found Democratic leaders working to make permanent the new policies developed during the first four years.

Senator Pittman's "peace act of 1937" received the senate's endorsement 62 to 6.

House members prepared meanwhile to debate the $526,000,000 navy appropriations bill.

Citizens Of Wake Should Visit Pitt To Praise Leader

Officials of Greenville and Farmville Victory Dinners to Ask Any Anti-New Deal Speakers

R. C. Deal, of the College faculty, who is to be the guest speaker at the Victory Dinner in Farmville tonight, in a telephone talk this morning after he had seen the Raleigh paper notified the chairman of the dinner committee that if they wanted an anti-New Deal speech like that of Senator Tydings at the Raleigh dinner they most emphatically would not get it. He was assured they wanted a New Deal speech. Mr. Deal in turn assured them he would be there tonight and have Mrs. Deal with him.

J. H. Rose, chairman in charge of the dinner here, said this morning he would have a good "bouncer" on hand to remove any person who attempts to criticize the president. "This is a victory dinner and no time for criticisms and none will be permitted," declared the chairman.

An account of the Raleigh dinner held last night, says that Roosevelt was barely mentioned and the meeting appeared to be gathering of Liberty Leaguers, rather than staunch Southern democrats.

Officials of the two Pitt county meetings said they would welcome any Wake county democrats who, disappointed at their own meeting, would like to join Pitt county in praising their leader.

SENATE HALTS EASY DIVORCE

Defeats Measure To Require Only One Year Separation

Raleigh, Mar. 4.—The Senate Wednesday put a stop to the progressive "liberalization" of North Carolina divorce laws. It put its collective feet down with great vigor, overwhelming a measure designed to reduce the period of separation needed to get a divorce from two years to one year.

"The now lies upon the table," remarked Senator A. Hall Johnston, president pro tem presiding for Lieutenant Governor Horton after the Senate had yesterday adopted a motion to take the Pittman bill which would not only have cut down the period of separation, but would have made habitual drunkenness or drug addiction for six months grounds for absolute divorce.

All this happened on third reading of the Pittman bill, which had been passed on second reading last Friday while only 25 Senators were in the chamber.

To Senator L. A. Martin, of Davidson, must go the lion's share of credit for stopping the bill. He made perhaps the most effective speech delivered in the Senate at this session, appealing to members to defend the most sacred relationship into which human beings can enter. A listless, inattentive audience at the opening of his talk changed to an intent body of listeners as he closed.

To bring about defeat of the bill, Senator Martin was forced to combat a number of parliamentary objections. He offered amendments last Friday which were defeated. A point of order was made against their re-introduction, and it was sustained. His efforts to seek reconsideration of Friday's vote were met by the objection that he did not vote on the prevailing side. Finally Senator Ingram, of Randolph, came to his rescue with a motion to

State To Consider Erecting Building At New York Fair

Commission Will Be Appointed To Study Advantage and Advertising of Such a Project

Raleigh, Mar. 4.—A commission will be appointed to study the advantages and advertising value of a "North Carolina Building" at the New York World's Fair in 1939, under a bill now pending in the legislature.

The measure has the full support of the Department of Conservation and Development and the endorsement of Senator Lee L. Gravelly and Representative P. W. Williams, chairmen of the legislative committees on Conservation and Development.

Full consideration of the project is desired, however, before the state goes into the construction of such a building which would cost quite a pretty penny.

The bill calls for appointment by the Governor of a seven-member commission, composed of two from the Senate, three from the House and two from the Department of Conservation and Development, one of which members shall be designated by the Governor to serve as chairman. The commission would be known as "The New York World's Fair Commission."

The commission's duty would be to make a survey of the agricultural, industrial and recreational interests of the State of North Carolina, and to make an investigation of the proposed New York World's Fair and ascertain the advisability of the State of North Carolina having a building located at the Fair.

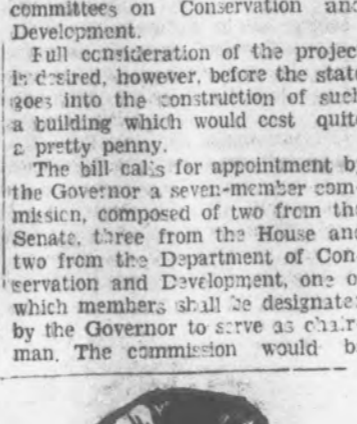

If the commission finds the building advisable it is further authorized to contract for its erection and to employ such persons or persons as may be required to construct, manage and display the exhibits representing the State of North Carolina.

The Clio Club, a newly organized book club held its first regular meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. L. A. Brock. The twelve charter members were present at this first meeting and the business of selecting a name for the club, adopting a constitution, selecting books to be bought by the club, and electing the program for the year was matter for consideration.

Several names by which the club might be called were submitted by members, but The Clio Club seemed to be most liked. Clio was the mythical Greek Muse of history; also, a disc used Clio as a signature in "The Spectator."

A constitution, drawn up by a committee headed by Mrs. Aubrey Shekel, was submitted, and after a few changes, was accepted by the club.

The book committee, Mrs. Studie Ford, chairman, gave book reviews and comments on a list of interesting books from which the following twelve fiction and non-fiction were selected to be bought by the club: Catherine DeMedici, by Ralph Roeder, An American Doctor's Odyssey by Dr. Heisser; The Pool Hath Said, by Nicholas; The Nile, by Emil Ludwig; Elysian in Gasa, by Aldous Huxley; Yang and Yin, by Alice Hobart; Mary LaVell, by K. O'Brien; Great Laughter, by Francis Hearst; So Free We Stem, by Helen Todd; Sound of Running Feet, by Josephine Lawrence; I Am the Fox, by Winifred Van Elton, and Once We Had a Child, by Hans Fallada.

A committee of Mrs. Brick Starling, Mrs. L. A. Brock and Mrs. Bob Grady gave a report of the program for the year, the study of Modern American Authors, to be supplemented by current events and book reviews.

Officers of the club to serve for the first year are Mrs. Jack Spain, President; Mrs. W. W. Morgan, Vice-President; and Mrs. L. A. Ersk. Secretary and Treasurer.

Mrs. Henry L. Rivers, who helped the club with its organization, was unanimously voted an honorary member of the club.

The meeting adjourned after refreshments were served by the hostess, to meet again on March 18th with Mrs. Bob Grady. The program for the next meeting will be the study of two of our most outstanding American poets. Mrs. Jack Spain will review the life and works of Carl Sandburg, and Mrs. Brick Starling will give comments and facts about the life and works of the Negro poet, James Laneston Hughes. These two papers will be supplemented by current events and book reviews by members of the club. — Reported.

The Greenville Nurses' Council will meet Friday night at eight o'clock at the college infirmary, with Miss Smith and Mrs. F. W. Heslep as hostesses.

Attend Victory Dinner.
Mrs. Alex Viola of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bissett of Grifton, and W. E. Hooks of Ayden, were among those from Pitt county attending the Victory dinner in Raleigh last evening.

Colonel and Mrs. E. G. Flanagan and Mrs. J. B. Spilman, who were in Raleigh, also attended.

Miriam Winslow and Dancers Here

Miriam Winslow, the four other dancers and Miss Campbell, who form the group that will give a concert here tonight in the Robert H. Wright auditorium at 8:30 o'clock, arrived today in a private automobile. A little Ford truck bearing the silver insignia of Miriam Winslow and her dancers, with two electricians in charge, brought the costumes, scenery (which is a cyclorama and ground cloth), the lighting equipment, and everything else needed, even to the two ironing boards.

The first thing they did on arrival was to try the stage and get the feel of the place, then followed a rehearsal, and after that unpacking of trunks, pressing costumes and getting all arranged for quick changes tonight have kept them busy.

On the program are dances that have made Miss Winslow's reputation as one of the greatest dance artists of America. Folk dances from different nations will be an interesting group. The costumes, which are designed by Miss Winslow herself and the lighting effects, with her special electrician in charge are wonderfully effective.

He raised it on milk from a baby's bottle. Now "Billy" is on friendly terms with the farm dogs and attended a funeral recently with the Kockleffels.

United States Navy Is In Need of More Men

Due to the exceedingly large quotas being received each month at the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Postoffice building, New Bern, more men are wanted to fill this quota. There are over fifty-five different trades in the Navy and offer the young men of today an opportunity to learn a trade and travel at the same time.

Seven young men from this section were enlisted at the Recruiting station, New Bern, on February 24, 1937. These men are now at the training station, Hampton Roads, Virginia, where they will undergo twelve weeks of military training before being transferred to the U. S. Fleet.

The young men enlisted recently are: Norman Cecil Humphrey, Tuscarora; Richard Dawson Jones, Elmer Fred Nelson, Morehead City; Harvey Thomas Burch, Durham; Melvin Watts-Cahoon, New Bern; Joffree Thadious Leggett, Winterville; and John D. Riggs, Greenville.

The Recruiting Station is open daily from 9 A. M. to 3:30 P. M. except Saturday when it closes at noon. Of course, the office is closed Sundays and Holidays.

If you wish to have a part in celebrating the Democratic victory in the recent November election, attend the victory dinner tonight.

A nationwide survey for the first two months of this year reveals that highway fatalities are on the increase and as usual the majority of the most serious accidents are the result of excessive speeds on the highways.

Now if the House will pass the Flanagan anti-slot machine bill that was adopted by the Senate yesterday, our state will be able to get rid of the slot machine evil.

Legislative Chaff and Chatter

Raleigh, Mar. 4.—Filled with enthusiasm as the result of last night's statewide dinner in the Virginia Dare room of the Sir Walter here, Democrats throughout the state are looking to their local Victory Dinners tonight to go over with a bang.

Former Senator Harris Newman, of Wilmington, who has been conducting a one-man lobby in his own behalf, is confident the legislature is going to approve the gasoline pipe line project.

While many clear-headed North Carolinians are opposing any home-stead exemption from taxation and would like to see the present $300 personal property exemption either wiped out or cut to not more than $50, the Georgia solons seem blithely on their way toward enactment of a $2,500 homestead and the $300 personal property exemption.

EVE'S ORCHARD

By MARGARET WIDDEMER

SYNOPSIS: The woe-worn feature of the Southern Star Line puts Denny Carter's promised job in the distance and postpones his marriage to Eve Mennerfeld. With a globe-circling honeymoon in sight, Eve had already given up her good job as Eve's old house in Connecticut has just lost its tenant, she decides to live there until she can rent it again. Eve's friends promise to come up to see her and stin, proud Denny—who still has his old job—promises to escort her out to "the wilds."

Chapter Seven

Mitzi To The Rescue

EVE'S time at the office was up Saturday. Knowing they would find her at home after that, her friends called and telephoned all day. She hadn't realized how splendid they all were. They invited her to everything that could possibly take place before she was going.

"I think you're lucky, if you ask me," Marilyn consoled her. Marilyn had taken a taxi from an opera matinee that somebody had sent her box seats for, to see if there was anything she could do. She lay across the left-hand divan, her long thin arms behind her head, watching Eve pack glasses in a barrel, her gray mole-skin coat, given her by John Dillon, the rich artist, was thrown on the dusty floor and her 8-and-10-cent store felt hat carefully hung on the sideboard above her.

"Oh, do!" "I suppose you've saved simply heaps of money," Marilyn went on. "I remember meeting you once trotting into a savings bank, and being eaten up with envy. We're such idiots about saving. If people weren't angels to us we'd have starved in a gutter years ago," concluded Marilyn hap-center of things, and they waited while she stripped off her white gloves, loosened her coat above a new navy crepe import and repinned her gardenias. She coqueted with Denny through too-blackened lashes, put a gardenia elaborately into his button-hole, and then turned to Eve. "I hope you won't think I'm horrid, for Denny said he was going to be a big he-man and escort you out to the wilds. But I'm such a helpless little lady, and Den simply insisted on doing host at my dinner party that night. And this man—well, his wife's my friend and that's that. I hope I'm loyal. But he wants to do anything he can for me—"

Denny interrupted. "This man's building a publicity department for his corporation and Mitzi thinks she can get me in on the ground floor!"

Mitzi brushed the other gardenias across too-scarlet lips and made more play with her round black eyes. They heard a good deal about the man's thwarted passion for Mitzi before she chattered herself out. Marilyn trailing behind her, being mortored somewhere or other.

Ellen Sizes Up Mitzi "WOULDN'T it be wonderful if it really led to something?" Eve said. "I hope the man's simply nuts over her!"

Ellen Walton, carefully stuffing newspapers between china, said: "Well, of course he isn't. Somebody should send Mitzi a Freud book. Once a man has been held by the lapels twice by Mrs. Preston T. Power she's just one of two things in her conversation: he's insulted her magnificently and has to be kept off with a gun, or he's nobly trying to forget her. It's her complex. But outside of that she's a wise baby; I don't underestimate her or advise you to."

"Gosh, I'm not!" said Denny blithely. "Don't be crabby, Ellen. I'm dining with Mitzi and abandoning Eve like a dropped glove, don't you say, Eve?" "Of course," Eve said. But she did wish that he'd let her tell him to go! He settled back on the couch Mitzi had left and said: "What do you think her real name is? I found it in a ply, taking another water from the box beside her. Eve straightened up for a minute and pushed a lock of hair under the rubber shower cap she was wearing, because it was the same color as her calico apron. "I think there's enough to carry me through the summer," she said, "though it does give me a sort of unsafe feeling to spend it. I admit."

"Oh, splendid! And in the fall you'll be back and we'll all celebrate." Eve smiled to herself. She and Denny had worked it all out that very noontime. They were going to get married the minute Eve got anything at all to do, no matter for how little. There would be a long series of Saturday hunts for the right apartment. "And I'm keeping the list of advertisements we cut out the other day, just for luck," Denny had said. "We'll start just where we left off."

There was no use telling Marilyn that; Marilyn was like a child, and always poured out everything to the next person she met. She had no secrets of her own or anybody else's, friendly, childish, long-legged Marilyn!

A Small Fashionable Bear THERE was a bang on the door, followed by an excited Denny and a complacently beaming Mitzi, all perfume and mink and clattering heels, rather like a small fashionable bear.

"What do you think of this swell spot of a Mitzi?" Denny cried. "She's leading you, the limousine to take your furniture over to my flat to store. And has the grand idea for selling me up the tree!" Mitzi, thus introduced, smiled brightly, suggest Eve and Marilyn and waved to Ellen Walton, quietly packing dunes in the corner. She was then established in state in the Incidentally, Georgia lawmakers are struggling with the liquor question, too. A County Option bill, similar to North Carolina's is being urged.

"Cur Bob" Reynolds made a personal appearance in Raleigh just about the same time that the newspapers hereabout began running the cigarette advertisements with his endorsement of a "Light Smoke." He seemed to be in his usual inimitable style as a glad-hander and back-slapper. It was not observable that he smoke the kind of cigarette he praised for $1,000. However, his creditors won't worry about that.

Little Colonel book in her apartment last week: Mittie-May Jackson from Mamma, Christmas, 1913!" Eve laughed. Poor Mitzi, with her beauty parlors and her airs and her money, her overt mechanical stage coquette's tricks, that she trotted out for every man, and that the men were amused over afterward; Mitzi, trying to make up for lost youth by beauty treatments, and lost happiness by synthetic romance! Mitzi feeling unloved if she wasn't cooing compliments from men. She hadn't anything real. Youth, or love, or future.

Ellen dusted her hands, and suddenly, "Got a rehearsal," said was gone.

"Thank goodness," Denny said. He caught Eve tight. "You're the bravest, pluckiest, most beautiful good sport on earth. I'll worship Mitzi to a standstill for both our sakes. Wish me luck, darling."

What did she want? she wondered that night after they had been out to dinner and he had brought her back and left her till tomorrow. She certainly didn't want him to miss even the faintest chance of a better position. Then she knew. She wanted him to refuse pointblank to give up his crazy plan of taking her out; to say he would not go to Mitzi's no matter what the hopes of a job. And then she, Eve, would have insisted he go. And finally she would have bullied him into it. Mitzi romantic! She was the romantic one. Kissing gardenias and sticking them into men's buttonholes wasn't a circumstance to feeling that way about it.

She resolutely made herself go to sleep, but it did hurt a little irrationally. Just the same.

Eve goes alone, tomorrow, to open her old house in the country.

FINANCE BODY TO STUDY ACT

School Machinery Bill Referred to House Committee

Raleigh, Mar. 3.—The school machinery bill, reported out favorably last week by the house committee on education with the provision that would kick the Lieutenant Governor off the State School Commission and make State Superintendent Clyde A. Erwin chairman in his stead, is now before the house finance committee.

Indications are that the bill will be considerably revised and changed before being reported out by the finance committee and that one of the "operations" likely to be performed on it by this committee will be the removal of the section which would make State Supt. Erwin chairman of the commission, also Section 14 which would permit the levying of supplementary tax by districts with which to augment the state appropriation for schools.

Having been led by the school forces since the legislature opened in favor of the provision to make the State Superintendent the chairman of the school commission, most members here, including some of the members of the committee, agree that the house education was predominantly in favor of this change.

That was why the opponents of the change were not able to change it in the education committee. But the house rules require that any bill which levies a tax or which authorizes the levying of a tax, must also be sent to the finance committee. Accordingly, the bill could not take place on the calendar without first going to the finance committee for study and approval.

Advocates of the change in the return of the school commission had been contending all along that Governor Hoy was in favor of the change. But during the last few days Governor Hoy has indicated very clearly that he was not in favor of going as far as this bill proposed and that he wanted a number of changes made in the bill.

The school forces were jubilant at getting the bill out of the education committee in the form it was in, but are reported to be disappointed at its being sent to the finance committee.

Twenty-five states permit persons under 16 years of age to drive automobiles, according to the American Automobile Association. In ten of these states youngsters under 16 can take the wheel without any demonstration of their ability to drive.

Property damage loss in this country in 1936 due to fire was approximately $293,000,000, a 13 per cent increase over the 1935 figure.

Maximum Hour Bill Great Victory Scored For Labor

Prospect For Passage in Senate Bright, Although Opponents Will Make Last Ditch Fight

Reflector Bureau.

Raleigh, Mar. 3.—The Maximum Hour bill approved by the House Tuesday represents probably the greatest victory for labor ever scored in a North Carolina legislature.

Prospects for passage in the Senate and enactment into law are bright, although opponents of any liberal labor legislation will make a last ditch effort to keep off the statute books the first law in this state prohibiting employers from working their employes up to 24 hours a day.

Labor is not completely satisfied with the bill as it passed the House, but all labor leaders hail it as a great stride in the right direction. In the main, the measure limits working hours of men in North Carolina to 10 hours a day and 55 hours a week, and of women to nine hours daily and 43 hours per week. At present there are no limitations on the working hours of men, while women may work 55 hours per week and 10 hours per day.

Under the bill passed by the House, all retail mercantile establishments employing less than eight persons are exempted from the provisions of the act, this exemption getting in by way of an amendment sent up by Representative J. E. Volger, of Mecklenburg. Its effect, however, was to strike out a previous provision which exempted all retail drug stores of whatever size. The amendment adopted is leveled more satisfactory to labor than was the bill as brought out of committee.

In the House Tuesday there was also adopted an amendment offered by Representative Jennings G. King, Scotland, authorizing the commissioner of labor to issue emergency permits permitting manufacturing concerns to operate beyond the hour provisions of the law for periods of 60 days, provided time and a half is paid for all hours in excess of the 55 and 10 limitation in the bill. Efforts to exempt individual counties failed.

REA PROPOSAL IS CONSIDERED

Controversial Bill Up For Hearing This Afternoon

Reflector Bureau.

Raleigh, Mar. 3.—The controversial rural electrification bill which so roused the ire and anger of former Administrator Morris L. Cooke of the Federal Rural Electrification Administration a few weeks ago and which many believe played a part in his subsequent sudden resignation, will come up for a second hearing this afternoon before the house public utilities committee, of which Representative Robert Rouse of Kinston is Chairman.

Representatives of the Federal REA have been invited to attend the hearing today and to submit any reasons or arguments they may have as to why the bill should not be reported favorably or enacted into law, but it is not known whether any will be present or not. Chairman Rouse last week offered to call his committee together for a hearing on the bill when two attorneys for the Federal REA were here, but at that time these two attorneys refused to appear before the committee.

The bill in question, introduced by Representative W. E. Fenner of Nash and D. L. Ward of Craven at the request of the North Carolina Rural Electrification Authority—it was prepared by the Attorney General—provides only that electric membership cooperative associations, such as are organized in order to obtain loans for building rural power lines from the Federal REA, must obtain formal permission from the State Utilities Commission to build these lines. It also provides that when this permission has been obtained in the form of a certificate of convenience and necessity, that no private power company, municipally owned company or individual may build any lines in the territory involved.

Cooke and the REA in Washington attacked the bill on the grounds that it would put all cooperatives under the regulation of the Utilities Commission as to rates, and so forth. But this is not the case. In fact, it is understood that the two REA attorneys here from Washington last week admitted they had never read the bill until they got down here and that it was very different from what they thought it was.

"Advised by my singing coach, I changed to Luckies"

"In my new picture 'Swing High, Swing Low' I sing a song for the first time since I have been on the screen. To do this, I spent months taking singing lessons. And with this added strain, my throat was not in good shape. My singing coach suggested that when choosing cigarettes, I select a light smoke. And so I changed to Luckies. Since then I've found that a light smoke and my throat get along together just fine."

THE FINEST TOBACCO— "THE CREAM OF THE CROP"

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Lombard verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.

Pensions, Free Text-books, School Machinery Problems

Reflector Bureau, Raleigh, Mar. 4.—The old age pension, school machinery and free textbooks bills are still the focus of legislative progress in this week—and indications are that they may keep the senate and house in a snarl for another week and thus further delay the possibility of an early adjournment.

For while the old age pensions bill was finally blasted out of the appropriations committee by administration dynamite for consideration on second reading today, there is every reason to believe that it is going to have about as much trouble in the house as it had in the senate. For Chairman D. L. (Libby) Ward of the appropriations committee and those who agree with him that the counties should not be required to pay $2,000,000 a year from ad valorem taxes in order to participate in the old age pension program, are going to put up a determined fight in the house. The first move is expected to be in the direction of putting the entire cost on the state and Federal governments, so that the counties will not have to bear any of the old age pension expense. If this move fails—and it is expected to fail—the next move will probably be to reduce the size of the pensions appropriation from $8,000,000 a year to $6,000,000 a year, so that the counties will not have to bear more than $1,000,000 a year of the cost of the program.

In the final analysis, Governor Clyde R. Hoey and his forces are expected to be victorious and compel the house to pass the bill as it passed the senate, calling for an expenditure of $8,000,000 a year of which the counties and the state will each supply $2,000,000 and the Federal government $4,000,000 a year. But all agree that the battle is going to be spirited and probably bitter before it is ended and that it may require most of this week to get the bill through the house. It is expected that enough new amendments will be offered and adopted today to throw the bill back on its first reading—and it requires three readings to pass.

The highly controversial school machinery bill also gives promise of delaying the game as much if not more than the old age pensions bill. The school bill has been before the finance committee for several days for study and consideration, after having been reported favorably by the house committee on education. But the committee was unable to get to the bill at last Wednesday afternoon and it is regarded as problematical whether it will get to it today. In the mean time, Secretary Julie B. Warren of the North Carolina Education Association is understood to have sent out the "riot call" by telegraphing every city and county school superintendent in the state to come to Raleigh if possible to apply "the heat" to their local representatives and senators, or if they could not come, to send some outstanding and influential citizens to do it for them. More school people and school lobbyists are in evidence here now than at any time since the assembly has been in session.

The portion of the school machinery bill in which the school forces are so greatly interested in Section 2, which would make State Superintendent of Public Instruction Clyde R. Erwin chairman of the State School Commission by kicking the Lieutenant Governor off the commission entirely. Ever since the commission was first created, the Lieutenant Governor has been chairman and the State Superintendent has been vice chairman. The reason the school forces, especially the city and county superintendents are reported to be supporting this section so vigorously is believed to be the belief that if Supt. Erwin is made chairman of the commission, the school forces and especially the superintendents, can dictate as to how the school appropriations shall be allotted. It is an open secret that the school forces have been dissatisfied for years with the manner in which the school commission distributes the school funds. Some think that if this new plan should be approved, the superintendents might get their salaries increased at the expense of the classroom teachers.

While the trouble in the senate over the free textbooks bill has been partially ironed out, there are indications that a prolonged fight is in prospect there when the bill comes up for consideration on the floor.

ATTEMPT HALT ANY DIVERSION

Push Constitutional Amendment Prohibiting Practice

Reflector Bureau, Raleigh, Mar. 4.—The anti-diversionists in the house have decided not to wait any longer on the senate and to go ahead with a bill to submit a constitutional amendment to the people to prohibit any further diversion of highway funds to other than road purposes.

A bill to submit this amendment to a vote of the people independently from the five amendments which the senate proposes to submit, was introduced in the house Wednesday by Representative Joyner of Northampton county and indications are that it will pass the house without much difficulty. The house is regarded as being more positive and decided in its opposition to highway fund diversion than the senate. But if this bill is passed by the house, the belief is that the senate will also enact it. The house would never have accepted the compromise on highway fund diversion as inserted in the revenue bill some weeks ago, even though the diversion provided for is surrounded by more provisions and safeguards than ever before, but for the fact that Governor Hoey made a personal drive for its adoption.

And even then the diversionists made very heavy concessions. Many of those who fought diversion when the revenue bill was under consideration are convinced that the question should now be submitted to the people so they can decide whether or not every successive general assembly shall have to deal with the diversion question.

The motorists of the state are already tired of paying out money for gasoline and motor vehicle taxes year after year, and then have large portions of these taxes diverted to other uses. Rep. Claude C.

Abernathy of Nash county, one of the anti-diversionists, said today. "They are demanding that they either be given more roads with the taxes they pay or that their taxes be reduced proportionately." Most observers already conceded that the anti-diversion amendment bill should pass the house without much difficulty.

A 1 1/2-ton farm motor truck driven 5,000 miles costs about 7 cents a mile for fuel and oil, depreciation, repairs, license, and interest on investment, a survey by the bureau of agricultural economics shows.

There are more than 250,000 known compounds of carbon which, with hydrogen, is the chief ingredient of natural gas.

In England "public schools" for generations have been reserved for rich men's sons. Poor youths normally attend the "grammar schools," high school maintained by the state.

Greenville Loses 31-25 Decision to Palmetto Five

Greenville dropped another game last night, losing to Sumter, S. C., in a Southern Conference preliminary contest at Raleigh 31 to 25.

High Point, state champions, defeated Charleston, S. C., to give the Tar Heels an even break in the two contests.

In the opening game of the program, the green-jerseyed boys from Greenville put on a fine brand of ball the first half to outclass the visitors from Sumter. Greenville held a 17-9 lead at half time.

The Sumter quint, however, led by Ed Cuttino, lanky forward, cut the deficit to two points at 23-21 as the third quarter ended.

Cuttino dropped in a free throw as the last stanza opened, then Leon Eland, center, looped in a two-pointer to put the South Carolina boys in front. Four minutes of the ball game remained.

Cuttino made a basket and Burgess was good on a free shot to give Sumter a 26-23 advantage. Gaskins, Greenville substitute center, followed with a basket which turned out to be Greenville's last score.

In the last two minutes, the South Carolinians got really hot—Burgess scored a basket and Cuttino dropped in two in quick succession. Cuttino missed a free shot as the ball game ended.

Cuttino was high scorer of the game, with 16 points and also the top all-round performer. Burgess, sub forward, was the spirit of the Sumter quint.

George Lautares, forward, with 10 points, paced Greenville. John Lautares, guard, and brother of George, played a fine floor game for the losing quint.

CHECK BIRD MIGRANTS BY COLORED FEATHERS

Michigan, Mich. (AP)—Michigan W. and several other north central states plan to keep a check on migratory habits of grouse by giving them colored tail feathers.

In Michigan green, pink and white feathers will be inserted in the tails of birds caught by live trapping. The different colors will refer to the district from which the birds originate. Hunters are expected to report to authorities the colors carried by birds shot or seen.

Deaths in airplane accidents on commercial airlines totaled 60 in 1936, compared with 73 in 1935.

Few Forest Fires Reported In N. C.; Weather Big Help

Only 78 Blazes in 60 Counties Reporting During January Compared With 80 in December

Raleigh, Mar. 3.—Nature proved a valuable ally to forest fire protection forces in North Carolina during the month of January, and the resulting damage to the forests of the State was among the lowest experienced in many months, according to a report yesterday from the division of forestry of the Department of Conservation and Development.

The report revealed a total of 76 fires in the 60 counties organized for forest fire protection compared with 80 during the previous month. These blazes burned over a total of 1,400 acres and caused damages estimated at $4,562.

Careless smokers constituted the highest hazard to the woodlands of the state in January, being charged with 24 or almost one-third of the total. Recreationists, including hunters, fishermen, and campers, were blamed with the next highest number—14. Brush burners and incendiaries were charged with causing the next largest number of forest fires, 12 each being assigned to these causes. The remaining flames were assigned to miscellaneous sources and railroads.

Of the 76 fires occurring in the forests during January, all were classed as man-caused and as being preventable since none was traced to lightning, the only natural cause known in the state.

Out of a total area of forest lands in North Carolina of some 20,600,000 acres needing fire control, approximately 14,000,000 acres now have organized fire protection, according to W. C. McCormick, assistant State forester. In addition to having the largest area under protection at any one time, forestry officials believe the organization is also the more efficient than at any other period. Continued improvement is also being sought.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Mar. 4.—(AP)—Stock buyers were more selective today as some of the recent market speeders slowed down to make room for new favorites.

Merchandising, farm implements, utility, rail and a specially issues stepped out in front while leaders in steel, motor and other groups encountered selling pressure. Activity, pronounced at the start, dwindled later and early set backs were reduced in many instances near the fourth hour. Bonds and commodities were mixed.

Talks To Parents

By Brooks Peters Church

PREPARATION

The object of training a child should not be to lead him along the paths of least resistance in the hope of making his life easy and happy. The child whose paths are forever smoothed by anxious parents, who is guarded from knowledge or contact with sorrow, sin and suffering, is being prepared for a never-never land and not for life. Even if poverty were removed from the world, and sickness and bodily pain were suddenly wiped out life would still offer the problems of personality, and the mental and spiritual crises without which it would be reduced to the level of an ant-hill. Children should be taught to take what comes, however hard and unpleasant, and to face it with courage. Such training cannot be delayed until they go out into the world. It must start in cradle days. The same mother, however, who trains her baby in arms to follow the routine of infancy, who lets him cry when he needs the exercise or if he simply wants to be taken up and amused, is very apt to change her whole attitude as soon as the child is able to talk and walk. Now, all of a sudden, he must be permitted self-expression, must be allowed to choose his own interests and studies, must not be punished or forced against his own bent. Just as a baby cries to be picked up because being taken up is pleasant, so does the older child follow the easiest way, and in the end to his own undoing. From the cradle up he should learn to exercise self-control, and only discipline can teach it to him. In time the discipline imposed from without will become self-discipline, and then only will the child be equipped for the future.

China, despite its large population, abounds with game in many regions. It is estimated the country has a larger duck population than America.

CAMERA GETS AN EYEFUL AS SCIENTIST 'BATTLES' SLIGHTLY STYMIED SHARK

SCRAM, FELLA! Look out, mister! That's a shark! But Otis Barton, in the diving suit, isn't scared. He calmly stands on the ocean bottom off Panama and prepares to "battle" the monster.

LOOKING FOR A FIGHT The camera grinds on while Scientist Barton creeps in—slowly, cautiously—spear alert—to meet his adversary, now rearing in his tail in anticipation of the struggle.

TAKE THAT! Close in, the battle is joined. Barton's letting off plenty of "steam" now as he tickles old Oscar, or whatever its name is, with his spear. Ticklish business, eh?

OUT LIKE A LIGHT And so to bed—for the shark. This is not so dangerous as you think for the shark is wired to an anchor. Barton is using this system to get an undersea movie.

HUGE PROGRAM IS CARRIED ON

Report Made on Activities of Resettlement Body

Reflector Bureau, Raleigh, Mar. 4.—Magnitude of the construction program being carried on by the Resettlement Administration in North Carolina and the four neighboring states grouped in Region 4 is indicated in a report by C. F. Lewis, regional head of the land improvement unit, with headquarters in Raleigh.

On the thirteen projects in the five states, including two large-scale developments in North Carolina, upwards of 5,000 men are employed. All of these projects involve the withdrawal of run-down and depleted areas from all attempts at cultivation and the development of the areas as forest and game preserves and recreation centers. Construction now under way follows: Bridges, 189 units; administration buildings, three; bath houses, seven; cabins, forty-six; dwellings, twenty; lodges, six; lookout houses, six; lookout towers, thirteen; shelters, forty-six; dams, twenty-five; fire breaks, 517 miles; roads, 114 miles; truck trails, 215 miles; fire hazard reduction work, 24,000 acres; nurseries, four units; forest stand improvement, 20,000 acres; three planting and seeding, 17,000 acres; timber harvest, 3,300,000 board feet; moving and planting trees, 76,000 units; picnic camp and picnic grounds, 780 acres; food and cover planting, 2,800 acres; game farms and sanctuaries, five units; stream improvement, 15 miles.

The two projects in North Carolina included in the above program are Sandhills Land Project, with headquarters at Hoffman, 60,000 acres, and Jones and Salters Lake Land Project, with headquarters at Elizabethtown, 30,000 acres. "This tabulation is representative of the varied character of the work being done in our effort; to make these areas beneficial to the public and valuable future assets to the nation," Mr. Lewis stated.

CO-EDS GRADED HIGHER THAN BOY FRIENDS

Madison, Wis. (AP)—A survey of University of Wisconsin students shows the women still leading the men in scholarship. Women students enrolled in the university last semester earned a grade point average of 1.648, which is 15 hundredths of a grade point higher than that of the men. This is the best the boys have done for many years. They were 21 hundredths of a grade point behind the undergraduate women students in 1933-34. The men made their highest averages in the classical humanities courses and schools of education and journalism. The women did best in chemical engineering, medicine and classical humanities.

HOW TO BE POPULAR WITH FIREMEN

Gainesville, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. David Hugon, working in her garden, locked up and saw smoke issuing from the chimney of her home. She rushed to the telephone and called firemen. When they arrived she met them at the porch with an apology. "I forgot I had started a fire in the fireplace," she explained.

St. Peter's "Thorn" Passing Rome, (AP)—Rome is holding its breath to see what St. Peter's will look like when the "spina" (thorn) comprising three blocks of houses, between the Tiber and St. Peter's square, is razed.

Dutch Fight Labor Ills The Hague (AP)—A bill introduced into parliament by Minister of Social Affairs Siingenberg is aimed at restricting employment of women in factories and inducing employers to stop replacing adult workmen by youths.

Rain Ends Dry Cycle Norwalk, O. (AP)—Farmers in this vicinity say a dry cycle which began in 1930 finally has been broken, although this section of Ohio was not affected by floods. Abnormal rainfall has raised the level of wells for the first time in six years, and springs, long dried up, are trickling again.

Suit Styles Vary New York (AP)—Suit yourself with a suit is a good slogan for the coming spring. Although many New York stores are advising the "class? sic tailleur," numerous others are showing more varied types of suits. Beige is the favorite color.
