SIX KILLED AS DISASTER HITS U. S. SEAPLANE

Craft Crashes in San Diego Bay During Practice

FIRST TRAGEDY IN NAVY ARMADA

Two Members Crew Escape With Minor Injuries When $150,000 Ship Wrecks

San Diego, Calif., Aug. 24.—(AP)—Disaster struck the navy's armada of giant flying boats for the first time last night, killing six of eight men aboard a new $150,000 craft as it crashed in San Diego Bay.

Two crew members escaped with minor injuries, but three officers were killed and the plane almost demolished by the impact. Four bodies had not been recovered early today.

The hull submerged, the wreckage was quickly surrounded by navy and private ships as giant searchlights illuminated the bay.

The ill-starred plane, PBV-1, whose sister flying boats have flown in mass formation to Honolulu and the Canal Zone within the last two years, was undergoing a "routine night practice flight" for a forthcoming hop to Panama in September.

As it swooped down for a landing after being in the air several hours, the seaplane struck the Northal, an abandoned whaling ship once used in filming "Moby Dick."

The hull of the flying boat nosed over in the bay mud, crushing its metal framework like paper.

Only the bottom of the fuselage and the two wing pontoons showed above water.

In desperate haste to extricate the victims, three of a crew of 175 navy men were involved by a sudden fire, started when sparks ignited spilled gasoline.

The trio jumped into the bay but were rescued.

Valley Authority Has No Plans For Carolina Project

Although No Work Planned By TVA In This State Immediately, Some Possible Later

Reflector Bureau.
Raleigh, Aug. 24.—The Tennessee Valley Authority plans no immediate electrification projects in Western North Carolina, though it is willing to consider and cooperate in any feasible project which may be locally initiated, J. M. Grainger, engineer of the State Rural Electrification Authority, said on his return from a trip to Knoxville where he conferred with TVA officials.

With D. S. Weaver, secretary of the state REA, Mr. Grainger conferred at length with Dr. Martin G. Glaeser, head of a newly created Department of Power Planning of the TVA, and with George W. Kable, once rural electrification chief of the big federal project, and now chief of section of the Department of Agricultural Industries.

The TVA apparently has no definite plans of its own regarding the fifteen western Carolina counties in its district, Mr. Grainger said, but Dr. Glaeser declared that the federal authority is ready to consider any project which may be initiated locally. It will gladly cooperate in any feasible plan presented, he told Mr. Grainger.

State REA officials declare there are as many difficulties in the way of rural electrification in the mountainous regions of western North Carolina. They point out that there are almost innumerable small companies now operating in the section, to the scattered nature of the population and to the tremendous expense of construction power lines across the towering peaks.

The state authority declares its willingness to do its best to further electrification in the west, but it is pointed out that it will likely be some years before any "dreams" of TVA power come true.

Shuff Case Still Occupying Court

The $15,000 damage suit brought against the city of Greenville by Mrs. Hattie P. Shuff for injuries she allegedly suffered when she stepped into a hole in front of Sheppard Memorial Library in February, 1935, continued in Pitt Superior court today.

The plaintiff, represented by Judge Abion Dunn, rested just before luncheon recess today.

"TOO YOUNG TO DIE!" SOBS MOTHER

"My poor baby, she was too young to die!" hysterically cried Mrs. Christina Kuchta as she viewed the body of her daughter, Anna, Chicago nurse, who was ravished and killed by an unidentified hospital intruder. Two other assaults on Chicago women, following Miss Kuchta's murder, sent police on a round-up of every man with a sex offense record.—(Associated Press Photo).

DIXIE WAREHOUSE MODERN BUILDING

The Dixie warehouse, one of the most modern warehouses for the sale of tobacco on the eastern market, will be operated again this season by Biggs T. Cannon and Will P. Moore.

Both of these men are well known to the tobacco farmers of eastern Carolina, and liked by all who have patronized them since they have been connected with the Greenville market.

The warehouse will be in charge of Will P. Moore. He has been closely identified with the tobacco industry for a number of years and is a judge of tobacco second to no man in the business. His judgment of tobacco and his experience as a warehouseman assures every one that his interest will be looked after at the Dixie warehouse.

Biggs Cannon, who also serves as auctioneer, has likewise been connected with the tobacco business here for many years, and is not only a real auctioneer but a keen judge of tobacco. He knows what a pile of tobacco should bring and will not pass on to another pile until the highest dollar is bid.

The personnel of the Dixie warehouse this season is composed of the following able men: Larry McLawhorn and B. J. Porter, floor manager; J. T. Wooten, head bookkeeper; B. L. Ross, assistant bookkeeper; C. W. Woodward, book man; S. D. Hooker, clip man; Carlton Dail, labor man; Layman Stokes, J. C. Galloway and Albert Jenkins, weighmen, and Early Nobles and Winnie Tucker, floor force.

GEORGIA LEAF TWO WORKERS AVERAGE 19.76 DIE OF SHOCK

Sales During First Four Weeks Total 82,312,677 Pounds

Atlanta, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The state bureau of markets said today bright leaf tobacco sales during the first four weeks of Georgia's 1937 market totaled 82,312,677 pounds. The Georgia season is near a close. An average price of 19.76 cents a pound brought in $16,236,964.29, the third highest receipts in Georgia's market history.

Fourth week sales totaled 12,298,727 pounds for an average of 10.88 cents.

Service Director Selected For Pitt

Raleigh, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Robert B. Cobb, of Nash county, will manage the Greenville branch of the North Carolina state employment service, Mayne Albright, director of the service, said today.

Albright, announcing Cobb's appointment said it had the approval of the North Carolina Unemployment Compensation commission.

The Greenville offices serve Pitt county, and is a branch of the Rocky Mount district office.

W. D. Tyre, 57-year-old mail carrier of Elkins, W. Va., estimates he has walked more than 100,000 miles delivering mail the last 30 years.

TOM TIMBERLAKE HEAD OF GORMAN'S

J. T. Timberlake, better known to the growers of Eastern North Carolina as "Tom" will operate again this coming season. Gorman's warehouse.

For the past six years he has operated a warehouse on the Greenville market and is familiar with every phase of the tobacco industry. Possibly no man connected with the tobacco industry has more friends among the tobacco growers than Tom Timberlake. He is a native of Pitt county and has been connected with this and other markets in this section most of his life.

Gorman's warehouse is situated on Twelfth street. The location affords growers ample parking space. The warehouse is well lighted, thus giving the grower at all times satisfaction that he is selling his tobacco here under the very best of conditions. The warehouse is provided with large and airy rest rooms for those patrons who may desire to spend the night in comfort.

Fear Increase In Party Dissension If Session Called

Influential House Democrats Voice Opposition to Extra Term to Consider Farm and Wage-Hour Measures

Washington, Aug. 24.—(AP)—A group of influential House Democrats expressed strong opposition today to a special congressional session that it might increase party dissension.

One leader, who preferred not to be mentioned by name, said "No practical good and maybe some harm" would come from a special session on farm and wage-hour legislation. He said he and others of the same view would advise President Roosevelt before leaving the capital.

He argued time was needed to allow heated tempers to cool and it would be poor policy for the President to run the risk of reopening party strife in October or November.

Meantime, the President has until midnight tonight, if he means for it to become law, to sign the bill revising procedure in the lower federal courts.

The ten day deadline for the measure, often referred to as the "minor four-fifths" of his judiciary reorganization program, expires at that time. Statute allows him ten days after passage to act on a bill.

Elsewhere in Washington, a pointed public statement from Secretary Hull emphasized to Japan and China the United States' view that world opinion demanded a peaceful settlement of their dispute.

N. Y. RESIDENT TWO CONVICTS DIES IN FALL BEING SOUGHT

Former Wife of Walter Gifford Plunges To Death

New York, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Mrs. Florence Temple, former wife of Walter Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., was killed today in a fall from her eleventh floor apartment in a West 57th street hotel. Her marriage to Gifford ended in divorce in Reno in 1929.

Mrs. Temple later married John Temple, an electrical engineer. She was 45.

For some time she had been in ill health and had been treated at various sanitariums for a nervous disorder, according to her father, Walter Pittman, a Jersey City, N. J., manufacturer, and his attorney, Ernest Wheeler.

Recently she had been living in a two room suite at the hotel.

This morning George Olsen, manager of the hotel, glanced from a window and saw a body on the second story extension in the rear. It was Mrs. Temple's.

Reynolds Gaining Greater Prestige

Raleigh, Aug. 24.—Appointment and unanimous confirmation of Justin Miller, one-time Ouke law school dean, as judge of the District of Columbia Circuit Court of Appeals justice, has greatly enhanced the political prestige of Senator Robert R. Reynolds.

The junior North Carolina senator was the sole political sponsor of Justice Miller and all comment here has been unanimously to the effect that "Our Bob" displayed great optimism. Inasmuch as Justice Miller was named to a post in the Department of Justice without any endorsement whatever, it is pointed out that Senator Reynolds suspected he would be appointed to the judicial post, recommendation or no recommendation.

Eure Plans To Shut Down On Foreign Corporations

Raleigh, Aug. 24.—A real "crack down" on foreign corporations which have not yet domesticated to do business in North Carolina will be started "almost immediately" by Secretary of State Thad Eure.

The plans call for a thorough check and recheck on all corporations doing business in this state with a view to collecting all lawful taxes from them and also with a view to protecting North Carolinians doing business with these concerns, Mr. Eure said.

Department of Revenue books will be inspected to learn what foreign corporations have paid franchise taxes to do business in North Carolina, and these lists will be compared with records in the secretary of state's office showing which have domesticated and paid the required fees therefor. Any on one list and not on the other will immediately be required to do plenty of explaining.

Not only will this close inspection enable the state to collect additional revenue, Mr. Eure said, but it will insure the fact that corporations doing business with residents of this state have "process agents" upon whom legal papers can be served.

In the first seven months of 1937 receipts of the Secretary of State's office increased approximately $17,000, Mr. Eure said. Collection from January 1 to August 1, 1936 amounted to about $60,000 and during the corresponding period of 1937 they jumped to approximately $77,000.

AMERICANS WOUNDED IN CHINA

Riding in an elevator in the Wing On department store in Shanghai when a heavy shell struck the building, Anthony Billingham (left) New York Times correspondent, was seriously wounded. Hallett Abend (right) chief of staff for the Times in China, who was riding with Billingham, was also wounded. Billingham is a former Nashville, Tenn., resident. (Associated Press Photo).

FORBES & MORTON HAS GOOD RECORD

A record that has earned and justified one of the largest number of patrons of any firm in eastern North Carolina is that of the Forbes and Morton warehouse, located in the heart of the tobacco district here.

This warehouse under the personal supervision of Gus E. Forbes and Will Z. Morton, both of whom are experienced tobacco warehousemen, has won the confidence of growers from the thirty-five odd counties, selling their tobacco in Greenville.

Both of these men are farmers themselves and understand every need of the farmer. Mr. Forbes has been identified with the Greenville market since 1900, when he was an auctioneer, later serving as sales manager and in the various other departments. Mr. Morton also has been connected with the tobacco industry since 1900 and started in the operation of a warehouse at Robertsonville, and in the conduct of the sale of tobacco Mr. Morton has no superior.

Much of the same office and warehouse forces that has served the patrons for the past several years will be with the firm again this season and include: H. H. Morton, O. L. Joyner, Jr., and J. R. Bryan, who will assist Messrs. Forbes and Morton in the sales; C. E. Steve Stephenson, auctioneer; G. E. Staples, T. M. (Mose) Woodson, Bill Woodward, C. B. Harris, Charles Manning, Fenley Johnson, W. Z. Morton, Jr., office force; Walter Twyer and George Haddock, floor managers; Joseph Martin, night manager; Brooks Tucker labor manager.

TWO RELEASED MORE PERSONS BY OFFICIALS DIE IN WRECKS

Negroes Questioned In Reported Attempted Assault

Charlotte, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Mecklenburg county police said today they had picked up two Negroes and had questioned them about an attempt to rape a white woman here but had released them.

The Negroes, a police report said, were taken off freight trains. One was taken before the woman, Mrs. Gerry Dell, occupant of an auto trailer. The report said Mrs. Dell asserted he was not the man who entered her trailer in mid-afternoon yesterday.

The other Negro, the officer said, (Continued on Page Six)

Counties Protest State ABC Ruling

Raleigh, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Representatives of wet counties protested to the state liquor commission today against a system of auditing prescribed by the commission.

A committee of the state association of ABC boards composed of Fred Poisson of Wilmington, S. C. Pitterson of Lenoir and E. H. Ricks of Halifax, called first on Cutlar Moore, chairman of the commission and then on R. G. Deyton, assistant budget director.

The protests were taken under advisement.

JOHNSTON OFFERS PERFECT SERVICE

With a slogan of "the high dollar sales," Johnston's warehouse is again prepared to offer the best facilities, to its thousands of patrons again this season.

The warehouse is under the capable management of Jimmy Johnston, whose father, the late F. V. Johnston, founded it. Each sale conducted at Johnston's is under the watchful eye of Mr. Johnston, whose interest always lies with the farmer whom he serves.

Since the closing of last season, the warehouse has undergone several important improvements. Farmers selling at Johnston's will be assured of unexcelled conveniences and service.

The warehouse is considered to have as good lighting as any in Eastern North Carolina and farmers will be able to watch proceedings in the best manner.

While Mr. Johnston personally has charge of the operation of the warehouse, he is aided by a corps of experienced workers. Bob Leggett will serve as auctioneer and Hubert Warren as assistant sales manager. The floor force will be composed of Dennis Bailey, Heber Stokes, Irving Robbins, S. M. D. Edwards, Jamie Keeter, J. A. O'Carroll, M. K. Smith, Otis Stokes and Herman Keeter. The book will be composed of Bill Redd, Bud Mervin, Jimmie Poole and Alton Johnston.

PLANES SWEEP OVER SHAN' HAI DURING NIGHT

Chinese Ships Scout City, But Drop No Bombs

JAPANESE GUNS CONTINUE ROAR

Opposing Land Forces Hemming in International Areas Content Hold Lines

Shanghai, Aug. 25. (Wednesday)—(AP)—Chinese airplanes swept over international Shanghai early this morning on all-inspiring reconnaissance flights, while Japanese naval guns crashed in prolong bombardment of Woosung and Shanghai's Yangtze river outlet to the sea, to cover the landing of fresh Japanese troops.

The Chinese air force, following the example of their Japanese enemies, scouted the heart of the city after midnight. The planes dropped no bombs, but the roar of their engines threw Shanghai into a new state of fearful tension.

Japanese anti-aircraft guns barked out at them.

Opposing land forces, hemming the international areas, were content to hold their lines while Japan's big guns, planes and landing parties roared incessantly to the north about Woosung, at the confluence of the Whangpoo, Shanghai's harbor, and the Yangtze.

An Associated Press reporter said he saw two Japanese airplane carriers anchored near Saddle Islands, at the mouth of the Yangtze, catapult plane after plane into the air to bomb Chinese machine gun positions near the Woosung shore.

In the midst of exploding bombs and artillery, 212 Americans were evacuated aboard the liner President Pierce for Manila.

The battle raged down the Whangpoo and along the Yangtze.

Think Gas Firms Should Net Profit Or Quit Operating

Utilities Commissioner Winborne Feels Electric Plants Should Not Carry Burden

Reflector Bureau.
Raleigh, Aug. 24.—Gas companies, whether affiliates of power concerns or not, should be disbanded if their operations cannot be made to pay, in the opinion of Utilities Commissioner Stanley A. Winborne.

"Gas and electricity are two distinct utilities, and companies which operate them both should not force consumers of power to subsidize losses in the gas business," he said.

Mr. Winborne was referring specifically to the Tide Water Power Company, which has been annually showing losses averaging $58,000 of its gas operations while its power sales have been profitable. The company has contended, he said, that it could not reduce electric rates because of its losses on gas and on the operation of street railways.

The Tide Water has, however, conferred informally with the commissioner regarding possible reductions in both gas and electric rates, Mr. Winborne said.

SEED SOWING BY PLANE SALVAGES BURNED ACRES

Salem, Oregon, Aug. 24.—(AP)—A second-hand airplane, dropping seed on 50,000 acres of burned-over forest land, has converted part of the Bandon burn on the coast of southern Oregon into one of the state's best grazing areas.

Today, 11 months after the disastrous fire, sheep are grazing in waste-high grass in a region which only a short time ago was a scene of desolation.

Tides on the Pacific coast are generally higher than those on the Atlantic coast, partly because of eastward winds.

Moore and Gardner Reunion Set Aug. 29

The Churchwell Moore and Wyatt Gardner Gen will hold their tenth annual family reunion at Timothy church in Pitt county on Sunday, August 29th, 1937. Mr. Paul S. Moore, president of the clan said that he was expecting a very large attendance this year and asked all families to arrange their baskets to care for same. He stated that the meeting would begin at 11 o'clock sharp with a devotional service followed by the regular business session and short talks. The big feature will be the picnic dinner which will be served out under the pines at 1 o'clock.

STREETCAR SYSTEM TO SUCCEED

Indianapolis — (AP) — Bankrupt seven years, the Indianapolis street car system today is a thriving concern—thanks to an $8,000,000 modernization program begun in 1932 at the depth of the depression. The system now operates 325 new streetcars, trackless trolleys and motor coaches. The 152 trackless trolleys constitute the largest fleet of this kind in the country. Thirty miles of new track have been laid, the entire system unified and schedules improved.

The public has responded. Daily passengers have increased from 166,000 in 1932 to 212,000.

MAYBE TEA'S FOR TWO, BUT NOT MONEY ORDERS

Washington, Aug. 24. — (AP) — Postmaster General Farley is overlooking no bets when it comes to pinching pennies from postoffice department customers.

He's just clamped down on the practice of sending money to two persons with one money order.

"Two persons, two money orders" says Farley's department in its orders to postmasters.

IT'S ODD'S But It's Science

State College, Penna. — (AP) — Everybody rides—whether in autos, subways, trains or planes—in part on a mostly unknown thing called viscosity.

This is a quality of lubricating oil. In an age of high speed viscosity is important in safety. It is known that in speed engines pressures on the oils may rise to thousands of pounds.

It is known also that pressure changes viscosity. But how much has been a matter of guesswork and mathematics without exact conclusions from either.

The pressure changes have been found by young Dr. R. B. Dow, in a new high pressure laboratory at the Pennsylvania State College. He put oils under a pressure of 26,000 pounds a square inch, at 130 Fahrenheit. He reports that Pennsylvania oil increased its viscosity 25-fold. Oklahoma oils went up 35-fold and California more than 100.

Leaves Hospital.
A. W. Harris is very much improved and has returned to his home from Pitt General Hospital.

Says Check Up On Delinquent Taxes To Raise Revenue

Approximately $1,000,000 In Back Levies Turned In By 25 Auditors During Past Year

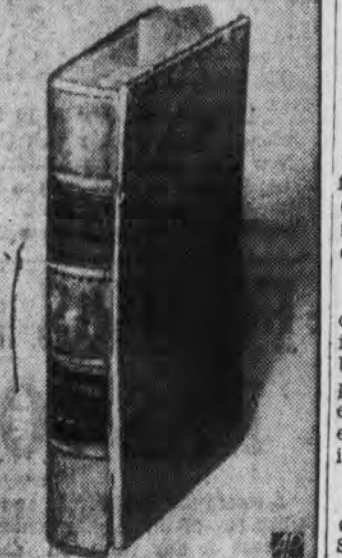

Reflector Bureau.

Raleigh, Aug. 24.—The State Department of Revenue has 40 reasons why it expects increased tax revenue this fiscal year. Each reason is an auditor in the field checking up on delinquents. Last year there were 25 auditors engaged in this kind of work.

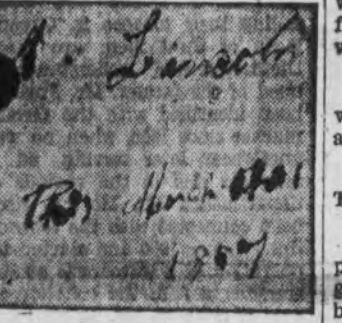

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1937, there were delinquent tax collections of approximately $1,000,000 turned in by the 25 auditors, who were able to "hit only the high spots," revenue officials say. This year the 40 auditors are expected to turn up delinquent taxes to the extent of $1,800,000.

No figures are yet available, but rough estimates are that collection of delinquent taxes has increased just about in that proportion during the month of August.

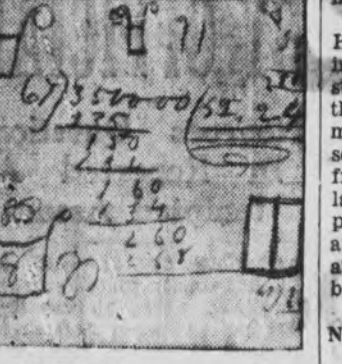

WAS LINCOLN A "DOODLER?" YOU DECIDE:

HIS BOOK?
This volume of Blackstone's "Commentaries," now in the possession of Mrs. Eula Erixon, assistant attorney general of Oklahoma, is believed once to have belonged to Abraham Lincoln.

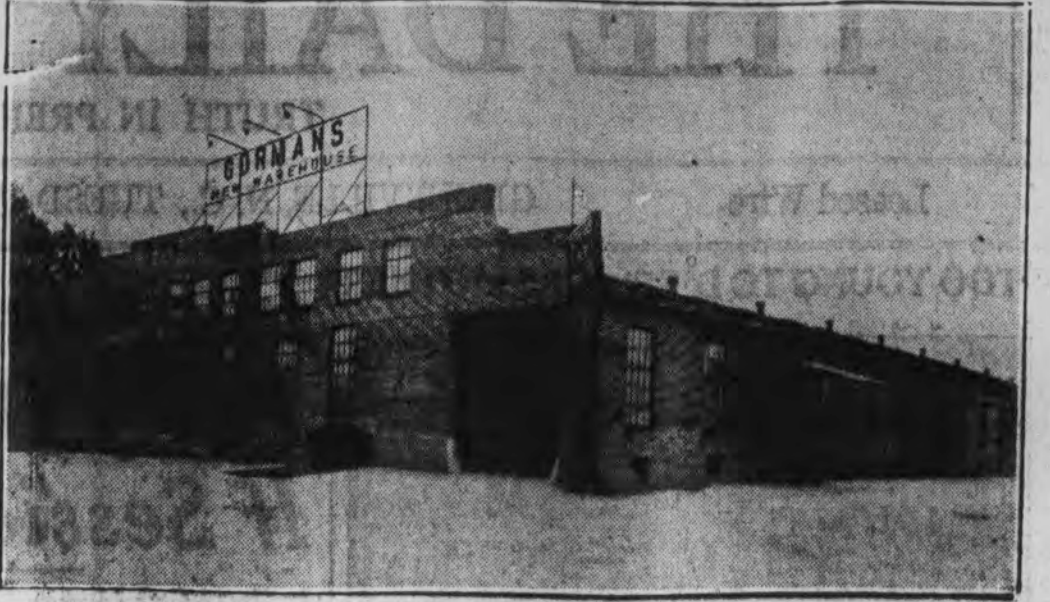

HIS SIGNATURE?
Evidence that it was his is this signature on the fly-leaf. Attendants at the library of congress have said that it apparently is genuine.

HIS DOODLES?
And on a slip of paper found in the book appear these pencil scribbles, as aimless as any doodle on the wall of a 1937 telephone booth.

Numerology Hits Shoes.
Paris, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Numerology has left its mark on shoes. A Paris bootmaker is cutting numbers out of kid, and joining them together to make oddly patterned toes and heels for sandals. Green soles, yellow fives and royal blue sevens all get together in such a way it takes looking to find them. For luck, one of the models has a red kid heel on which is stitched a navy blue "13."

GORMAN'S WAREHOUSE READY

J. T. Timberlake, known to thousands of tobacco growers in Eastern Carolina as "Tom," again will manage Gorman's warehouse, shown above, this season. For the past six years Mr. Timberlake has operated a warehouse in Greenville and is familiar with every phase of the industry.

JOHN, THE BODY-FINDER, BRINGS 'EM BACK, DEAD

INDIAN JOHN III
Third of his title and profession, George "Indian John" Thompson continues to use successfully the secret method devised by his grand-uncle for locating bodies in the bottom of lakes and rivers. Here he's setting out on one of his gruesome quests.

Stillwater, Minn. — (AP) — For three generations folks in this land of rivers and lakes have counted on Indian John—I, II and III—to bring up drowned bodies when all other searchers have failed.

For three generations Indian John—father, son and nephew—have locked their lips against revealing how they did it.

And today's Indian John—his real name is George Thompson; and he's not an Indian at all, but a sandy-haired, 28-year-old American of mixed nationality—continues to use and guard the formula passed down through his family since 1890.

The original Indian John was John Jeremy, a dark French-Canadian who resembled the Chipewas living in the St. Croix valley here.

Some persons said he used trained muskrats tied to strings to locate the bodies. Others said the old trapper followed friendly fish as they gathered over the corpse.

"You'll have to say for yourself whether that's true," Thompson says as he loads the treasured pack into his skiff. The bag obviously does not contain live muskrats or fish.

HELPS FOR HOUSEWIVES

Try peanut butter frosting for covering white or spice cakes. Add one-third of a cup of peanut butter to your regular uncooked white frosting. Blend nithe peanut butter well before icing the cake. Add a few roasted peanuts as decorations.

Chicken fat may be substituted for butter in cakes and cookies or for creaming or browning foods. Beef drippings may be used for seasoning sauces, meat or fowl stuffings or in meat loaves.

The wise housekeeper plans her day's work in advance. One help is to straighten up the living room before retiring. If chairs are in place, papers picked up, ash trays emptied and window shades adjusted the room may be quickly dusted in the morning.

Use paper cups in preparing individual portions of frozen foods. Salads and desserts may then be served in the cases or unmolded.

A bushel of pears or peaches will produce about fifteen quarts if the fruit is canned in halves.

If dark or light brown sugar is too hard to measure heat it in the oven, then measure it quickly while it is soft. Store it in the refrigerator or bread box, where it will remain soft.

Chopped ham may be added to waffle batter and served with pineapple-orange sauce.

TWO RELEASED BY OFFICIALS

penal division, revealed today fingerprints found in a stolen auto believed to have been used by the killers, "apparently corresponded" with those of two escapees. The prints were forwarded to the federal department of justice, he said, for verification.

Pitts declined to name the suspects pending a report from Washington.

Charles Farmer of the State Highway patrol said every officer in that organization had been instructed to "keep a close watch for the escapees." It was strongly intimated the suspects were among the seven long-termers who broke away from the Caledonia prison camp last spring after kidnapping two prison officials and making a getaway first in a prison laundry truck and later in commandeered automobiles.

NAVY BOMBERS HAVE COMFORT OF FINE HOME

Washington, Aug. 24.—(AP)—If Uncle Sam's naval aviators should by some strange turn of events be called on to bomb any foreign cities they would do their work in solid comfort.

The latest "flying boat" bomber developed by the navy has a galley that would make any housewife's eyes shine. It's complete with electric stove, water distiller and even a dry ice refrigerator.

There's also a telephone system aboard.

The head of the Statue of Liberty was shown at the Paris Exposition in 1878, before the statue had been assembled.

Whatever the secret is, it has worked Thompson says he has baited about 999 in the gruesome game. The only body he missed was located downstream in a river 47 miles from where relatives told him the victim drowned.

The camel, though related to deer and cattle, has no horns, no second and fifth toes and three stomachs instead of four.

"YOUR BUSINESS WILL BE APPRECIATED"

COUNTY AGENT CLUB SPEAKER

R. R. Bennett Heads Program at Local Rotary Meet

By WYATT BROWN

The multiplicity of services afforded and provided by the county farm agent of Pitt county were partially enumerated with brief comment and explanation last night at the Rotary club by Rotarian R. R. (Railroad) Bennett who is the Pitt farm agent. The importance, usefulness and true significance became immediately obvious to the Greenville business men when the agent's work included revealed it included the whole gamut of a farmer's life and work. For the first time many of those listening discovered what was meant by Four H clubs—hand, head, health and heart (a program for youth comprehending these four all inclusive interests of young peoples' existence.)

Being a farm agent fell natural since he was raised on a tobacco farm, learned more about it at N. C. State college, started out as a vocational agricultural teacher and thence to a county farm agent. For some it was news to hear that congress through the Smith-Lewis act created a fund available to states who would match funds and create agencies for promoting and improving agricultural conditions. North Carolina now has an agent in every county.

The agent and his cohorts, Mr. Bennett said, cooperated with all rural organizations and all town organizations interested in raising standards of living of farm people.

In listing projects and samples of cooperation Mr. Bennett mentioned cooperating with the Rural Rehabilitation project at Penderlea who will not accept a farm unless approved by an agent with Mr. Koonce in making loans, with Production Credit association, all federal loans for all have to have agent's inspection, the Federal Land conservation program including distribution of checks, with farmers in this effort to secure favorable legislation by holding meetings of farmers all over the county discussing the matters involved with the farmers then the agent helps farmers in all agricultural subjects by telephone and field contacts such as use of time, silos, herd testing, for profitability of venture, encouraging the breeding of better beef cattle, milk producing, mules, horses, sheep, help in all farm engineering projects such as building, terracing, electrification. The agent affords much information and assistance to farmers on entomological matters with cooperation of N. C. State farm extension service.

"THE HIGH DOLLAR WAREHOUSE"

Johnston's warehouse, shown above, is all ready for the opening of sales Thursday. Jimmy Johnston, who will manage the warehouse, will be on the floor to aid farmers in getting the highest possible price for their product. The warehouse's slogan is "the high dollar sales."

Experimenting with kinds and methods of application of fertilizer for tobacco and potatoes is being carried on all with the idea of reducing cost and improvement of quality of plants. Crop rotation is being demonstrated to the farmers proving fertilizer savings and reduction of losses due to plant diseases.

Promotion and assistance with 4-H club is just another of the many activities of the agent. These are but a partial list of an agent's services and activities among the farmers Mr. Bennett said.

The Rotary club went on record last night as approving extension of hard surface on highway 11 north of Bethel to the hardsurface highway connecting Williamson and Scotland Neck and also plan to take active part in securing state and federal monies for the extension.

Norman Winslow of Washington,

N. C., was a visiting Rotarian, L. G. Kittrell of Elizabeth, N. J., Tom Grant, club president, presided and also won the attendance prize given by Judson Blount.

Man About Manhattan

By George Tucker

New York, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The prop'e in this town have the most extraordinary way of showing gratitude. Most of them never let you forget that they have repaid with kindness.

I have in mind a shop-keeper in Chinatown who ran away from home when he was 10 and never went back until the day his old mother died—25 years later. He likes to tell of that reunion and as evidence he shows you a photograph of his mother's tomb. He is very proud of that tomb. It is the only thing he ever gave her.

Another case in point is a Wall street broker who advanced a sum of money to his second cousin. The loan was to be refunded on a certain date, but the transaction was personal, involving no signatures, and the cousin found it inconvenient to be there. It was nearly two years before he bobbed up unexpectedly with cash in his hand.

The broker, however, is sorry that he did. For recently he was compelled to summon his cousin for a heart-to-heart talk.

"When you owed me money," he pointed out, "you avoided me and, disappointed as I was then, at least I had peace of mind. Now that you have paid me, you race in at silly hours, inconvenience members of my family and my guests. You borrow my dress shirts without mentioning it. Last week you shot my favorite bird dog and the week before you wrecked my car.

"Here is the money back. Pretend that you owe it to me, although really this is a gift and you never have to pay it back. At least, if you avoid me, I will have some peace of mind."

All hotels, advertising agencies, actors, opera singers, studios and stars subscribe to clipping services. These are agents who comb the newspapers for mention of their clients. At the end of each day or week the clippings, tabbed with identification, are mailed to the star and the cost is 5 cents a clip.

It may startle you to know that the bill sometimes amounts to thousands of dollars. They say Colonel Lindbergh subscribed to a service when he flew the Atlantic and was staggered by a bill that ran into the hundreds.

The studio to which the late Rudolf Valentino was under contract ordered clippings of mention of his death, and with several carloads of clips was a bill for $7,000.

Theoretically these services read every newspaper that is printed in the United States, but actually the return is seldom greater than 10 per cent. That is to say, if a story carrying your name appears in 500 papers the service seldom returns more than 50 or 75 clippings. It is when you become a national figure and crack the front pages everywhere at once that the service comes dear. Then they gobble up as many dailies as can be found, and, brother, it costs you.

source of contention between her and her husband. The high school or college girl who underrates her attractiveness, is quite likely to overindulge in sweets and, incidentally, also to "compensate" by being an especially conscientious student. Even young children who suffer from psychologic maladjustment are prone to overeat. As individuals, they are likely to put on weight. How much of the gain in weight is due to a weakening in the endocrine system, especially affecting those glands which regulate metabolism, is conjectural. It is interesting to inquire, however how much of the weight gain is due to the temptation to "linger at the table," which in turn arises from the loss in gratification derived from other phases of life and activity.

How's Your Health?

Edited for the New York Academy of Medicine

By Iago Goldston, M.D.

Psychology of Obesity

Some years ago a prize-winning French book was translated into English under the title "The Martyrdom of the Oases." While written in a rather humorous vein the book presents an interesting study of the psychology of an obese man. Many have suspected that obesity, though immediately due to excessive eating, is frequently traceable to some deep-rooted psychologic maladjustment. This theory has never been adequately explored, yet many recorded clinical and psychologic observations seem to bolster it.

There is no doubt that eating affords the individual a "primitive pleasure. It is reasonable, therefore to assume that individuals denied pleasure or gratification in other phases of life or activity, may seek to replace them by the pleasures derived by eating.

Insen in his famous drama "The Doll's House," plays about this motif. The heroine Nora, who is psychologically a badly adjusted character, cannot resist the temptation of indulging herself in bonbons even though this proves a perpetual

QUICK! STOP CHILLS AND FEVER!

Take This Good Old Medicine for Malaria!

When you've got chills and fever, you want real and ready relief. You don't want to go through the usual old misery.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is what you want to take for Malaria. This is no new-fangled or untried preparation, but a medicine of proven merit.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic contains tasteless quinine and iron. It quickly relieves the chills and fever and also tends to build you up. That's the double effect you want.

The very next time you have an attack of chills and fever, get Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic and start taking it at once. All drug stores sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic, 50c and $1. The latter size is the more economical.

THE LAZY GOOD-FOR-NOTHING

DIXIE READY FOR OPENING

The Dixie Warehouse, shown above, will be operated again this year by Biggs T. Cannon and Will P. Moore, both of whom are well known to farmers in Eastern North Carolina. The warehouse will be in charge of Mr. Moore and Mr. Cannon will serve as auctioneer. A good judge of tobacco and his experience makes Mr. Cannon capable of securing the highest price for a pile of the golden weed.

Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan.

Last Christmas the two of them went on a hunt with several friends.
And who brought down the first buck against the whole field? None but Mrs. Dixie Bibb Graves. Stories from the South describe her as "at home with deep-sea fishing tackle, shotgun, garden spade or silver jasle at a banquet table." That's a formidable set of accomplishments with which to enter the Senate. Of course, it's a little confusing at first to know when to use fishing tackle, shotguns, garden spades or silver ladies in the Senate. But the new senators seem to catch on right quickly.

stitution in a case similar to the one which the original is kept. Yet up the street a short distance is the original in the Congressional Library. It is open to the inspection of all, close up. You could count on your fingers the number who see it in an hour. But that's nothing. We know several natives of this political city who never have seen Congress in session.

WHAT'S THAT AXIOM? IF YOU DON'T AT FIRST—

Toledo, O.—(AP)—A persevering thief stole the same car twice within an hour here, only to have an even-more persevering deputy recover it both times.

The officer, Eimer Tift, said he noticed a 14-year-old boy driving the car apprehensively but the boy parked the car and fled when he sought to question him.

Tift notified the owner, but while that individual was en route with his ignition keys, the car disappeared again. Tift, unaware of the second theft, saw the same boy driving a car, chased him, and discovered that it was the same machine. This time he hung onto both thief and automobile.

It is estimated that the people of the United States spend about $300,000,000 a year in the fight against insects of various kind.

Raleigh, Aug. 24.—North Carolina narrowly missed having its entire Rural Electrification Authority wiped out, it was learned here after Dudley Bagley, administrator, returned from the Asheville session of the board. It seems that last Friday an automobile in which practically all members of the board were riding was sideswiped on an Asheville street. In the machine, besides Mr. Bagley, were Dr. S. H.
Hobbs, E. F. Allen and George M.
Stephens, all board members.

The state probation system will likely be definitely setup Thursday when the Probation Commission meets here. The commission is expected to decide on the form of organization for the state, to set up a budget and to hear reports of Probation Director J. Harry Sample, who has been on a tour studying workings of the federal probation system and those of other states.
The commission is composed of Judge Wilson Warlick, chairman;
Attorney General A. A. F. Seawell,
Commissioner of Paroles E. F. Gill; Superintendent of Public Instruction Clyde Erwin and John S. Brad-way.

Roy McEachern, of Raeford, for many terms a member of the North Carolina General Assembly, was in town Monday, renewing acquaintances among the state's official family.

He was known as "Mr. Hoke" during one session of the legislature after considerable difficulty arose in pronouncing his name, which is called "Mack A-Run" in some parts and "Mack Ath-Ren" in others, while it looks like "Mack Ethch Earn."

Major Arthur Fuik, recently named head of the highway patrol, is today making his first out-of-town appearance and speech in his new role. He is on the program of the annual convention of the North Carolina Automobile Dealers, going on in Charlotte.

Governor Clyde R. Hoey will make another speech, though that's hardly news, at the Willard Field day, September 9.

Another sport—and a pair of winsome young ladies—chime in Carolina.

Tiny Miss Prince Nuffer, Goldsboro, and diminutive Miss Carolyn Perritt, Tarboro, have been splashing water on their competitors and credit on their native state in the Southern A.A.U. Swimming meet at Atlanta.

Count that day lost on which Mayor Thomas E. Cooper of Wilmington doesn't break into the public prints, usually with quite a bang.

The outspoken Thomas' latest is a threat to invoke federal housing aid against a proposed 20 per cent general hike of rents in the City-by-the-Sea.

Another chapter in the long battle of municipally owned against utility controlled power development is being written in Greensboro where trial of the Duke Power company's action to restrain the City of High Point from building a generating plant on the Yadkin river has begun.

The stanza is likely to be a long one, many estimating that the case will consume at least a month.
And that's not counting the appeals sure to follow whatever decision is handed down by the superior court.

Hollywood

Sights And Sounds

By Robbin Coom

Hollywood—The years are so short:

I. The company was on location for a romantic western film. It was hot, and the make-up on the actor's dripped. It was no place to be unless you had to, but the auburn-haired girl on the sidelines didn't seem to mind the heat or anything.
She just sat there and watched her husband go through the motions of being romantic and western.

It was funny in two ways. The husband had made his fame as a witty, quick-on-the-uptake master of ceremonies. He'd probably never met a horse before. The wife was famous on Broadway but in Hollywood they didn't care. They'd tried her once, and decided she was a fizzle. So she sat on the sidelines, adoring, but still not too happy. No actress is happy on the sidelines.

But it wasn't long before Frank Capra fixed that with "Ladies of Leisure" and started Barbara Stanwyck on an upward path recently climaxed by "Stella Dallas." It wasn't long before Frank Fay had been miscast out of pictures. . . .
And it was only a year or so ago, that the adoration business declined and Stanwyck didn't take up her option on Fay. . . . He's still around, doing well enough in radio and his friends call him "the most misunderstood guy in Hollywood, a great chap." . . . And Barbara's going places—in pictures and with Robert Taylor . . .

II. He strode into his dressing room where I was waiting. He was magnificent in doublet and hose and his profile was all that it had been pictured in prose and ballyhoo. . . . He was most cordial and picturesque but the swagger you expected from his romantic screen roles was abandoned for matter-of-fact ease and a sort of old-shoe comfort. . . . He was graying but he stood straight and looked taller than he was . . .

He talked easily, with little urging, about many things but mostly about his home and his wife . . .
his "very lovely" wife . . . But that was nearly nine years ago . . .
John Barrymore no longer plays romantic heroes like "General Crack." . . . And when he speaks of his wife he means Elaine Barrie
. . . And the "very lovely" Dolores Costello is supposed to be interested in a noted doctor . . .

III. She was taller than you expected her to be, and she looked even smaller because she was tired.
. . . There were circles under her eyes, and in the eyes a weary expression of haunted unhappiness. . . .
She sat on the lawn of the beautiful home that movie millions had built and talked of the disillusionment awaiting girls who come to Hollywood for fame. . . . Talked impersonally, but even when she attempted gaiety you could read things into it. . . . A small, sunbrowned figure in golf togs came from the house, waved a careless goodbye, and was gone.

What some of America's aquatic stars say about Camels

SPRINGBOARD ACE. Lovely Jane Fauntz Manske, of Chicago, says: "It's Camels for me! Good digestion is of prime importance to me. Tense competition and all the changes of diet when traveling are liable to upset digestion. But I smoke Camels at mealtimes and after and my digestion runs smoothly."

The best of meals tastes better and digests easier when you have an abundant flow of digestive fluids—alkaline digestive fluids. Smoking Camels encourages this flow—helps you enjoy a sense of well-being. Steady smokers say: "Camels set me right!"

HAROLD ("DUTCH") SMITH, Olympic diving champion, would "walk a mile for a Camel!" "I find a great deal of pleasure in Camels," says "Dutch." "I long ago discovered that smoking a Camel restores my flow of energy after a strenuous meet—gives an invigorating "lift!"

THREE-TIME OLYMPIC WINNER in the high-diving event. Dorothy Poynton Hill, of Los Angeles—a steady Camel smoker—says: "I prefer Camels because they don't get on my nerves. And they have such a rich, delicate flavor and never tire my taste."

"PETE" DESJARDINS—another famous diver—speaking: "Divers like a mild cigarette that doesn't upset their nerves. That's why I prefer to smoke Camels."

LENORE KIGHT WINGARD—a champion of champions in speed swimming, comments on smoking: "After an exhausting swim, I get a 'lift' with a Camel!"

AQUAPLANE EXPERT. Miss Gloria Wheeler can do hand-stands on an aquaplane. Lurching on the speed boat, she says: "I get so much benefit smoking Camels at meals."

Carolina Sales Defeats Tadlock's To Take Lead In Series

WIN FIFTH TILT BY 5-1 SCORE

Sixth Game at Third Street Stadium This Afternoon

Play-off Standings	W.	L.	Pct.
Carolina Sales	3	2	.600
Tadlock's	2	3	.400

Troy Burnette was in rare form yesterday afternoon as Carolina Sales defeated Tadlock Mutual Insurance Agency 5-1, to go one game ahead in the play-off series of the city softball league.

The games now stand three to two in favor of the Sales team, with another contest scheduled for six o'clock at Third street stadium this afternoon. A victory for the Sales team will end the series, while a Tadlock win will put the games at three-all with the deciding game set for Wednesday or Thursday.

Only one man reached third base for the insurance men yesterday and the only run came on a hit by Reynolds May and an error. Each of the hits made by Tadlock came in separate innings as Burnette tightened in the pinches to best Dr. N. E. Ward, hurling for the insurance men. The two have pitched the entire series so far and are expected to be in the box for the remaining game or games.

Tadlock's was first to score, pushing its single run across in the second, but the Sales team came back in the third to tie the count. The game went at one-one until the sixth, when the winners scored four runs. With two men on, Ed Waldrop homered to score three of the four runs in the sixth.

Roy Campbell saw action for the Sales team for the first time during the series yesterday and came through with two safeties. Roebuck set three hits to lead both teams. Besides Waldrop's homer, he also singled. The four hits for Tadlock's were made by May, Doug West, Dr. Ward and M. P. Fox.

Bears Whip Goldbugs In Brief Contest, 2-0

Goldboro, Aug. 23.—The New Bern Bears strengthened their hold on fourth place by handing the Goldbugs a 2-0 setback today in a game halted by darkness after six innings of play.

When the clubs reported for duty at 4 o'clock the field was flooded and workmen were unable to get the diamond in condition for play until 5 o'clock. Umpire Phaup announced that Manager Doc Smith of the Bears filed notice that his club would play under protest, but at 5:10, play got under way.

Stuart Flythe, who pitched a losing turn yesterday, held the Bums to three hits and fanned eight men to get the rod over Lefty Flora, former flinger for the Bears. The game's two runs came in the fifth inning. Douglas walked, stole second and came home on a double by Glenn Mullinax. Mullinax tallied a moment later on Stith's single.

It was announced yesterday that a double-header between Goldsboro and Greenville would be played at Third Street park Wednesday (tomorrow) afternoon, the first game to start at 2:30 o'clock. This will be the first opportunity the local fans have had this season to see a double-header here.

Although he fanned 10 of the Bills batsmen, the Greenies failed to deliver runs when they were within plucking distance, and Don King lost his second game of the season yesterday. The chunky left-hander from Iowa probably never pitched a more hard-luck game in his career. His slants had the visitors baffled time and again when, in at least five instances, batsmen hit flukes to off-corner areas for safeties against all expectations. Good baserunning did the rest of the business.

Then, too, the Greenies were wiped off the bases when in scoring positions when the Bills infield executed double plays. Three times this happened, once with the bases full and one out.

Emil Zak, who rates up near the top as the league's leading hurler, was also in good form. His curve ball was about all that could be desired, and although he fanned but one Greenie, the boys couldn't get 'em out of the infield.

The visitors garnered 11 safeties for 4 runs, while the locals reached Zak for nine blows.

Latham paced the Bills at bat with three for four, while Horse Mewborn, Wall and Robinson got two smacks apiece. Norwood, Pignataro and Andy Johnson hit safely twice each. Norwood and Roye hit triples for Greenville, while Robinson hit one for Snow Hill.

Snow Hill got two runs in the first inning in this manner: Mewborn singled, advanced on Hyder's out; scored on Wall's single to left. Robinson went out but Joe Bistrot hit a double to score Wall.

The Greenies' score in the sixth was the result of Norwood's single to right, Stowe's sacrifice and Pignataro's single. Piggy went to third on Andy Johnson's double and Johnny Rudhill was purposely passed. Buck Jarvis hit to Zak who threw to the plate to force Pignataro and Buck was nailed at first to complete the double play.

Mewborn started the Bills' two-run spurge in the seventh with his second single of the day. Hyder sacrificed and Wall brought the Horse home with a fluke single. Robinson then tripled to score.

Tarboro Assured Of Place In The Play-Off

The Coastal Plain League situation is fast boiling down to the point of selection of the teams which will appear in the post-season play-off. The top four teams at the close of play on Friday will begin play on Sunday in the first round of the playoff.

Prior to play yesterday, two teams were assured of berths in the title series—Snow Hill and Williamston, Nos. 1 and 2 in the standings. New Bern's defeat of Goldsboro yesterday sewed up a place for a third team—Tarboro, although Tarboro's place in the set-up has not been determined yet.

Only four games are left for each team in the league. A schedule of 100 games was arranged for the season, but with play closing Friday all teams will not have played the full 100. League directors have decided, however, that games "owed" to other clubs will not have to be made up, so that the title series can open Sunday. Tarboro has a lead of 4 1-2 games over the fifthplace Ayden club, and thus can not finish worse than fourth.

Chief battling from now on will revolve around the fourth berth in the play-off with fourth-place New Bern, Ayden and Goldsboro holding a chance for the place. Defeat yesterday pushed Goldsboro in to sixth place—behind Ayden and virtually out of the play-off picture—although the Bums still have a slight chance to land fourth ranking.

Charles Courtney, master locksmith of New York, has traveled as far as Bombay and Moscow to open "unopenable" safes and trunks.

Mewborn started the Bills' two-run spurge in the seventh with his second single of the day. Hyder sacrificed and Wall brought the Horse home with a fluke single. Robinson then tripled to score.

STATE GARDEN FETE PLANNED

Annual Fall and Winter Contest To Be Conducted

Raleigh, Aug. 24.—The annual fall and winter garden contest sponsored by the State College extension service will be held again this year, it was announced today. The object of the contest is to encourage rural families to raise more vegetables to help provide a balanced diet through the fall and winter and to reduce the family's cash expenditures for food.

Families wishing to enter the contest are urged to start their gardens as soon as possible. Full details may be obtained from county farm and home demonstration agents.

In each county where 10 or more families enter, cash prizes of $5 and $2.50 will be offered first and second place winners. State winners will receive $20, $12.50, $7.50 and $5 respectively.

Contestants will be enrolled by the garden leader in each home demonstration club. Any white farm family in the state is eligible to enter the contest.

A separate contest for colored farm families is also being planned, said C. R. Hudson, who is in charge of extension work with Negroes.

Extension specialists at State College have named the following vegetables that may be planted in August:

Broccoli, mustard, Swiss chard, endives, lettuce, turnips, seven top turnips, cabbage, Chinese cabbage, carrots, beets, celery, collards, snap beans, lima beans, tomatoes, and sugar corn.

In some sections it is a little late for planting corn, but in areas where frost does not come early the corn may have time to make roasting ears before the plants are killed by cold weather.

I THOUGHT I TOLD YOU TO HIRE A WOMAN TO COME IN AND DO YOUR HEAVY HOUSE-WORK

I DID—SHE'S COMING TOMORROW, BUT YOU DON'T SUPPOSE I'D LET ANYONE COME IN THIS HOUSE TO CLEAN UNLESS EVERYTHING WAS SPICK AND SPAN, DO YOU?

COME DEAR, SUPPER'S READY
