JAPANESE SEE NO REASON FOR CONDEMNATION

Tokyo Statesmen Assembled in Emergency Session

IMMEDIATE NOTE IS NOT EXPECTED

France and Britain Swap Views With Washington On Convoking Conference

(By Associated Press) Tokyo statesmen assembled today in an emergency session to discuss the United States condemnation of Japan's invasion of China...

Taken completely off guard, according to the highest Japanese government officials, the Tokyo statesmen were not expected, however, to reply immediately to the formal statement of the American state department...

The prevailing sentiment of the Japanese government is that there is no reason for the (United States) action, the high official said. "We completely fail to understand the American action which is bound to make a very bad impression on the Japanese public."

In London the possibility was advanced that the nine-power conference would be held in Washington. Officials declined to say whether a flat request was made to hold the parley in the American capital...

High Point, Oct. 7.—W. O. McCormick, 45, told police here today that two men had kidnapped him late last night and driven him until early today when, he said, they turned his car at a point near Lexington.

McCormick, a former taxi driver here, said the pair got into his car at a street intersection shortly before 11 o'clock last night and blindfolded him at the point of a pistol. The pair, McCormick said, released him, burned his machine and robbed him of about $18 about 2 a. m.

McCormick told police they stopped twice during the ride and the two men bought several cans of what he assumed was gasoline.

When they finally stopped, he said, the pair told him to get the cans from the back of the car, at the same time throwing a lighted match on the gasoline.

NO LET-UP IN LEAF AVERAGE

Wednesday's Offerings Paid Average of $29.48

The steady climb of the general season's average on the Greenville tobacco market continued uninterrupted yesterday as another good day was experienced on the local warehouses.

With sales continuing strong today and a good price anticipated Friday, some held hopes the general average would come near to reaching the $25 per hundred pound mark this week.

The year's average at the close of sales yesterday was $34. This figure was reached after a steady climb for the past two weeks or longer.

Yesterday offerings totalled 1,313,865 pounds and brought farmers $367,337.68 for their product. The average was officially stated at $29.48 per hundred pounds.

So far this season 33,293,658 lbs. of the golden weed has been sold for $8,103,935.45, an official average of $24.34 per hundred pounds.

Illinois Prisoners Escape From Farm

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Three convicts knocked a guard into unconsciousness and temporarily used another for hostage in making an escape from the Statesville prison farm early today.

The felons, all serving terms for robbery, waylaid J. W. Black, during the change of shirts and then forced Albert Drungen, another guard, to accompany them.

Drungen, in whose car the convicts fled, was dumped out of the car two miles north of the prison, unharmed. The attack on the guards occurred in a dormitory in which 150 convicts were asleep. The three convicts fled Black with a rock.

The prisoners, whose escape was flashed over police radio in Illinois and nearby states, were not involved in the hunger strike at the prison proper this week, Warden Joseph Regen said.

Prison rules and regulations were tightened Sunday when 1,000 convicts went on a hunger strike, which the warden attributed to resentment against the state board of pardons and paroles.

Sino-Jap Conflict Cause Of Loss To N.C. Railroad

Raleigh, Oct. 7.—The state-owned Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad continues to lose money principally because the Sino-Japanese state of war has virtually halted all shipments of scrap metal to the Orient, it is indicated by the report of H. P. Crowell, general manager.

The report, covering operations of the month of August showed that the railroad was in the red to the extent of $3,215 for the month. This deficit still left net profit for the year of $14,890.85, despite losses in both July and August.

Series Shifts to Polo Grounds For Tomorrow's Game

Yankee Stadium, Oct. 7.—The New York Yankees (American League) duplicated their feat of yesterday when they took today's game, the second of the 1937 World Series, by the score of eight to one. A crowd of more than 50,000 saw the Yankees take their second straight victory of the newly begun series.

The Giants scored their lone tally in the first inning on a two-base hit by Bartell followed by a single by Ott. Three Giant pitchers allowed the heavy hitting Yankees 12 safeties while Ruffing, hurling for the Yankees, allowed his opponents but six hits.

The New York Giants will be the home team tomorrow with the game being played at the Polo Grounds.

The game by plays: First Inning—Giants—Moore struck out. Bartell hit to left field for two bases. Ott singled to right field. Bartell scoring and Ott going to second on the throw in. Ripple struck out. McCarthy struck out. One run, two hits, no errors.

Yankees—Crossetti struck out. Rolfe out short to first. DiMaggio lined out to Bartell at short. No (Continued on page three)

Japanese Bombing Planes Slay 500 Non-Combatants In Province of Kwantung

Sino-Jap Conflict Occupies Capital

Hyde Park, N. Y., Oct. 7.—(AP)—President Roosevelt was in frequent communication with the State Department today, presumably ascertaining reaction to the government's latest pronouncement denouncing Japan for her undeclared war on China.

It was disclosed by Secretary James Roosevelt, William Phillips, ambassador to Rome, who has been vacationing in the Berkshires, was a caller at the summer White House yesterday afternoon.

He said Phillips stopped only about five minutes for tea, but undoubtedly talked about the foreign situation.

Saturday morning the President will attend the funeral of Mrs. Harry Hopkins, wife of the Works Progress Administrator.

Meantime at Washington, Secretary Hull indicated this government's firm intention of participating in a nine-power conference to consider the Far Eastern conflict.

Hull said no invitation to such a parley thus far has been received, but naturally as one of the signatories to the nine-power treaty guaranteeing China's territorial sovereignty, that he presumed this government would accept if add when the bid is received.

Other Washington developments: Supreme Court attaches are maintaining strict secrecy about the whereabouts of Justice Hugo Black.

Officials would not say whether he attended today's conference of justices to act on pending litigation. They would not even say whether he was in the Supreme Court building.

Administration supporters in Congress said they prepared to push the President's legislation program to quick enactment at either a special session or a regular session in January.

Violent Wind And Rain Cover Rome With Water

Rome, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Violent wind and rain storms, sweeping down from the Apennines for the past few days, reached Rome today and drenched the city with a prolonged rain and hail.

Firemen responded to numerous telephone calls to drain flooded cellars and linesmen hastened to find a break in wires that cut Rome's telephone communications with the rest of Europe.

Provincial dispatches said five persons were killed Tuesday night in an avalanche of stone, earth, and tree trunks near the Apennine town of San Pellegrino.

San Pellegrino was reported evacuated as three nearby villages were cut off from communications.

Pois, France, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Torrential rains today flooded more than a score of villages in Arriège on the southern Tennesse border. One man was killed when caught in the crumbling walls of his home in the village of Salau.

Man Here Descendant Of First Postmistress

J. Arthur Jones of this city declared today he was surprised to see an article in the State magazine, issue of October 2, about his great, great grandmother, who was first postmistress in the United States appointed by George Washington.

The postmistress was the wife of Colonel Andrew Balfour from Scotland, who fought in the Revolutionary War, but was murdered at his home by the Tories March 10, 1782.

The Mrs. Cowan, of Salisbury, mentioned in this article was a sister of Mr. Jones' mother. Mr. Jones friends might be interested in this article copied from an old Salisbury paper and which also is recorded in North Carolina history.

Gasoline Hearing Shows Much Hard Work Ahead

Raleigh, Oct. 7.—The only thing made clear at Wednesday's lengthy hearing before the new Gasoline Inspection commission is that the commission is faced by a task which will tax its ability to the utmost.

Practically everything else was so thoroughly hidden behind a cloud of technical discussion and abuse calculation that news men and lay spectators went away wondering what it was all about, anyway, and there was more than a sneaking suspicion that at least some members of the commission were in little better case.

The heart of the matter lies in determining just how gasoline shall be graded and how the various grades shall be made known to the buying public. This central fact was thoroughly shrouded by talk about "octanes" and other incomprehensible gadgets. When the hearing was over the consensus was that there weren't three people in the Hall of the House who knew any-

CHINESE DOWN EIGHT PLANES

Desperate Battle Raging in Shanghai Sector with Japanese Flagship Sending Countless Shells Over International Settlement

Shanghai, Oct. 7.—(AP)—More than 500 Chinese civilians were reported today to have been killed by mass bombing raids of Japanese war planes in the rich southern province of Kwantung.

The Chinese central news agency reported eight Japanese planes, including two huge bombers, were shot down by a surprise Chinese defense on the strategic military railway linking Canton on the south coast and the Yangtze river port of Hankow.

The massed Japanese flights took to the air yesterday just as the league of nations and the United States were condemning Japan for violation of her treaty obligations by invasion of Chinese territory.

A dozen railway centers were bombed along the route from Canton to Hankow, Chinese dispatches said, killing and wounding more than 300 non-combatants in those towns alone.

In northern Kwantung province the raiding planes were said to have caused several more casualties.

While the massed flight of 38 Japanese planes followed the railroad to the north, dropping bombs on each village as it came to it, Chinese said a spirited attack by 70 Chinese planes kept the line from being more than slightly damaged.

At Shanghai, where a desperate battle was raging through the rice paddies northwest of the city, the Japanese flagship Idzumo sent countless shells screaming over the international settlement in an effort to blast the Chinese out of the stubbornly defended position.

Blames Government For Cotton Prices

Iva S. C., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Senator E. D. Smith of South Carolina, chairman of the senate agriculture committee, blamed the administration's cotton loan for the present price of cotton, in a speech here today.

Speaking to students of the Iva and Antreville high schools and a scattering of adults, Smith declared: "I pleaded and begged for a 10-cent loan and a subsidy of two cents on this year's crop, but he said it was left up to the administration, and added:

"Look what we got. I don't know what it is."

"You ought to read that mess," he said in referring to the provisions of the loan program. Declaring if the government loan had been placed at 12 cents the market would have held that figure, Smith said if it had been left to him, he would have demanded a price of 15 cents for cotton.

"But I do not have the power," he said.

He said "power" came from handing out money and jobs."

Varied Attractions, Declared To Be New In North Carolina, To Be Offered at State Exposition

Reflector Bureau, Raleigh, Oct. 7.—A glamorous pageant of entertainment will be unfolded next week before visitors to the North Carolina State fair.

It will present 22 top-notch shows and 18 novelty rides. In connection with the midway attractions, Manager Dorton emphasized that no offensive shows or gambling concessions will be allowed.

The feature of the nightly grandstand show will be "The Revue of Tomorrow," a sparkling musical comedy produced by George Hamid and making its southern premiere at the North Carolina fair. A dozen specialty acts will be presented each afternoon and night in addition to the regular program.

Horse races, with some of the nation's best-known stables represented, will be featured Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. "Lucky" Teeter and his "Hell Drivers" will be the feature Wednesday afternoon.

Johnson Praises Morale Of State Prison Inmates

Raleigh, Oct. 6.—An improved morale in the prison division and among the state's convict wards is seen by Robert Grady Johnson, director of the penal division since he assumed his duties September 1. "Of course I really can't say that I have even begun the work I want to do," said Mr. Johnson, "But already I think there has been an improvement in morale all around."

"I do not contemplate any more changes in prison division personnel, though there may be some shifts in the medical department at Central Prison," he added.

Any change there, he indicated, will come only as the result of action by the full highway commission and not through him. When it was suggested that the commission would likely follow any recommendations made by him, Mr. Johnson said he doesn't intend to try to tell any doctor when to operate or when to give a man a dose of castor oil.

"I don't know much about the medicine business and I'm not going to get mixed up in it," he added.

When the prison director was asked if anything will be done as the result of the latest and renewed protest by welfare officials against an order permitting the whipping of prisoners under certain circumstances, Mr. Johnson smiled and said:

"We're not paying any attention to that. There hasn't been a prisoner whipped since I have been in office, but we do not intend to take away the threat of whipping contained in the present regulations. If we did, we might have a much harder time in controlling the prisoners."

So far as reports reaching him indicate the present wave of prison unrest, exemplified by riots at Alcatraz and San Quentin and a hunger strike at Joliet, has not reached North Carolina, Mr. Johnson said.

VIENNA FORMS SUPER SPECIAL STORM TROOPS

Vienna (AP)—A headache-proof private army, whose members are experts in ju-jitsu and politics, is being formed by Chancellor Schuschnigg's administration.

It is called the Sturmkorps, or S. K. The troops wear midnight blue uniforms with black shirts. In name, purpose, and training they remind one of Reichsfuehrer Hitler's elite guards, the S.S.

"Der Beamte," a weekly that circulates among government officials, lets it be understood that the new organization is something super extra special in many ways. camaraderie, intelligence, fighting spirit, physique and ten-odd other virtues.

The S. K. made its first appearance July 24 during exercises in memory of the late Chancellor Engelbert Dollfus. The men made a good impression among most Viennese—many of them are six-footers, slender and physically fit; their uniforms are natty and their boots squeak with the authoritative sound the Viennese seem to like.

Said "Der Beamte": "The iron determination of men who realize that the very special task of guarding the flag of the Fatherland Front has been entrusted to them is to be awakened in these Sturmkorps members—and not mere pugnaciousness, which picks a fight for the sake of fighting."

The Characters
Nina, a nice girl with flaxen hair, meets a young man at a party.
David drives her home, confessing he crashed the party and is an automobile salesman. He has copper hair and a dog named Buttons.
Honey, Nina's plump, youthful mother, brings home a new husband.
Richard, Nina's stepfather, is charming, poised, dark-haired, well-tailored and Honey's junior by 19 years.
Cordelia, Nina's closest friend.

Chapter Four
'Stick Close To Her'
TONIGHT Nina did not notice her beautiful room, or drink it in appreciatively, as she usually did. She drew her things off over her head, cold-creamed her face, brushed her teeth and hair and opened the windows, in a sort of daze; and the minute she was in bed, she started to cry, softly.

"Oh, daddy," she murmured into her pillow; and as the wintry dawn crept in, she was a little girl again, having her first serious talk with her father, about Honey.

"But it would have been so easy for her to remember, daddy! I said 'tan,' so plainly, and she got green . . . and now I'll have to wait a whole week for another order, and your present won't be done for Christmas! I do think she might have . . ."

"Now, listen, youngster," she could absolutely see her tall thin father, with his sensitive mouth and kind, humorous eyes. "There are two kinds of people in this world: the serious, sensible kind, like Annie, who mend your clothes and look after you, and never forget things . . . and then there are people like your mother, who make all the fun and gaiety in the world. Now you couldn't expect Annie to make you scream with laughter, and think up wonderful new kinds of games, and have all the kids crazy about her, could you? . . . No. Well then, you mustn't expect your mother, who brings you so much of another kind of happiness, to be like Annie, as well. That's sensible, isn't it?"

Nina had been able to see that it was. After that she had thought of Honey as having a very special sort of gift—as indeed she had—and had understood her much better.

Never Been In Love
ONCE or twice she had come upon her father unexpectedly, with an inexpressible sad look in his brown eyes, and she had wondered if Honey's special gift brought him as much happiness as it did others; but she had been too young to think very much about it. It was not until she was 16, and daddy had another little private talk with her, that she understood better.

It had been in the library—daddy's room then—with rows of slightly musty books and dark green leather chairs and sofa.

When he had called her in for that second talk about Honey, they had all known of his heart trouble—that he might go, suddenly, at any time.

He said: "I want to tell you some things, Nina dear, that I wouldn't be telling you if I were a well man. I'll plunge in." He sighed. "You may, or may not have noticed that your mother has never been—in love with me. That's very different, you know, child, from caring for someone, on her, and she had always done her best . . . till now, when it was too late to do anything at all, only hope."

"Oh, daddy, darling . . ." she murmured again, and fell asleep, because after all, she was young and healthy, and it was nearly 8 a. m.

At 11, she went down to breakfast with her first husband, so Nina had always made the effort; and now—some peculiar leftover—she always felt disloyal if she stayed in bed. Sometimes after a late night, particularly in her debutante winter, she had straggled in more asleep than awake, merely kissed him, gulped down a glass of tomato juice and returned to bed . . . but it had been carelessly, and her father had never been able to break her of the habit.

This morning as usual, these last two years, the dining-room was deserted.

When she stepped on the bell, Bridget, the waitress, appeared and said: "Good morning."

By HENRY AVERILL

By HENRY AVERILL.
Raleigh, Oct. 7.—North Carolina has been brought to the attention of more than 10,000,000 people by means of the direct advertising which has been run so far in some 46 newspapers and five magazines during July, August and September, according to R. Bruce Etheridge, director of the Department of Conservation and Development.
Tabulation of the circulation of the 46 newspapers in the east, north and middle-west in which North Carolina advertisements appeared called attention to the attractive features of the state, shows this circulation to be in excess of 7,000,000, while the circulation of the magazines carrying similar advertisements is in excess of 2,500,000.

Arrangements for the travel tour of North Carolina by visiting news men have been so minutely made that detailed plans for taking care of laundry work for the 100 people on the tour have been made.
This is quite an achievement in view of the fact that the tourists will travel at a rate of almost 200 miles a day and will not stay in any one place more than one night at a time.

Accordingly arrangements have been made to have a laundry truck from Charlotte meet the tourists at Blowing Rock on October 15 to pick up laundry, to be ready for the owners when the tour reaches Charlotte.

For the first time in the Fair's history, a nursery in which children may be "parked" will be maintained at the Fair Grounds here next week. The merchants of Raleigh are providing the facilities. In addition to leaving the tots in safe hands for a while, parents will be

FREE AIR SHOW FOR WEEK-END

Parachute Jumping and Stunt Flying to Be Features

A free air show, with parachute jumping and all kinds of stunts, will be offered at the Dudley air field across the river Saturday and Sunday.
Ray Anderson, veteran jumper, with more than 700 leaps to his credit, will do the jumping. A factory test man, Anderson is considered among the best in the game. He has been at it for the past seven years and is said to be the only person to jump from a plane with his hands cuffed behind him.
Joe Musieh, who hails from Jacksonville, Fla., will pilot a 15-passenger airliner. He has been in commercial flying for some time and is considered a veteran pilot.
The White Chevrolet company is sponsoring the air show.

able to refresh themselves with ice water. Amusement for the children will be provided.

Sam Blount of Washington, in Beaufort County, was in town Tuesday and was in his usual joshing mood.

Sam expressed mock indignation at the fact that his client, two Negroes sentenced to death for murder, were not given new trials by the Supreme Court. Their case was the first argued before the seven-member bench, and Mr. Blount was the author of the legislation putting into effect the people's approval of a Constitutional amendment authorizing two additional justices.

"Here I go and get two members put on the court. I argue the very first case they here, and yet they turn down my plea for new trial. It's an outrage."

In more serious vein, Mr. Blount lodged a complaint against the old Highway Commission, succeeded this year by a new setup.

"I've got a whole file full of promises to build roads in Beaufort county," said he. "But not one yard of road was ever built as a result of them."

"I haven't any complaint against the new Commission, yet. Frank (Frank L. Dunlop, highway commission chairman) and I are still speaking to each other."

There's no shortage of food for members of the North Carolina travel tour, carrying visiting writers to all parts of Tar Heels.

"If we accepted every invitation the tour has had to stop for lunch, breakfast, dinner or refreshment, we would have to stop at least six times a day to eat," said Coleman W. Roberts, chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Tour Of North Carolina Will Advertise 65 Cities

Raleigh, Oct. 6.—The Travel Tour of North Carolina, on which more than 90 news men, special writers, editors of travel publications, travel bureau executives and counselors will tour the state for twelve days as guests of the Governor's Hospitality Committee, beginning in Asheville October 10, will offer the more than 65 cities and communities in which it will stop an opportunity to advertise themselves throughout the nation. It was pointed out today by Director R. Bruce Etheridge of the Department of Conservation and Development, which is sponsoring the tour.

Those in charge of the entertainment arrangements in each city, town and community in which the tour will stop, have been requested to send at least four representatives ahead to the last stop before reaching their community. Each one of these will board one of the busses and cars containing guests, will be given a megaphone and asked to tell the tourists about the particular section through which the tour is passing and about the next stop. These "guides" will also be expected to point out places of interest and give interesting facts about them.

"In this manner each city and town in which the tour will stop will have an opportunity to present the attractions of each section of the tour guests before they arrive," Mr. Etheridge said. "When the tour stop is long enough local guides will also be provided to show the guests any particular places they want to visit. Thus every locality is being given an opportunity to point out its places of interest and features that might prove attractive to tourists."

Special entertainment features have also been planned by almost every place in which the tour will stop while many souvenirs will be distributed to the tour guests typical of the section in which the tour will stop.

Flying Phantoms To Play Kinston Here Tomorrow

Greenies All Set For Tough Game With Red Devils

The Flying Phantoms of Greenville high school will go after their third gridiron triumph of the season when they meet the strong Kinston Red Devils at Third street stadium, Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The local team is in fine physical condition with none on the injury list. The Greenies have been pointing to the Kinston game and can be depended on to make a splendid showing.

All indications point to another thrilling contest. Greenville has been victorious over Kinston for the past three years by close scores. In 1934 Kinston went down under an 18-0 score; in 1935 it was 13-7; and in 1936 it was 14-0. Word has been received from Kinston that the Red Devils are out for the Greenies' scalp this year.

Coach Mock of Kinston has a light but fast team. His line averages 145 pounds and the backfield 152 pounds. Kinston has one win and a tie game so far this season. They routed Selma last week 40-0 and tied the strong Williamston eleven 6-6 in the first game of the season.

Leading the Kinstonians is their captain and star quarterback, Clay Croom, who is the sparkplug of their team. Two regulars from last year's eleven are filling the half-back posts, Ed Evans and Pete Herring. Rounding out Coach Mock's backfield is Quinn, a newcomer, who has shown much promise in early games.

In the forward wall Coach Mock has five lettermen: Whiteker, Taylor, Smith and Dawson are the best performers in the line and will give the local backs much trouble.

Greenville's coaches, Dally and Stowe, sent their boys through a long scrimmage yesterday afternoon perfecting plays. Coach Stowe had the backs working on the pass defense as Kinston's best weapon is their pass attack. Jack Moye has been working hard this week and has done some good work and may start at guard, replacing Nobles.

Coach Dally has not announced a definite starting line-up, but the tentative lineup is Roberts and Hodges, ends; Clark and Kittrell, tackles; Moye and Tucker, guards; Williams, center; Parrish, Clark, Henderson and Harris, backs.

STATE TO PLAY FURMAN TEAM

Wolfpack To Leave For Greenville, S. C. Tomorrow

Raleigh, Oct. 7.—A bus load of State College football players will leave here tomorrow morning for Greenville, S. C., for their game there Saturday night with Furman University.

Coach Doc Newton said today that the Pack was in good shape and that he hoped to take 33 players on the trip if room could be found for that many on the bus.

The players will arrive in Greenville at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon and that evening will take a light and final workout in Graham Field where the game is to be played.

The Pack eleven Newton will send against Dizzy McLeod's Purple Hurricane is perhaps the smoothest and best clicking to represent State in some years, yet Newton is expecting the worst from Furman.

Herman Hickman, line mentor, has coached the forwards to charge low and hard this week has had them working hours upon hours on blocking.

Louie Mark, courageous center; Jess Tatum, end, and George Fry, powerful right tackle, have been the leaders in the line and will head State's defense against Furman's speedy and deceptive running attack.

Bob Warren has charge of the backfield and has in Eddie "Little Buzzer" Berlinaki, senior, and Art Rooney, sophomore triple threat, two of the most dangerous backs in the Southern Conference. They will carry the brunt of State's offense.

These five men are sure to start. Other probable starters are Mac Merry, end; E. V. Helms, tackle; Dan Pioso and Cecil Brownie, guards; George Murphy and Paul Lozier, backs.

The Wolves have worked hard this week, seeking to better their game for the hard pounding expected from the powerful Furman eleven. Special emphasis has been laid on pass offense and downfield blocking and Coach Newton believes there has been some improvement.

While seeking to better their offense, the Wolves have not forgotten to set up a defense which they hope will check Captain June Scott—ace back of the Hurricane—who played brilliantly in his team's 58-0 win over Wofford last Friday night.

In their final home practice this afternoon, the Wolves will work further on blocking and pass offense. Coach Newton also said their would be a short dummy scrimmage to give the Wolves a chance to run through a number of new plays given them especially for the Furman game.

Short Briefs On College Players

IRON MAN

Big Jim Johnson, tackle on the East Carolina Teachers College football team holds the record for endurance for Eastern Carolina athletes. On last Friday night he won a heavyweight amateur boxing match from one of the toughest opponents in the state by way of the knock-out route and then reported to Coach Swede Alexander and played over half of the Guilford-E. C. T. C. game and turned in a most creditable performance.

Johnson is aggressive, uses his hands well on defense and is a fast charger on offense. He is one of the mainstays in the Pirate line.

RALEIGH BOY ON TEAM

David Breese, former Raleigh high school star, is turning in some creditable performances as half-back on the East Carolina Teachers College Pirate football team and Coach Alexander is depending upon his craftiness and ball-carrying ability to play an important part in the Campbell College game next Saturday. Despite his light weight, Breese is a hard driver; is shifty and has a fine sense of balance and judgment of pace.

TAKE IT EASY

It is news when Bill Dudash, Massena, N. Y., fullback on the East Carolina Teachers College Pirate football team gets excited, takes an unnecessary step or moves without an urge. Upon being questioned about his apparent unconcern, the wily fullback replied to the reporter, "A fellow can't hurry, digest his food, and think at the same time."

Dudash is a freshman and despite his inexperience in collegiate football is showing evidences of developing into one of the finest backs in eastern North Carolina.

VOLS PREPARE TO MEET DUKE

Tennessee Team, 35 Strong, To Leave Knoxville Friday

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 7.—The University of Tennessee Vols, about 35 strong, will leave Knoxville by train at six a. m. Friday bound for Durham, North Carolina, and their strategic conflict with the Duke Blue Devils. Major Robert H. Neyland, boss of the Vols, put his charges through a strenuous week of practice as he prepared for Tennessee's toughest battle of the season to date.

The game Saturday will mark Tennessee's sixth and Major Neyland's fifth encounter with Wallace Wade's big blue team. Previous Tennessee-Duke scores are: 1931 Tennessee 25; Duke 2. 1932 Tennessee 16; Duke 13. 1933 Tennessee 2; Duke 10. 1934 Tennessee 14; Duke 6. *1935 Tennessee 6; Duke 19. 1936 Tennessee 15; Duke 13.

Two U-T backs were counted as probably out of Saturday's game and two others are in doubtful shape as a result of recent injuries. Billy Barnes and Leonard Coffman, halfbacks, may not play against Duke because of bruises sustained Saturday in U-T's 27-0 victory over V.P.I. Melvin Herring and Buist Warren, half and quarter, are also handicapped by hurts. "Big" Joe Wallen of Portland, Tenn., Neyland's first choice for fullback, is definitely out for the season following his recent re-twisting of a bad knee. Wallen was operated on at the U-T hospital this week.

Tennessee this season has defeated Wake Forest and V. P. I. The Vols have made 12 first downs to opponents' ten. They have attempted six passes and completed five for a total of 85 yards. Their punts have averaged 39 yards to their opponents' approximate 38. They have fumbled five times although three of these have been recovered by them. Opponents have gained 113 yards through their pass defense.

PIRATES HOLD LONG SESSION

Teachers Preparing for Game With the Campbell Team

The Pirates spent a rather lengthy period on perfecting their running attack yesterday afternoon. Two hours was spent in signal running.

Two entire backfield organizations are working. The quartet made up of Bill Shelton, quarterback; Jack Noe, halfback; Prunty Carpenter, halfback, and "Take-It-Easy" Bill Dudash ran reverse plays and spinners behind the less experienced of two lines, while Francis Ferebee, quarterback, led another quartet with David Breese and "Skeeter" Farmer at halfbacks, with "Jew" Ayres and "Blondie" Puckett alternating at the fullback post.

Coach Alexander is far from pleased with the showing made by his backs and ends. Much work is due yet before the Pirates show polish and precision. Several are suffering from colds and minor injuries and the group has suffered much from the hard-driving of the husky Swedish mentor and the excessive heat. One lineman is reported to have said that he had lost so much weight that he could wipe the perspiration from his face with the folds of skin from his stomach.

Joe Hatem and Dynamite Smith—ends—are recovering from injuries sustained in Saturday's game and are expected to be in condition for the Campbell College fray on Saturday.

"Skinny" (Evert) Perkins is looking good on pass receiving but his line play is far from what Coach Alexander expects of an end. With experience Perkins should make a fine end.

UNC-NYU GAME TO DRAW MANY

Fans Vividly Recall 1936 Contest Won By Carolina

Chapel Hill, Oct. 7.—As North Carolina and NYU approach their second meeting Saturday on Ohio field in New York City, the memory of that first hectic battle last season in Yankee Stadium is ever fresh in the minds of students and followers of the two institutions.

In the final analysis it was the dependable placekick toe of Halfback Tom Burnette that gave North Carolina scant 14-13 victory. Burnette's first boot went squarely through the uprights. His second kick barely cleared the bar. Michael Stelmach, NYU quarter, converted successfully for NYU but the entire Tar Heel line smeared Halfback Salvatore Somma's try for the second extra point.

North Carolina held the upper hand for the first three quarters. Crowell Little's 12-yard touchdown toss to Dick Buck, pass-grabbing expert, culminated a 50-yard advance in the first quarter. Art Ditt ran 35 yards around end for the second score.

But the Violet was not to be denied. Trailing 14-0 early in the fourth quarter, Howard Dunney, alert end, pounced on Tom Burnette's punt and recovered on the Tar Heel's 30. NYU went over in exactly two plays. Quarterback Bernard Bloom raced 13 yards to the 17 and then passed successfully over the goal line to Dunney.

The second touchdown came just before the end. After holding the Tar Heels for downs on the 2-yard line, NYU, employing a bewildering assortment of running and passing plays, marched 98 yards down the field with Stelmach scoring.

The statistical survey showed NYU with 13 first downs and 133 yards on passing and 11 first-and-tens and 72 on aeriels for North Carolina. The Tar Heels, however, had decidedly the superior running attack advancing 171 yards against 99 for the Violet.

General consensus in this Saturday's game is that North Carolina is stronger on running again, but NYU superior in experience, weight and reserve strength. The two teams rate on a par in speed.

Chapel Hill, Oct. 23.—When Tullane meets North Carolina at Chapel Hill October 23 in an inter-conference game, it will be on its way homeward. The Greenies will play Colgate University at Buffalo, N. Y., October 16, and will prepare for the Tar Heel game enroute to North Carolina.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Oct. 7.—(AP)—International developments hinging on Washington apparently steamed up some of the old-time "war babies" in today's stock market and inspired a recovery trend in other departments.

The list shook off early selling with little difficulty and advances running to three or more were widely distributed near the fourth hour.

Bonds and commodities were uneven.

JUDGING TEAM SCORES THIRD

State College Wins In Baltimore Livestock Show

Raleigh, Oct. 7.—State College's livestock judging team won third place in the collegiate livestock judging contest at Baltimore this week.

Returning with the team, R. E. Nance, assistant professor of animal husbandry, said the boys scored 3,018 points. The winning team, Cornell, scored 3,254.

J. W. Pou, of Elmwood, high man on the State team, scored 664 points and was second highest among the 34 boys competing in the contest.

Other members of the State team were: E. H. Forbes, Gastonia, 607 points; H. G. Snipes, Ahsokie, 601 points; Sam Williams, of Sparta, 582 points; and J. S. Boyles of Charlotte, 564 points.

Nance pointed out this was the first year that State had entered the contest, and said, "I think the boys did exceptionally well in view of the fact that this State has not been developed as a fat cattle section and they did not have as many good animals to practice on as the students from the other colleges and universities."

In Baltimore they judged three classes of fat steers, three classes of market hogs, one class of fat lambs, one class of breeding ewes, and one class of breeding lambs.

Cash prizes of $100, $75, 50 and $25 were awarded teams winning first, second, third and fourth places, respectively.

Nance also stated that on the way to Baltimore the team visited the Curles Neck farm near Richmond, the Virginia State Fair at Richmond, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture experimental farm at Beltsville, Md., where they practiced judging livestock.

TRY THIS ON THE COWS IF THEY WON'T BEHAVE

Scottsbluff, Neb.—(AP)—This isn't exactly playing cricket with Old Bossie, but Herman Gompert, farmer near here, says it accomplishes the desired aim.

Gompert was troubled with his cows crawling through an ordinary barbed wire fence, so he put up a single strand and charged it with electricity.

"The cows came into contact with the wire several times, then refused to go near the fence. "I turned off the juice and the cows haven't found it," he says. "I guess it will work until I get another herd."

TULANE IS STRONG AT END POSITIONS

Chapel Hill, Oct. 7.—Tulane University will present two outstanding ends when the Greensies tangle with North Carolina at Chapel Hill October 23. They are Jerry Friedrichs and Pete Delavio. Friedrichs and Delavio held down the flank posts last season and did a fine job of it. The Tulane stars will be matched against Andy Bershak, Tar Heel end, who was chosen on the Associated Press second All-American team in 1936.

TRACK STAR PLAYING WELL WITH GREENIES

Chapel Hill, Oct. 7.—Billy Payne is another leading back on Tulane University's football squad which comes to Chapel Hill for an outstanding inter-Conference engagement with North Carolina October 23. Payne performed well as a sophomore last season. In track he is considered one of the fastest quarter-milers in the country. He will lend considerable power as relief man to Dub Mattis and Bill Flowers, No. 1 halfbacks.
