

House Committee Adopts Principle For Crop Control

PREPARE BILL FOR CONGRESS

Agreement Reached For Voluntary Control of Wheat, Cotton and Rice, And Group Reported In Virtual Harmony on Proposal for Compulsory Limitation on Tobacco Crop

Washington, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The House Agriculture Committee agreed today on the principle of voluntary control of wheat, cotton and rice crops in the new farm bill.

Chairman Jones (D. Texas), said the group also had virtually accepted a proposal for compulsory control of tobacco.

The question of compulsory or voluntary regulation of crop production has been one of the most controversial before the committee which is drafting a bill for presentation at the special session of Congress November 15.

The bill outlined by Jones also provides for continuation of soil conservation payments, financing the new program by some form of tariff equalizing taxes, and setting up marketing quotas in emergencies.

It differs in many respects from a measure already drawn by Representative Flannagan (D. Va.), providing for compulsory crop control.

The Flannagan bill would operate chiefly by means of marketing quotas and the imposition of penalties on farmers selling crops in excess of those quotas.

Committee members said the tobacco control system under consideration would place penalties of 50 per cent of the value on buyers of surplus tobacco, rather than on the farmer.

Some sentiment was said to have developed for similar penalties for peanuts and potatoes. There also was opposition in the committee on the grounds that if these commodities were given special treatment it would open the way to demands of special handling of additional crops.

The difficulty of drafting provisions for corn remained one of the major problems. Representative Coffee (D. Neb.), member of a sub-committee handling corn, said the group was undecided about the commodity as when Congress adjourned last August.

Local High School Wins Distinction

Nine students and V. M. Malinchuk, principal, of Greenville High School, returned to this city last night from Lexington, Va., after having attended the thirteenth annual convention of the Southern Interscholastic Press Association, at which the local high school took several honors.

Green Lights, official publication of the high school, was awarded first prize in schools from Class "C," or those with 800 or less students, and was awarded a loving cup. Last year, Green Lights received an all-Southern honor rating at the convention.

James Whitfield, co-editor-in-chief of Green Lights was elected president of the Southern Interscholastic Press Association for the coming year. He succeeds Bill McC...

RANSOM BILL

Chicago, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Discovery of another ransom bill providing federal agents with a fresh clue today in the mysterious kidnapping five weeks ago of Charles Ross.

A $10 note, part of the $30,000 ransom paid to the supposed kidnapper of the 76-year-old retired manufacturer, was turned over to federal agents by T. J. Cook, proprietor of a South Side hotel.

Cook obtained the bill from Ellis Williams, a shoe salesman, and guest at the hotel. Williams said he received the bill in his pay envelope Saturday.

Ross was kidnapped September 25 and the ransom was paid two weeks later in $5, $10 and $20 bills. Since then four of the bills have turned up.

J. Nat Harrison, prominent Greenville business man, has accepted the chairmanship of the annual Red Cross Roll Call, to be conducted here beginning Monday morning, Nov. 15th.

MANY TRIED IN POLICE COURT

Three Released On Charge Violating Sunday Blue Laws

Charges of remaining open on Sunday in violation of a city ordinance against three Greenville storekeepers were dismissed in City Police Court this morning with the admonition to keep their places of business closed on the Sabbath.

The three defendants were R. S. Pellard, L. M. Wilson and W. C. Johnson. Two taxi drivers, Clarence Matthews and Bill Bax, tendered pleas of guilt to exceeding the speed limit and each was fined $5 and taxed with the costs of court.

Other cases tried in the court this morning constituted the usual Police Court charges, chiefly assault and drunkenness.

Hattie Allen, Negro, was given a term of 30 days upon conviction of public drunkenness.

Ernest Whitchard, Negro, was bound over to County Court under bond of $300 on a charge of assault.

W. B. Mobley, Negro, was sent to the roads for 30 days upon conviction of assaulting his wife.

John Patrick, Negro, was taxed with the costs of court upon conviction of public drunkenness.

Hamp Lilly, Negro, was fined $5 and ordered to pay the costs on a charge of engaging in riotous and disorderly conduct.

David Lee Clark and Clifton Merris, young Negroes, were convicted of engaging in riotous and disorderly conduct and ordered to pay a $5 fine each and costs of court.

Charles Jones, Negro, was taxed with the costs upon conviction of public drunkenness.

Francis Dancy, white man, also was convicted of drunkenness and was sent to the roads for a term of 30 days.

James Holten, Negro, was fined $5 and ordered to pay the costs of court upon conviction of engaging in riotous and disorderly conduct.

All advertisements, with certain exceptions, in the daily newspapers and magazines of Lima, Peru, will be subject to an ad valorem tax of 10 per cent under a law recently enacted.

Electrification Progress Strikes Snag In Southeast

Raleigh, Nov. 1.—Refusal of the Federal Rural Electrification Administration to approve a loan to the Tide Water Power Company has set back the progress of rural electrification in Eastern North Carolina to a very marked extent.

The requested loan of $190,000 was to be used in building lines in thirteen counties, with a total proposed mileage of approximately 175. Counties in which the Tide Water was planning extensions are New Hanover, Brunswick, Wayne, Columbus, Pender, Duplin, Sampson, Lenoir, Greene, Cartaret, Onslow, Jones and Craven.

With the loan refused, it now appears highly improbable that any of the lines can be built. The Tide Water contends, and its contention is generally accepted as true, that it has not the available cash to finance construction.

EDEN ASSERTS BRITAIN TO GO AS FAR AS U. S.

United States Expected to Take Lead in Sino-Jap Crisis

HOLD NYON MEET ON WEDNESDAY

Foreign Secretary Answers Mussolini's Plea for Return Of German Colonies

London, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told Commons today that Britain would go exactly as far as the United States in seeking an end to the Chinese-Japanese conflict at the Brussels five-power conference which opens Wednesday.

He made it clear that the United States is expected to take the lead in any definite action to control the Far Eastern threat to world peace.

The United States provided impetus for holding the conference and also suggested that Brussels be the meeting place, he asserted.

The foreign secretary advised Italy flatly, amid Commons' cheers, that she need not expect the return of colonies to Germany while Premier Mussolini keeps territory which Italy won in the war.

Thus with what he described as his own "appalling frankness," Eden answered Premier Mussolini's urgings in his address last week that Germany "get back a place in the African sun."

There was no indication whether the ultimate British action would take the form of reprisals, threatened last August in a note to General Francisco Franco if there were further attacks on British shipping.

However, the dispatch of the Hood to the scene of the bombing appeared to be evidence that Britain is determined on a sterner Mediterranean policy to enforce the Nyon anti-piracy accord.

Meanwhile government critics awaited pledges of a stronger Mediterranean policy tonight when the House of Commons ends its debate.

DRIVE MADE ON ARAGON FRONT

Insurgents Claim To Have Penetrated Osan Woods

Hendaye, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Insurgents reported today they had penetrated beyond the Osan woods in the Sabarico sector of the northern Aragon front.

Government sources, however, declared that a Catalan militia unit showed such strong resistance that the attack was repulsed with heavy insurgent losses.

Insurgent communications said General Francisco Franco's forces found almost 500 government dead.

Other sectors on the Northeastern front, where the Insurgents threatened a drive eastward to rich Government Spain, were quiet.

Insurgent sources said at Brun they were preparing "the greatest offensive in Spain's history" aimed at crushing Government morale and ending the 15 months' civil war with a decisive thrust into

LESS BUILDING DURING MONTH

Only Seven Permits For Construction In October

Only seven building permits were issued during October, as compared with 13 during the previous month. Estimated cost of construction last month was $7,515, compared with $16,350 during September.

Each of the permits was for dwellings, however, and the list included several alterations as well as new buildings.

Permits issued during the month follow: J. L. Briley, one-story, five-room dwelling on Harding street between Third and Fourth, estimated cost, $3,500.

L. R. Meadows, three cottages combined with a total of 13 rooms on Reade street between Second and Third, estimated cost, $1,200.

C. J. Cannon, one-story, six-room dwelling on Thirteenth between Colanache and Reade, estimated cost, $1,700.

John Page, alter two story dwelling on McKinley between Roosevelt and Sheppard, estimated cost, $40.

Julius Haskins, alter one-story dwelling on Roosevelt street between Fifth and Sixth, estimated cost, $25.

J. W. Higgs, alter one-story dwelling on Pitt street between Green and Clark, estimated cost, $350.

Thomas B. White, one-story, six-room dwelling between Douglas and Contentnea, estimated cost, $0.

Term Of Criminal Court Postponed

With everything in readiness for a big week of Criminal Court this week, the session had to be postponed until Wednesday, at least, when Judge Hubert E. Olive, of Lexington, who was to have taken the place of Judge W. C. Harris, of Raleigh, who is ill, also was kept at home because of illness.

The Grand Jury will continue with its work, but other business was postponed until Wednesday, when it is hoped Judge Olive will be able to be here.

Several divorces were granted at the civil session here last week. Those granted the decrees follow:

Mary Hurley Harris vs. Leslie Harris; C. L. Whitfield vs. Ella Mae Whitfield; G. T. Bumpass vs. Janie Gay Bumpass; and Ruth Inez Rice vs. Floyd Rice.

All of the divorces were granted on grounds of two years' separation.

Trustee Gives ECTC Treasured Engraving

East Carolina Teachers College has just received from A. B. Andrews, of Raleigh, the gift of a steel engraving of George Peabody, a man whose name is famous in education.

Mr. Andrews is now and has been for many years a trustee of the College, and has more than once before presented similar gifts to the institution.

The engraving is one which Mr. Andrews found on a trip abroad. It will probably be hung on the walls of the library, along with portraits of former President Robert H. Wright and Dr. J. Y. Joyner.

GREAT BRITAIN SENDS CRUISER TO BARCELONA

To Investigate 'Pirate' Attack on Merchant Ship

IMPLICIT ORDERS GIVEN OFFICERS

Instructed to Interview Crew of Wrecked Vessel and Non-Intervention Observers

London, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The government today ordered the battle cruiser Hood, most powerful battleship in the world, to Barcelona to investigate the "pirate" attacks on the British merchantman Jean Weems, off the Spanish coast.

CHURCH STEPS—A NEW FRONT LINE

Steps of a Chapei church serve as an unusual but effective front line firing post for Japanese marines fighting off a Chinese advance near North Station, Shanghai. Chapel, native quarter of the city, has borne the brunt of the fighting in the Sino-Japanese conflict.

Lost Battalion Regrets Being Forced Withdraw

Commander of Group Declares Men Left Sorrowfully

Shanghai, Nov. 1.—(AP)—General Hsieh Chin-Yuan, commander of the Chinese "lost battalion" that defied the Japanese for four days in a Chapei warehouse citadel, declared today that his men withdrew sorrowfully.

"Their two greatest griefs, he said, were that they were forced to withdraw before sealing the struggle with their lives and that they could not return to the conflict."

He was promoted from colonel to general in recognition of the feat that raised all his men one rank.

He declared his force of soldiers lost only 10 dead, not 100 as the Japanese have asserted.

The general, who was the last to leave the burning warehouse Saturday night, said:

Negro Struck By Auto Here Saturday Night

Thomas Ross, local Negro, suffered a broken leg about 7:30 o'clock Saturday night when he was struck by an automobile driven by W. J. Barnhill, of Bethel.

Mr. Barnhill, against whom no charges have been preferred, told police officers that the Negro started to run across the street on Dickinson avenue directly in front of his automobile and it was impossible to avert striking him.

The accident happened almost in front of the ABC store on the avenue. After hitting the Negro, the Bethel man took him to the hospital, and then voluntarily reported to police headquarters.

The new distillery season has just opened in Scotland and orders are reported so heavy for 1937-1938 deliveries of Scotch whiskey that distilleries must operate at full capacity.

Politics Hold Attention Of Capital During Week

Reflector Bureau. By HENRY AVERILL. Raleigh, Nov. 1.—Politics held Raleigh's official attention last week to the exclusion of every other form of activity or endeavor. Standing out in bold relief was the gathering during the week of more than 300 Democratic women from all sections of the state to pledge allegiance to the "New Deal" and to lay plans for a concerted assault on the Republic's next year.

At least those were the reasons assigned to the surface for the meeting, though it is just as certain as death and taxes that much more than that went on beneath the surface.

It could scarcely be otherwise with such skillful politicians as Senator Josiah W. Bailey, Governor Clyde R. Hoey, Congressman Frank Hancock and William B. Umstead, the State WPA Administrator, George W. Coan and others of similar like circulating animatedly with the ladies, shaking hands here and dropping a pearl of political wisdom in many a shell-like ear.

As for the ladies themselves, they lapped it up like the cat after the cream. They had themselves one grand and glorious time, speaking somewhat ungrammatically but forcefully.

They professed all kinds of love and loyalty for the President of the United States, his plans and programs; but there was some reason to feel that underneath all this there was a decided undercurrent of more conservative economic thought, at least, which did not yield such unswerving homage to measure like the wage and hour bill.

Mrs. Dorothy McAllister, Michigan lady who is director of the women's division, Democratic National Committee, endorsed it. (Continued on Page Four)

BLUE JACKETS ENTER SECTOR

Apology Made as 7,000 Japanese Shock Troops Draw Closer to International Settlement After Negotiating Stream And Attacking Chinese Positions Along the South Banks

Shanghai, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Japanese Admiral Kiyoshi Hasegawa apologized today to the United States Marine commander who protested against a Japanese foray on the American-protected side of Soochow creek.

A party of Japanese blue jackets had crossed the creek to the American sector of the International Settlement in a rice-laden junk, seized after scaring off the Chinese crew by firing blank shots.

Brig-Gen. John Beaumont, Marine commander in Shanghai, protested to Hasegawa, who apologized and promised there would not be a recurrence of the incident.

The apology came as 7,000 Japanese shock troops under cover of a heavy artillery barrage crossed Soochow creek west of Shanghai. Closer to the settlement, Japanese used the Chinese junk and other craft to negotiate the creek and attack Chinese positions along the south banks.

As Japanese attempted to blast their way into Chinese positions and encircle Shanghai, Maj. Gen. A. F. D. Telfer-Smollett, commander of British troops, refused to withdraw his soldiers from outposts in western sections of the city.

In answer to Japanese disclosure that Chinese machine gun nests near British outposts along the Shanghai-Hangchow railway would be subjected to intense bombardment, the British commander ordered the Union Jacks' flag flown over all British dugouts and sand bag barriers.

Tension between Japanese and British troops became more acute with British blaming Japanese for 10 casualties, including deaths suffered by their forces in Shanghai thus far.

While Jap planes dropped bombs dangerously near British outposts on a neighboring battlefield, four Irish soldiers killed by misdirected Japanese shells were buried with impressive ceremonies.

Negro Jailed For Fountain Shooting

One Negro is in Pitt General Hospital in a critical condition. Others are less seriously injured, and another is being held in Pitt county jail following a shooting scrape which followed an argument at Fountain Saturday night.

Chief of Police J. C. Bryan of Fountain, said that Eddie Tyson shot Will Knight, seriously wounding him, and Columbus Knight and Raymond Suggs, after an argument. The chief of police said Tyson left the scene of the argument long enough to get a .22 caliber rifle, but returned and shot all three Negroes. The officer said he had not determined what the argument was about but added it started between Tyson and Columbus Knight.

MEDIATORS

Hyde Park, Nov. 1.—(AP)—President Roosevelt created an emergency board by proclamation to mediate a labor dispute between the Pacific Electric Railway and its employees, represented by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

The board was named, White House attaches announced, because the dispute threatened "substantially to interrupt state commerce within the state of California to a degree such as to deprive that section of the country of essential transportation service."

The walkout of 2,000 Pacific Electric Railway employees scheduled for 2 a. m. tomorrow was automatically delayed 48 days when Mr. Roosevelt created the emergency board.

 Nina impulsively married David, trying to escape her intense love for her stepfather. Richard, the charming, well-tailored stepfather, shamelessly talks of love to Nina. Honey, Nina's gay, plump, youthful mother, is wild about Richard, her newly acquired husband. David, a bright young auto salesman, adores Nina and strives to make her happy on his small salary.

Gossip About Richard

GAD, Tony, Carl was saying to the man Leeds, newly returned from England, "what do you think of our young entry, eh? We've continued using the Brandywine blood, and imp'ed, in addition, a number of fine itches from England. Well, sir, I declare, I think we've developed a cross-bred pack, uniform as to type, that is the equal of anything in this country!"

"I think you're right there, Carl," Tony Leeds was enthusiastic. "Never seen anything like em!"

Richard, from the depth of his leather arm-chair asked: "What's the number of your young entry? about 14 couple?"

"You should have seen young Day! There's a horse-man for you."

"Just... and speaking of young entry," Carl beamed at David, "you should have seen young Day, here, Hester! There's a horse-man for you!"

"I was troubled, when you went out, Mr. Day. These friends of Carl's are a hard riding lot. I admire your courage."

"Oh, I was scared enough, sometimes, all right... but Lord, I could get enthusiastic about the sport!"

Richard remarked, with a smile, that his enthusiasm alone, had carried him over a good many obstacles already.

But David was ready for him. "Enthusiasm—or horsemanship, I got over, didn't I?"

Everybody laughed.

Nina said: "I thought you were a goner, darling, at that last post and rail, near the entrance to Scarborough wood!"

"It would have been too bad," murmured Richard, surveying his glass, "if he had had a bit of bad luck, right at the last!"

"Bad luck... nonsense!" cut in Carl, in his hearty way taking the sting from his words. "He approached the bar with his horse extended, and not a leg under him to jump with!"

David said: "I'd probably agree with you, if I knew what you were talking about, sir... but I still say: 'I got over, didn't I?'"

There was more laughter and ribbing of Carl, this time, and presently Hester's cool voice broke in.

"An hour 'til dinner, people... And the group began to break up."

Tony Asks A Question

TONY Leeds came over to Nina. "Stay down for a few minutes, will you, Nina? You always used to be able to dress like the wind. I haven't seen you for a year—do you realize that? We've time for a chat."

"All right... David, lamb, take the first bath, and then draw mine, will you? Tony and I want to go over old times a bit."

Tony Leeds was a man about Richard's age. He was rather well known as a sportsman, on both sides of the Atlantic; and he had been a good friend of the Staffords for years.

He was shorter than medium height, and of a bronze, rugged ugliness, that somehow made him immensely attractive. He had flirted, quite innocently, with Honey and Nina, by turns, and now Nina hoped that something might come of his friendship with Cordelia Thorne... though she was rather doubtful.

It was funny about lovely Cordelia... she never, never fell for anyone. It was as though she had once loved very desperately, and lost... But Nina knew for certain that this was not so.

When the other had left, and they were settled comfortably by the fire, Tony said: "You and Honey both married!... I have a lot to get caught up with. And, by the way, your young David is as nice a chap as I've met up with in many a day!"

"You bet he is Tony."

"And guts... God! That fellow's got guts, Nina."

"Hasn't he? I was inordinately proud today." She took a deep breath. "And Richard, Tony... Honey's frightfully happy with him... You'd met before, hadn't you?"

"Yes. All over Europe. Tell me, had either of you... had Honey known him long, before she and Nina laughed.

 Handsome, devil-may-care Bruno Mussolini, second son of Il Duce, and greatest advocate of his father's motto, "live dangerously," has spread wings over Spain, further calling attention of the world to the Italian premier's policy of letting arms speak against "Bolshevism" where words fail. Now in his second campaign, the 20-year-old centurion in the Fascist militia already is regarded as a veteran of the wars in the air.

Teachers Meet

Pitt county teachers met Saturday, October 30 at 10:30 a. m., in the Fleming Street high school auditorium in their regular monthly meeting. After devotionals and a short business session, Mr. K. T. Futrell made a few remarks to the teachers. Mr. J. Nat Harrison, Pitt county chairman for the Red Cross roll call, was introduced and was assured of the cooperation of the teachers in the Red Cross roll call membership drive. A large number responded and others promised to join later.

The day's program was then presented:

Solo, Bessie Williams Adams.
 Dean John L. Tilley, instructor at Shaw University, and head of the Theological department, was the speaker for the day.

Through a world of unrest in which nations are being destroyed, homes broken up, divorce courts filled, children committing murder the teachers' part; the teachers' opportunity to instill into the hearts of the children those ### principles that make good citizens, loving homes and peaceful nations

Mrs. Anna Mason sang a solo. The music was furnished by the Cherry Lane group. After a few announcements by the supervisor, the meeting adjourned to meet again December 11th.

That's how the new clothes are supposed to fit, accentuating your bosom, sleeking down your hips, clinging to your concave, corsetted waistline. Naturally this adhesive effect calls for knowing manipulation of fabric and line—such as is usually found only in expensive custom-made clothes. It is Blount-Harvey's achievement to present suave new dresses that fit like paper on the wall, yet exceedingly moderate in price.

SHORT SHOTS

By HENRY AVERILL

Reflector Bureau.
Raleigh, Nov. 1.—Governor Clyde R. Hoey wanted very much to attend the laying of the keel of the battleship North Carolina and would have done so had it not been for the fact that the event occured simultaneously with a visit to North Carolina of Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace.
The governor felt that to leave the state when a full-fledged cabinet member was visiting it would appear something of a slight to the federal administration. For that reason he assigned the keel-laying duties and honors to Lieutenant Governor Wilkins P. Horton.
Incidentally, Governor Hoey has far outdone most of his predecessors in recognizing his lieutenant governor as something more than the presiding officer of the State Senate and ex-officio a member of certain boards and commissions.

On the subject of Secretary Wallace and his trip to North Carolina there seems to be some difference of opinion about how much of his erosion-danger warning was due to a feeling of real alarm and how much to a feeling of political alarm.
It is generally agreed among the farm experts, however, that there is far more truth than politics in the secretary's fears.

Reports of the most reliable sort (almost unimpeachable enough for a copyright) are that State College and the State REA will soon lose the services of David S. Weaver as electrification expert. He will join the TVA in a very important post, these reports have it.

"The attempt to regulate the production of cash crops is aimed at price stabilization so that growers may receive a higher return for what they have to sell," said George W. Miller, Madison county farm agent for the State College extension service.

Some people are giving serious thought to Senator Bailey's obviously facetious remarks about a woman being elected to high office in North Carolina.

"Why shouldn't some lady from North Carolina be chosen for the Senate—or for any other post, so far as that goes," they are asking themselves.

It would be ironic, if not poetic justice, if the first serious campaign for a woman for the U. S. Senate should be waged against Senator Bailey when he comes up again in 1942. Of course that's a long way off, and so it's doubtful if the Senator will lose much sleep over the matter.

As long as North Carolina and Duke keep up there great football playing, there's going to be little chance of getting any coherent news out of Raleigh. This town is absolutely football-crazy.

What's the matter with Mayor
Thomas E. Cooper of Wilmington.
Is he sick or something? We haven't heard a yell for "home rule" out of him for several weeks.

Best headline put on an article in a long time, in this correspondent's opinion was over the story relating that Carl Goerch is being talked for governor. Said the Memorandum Dispatch: "It is not made plain whether it is a joke."

Nobody openly opposed it, but Senator Bailey more or less took a pot shot at it by his assertion that the great mass of the people cannot be immediately raised to the highest economic plane merely by legislation.

Neither the lady nor the legislator was forced to stop while the applause died down. It seemed that almost everybody was willing to skip it and go on to something else.

Behind the scenes there was there was maneuvering aplenty, with Mr. Coan showing himself as freely and as affably as Representative Hancock, an announced Senate candidate. There was comment to the effect that the WPA boss had been slipping in and out the back door of the hotel for years so that he would not be seen; the conclusion drawn from his sudden change of demeanor being that he is on the verge of jumping into the Senate race.

In the various departments, there was little but routine activity.
Commissioner of Labor A. L. Pletcher went to Washington to a conference with Madame Secretary Perkins and others on labor legislation. Like folks at the ladies meeting here, the North Carolinians at the Washington assembly kept their wage and hour views to themselves.

With cooperation of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce a census of unemployed of the capital was undertaken by the State Employment Service, with the result that several hundred jobless were registered.

Secretary of State Thad Eure told another civic club, this time the Exchangeites, that he has made his office a paying proposition for the state by collecting plenty of money for licensing foreign corporations to do business in North Carolina.

Governor Hoey made a number of speeches, on a number of subjects in a number of places. He also just about said he is "out" of the Senate race.

DAVIDSON NEXT FOR TAR HEELS

Carolina Grid Squad Starts Homeward Stretch

Chapel Hill, Nov. 1.—North Carolina's football squad today started on the homeward stretch of its 1937 schedule with Davidson's Scrappin' Wildcats first of three more obstacles.

The Tar Heels will meet Davidson in the Presbyterians' Homecoming Day feature Saturday. On November 13 North Carolina will oppose Duke, its keenest rival, at Durham, Durham. The Tar Heels will close the season against Virginia, oldest foe in continuous competition, at Chapel Hill Thanksgiving Day, November 25.

The Tar Heels have always held a great deal of respect for Davidson. Regardless of differences in abilities of the two teams the Wildcats have invariably fought heavier and more experienced Tar Heel teams almost to a standstill.

Carolina's 1934 and 1935 teams, two of the best teams in the institution's history, were forced to use every available offensive and defensive trick to beat Davidson. The 1934 Tar Heels edged out a 13-2 victory. The 1935 outfit, the third greatest scoring eleven in University history, could score but twice against the Presbyterians.

Last season Carolina had a little too much manpower and experience. But the final score, 26-0, did not represent the actual difference between the two clubs. Fumbles and intercepted passes led to two of the touchdowns. The others came as a result of long advances.

Teeny Lafferty, triple-threat Wildcat halfback, is often dubbed by the sports writers over the state the "one man ball club." Lafferty weighing only 160 pounds is one of the fastest, and most elusive runners in the country. He is a brilliant passer and blocker and a consistently great punter. Against Erskine he scored three touchdowns in a third quarter spurge.

Injury kept Teeny out of V.M.I. and South Carolina games and his teammates missed him considerably. The Cats lost to the Cadets 7-0 and the Gamecocks 127, but Davidson supporters will tell you that the result would have been different with Lafferty in the lineup.

Other leading Wildcats are Capt. Bailey Williams and Ned Iverson, star ends; Frank Purdy, center; and Fred Dennis.

Sport Slants

Oscar Vitt banks on a keen baseball brain and a keen sense of humor to help him make a success of managing the Cleveland Indians. For 16 years—ever since he bowed out of the majors as an active player—Vitt has dreamed of getting a chance to manage a big-league club.

Always a happy warrior, with a flare for sparkling repartee, he personifies hustle. And hustle is likely to be the watchword when the Indians assemble in '38.

Cleveland has become sort of a burial ground for managerial ambitions (for details ask Walter Johnson, Roger Peckinpah, Steve O'Neill, etc.). But that does not seem to worry the effervescent Mr. Vitt—much. Always a good talker,

MANAGERIAL MOVES

OSCAR VITT
—VITT—
"HIS SUCCESS WITH THE NEWARK BEARS WON HIM THE JOB OF MANAGING CLEVELAND"

VITT COMPLETED HIS PLAYING CAREER IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE SIXTEEN YEARS AGO—A FINE FIELDER, HE BOASTED THAT HIS BASEBALL POWER WAS "ALL ABOVE HIS SHOULDERS!"

he feels he can win the support of those gentlemen of the Cleveland press who have had much to say on the question of who would manage the Indians in the past. A winning ball club would provide a more powerful argument in Vitt's favor than anything he might say, however.

As a ball-player, Vitt was an awkward though very effective fielder. His fine throwing arm often saved him much embarrassment while covering third base for the Detroit Tigers and Boston Red Sox. His lack of size worked to his disadvantage at the plate.

Vitt laughed off that shortcoming with a bit of philosophy all his own: "Some guys are born to slug and some are born to think. I was born to think. All my power is above the shoulders."

For years his ability as manager was conceded by baseball men. But not until he made a phenomenal success in piloting the Newark Bears to the 1937 pennant did the chance he wanted come along.

STUDY ELECTRIFICATION PROJECTS IN HALIFAX

Aaleigh, Nov. 1.—Ways and means of electrifying two Resettlement projects—one for white, the other for Negroes—in Halifax county are being studied by the State Rural Electrification Authority in cooperation with George S. Mitchell, North Carolina Resettlement head.

Chief obstacles in the way of extension of lines into the 282 houses of the two projects is that nobody is living in any of them at the present time and the power companies are unwilling to take a chance on expending the $50,000 necessary to wire the structures.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Stock market leaders went into a slow decline today as buying support waned for most groups.

Further weakness of steels reflecting falling mill operations, was an unsettling influence. Dealings were light throughout but losses of one to more than three points were widely distributed near the fourth hour.

Brokers attributed sliding tendencies partly to the fact that some speculative forces wanted to be free of commitments when the exchange closes tomorrow for election day.

Bonds and commodities were uneven. Foreign markets got nowhere in particular as fresh anxiety appeared over the Spanish non-intervention situation, involving the stiffening attitude of the Italo-German entente.

The thinness of socks was again simplified by extensive spread between bids and offers.

Government territory. They said they recognized that the defense would be stiffer than in the conquered northwest where Government forces had few guns and almost no planes.

For the first time in the war, insurgents said, Franco was planning to combine land and sea offensives, using his fleet to blockade eastern ports and bombard Government supply and communication centers in support of the Araçon drive.
