Provincial Government to Keep Pace With Armies

PLAN TO ASSUME TAX COLLECTION

Reported Peiping Regime of Japan To Be Recognized as Legal Government

Shanghai, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The Japanese dominated provincial government at Peiping planned today to keep pace with Japan's North China armies by taking over control of Shantung, China's "sacred province."

Reports through Japanese channels told of the plan under which the Peiping regime would assume collection of taxes in the province of 34,000,000 population and receipt of customs at Tsingtao, rich port on the Yellow Sea.

Japanese Consul General Otaka reopened the Japanese consulate at Tsingtao. The Japanese had taken immediately after they occupied it with resistance Monday.

A highly placed foreign observer said at Tokyo, Japan soon would recognize the Peiping regime as the legal government of China.

Japanese forces driving south from Tsinan, provincial capital, and through the area around the birthplace of Confucius, captured Tsining. The city's fall opened the way for a swift advance on Suichow, a railway point 100 miles to the south.

Tsining was occupied after an air bombardment and hand to hand fighting. The Southern Baptist Mission was damaged by bombs, but all Americans in the city were reported safe.

On another front Chinese told of appreciable gains by sharp Chinese counter attacks. They said Japanese were hastening new troops to Hanchow to stem the counter offensive in which Chinese recaptured two villages.

Pitt County Court Brought To Close

Rufus Bristow, also accused of driving drunk, was acquitted of the charge.

A case charging Mack Allen with chest and fraud was remanded to Magistrate John Ely Smith's court for disposal.

William Smith, charged with driving careless and reckless, was convicted only of attempting to pass another vehicle without proper clearance and was taxed with the costs of court.

C. W. Dudley, the only Negro tried at the afternoon session, was given six months each on charges of driving drunk and carrying concealed weapons. The sentences to run concurrently.

Settlement In Paternity Case Made

NED PARKS

Morganton, Jan. 12.—(AP)—A charge of non support of an illegitimate child, brought by Mrs. Basil (Pat) Ryan, against Ned Parks, Washington soda dispenser, was dismissed in Burke county court today after Parks' attorney informed the court "a satisfactory financial settlement had been made."

Parks, 24 year old former Morganton youth arrested on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Ryan about a month before her marriage to the Copper fortune heir, entered a plea of nolo contendere shortly after court convened to hear the case.

His attorney, Ed Butler, submitted a judgment which was accepted by the court and by attorneys for Mrs. Ryan, the former Martha Barclay of Morganton, who was married to Ryan November 4.

Terms of the settlement were not disclosed. The judgment set forth a satisfactory settlement for the support, maintenance and education of the said illegitimate child. It was made by the said Ned Parks and had been accepted by counsel for the mother of the baby by who was born last September 1937.

Mrs. Ryan did not appear in the court room.

Parks was first called to trial January 3. Then he asked a jury trial and a panel of 24 veniremen was summoned for today.

Negro Saved From Execution By Gas

Raleigh, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Governor Hoyer commuted to life imprisonment today the death sentence imposed on Tommie Walls, Mecklenburg county Negro, convicted of first degree burglary.

Walls was convicted in February, 1937. The State Supreme Court upheld the verdict and the United States Supreme Court declined to review the case. Hoyer granted two reprieves, one in December being given an hour before time for Walls' execution by gas.

The Negro was convicted of entering the home of Peter Gilchrist, Sr., the night of September 2, 1936, and inflicting cuts on Peter Gilchrist, Jr., when the young man grappled with him.

During the trial and consistently since Walls had contended he was innocent. Eleven jurors signed a statement saying "there was some doubt about the identity of the burglar and noting they recommended mercy in their original verdict, with the belief such a verdict would save his life."

The prisoner had a bad previous criminal record and there were allegations he had confessed the Gilchrist crime, but the purported confession was not used in court.

Many North Carolinians Making Living From Oil

Reflector Bureau Raleigh, Jan. 12.—Scientists dispute whether or not there is a fly which lives entirely on oil, but figures from the United States Census of American Business indicate that in 1935 more than 12,000 North Carolinians "lived on oil" in the sense that they made their daily bread by employment in the petroleum industry.

This county, made regularly by the United States Bureau of the Census, showed that in the retail marketing of oil products, there were engaged a total of 10,120 full time employees, earning a total of $3,088,000 and 963 part time workers who earned a total of $212,000.

In the wholesale field there were employed 1,965 full time workers who received $2,693,000 and 48 part time employees whose earnings totaled $33,000.

Thus there were 11,185 full time employees, who accounted for a pay roll of $5,781,000 and 1,011 part time workers earning $245,000 for the year.

Soviet Russia's New Parliament In First Session

Members Composed of Red Army Commanders, Provincial Chiefs, Milkmaids, Laborers, Regard Stalin's Word Law

Moscow, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Soviet Russia's new Red Parliament opened its first session today with Joseph Stalin and other government leaders watching from seats of honor in the rebuilt throne room of the Kremlin.

The Parliament, or Supreme Soviet, began its career when one of the two houses, the Soviet of the Union, met this afternoon. The Parliament's 1,143 men and women of undoubted loyalty to Stalin were elected last December 12 in the first election under the Soviet Union's new constitution. They brought instructions from many parts of Russia's vast area to tell Stalin "all his counsel and all his advice we deem to be law."

They included Red army commanders, provincial chiefs of the secret police, milkmaids, tractor operators and factory hands. Some of the Georgians are Armenians and representatives of a score of other nationalities making up the two-chambered Parliament left home by dog sleds or camels and saw railroads and cities for the first time on their trip here.

The main question as Parliament opened was whether Stalin, himself one of the deputies, would assume power openly as chairman of the new Soviet Presidium—the group which will exercise parliamentary powers when the chambers are not in session—or continue wielding power as Secretary General of the Communist party.

In either case, it was agreed, his authority would remain undiminished.

Reports Wreckage Seen Of Samoan Flying Boat

Wireless Received By Navy Fails Mention Survivors

Honolulu, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The navy received a wireless message today that the aircraft tender Avocet was picking up wreckage of the Samoan Clipper near Pago Pago. There was no mention of survivors.

Dunedin, New Zealand, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Reports reaching Dunedin tonight said the Samoan Clipper had been sighted afloat 74 miles due west of Apia, British Samoa.

The reports did not mention when the Clipper, missing on a flight toward Auckland, N. Z., was sighted.

Previous reports, not confirmed, said the big flying craft was down at Apia.

A radio message from Apia picked up here near midnight (7:30 A. M. EST) said all aboard the Clipper were well. She carried a crew of seven, commanded by veteran trans-Pacific flier, Capt. Edwin Musick.

The prolonged uncertainty over the Clipper's fate was believed due to the fact that the western Samoan Islands—under New Zealand mandate—are sparsely populated and lacking in communication facilities.

It was pointed out the Clipper could be in some isolated bay a long time or taxi a long distance before being sighted.

The Apia message relieved anxiety prevailing in New Zealand since earlier reports the Clipper was sighted at Apia were found to be incorrect.

The point at which the Clipper was reported sighted, 74 miles west of Apia, is off the southwestern coast of the largest Samoan island, the Sydney, Australia. Herald's Apia correspondent also reported the clipper safe. At Auckland it was said no further reports from Samoa were expected for some hours. It was then early Thursday morning in New Zealand 16 and one-half hour ahead of eastern standard time.

San Francisco—(AP)—This community recently completed the two largest bridges in the world at a cost exceeding $100,000,000, but apparently its bridge building activities are not over. The island city of Alameda has started negotiations for a $7,000,000 span linking it with the big bay bridge.

Now Is The Time To Enter Contest

Opportunity Awaits Go-Getters in "Cash Offer" Campaign Being Conducted In Territory Covered by Reflector

The Daily Reflector "Cash Offer" Campaign is just being organized and now is the time for live-wire workers to join in on this great cash distribution campaign, as the early starters will have great advantage over those who wait to see what the other fellow does. The $600.00 and $400 cash awards should appeal to the most representative people in Greenville and surrounding territory, yet many of them will pass up this golden opportunity. Those who realize the value of the awards offered in this campaign will step right in and get their share.

Many towns and communities around Greenville are at this time unrepresented. We invite people from each of these places to take a part in this campaign as their chance to win the best prize on the list is good. There are five regular prizes ranging from $50 up to $600 and any worker who does not win one of the five regular prizes will be paid a 20 percent cash commission on all business turned in by them during the campaign, thereby assuring every one liberal pay for their efforts. There is nothing to lose and everything to gain.

What can be done with $600 in cash? Many people in this territory right now are wishing for the amount or even less.

The Daily Reflector is offering the opportunity, yet many people will sit idly by and still be wishing when the campaign is over. What will you do about it?

Now is the time to enter this campaign while it is just starting. Send in your name today and get full details, a receipt book and all equipment will be sent to you at once or if convenient call by office and get all details first hand. By all means do not delay entering the campaign, as you will be just the chance you have been wanting to make that extra cash. There is a cash award on the list for you.

GUARANTY HAS ITS BEST YEAR

Thirty - Seventh Annual Stockholders' Meeting Held

The thirty-seventh annual meeting of the stockholders of the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company was held in Sheppard Memorial Library yesterday afternoon with E. G. Flanagan presiding. Seven hundred and eight out of a total of 2,000 shares of stock were represented in person or by proxy, with 50 stockholders present in person. The meeting was enthusiastic, and good will pervaded throughout.

J. H. Waldrop, cashier, submitted his report, showing total assets of $9,959,976.64, an increase of $1,309,424.22 over the corresponding date in the previous year. He stated that the earnings of the bank were the best in its history and that the Home office and branches had all made substantial progress.

W. H. Woodard, executive vice-president, commented on the amount of cash and due from banks loans, Government and other bonds and compared them with the previous year. He stated that a recent appraisal of the bond account showed that the bank's bonds were worth substantially more on today's market than the amount carried on the books. He explained to the stockholders the stock dividend of 10 per cent passed by the Board of Directors in addition to a 10 per cent cash dividend. He also asked the stockholders to endeavor to keep the public informed with reference to the Intangible tax of $1 per $1,000 on average balances.

LABOR PARLEY

New York, Jan. 12.—(AP)—John Lewis, CIO chief and president of the United Mine Workers, and his aide, Phillip Murray, today conferred behind closed hotel doors with Thomas Moses, president of the U. S. Coal and Coke Company U. S. Steel subsidiary, on what all three termed "nothing of public interest."

Lewis, whose presence at the parley had been denied by Moses, finally emerged from the Moses suite and said the meeting was "Routine."

Lewis denied it had anything to do with the end of steel workers' agreement two weeks hence.

FRANCE PLANS INCREASE NAVY

Considering Construction of Two New Battleships

Paris, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Members of the Chamber of Deputies Navy committee declared today that the French government is considering construction of two 4,200 ton battleships to meet the threat of Italy's new naval building program.

Conferees of the naval general staff, Caesar Campinchi, minister of the navy, and the Chamber's committee were said to have resulted in a decision to build the huge war ships provided France's naval bases were adequate to receive them.

The navy had begun a survey of its bases and port facilities to determine that point.

Committee members said all vessels included in the 1938 naval program probably would be laid down before spring.

FDR - BUSINESS MEET FIXED BY LABOR LEADER

A. F. of L. Chieftain Responsible For Tuesday's Parley

NEW CONFERENCE SET FOR JAN. 19

Meanwhile in Senate Southerners Continue Filibuster Against Anti-Lynching Bill

Washington, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Another Presidential conference with business leaders was called today simultaneously with disclosure that an American Federation of Labor leader arranged Mr. Roosevelt's meeting with five industrialists last night.

Secretary Roper announced that 50 prominent business men—members of the administration's Business Advisory Council—would meet with the President January 19.

At the same time it was learned that a labor leader's self-assumed diplomatic role was responsible for the White House visit of the quintet for whom Alfred Sloan, Jr., General Motors Corporation chairman, was spokesman.

Meanwhile the Southern Senators fighting the anti-lynching bill, told the Senate they would seek to expand it to include gangsters and mob violence.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.) carried on the debate against the pending lynching bill as the Senate rounded out the first full week of discussion of the measure without even approaching a vote on any of a number of amendments proposed.

Failure of administration leaders to impose longer Senate sessions in order to wear out the opposition speakers led to the belief among some Senators they were trying to avoid an open break with the Southern bloc. Senator Harrison (D-Miss.) and other opponents of the bill have talked of a party split.

On another front, the President's request for authority to veto individual items in appropriations bills encountered opposition in the Senate after an initial victory in the House.

Other developments: The head of the Association of American Railroads estimated that this country's railroads could put 150,000 men to work if railroad revenues climbed back to normal.

The railroad executive, J. J. Peley, president of the association, added a freight rate increase would bring an immediate increase in employment.

North Carolina Congressional secretaries have organized a luncheon club, naming Larry Hardin of Weaverville, secretary to Representative Weaver, president.

Mrs. Frank Capps of Farmville, of Senator Bailey's staff, was named vice-president, and members of the entertainment committee included Mrs. Leonora Kelly of Washington, N. C. of Representative Warren's office, and Wesley McDonald of Morehead City, secretary to Senator Reynolds.

Mentally Deranged Crowd N. C. Jails

Reflector Bureau Raleigh, Jan. 12.—North Carolina's governmental system places the duty of caring for the insane and feeble minded squarely upon the state; but despite that fact mentally sick persons in large numbers are confined in county jails and county homes, where there are practically none of the facilities necessary for their care and treatment.

Recent publicity has featured conditions in the Mecklenburg county home, but similar conditions exist throughout the state, with almost every county having the same problem on its hands to a greater or lesser degree.

Figures from the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare for the month of November, 1937, last month for which complete data are available—show that 92 insane persons (this does not include feeble minded, be it noted) were confined in 42 county jails scattered all over North Carolina.

No figures are available to show how many insane and feeble minded persons were being kept in county homes, but present plans call for a survey in February which will make available complete information regarding the mental and physical status of every inmate of every county home in the state.

Under present conditions there is nothing for the officials of state hospitals to do except to appropriate their inadequate facilities among the counties, take in their full capacity and thereafter try to "trade" patients with the counties so that the worst cases will be in (Continued on page four)

Misunderstanding Causes Social Security Troubles

Reflector Bureau Raleigh, Jan. 12.—Widespread "misunderstanding" of the Social Security program—particularly of the Old Age Assistance phase—is the principal cause for difficulties in administering the system, Nathaniel Yelton, director of the Division of Public Assistance, said today.

"For instance," he said, "there are any number of people who think that the legislature intended for every person in North Carolina who is over 65 years old to get $30 a month, regardless of his economic status."

"If such a program were tried, it would cost $45,000,000 per year. As a matter of fact we have $4,000,000 with which to carry out the entire old age assistance program. So the difference between what we can do and what great many people expect us to do is just a little matter of fifty million dollars a year."

Another threat to real success of the old age assistance program, he said, is the tendency to extend its provisions to too large a number of beneficiaries, which in turn reduces sharply the amount received by each of those to whom old age assistance is granted.

"For this reason we try to impress upon the county authorities who are primarily charged with selecting the beneficiaries the necessity of being absolutely sure that the applications approved meet all the requirements," he said, "because if we try to spread the benefits to too many persons the amount received by each will be so small as to do no real good."

The average now being received by old age assistance beneficiaries in North Carolina is only about $9.40, he pointed out, a sum far from being large enough to take the recipients entirely out of the class which must receive other assistance.

He lauded the plan of placing one-fourth the cost on counties, because he said, this gives county officials a real interest in keeping the rolls as short as possible. At first, he added, some counties showed a tendency to "load up" with possible beneficiaries, but an explanation of the program to those county officials has remedied the fault.

What It Means

There has been some comment among our up-to-date book readers as to the meaning of "Quo Vadis," the title of a now very popular book.

We have very good authority for saying it means "Whither Art Thou Going?"

SUB ROSA Greenville's Latest Fraternal Organization

Last night "Sub Rosa," a charming debutante, made its initial bow among the elite, first of a series of graceful ones, which will do much to add to the social whirl of Greenville this year.

Composed of young ladies whose aim is the social advancement of this metropolis, Sub Rosa stands unique in local history as the only woman's club in town. Its ritual comprises three degrees and in gorgeous splendor and complicated work of these we doubt not that King Solomon might have gained some valuable points when he organized that lasting monument to his greatness—the Masonic order.

Among those present were: Misses Rosalind Rountree, Annie Perkins, Ada Wooten, Elizabeth Flanagan, Sophia Jarvis, Rosa Hooker, Helen Perkins. Among the gentlemen escorts of the ladies were: Messrs. George Woodward, Alex. Gary, E. G. Flanagan, Dr. Carr and P. H. Gorman.

Supper was served at eleven o'clock and the guests departed with the best wishes for Sub Rosa which bids fair to be the leading factor in the gaieties of the season.

(Note:—"Sub Rosa" was the first purely social organization in Greenville and the forerunner of the present day women's clubs here.)

Junior Woman's Club
Members of the Junior Woman's Club held their regular meeting on Friday, January 7th in the club rooms.

Mrs. Dink James, the president, presided. She graciously presented Professor June Rose, who spoke to the members regarding a girl scout organization. In this the members pledged their cooperation.

During the business session, Mrs. James expressed her appreciation to the club for their charity work during the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Vance Perkins and Mrs. W. P. Evans were in charge of the distribution of the gifts.

The president thanked the club for their excellent work in the recent tubercular seal drive. She also so called the club's attention to the Bingo party, which is to be given by the members on Thursday evening at the club house.

Miss Schnopp of the high school faculty gave a most interesting talk on "Budgeting." Her presentation of the subject was most instructive.

A number of new members were welcomed into the club. Miss Eliza Harding was a guest for the afternoon.

Mrs. John Winstead, Mrs. O. P. Matthews and Mrs. A. B. Stallworth served delectable sandwiches and tea during the social hour.

Mrs. Hildrup gave the poetry program. She gave a brief sketch of the life of Robert Frost and read the following poems of his: "After Apple-Picking," "Into My Own" and "Stopping By Woods On a Snowy Evening."

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. B. Ailsbrook, served a delicious salad course with coffee.

We were delighted to have Miss Grigsby as our guest.

Venters-Collins

PACTOLUS NEWS

By MRS. W. F. LITTLE P.-T. A.

A successful and enjoyable meeting of the Pactolus Parent-Teachers Association was held Friday evening in the high school auditorium.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. A. D. Frank of East Carolina Teachers College, who made a very interesting talk concerning conditions in the world and especially Europe where the countries are having to line up as either Fascist, Nazi, Communist or Democratic countries. Dr. Frank explained that Italy, Germany and Japan had some cause for grudge against some of the larger countries for they have the smallest territory to their population of any of the major countries.

Following the business meeting,

Miss Thelma Taylor played "Deep River" and a medley of folk songs on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. J. P. Davenport, Sr., at the piano.

After this a very funny stunt was put on by the Fifth grade.

Improving.
Mrs. J. Herman Gaylor, who underwent a very serious operation in Pitt General Hospital on Monday, January 3, is reported to be improving. Her many friends will be glad to learn.

Chatham Book Club
The Chatham Book Club met at the home of Mrs. Carl L. Adams on Fifth Street Tuesday afternoon at 3:30.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. H. G. Clayton.

After a short business session, Mrs. W. P. Moore, chairman of the program committee, introduced Mrs. H. G. Clayton, who had as her subject: "Leading Industries of North Carolina."

These industries, textile, tobacco and furniture were most capably handled by Mrs. Clayton.

At the conclusion of the program, the hostess served a most delicious salad course with coffee.

Speaks To College Assembly.
The Rev. Lowell F. Sodemann of Memorial Baptist Church, spoke at the college assembly Tuesday on "Fog and How To Steer Clear Of It."

He used one of his experiences on Mount Mitchell to illustrate his point. While his party were climbing up the mountain, all was foggy; but by having faith that the road would lead to the sunshine on top, they came to the peak where all was clear and bright.

One of Robert Louis Stevenson's short stories was also used as an illustration of steering clear of the fog. As the pilot in the story guided the ship away from the dangerous, rocky shore, so Jesus, our Pilot, guides our lives past the rough and rocky places. As that pilot's hand steered the wheel, so "our Pilot's pierced hand grips the wheel, turning it away from the dangerous shore, and out of the fog. In spite of the fog around us, the things we cannot understand, there is clear weather outside of it all."

Mrs. Sodemann's closing words were questions to the student body. "Have you seen the Pilot?" "Is He guiding your ship?" "Do you have His smile?"

SHORT SHOTS

By HENRY AVERILL

Raleigh, Jan. 12—Gregg Cherry, Oaston's gifted chairman of the Democratic state executive committee, will announce for the United States Senate "When it will make everybody happy," he jestingly remarked to your correspondent.
"Which indicates he hasn't any idea of announcing at all, as has been more or less apparent for some time.

But over in Guilford there's an announcement looked for almost daily, according to reports reaching this capital city.

It's that of Major Edney Ridge, a peripatetic "Major Bowes" of radio fame in Greensboro and environments, and one-time publisher of the Greensboro Record. Congress is said to be his goal.

According to the current reports,
Major Ridge has built up a tremendous following among the mill workers of Guilford and nearby sections through his radio programs.
He goes about from community to community, it appears, putting on programs with local amateurs as starred artists.

Also the Major is reported extremely active as a member of two strong veterans organizations, the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is said to be gathering all the recommendations and laudatory articles written or printed about him, presumably with the idea of using them as campaign ammunition.

He is looked on as a strong supporter of labor, organized labor in particular. As publisher of the Record he was the first in Greensboro to grant employees of the mechanical department regular vacations.
This fact is set forth at some length in a resolution passed by the Greensboro Typographical Union local upon the occasion of Major Ridge's retirement as publisher.

One egg a day will buy the electricity needed for lighting a Louse large enough for 300 laying hens, says David S. Weaver, agricultural engineer at State College.

Governor Clyde R. Hoey has conferred in the last day or so with Mrs. W. T. Bost, commissioner of Welfare and Public Assistance, with Dr. Roma Cheek, head of the Division of assistance to the Blind and with Robert G. Devton, assistant director of the budget.

He says it was nothing but a "routine" checkup on workings of the Social Security program; but news men are keeping their eyes and ears wide open to hear anything that may happen to "blow off."

An argument which is said to be nurturing Frank Hancock in the west is that if the Fifth District Congressman should be elected to take Bob Reynolds' place in the Senate, the East would get all the Federal patronage because of its two senators from that section.

Friends of the Oxford man in-dubitably deny he would take any such position in patronage matters, but Reynolds supporters continue to spread the word, just the same.

Dr. Will Alexander, Administrator of the Farm Security Administration, has come down from Washington to attend the Extension Workers Conference in session here under auspices of the State College Extension Service. This morning he spoke on "Rural Rehabilitation, Tenant Loans and Farm Hygiene."
This afternoon he will lead a round-table discussion of the subjects and tonight he will be guest of honor at a dinner given by FSA officials and workers in this section. Dr. Alexander was introduced this morning by George S. Mitchell, regional director of the FSA who has his headquarters here.

Sales on the Durham home demonstration curb market run from $350 to $700 or more each Saturday. On the market country won on sell cakes, eggs, poultry, flowers, meats, butter, vegetables, canned goods, fruit bread, and other home products.

which amounts to $10 per $1,000 or

E. G. Flanagan, president and chairman of the board, called attention to the bank's investment in buildings and fixtures, which were carried on the books at a value substantially below their replacement value, and stated that maximum depreciation was being taken each year. He then called on D.

Elizabeth City, J. E. Edwards, Bel-haven, V. N. Whitehurst, Snow Hill,
B. F. Patrick, Dickinson Avenue
Branch, and S. C. Ives, Bethel, respective branches.

A written report was submitted by the examining committee, and was unanimously approved. L. C.
Skinner, J. A. Staton, A. W. Ange,
J. J. White, James S. Picklen, A. M.
Moseley, N. O. Warren and M. O.
Blount, directors, made remarks concerning the progress of the institution.

The entire Board of directors were unanimously re-elected as follows: E. G. Flanagan, J. S.
Picklen, A. M. Moseley, L. C.
Skinner, J. H. Waldrop, N. O. Warren, J. J. White, W. H. Woolard, of Greenville and A. W. Ange, Winter ville, M. O. Blount, Bethel, J. A.
Staton, Bethel.

Immediately following the stockholders meeting, the Directors met and perfected the following organization:

E. G. Flanagan, president and chairman of the board; W. H.
Woolard, executive vice president;
M. O. Blount, vice president; J. H.
Waldrop, cashier; Martha Lee Co-

MENTAL CASES HUGE PROBLEM

Officials Believe However, Solution May Be Found

Reflector Bureau Raleigh, Jan. 11.—When the Charlotte News recently exposed to public view the conditions existing in Mckenlenburg's county home with reference to care of feeble minded and insane it was taking up no new problem.

On the contrary it is a problem which has been present in the State even since there has been one. In the opinion of practically all state officials who deal with the subject, it is a problem which will continue to exist as long as there is a state.

These officials do believe, however, that there is a solution and that it will be found in due course of time, although they predict that this period is still in the dim and distant future.

They contend that the problem should be solved not only as a matter of justice to the mentally unfortunate, but as a matter of cold hard cash to the state. They contend that over the long pull it will cost less to provide state facilities than to go along on the present plan which leaves a large percentage of the insane and feeble minded to the county home and county jail to care for.

This was realized back in 1936 by a commission appointed by Governor Ehringhaus to make a study of mental health in North Carolina and a report to the 1937 General Assembly. The report, a volume of 377 pages contains unlimited information on the subject and ends with sixteen specific recommendations.

J. D. Aman Workers Attend Banquet Here

Employees at the various branches of the J. D. Aman heating and plumbing company gathered for a banquet meeting at the Proctor hotel last night. Mr. Aman declared similar meetings would be held about the first of each year.

Reports made at the meeting showed that each of the branches at Greenville, Goldsboro, Kinston and Williamston, showed a profit for the year, some of the branches operating on less than two per cent.

Your Mileage Merchant advises

PRESS THE CLUTCH

to start quicker

Here's right smart footwork for right smart starting in the cold: Down with your clutch pedal before you do anything else. Then your starter and battery won't be turning the gears, but only the engine, which is just that much easier to do.

Now don't let up on the clutch, but pull out the choke (unless automatic) and then spin your starter, leaving ignition OFF.* After a few engine revolutions, switch on the ignition...And hark to the strong steady firing of your Special Winter Blend Conoco Bronze, which is certainly the sensible gasoline for quick starting.

Conoco Bronze always lets you do a cocksure "professional" job of starting. For that matter the way Conoco Bronze is specially winter-blended you could purposely give it the worst handling in the worst cold just for a test...and that's daring you! Only YOUR MILEAGE MERCHANT has Special Winter Blend Conoco Bronze for you. And ask for his simple, helpful Complete Winter Care Card—FREE. Continental Oil Company.

*If your starter is of the type that does not spin with ignition off, consult Your Mileage Merchant
