CHINESE MOVE ONWARD UNDER JAP SHELL FIRE

Seek To Plug Gap In Southern Defense Of Lifeline

BIG ENGAGEMENT SEEMS STARTED

Estimated Half Million Chinese and Japanese Massed For Major Struggle

Shanghai, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Chinese reinforcements moved forward by thousands under heavy shellfire today to plug a widening gap in Southern defenses of China's lifeline corridor.

The long-awaited major engagements of the battle front north of Nanking apparently was beginning.

An estimated half million Chinese and Japanese troops have been massed for a struggle over the corridor, where General Chiang Kai-shek has urged his warriors to yield not a single inch.

Domei (Japanese News Agency) correspondents with the Japanese column moving North from Nanking reported it had occupied a Southern keystone of Chinese positions along the Tientsin-Pukow railway.

On the Hwai river, this keystone position, Pengpu is only 83 miles south of Suchow, a railway junction point and heart of the corridor separating Japanese-conquered areas of North and Central China.

Japanese pushing through Southern Chantung Shantung province toward Suchow apparently were being held back.

The corridor heads kept Japanese from uniting their gains into a domain of some 110 million population under a government friendly to Japan.

Foreign Minister Hirota, told the Japanese Diet it was necessary to conclude a three-party anti-Communist pact with each of the new North China Government both of which function under Japanese sponsorship.

Negroes Held For Recent Robberies

Three Negroes, all 20 years old or younger, were bound over to Superior court in City police court this morning following preliminary hearings on charges of breaking entering and larceny.

Willie Carr, James Carr and Willie Blow were ordered held under bond of $500 each in the robberies of Pender's Dickinson avenue store, Pitt Drug store and J. Saiter's clothing store. Willie Carr and Willie Blow were held under bond of $500 each in the robbery of the Watson feed and seed store.

Five minors allegedly involved in these or other robberies were turned over to juvenile authorities yesterday after local officers had arrested the eight in connection with seven recent robberies in the city.

1,000 MOVIES IN 5 YEARS — THAT MAKES IT A HOBBY

Columbus, Ohio —(AP)—Dante Caldararo, 25 and a bachelor, likes movies so well he has attended 1,000 performances in five years, which he thinks makes it a hobby.

Caldararo keeps a record of the pictures he has seen, the amount of money spent to see them and the ones he judges best.

He rates Fredric March as his favorite actor and Claudette Colbert leads his choice of actresses.

He thinks "Les Miserables" is the best picture he has seen and he liked "The Sign of the Cross" so well he saw it five times.

Stolen Autos

Judge Dink James would like very much to know who removed two automobiles from the court room here and is considering offering a reward to the person responsible for their disappearance—a reward in the form of a sentence to the roads—if the culprit identified and apprehended.

The automobiles missing are toy cars used in illustrating wreck cases. They are often used and unless found in the near future will have to be replaced with new, shiny ones in order that justice may prevail.

DECISIONS OF TRIBUNAL READ

Constitutionality Of Slot Machine Law Is Upheld

Raleigh, Feb. 2.—(AP)—The Supreme court upheld death sentences today which had been imposed in New Hanover county on E. L. Sunk and in Wayne on Milford Exum.

The court decided 24 cases and adjourned its fall term sine die.

The court reversed the Superior court ruling denying J. P. Williamson, et al. injunctive relief in an action testing the right of the city of High Point to issue revenue bonds for a hydro-electric power plant.

A new trial was ordered in the damage suit of Nancy Flake against the Greensboro News company, et al., in which the plaintiff had been awarded $6,500 for alleged damages suffered when her photograph or likeness allegedly was published in the Greensboro Daily News.

Smack was convicted of the murder of his daughter, Annie Theilma Smack. Exum was sentenced for the slaying of James Williams.

The court upheld the constitutionality of the 1937 law prohibiting gambling slot machines from the state in affirming a lower court decision in the case of Joseph Calcutt, trading as the Vending Machine company, against N. H. McGeachy, sheriff of Cumberland county, and others.

The court upheld Judge Henry Grady's ruling denying an injunction to D. T. Bailey, et al., to prevent the directors of the Johnston county Electric Membership corporation.

State's Progress Surpasses Dreams

Raleigh, Feb. 2.—North Carolina's progress in the last dozen years has been so much velvet over its "dreams," came true.

Back in November, 1924 there appeared in "The World's Work" an article by French Strother entitled "North Carolina's Dreams Come True" and in which the very remarkable progress of the state between 1900 and the then present was set out at some length.

Mr. Strother stressed and rightfully, the great progress made and rather intimated that the millennium or something like it had been reached.

However, the remarkable progress of the state since its "Dreams Come True" can well be shown by a few comparisons with facts and figures cited in the Strother's article.

For instance, he pointed with pride to the fact that the value of school buildings had risen from $1,000,000 in 1900 to $48,000,000 in 1924.

According to Lloyd Griffin, secretary of the School Commission,

Denies Injunction In Santee-Cooper Federal Project

Circuit Court of Appeals Affirms District Court Decree Refusing Writ Against $37,500,000 Proposal

Charlotte, Feb. 2.—(AP)—The Fourth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals affirmed today a district court decree denying three power companies an injunction against the $37,500,000 Santee-Cooper power and navigation project in South Carolina.

The opinion was handed down at a brief conference session here. The Circuit Court heard arguments two weeks ago on an appeal by the power firms—the Carolina Power and Light Company of Raleigh, the South Carolina Power Company of Charleston, S. C., and the South Carolina Electric and Gas Company of Columbia, S. C.—from District Judge Lyle Glenn's decree.

The project, sponsored by the South Carolina Public Service Authority, contemplates a vast power development project on the Santee and Cooper rivers to be financed with Federal funds.

The court held that competition with the power companies, resulting from the project did not violate any of their rights; that their non-exclusive franchises gave them no right to use for injunction against competition, that holding a Federal Power commission permit did not give them that right; and that they had no right as South Carolina taxpayers to use in Federal court and suit a South Carolina case in which the Supreme court of that state upheld the validity of the project precluded that action.

French Naval Minister Proposes New Warships

Lays Down Plans For Six 35,000-Ton War Vessels

Paris, Feb. 2.—(AP)—A proposal for France to lay down six 35,000-ton battleships in the next three years will be presented to the Cabinet tomorrow by Naval Minister William Bertrand, a member of his staff said today.

The minister will ask the Cabinet to approve a request to Parliament to vote a billion francs (about 33,330,000) immediately and a billion francs each year for six years, earmarked for construction of battleships outside the usual navy appropriations.

The informant said Bertrand had conferred with Premier Chautemps about his plans.

The first billion francs would be used to start immediate construction of two 35,000-ton ships to replace the aged Courbet and Paris, laid down in 1930 and two in 1940, giving France a total of eight 35,000-ton warships, as two such ships are now building.

The possibility that tonnage of the last four battleships might be increased was seen in the fact that the Chamber of Deputies navy committee's demand for 42,000-ton men of war was left in "abeyance" by the Ministry.

OPPOSITIONS OF LYNCHING BILL INVITE DEBATE

Offer Allow Speeches In Support Of Measure

LITTLE 'FELLOWS' ATTEND PARLEY

Huge Auditorium Filled With Disorderly Uproar as Many Try to Speak at Once

Washington, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Opponents of the anti-lynching bill invited supporters today to take the senate floor in behalf of the measure.

When debate opened soon after noon Senator Connally (D-Texas), asked Senator Wagner (D-N.Y.), one of the authors of the bill, when he would speak in support of it.

Wagner replied that he expected to speak tomorrow. Senator Bilbo, (D-Miss.), who had the floor asserted:

"I have said that I might speak for 30 days against this bill, but I would be happy to yield the floor to its authors if they want to say a single word in its behalf."

While the debate dragged on, leaders were trying to find a way to sidetrack the measure without hurting anyone. Opponents expressed confidence it was dead.

Meantime, hundreds of small business men trying to out-talk and out-shout each other, endeavored to set down what they think President Roosevelt should do to improve business.

A disorderly, noisy uproar filled the Commerce department's huge auditorium, when scores of industry's "little fellows" tried to talk at once, voted to ban speeches when they couldn't, and forced staid Secretary Roper to shout through a loudspeaker in a vain effort to restore order.

Their first meeting ended in pandemonium. What was scheduled as the business men's general session was broken down in an hour after it started into 10 discussion groups.

The president sent greetings that were read to the nearly 1,000 "little fellows" by Roper.

Other developments:

Attorney General Cramming said the Justice Department, planned to try 224 major oil companies and 40 individuals at Madison, Wisconsin, next fall on further charges of anti-trust law violations.

Admiral William Leahy, chief of naval operations, told Congress the navy "has no plans" for combining with other nations in a possible war.

Officers Probing Lumberton Death

Lumberton, Feb. 2.—(AP)—Willie Lawson, 56, prominent farmer of Orrum, Robeson county, was found beaten to death in the yard of his home early today.

Sheriff Mark Page said members of the family informed him John Henry Baldwin, Negro, about 30, asked Lawson to summon physician for a relative last night; that Lawson left and was not found until early this morning.

The sheriff said Baldwin's broken shotgun was found near the body. He said Lawson's car and about $50 which he carried also were missing. A search for the Negro was begun.

Coroner D. W. Biggs said Lawson died of a fractured skull.

NEW WORDS WANTED FOR TASTES AND ODORS

Chicago, —(AP) The food and perfume industries are trying to find new words describing tastes and odors.

The American Chemical society denounces the limitation to such terms as "sweet," "sour," "musty," "fresh," "acid," "bitter" etc., in defining odors and flavors, and points out that of the five human senses only taste and smell have defied scientific classification.

Groundhog

Forty more days of bad weather are in store for this section, if the old saying about the Groundhog holds true.

According to legend the groundhog always comes out on February 2, but if he sees his shadow return and remains for 40 days, during which time bad weather will prevail.

Old Sol made his appearance early this morning and continued to shine throughout most of the day, so according to the legend, the sun will be only a seldom visitor for a while.

Raleigh, Feb. 2—"I think the manner in which the newspapers of North Carolina have lined up solidly in the fight against syphilis is not only commendable, but places them in the forefront in one of the biggest battles of the ages in behalf of humanity."

"And in this connection," he continued, "I would like every North Carolinian to listen in on the radio tonight (Wednesday) from 10:45 to 11 o'clock, and tomorrow (Thursday) night from 10:30 to 11 o'clock to hear two of the broadcasts that are to be given over a nationwide hookup. As the broadcasts will be over both major systems there should be no trouble locating a station."

Jennings G. King of Scotland, Roy L. Davis of Darlington and Brooks Price all representatives in the 1937 General Assembly, have written your correspondent that they will be candidates to succeed themselves this year.

Only eight North Carolina banks are still in liquidation, Gurney P. Hood, commissioner of banks, said today, and in the case of six of them its liquidation which is preventing final liquidation.

Only the North Carolina Bank and Trust and the Page Trust are not being slowed up by litigation, Mr. Hood hopes all will wind up this year.

Here's a good reason the sales tax never dies. Your correspondent has just received a letter from a traveling man who wrote from Winston-Salem on stationery of Durham and Wilmington hotels, placed his letter in a Lumberton hotel envelope and mailed it from Salisbury.

In the letter he said he had read "your piece in the Charlotte News about the sales tax and liquor being big issues."

The chap, obviously, gets about a bit and wherever he goes spreads the opposition to the sales tax.

Continuing his communication he said:

"You bet they are. Mr. Leonard is making the sales tax the issue as he did before. If you want hot stuff on the sales tax you can get it from Mr. Leonard and us traveling men who call on the merchants along the South Carolina line. Write more about it. Let the people know it is the issue."

Maybe the recent cold spell has helped bring a brisker oyster market, which Captain John A. Nelson, Commissioner of the Commercial Fisheries Division of the Department of Conservation and Development, reported has slumped somewhat this month.

Before Christmas fishing was brisk and the market good, he said.

Young Travelers Get Around With Shipping Tags As Chaperones

ISADORE DUTHOY, Yonkers, N. Y., 8 weeks old, motherless, took little but his milk formula with him when he sailed from New York alone to make his home with an uncle in Belgium.

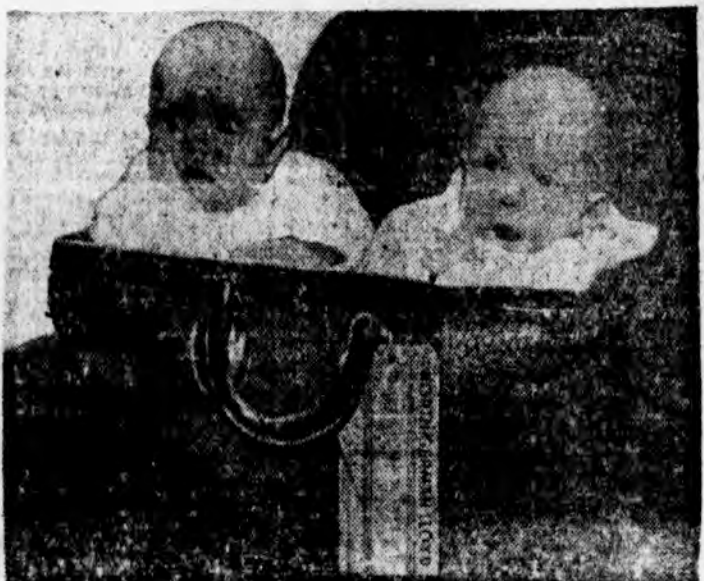

ELINOR RICHARD, 8, orphan, is shown in New York on her arrival en route from Norway to San Francisco to live with an uncle. A sign pinned to her dress gives the ship's address.

RALPH SCHMIDT, San Francisco, 8 years old, traveled alone by rail and ship to Berlin, Germany, for a two-year visit with his grandparents. A seasoned voyager by the time this picture was taken, Ralph is shown with Chief Steward Sukdol of the President Harding as the liner stopped at Plymouth, England, enroute.

HETHA AND HELEN COELLEN (you'll have to guess which is left and which is right), Davenport, Ia., 4-months-old twins, are shown as they were packed for shipment to Schleswig-Holstein to live with a sister of their widower father. The tag on the bag directs their delivery to a steamship pier in New York, there to be trans-shipped to Germany.

LEAF ACREAGE NEW CHAIRMEN WILL BE FIXED DUE IN SENATE

Allotments Under '38 Program to be Determined Soon

Raleigh, Feb. 2.—E. Y. Floyd, AAA executive officer at State College, announced today that flue-cured acreage allotments for farms under the 1938 Agricultural Conservation program will be determined at an early date.

The national, State, and county acreage gous under the 1938 program will be broken down into farm allotments, which will be determined by the size of the national crop needed to keep the supply of flue-cured tobacco in line with demand.

Floyd declared that growers will be notified of their allotments as soon as the individual farm quotas are determined by local and county committees and approved by the State office.

If pending Congressional legislation is enacted, it is likely that the 1938 poundage allotment, or marketing quota for a farm under such legislation, will be the normal yield per acre for the farm times the number of acres in the farm's acreage allotment under the 1938 program, Floyd said.

Operators of farms for which a tobacco base was not previously established under AAA programs are being requested to report to their committees with information on their tobacco acreage and production in 1935, 1936 and 1937.

If tobacco was not grown in the past three years, the grower is being asked to submit his intended acreage for this year, Floyd said.

A new highway connects Mount Whitney, highest point in the United States, and Death Valley, the lowest.

material fact in order to collect benefits may be punished by a fine of $50, or imprisonment for thirty days, or both, and each such false statement constitutes a separate offense.

Mr. Cherry asked the co-operation of local citizens in carrying out the provisions of the law.

"No person who refuses work or who deliberately gives up a job without reason is entitled to any benefits and we will appreciate the reporting of such incidents of the Employment Office," he said. "Each case will be thoroughly investigated and those guilty of this offense will be immediately disqualified for benefits."

Spivey of Durham from disbarment after his conviction of a crime against nature, Associate Justice Schenck wrote the affirming opinion and said: "In the instant case it having appeared to the court that the defendant was guilty of an infamous misdemeanor, converted to a felony x x x the court by virtue of its inherent power was authorized to order his name stricken from the rolls of attorneys" and his license returned to the Supreme court.

Director Pleased With Progress On Security Program

Fears of Too Many Beneficiaries for Any to Receive any Material Aid Expelled

Reflector Bureau Raleigh, Feb. 2.—Nathan H. Yelton, director of the Division of Public Assistance, is well pleased with the manner in which the program of Social Security for Old Age Assistance and dependent children benefits is working out.

His chief fear has been that so many beneficiaries would be put on one roll that the average assistance to each would be so small as to do little or no good, Mr. Yelton said.

Despite the fact that the number of old age beneficiaries increased in January to 22,526 and the average payment to each slipped a few cents to $9.31 each, Mr. Yelton is confident that the ultimate goal of the program will be reached.

He pointed out that when the program was set up it was decided that there were funds available to put 26,300 old age beneficiaries on one list, with the average payment to each $11.25 per month.

The president, pro tem is, of course selected by the Democratic caucus, but Senator A. Hall Johnston, of Buncombe, won't be there to be selected. He's now on the Superior court bench. And besides, custom decrees that the post shall go to a easterner this time.

Of the principal committee chairmen, E. V. Webb of Finance; J. A. Bell of Appropriations; J. W. Noell of Education; A. C. Gay of Judiciary No. 2; John Sprunt Hill of Manufacturers, Commerce and Labor; S. Gilmer Sparger of Roads; Henry Ingram of Counties, Cities and Towns; and Lee L. Gravelly of Conservation and Development will not be in the 1938 session, either by reason of "Gentlemen's Agreements" which will keep them from running or from a disinclination to make the race.

"Cousin Willie" Clark of Edgecombe, head of the Agricultural committee; Ed Flanagan of Pitt, Banking and Currency head; and T. J. Gold, High Point, of Judiciary No. 1 will likely run for re-election and, if successful, will be eligible for reappointment to their former posts.

TODAY-TOMORROW A new, thrilling role by the terror man of the screen!

Since actual operation of the plan has begun, and more data are available, it is anticipated that the number of old age beneficiaries will reach approximately 30,000 by the end of the current fiscal year on June 30th. Each beneficiary should be receiving something like $10 per month, Mr. Yelton estimates.
