SUDETENS DEMAND ANNEXATION BY GERMANY

KEEN INTEREST BY AMERICANS IN CONFERENCE

United States Watching Hitler-Chamberlain Parley

HULL TO CONFER WITH ROOSEVELT

Morgenthau Discloses Crisis Has Caused Largest Flight To Dollar in History

Washington, Sept. 15.—(AP)—The United States is watching the Chamberlain-Hitler conversation with "the greatest interest," Secretary of State Hull said at his press conference today.

Permitting direct quotations, a rare occurrence, he declared: "The historic conference today between the Prime Minister of Great Britain and the Chancellor of Germany is naturally being observed with the greatest interest by all nations which are deeply concerned with the preservation of peace."

Hull said he would see the President tonight at the station and would confer with him tonight or tomorrow, as Mr. Roosevelt desires.

Hull said he was in telephonic conversation with the President this morning, communicating to him the latest news in from Europe.

Secretary Morgenthau disclosed meanwhile, that the European crisis has caused the "largest flight to the dollar in history."

The Treasury had declined to estimate the amount of foreign funds sent here for safekeeping, but figures on recent Treasury gold acquisitions indicate several hundred million dollars of foreign cash have arrived in the last few weeks.

"This movement proves," Morgenthau declared, "that the United States is the financial center of the world and can resist the kind of nervousness that people with money fear."

Other developments: Secretary Ickes said he thought it was proper for the President to indicate his preferences in Democratic primaries. Ickes said he based this attitude on his own theory that a United States Senator represents more than the people than the state which elected him.

The War Department announced the following North Carolinians had accepted appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps: William W. Hill of Kinston, second lieutenant, field artillery; and Solomon G. Griggs of Raleigh second lieutenant, infantry.

'39 Soil Program Has Been Mapped

R. R. Bennett, Pitt county farm agent, C. D. Griggs, assistant county agent, and Miss Ethel Nice, Pitt County home demonstration agent, have just returned from a three-day conference of State College, in which program plans for 1939 were mapped.

"We planned a well-balanced program of work for 1939," declared the County Agent, and it is hoped that, through the continued co-operation of the farmers of Pitt County, worthwhile demonstrations about the agricultural line can be conducted."

The sessions attended by the Pitt farm leaders was a joint conference of county agents and home demonstration agents of North Carolina.

Monday's meeting was devoted to a joint session of county agents and home demonstration agents. Tuesday and Wednesday were confined to contacting specialists of various agricultural departments to work out the 1939 program.

Persons working with the farm officials of various counties in the State were Dean I. O. Schaub, director of extension; John W. Goodwin, assistant director and Miss Ruth Curran, director of home agents.

NATIVE OF PITT WRECK VICTIM

John B. Tripp Killed in Auto Accident at St. Louis, Mo.

Word was received here today of the death of John B. Tripp, Pitt county native, who was killed in an automobile accident at St. Louis, Mo., en route to his home in New York after visiting a son in California. He was 74 years old. Details of the accident were not stated.

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock and interment was in Mount Lebanon Masonic cemetery in Missouri.

Well-known among a wide circle of friends throughout Pitt county, Mr. Tripp was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Tripp, who made their home in Greenville about 50 years ago.

During the earlier years of his life Mr. Tripp, a successful business man, acquired a fortune, but lost a major part of it in Texas and Oklahoma.

Mr. Tripp was graduated from the University of North Carolina, after which he taught school in Pitt county for a while. He became associated with the B. F. Johnson Publishing Company of Richmond, Va., as a book salesman. Mr. Tripp, however, later became a publisher himself.

After leaving Richmond, he went to Philadelphia where he was married to Philadelphia, where he was married to Philadelphia, where he was married to Philadelphia.

Mr. Tripp became president of the Midwest Bonding and Indemnity Company of Oklahoma City in 1931. Josephus Daniels, Ambassador to Mexico, highly recommended the former Pitt county resident for the position.

Besides his widow, Mrs. John B. Tripp of New York, surviving are a son, John B. Tripp, Jr., of California; a brother Heber B. Tripp of Washington, N. C.; two sisters, Mrs. Bela Johnson of Washington, N. C., and Mrs. Nancy Dail of Ayden. A number of nieces and nephews in Pitt county also survive.

Threatened His Wife But Killed Himself

Coroner G. M. Henderson of Craven county has deemed an inquest unnecessary in the death of Perry Wilson, 21-year-old Negro, who had threatened to kill his wife but killed himself instead.

The Negro met his doom while removing a gun from a closet after he had made the threat. The gun discharged when the firearm caught the door. The accident occurred at Dudley Cross Roads near the Pitt County line. The charge entered the Negro's body beneath the left arm.

FDR's Choice Trails In Field of Three Candidates

WINNER ELECTED BY COUNTY UNITS

Gov. E. D. Rivers Apparently Successful in Campaign for Another Term in Office

Atlanta, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Unofficial returns from yesterday's Democratic primary early this afternoon showed Senator Walter F. George renominated in the face of presidential opposition.

At 1 p. m. (EST) tabulations showed the Senate veteran leading in the complete count from 71 of the state's 159 counties with 208 of the 410 unit votes in his column. He held the advantage in 11 more counties with an additional 30 unit votes apparently headed into his list.

Atlanta, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Senator Walter George whose retirement was asked by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, held an increasing lead for renomination as additional unofficial returns came in today from the Georgia Democratic primary.

Former Governor Eugene Talmadge, New Deal critic, ran second and New Dealer Lawrence Camp, endorsed by the President for the senate, was last in the Wednesday balloting.

Camp conceded defeat last night. Senator George was leading in 78 counties with 222 unit votes. Fifty-six counties with 152 unit votes were complete. In 15 of the 26 additional counties, with 46 unit votes, only one precinct was missing in each.

There are a total of 410 unit votes in Georgia, 206 being necessary to establish a winner in this race.

Talmadge was ahead in 72 counties with 160 unit votes. Of this number complete returns were in from 35 counties with 80 unit votes and Talmadge was leading in 19 other counties which lacked only one precinct each of completion.

These 19 counties had 42 unit votes. In the Camp column were nine counties totaling 28 unit votes. Five were complete and he was ahead in another county with two unit votes in which only one precinct was missing.

With 1,597 of the 1,735 precincts in the state reported, Georgia's popular vote was 123,403; Camp's 66,405; and Talmadge's 39,174.

Governor E. D. Rivers seeking renomination to "complete" a little New Deal program, was leading in 95 counties with 264 unit votes.

Hugh Howell, former Democratic State Chairman, was second in the gubernatorial race with 144 unit votes in 63 counties.

Third Case Heard In Superior Court

The third case on the calendar, Mr. Mattie Taylor et al. vs. C. D. Smith, Jr., was under way in Pitt Superior court today and veteran court attaches declared it was the first time in their memory that the calendar has been followed to the extent that the first three cases were tried as scheduled.

The first two, Day vs. Higgs and Cox vs. Stokes, already have been disposed of, the entire first part of the week having been taken up in hearing them. During the meantime only one divorce was granted.

The land dispute case between Heber T. Cox and Fred M. Stokes was halted yesterday when a mistrial was ordered in order to give counsel for the defendant an opportunity to file an amendment answer.

In the Taylor vs. Smith case the plaintiff is seeking to have voided a lease signed by the father of all parties a few days before he died. Mrs. Taylor, et al., contend that C. D. Smith, Sr., was not mentally capable of realizing what he was doing when he signed a lease renting his son, C. D. Smith, Jr., a 300-acre farm for $100 a year for five years.

J. B. James is representing the plaintiff, while Mr. Smith is represented by John Hill Paylor of Farmville.

PLAN GRADING EXHIBIT HERE

Display Be Conducted by Agriculture Department

Hopes for making the American Legion-sponsored Pitt County fair a real agricultural exhibition were further realized today when it was announced that the State Department of Agriculture was arranging for grading exhibits of several farm products.

E. A. Gibson, a director of the fair, has received a letter from Randal B. Etheridge of the state department, advising that grading exhibits would be conducted for tobacco, eggs, fruit and vegetables.

"We have no further to go than our own warehouses to see the advantages of proper tobacco grading," declared Mr. Gibson in making known the exhibits would be conducted at the local exposition.

Mr. Gibson will have charge of the exhibits, but an expert will be sent here by the State Department of Agriculture to conduct the grading.

The erection of a new exhibit building will enable the display to be brought here. The general agricultural and home exhibits are expected to be much more extensive this year with the new building to (Continued on page six)

Sam Underwood Is Boy Scout Leader

Sam Underwood, Jr., yesterday afternoon was appointed Commissioner of the Greenville district of Boy Scouts by Dr. E. L. Henderson, chairman, at a district meeting of the executive board.

The Greenville district is a part of the East Carolina Council, headquarters of which are located at Wilson. Underwood will be a member of the Council Committee. Council chairman is E. Frank Reubie of Washington, N. C.

Commissioner Underwood said that Scoutmaster of various troops in Pitt County will find him willing and co-operative at all times. He was a Boy Scout for several years and attained a high scout ranking.

He is Commissioner for six Greenville troops and sixteen others in Pitt County.

France Puts Hope On Premier Chamberlain

Paris, Sept. 15.—(AP)—The French government placed its hope of peace today on the efforts of Premier Chamberlain of Britain to solve the Czechoslovak crisis by his personal talk with Adolf Hitler.

Although the French indicated Premier Dastagier had taken the initiative in urging Chamberlain into the extraordinary step, sources close to the foreign office said they had little idea what turn the interview might take.

British Parliament Will Be Summoned Hear Chamberlain

Prime Minister to Report on Talk With Adolf Hitler

HALIFAX CALLED BY KING GEORGE

Chamberlain Cheered Upon Arrival at Station for Talk With German Fuehrer

London, Sept. 15.—(AP)—The British government arranged today to recall Parliament to hear Prime Minister Chamberlain's personal report on his talk with Chancellor Adolf Hitler of Germany.

Parliament recessed July 29 until November 1, but has remained subject to immediate recall.

The exact date for early re-assembly will be fixed when Chamberlain is returning from Berchtesgaden.

Captain Edward Fitzroy, speaker of the House of Commons, technically is the only man permitted to recall Parliament, but he, like the King, acts on the advice of the Ministers.

King George VI, after lunch sought further information on the international situation from Viscount Halifax, foreign secretary.

At Berchtesgaden, Germany, Prime Minister Chamberlain of Great Britain arrived at 4:02 p. m. (10:02 a. m. EST) for his talk with Hitler in search of means to assure European peace.

The British leader was received by Dr. Otto Meissner, chief of the chancellery, who conducted him, after a short stop at a hotel, to Hitler's home.

A special train brought Chamberlain and his party from Munich, where he arrived earlier from London by airplane.

A crowd which had gathered near the railroad station cheered Chamberlain when he appeared.

Standing at the top of the wide staircase leading into his home, the German chancellor welcomed his visitor. After a brief exchange of greetings, Hitler conducted Chamberlain into the house.

Highway Patrol Will Begin Pistol Practice

Lieut. Lester Jones, who heads the Troop A Division of the State Highway Patrol, said today that pistol practice for members of the Eastern division will begin in a day or two.

Lieut. Jones said the practice will be held at Williamston. The team will begin with seven members and later be reduced to five members. Sergeant G. C. Bissette of New Bern will make the team selection.

After the organization program is completed, members of the pistol team will compete with patrol marks in other divisions of the state. A metal plaque is awarded the team making the best showing during the year.

Breaks Bone in Foot In Fall Wednesday

Elmo Savage, Greenville man, sustained a fracture of a small bone in his right foot while fixing a concrete basement at the old Ricks home yesterday afternoon. He fell several feet.

He was treated at Pitt General Hospital, and later removed to his home at 105 East Ninth street. He is recovering satisfactorily and was able to be back on his job today.

MASS BEFORE NO. 10 DOWNING ST.

This radiophoto shows anxious Londoners massed before No. 10 Downing street awaiting news from the ministerial conferences called in connection with the current bitter squabble between Germany and Czechoslovakia. Hitler Says He Has No Desire To Take Czechs

Taken to Mean New Frontier Would Be Guaranteed

Rome, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Italian assurance was given today that Adolf Hitler would not take the Czech population of Czechoslovakia even as a "gift."

This was interpreted by some diplomats as indirect offer by Germany to guarantee the Czech's integrity of their new frontier if they give up the Sudeten German areas to the Reich.

The assurance, embodied in an open letter to Viscount Runciman, British unofficial mediator of the Sudeten dispute, published in Premier Mussolini's Milan newspaper, was understood to have been written by Mussolini himself.

The letter was given a quasi-official character when it also was issued as a government communication.

"The writer of this letter is in a position to tell you confidentially that we are to be offered the 3,500,000 Czechs (there are about 10,000,000 Czechs and Slovaks in Czechoslovakia) Hitler would decline such a gift politely, but resolutely," the letter said.

This could scarcely be given any other interpretation, diplomats said, than that Hitler had assured Mussolini he did not want the "Bohemian of tomorrow" and Mussolini has "confidentially" transmitted the assurance to Runciman and to the world.

Official Figures Of Middle Weed Belt

Official figures for opening day sales on Middle belt tobacco markets show average prices under estimates and also under those established on the Greenville and other Eastern Carolina centers on opening day.

Despite the fact that estimates placed opening day averages around the $25 per hundred mark, official figures released yesterday afternoon showed the following averages: Durham, $23.35; Fuquay, $21.91; Osoford, $23.07; Henderson, $22.90; Louisburg, $20.50; Sanford, $21.75.

The official figures show that the Greenville market at present is paying prices as good as any of the other markets in any of the belts.

INSIST RIGHTS OF SELF RULE DENIED PARTY

Proclamation Issued By Sudeten German Leader Henlein

WORKERS STRIKE IN BORDER TOWN

Statement Sets Forth That Sudetens And Czechs Cannot Live in Same State

Prague, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Sudeten Leader Konrad Henlein issued a proclamation today demanding annexation of the German-Sudeten region of Czechoslovakia by Germany.

The proclamation, which was addressed to Sudeten-Germans and Germans in the Reich declared "it is definitely impossible for Sudeten Germans and Czechs to live in the same state."

"The Sudeten-Germans want to return to our home in the Reich," it said, complaining that self-determination had been denied them in 1918.

"The Sudeten-Germans have renounced the right of self-determination. God bless us in our just fight."

Shortly after the proclamation was transmitted, a general strike was called at Reichenberg, fourth largest industrial center in the country and six miles from the German frontier.

Reports received in Prague said all stores were closed and all business activities halted. There were no editions of evening newspapers.

Thousands of Sudetens in Reichenberg gathered in the streets after hearing Henlein's proclamation and shouted demands that Sudeten territory be united with Germany. Martial law had not been imposed in Reichenberg.

The proclamation was broadcast to Germany and was transmitted to the Czechoslovakia government by Henlein.

It assailed methods used by the Czech government in efforts to crush disorders which have caused at least 23 deaths in Sudeten areas in the past three days.

The figures of 23 was fixed by the government, which is publishing its tabulations only after careful investigation. It appeared certain that many lives were lost and more wounded in the fighting along the 125-mile Sudeten border.

Gives Away Drink, Caught by Officer

J. Gus Stokes, constable of Greenville township, today revealed how two Negroes got into trouble by giving another Negro a drink of whiskey.

According to the constable he was traveling toward Greenville on a dirt road near Simpson when he noticed a car stopped by the side of the road. Stopping, he asked the Negroes what they were doing. One complained that he was having automobile trouble, but when the officer came up to the car he started to run. He halted, however, when the officer called to him.

Constable Stokes searched the car and found a 10-gallon keg filled with bootleg whiskey. He also found a siphoning tube with which the third Negro evidently was trying to get a drink.

The two Negroes, Julius Price and Wright Corbett, were brought to Greenville and placed in the county jail. Price later furnished the required $200, but Corbett was still in jail today.

Condition Improved.

The many friends of Rev. J. C. Griffin will be glad to learn of his condition. He was able to write his first message to his family last week. He said he was feeling better, although he is still in a serious condition.

May the Christian people continue to pray for him and his good family that God will richly bless them through their sorrows, and restore him to his health and strength again. May this be our prayer.

King's Daughters Meet.

The Patient Circle of the King's Daughters and Sons held their regular meeting Tuesday evening, Sept. 14th, with Mrs. Virginia Perkins. The meeting was called to order by the president. The prayer of the order was used as the opening prayer. Mrs. Bryan, the chaplain, read a few verses from the 13th chapter of First Corinthians, also a selection from the Christian Advocate which was very inspirational and much enjoyed.

Reports were given and the circle entered into the election of delegates and alternates for the convention which will be held in Southwestern Pines October 5-6. The following delegates were elected: Mrs. W. R. Jones, Mrs. Virginia Perkins, Mrs. Randolph; alternates: Mrs. Thomas McGee, Mrs. C. M. Jones and Mrs. W. R. Smith.

This finished, plans to make money were discussed and the meeting closed with the mizpah benediction.

RESOLUTIONS FOR MRS. SOPHIA J. KOMP

It is with sadness that we announce the passing of our loyal and faithful member, Mrs. Sophia J. Komp.

WHEREAS, our Heavenly Father called into his presence Mrs. Sophia J. Komp on June 15, 1938, an ever-ready willing member of the Patient Circle of the King's Daughters and Sons. We bow our heads to the Master's will in humble submission and say, "God's will not ours be done."

RESOLVED 1. That the members of the Patient Circle desire to place on record their appreciation of the services and lovely character of our departed member. In her death our circle has sustained a serious loss. Her life was one of true and unselfish service. She will be greatly missed but most of all in the hearts of those who were proud to call themselves her friends.

RESOLVED 2. That the circle extend to the sorrowing family their heartfelt sympathy and may the faith that sustained her throughout her life comfort and sustain them.

RESOLVED 3. In token of our love and respect for her and in appreciation of her real worth, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Patient Circle of the King's Daughters and copies sent to the bereaved family, The Daily Reflector and The Silver Cross editor.

ECTC Eleven Hopefuls Are All Set For Practice

Alexander Designates Monday as Start-ing Date

With a grid contest on tap with Belmont Abbey College, October 1, Coach J. D. Alexander of East Carolina Teachers College Monday morning will begin the task of "whipping into shape" upward of 20 aspirants expected to be on hand for practice.

Experienced left-overs from last season are looking forward to getting into their football garments again. But the experienced fellows are not the only players anxious for action. There are newcomers who will be making an effort to obtain a laying berth on the first string.

Although some positions will have to be strengthened, Coach Alexander is expecting the competition to cause the players to try even harder to make a fine showing. By this route, he will be able to determine earlier, the playing technique of certain hopefuls.

Reviewing the backfield, one finds a certain amount of power prevailing. Lex Ridenhour, half-back Bill Shelton, the other half; Bill Dudash, quarterback, and Nello Perney, full back, will be on the firing line during the practice period and probably after the season begins. One of the prettiest plays in last year's football season was made possible by Bill Shelton. He took the ball on the five-yard line on the kick-off and trotted 95 yards for a touchdown.

Experience last year will likely enable Joe Hatem and Earl Smith to garner berths in the line. Smith is more experienced than Hatem, small and light, but he's a natural born scrapper. He's the kind of player that clicks with the coach when the "chopping" time comes. Irrespective of his early entrance in college football, Hatem was a varsity last season, and was envied by a number of players on opposing teams.

Mewin Frizzelle, who tips the scales at 155 pounds, is out for a guard position. He is exceedingly anxious to play football and will

Alexander and Gilbert of ECTC Advance Movement

J. D. Alexander, athletic director of East Carolina Teachers College, and Gordon B. Gilbert, assistant athletic director, will journey to Windsor tonight to hold a six-man football clinic and to organize a six-man football league.

A trip to Raleigh will be made tomorrow night, where they will attend another six-man football clinic and organize another six-man football league. The athletic directors have lantern slides and other ideal material to familiarize the persons in Windsor and Raleigh with the new phase of football.

One of the decided advantages of six-man football is exhibited in the fact that a player has to be unusually swift and alert in order to play it. Not only does it prove to be an advantage on the six-man team, but it gives him an edge over a player when he is a member of a football squad composed of eleven men.

Six-man football is exceedingly young in North Carolina. Coaches in high schools and other pre-college educational institutions have been making a study of the modernistic sport. If six-man football is put into effect to any great extent, a certain possibility exists of greatly improving future college football teams.

probably display plenty of punch when practice begins.

One of the weak spots on the college's squad is at the center position. Frank Coel, who has earned in fine performances at this position in the past, has been lost through graduation. "Rock" Venters, who has never been known to go on a diet, may be shifted to center. "Big Bertha," as Rock is known to some grid spectators, played guard last season. If Rock can gather enough momentum there's no stopping him. Incidentally, Venters has some competition at center. Bob James of Bethel is being eyed for the center position. James is inexperienced, and this may hinder his hopes, but he's anxious to play and there's no telling what the outcome will be.

Past experience will help the player gain a position. However, when the time comes to make selections for the first-strings, the showing the newcomers have made during practice, will keep them from being ignored. The material which will show up for practice Monday looks good.

As a matter of reiteration, here's the schedule for the Pirates during the football season: Oct. 1, Belmont Abbey College; here; Oct. 8, Campbell College, here; Oct. 15, open; Oct. 22, West Carolina Teachers College, Cullowhee; Oct. 29, High Point College, High Point, N. C.; Nov. 5, Guilford College, Guilford; Nov. 11, William and Mary Norfolk Division, Norfolk; Nov. 19, Appalachian State Teachers, here; and Nov. 26 United States Naval Base.

New Bern Bears Win '38 Coastal Plain Loop Crown

Doc Smith's Boys Finish Title Business by Taking 4th Straight From Snow Hill

Snow Hill, Sept. 15.—New Bern won the Coastal Plain League championship by defeating Snow Hill 10-5, here Wednesday.

The Bears' victory climaxed an eight-game winning streak for the play-off series, the champs having swept the best four-out-of-seven semi-finals from Kinston and repeated the performance against the Billies in the finals. New Bern finished its regular league schedule in second place, two games behind Tarboro. Doc Smith's club has two players to thank for yesterday's triumph—Lester Burge and Leonard (Bull Pen) Berry. Burge sparked the Bruin attack by batting in five runs with two homers. Berry, called on to relieve Doug Hautz in the fourth inning, did a nifty job—he protected New Bern's 3-run lead with a 3-hit performance.

Snow Hill was out front only once—in the second inning, 2 to 1. Joyner walked, and Soufas singled. Bistoff's double scored Joyner, and Rabb's centerfield fly tallied Soufas.

New Bern came back with three runs in the third and put the game on ice with a five-run fourth. Roth opened the fourth by hitting a homer over the right-field fence. Hautz walked and Mack doubled. Barnes' fly to right field scored Hautz. Mack stole third and came home when Bistoff threw wild on the play. Anderson walked and Burge hit a homer over the right-field barrier.

The Billies drove Hautz to cover in the home half of this inning. Rabb walked but was forced at second on Longest's infield out. Mewborn and Soufas walked and Ciceralo's single to deep center scored Mewborn and Stirewalt. That was all for Hautz. Berry then walked Maisano, but the next two batters fled out to end the inning.

Cecil Longest, hero of three of the Billies' semifinal victories over Tarboro, pitched the route today. He yielded nine hits and issued seven free tickets. Mack and Anderson took fielding honors for New Bern; Stirewalt for Snow Hill.

SHORT SHOTS
By HENRY AVERILL
Reflector Bureau.
Raleigh, Sept. 15.—Announcement by State Treasurer Charles M. Johnson this week that bonds which the State's sinking fund had bought for $238,000 had been sold for $263,578.70 was received with comparative calm in practically all circles here, despite the fact that this meant a nice fat profit to North Carolina of $25,578.70.
Reason for the relative lack of interest lies in the fact that the happening is getting to be something of a habit.
The Treasurer estimates that he annually sells about three-quarters of a million dollars worth of bonds from the sinking fund, on which the net profit will run something like seventy-five thousand a year.
That's because bonds are selling pretty well now and because North Carolina and its subdivisions enjoy pretty good credit ratings in the financial world.
But there was a time when it seemed the Sinking Fund might be completely out of luck on some of its investments. For example the batch just sold contained some Gastonia school bonds, some Goldsboro public improvements, some Raleigh township obligations, some McDowell county highway bonds, some Anderson street bonds, some Moore county school funding bonds, and some Pitt county road bonds. All were purchased at par (that's the Sinking Fund's habit—but at par) and every single one of them has seen periods in which it merged well below par.
There was, accordingly, nothing for the Sinking Fund guardians to do except sit steady in the boat and hope to goodness that some time the market would pick up and the bonds be worth what was paid for them.
And it came to pass, as witness this week's sale. At one stage, the Gastonia bonds in particular, looked exceedingly bilious, but refunding operations did a lot of good.
The State-Federal Crop Reporting Service estimates this year's apple crop in North Carolina at less than half of the 1937 yield—2,173,000 bushels to the 4,505,000 bushels of 1937. This includes all types of apples.
The commercial crop isn't quite so much off, from 1937, though of this kind the 1938 estimate is 500-000 bushels against 1937's 875,000.
Estimated grape production is also off from 1937, but still considerably higher than the 1927-36 average, according to the service report. Last year North Carolina produced 1,100 tons of grapes. This year's crop is estimated at 6,900 tons, but the ten-year period average is only 5,654 tons.
North Carolina's Hospitality Committee has issued another of its mimeographed publications citing numerous active county chairmen and carrying numerous "Timely Tips" and the like. The committee reports it hears "Street cleanliness in our cities is nothing compared to that found in the New England states." It urges steps to remedy this condition.

ville for paying a portion of the cost of erecting and equipping a municipal building to provide a court room, jail and offices for various Town departments and acquiring a site therefor, and a tax for said bonds, and 176 votes were cast against said ordinance, and said ordinance was thereby approved and is in force and effect.
378 votes were cast for the ordinance authorizing not exceeding $22,000 bonds of the Town of Greenville for paying a portion of the cost of erecting and equipping municipal buildings for the storage, repairing and maintenance of municipal vehicles and other municipal equipment and acquiring a site or sites therefor, and a tax for said bonds, and 194 votes were cast against said ordinance and said ordinance was thereby approved and is in force and effect.

HOW WOULD THEY BALANCE?

THE balance gives an idea of how Germany's armaments would outweigh Czechoslovakia's if worse came to worse. But theirs probably would not be the only ones in the balance. Lined up are symbols for the armaments of major powers that might be drawn into a conflict. Not indicated are armaments of such nations as Poland, Hungary, Rumania and Yugoslavia, all of which might be affected, nor economic factors, which often prove decisive in war. Figures are estimates.

The Characters

Hugo Stern, handsome author, living on the French Riviera.
Arlie Lumsden, myself, his friend.
René Geiss, head of a murder conspiracy.

Yesterday: The judge acquits me of complicity in the crimes, and learns that I suspect Geiss. Fleuriot asks to talk to me.

Chapter 34

Mr. Noah More

FLEURIOT was waiting for me outside the police station in his small, battered Renault.

"May I return to the chalet," I asked him, "after I pick up my things at the hotel?"

"Assuredly," said he politely. "Although, in view of the valuable evidence you can give, I trust you are not thinking of leaving Cannes for the present?"

"Not until this business is finally cleared up," I assured him.

"Monsieur Lumsden, that last remark of yours appears to argue a special interest in the case—an interest that I cannot feel to be wholly impersonal."

"Perhaps you're right," I agreed reluctantly.

"You do not wish, perhaps, to discuss your reasons for such an interest? Well, I will respect your reticence. I will ask no questions—save this one, and here I speak not as a police official but as man to man. Monsieur Lumsden, ignoring the two earlier crimes and considering only this last one—if you were in my position, knowing what I know and nothing more—whom would you suspect of the murder of Monsieur Venner?"

"I think," I said slowly, "that I'd keep a pretty close eye on the chasseur."

He drew a deep breath. "I fancy," he commented dryly, "that the sooner we arrive at the Chateau la Vague, the better."

It was a bare minute later that we pulled up at the gates, but though it was not yet nine o'clock, the big house was completely dark. The man from Marseille strode to the office corner and rang the bell, and a moment later the housekeeper appeared.

"The chasseur mademoiselle," Fleuriot said abruptly. "Have the goodness to call him. I wish for a word with him."

She started at that. "I am sorry, but he is not here. With the guests gone, there was no more work for him. I paid him his wage and he left this evening."

"You let him go?" he echoed. "And where to, may one ask? What address did he leave with you?"

She shrugged expressively. "He left no address. Why should he, and why should I ask for one? He had only been here a day and the judge's instruction had already questioned him. He, and she flashed a vicious glance at me, "he was not suspect!"

"So he was not suspect?" Fleuriot snarled back at her. "That is enchanting! And you, one supposes, mademoiselle, are not suspect either?" He swung round on me. "Monsieur Lumsden, I had intended to conduct you to the chalet, but I regret that is now impossible. I have too much to attend to."

"Don't worry about me," I told him. "I'll pack my bag and walk!" I did as I had said, but though it was a short enough way and the bag was light, I was uncommonly glad to see the chalet gates loom up beside me in the dusk. There was a family party assembled on the terrace, Ada and Dunning sitting side by side under the cork tree, and Hugo leaning over the balustrade.

The big dog, Lulu, lay at his feet, but at sight of me he rose and came across the terrace to meet me, wagging his tail, and as he did so Hugo hailed me with a joyful shout. Next minute they were all around me, welcoming, questioning, but after one look at me, Hugo caught me by the arm and dragged me to my room.

"It's bed for you, my lad," said he grimly. "I'm sorry, I was reclining comfortably on my narrow couch, a supper tray on my knees with Hugo and Dunning sitting on either side, and Ada, wide-eyed and breathless, leaning by the window, while I told my story between mouthfuls."

The Belgian Yacht

"I'M STILL waiting to hear what's happened to both of you," I ended.

Hugo signed. "Nothing from my end," said he.

"I haven't broken such a lot of ice either," said Dunning. "Beyond seeing that out there, the birds, Geiss, Stahl and Rakovsky haven't been up to any tricks. I've done nothing. Stahl has spent his time drinking on the Carlton terrace; Rakovsky hasn't stirred a foot outside his villa garden; and Geiss this morning moved over bag and baggage to join him. Apart from your valuable efforts any credit for recent sleuthing goes to our young friend Jean Francois First and foremost, he has located the yacht."

I exclaimed at that. "The deuce he has!" and he nodded solemnly. "She arrived in the harbor late last night, a seagoing boat by name the Rendezvous, sailing under the Belgian flag and carrying a crew of six, and her owner, strangely enough, is the harry

Noted Clowns Now With Famous Robbins Circus

A merry congress of the world's greatest and best known fun-makers are coming to Greenville.

They will be with the famous Robbins circus which will exhibit its myriad of wonders afternoon and night next Tuesday, Sept. 20 at the old Fair grounds.

The half a hundred and more clowns include some of the most famous in the world and are headed by Otto Greibling, producing clown, known for the side-splitting antics and diodes he invents and perfects.

Then there will be "Kinko" and Happy Kellums, George Reid and Leo Kerns, Stanley White, Bob Marks and Joe Consolvo, and dozens of others, not forgetting, of course, the clown band, of which there is no equal.

Clowns are an indispensable part of every circus, but they find one part of the circus audience to be indispensable to them—the children. It is from the kids that the clowns get their best clowning ideas.

and that is why you'll always see them chatting in friendly manner with the youngsters. The children give them valuable hints leading to hilarious capers which they can use between thrilling acts under the big boat to shore.

Most of that ended with repair, but ships still blunder into rocks in fog. Schooners loaded with fish break propellers and have to be towed to safety. Fishermen mangled in wrecks must be speeded to hospitals ashore. Private yachts and small boats are forever getting lost. And during the stormy months, icebergs must be spotted to prevent tragedies such as the Titanic disaster.

its raw lines are hidden. Occasionally a long string of regularly spaced lights show where a "through" highway parallels the coast. Small boats, their side lights glowing, skim along just outside the shoals. Out to sea a freighter

On our first day out from Boston, the Chelan rescued a fishing boat with a broken shaft and rudder and put out a fire which already had gutted a 75-foot sailboat off the Massachusetts part of Scituate (call it Scituate). After that we dusted off and patrolled a two-day yacht race at Southport, Maine. Those things sound routine but in doing them the ship tricker and down America's most historic and rugged shoreline—the New England coast.

Seaman fall in love with that coast, its rock harshness and all, but we liked it best at night. Then Clowning provides dramatic relief between such breath taking displays as Clyde Beatty, who exhibits 43 lions and tigers in a great circular all-steel arena at one time; the Great Behoe troupe of aerial stars who defy death with their spectacular exploits on the trapeze in the peak of the big-top; the Morean Family who astound with their sensational spring-board somersaulting; and innumerable other thrillers, including Hoot Gibson, world famous cowboy movie star and his huge assemblage of Rough Riders of the world.

The performances beginning at 2 and 8 p. m., opening with a gorgeous spectacle "La Argentina," in which hundreds of people and animals take part.

Scores of the clowns will be seen in the mile long street parade show day morning. In addition, many of their clown animals will be in the colorful procession.

A downtown ticket office will be open at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning at Hill Home Drug Store for the convenience of those who wish to purchase tickets before going to the show grounds.

wallows along, northbound with coal from New York, or southbound with lumber, woodpulp or ore. From every jutting headland, lighthouses flash their warning codes.

All these things are seen from the ship's bridge where throughout the night an officer is on duty, checking the course almost mile by mile. A hospital quiet prevails on the bridge at night. No light burns except a dim one over the compass and the one occasionally flashed on the navigation chart while the course is checked. It is easier to see from a darkened bridge.

Washington—After a few days aboard a coast guard cutter we say that life at sea is all that it is cracked up to be, and more.

We are willing to concede that our knowledge is incomplete because we have never been to sea in a really upending gale, or in winter when ice freezes over everything. Our experience is largely limited to a recent cruise aboard the 200 ton coast guard cutter Chelan out of Boston. We were a sort of supernumerary with nothing to do but ask questions about it all.

The coast guard prides itself on being the only one of the three major armed forces of the country which has a really active peace time duty. During prohibition days it had a "front" as well defined as a trench line. Run runners stood out beyond the 12 mile limit waiting only for nightfall to slip a fast

N. Y. Stock Market
New York, Sept. 15—(AP)—Returning hope for European peace soothed the war-fevered stock market today restoring part of the paper value that vanished in a two-day selling rout in fear the Nazi-Czech struggle would become a general conflict.

Joining European market in a rebound on the news Prime Minister Chamberlain would have a face to face talk with Hitler, stocks jerked upward in a powerful opening rally. Many shares started two to four points higher. Transactions approximated 1-200,000 shares.

TWO ARE GIVEN LEASE ON LIFE

Hackendorn Sentence Commuted; Forsyth Negro Rerieved

Raleigh, Sept. 15—(AP)—Governor Hoey announced today he had commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence imposed on D. J. Hackendorn in Sampson county for arson and would reprove John Ernest Howie, Forsyth Negro, sentenced to be executed tomorrow for rape.

No final announcement was ready in the case of Melvin Petree, Forsyth Negro, also sentenced to die tomorrow for murder. Parole Commissioner Edwin Gill said a decision would be made during the day.

Howie was rerieved to allow further study of his case. Gill said the stay probably would be 60 days. Hackendorn's death date was September 23. He was convicted in August.

The quick decision in his case, even while Hackendorn's lawyers were "attempting an appeal to the supreme court," the order said, was unusual but was made "because of the fact that the trial judge brought the case before the clemency office through "a voluntary judicial petition."
