NOTICE SERVED UNITED STATES NOT TO DISARM

To Retain Force As Other Nations Arm To Peak

AIMS STATED BY CHIEF EXECUTIVE

President Also Asserts Nation Intends to Protect Western Hemisphere

(By The Associated Press) The United States put the world on notice today, in the words of President Roosevelt, that this nation intends to keep foreign interference away from the Western Hemisphere and will not disarm "while neighbor nations arm to the peak."

Bulwarking this, Mr. Roosevelt wrote Secretary Swanson on this 17th day that the fleet must be ready to insure protection against any aggressor.

Navy Day found shipyards humming with preparations for any eventuality. Seventy-five craft either are on the ways or are about to be started and tonnage figures showed that Great Britain alone ranks with the United States in warships afloat or building.

The President, in his pronouncement on American foreign policy since the Czechoslovakian crisis, made a virtually precedent-shattering condemnation of nations which employ force, exile and repression as instruments of national policy.

He declared that the government of foreign nations "must not threaten the world with the disaster of war" and asserted no useful purpose is served to the world by the American people or the people of other nations that the American government in its policies, its practices and its servants are actuated by motives of dishonor or corruption the President expressed his views last night.

Berlin, Oct. 27.—(D.N.B.)—(Official German News Agency) under the captioned "election speech of Roosevelt at the expense of other countries," devoted six lines today to last night's address on foreign policy by the American President.

Three lines explained the occasion whereafter the item continued: "In connection with the present election campaign the President painted in blackest colors the 'threat by militarist foreign states' Roosevelt furthermore devoted his self sympathetically to the 'helpless and persecuted Jews, etc. etc.'"

Rome—President Roosevelt's condemnation of practices usually associated with totalitarian regimes was seen by observers today as a likely new target for Italian press attacks against the United States.

Raleigh, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The State of North Carolina sold $4,620,000 worth of bonds today at a record low interest basis of 2.0735 per cent and for the first time in the state's history all participants in the winning bids were North Carolina firms.

Kirkhofer and Arnold, Inc., of Raleigh, got the securities on a bid offering a premium of $21,724.30, with the first of $2,895,000 of maturities to bear two and a quarter per cent interest and the remainder two per cent.

A month ago today the state rejected all bids for the same bonds when the lowest interest basis offered was 3.178. Then the European war scare was at its highest.

Kirkhofer and Arnold announced that as associates to take the bonds it had 10 North Carolina banks. They included: The Branch Banking & Trust Company of Wilson, the National Bank of Wilson, the Peoples Bank and Trust Company of Rocky Mount and the People's Savings Bank and Trust Company of Wilmington.

Rev. Mr. Pelt, who has studied at the Zion Bible School of Blakely, Ga., and Bob Jones College, Cleveland, Tennessee, has had much experience in evangelistic work.

He has conducted services in Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, Florida and North Carolina.

Strongly-Worded Letter Sent October 6 Just Revealed

PROMPT ANSWER WAS REQUESTED

United States Accused Japan of Trying to Monopolize All Trade in China

Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The United States Government has told Japan in a strongly worded note to stop "unwarranted interference" with American rights in China.

The 3,000-word statement, presented by Ambassador Joseph Grew on October 6, but made public only today, demanded continuance of the "open door" policy in the Orient.

An early reply was requested. The unofficial interpretation here was that if a favorable answer did not arrive soon, relations between the two countries would become strained.

The United States accused Japan of seeking to make another Manchoukoo out of the portions of China she has occupied, and listed a long series of violations of American business and property rights.

The note charged Japan with trying to monopolize all trade in China through setting Pseudo-Chinese monopolies; with manipulating the currency in North China with altering the tariffs; with keeping American business men from their properties; with censoring and interfering with American mail and telegrams at Shanghai.

Hams and Shoulders Stolen During Night

Members of the sheriff's office today were investigating the theft of a quantity of meat from Fenner Allen, Greenville township farmer, but admitted they had little information upon which to base their search for the guilty parties.

Three hams and three shoulders were stolen last night while Mr. Allen was away. His wife said she heard someone drive off in a car, but did not see them.

NO DATE FOR JAPAN REPLY

U. S. Demands Not To Be Published in Japan

Tokyo, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The United States demand that "unwarranted interference" with American rights in China be stopped, will not be published in Japan.

The note was delivered to the Japanese Government by United States Ambassador Joseph Grew October 6, but was divulged in Washington only today.

Although the note specifically requested a prompt reply, the Japanese foreign office said no definite date for answering it had been set.

Sources close to the Government disclosed that Japan would take a "determined stand" in negotiating with foreign powers over rights and privileges they have enjoyed in China.

Informed Japanese, referring to the prospect of negotiations with third powers after peace has been restored, declared that foreign concessions and settlements in Shanghai, Canton, Hankow and Tientsin would be of particular concern.

welfare or betterment, the transporting of children and parents to the Flanagan Christmas Tree celebration, the service of transporting indigent persons to clinics for the County Health office, and the providing of a Christmas party for 18 children at the Albernarle Recreation center who were too young to attend the Flanagan tree.

Japs Push Ahead In Chinese Drive

Shanghai, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The Japanese conquerors of Canton and Hankow pushed ahead today with their objectives.

One was to occupy 685 miles of railway linking Canton, conquered last week, and Hankow.

A second call for the penetration of intervening areas in wanstung (Canton) langsi, Hunan and Hupuh (Hankow) provinces.

General Chiang ai-Shek's armies were taking up positions southwest of Hankow and claimed to have repulsed Japanese attacks designed to cut the railway north of Sienning.

Pushing from the north and the south the Japanese concentrated efforts on slicing off 50 miles of rail at each end of the Canton Hankow line.

The invaders struck overland toward a point 50 miles north of the south China metropolis while other units expected soon to sever the north end of Sienning, 50 miles south of Hankow.

The occupation of the remaining 585 miles was scheduled to be followed by drives on a strategic position a point 150 miles up river from Hankow and another point 320 miles from Hankow.

A large number of foreign missionaries are stationed along the railroad.

Mutual Understanding With Germany Favored By Premier Of France

Daladier Thinks Two Countries Can Effect Agreement

SUGGESTS LOYAL COLLABORATION

Willingness to Drop Mutual Assistance Pact with Russia Expressed by Many Marseilles, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Premier Daladier today told the congress of his own Radical Socialist party that he believed Germany and France should come to an understanding.

Addressing a packed auditorium, the Premier declared there are "powerful reasons for mutual esteem" between the two countries, which must lead to royal collaboration.

Before Daladier spoke members of parliament attending the Congress said friends already had expressed willingness to drop the mutual assistance pact with Soviet Russia in order to reach an agreement with Germany.

Declaring that French policy would correspond "to the elements of the new situation" in Europe, Daladier let it be understood that the government would seek a greater outlet for the nation's energy in its colonial empire, rather than dispute continental leadership with the Nazi state.

He also asserted he believed France would find an entente with Italy.

"Whether it is a question of German relations to Germany or with Italy," Daladier said, "France is convinced that if each side thinks only of the sole defense of its national interests, accord can be reached which will bring the most useful contribution to the reinforcement of peace."

"When I heard the heart of the German people beat at Munich I could not help thinking, just as I thought at Verdun in the middle of the war, that there are powerful reasons for mutual esteem between the people of France and Germany in spite of all the difficulties they must lead to loyal collaboration."

Before he went to the rostrum Daladier told the governing committee of the party in a private meeting:

"I am going to outline my policies for the future. I am determined to go through with them to the bitter end. When the congress ends you must tell me you are with me."

BRITISH NAVAL CHIEF CHOSEN

Earl Stanhope Named to Succeed Alfred Duff Cooper

London, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Earl Stanhope, president of the Board of Education, was named First Lord of the Admiralty today to succeed Alfred Duff Cooper, who resigned October 1 because of "distress" of Prime Minister Chamberlain's foreign policies.

Earl de la Warr, lord privy seal, was named president of the Board of Education, succeeding the new First Lord of the Admiralty in a reshuffle of cabinet ministers.

Both already were in the cabinet. Prime Minister Chamberlain therefore still had two vacancies to fill. He deferred appointment of a successor to Earl de la Warr as Lord Privy Seal and to the late Lord Stanley, whose death October 16 left the secretaryship of dominions vacant.

A preliminary examination showed he had one broken rib and a chest injury.

Both Daniel and Seifert were prominent in Masonic circles in the state.

Daniel was orator in the official divan of Sudan Shrine temple and was district deputy Grand Master of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons. Seifert has been Recorder of Sudan Temple for a number of years.

WITNESS SAYS MURPHY SIDED WITH STRIKERS

Quoted as Saying "Government Must Protect You"

NEWS REPORTER DAY'S WITNESS

Wilmington - Goldboro End Their Arguments Regarding Radio Stations

Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—House investigators heard testimony today that Governor Frank Murphy of Michigan had told a crowd of workers in Lansing that "this government must protect you," at a time when some of their fellows were under arrest for violating a court order.

The witness, J. H. Creighton, Lansing newspaper reporter, said in response to a question that it was "reasonable to infer" that Murphy in speaking of protection from "dictatorial and arbitrary judgments," was referring to an injunction restraining pickets from keeping non-strikers out of Lansing automobile plants.

Creighton was testifying before the House committee investigating un-American activities.

The witness said the governor made his remarks while addressing a throng of workers massed in front of the capital steps on Lansing's so-called labor holiday of June 7, 1937.

Other developments: Counsel for radio station WMFD, Wilmington, N. C., and a proposed new station at Goldboro, N. C., cancelled all their disagreements before the Communications Commission today.

Elmer Pratt, representing the Wilmington station, withdrew all objections to the granting of an application of the Eastern Broadcasting Company of Goldboro, for a permit to construct a station.

Representatives of the proposed station withdrew objections to an application by WMFD for increased power of 250-watt daytime and 100 watts at night.

They agreed there would be no interference between the stations during the day and only slight interference at night.

Patton said Goldboro had no primary service from existing stations. He expressed the opinion both applications should be granted, but if "they can not because of night time interference then the application of the Goldboro applicants should be denied."

Representatives of the two stations also agreed to waive oral arguments scheduled for November 17 on the Wilmington station's application for increased power.

Brunswick County Prisoners Escape

Raleigh, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The State Highway Patrol radio system broadcast a report this morning that "10 or more" prisoners had escaped from the Brunswick county jail at Southport.

The State Penal division received word similar to that broadcast by the patrol, though the jail is not its state penal system.

At Southport, Wilmington advices said the jailer would not comment immediately.

PEACE ACTION

We believe the people of the United States will share with the people of other lands a sense of profound relief that a general European war has been averted. We commend President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Hull for their timely and tactful leadership in exercising the moral influence of the United States in support of conference and conciliation.

But we would remind the American people that the moral responsibility for the near tragedy of recent weeks rests upon our own and other nations. There is a corporate moral responsibility for the world crisis which simply must be recognized if peace with honor and justice is ever to prevail.

What of the future? The agreement reached at Munich may prove to be only an armed truce with each nation fortifying itself with ever increasing armaments in expectation of war. In this event the peace of today will have been purchased at the expense of still greater conflicts in the days to come. On the other hand, the Munich conference may

BE CAREFUL SATURDAY

It's not too early to issue a word of warning to those who expect to attend the Carolina-Duke football game Saturday. Indications are that the attendance will be the largest in the history of games played at Chapel Hill, which will mean heavier traffic with greater driving hazards. Our advice to those who motor to the game is to leave home a little earlier and drive a little slower en route to the game, and after the game likewise take your time about getting out of Chapel Hill and driving home. And above all things, if you are going to drink, don't drive, for every person who endeavors to drive in Saturday's traffic is going to need all his or her faculties without having them slowed down by alcohol.

It is almost next to impos- sible to make a day like next Saturday entirely free from highway accidents, but the practice of sound common sense and caution on the part of those attending the game will go a long way toward reducing the number of accidents that otherwise would occur.

WHAT OF NEXT YEAR'S CRGP CONTROL?

Plans are going forward for the vote early in December on the continuance of the crop control program for another year and while it is very likely that the farmers will again vote the measure into effect, we do not believe that the issue will carry with the overwhelming majority that it did this year. There are still numbers of farmers who are dissatisfied with the allotments they received this year and many of these are going to refuse to support the program for another year unless they are con-

SHORT SHOTS

By HENRY AVERILL

Raleigh, Oct. 27.—This can be taken with or without grain of salt, depending on whether you are naive enough to believe that occupancy of a judicial post is a guarantee of freedom from all political influences. In several usually well-informed circles, it is reported that the Supreme Court split along geographical lines in its decision—or rather lack of decision in the Deane-Burgin debate.

According to these stories, the court found itself split three to three on the conflicting mandamus requests of the contenders. Chief Justice Walter P. Stacy was in Washington trying to settle a problem just about as intricate as the Eighth District row—the rail wage cut.

That would have put Justices Wallace Winborne (once state Democratic chairman, Heriot Clarkson (Charlotte) and Michael Schenck (Hendersonville) favoring Burgin; Justices A. F. Seawell (Sanford), M. V. Barnhill (Rocky Mount) and W. A. Devin (Oxford) for Deane.

Republican members of the State Board of Election (Adrian Mitchell and Warren V. Hall) were no end linked by outcome of the Eighth District contest.

Democratic member George Mitchell sells automatic stokers. While the State Board was awaiting for notification that Burgin had non-suited his court action Wednesday, the Fayetteville man sought to create a diversion by jokingly offering to sell all board members one at a cost.

"I don't need any stoker the way

I feel today," Mr. Hall snapped, or at least came as near snapping as the usually jovial, friendly Mecklenburger can. "What I need is a steam-condenser."

Three members of the state election board had an unofficial discussion of iron control at Tuesday's meeting and while everyone was sitting around waiting for the session to start.

Adrian Mitchell, G.O.P. member, and George McNeill, Democrat from Fayetteville, seemed to think farmers will vote against crop control when polling time comes in December. Chairman Will A. Lucas declined to prophesy what the cotton growers will do, but expressed the very positive opinion that tobacco growers will again vote for control, despite rumbles of discontent.

It's hard to get away from that election board meeting. Harry Sample, director of the Probation Commission, happened in to talk briefly to J. O. Bell, Hendersonville board member.

A bright reporter queried the board: "Are you planning to put the Eighth District congressional nominee on probation upon condition he not use the absentee ballot for two years?" Stony silence greeted the sally.

vinced that the inequalities experienced this year will be remedied. While we do not doubt that the control program this year has had some effect in holding the price level above what it would have been had the program not been in effect, most farmers feel that in view of the curtailed crop prices have been far too low, and it is going to take a lot of argument to convince these farmers, who have received less money this year than they did last year, that the crop control program has worked to their advantage.

of additional hands help with the marketing of cotton, tobacco and peanuts in the South, potatoes across the northern tier, corn in the central states, sugar in the north-east, apples on the Pacific coast. About the same far labor force has been employed this year as last, notwithstanding reductions sharp in prices of farm produce. Prospect for fall and winter markets have improved since industry has increased production schedule and payroll. But a big question mark is the export demand for American farm products. Bae has estimated the world wheat supply at close to five billion bushels, the second largest on record. Of the total the United States has approximately 23 per cent. The world supply of cotton has been estimated at about 51 million bales, of which about 50 per cent is American cotton. Bae will issue its annual outlook report covering all commodities, the first week in November. Reproduced by D. D. DuPREE, Negro County Agent.

SPEED BLAMED FOR ACCIDENTS

Safety Demonstration Sponsored Here by High School

"Excessive speed is the greatest single cause of automobile accidents due to the fact that the actual stopping distance required is usually much greater than the stopping distance estimated by the driver," said Harry M. Pontious, safety director of the Farm Bureau Mutual Insurance Companies, today, when he addressed assembled students of the Greenville high school. Mr. Pontious is in North Carolina conducting a series of unique driving tests which demonstrate actual stopping distances required when a car is driven 20, 30 and 40 miles per hour. This practical demonstration was preceded by a short talk in which Mr. Pontious emphasized the fact that each and every driver must make safe driving a personal problem and that his driving judgment must be based on true facts if he is to form necessary habits of daily safe driving, which is based on a thorough knowledge of the best driving practices.

After the talk to the entire school actual tests were conducted in a Deluxe Chevrolet coach with hydraulic brakes. The car has three guns, which are loaded with yellow marker loads, mounted on the front bumper. Mr. Pontious rides in the car with the driver and when the car has achieved a given speed the first gun is fired. This is a signal for the driver to apply the brakes, at which time the second gun is fired automatically. The third gun is fired when the car is actually stopped. This leaves three yellow marks on the street; one where the signal to apply the brakes was given, one where they were actually applied, and one where the car was stopped. Mr. Pontious asked students to stand on the marks so that all present could see clearly the reaction distance, which is the distance between the first and second gun, and the braking distance, which is the distance between the second and third gun. The distances were measured by two students and the records were announced over the public address system with which the car is equipped.

"When drivers know the true facts," said Pontious, "and each base their driving on those facts, highway accidents will drop sharply." He especially complimented North Carolina on its fine highway safety enforcement program.

Records of students who took part in the test included: Bert Darden, traveling 20 miles an hour, traveled 12 feet before moving the foot from the accelerator to the brake, traveled 26 feet and three inches after the brakes were applied, requiring a total of 42 feet and three inches to stop from the time the "emergency" was observed. Elizabeth Whichard, traveling 20 miles an hour, removed the foot in 17 feet, six inches, stopped in 23 feet, four inches, requiring a total of 40 feet and 10 inches. Claude Hardy, traveling 30 miles an hour, required 31 feet to transfer his foot, 50 feet, six inches to stop, for a total of 81 feet, six inches; and Kenneth Woolard, traveling 20 miles per hour required a total of 43 feet to stop.

The tests were held under the sponsorship of the high school, with the cooperation of the local police and state patrolmen.

Hand firearms were first used in the 15th century.

REVEAL PLANS OF AYDEN FAIR

High School Exposition To Be Held on Friday

Plans already in progress indicate that the Ayden High school fair, scheduled for October 28, will be of wide interest throughout the community.

Directed by the vocational classes, committees have been at work for several days, preparing to receive and display effectively the large number of exhibits expected to be entered. The exhibits have been classified and include a variety of products representative of the school and community activities.

In the High School Fair Bulletin, recently published at the high school, the following rules governing entries and awards are announced:

1. Entries shall be open to school children and adults.
2. Entries shall not be accepted before Wednesday, October 23.
3. No entries shall be accepted after 5:00 p. m. Thursday, October 27, except livestock.
4. All entries shall be properly labeled and tagged.
5. Each entry made by a student shall receive one credit point.
6. Each entry made by an adult shall receive five credit points.
7. Each blue ribbon shall allow twenty credit points to one grade as designated by the exhibitor at the time of entry.
8. No exhibits shall be removed until Saturday, October 29, 9:00 a. m., except livestock.
9. Exhibits shall be reclaimed only on the presentation of a receipt which shall be given at the time the entry is made.
10. All decisions of the judge shall be final.
11. The grade securing the most credit points for their home room, will receive an all day educational trip (Place to be announced).

In addition to the exhibits there has been a full day of entertaining activities scheduled for Friday. In the morning there will be a number of contests open to all visitors. These will include a hog-calling contest for men, a hog-calling contest for women, a seed identifying contest, a wood identifying contest, a rolling pin contest for women, and a wood cutting contest, with a prize for the winner of each contest.

During the afternoon there will be mule races in the athletic park, following which the Ayden High school football team will play Morehead in the third home game of the season.

Those in charge of this fair expect it to surpass in many respects those of previous years.

PIRATES MEET HIGH POINTERS

Contest Set for Friday Night 8 O'clock There

Coach J. D. Alexander's Pirates at East Carolina Teachers College the only college football team east of Raleigh, will ease out of Greenville before dawn Friday morning and journey to High Point for their fourth gridiron contest of the season.

This contest with High Point College is slated to be one of the toughest of the season for the locals, in that it is being played at night. Whether these Pirates will be able to see everything that happens in the way of lightning plays is not determined. Anyway, they're ready for their opponents.

Coach Alexander seems to be a "Homecoming Day" favorite with other colleges in the state. Tomorrow night's game will be the feature event of High Point College's homecoming doings. When the Pirates faced Cullowhee last Saturday and edged a 7-6 verdict, they were mixed in a homecoming affair. Incidentally when the powerful Appalachian team meets the locals here November 19, it will be another homecoming party. This time for the Teachers.

Despite the experience and practice of the Pirates, they are certain they will have a "dog fight" on their hands when they tackle the High Point gridder. High Point has her disadvantages, but her weight and experiences regulars enable them to produce good grid events.

Taking a glance at recent Pirate practice periods, the most enviable exhibitions have been made by Floyd Hinton and Adrian Brown. Hinton has been doing some work in the backfield and has won the commendation of the Pirate mentors. The most improved man in the line, by the route of astute observation, is Brown.

Friday night's game will start at 8 o'clock on the High Point grid field. Those Pirates relish sleep, especially after Coaches Alexander and Gilbert put them through their practice paces. The coaches said they planned to let the boys get some rest after the game. Nice fellows, these coaches.

FEW DAYS YET EARN PAYMENT

Farmers Urged To Achieve 1938 Soil Building Goal

Pitt County farmers have only a few more days to earn full payment for achieving the soil building goal for their farms under the 1938 AAA program, it was pointed out today by R. R. Bennett, county agent.

Although it is too late to start and carry out extensive soil building practices before the October 31 deadline, Bennett urged those farmers who have phosphate, lime or potash on hand, or those who have started new seedings of specified grasses and legumes, to rush those projects to completion.

Last year only about 50 per cent of the farmers in the county earned full payments and it is hoped by officials that a larger percentage will attain their goals this year.

In addition to the application of lime, potash or superphosphate on non-crop pasture lands or new

PIANOS FOR FREE STORAGE

We will have several choice pianos we would like to place in homes of reliable people on free storage until we call for them. This offer is made possible because these sample pianos left from the WEAVER factory exhibit must be moved from the store and placed in homes where we can refer to them to secure other sales. Write or call to see Ed E. Houston, Factory Representative, McCormick Music Co., 121 W. Fourth St., Greenville, N. C. 27-1f seedings of grasses and legumes credit will be given toward the soil building allowance by new seedings of specified grasses and legumes, including blue grass, clovers, lespedeza and winter legumes, in adapted areas.

Compliance with the agricultural conservation program is checked by county committees and through the use of aerial photographs. In addition to the use of soil building practices, a grower is required to limit the acreage of soil depleting crops.

It has been found that with aerial photographs, the areas of the farms and the different fields can be determined more accurately and with less expense than can be done with ground measurements. Continued good flying weather will enable this compliance check to be completed in the near future, Bennett said.

HINTS TO HOUSEWIVES

Have you ever tried combining clams and cooked corn? The flavors go especially well together and are delicious made into soups, stews, croquettes or cakes (mixed with mashed potatoes and deep fried.)

Too much bluing in your rinsing water will give your clothes a dingy, gray color. Measure bluing carefully and mix it with a little water and then add it to the tub of water in which the clothes will be placed.

Here is a tip for afternoon tea: cut a lemon into thin slices, add two drops of mint extract and cover tightly. Store for an hour or so and then arrange the lemon slices on a small dish with edges overlapping.

A new fruit blend delightful in flavor, color and texture is made of sliced bananas, diced canned pineapple and cranberry sauce. Serve as a fruit cup or as a covering for biscuit or cake slices.

A little lemon juice gives snap to sandwich and canape mixtures.

NO ROOM IN JAIL FOR THIS THIEF

Akron, O. (AP)—Police officers kicked a thief out of Akron's city jail.

Officer Fred Casdorff caught a youthful transient who had been given a night's lodging raiding the pantry of its bologna supply.

"Get out of this jail," Casdorff bellowed. "We don't want thieves around here."

If a Fall Suit is the Furthest Thing From Your Mind...

We'd like to talk to the man who is definitely not interested in new clothes. You know... the chap who says to his family, "It's all right for you and the girls but I'm not going to buy a new stitch this Winter."

We'd like to show this man some suits and topcoats that will take him off the fence... patterns that will change his "I won't" into "I wonder"... at prices that will make him glad he's not too stubborn to change his mind.

Take your own case, for example... that's the one we'd like to make an example of.
