NAZIS EXCLUDE POLISH JEWS FROM COUNTRY

Several Thousand Already Returned Following Raids

150,000 POLES IN GERMAN REICH Round-up Said To Be Aimed at Forestalling Application Of Polish Law

Berlin, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Authoritative informants said today that the Nazi authorities already had sent several thousand Polish Jews living in Germany back into Poland, following a nationwide round-up.

In Berlin alone several hundred Polish Jews were routed from their beds in early morning raids, semi-officially explained as intended to forestall application of a new Polish law that might deprive thousands of Jews in Germany of Polish citizenship.

The German government estimated that 150,000 residents of Germany are Polish citizens. According to a Polish consular official, to effect October 30 all those by that date must have their passports revalidated by Polish consulates.

Jewish circles estimated that the law applied to between 4,000 and 6,000 Jews in Germany.

Failure to obtain such revalidation would mean that the passport holder never again can enter Poland.

The Polish Embassy in Berlin immediately consulted police authorities regarding the raid. Polish authorities explained that the new Polish law required examination of all cases of Poles living abroad to determine to what extent they still should be considered Polish citizens.

Only men were held. Hundreds of Jewish women lined up outside two Berlin police barracks, hoping to see their relatives.

The women were permitted to leave battered suitcases, blankets, food and cigarettes for the prisoners, but were not allowed to see them.

Farmers Are Told Cut Cotton Stalks

J. H. Blount, prominent Greenville business man and landowner, today answered the question of "why should I destroy my cotton stalks" as follows:

"Heavy infestations of boll weevils this summer have increased the need for destroying cotton stalks as soon as the cotton has been harvested. By destroying the stalks as early as possible, the late development of weevils will be cut greatly. The stalks should be destroyed with a stalk cutter and the land plowed and disked. Then a good winter cover crop should be shown."

Mr. Blount the cotton yield in this section is a most serious situation. The section has the shortest crop since 1901. The state's indicated yield this year is 450,000 bales, or an average per acre yield of 238 pounds to the acre, less than the 10-year average and 100 pounds per acre less than the yield for the year 1937.

WARNING SENT TO FRANCE BY JAP OFFICIALS

To Take Issue to People if Parliament Balks

FRANCO-GERMAN TREATY TALKED

High Officials Considering Declaration Renouncing War Between Former Foes

Marseilles, France, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Premier Daladier completed his break with the Communist party today and warned Parliament that if it failed to approve reforms the government contemplates, he would carry the issue direct to the voters.

At his request, the committee on general policy of his Radical Socialist party approved a resolution, to be submitted to the party congress here Saturday, that the Communist party "has excluded itself from the people's Front of Radical Socialists, Socialists and Communists."

In Paris, meanwhile a foreign office spokesman disclosed that France and Germany were considering a declaration renouncing war between them, similar to the agreement signed by Adolf Hitler and Prime Minister Chamberlain at Munich.

"Presumably such a declaration would be incorporated in a Franco-German understanding forecast by Daladier in his keynote address to the party congress yesterday."

The resolution approved by the party's general policy committee proposed eventual recourse to an election if financial and economic reforms the "government has in mind are not approved by parliament."

In its reference to Communists the resolution said the Communist party had deserted the People's Front by voting against the government's demand for full powers and through "the hostile attitude of its leaders."

Eight Cases Tried By City Recorder

Chesterfield Peyton was given a 30-day road sentence and Amos W. Lillard sent to jail for 30 days upon conviction of assault with a deadly weapon. The Negroes were convicted of assaulting each other.

LeRoy Pollard, Negro, was fined $50 and taxed with court costs upon conviction of carrying concealed weapons and was fined $10 and taxed with costs in another case charging him with drunkenness. The pistol was ordered confiscated.

Snodde Carney, Negro, convicted of assault with a deadly weapon, was given a 30-day sentence, suspended upon payment of costs.

CZECHS' TERMS ARE ACCEPTED

Hungary and Czechoslovakia Appear Near Settlement

Budapest, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Hungary and Czechoslovakia appeared today to be on the way to a peaceful settlement of their long-standing often-threatening territorial dispute.

The Budapest government in a new note last night accepted the Czechoslovak offer to cede to Hungary about 3,800 square miles of land with predominantly Hungarian population.

Hungary also agreed that military experts should meet immediately to organize a Czech evacuation and Hungarian occupation of the area and that a German-Italian arbitration commission should deal with eight disputed districts.

Czechoslovakia had demanded that the mediators settle the entire dispute and fix a time for the occupation of the whole area demanded by Hungary.

Diplomatic circles believed, however, that this would be no major obstacle because German and Italian mediators were likely to pressure Hungary to occupy the disputed regions as soon as the arbitration commission was formed.

LAWYERS HEAR BISHOP PENICK

Slashing Attack Is Made On Capital Punishment

Raleigh, Oct. 28.—(AP)—The Right Rev. Edwin A. Penick, Bishop of the Protestant diocese of North Carolina, made a sharp and slashing attack on capital punishment today in an address to the North Carolina Bar, Inc.

President Frank Hogan of the American Bar Association, warned the 500-odd lawyers here from all parts of the state that human liberty, as "guaranteed under the bill of rights," is being gradually whittled away.

At the closing session of this afternoon session of Winston-Salem, he was expected to be advanced from vice-president to succeed President Charles Rose of Fayetteville. Gossp had it that George Green of Weldon, would be elected vice-president.

"Take care how you invoke God's word," the Bishop warned the lawyers as he urged them to be more careful how they quote the scriptures before juries. "Take care how you invoke God's words in support of any law."

"The eye for an eye, tooth for a tooth, life for a life as carried in the scriptures represent legislation of a semi-barbaric people. It belongs with slavery, plurality of wives and the killing of little children."

Governor Hoy, presented by former Governor Ehringhaus, told the lawyers, "I believe in the lawyers of North Carolina. I believe the lawyers will be the salvation of the nation in its public thinking."

Negro Facing Charge Of Stealing Clothing

Clarence Willis, Negro, was charged with larceny today following his arrest by local police officers and officers having expressed the belief he also took goods from other stores here.

The Negro is alleged to have been selling the stolen goods. He is being held in jail, the case not having been called today pending further investigation.

HALIFAX MAN DIES IN CHAIR

Negro Executed At State Pen for Slaying Sweetheart

Raleigh, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Claude Bowers, Jr., 22 year old Halifax county Negro, died by gas at State's prison today for the murder February 22 of a Negro girl.

Warden H. H. Wilson said Bowers did not deny killing the girl, Lizzie Bower, his sweetheart, by cutting her throat, but contended he had no recollection of the crime as he was drunk.

The Negro was the 211th person put to death in the electric and gas chamber here since 1910. He was the 39th victim of gas, and the 169th Negro executed.

Bowers entered the death chamber at 10:33. After telling the Warden "yes, I'm going home to my Lord," when asked if he had a final word to say, the gas was switched on at 10:35. Gas was administered 11 minutes and 20 seconds before Dr. Felda Hightower, the prison physician, pronounced the Negro dead.

There were no Halifax county witnesses, but Sheriff M. Page and J. R. Floyd of Lumberton watched the execution.

Officers Seeking Recover Tobacco

Members of the Sheriff's office today continued their search for the person or persons, who stole approximately 300 pounds of tobacco from the pack house of Marcellus Taylor who lives about six miles from Greenville on the Falkland highway.

Reputy Sheriff R. W. King reported that a lock on the pack house, which is located directly on the road, was broken. He said that the robber or robbers, covered up all tracks leading to the car by dragging something over them, leaving the officers with little to work on in their search for the guilty persons.

Eight of the troops are composed of colored boys and leaders operating under the Greenville district which eight, according to Scout officials is a great number of colored troops than in any other county in the United States.

The Sea Scout ship William Pitt has been acquired by the local district and has been equipped with a

CALL WORKERS TO BREAKFAST

Community Chest Campaign Gets Under Way Tuesday

Breakfast for solicitors will be held at the Woman's Club Tuesday morning, Nov. 1st, to start the 1938 Community Chest campaign with a bang, announced Rev. W. A. Ryan today.

At the breakfast, workers will be acquainted with the plan of campaign. Each will be given the particular section or block he or she is to work. Assignments are being carefully worked out. A map of the city showing blocks has been utilized to see that every business and residential block in town is solicited.

Supt. J. H. Rose of the Greenville city schools, is cooperating in getting the school children to know that the Community Chest campaign is to be held from Nov. 1-4. He has brought it to the attention of each school principal in order that it may be brought to the attention of each teacher and each child. This is a great help in getting the news abroad to those who do not follow the daily newspapers regularly.

Beginning today, T. Y. Walker, manager of the local North Carolina Theatres, is having a movie short showing Boy Scout activities showing in the local theatres to help bring the Community Chest to the attention of the public. Mr. Ryan said he was anxious for everyone to know about the period set aside for the campaign; so that it could be limited to a short drive. It is hard on solicitors, he explained, to have to call on prospects and have them unsolicitor and prospect find it more difficult.

The Chamber of Commerce will have the Chest drive brought to their attention tonight at their first meeting. J. Nat Harrison, president, will present the cause.

This afternoon, Mrs. J. H. B. Moore, president of the Woman's Club, brought the cause of the Community Chest to the attention of the Woman's Club, when the Garden Club section of the club met.

Mr. Ryan said he was finding such hearty cooperation on every side that the success of the drive is assured in one of its major intentions—community cooperation. With such cooperation, he said the financial part will be easy but the figures on November 4th will tell the whole story of the money side.

Police Officers Plan Attend Annual Meet

Chief of Police George Clark of Greenville, S. H. Martin of Bethel and L. T. Lucas of Farmville will leave tomorrow for Greensboro, where they will attend the annual Peace Officers' Association.

BIG UTILITIES TO COOPERATE FOR DEFENSES

Dozen Big Companies Join Hands With Government

PLAN TO DOUBLE POWER OUTPUT

To Strengthen Facilities in War Material Manufacturing Sections of Country

Washington, Oct. 28.—(AP)—A dozen big utility companies, joining hands with the Federal government in its national defense program, disclosed today they would spend $2,000,000,000 in the next two years to expand the output of electric power.

This amount, said Floyd Carlisle, of the Consolidated Edison Company of New York, would virtually double such present expenditures.

As the first step, the utilities announced "definite commitments" for enough factory orders to supply generating equipment capable of producing one million kilowatts.

The commitments were given as a part of the administration's efforts to strengthen power facilities of the nation's strategic war material manufacturing centers.

Announcement of the program came from a session of the National Defense Power Committee, headed by Louis Johnson, assistant secretary of war, which has been making a survey of power needs since early this year.

Carlisle, acting as spokesman for the group of utilities executives, which met with the power committee, said "substantial" government financing was involved, but would not be in the form of grants.

Other developments: President Roosevelt said a Securities Commission report on the activities of Richard Whitney was very horrifying because it revealed practices which everyone was trying to prevent.

In response to press conference questions, the President said that all concerned, including the Stock Exchange, was interested in preventing the recurrence of any of the practices in the Whitney case.

The President announced that John W. Hanes, now assistant secretary, had been made under-secretary of the Treasury.

Hanes came to the Treasury from the Securities Commission, on which he served as a commissioner. He succeeds Roswell Magill as under-secretary. Magill resigned recently.

Hanes is 46 years old and his family home is at Winston-Salem, N. C. The promotion will raise his salary from $9,000 to $10,000.

President Edward O'Neal of the Farm Bureau Federation, said he thought Secretary Wallace's proposal for a two-priced farm program would represent an excursion into "untried field."

The Wallace plan envisages purchases of surplus commodities by the government and their sale to needy persons at low prices.

O'Neal called at the White House today with a group of southern agriculture officials to discuss the cotton problem.

Colleges in several states had 15,805 C. C. C. youths enrolled in correspondence courses last year.

prove a great help in attaining the desired goal.
 Naturally the politicians will not want reforms because it might interfere with their ability to manipulate elections, but if the rank and file of our people bring enough pressure on their individual legislators it might be possible that the reforms could be effected despite the opposition of the politicians.

SHORT SHOTS
 By HENRY AVERILL

Reflector Bureau.
 Raleigh, Oct. 28.—Recently State Treasurer Charles M. Johnson gravely assured your correspondent that nobody knows a condemned thing about the bond market.
 Now it can be proved, at least, that the Treasurer and his selected group of able fiscal assistants know about as little as anybody.
 Just before the State's $4,620,000 issue was sold Thursday, the Treasurer and his office force formed a small "pool" to be won by the person estimating the closest to the interest rate of the winning bid. Everybody chipped in his two bits and guessed merrily.
 When the bids had been opened and the winning 2.07 rate had been announced, the "pool" was canvassed.
 The winner—Wilhelm Tell Ueltscher, treasurer's office janitor. He had put in 2.03 as his estimate.
 The head of the State's exchequer and all his mathematical wizards were much further afield.

Community Chest Drive.
 When the Community Chest drive gets under way here early next week it is to be hoped that our citizens will respond liberally to the solicitation for funds. This year's chest, in addition to funds for the Boy Scouts, Salvation Army and Thrift Shop, will include $1,000 for emergency relief, an item that was not a part of last year's chest program. Experience has proved that the Community Chest idea of one solicitation to cover all items instead of a series of drives by individual organizations and causes is much more effective and preferable both from the standpoint of the organizations affected as well as the public.
 We appeal to all our citizens to consider the worthiness of all these causes included in the Community Chest drive and then give as liberally as possible when you are called upon next week to do your part.

Election Reforms Needed.
 It seems to us that all the wrangling that has been going on over the Eighth District Congressional contest should convince all our people that the abolition of the absentee ballot law in this state is one of the first steps to more honest elections. The absentee ballot law has always been the plaything of crooked politicians, enabling them to manipulate primaries and elections to their own desires, and the repeal of absentee voting would remove one of the features of our election laws that invite crookedness.
 Another needed reform of our election laws would be the abolition of markers of all kinds in primaries and elections. It is true that there are many voters who are not capable of marking their own ballots, and at times they may vote differently from their intentions, but the law of averages would take care of such mistakes and make it fair for all contestants. Under the present system of official markers the voter who is not capable of marking his or her own ballot has no assurance that he or she is not doubled-crossed by the marker, anyway.
 Another needed reform is a completely new registration in every precinct in the state, with every voter being required to personally appear before the registrar in order to place his or her name on the new books.
 If our people really want more honest elections in this state, we believe that the enactment of the above reforms by the next legislature would

Wilson's Will A Lucas was in town Wednesday as chairman of the State Board of Elections. Thursday he was here as an attorney in the tobacco tax suit to restrain collection of levies on the week sold in excess of quotas.
 "Hello, Mr. Lucas, you're looking much happier than yesterday," your correspondent greeted him on the second visit.
 "Why shouldn't I be," he countered. "I'm making more than three dollars and a half today."
 Per diem of election board members is $3.50.
 State Senator John D. Larkins, of Jones, is putting on weight as he campaigns vigorously for the Constitutional amendment extending sheriff's terms to four years.
 "This Democratic barbecue is doing it," he says. "I've been to every rally yet and I'll be a little sorry when this campaign is over."

Charlie Jonas, G.O.P. candidate against Bob Reynolds for the Senate, wrote Secretary of State Thad Eure, requesting blanks on which to file his campaign expenditure account.
 "On general matters I am a fair lawyer," penned Charlie, "but on political requirements and especially with reference to the Corrupt Practices Act I need legal advice. I have no campaign manager—I am the whole works."
 Incidentally the Jonas expense account listed a $2,000 contribution from the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, Washington, D. C.
 Evidently the national G.O.P. hasn't much hope of carrying North Carolina if that's all it plans to turn loose for the November pollings.

Washington Daybook
 By Preston Garrett

Washington—John Barrett, minister to a half dozen South American republics at various times and first director-general of the Pan-American Union, died a few days ago but he long will be remembered for some of the fastest thinking the state department recalls.
 The Pan-American union building had just been completed and Barrett was walking toward the doorway of the structure with Andrew Carnegie, who had come to inspect the costly building for which he had supplied the money.
 "Anything else you need?" asked Carnegie.
 Barrett hadn't given the idea a thought—and he knew that he had to speak out before Carnegie left. He saw an ugly patch of mud at one end of the building. It clicked.
 "If we had a sunken garden to replace that mud it would be mighty handsome," he suggested.
 "How much would it cost?" asked Carnegie. Barrett hadn't the foggiest idea, but he shot back: "Thirty thousand dollars."
 Carnegie wrote out a check for the amount on the spot and the resulting garden is probably the handsomest one in Washington.

Ghosts Of The Court.
 Not all ghost writers are in literature or politics. Some of the most forlorn "ghosts" are lawyers. They draft extensive law briefs on important cases, year after year, for presentation to the supreme court without having their names appear on them as counsel. Big shot members of the firm get that honor.
 But there are exceptions. Even youngsters occasionally get such breaks. Francis Kirkham, former secretary to Chief Justice Hughes, recently appeared at the supreme court with the first brief to which his name had been attached as member of a large San Francisco law firm. As a "ghost" he had drafted dozens before, all to be signed by senior members of the firm.
 "What this country needs," cracked a New Dealer after reading a headline on a speech by the conservative junior senator from Nebraska, "is more Burke control."
 But New Deal critics are getting even by refurbishing an old Dockstader.
 They tell of a New England druggist who advertises: "XYZ rat poison—50 cents—kills 'em quick."
 "ABC rat poison—25 cents—kills 'em slower."
 "WPA rat poison—10 cents—doesn't kill 'em, but makes 'em so lazy you can catch them."

Army Waits For Braid.
 And at this point we must report that the army is held up by a shortage of gold-braid embroiderers. Recently an order was published requiring all officers to wear blue uniforms for evening functions. There are 12,000 officers in the army and when you begin sewing gold braid on 12,000 blue uniforms, or even on half that many, you have started something. Uniform makers were swamped. They could cut and sew the costly blue cloth but the gold embroidery was a job for specialists—and there weren't half enough. It was a "bottle neck" such as harasses the army in times of emergency. If it isn't gold braid, it's a shortage of freight cars.
 The order for blue dress uniforms had to be suspended until the embroiderers could lay on the gold braid.

N. C. TAX RATES FOUND VARIED

Range from 43 Cents in Cleveland to $2.50 in Clay

Reflector Bureau
Raleigh, Oct. 26.—The tremendous spread in tax rates of North Carolina's hundred counties is emphatically shown by the fact that a resident of Cleveland county, whose 43 cent rate is lowest in the State, pays less than one sixth the ad valorem levy and upon the 200 acres of Clay, where taxable are assessed $2.50 on every $100 of valuation.

Residents of 32 counties enjoy rates of $1.50 or less, those in six are forced to pay $2.00 or more, while intermediate 62 counties vary in rate from $1.03 to $1.90.

The attractive look of many of the low tax brackets, however, is somewhat spoiled by the fact that in many of the lower brackets a majority of the citizens are also subject to heavy city taxes. About 50 counties of Forsyth, Durham and other big cities are not exempt as easily as appears on the surface.

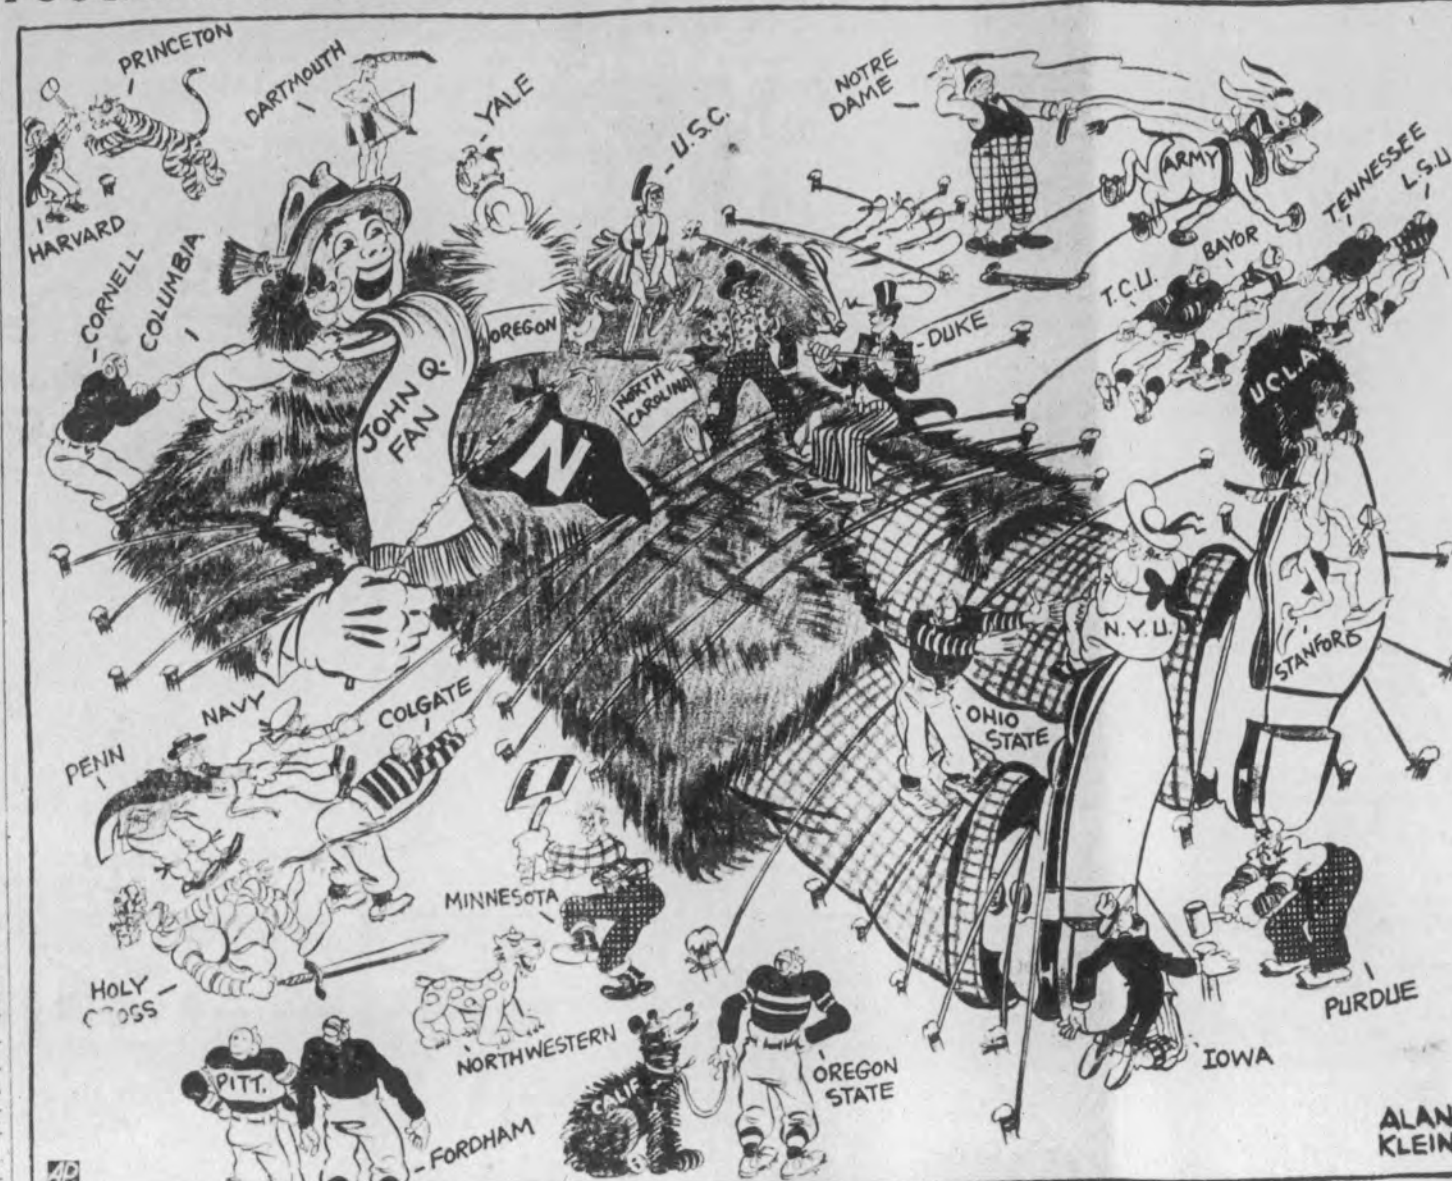

County tax rates for 1938, reading from low to high are: Cleveland 43; Forsyth, 55; Gaston 63; Cabarrus, Rowan and Durham, 61; Scotland 73; Yadkin, Wake, New Hanover and Guilford, 75; Mecklenburg 82; Davidson 83; Davie, Halifax, Pitt, Surry and Watauga 85; Vance and Moore 39; Alleghany, Burke, Catawba and Currituck 90; Buncombe, Bertie, Crange and Richmond 95; Caldwell, Franklin, Pasquotank and Sampson $1.50.

Henderson $1.03; Camden, Edgecombe and Wilson $1.03; Wilkes $1.03; Nash $1.09; Hoke $1.10; Randolph $1.12; Wayne, Lee and Gates $1.15; Graham $1.16; Alamance $1.18; McDowell and Rockingham $1.20; Anson, Chatham, Harnett, Stanly, Northampton and Watauga $1.25; Beaufort $1.27; Alexander, Cowan and Macon $1.30; Columbus, Granville and Lenoir $1.32; Haywood $1.33; Iredell $1.34; Jones and Person $1.25.

Robeson $1.37; Lincoln $1.39; Ashe, Caswell, Johnston and Montgomery $1.40; Cherokee and Macon $1.41; Wenden $1.49; Vance $1.50; Madison $1.53; Pender $1.56; Beaufort $1.57; Jackson and Rutherford $1.58; Perquimans and Swain $1.60; Transylvania $1.62; Duplin and Union $1.65; Onslow $1.67; Brunswick $1.73; Washington, Carteret, Stokes and Terrell $1.80; Cumberland and Mitchell $1.81; Craven $1.85; Dare $1.90; Greene and Polk $2.00; Hyde $2.05; Avery $2.10; Pamlico $2.25; Clay $2.50.

Examination of the tax rates indicate that legal liquor stores have not reduced the levies to such an extent that the group of 27 "wet" counties stands out from the rest of the state. While ABC store Durham, Wake and New Hanover are to be found among the counties with lower rates, ABC store Craven, Dare and Greene are among the counties with higher ones. And in the middle, "wet" and "dry" counties are so mixed as to show that to date there has been no wholesale reduction in tax rate by virtue of liquor profits.

FOOTBALL PANORAMA

ALAN KLEIN

Burgin Still Must Face Two Or Three Obstacles

Raleigh, Oct. 27.—Having won a long-drawn out contest for the nomination, W. O. Burgin has still two, possibly three, big obstacles to hurdle—he must win at the polls over Republican nominee John R. Jones, after which he will have another court fight on his hands before he can take his place in Congress as Representative from the Eighth District of North Carolina.

If and when he has cleared these barriers he may find his seatings disputed when the House is called to order in Washington.

In Raleigh Wednesday, Adrian Mitchell, a Republican member of the State Board of Elections, refused to sign the board's certification of Burgin as the Democratic candidate for Congress. He has not made any statement for publication that his action is a harbinger of court contest, but when he explained his refusal to sign it became known that the G. O. P. is planning an appeal to the courts in the event Burgin beats Jones on November 8, a consummation scarcely likely despite the outward optimism of Republicans that they have a chance in the Eighth.

The Jones contention will be at least two-fold—First, that the State Board of Elections, by refusing to print the ballots thirty days before the November polling (and the statute says "shall") deprive him of substantial rights in the matter of seeking absentee applications; and second that the State Board's certification of Burgin as nominee was violative of the election laws, because the board has no jurisdiction whatever over nomination of candidates who do not receive a majority of votes cast in the election whose result is being certified.

This "secondly" may need a little explanation. The Republicans will point out that the State Board's certification of Burgin as the nominee states, as a fact that "C. B. Deane received a majority of the Democratic votes cast." This done, they will contend, the Board had no right to certify to declare Deane the nominee.

This done, Deane could have withdrawn in accordance with any private agreement he had with Burgin to accept the judgment of the Supreme Court of three lawyers. Then the Democratic Congressional committee could have nominated Burgin to fill the vacancy and the board could properly have put the Burgin name on the ballots.

PLANS MAPPED BY DEMOCRATS

Plan Intensive Drive Down the Election Home Stretch

Raleigh, Oct. 27.—Leaders of the State Democratic campaign, their minds finally relieved of the worry from an undecided Eight District Congressional row, are planning an active and vigorous drive right down the election home stretch and until the finish line is crossed with the voting of November 8.

There apparently is no real anxiety over any statewide candidate, with the election of all Democratic candidates regarded as already assured.

However, State Chairman Griggs Cherry and his associates are not letting up in their efforts in behalf of U. S. Senator Robert R.

Reynolds and other members of the state ticket, although they are admittedly concentrating their most intense fire on the few doubtful spots in the state.

The Eighth is sure to get a lot of attention. Already a district rally has been called for Saturday on Tuesday, November 1, and many of the biggest oratorical guns of the party will go into action on that occasion.

An analysis of the district's vote for the past twenty years gives the Democrats confidence they will win despite the effects of the long Congressional contest.

The party leaders are also keeping wary eyes on the Tenth and Eleventh Districts where G. O. P. candidates have been known, on occasion, to win or come close to winning for comfort on the part of the untrifled Democracy.

Senator Reynolds' speaking dates have been announced and it is significant that all are for the West. They are: Thomasville, October 31; Salisbury November 1; Bryson City November 2; Charlotte, November 3; Statesville and Smithfield, November 4; Lincolnton and Marion, November and Asheville November 7.

FARMERS HEAR W. KERR SCOTT

Tells Grange He Will Seek Better Marketing Program

Reflector Bureau
Oxford, Oct. 27.—Commissioner of Agriculture W. Kerr Scott told delegates to the State Grange convention here today that "the North Carolina Department of Agriculture will devote a large portion of its time within the next two years in seeking a 'stream-lined' marketing program commensurate with the state's industrial growth."

A post state master of the Grange, Commissioner Scott pledged his co-operation and efforts in securing what he termed "needed development in our marketing work."

He said that farmers should not be content to send their products to market in haphazard manner, declaring that "adaptation and practice of approved marketing methods bring the growers definite premiums."

Super markets, quick freezing plants, additional canneries and an increase in marketing work in general are necessary in a progressive agricultural program," he said.

"The farmers' produce must be suitably packed and presented, or streamlined to attract the ever-discriminating housewife's eye," he added. "While farmers have lost thousands of dollars by neglecting to properly prepare their produce for market, it has been definitely proven that they could turn a loss into a profit in many cases by following the fundamentals of good marketing."

Commissioner Scott said that "good production methods have yielded dividends," but added that "the marketing budget must be somewhat in line with control and production expenditures in a well-balanced agricultural program." He added that approximately half of one per cent of the total money spent for crop control, production and for other production purposes is spent for marketing.

"To compete with other states who recognize the necessity for an adequate marketing program, we must invest more if we expect to derive profits from our agricultural investments," he said.

JUSTICE DEPT. REPORT READY

Lawyers to be Given Data at Raleigh Meet Friday

Reflector Bureau
Raleigh, Oct. 26.—North Carolina's lawyers will hear a report of Major L. P. McLendon, chairman, on the proposed State Department of Justice when some 500 of them gather here Friday for the annual session of the North Carolina State Bar.

Kenneth O. Burwin, a member of the committee, will also speak on the same subject.

Recently the committee submitted a report to the Governor recommending establishment of a State Department of Justice and expressing the opinion that no constitutional amendment is vitally necessary for creation of such a department. The question, however, will be voted on at the November election, and it is unanimously agreed that with the amendment there will be less question as to limitations of the Department of Justice powers. The Bar's Grievance Committee, of which Joseph B. Chesshire, Jr., of Raleigh, is chairman, is likely to get a report from Charlotte on the result of investigations of Justice of the Peace activities in Mecklenburg, but nothing definite can be learned about matters of this sort in advance.

Featuring the Friday morning program of the lawyers will be an address by Frank J. Hagan, President of the American Bar Association, who will speak on the subject of the Lawyer's Leadership and Independence.

HIGHWAY BODY 'ON THE SPOT'

Coan Announces WPA Making $4,000,000 Available

Raleigh, Oct. 25—The State Highway and Public Works Commission is pretty well "on the spot" as the result of State WPA head George W. Coan's announcement that the WPA is making nearly $4,000,000 available for maintenance and construction of secondary roads in North Carolina.

Reason is that the announcement has left the impression that four million dollars is laying around just waiting to be put to work helping to get North Carolina's backwoods out of the mud; when as a matter of fact nothing of the sort can be started until the State is ready to allot nearly one of the four million.

And, according to W. Vance Baise, Engineer of the S. H. and P. W. C., there isn't any such sum available for allocation and, furthermore, there isn't even a remote chance that so much money will be available unless and until it is finally learned that the PWA has definitely declined to match state funds in a $4,000,000 project for modernizing obsolete portions of North Carolina's primary highway system.

Definite decision on the PWA matter isn't expected until "some time in November," according to Mr. Baise.

Neither Highway Chairman Frank Dunlap nor Governor Clyde Hoey will be in Raleigh the first part of this week and there is no way to find out whether either or both of these officials contemplate any action looking toward matching the WPA money which the Coan announcement indicates will be made available by the Federal government.

The WPA announcement came about like this, according to Mr. Baise:

Some weeks ago the WPA heads approached the Highway Commission on the possibility of a secondary road project in which the State would co-operate to the extent of putting up about a fourth of the total money. At that time the Federal folks were told that an application for the WPA grant would be signed and forwarded, under the definite understanding that the State did not then have, and did not know when it would have, funds available for this purpose; and, therefore, nothing would be done until such time as the money became available.

It was obvious from Mr. Baise's attitude that the Coan announcement of the week end came as a complete surprise to the Highway Department and, more than that, it put the Commission in an embarrassing position.

It is equally obvious that the Coan announcement is going to make it decidedly difficult for the Commission to explain to those living back on the dirt roads why some thing isn't done immediately with that WPA Four Million.

The project, as submitted to the WPA on the contingent basis already outlined, called for a Federal appropriation of $2,934,734.66, to which the State was to add $968,254.15, making the almost $4,000,000. This sum was to be used on the secondary roads, or at least on roads not sharing in "Federal Aid."

The PWA project, with which this should not be confused, called for a 55 per cent contribution by the State and a 45 per cent grant from Federal funds. Proceeds were to be used on the main highways widening them and otherwise modernizing obsolete stretches.

All in all, it's by no means a certainty, but it's a good guess that the State will dig up the million somewhere or other and that the secondary road project will be undertaken with WPA help.

SOCIAL LION, GIFT LAMB

The Duchess of Atholl and a lamb that was among the contributions of foodstuffs given to her during her American tour to get supplies for the needy in Spain.

Jack? I'm going to punch him in the face!

The reporter seized her hand. "Will you hold it 20 minutes?" he pleaded. Whereupon he raced to a telephone, called his city editor, and in less time than it takes to write this the photographer came bounding into the night club.

"Now," said the reporter to the lady, "you go into your act. There he sits over there."

The lady advanced with a menacing look in her eye. The reporter was at her heels. The photographer was at the unsuspecting prizefighter, stood waiting with no delay the aggrieved lassie wound up and delivered a stinging smack to the flabbergasted pugilist's cheek. Instantly there was bedlam. The boxer sat at a table talking to another young lady. That's what he was doing when the party of the first part found him. The story, with pictures, made all the N. Y. papers.

N. C. GOES FOR SMALLER AUTO

Light Vehicles Favored by Tar Hells About 4 to 1

Raleigh Bureau Raleigh, Oct. 26—Whether four out of every five North Carolinians have a widely advertised dental ailment is a matter of conjecture, but it is a matter of fact, proved by an "official record which anyone may see" (as remarked in another well known bit of advertising propaganda) that practically four out of every five Tar Heels who own passenger cars own "light" ones.

Recently the Division of Statistics and Planning of the State Highway and Public Works Commission, analyzed more than thirty thousand questionnaires received from North Carolina passenger car owners in use in 1936 and found that:

78.6 per cent are "light" cars (Austin, Chevrolet, Eskins, Ford, Plymouth, Terraplane, Willys etc.)

18.1 per cent are medium weight cars (Auburn, Buick, Hudson, Olds, DeSoto, Dodge, Pontiac, Studebaker, etc.)

3.3 per cent are "heavy" cars (Cadillac, Chrysler, LaSalle, Lincoln, Packard, etc.)

In rural areas, the light cars are even more numerous proportionately, according to J. S. Burch, Engineer in charge of the survey. There, he reported, only 1.8 per cent of cars are of the "heavy" type. As "rural" were classes all unincorporated places and areas; and all incorporated villages with 1,000 and less population.

"INSULTING" STATUE LOSES ITS HEAD

Tokyo (AP)—Walking home after a convivial evening, Daisuke Ogawa, 36-year-old office worker, tipped his hat politely to a stranger standing in front of a building, bowed and said, "Good evening, sir."

There was no response. Mr. Ogawa became angry.

He swung a flurry of punches to the jaw, following through with a strenuous flying tackle that plunged both to the ground.

To Mr. Ogawa's amazement, the stranger's head rolled off and fell into the gutter. Only then did he find that he had been fighting a statue.

Mr. Ogawa was fined 50 yen for repairs and was detained by police until sober.

Man About Manhattan

By George Tusher

New York—At the rodeo in Madison Square Garden the loud speaker suddenly bellowed a triumphant message to the thousands of people gathered there to see the cowboys and cowgirls riding herd on a gang of mustangs.

"Ladies and gentlemen," came the deep-toned voice "at this moment a man who has thrilled all of you countless times on the screen is in your midst. He came here, even as you and I, to see the marvels of this great festival of entertainment. Ladies and gentlemen, look! In Box 7, Douglas Fairbanks."

Just then a dazzling spotlight played on box seven. It was empty. There was a stunned silence. Suddenly a graceful, athletic figure leaped down the runway, nimbly vaulted the box rail, and waved a cheery greeting to about 20,000 people who were there. The crowd roared, but through the tumult I thought I heard the ghost of a sigh—probably that of the announcer, who had been saved at the last moment. Had he waited two seconds longer to make his announcement, Doug would have been out of the Garden and hurrying up Eighth avenue.

It was a quick thinking newspaper reporter who halted time and thereby preserved a public shipping for the exclusive enjoyment of his own photographer.

This was the little incident, in a nightclub face other evening when a lady poked a boxer in the jaw, "because he had a date with me and stood me up."

She hurried into the club around midnight and recognizing the reporter, inquired, "Have you seen

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Oct. 28—(AP)—The stock market after an early roughing profit takers regained its balance today under the leadership of selected rails and utilities.

While the come-back was exceptionally quiet, initial losses running to two or more points among steels, motors and aircrafts were reduced in many instances near the final hour.

Railroad bonds were supported on the faint hope the President's fact-finding committee, which is to report its findings on the carrier wage controversy after noon tomorrow, would recommend at least part of the cut asked by the road.

Placements in State Better Than Average for Nation

Reflector Bureau Raleigh, Oct. 28—North Carolina's Employment Service did better, on the average, than did the service in the nation in the matter of placing applicants in regular employment during the past year, according to statistics released by the most recent issue of the North Carolina State Employment News.

According to these figures the 62.5 per cent of all state placements were in regular employment, while for the nation the figures were 56 per cent.

In manufacturing, North Carolina's placements exceeded the national average; her agricultural placements were considerably less.

In the nation 71.4 per cent of the placement were for men; in the state the percentage was only 69.6 of the total.

During the fiscal year there was 2,900,056 placements made by public employment offices of the United States. The following tables, arranged occupationally show how North Carolina's total compare with the national totals in percentage of placements:

Belk Seeking Exemption from Chain Store Levy

Reflector Bureau Raleigh, Oct. 28—Use of wrapping paper bearing a boast "The South's Largest Distributors of Reliable Merchandise—145 Retail Department Stores" is likely to cost Belk Brothers and Company of Charlotte some $3,620—the amount of North Carolina's levy against Belk stores as members of a chain.

The North Carolina Supreme Court will next Tuesday hear oral argument in the Belk appeal from a lower court verdict affirming the right of Commissioner of Revenue A. J. Maxwell to assess and collect that sum against the alleged "chain."

The case was decided by the Superior court on stipulations showing that there were forty-six stores operated in North Carolina. In all these stores W. H. Belk is admitted to be a director; they all employ jointly an accountant and auditor; they jointly support a buying office in New York; they all furnish W. H. Belk a weekly trial balance statement; and they all bear the name "Belk" in some form or combination.

The defendant corporation claims it is exempt from the chain tax because it does not own any stock in the other companies.

The Belk case is one of fifteen regularly set on the calendar for next week from the Seventh District (Wake and Franklin counties).

An unusual feature is that there is not a single criminal case on this

CLERK CLOSES DEAL IN STOCKING FEET

Greenfield, O. (AP)—Ralph Head, shoe clerk, believes the customer must be pleased.

Head fitted several pairs of shoes on a man customer, but none of them clicked.

"The only shoes I like," said the customer, "are those you wear."

"All right," said Head, "I'll sell them to you." He took off his shoes and the man bought them.

to the Scoutmasters who have labored to make the movement what it is in Pitt county in their work with the boys. It is the Scoutmasters who meet every Friday night, rain or shine, with the boys, train them in the Scout work, and become their heroes and models.

The value of Scouting as a character-building movement is enthusiastically accepted all over the world. One cannot help but draw the conclusion that those in charge of the schools appreciate the value of Scouting the way their faculties and officers cooperate and work in the Scout movement. When an experienced and capable school man like D. H. Conley, superintendent of Pitt County Schools, cooperates and works to get a troop into every consolidated school in the county, it is obvious he is interested in the character and welfare of his students and the value of Scouting to help them.

This report was turned over to the Board of Directors of the Community Chest at their last meeting. It is signed by Dr. E. L. Henderson, Chairman, Greenville District, Boy Scouts of America.
