PREVIEW — 1966

The fifth East Carolina team fielded by Coach Clarence Stasavich will be the first eligible to win the Southern Conference title. Last year, the games played by the Pirates counted, but the team did not play enough to qualify for the title.

There will be some new faces in the Buc lineup this fall, especially in the offensive backfield, where three of the four starters will not return. Only Tom Grant, the wingback, is returning. Defensively, however, the Bucs had slim losses, and the backfield here is back again.

Finding replacements for All-American Dave Alexander, fullback; along with tailback George Richardson, and blocking back Norm Swindell will be among the primary tasks for the Buc coaches. Three men return with experience in the backfield at these spots, Neal Hughes at tailback, Bill Bailey at fullback and tailback, and Nelson Gravatt at blocking back. But Stas admits that the positions are up for grabs.

SCHEDULE—For the first time since the Stasavich era began, the Bucs have a 10-game schedule, including five home games, and six conference contests. Four new opponents join the list, including William & Mary, Davidson, Southern Illinois and Southern Mississippi. Returning this season are Northeast Louisiana, Furman, George Washington, The Citadel, Richmond and Louisville.

LOSSES—Eleven lettermen were lost, including Alexander, Richardson, Swindell, monster back Ikey Bullard, guards Mitchell Cannon and Jay Andrews, tackle Corie McRae and ends John McPhaul and Jim Abernethy, specialist Peter Kriz.

RETURNING LETTERMEN—Seventeen lettermen are back, with the strength in the two lines and the defensive backfield. Regular returning are guard Walter Bostic, tackles Leroy Cobb, Pete Crane, John Schwarz and Kevin Moran; center Johnny Crew; wingback Tom Grant; defensive backs Todd Hicks, Neal Hughes and Robert Ellis; ends Ruffin Odom, Paul Schnurr and Churchill Grimes. Punter Mike Herring is back and will see action in the line as a guard. Others returning who saw a lot of action include fullback-tailback Bill Bailey, blocking back Nelson Gravatt and Joe Testo.

POSITION BY POSITION

Wingback—Tom Grant is back as a starter, backed up by Robert Ellis.

Tailback—Heavy losses here, with Neal Hughes, Bill Bailey and several sophomores as the top candidates.

Fullback—Bailey and sophomore George Gay will probably be the top choices here.

Blocking Back—Two juniors, Nelson Gravatt and Joe Testo, who saw duty from time to time last year, are the top candidates.

The Line—Tackles Pete Crane, John Schwarz, and Kevin Moran; guards Walter Bostic, Leroy Cobb; center Johnny Crew; ends Ruffin Odom, Paul Schnurr and Churchill Grimes; give the Bucs a solid nucleus to center their attack.

Offensive—Stasavich Single Wing with variations and a few new twists to keep the opponents on their toes.

CLARENCE STASAVICH

Head Football Coach and Athletic Director

One of America's winningest football coaches, Clarence Stasavich's team last year racked up his 150th victory of his career, and pushed the total to 152 against 43 losses and seven ties. The 1965 season, which climaxed with the third straight bowl victory for the Pirates under Stas' direction, was his third straight 9-1 year, and gives him a 32-7-0 record at East Carolina.

Again this past year, he was honored by his fellow coaches in being chosen as the district "College Coach of the Year," an honor he has received on four other occasions, including winning the National Honor in 1964. He was runner-up for the honor in 1963, and was NAIA Coach of the Year in 1959 while at Lenoir Rhyne.

A native of Georgetown, Ill., Stas was educated in the city schools there, and journeyed south to continue a fine football career started in high school, ending up at Lenoir Rhyne, where he was an outstanding football and basketball player. He joined the LR coaching staff in 1932, and for the next 30 years, began building his record.

He received his A.B. Degree in 1935 from Lenoir Rhyne, and his M.A. from UNC in 1947. His first coaching job was at Campbell College, where he stayed for three years before returning to Lenoir Rhyne as an assistant. During World War II, Stasavich enlisted in the Navy, and rose to the rank of Lieutenant, seeing action in both theaters of action as the captain of an LST.

Returning from the service, in 1946 he was named head coach at LR and held that position for 15 years, while his teams built up a 120-36-7 record. The Bears were undefeated in 1952, 1955, and 1956, 1959 and 1960, and were the National Champions in 1960. Thirty-three of his players at Hickory were nominated to All-Conference honors, and 13 were given All-American honors. Since coming to East Carolina, in the one year of eligibility, he had two All-Conference selection, and two College All-Americans.

He is married to the former Helen Warlick of Hickory and they have three children, Rebecca, Mary Helen and Walter.

Stasavich's hobby is fishing.

He took over as athletic director at East Carolina on July 1, 1963.

DR. N. M. JORGENSEN

Director, Department of Physical Education

Dr. Jorgensen, who served as Athletic Director for 16 years was highly instrumental in building a strong foundation for the intercollegiate athletic program at East Carolina. He resigned this post, July 1, 1963, to devote full time to the college's expanding program of Physical Education. The college experienced the development of an intercollegiate program of top calibre during his tenure of office

A native of Rigby, Idaho, Dr. Jorgensen attended Utah State and received his M.A. from the University of Oregon. He earned his Ph.D. at the University of Iowa. He is married to the former Martha Green of Iowa and they have seven children: Larry, Lynn, Layne, Mark, Karen, Janice, and Eva.

ODELL WELBORN — Line Coach

The elder member of the Buc coaching staff in terms of years of service is line coach Odell Welborn, coming to ECC in 1960, serving two seasons before the rest of the staff came. During the 1963 season, he served as acting coach when Stasavich was hospitalized, directing the team through six games without a loss.

A native of Thomasville, N. C., he graduated from Elon College in 1959, serving as assistant coach his junior and senior years. He entered Elon in 1948, but after two years, he entered the Air Force, serving four years, and playing Service Football and coaching an AF team during 1953-54.

Welborn received his MA from UNC in 1958, and was a coach at Rose High School in Greenville, N. C., prior to moving across the street to the college.

He is married to the former Rachel Poole of Thomasville and they have two children, Jane Bennett, 5, and David, 1½.

Welborn's hobbies include goose, duck and quail hunting.

BOB GANTT — Backfield Coach

Starting his fifth year as the backfield coach for the Bucs, Bob Gantt was one of the men brought to ECC by Stasavich. He came here after serving as head coach at Albemarle High School from 1959-61.

Nicknamed "Goo-Goo", Gantt played his college football under UNC Coach Carl Snavley where he starred at Wingback in the Old Gray Fox's famed single wing attack. He served in the Marines from 1952 to 1955 and returned to Carolina to get his Masters in 1956-57, where he also served as assistant freshman coach.

From 1957-59, he was assistant coach at Albemarle, before taking over the reins himself.

He is married to the former Christine Williamson of Rock Ridge, N. C. They have three children, Lynn, 8, Janet, 6, and Bobby, 4.

Gantt also serves as head wrestling coach for the Bucs.

HENRY VANSANT — Freshman Coach

Another Stasavich import is Henry Vansant, who also came to the college in 1963. to be mentor of the freshmen. Last season, his charges had a 3-2 season, winning their last three games by wide margins. Vansant expects to see a number of the boys who played for him last year offer a lot of help to the varsity this season.

A native of Newport News, Va., Vansant received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from East Carolina in 1961. While undergraduate, he played football and was an outstanding defensive linebacker.

Prior to entering college, Vansant served three years with the 82nd Airborne Division, finishing in 1957. In the year between graduation and joining the ECC staff, he served as coach at Hopewell, Va., High School, where his team had a 9-1 record.

He is married to the former Ragnhilde MacDonald of Fayetteville and they have two sons, Charles 6, and John, 1.

HAROLD BULLARD — End Coach

Harold Bullard is the only member of the Pirate team to have worked with Stasavich on both sides of the fence. He played football under Stasavich at Lenoir Rhyne, coming to East Carolina as a graduate assistant in Stas's first year here, and becoming a full-time coach the next season.

A native of Rockingham, at Lenoir Rhyne he was given All-State and All-American honors. As a fullback, he was an outstanding player, and was the ninth draft choice of the Baltimore Colts in 1959. He was named to the NAIA, Williamson and AP All-American teams in 1957, and was chosen to the All-State teams of the Charlotte Observer and the Greensboro Daily News.

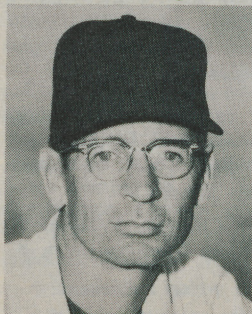

He served as head football coach at Camden Military Academy, Camden, S. C. from 1958-62.

He is married to the former Margie Virginia Miller of Sailisbury and they have two children, Harold Jr., 6, and Jill Harris, 2½.

Bullard also serves as tennis coach for the Pirates.

TERRY WILLS — Head Trainer

After serving as student trainer for two years, Terry Wills becomes the first full-time trainer at East Carolina this year. A native of Hopewell, Va., Wills quit an established job with the Post Office to return to college in 1962 and entered Chowan College. After two years, he transferred to East Carolina to finish his education and serve as student trainer.

At the same time Wills was a star for the Chowan and East Carolina track teams, and both schools honored him as the Most Valuable Trackman.

He is married to the former Nancy Scott, and they have one son, Kyle, 8.

STAN SANDERS

THE EAST CAROLINA FOOTBALL NETWORK

For the fourth straight year, Stan Sanders, Sports Director of WNCT Radio and TV, will handle the play-by-play duties of the East Carolina Football Network.

He will be aided by Boyce Williams, also of WNCT-Radio, who will be color commentary for the Pirates for the first time.

Both men are avid fans of the Pirates, and are frequent visitors to the Pirate workouts getting to know the players first hand. This enables them to offer an even better picture of the Buc games.

WNCT Radio (AM and FM) serve as the base originating stations for the network. Many Eastern North Carolina Radio Stations are members of the network, broadcasting the complete schedule, and more stations are expected to be added this fall.

PRESS BOX — FICKLEN STADIUM

Desk space for 40 writers is available in the working press area of the Ficklen Stadium Press Box. The box is up-to-date in all respects, and offers three radio booths and a camera deck for television and newspaper photographers. A telephone desk in the rear of the section contains four telephones and seven Western Union Circuits.

A refreshment bar, supervised by a Press Box Steward, continually dispenses a buffet during the home games.

Statisticians and two special secretaries will furnish mimeographed play-by-play accounts and stats at the end of each quarter.

Plan now call for the enlargement of the box following the conclusion of the season when the North Side of the field will be erected. Reservations for working press should be made at least one week in advance of the date of the game by writing or telephoning Earl Aiken, Director of Athletic Promotion.

---------------	-----	-----	----	--------	-------------------

CHURCHILL GRIMES

RUFFIN ODOM

PAUL SCHNURR

ENDS

CHURCHILL GRIMES: Senior, 21, 192, 6-1, Washington, N. C.

Starting on the second unit, Grimes became the offensive starter early in the season . . . an excellent receiver, and potentially all-conference, he may see more duty on defense this year . . .

RUFFIN ODOM: Senior, 22, 6-1, 203, Ahoskie, N. C.

Another, who broke into the starting lineup Ruffin turned out to be the leading receiver last year . . . he is expected to be back there this year . . . an all-conference possibility . . .

PAUL SCHNURR: Junior, 19, 204, 6-0, Fayetteville, N. C.

One of the top defensive men on last year's team, he put a big rush on passers, living in opponent's backfields . . . good chance of all-state and all-conference honors as defensive standout . . .

JIMMY ADKINS: Sophomore, 19, 190, 6-1, Kinston, N. C.

A good receiver . . . saw a lot of action as a freshman, should be in line for a first team assignment, with lot of reserve action this year.

MYLES HUNNICUTT: Sophomore, 19, 195, 5-11, Vienna, Va.

An all around good rating is given Myles by his coaches, who feel he'll get in the game a lot this fall, and could work his way into first team position . . .

JOHNNY JOHNSON: Sophomore, 19, 215, 6-2, Winston-Salem, N. C.

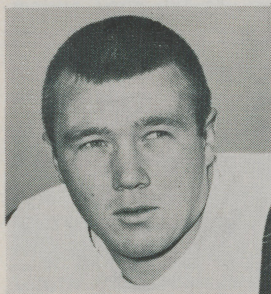

An excellent spirit, coupled with ability gives Johnson a bright future with the Bucs, and possibility of a starting position.

BOB WITHROW: Sophomore, 19, 176, 6-1, Dayton, Ohio.

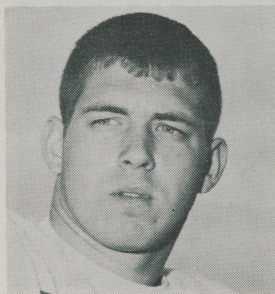

Bob could end up with one of the starting positions this fall after switching from wingback. He gets an excellent jump off the line, but still has to show his stuff under varsity fire.

BOB REYNOLDS: Sophomore, 19, 191, 6-0, Ayden, N. C.

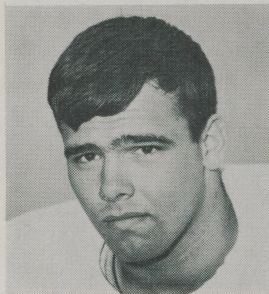

An average receiver, Bob rates as a good tackler and may end up seeing some action this all.

LEROY COBB

PETE CRANE

KEVIN MORAN

TACKLES

LEROY COBB: Senior, 20, 198, 5-10, Greensboro, N. C. (Alternate -Captain)

The alternate captain for the Bucs this fall, Cobb was a starter last year and will be back this year on defense. A tough competitor.

PETE CRANE: Senior, 21, 195, 6-1, Fayetteville, N. C.

After an injury that left Pete hobbled, he switched from end to tackle and came on strong last year, earning himself a starting position. He is expected to nail down his position again this fall.

KEVIN MORAN: Junior, 19, 230, 6-1, Manchester, N. H.

An All-American candidate, Kevin had the scouts drooling during the spring game this year. A starter last fall, he will be back on the defensive unit again this season.

JOHN SCHWARZ: Junior, 19, 200, 6-0, Asheboro, N. C.

Moved from offense to defense early last season, Schwarz performed excellently, starting every game. He'll be back at his post this season.

HAM HAMILTON: Sophomore, 19, 206, 5-10, Orlando, Fla.

An improving player, Hamilton will probably see limited action this fall.

BILL LIVERMORE: Sophomore, 19, 202, 5-10, Raleigh, N. C.

Livermore, a big, strong player, will probably draw the starting assignment at one of the defensive tackle positions.

WORTH SPRINGS: Sophomore, 19, 197, 5-10, Charlotte, N. C.

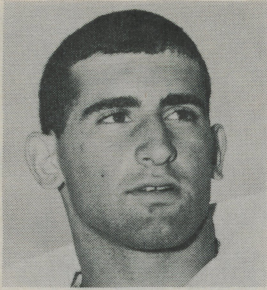

An outstanding player as a freshman, Worth could work his way into a starting position his fall.

BILL PRINCE: Junior, 20, 210, 5-10, Exmore, Va.

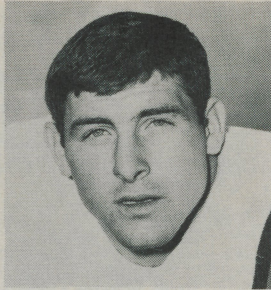

Alternate captain of his freshman team, he was switched from a back to the line as a sophomore and got some experience last year.

BILL REAGAN: Junior, 20, 210, 6-2, High Point, N. C.

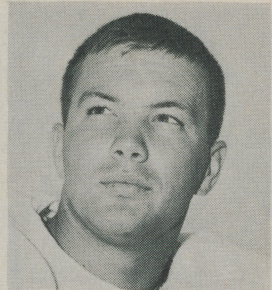

An outstanding high school player, he has seen a lot of action, and will probably see more this fall.

JOHNNY SCHWARZ

WALTER BOSTIC

MIKE HERRING

GUARDS

WALTER BOSTIC: Senior, 21, 197, 6-0, Warsaw, N. C.

A third year starter, Bostic is a real team spirit man, playing part of last season with a broken thumb . . . Excellent blocker, he has fine speed and agility.

MIKE HERRING: Junior, 20, 223, 6-2, Whiteville, N. C.

Mike missed most of the action last year with an injury, but did a fine job of punting during the latter part of the season. His injury seems healed now and he'll probably be a starter.

BEN GRIEB: Sophomore, 19, 201, 6-0, Alexandria, Va.

A real hustler, Ben still needs to do some work, but he could see plenty of action this fall.

PAUL HUTCHINS: Junior, 20, 215, 5-10, Gibsonia, Pa.

With a fine spring practice session, Paul worked his way into a tentative starting position for the fall.

ELLIS NOTTINGHAM: Junior, 21, 214, 6-4, Washington, D. C.

After transferring here as an end, Nottingham was moved into the interior line, and may draw a starting position this fall.

TOM WARMAN: Junior, 22, 220, 6-1, Levittown, Pa.

A question mark . . . Warman missed most of the spring drills because of an injury and still needs to show what he can do.

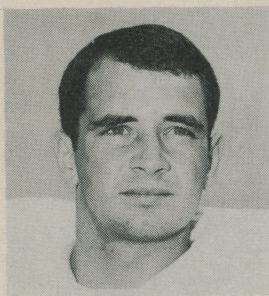

CENTERS

JOHNNY CREW: Senior, 20, 187, 6-1, Morganton, N. C. — Captain

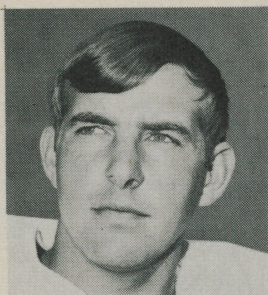

A starter the past two years, Crew is an excellent snapper. He was chosen to the All-State team last season, and is a potential All-Conference player.

AL GLASS: Junior, 20, 185, 6-1, Hopewell, Va.

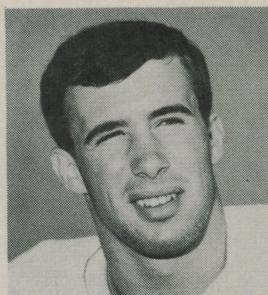

While not seeing much action last season, Glass is the number two man behind Crew as the snapper.

JOHNNY CREW

BILL BAILEY

NEAL HUGHES

WAYNE LINEBERRY: Sophomore, 19, 220, 6-3, Wadesboro, N. C.

A tough competitor, Lineberry will be holding the linebacker position, and could be a future All-American.

TAILBACKS

BILL BAILEY: Senior, 23, 195, 6-1, Tarboro, N. C.

A part-time starter, Bill was injured and missed part of the last season. He is the top candidate for the starting position.

NEAL HUGHES: Junior, 20, 169, 5-10, Asheboro, N. C.

Neal could take over the tailback spot if Bailey's injuries hold him back, but he is counted on as a defensive halfback, where he played last year.

MICHAEL BRIDGES: Sophomore, 19, 175, 5-11, Hickory, N. C.

One of the fastest backs, needs to improve passing, could work his way into a job.

DENNIS YOUNG: Sophomore, 19, 184, 5-11, Winston-Salem, N. C.

An All-Stater as a freshman, Dennis could get into the game a lot, but needs to improve his passing . . . a good runner.

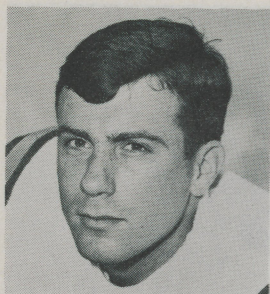

CHARLES FORBES: Junior, 21, 166, 5-7, Robersonville, N. C.

Chiefly a utility man . . . has proven to be quite able a hustler when called upon as a substitute in the backfield.

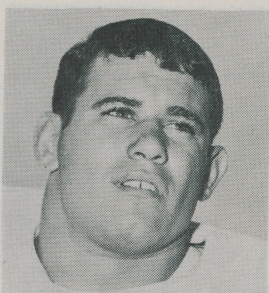

FULLBACKS

STEVE BUCHHOLZ: Sophomore, 19, 181, 5-10, Dayton, Ohio.

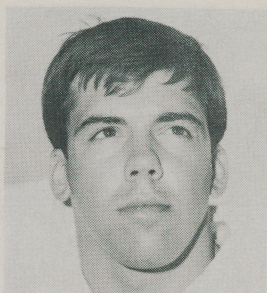

Moved to offensive fullback in the spring, he is a strong competitor . . . a good runner, he needs to improve passing and blocking.

NELSON GRAVATT

JOE TESTO

ROBERT ELLIS

JIM FLOWE: Sophomore, 19, 212, 6-0, Charlotte, N. C.

Largest back on team, but good speed. Worked both on offensive and at defensive rover.

ALAN HALL: Sophomore, 6-1, 210, 19, Chesapeake, Va.

Has the potential to be the starting fullback . . . Very fast for a big boy . . . Big and Strong . . . Time will tell as the season progresses.

GEORGE GAY, Sophomore, 19, 182, 5-10, Charlottesville, Va.

Starting fullback in spring game, George was shifted to that position from tailback because of speed for his size. Needs to improve passing, but may be starter.

BLOCKING BACKS

NELSON GRAVATT: Junior, 19, 191, 6-1, Burkesville, Va.

Will probably get the nod this fall to start, he has most experience among blocking backs . . . a real hustler.

JOE TESTO: Junior, 20, 185, 5-9, Winston-Salem, N. C.

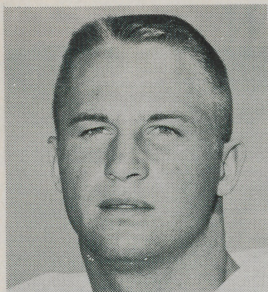

A tough competitor, Joe could see a lot of action this fall in relief.

BILL COTHREN: Sophomore, 19, 191, 5-11, Statesville, N. C.

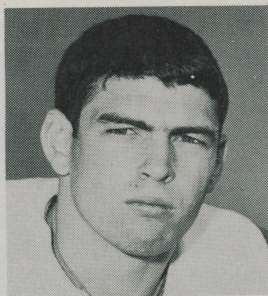

A fullback as a freshman, he was moved to rover back in the spring game and started there . . . has a lot of desire and is a probable starter.

CHARLES OVERTON: Sophomore, 19, 183, 5-11, Edenton, N. C.

A hard working during practice sessions and played quite a bit of freshman football . . . has talent to become a good reserve signal caller this fall as experience develops.

TOM GRANT

TODD HICKS

WINGBACKS

ROBERT ELLIS: Senior, 21, 182, 6-0, Burlington, N. C.

A defensive halfback as a sophomore, Robert moved to safety last year, doing an excellent job . . . also one of best punt and kickoff return men.

TOM GRANT: Junior, 19, 181, 5-11, St. Augustine, Fla.

Took over the starting wingback position last season after Furman game, and held it after that, although he missed a couple of games with injuries. . . fine pass receiver and runner.

TODD HICKS: Junior, 20, 183, 5-10, Gastonia, N. C.

Starting defensive halfback last year, Todd also joined Ellis at times for runbacks . . . th pair also shared inteception leadership.

DAVE MEADOWS: Sophomore, 19, 172, 5-10, Remington, Va.

Worked both as offensive wingback and defensive halfback, and probably will be a relief man at either slot.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

MITCHELL McINTOSH: Sophomore, 19, 169, 5-10, Rockingham, N. C.

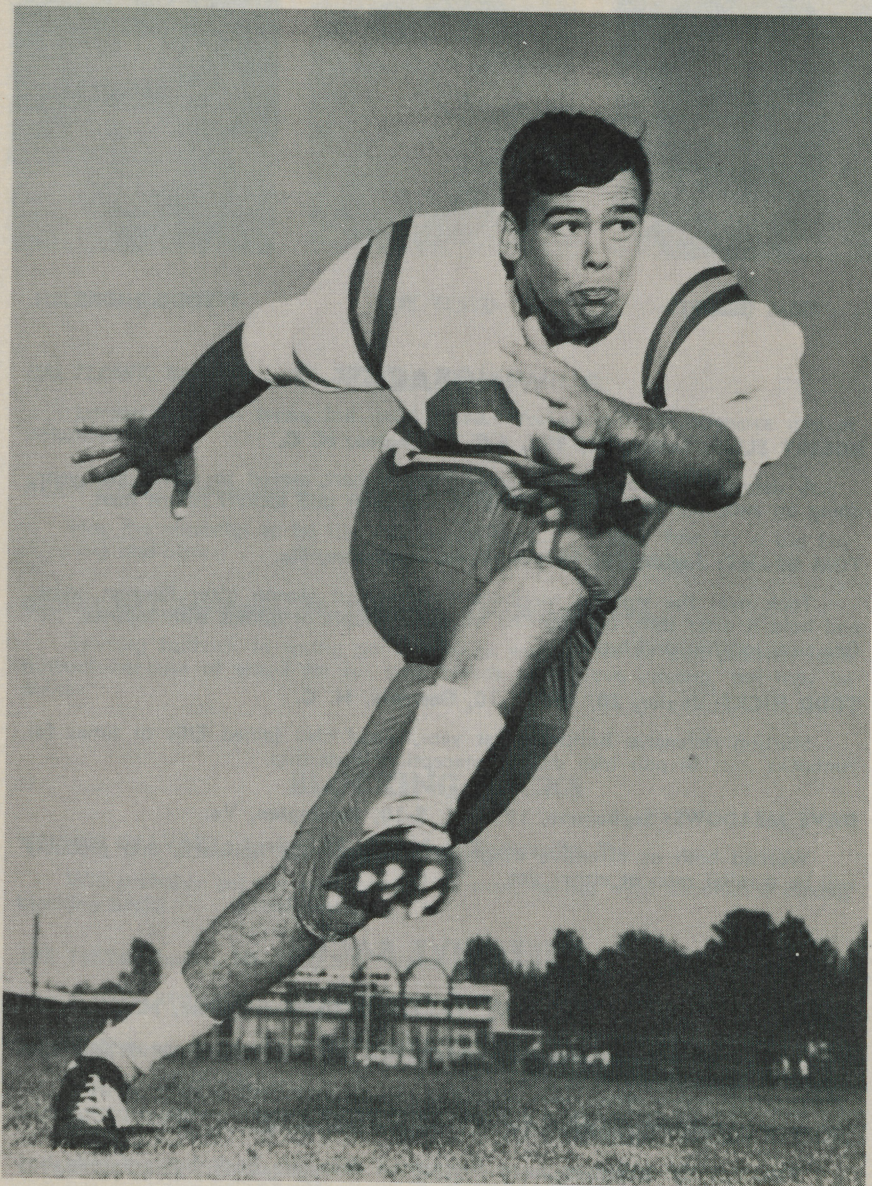

Looked good during winter drills and has the potential to be a defensive starter if he continues to develop.

SKIPPER OLIVER: Sophomore, 19, 6-1, Fayetteville, N. C.

Possesses the talent to be a first string defensive back but presently has not come through.

FELLA RHODES: Sophomore, 19, 165, 5-10, Chesapeake, Va.

Missed the freshman season due to injuries but worked hard during last season's winter drills . . . has potential to be a starting halfback.

William & Mary

First Game

September 17

At Cary Field (17,000) Williamsburg, Va., 1:30 EDT

SERIES RECORD: 1966 First Game

The College of William & Mary—Williamsburg, Va. Enrollment 3,000.

Colors—Green, Gold, Silver. Nickname—Indians. Athletic Director—Les Hooker.

Conference—Southern

Publicity Director—Barry G. Fratkin

Head Coach—Marv Levy. Assistants—Don Roby, Joe Downing, Larry Pecatiello, Ralph Pucci, Augie Tammariello.

System—"I" with split end and flanker. Captain—Not given.

1966 Outlook—Larger in number, but shorter in experience, the Indians will be improved in 1966 under Southern Conference Coach of the Year, Marv Levy. The Indians finished second in conference last year, and had their first winning season in 13 years.

Only 10 seniors are on the team, along with 30 sophomores and 20 juniors. Levy and his staff spent much of the spring drills; and are expected to use most of the pre-season drills looking for two, big, strong running backs. Levy looks for a strong running game to go with the already strong passing attack.

At quarterback, the Tribe has Dan Darragh and Mike Madden returning. Darragh amassed 896 yards, while Madden ran for 398 to give the Indians a double punch.

Lost, however, is All-Conference and Player of the Year George Pearce, who set conference and school records for his receptions.

Back defensively, however, are Adin Brown, Terry O'Toole and Bob Gadkowski, are expected to make it tough for the opposition to gain ground.

Levy doesn't expect to platoon, having scrapped this idea midway through the season last year, since turning victories in five of the last six games.

Returning Lettermen: 20—Chuch Albertson, E; Ned Carr, E; Gordon Buchanan, E; Randy Glesenkamp, T; Joe Neilson, T; John Shea, T; Bill Conaway, G; Rodney Schmitt, G; Bob Shay, C; Dan Darragh, QB; Mike Madden, QB; Eddie Haring, HB; Donnie McGuire, HB; Steve Slotnick, HB; Chip Young, HB; Les Beadling, FB; Adin Brown, LB; Bob Gadkowski, LB; Terry O'Toole, LB; Dick Sikorski, LB.

Conference—Gulf States.

Publicity Director—Bob Anderson.

Head Coach—Dixie White. Assistants—Ralph Lane, Lynn LeBlanc, Wallace Hargon, Bill Dotson, Charles Martin.

System—Slot T. Captains—named each game.

1966 Outlook—A fine crop of 26 lettermen return to give the Indians a hope of a stronger team this fall, but a tougher schedule may prevent an improvement in the won-lost record. While there is more experience than a year ago, the team is still expected to be smaller in size than most of its opponents. A good offensive game should be centered around quarterback Steve Mansur, who as a freshman last season, had 627 yards in total offense. He is the best passer and runner on the team. There are also four fullbacks to choose from, Bobby Scafidel, Mike Shepherd, Jim Booth and Ron Gaetano. Despite the improvement in the backfield, however, the smallness of the line could hurt, and defense is expected to be the strong point of the team.

Returning Lettermen: 26—Floyd Giblin, E; Kenneth Holland, E; Tommy Lewis, E; Charles Rohner, E; Mickey Cleveland, E; Ronnie Sumter, T. Third Game

October 1

At Ficklen Stadium (16,000) Greenville, N. C., 8:00 EST

SERIES RECORD: W-2, L-1, T-0

Furman University—Greenville, S. C., Enrollment—1,700.

Colors—Purple and White. Nickname—Paladins. Athletic Director—J. Lyles Alley.

Conference—Southern.

Publicity Director—Chuck Cooper.

Head Coach—Bob King. Assistants—Billy Canty, Fred Herren, Bob Hitch, Jack Powers.

System—Multiple Pro-Type. Captains—David Davidson and Jimmy Kerr.

1966 Outlook—"Football-for-Fun Bunch" is the nicknamed given to this edition of the Paladins when it was learned that only one player, Jimmy Kerr, has the equivalent of a full scholarship. But Coach Bob King, in his ninth year as head coach of the Paladins feels that desire is the key to football victories as East Carolina will testify last year. He admits that it will be a great challenge, but feels here are some fine players on the team with good potential. The club will be very young with half the roster composed of sophomores. During the spring game, eight held down starting assignments on the two starting units. Lack of experienced depth will be a problem, especially in the line. The backfield seems to have plenty of depth, although still not real well off in experience. The Paladins will also have to depend on speed and surprise, since most of their opponents will be much larger. This is expected to hold true on both offense and defense.

Conference—Southern

Publicity Director—John Kilgo

System—T. Captains—Not elected yet.

1966 Outlook—As coach Homer Smith enters his second season, the Wildcats will be looking for their second straight winning season, but depth continues to be the big problem. With less than 35 men on the team, the coaches will have trouble practicing and playing two-platoon football, although the platoon system will be used. There is no big difference in speed, size or skills this year. The big boost will come with experience on the part of both players and coaches. Smith feels he knows his players better this season and can put their talents to fuller use. Some changes are expected in the offensive system, but the unconventional "Wildcat" defense will remain. A total of 18 lettermen are back, including two experienced quarterbacks in Jake Jacobson and Jimmy Poole. Tom Cardwell, the punter and defensive halfback, is another welcome returnee.

Returning Lettermen: 18—Jake Jacobson, QB; Jimmy Poole, QB; Billy Taylor, HB; Johnny Walker, HB; Tommy Dews, HB; Tom Cardwell, HB; Pete Gildewell, HB; Renn Gruber, HB; Walter Greene, C. Fifth Game

Publicity Director—Jack Zane

System—Wing T. Captains—Lou Astolfi and Tom Metz.

1966 Outlook—The loss of All-American candidate Gary Lyle will be a big blow to the Colonials, but one which Coach Camp hopes to overcome. With Lyle, a total of 17 lettermen are gone, with none returning at quarterback, tailback or tackle. An expected 13 non-lettermen will probably draw starting assignments, seven on offense and six on defense. Six of these will be sophomores. The big bright spot is the return of All-Conference Tom Metz, rated by Camp as the most complete player on the team. Tops in defense, he is also an excellent pass receiver, leading the team last season. This year, he may be pressed into more use on offense, but he'll remain primarily a defensive weapon. The backfield will be where the real work must be done, with four non-lettermen working there, including three sophomores. Glenn Davis will probably handle the quarterbacking with sophs Bob Lavinia, Steve McNar, and Jimmy Barton at tailback, fullback and wingback respectively. Some of the tackle problem will probably be solved by moving Tom Reilly from guard.

Returning Lettermen: 13—Larry Cignetti, E; Bruce Keith, E; Norman Neverson, E; Tom Reilly, G; Louis Astolli, C; Bob Poszek, C; Bob Schmidt, QB; Charles Humphries, WB; Tom Metz, WB; Clifford Reid, WB; Ralph Fletcher, FB; Bob Shue, FB; Mark Gross, FB.

System—Multiple. Captains—Elected each game.

1966 Outlook—The Citadel this season will have a new coach in Red Parker, and a lot of inexperience on the ball club. Parker feels that his team will be too small and too inexperienced to be a serious contender for the Southern Conference crown. Although 18 lettermen will be returning this fall, the losses were to key men. They include All-Conference defensive halfback Frances Grant and second team All-Conference men Pat Green, an offensive center, John Reeves, offensive tackle, and Mike Caldwell, defensive end. The Bulldogs also lost their kicking specialists, Pat Green, who did the placements, and punter Kroghie Andresen. While those lettermen who are returning are expected to do much of the work, a number of sophomores will probably see a great deal of action.

Publicity Director—Fred Huff

Head Coach—Ellis Rainsberger. Assistants—Pat Naughton, Don Cross, Gerry Hart, Dick Towers.

System—Split T. Captains—To Be Selected.

1966 Outlook—As Southern Illinois strives to improve its football program and seeks admission to the Missouri Valley Conference, Ellis Rainsberger fields his first teams for the school. He will meet a large number of returning lettermen, a total of 23, eight backs and 15 linemen. Together they hope to improve on last year's 2-8 record. However, the offense is uncertain as of yet. Should the hold-overs not be able to handle the positions, sophomores will probably have to be moved in, and could occupy important positions. Quarterback will be a real problem for the Salukis, but fullback seem okey with veteran Hill Williams there and a rising sophomore Roger Kuba is looking good at halfback.

System—Pro type out of "I". Captains—Not named.

1966 Outlook—Things could only look up after last year's O-10 record for the Spiders. Frank Jones, an ex Mississippi State aide, is now the head coach, as Eddie Merrick moved up to assistant athletic director. And Jones faces the job of gathering together the threads and starting to rebuild a winning team. Because of a lack of depth, a number of players will see action both ways. Senior Guard Larry Pew promises to be one of the Southern Conference's top linemen. Halfbacks Larry Zunich and Jim McKenna are solid performers. Buster O'Brien, a transfer from Notre Dame, may help solve the quarterback problem. Kicker Mike Bragg is one of the nation's best, averaging 41.1 yards as a sophomore last year.

Head Coach—Thad (Pie) Vann. Assistants—Maxie Lambright, James Berry, P. W. Underwood, Barney Poole.

System—Southern Multiple. Captains—Not named.

1966 Outlook—Southern Mississippi's defense, ranked number one among major colleges last season, just might be as strong again despite the loss of four starters. The leaders of the "Vandals" will be Ken Avery, linebacker; safety Billy Devrow, tackle Art Gill, end Troy Craft, middle guard Poochie Stringfellow, and end Tommy Rousell. Depth will be a problem on defense. Offensively, there will be some rebuilding to do. The entire starting backfield, one end, both tackles, one guard were lost. Rushing this spring left a lot to be desired, although the team may have better speed. Size is down however. The chief threats are QB Glen Bynum, halfbacks Earl King and Mike McAdams and fullback Milo McCarthy. Over 60 passes were thrown in the spring game, and if that is an indication, the air route will be used a lot this fall, more so than in a decade. There were a total of five quarterbacks who can throw well, along with a number of fine receivers. The kicking game could be stronger this year, providing the protection is available.

Returning Lettermen: 18—Glen Bynum, QB; Earl King, HB; Clyde Dowd, HB; Milo McCarthy, FB; Jack McAlpin, E; Dickie Dunaway, Spec; George Sumrall, Spec; Andy Armstrong, G; Bobby Webb, C; Troy Craft, E; Tommy Rousell, E; Gene Bachman, T; Art Gill, T; Poochie Stringfellow, MG; Ken Avery, LB; Tommy Brannan, CB; Billy Devrow, S; Jimmy Barger, S.

1966 Outlook—The Cardinals should top their 1965 record of 6-4, with seventeen starters back this fall, among 27 lettermen and the best freshmen group in the history of the school. This will give the team plenty of experience, plus the necessary depth. The passing game will still be featured with Captain Benny Russell, fourth leading passer in the country, back again. Coach Camp's Cardinals could make a bid for a post season bowl game this season, with a winning season.

"BABY BUC BRIEFS"

Coach Henry Vansant's Baby Bucs posted their second straight 3-2 season last year. After losing their first two, they snapped back and rolled to three big wins to finish the year. As usual, a number of fine sophomores will be expected to fill key positions on the Varsity, with fullback being an almost certain sophomore unless an upper classman is switched. Top candidates for positions are three All-State choices last year, linebacker Wayne Lineberry, TB Dennis Young and End Jimmy Adkins. Others likely to see a lot of action are Ends Miles Hunnicutt, Johnny Johnson and Bob Withrow, tackles Bill Livermore and Worth Springs, guards Ben Grieb and Randy Ross, center Van Hester, Tailback Mike Bridges and Mitchell McIntosh, fullback George Gay and Steve Buchholz, fullback Bill Cothran, and wingback Dave Meadows.

The Citadel's freshmen move into the schedule this season, replacing Davidson. The Baby Bucs will have two home games this season.

During the summer, the coaches announced recruiting was moving along well. Boys have been recruited from Florida, Maryland, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Virginia and the District of Columbia.

Ficklen Stadium's PEPSI-COLA Scoreboard

The big Pirate scoreboard, which stands in the West end zone, is the gift of the Minges family and the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company of Greenville. The board, which was made from a specially designed pattern, is one of the largest of its kind in the South. It takes two men to run the board, one keeping play-by-play of the game and the other the official time.
