ON THE COVER

Gracing the outside of East Carolina's 1968 brochure are pictures in which we take particular pride. On the front is Clarence Stasavich, athletic director and head football coach whose winning percentage is the third best in the nation. With him is All-America candidate Butch Colson, who set the conference record for rushing last year and was named Southern Conference player of the year.

Smiling beautifully at you on the back cover is Anita Johnson, Miss North Carolina, whose undergraduate studies will be interrupted for a year while she reigns as the state's No. 1 beauty.

STASAVICH

CLARENCE STASAVICH

Head Football Coach and Athletic Director

Clarence Stasavich, the nation's leading exponent of the single wing, begins his seventh year as head football coach at East Carolina.

His lifetime record of 164-51-8 marks him as one of the winningest active coaches in the nation, and he goes into the 1968 season with a team that is expected to be a serious contender for the Southern Conference championship.

A native of Georgetown, Illinois, Stasavich first came to North Carolina as an undergraduate at Lenoir-Rhyne. He earned his A.B. degree at the Hickory College in 1935 and added his M.A. at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, in 1947.

An all-around athlete, he gained his greatest recognition at Lenoir-Rhyne as a football and basketball player and in 1933 and 1934 was named to the Charlotte Observer's "Flaming Five," the top five athletes chosen annually in North and South Carolina.

Stasavich first entered the coaching profession as an assistant at Campbell College in 1935 and then returned to his Alma Mater in 1938, where he served as an assistant until entering the United States Navy in 1942.

During World War II he served as commanding officer on an LST both in the European and Pacific Theaters and in the Mediterranean. Following his discharge in 1946, he returned to Lenoir-Rhyne, where he served as football coach and athletic director until joining East Carolina in 1962.

While at Lenoir-Rhyne, his teams won nine Carolinas Conference championships and in 1960 took the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics national championship.

Among the long string of national honors Stasavich has gained are AFCA College Coach of the Year, 1964; NAIA Coach of the Year, 1959; and District Coach of the Year, 1960-61-63-64-65. He was named to the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame in 1960.

Since coming to East Carolina, Stasavich has posted a record of 44 wins, 12 losses, and one tie. Three of his teams [1963, 1964, 1965] posted 9-1 records for the season and won bowl games each year; the 1966 club shared the Southern Conference championship.

Besides an outstanding career in athletics, which has led him to write innumerable articles on single wing football and lecture frequently at national clinics, he is an accomplished after dinner speaker and always in demand on the banquet circuit.

An elder and Sunday school teacher at First Presbyterian Church in Greenville, he spends considerable time serving the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and frequently contributes his time to charitable institutions. He is a member of the board of directors of the North Carolina Cerebral Palsy Hospital, is listed in Who's Who of the Southeast and was a member of the board of directors of the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame.

Married to the former Helen Warlick of Hickory, he is the father of two daughters, Rebecca and Mary Helen, and a son, Walter.

PREVIEW - 1968

When fall practice began, East Carolina's coaching staff faced the problem of deciding who would play tailback in 1968.

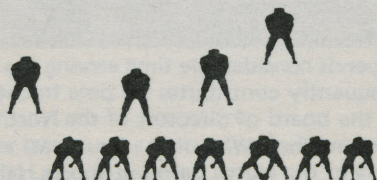

But no one on the squad, including other hopefuls Billy Wightman and Fella Rhodes, seems likely able to replace departed Neal Hughes, who was 20th in the nation in total offense last year. Of the three, Rhodes was most impressive in spring practice in the latter stages.

Outside of this spot, the offense appears to be in good hand. Charlie Overton and Jim Gudger at blocking back have the ability to get the job done; a host of wingback material includes veterans Tommy Bullock, Dwight Flanagan, as well as Wightman and Rhodes, and newcomer George Whitley, regarded as the most improved player up from the freshman squad; and Butch Colson, who set a conference record for rushing with 1,135 yards last year, scored 15 touchdowns and was fourth in the nation in scoring and fifth in rushing, at fullback. Mike McGuirk, who played wingback as a freshman, but didn't compete in 1967, returned at spring practice time and claimed the No. 2 fullback spot.

The offensive line was riddled by graduation, but veterans Ben Grieb and Worth Springs on the interior and Jim Adkins and Bob Withrow, both lettermen ends form a good nucleus, to which Bill Tucker, a junior center who is vastly improved, adds immeasurably.

Defensively, only three players are missing from last year. The heart of the unit includes Wayne Lineberry, Don Tyson and George Wheeler, each a candidate for All-Conference honors, plus a veteran defensive secondary that includes Mike Boaz, Rhodes, Bullock, Wightman; Flanagan and Jeff Dudley, another whose improvement over last season was very marked.

The schedule is a tough one, featuring four Southern Conference games and three rugged independents.

ODELL WELBORN: Defensive Line Coach

A native of Thomasville, N.C., and a graduate of Elon College, Odell Welborn is the oldest man from point of service on the East Carolina staff.

At Elon, he was a tackle and end on the football team and then played and coached with an Air Force team from 1951-1954.

When head coach Clarence Stasavich was stricken with a heart attack in 1963, Welborn took over as head coach and carried the team through its six remaining games undefeated. His principal duties now involve the interior line on defense.

Welborn is married to the former Rachel Poole of Thomasville and they have two children, Jane Bennett, 7, and David, 4. His hobby is duck hunting.

BOB GANTT: Backfield Coach

Bob Gantt brought a vast amount of single wing football knowledge with him to the East Carolina staff in 1962. Gantt, who played with the fabled Charley Justice at North Carolina, came to the Pirates after serving three seasons as head coach at Albemarle High School.

After gaining his A.B. degree from North Carolina in 1952, he entered the United States Marine Corps and served for four years, attaining the rank of captain. After discharge, he earned his masters degree and then turned to coaching.

He is married to the former Christine Williamson of Rock Ridge, N.C., and they are the parents of three children, Lynn, 10, Janet, 8, and Bobby, 6.

His hobby is studying football.

HENRY VANSANT: Offensive Line Coach

After five years as freshman coach at East Carolina, Henry Vansant was moved to the varsity staff last year as offensive line coach. During his five years with the freshman, his teams compiled an outstanding record and his last season, 1966, they were undefeated.

The only East Carolina graduate on the varsity staff, Vansant is a native of Virginia. He gained both his B.S. and M.A. degrees in 1961 at East Carolina after serving three years with the 82nd Airborne Division. He coached one year of high school football at Hopewell, Va., before joining the Pirates staff in 1962.

Vansant is married to the former Ragnhilde MacDonald of Fayetteville and they have two sons, Charles 8 and John 3.

His hobby is studying football.

HAROLD BULLARD: End Coach

After joining the East Carolina staff as a graduate assistant in 1962, Harold Bullard earned his masters degree and was immediately appointed to the varsity staff as end coach.

An All-America back under Coach Clarence Stasavich at Lenoir-Rhyne, Bullard began his coaching career at Camden Military Academy, Camden, S.C., where he served four years.

Classed as one of his best backs by Stasavich, Bullard carries the same kind of dedication to his coaching duties that marked his playing career from 1955-57 at L-R, when he was named All-America three times.

He is married to the former Margie Virginia Miller of Salisbury and they are the parents of two children, Harold Jr. 8 and Jill Harris 4.

TERRY WILLS: Trainer

One of the most dedicated men in the athletic department at East Carolina University is Terry Wills, who became the school's full-time trainer in 1966. Wills earned his bachelor's degree at East Carolina in 1966 and besides serving as trainer was a varsity track man.

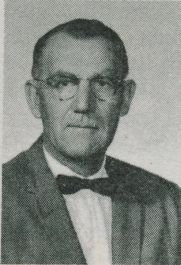

Currently working on his Masters Degree, Wills is writing a thesis on the handling of athletic injuries and conducting research in the various means of effectively treating trauma.

He is married to the former Nancy Scott and they have a son Kyle 10.

DR. N. M. JORGENSEN

Director, Department of Physical Education

Dr. Jorgensen, who served as Athletic Director for 16 years, was highly instrumental in building a strong foundation for the intercollegiate athletic program at East Carolina. He resigned this post, July 1, 1963, to devote full time to the College's expanding program of Physical Education. The college experienced the development of an intercollegiate program of top calibre during his tenure of office.

A native of Rigby, Idaho, Dr. Jorgensen attended Utah State and received his M.A. from the University of Oregon. He earned his Ph D. at the University of Iowa. He is married to the former Martha Green of Iowa, and they have seven children: Larry, Lynn, Layne, Mark, Karen, Janice, and Eva.

BILL CAIN - Freshman Coach

The newest addition to the East Carolina coaching staff is Bill Cain, a former Pirate co-captain, who has been a high school coach for seven years. Cain was named freshman coach for East Carolina in June after serving four years at Suffolk, Va., as a high school coach and three at Albemarle. A native of Rockingham, N.C., he was a teammate of Harold Bullard in high school and Henry Vansant at ECU.

He is married to the former Frances Johnson, also a graduate of East Carolina. They have two sons, Lance 7, and Tracy 4.

JIMMY ADKINS

PHIL BILODEAU

MIKE BOAZ

FRANKLIN V. [Frank] ADAMS: Linebacker, Sophomore, 5-11, 191, Goldsboro, N.C.

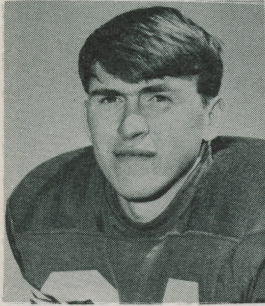

An outstanding scholar [he carried a 3.7 GPA as a freshman] Frank Adams is expected to develop into a fine football player for East Carolina. He earned varsity letters in three sports in high school, played in the North-South game as a lineman, but was a blocking back on the Pirate freshman team last season. Was returned to the line in spring practice. A business administration major, he plans to study law. During the summer he did research work with the Eastern North Carolina Development Institute on a scholarship from the Richardson Foundation. His guardians are Mr. and Mrs. B.S. Bridgers of Goldsboro.

WALTER ADAMS: Guard-Tackle, Sophomore, 6-0, 222, Deptford, N.J.

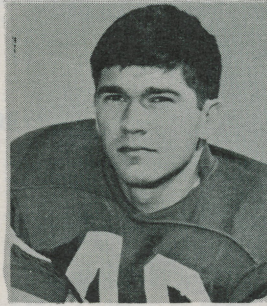

Voted the outstanding freshman by his teammates, he was a starter at outside tackle in the spring game and is expected to be a starter in the fall. Possesses tremendous strength and desire to be a good football player. Worked during the summer to improve agility and quickness. A physical education major who plans to teach and coach, he did construction work during the summer. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Adams.

JAMES EDWIN [Jimmy] ADKINS: Offensive End, Senior, 6-1, 185, Kinston, N.C.

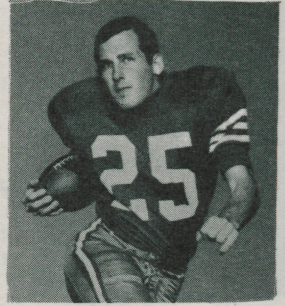

A regular last season, he turned in particularly outstanding performances in victories over Parsons and Furman, making crucial receptions to keep drives going. A hard worker, he is the kind of player who comes up with the big play. Worked with weights in summer to build up strength and add pounds. A PE major, he ran a swimming pool in the summer. The son of Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Adkins, he plans a career as coach and teacher.

ROGER BOST

MIKE BRIDGES

TOMMY BULLOCK

JAMES MELVYN [Frosty] AUSTIN: Halfback, Sophomore, 5-10, 175, Charlotte, N.C.

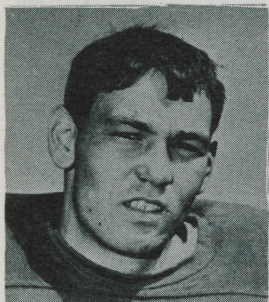

Probably a year away from a lot of action, but might move into the picture in fall practice if he continues the progress made in spring drills. Was one of defensive stars in the Purple-Gold game, intercepting three passes. Needs to improve quickness, but is working hard. A business major with his eye on real estate or sales management, he earned seven letters in high school and intercepted nine passes in one season at Staunton Military Academy. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M.A. Austin, Matthews, N.C.

MIKE HUBERT [Mike] BAKER: Linebacker, Sophomore, 6-0, 205, Kinston, N.C.

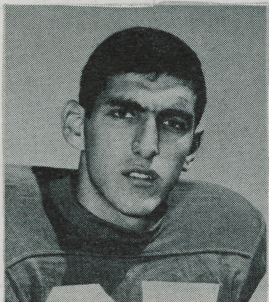

An outstanding linebacker on the freshman team, he had a good spring practice and is expected to be a top reserve this season. He earned eight letters in high school, four in football and four in baseball and came to East Carolina after a year in prep school. A geography major, he worked in the off season in a tobacco warehouse. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Baker, 1801 Queens Road.

WILLIAM TILLMAN [Billy] BEARD III: Center-Rover, Sophomore, 5-11, 174, Kannapolis, N.C.

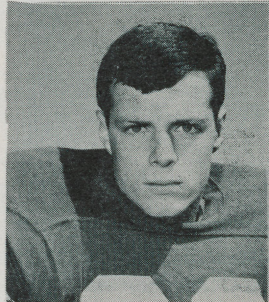

One of the fastest linemen on the team, he is regarded as one of the best tacklers on the squad, but needs to improve agility and pass coverage. A math major, he was all-conference as a junior and senior in high school and hopes to add size with weight program. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Beard of 215 Front Street.

BUTCH COLSON

JEFF DUDLEY

DWIGHT FLANAGAN

PHILLIP [Phil] BILODEAU: Guard, Junior 6-2, 208, Manchester, N.H.

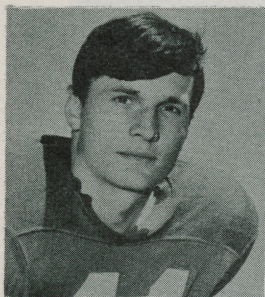

An All-State freshman for the Pirates two seasons ago, he has yet to reach his full potential with the varsity. Has been played at a number of positions on both offense and defense. Greatest asset is his strength, but needs to improve agility to become a top-flight player. Counted on as a top reserve this season, but could become a starter. A physics major who plans an engineering career, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Normand Bilodeau, 222 Beech Street.

MIKE BOAZ: Halfback, Junior, 5-11, 165, Fairmont, N.C.

He surprised the entire coaching staff by earning the starting job as rover back last season and in the final analysis was regarded as likely the best defensive back on the team. He was the only player on the squad to earn "Knocker-of-the-Week" honors twice, the award which goes to the most aggressive hitter on the team in each game. Very versatile, he can play any position in the defensive backfield and play wingback on offense as well. A physical education major, he hopes to become a college football coach. An outstanding high school player, he'll start somewhere this fall. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boaz, 707 Gertrude Street.

ROGER WILLIAM [Roger] BOST: End-Tackle, Junior, 6-1, 205, Statesville, N.C.

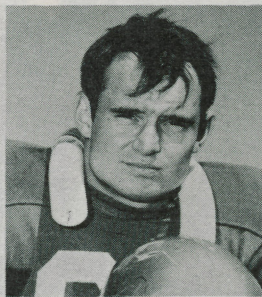

Started one game last season and played a lot as a reserve. Showed much improvement in spring practice. He's tough durable and one of the strongest players on the team. Likes to hit, but needs to improve agility. Likes to play defense because "it means going out there and stopping people." A physical education major, he wants to coach football. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bost, 628 East Front Street.

STU GARRETT

GEORGE GAY

BEN GRIEB

JAMES MICHAEL [Mike] BRIDGES: Wingback, Senior, 5-11, 190, Hickory, N.C.

Earned a letter in 1966 but was bothered by an ankle ailment last year which caused him to cease all activity. After week of spring practice, underwent surgery to correct problem and is expected to be ready to play this fall. He has excellent speed and was a sprinter on the track squad until he was sidelined with ankle problem. He won nine letters in high school, three each in football, basketball and track. Majoring in accounting and plans to study law.

DAVID [Dave] BRILL: Blocking Back, Sophomore, 5-9, 198, Woodstock, Virginia

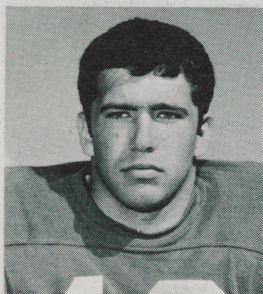

Considered as one of the best prospects from last year's freshman team, he will probably serve as blocking back and a reserve offensive tackle this season.

DONALD [Don] BRITTON: End, Sophomore, 6-1, 190, Chincoteague, Virginia

He has the desire to be a good end for the varsity team. Strong and tough and a hard worker.

JAMES EDWARD [Jim] BROWN, JR.: End, Sophomore, 6-3, 195, Raleigh, N.C.

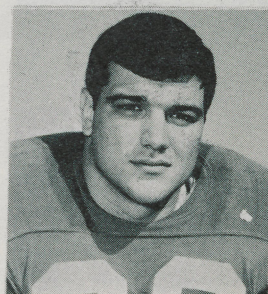

Missed spring practice because of an injury. A seven letter winner in high school--three in baseball and two each in football and basketball--he is considered a good prospect at tight end. Has good hands and strength, but needs to improve on agility to reach full potential. His father, James E. Brown is a high school coach in Raleigh.

JIM GUDGER

DAVE HAMILTON

WAYNE LINEBERRY

THOMAS CLIFTON [Tommy] BULLOCK: Wingback, Junior, 5-11, 170, Raleigh, N.C.

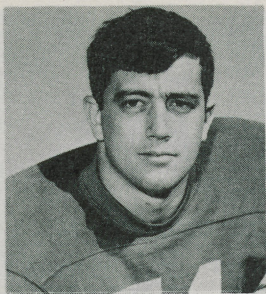

A versatile and gifted youngster, he is capable of playing either wingback on offense or defensive halfback, where he started last year as a sophomore. His best game last season probably was against Southern Illinois when he intercepted two passes that helped set up touchdowns. He played primarily on offense in the spring and had moved up to the No. 1 unit, as a starter by the time the Purple-Gold game came around. A sprinter on the track team in high school, he made all-conference in two sports and prepped at Carolina Military Academy where he was a teammate of tackle Don Tyson. A Geography major, an older brother was a member of the track team at Duke.

EARL HINES [Earl] BURTON: Guard, Sophomore, 5-10, 190, Charlottesville, Virginia

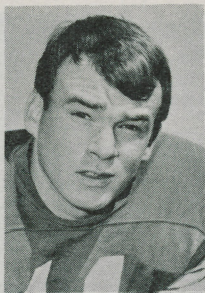

An offensive back as a freshman, he was shifted to the line during the middle of spring practice and was impressive. A hard worker with a fine attitude, he is expected to be a top reserve in 1968 and could become a starter. Is quick and impressed coaching staff with his attitude and desire.

JOHN DANIEL BUTTS: Wingback, Junior, 5-10, 188, Jacksonville, Fla.

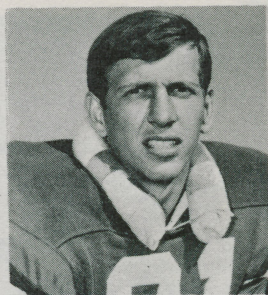

A transfer student who laid out in 1967, he was a starter in winter drills until an ankle injury handicapped him. A very strong blocker and a hard worker with a keen desire to play, he is a hard runner who will see action this fall. Participated in track, cross country and gymnastics besides football in high school and served in student government in high school. His hobby is sailing.

JAMIE LOUIS

CHARLIE OVERTON

FELLA RHODES

MORRIS LYNWOOD [Lynn] CHERRY, JR.: End, Sophomore, 6-0, 180,
Durham, N.C.

A promising youngster who missed freshman football because of illness, he needs to improve on blocking and tackling. Hopes to report in the fall at about 190. A pre-med student majoring in psychology, he plans to specialize in psychiatry. Two younger brothers, compete in football and track in high school.

WILLARD HORACE [Butch] COLSON, JR.: Fullback, Junior, 5-10, 200, Elizabeth City, N.C.

Player of the year in the Southern Conference as a sophomore, he had a good spring practice and showed improvement in his speed and blocking. A very strong runner with excellent balance, he set a Southern Conference record for rushing last year and is expected to be the key to the Pirate offense this fall. A hard worker, he put much attention to his blocking and passing in the spring, two areas where it was felt he could add to his assets. With two more good years could re-write school and conference rushing and scoring records. An All-America candidate of the first order.

175, Richmond, Va.

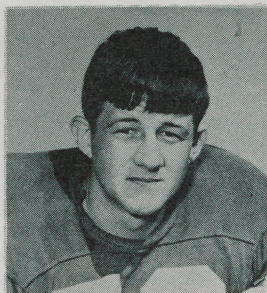

A wingback on the freshman team, he missed spring practice while playing shortstop on the baseball team which went to the District III NCAA playoffs. An end in high school, he won All-District and outstanding lineman honors. Has good speed and an unusual desire to excel.

WILLIAM [Bill] ALFRED COTHREN: Fullback, Junior, 5-11, 196,
Statesville, North Carolina

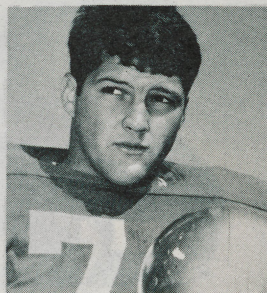

He runs well and should be a relief fullback again this fall. Was also an offensive back and an offensive fullback last year.

WORTH SPRINGS

BILL TUCKER

DON TYSON

STEVE DONELL [Steve] DAVIS: Guard, Sophomore, 6-1, 215, Raleigh, N.C.

Came on surprisingly fast in spring practice after average freshman season and seems ready to answer one of the problems left by graduating defensive linemen. Although lacking experience, he showed tremendous desire and will to work and is expected to be a starter this fall. An outstanding athlete in high school, he lettered in football, basketball and track.

JEFFERSON FRANKLIN [Jeff] DUDLEY: Rover Back, Senior, 6-2, 180, Swansboro, N.C.

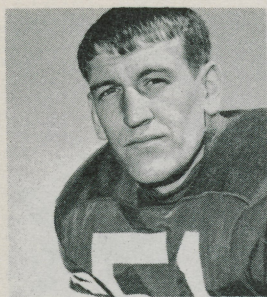

A reserve end for two years, he was switched to rover back in the spring and probably will start at that position in the fall. Eager and aggressive, adapted to new position well and proved to be one of most pleasant surprises of spring drills. A psychology major, he is very active member of the campus Fellowship of Christian Athletes Chapter.

TERRY MANCE [Terry] EDMONDSON: Center, Sophomore, 5-11, 185, Fayetteville, N.C.

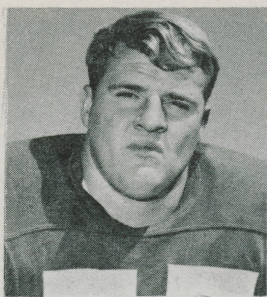

Had a very good spring practice and will be the No. 2 center behind Bill Tucker. A fine snapper and effective blocker, he is expected to see considerable action. A business administration major, he participated in basketball and track besides football in high school.

JOHN AUSTIN [Johnny] ELROD: End, Sophomore, 5-11, 191, Norman, Oklahoma

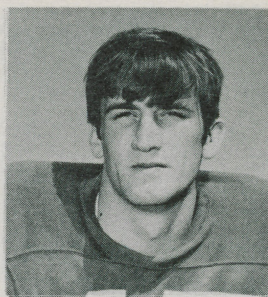

Strong, tough and durable, he likes to hit and is expected to develop into a top-flight defensive end. A hard worker who needs to improve his quickness and agility, he could be a starter in the fall. A well-travelled youngster, he was born in Tennessee, has lived in Oklahoma and his parents now reside in Austin, Tex. Although he lettered in baseball in high school, he has concentrated on football at ECU.

PAUL WEATHERSBEE

GEORGE WHEELER

BILLY WIGHTMAN

DWIGHT JAMES [Dwight] FLANAGAN: Wingback, Junior, 5-10, 170, Edenton, N.C.

One of the quickest backs on the team, he'll likely be a defensive starter in 1968, although he could be the offensive wingback. Played a great deal last season as a defensive back and improved considerably in spring practice. Showed progress particularly in quickness and tackling ability. Earned 15 letters in high school participating in football, basketball, baseball and track. A physical education major, he plans to enter the coaching field.

JIM FLOWE: End, Senior, 6-0, 216, Charlotte, N.C.

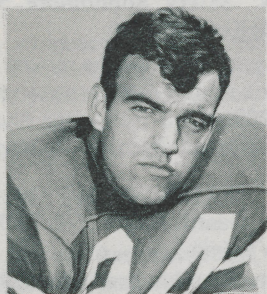

A regular at the fullback slot as a sophomore and a starter at defensive end as a junior, he will probably start as defensive left end this season. Strong and powerful, he has potential to be a good end this season.

STUART LEE GARRETT: Safety, Junior, 5-11, 160, Newport News, Va.

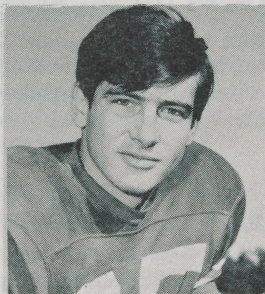

Played some on defense last fall but missed spring practice while playing baseball. An All-State football player in high school, he earned nine letters in three sports. Has the ability to play offense or defense and is expected to bid for a starting spot on the 1968 team in pre-season practice. A chemistry major, he plans to become a dentist.

GEORGE THOMAS [George] GAY: Fullback, Senior, 5-11, 185, Charlottesville, Virginia

The starting fullback in last year's opening game, he suffered a broken ankle and still had not sufficiently recovered to participate in spring practice. He is the best passer and fastest fullback on the squad and will be alternated there in the fall and at tailback. Could figure prominently at tailback when pre-season practice begins.

DANNY WILMER

BOB WITHROW

BENNETT J. [Ben] GRIEB: Guard, Senior, 6-0, 195, Alexandria, Va.

The most consistent lineman on the team, he makes few mistakes and always grades high on assignments. Possesses unexhaustive desire and enthusiasm and has the quickness to make up for lack of physical size. Constantly works on perfecting finer techniques. A team leader, he is a native of California, and didn't get seriously involved in football until he reached East Carolina. Now admits he has a burning desire to excel at game and efforts are reflected in constant improvement.

JAMES F. [Jim] GUDGER, JR.: Blocking Back, Junior, 6-1, 225, Cullowhee, N.C.

Has the size and talent to be an outstanding blocking back-quarterback. A good receiver and runner, he could be a starter in 1968. Has yet to show maturity necessary to mark him as the No. 1 man in the demanding position of quarterback. Showed considerable improvement in spring in all phases of play and could make an important contribution to 1968 team. The son of Jim Gudger, Western Carolina's basketball coach, he is an active member of the campus chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

ANTHONY LOUIS [Tony] GUZZO: Kicker, Sophomore, 5-10, 185, Norfolk, Va.

An outstanding kicker in high school, knee injury slowed progress, but could figure as placement kicker this fall.

JAMES DAVID [Ham] HAMILTON: Tackle, Senior, 5-11, 200, Orlando, Florida

Strong and quick, he has a burning desire to excel and could be a first class football player this fall. Had a good spring practice and may be a starter on offense. A three-year letterman in high school and an All-State player, he visited East Carolina because a cousin was going to school here and was so impressed he applied for a football scholarship and was accepted.

DENNIS JOSEPH [Dennis] HEWSTON: Safety, Sophomore, 5-10, 180, McKeesport, Pa.

A blocking back at the beginning of spring practice, he moved to safety. Likes to hit people and is considered one of the most aggressive backs on the team. Could see a lot of action in 1968.

ROBERT JOHN [Jaro] JARONCZYK: Guard, Junior, 6-4, 250, Norfolk, Virginia

A fullback in high school and a defensive end in prep school, he worked hard to get his weight down and improve quickness and agility. Hopes to get down to 240 by the fall and could see action as a reserve.

STUART [Stu] LANEY: Guard, Junior, 6-1, 195, Wilmington, N.C.

A top reserve at inside tackle last fall, possesses outstanding ability and is a likely starter. Has good speed and agility and is versatile enough to play either guard or tackle.

PERRY WAYNE [Wayne] LINEBERRY: Tackle, Senior, 6-3, Wadesboro, North Carolina

Was a starting defensive tackle last year and a candidate for post-season honors this year. Had an excellent spring practice and staff considers him one of outstanding interior linemen in conference. An All-America player in high school, he is an avid hunter and hopes to play professional football when he finishes East Carolina.

JAMES RUSSELL [Jamie] LOUIS: Tackle, Junior, 5-10, 195, Blacksburg, Virginia

Won his letter last year as a member of the specialty squads and is the type of boy the coaching staff likes to have around. He works hard and is expected to play a great deal in 1968. A business major, his father is a professor at Virginia Tech. He plans a career as a commercial airlines pilot.

MIKE McCAFFERY: Guard, Junior, 5-9, 185, Richmond, Virginia

Out for football for the first time at East Carolina in the spring, he lacks experience, but showed a willingness to work and impressed the staff with his hitting. May see action as a reserve during 1968 season.

BRYAN MCCLURE: Defensive Back, Junior, 5-11, 172, Charlotte, N.C.

Played as reserve tailback and defensive back last year. Before suffering an ankle injury, he was looking fairly good as a defensive back in spring drills. An aggressive tackler, he may see more action as a defensive back than as a tailback, providing he recovers sufficiently from ankle injury.

MICHAEL GEORGE [Mike] McGUIRK: Fullback, Junior, 6-1, 180, Arlington, Va.

Starting wingback on the freshman team, he did not participate in football as a sophomore, but came back to impress the staff during spring practice this year. A hard runner, he is the best blocking fullback on the team and will see action this fall. Earned 13 letters in high school participating in football, baseball, basketball and track.

MICHAEL M. [Mike] MILLS: Halfback, Sophomore, 5-11, 180, Statesville, N. C.

Tailback on the freshman team, he worked primarily on defense in the spring and may develop into a starter here. His brother Billy won letters in football, track and wrestling at Davidson, captaining the latter two teams, and his father was an All-Southern in football and baseball at Davidson. A business major, he is interested in a career in banking, insurance or real estate.

ALEX LEN [Mole] MONROE: Tackle, Sophomore, 5-11, 201, Aberdeen, North Carolina

A starting defensive tackle on the freshman team he needs to improve agility to become a starter. Durable and tough, he played every minute of every game for Aberdeen High his junior and senior years.

JOHN P. MORRIS, JR.: Tackle, Sophomore, 6-3, 215, Norfolk, Va.

A nine-letter winner in high school, he was one of the most improved linemen on the squad in spring practice and is expected to see action this fall. Member of an athletic family, he is a biology major who plans to study medicine. Might figure as a punter. Did kicking on freshman team until injured an ankle.

CHARLES JAY [Charlie] OVERTON III: Blocking Back, Senior, 5-11, 190, Edenton, N.C.

A veteran who played in almost every game last year, expected to start at blocking back-quarterback. A good leader, he needs to improve his blocking, but is effective. An All-State high-schooler, he is a physical education major who plans to be a football coach.

LINK PAGE: End, Sophomore, 6-0, 180, Elm City, N.C.

A hard worker who likes to play and loves contact, he showed considerable improvement during the spring and may see action as a reserve this fall. Needs to improve blocking and agility.

THOMAS FLOYD [Tommy] PULLEY: End, Sophomore, 5-11, 185, Durham, N. C.

One of fastest members of the end corps, he showed much improvement in the spring. Steady and dependable, he is capable of making the big play. Likes to hit and could develop into a fine football player.

WILLIAM LEE [Fella] RHODES: Tailback, Senior, 5-10, 160,
Chesapeake, Va.

A defensive specialist last season and the owner of the school record with an interception runback, he moved into the muddled tailback picture about mid-way spring drills and will be given serious consideration for that spot in pre-season practice. Throws well and is an elusive runner who showed tremendous improvement as an offensive player in the spring.

PETE RIBBINS: End, Sophomore, 6-1, 190, Burlington, Ontario

Has size, speed and hands to be an outstanding football player. Fastest end on team but needs experience and improvement in blocking and tackling. A native of Belfast, Ireland, he has lived in London, England, Malaysia, Kansas City and Toronto. His is a pre-dentistry major.

DAVID G. [Dave] ROBERTS: Tackle, Sophomore, 6-2, 198, Jacksonville,
North Carolina

A starter on the freshman team, he continued to improve in spring practice and will see action this fall as a reserve. A biology major who earned eight letters in high school athletics, he missed six spring practices because of illness. Brother Irwin played at East Carolina before injury ended career.

THOMAS WESLEY [Wes] ROTHROCK, JR.: Rover, Sophomore, 5-11, 180, Enfield, N.C.

Starting defensive back on the freshman team, he gained all-state recognition and goes into pre-season drills as the No. 2 rover on the team. He was handicapped in spring drills by a knee injury, but aggressiveness indicates he will play a lot during 1968.

WILBUR RICHARD [Wilbur] SASSER, JR.: Guard, Sophomore, 5-11, 215, Goldsboro, N. C.

A three sport star in high school, has the size to become a good football player. Enjoyed only a fair spring practice, but worked in summer to improve skills. A member of the track team until spring drills began, he plans to stay out for the full season next year.

WORTH SPRINGS: Tackle, Senior, 5-10, 208, Charlotte, N. C.

The best blocker on the team, he missed spring drills while concentrating on academics. A real hustler who is quick and mobile, he is outstanding as a downfield blocker and is aggressive. Potentially the best offensive lineman in recent years at East Carolina, he definitely is a candidate for post-season honors. A key figure in the offensive picture for 1968.

EDWARD M. [Ed] SUMMERLIN: Fullback, Sophomore, 5-8, 184, Tarboro, N. C.

Missed 1967 season due to illness, but came back in the spring and worked hard. A very hard runner and tough, he needs experience and will see action during the 1968 campaign.

CHARLES PERRY [Charles] SWANNER: End, Junior, 6-2, 202, Edenton, N. C.

Won 11 letters in four sports in high school but has been hampered by a shoulder injury since coming to East Carolina. Will play as a reserve in 1968.

JOHN C. [John] TESH: Tackle, Sophomore, 5-10, 195, Mount Airy, N.C.

A hard worker who showed improvement in the spring, he's a good hitter who will see action as a reserve.

WILLIAM [Bill] TUCKER: Center, Junior, 6-3, 218, Albemarle, N. C.

An outstanding student, he showed tremendous improvement between the close of the 1967 season and spring drills, gaining some 30 pounds and losing none of his agility and quickness. The biggest center East Carolina has had since Coach Stasavich came and considered potentially the best since that time. A hard worker, a fighter of the first order and a leader, he's a candidate for post-season honors. He's a B-plus pre-law student majoring in history. His father played for Coach Stasavich at Lenoir-Rhyne.

TIMOTHY ODELL [Tiny Tim] TYLER: Tackle, Sophomore, 6-2, 230, Alexandria, Va.

Big, strong and tough, he ran as No. 2 outside tackle in the spring, but has potential to move up. Had a good spring practice and is considered future starter.

DONALD WAYNE [Don] TYSON: Tackle, Junior, 6-0, 235, Fayetteville, North Carolina

A starter as a sophomore last year, missed spring practice because of second shoulder operation in two years. He won 12 letters in high school and was the team's placement kicker last year. If second shoulder operation proves as successful as the first, he could be a great one. He worked hard during summer to get into peak condition. Started out as No. 5 tackle on freshman team because of injury, but worked his way to front and has been there ever since. A definite candidate for post-season honors.

PAUL WEATHERSBEE: Linebacker, Junior, 190, 6-0, Norwood, N.C.

A reserve most of last season, he started the final game and had a good spring practice. The youngest of five children, he is a psychology major and is expected to be a starter on the 1968 team at linebacker. A brother, Stan, played freshman football at Appalachian and is a high school coach.

GEORGE WAYNE [George] WHEELER: Tackle, Junior, 6-0, 230, Buena Vista, Va.

Started four games last year as sophomore and was named Southern Conference lineman of the week for play against Richmond and Furman. Also played an outstanding game against Davidson. Injured ankle early in the spring and was hampered rest of the practice sessions. Working to improve quickness and agility and is expected to be a standout this fall. A candidate for post-season honors.

GEORGE WILLIAM [George] WHITLEY: Wingback, Sophomore, 5-9
165, Huntersville, N.C.

After only a so-so freshman season, he finished spring practice classified as the most improved player on the squad. Has good speed and elusiveness and figures strongly in the picture as a possible starter in the fall.

WILLIAM C. [Bill] WIGHTMAN: Tailback, Junior, 5-10, 175, Graham,
North Carolina

Played more defense than anything else last season and could be a starter in the secondary in 1968 if he doesn't start at tailback. One of several players considered for the starting job at tailback, he is the fastest man on the squad, is a good open field runner and has a strong arm. Needs to improve his passing, but has the natural ability to succeed departed Neal Hughes who starred at that position last fall. Was the punter in 1967 and is expected to be again this year.

DANNY WAYNE [Danny] WILMER: End, Junior, 6-3, 224, Buena Vista, Virginia

Tremendous potential with good hands and size for tight end position. One of the hardest hitters on the team, needs to improve agility and blocking. Improvement last season was impeded because he suffered ruptured appendix and lost 36 pounds before starting recovery. An All-State player in high school, he could become a starter.

ROBERT PHILLIP WITHROW: End, Senior, 185, 6-2, Dayton, Ohio

Switched from split end to tight end in the spring he showed particular improvement in his blocking and is counted on for a good season. After a knee operation following spring of 1967, came back to see some service as a reserve. Caught three passes, two for touchdowns. Has good speed and likely will be a starter. Brother Cal earned All-America recognition at Kentucky as a center.

GERALD WAYNE WRENN: End, Sophomore, 6-0, 175, Danville, Va.

An offensive end and defensive rover back, he also is a punter. Likely to see action this fall as a reserve. Has good speed. A track man, he averaged 46.7 as a punter in high school and once kicked the ball 80 yards in a game.

First Game

September 14

At Ficklen Stadium [20,000], Greenville, N.C., 7:30 P.M.

SERIES RECORD: W-0, L-1, T-0

Parsons College - Fairfield, Iowa. Enrollment - 2,400

Colors - Green and White. Nickname - Wildcats. Athletic Director - Wayne Williamson.

Conference: Independent

Publicity Director: Tom Gevas

Head Coach - Wayne Williamson. Assistants - Paul Read, Duane Banks, Franklin Falks. Business Manager - Duane Banks. Trainer - Benjamin [Pinky] Hyands.

1968 Outlook: Coach Wayne Williamson, in his first year as head coach at Parsons College, has 24 lettermen returning from last year's team that posted a 6-3-1 record.

After the spring game, it appeared that the team's major strength would lie in the line, but the backfield, with a sprinkling of experience and several fine looking sophomores, could be explosive.

Rich Pavlisko, senior quarterback, Ed Tuttle, senior running back, Jim McKoy, a junior running back and John Patrick, junior running back, all have speed and Pavlisko is a fine passer.

Offensively, the Wildcats will lack experienced depth, particularly at quarterback, but there is experience, size and speed in the line as well as depth.

Tackles Jerry Campbell, 245, and Chester Nemphos, 250, and Mac Stewart, a 245-pounder who plays tackle and guard, are the three top interior linemen.

Among the newcomers who figure to play prominent roles during the 1968 season are Albert Grayson, who gained 79 yards rushing in the spring game, Henry Copeland, a 215-pound sophomore fullback and John Lanier, another 215-pounder who alternates in the backfield and at end.

Second Game

September 21

At Ficklen Stadium [20,000], Greenville, N.C., 2:00 P.M.

SERIES RECORD: W-0, L-1, T-1

William and Mary College - Williamsburg, Va. Enrollment - 3,200

Colors - Green, Gold, Silver. Nickname - Indians. Athletic Director - H. Lester Hooker, Jr.

Conference: Southern

Publicity Director: Barry G. Fratkin

Head Coach: Marv Levy. Assistants: Joseph Teefey, Ralph Pucci, Don Roby, Bobby Ross, Larry Peccatiello. Trainer: Mont Linkenauer.

1968 Outlook: Marv Levy's fifth William and Mary football team is missing many of the stars who gave the Indians three successive winning seasons, but the Tribe has enough depth to have a solid football team in 1968.

All-SC as a sophomore, split end Jim Cavanaugh caught 48 passes last year and Ted Zychowski, the Indians all around tight end, caught 25 more to give the Indians a pair of highly respected receivers.

Tailback Jeff Lund was the Indians' biggest ground gainer the second half of the season, averaging 5.6 yards per carry. Wingback Terry Morton caught 10 passes and carried for 232 yards

The Indians should have more size in both the offensive and defensive lines but Dave Holland, Alvin Cheatham and Charlie Jackson must plug the large gaps left by the graduation of fine linebackers Adin Brown and Terry O'Toole.

Other top returnees include tackle Ralph Beatty, tackle Burt Waite, defensive end Ward Ellis, and defensive halfback Jimmy Barton.

Chief concern in the Indian teepee is finding a quarterback to direct the attack. Blessed with Darragh and Madden for three years, Levy has no experienced quarterbacks to choose from. Jimmy Laycock, the best freshman quarterback two years ago, and Ray Barger, last year's backup man, have the inside track.

Conference: Gulf States

Publicity Director: To be named.

Athletic Business Manager: Joe Aillet. Trainer: Glenn Tilley

1968 Outlook: Louisiana Tech should be somewhat improved in Maxie Lambright's second year as head coach if, for no other reason, the coach and his staff will be more familiar with the players. The potent passing attack of last season could return. It's centered around junior qb Terry Bradshaw and top receivers Tommy Spinks [who broke all school receiving records], Ken Liberto and Larry Brewer. The running game should be better and provide better balance. There is good depth among the running backs. Defensively, where the Bulldogs collapsed in the second half of 1967 season, there are still problems. There is a lack of depth and size in both lines, but especially on defense. The defensive backs are still young, but have experience. The schedule is tough--five major opponents and the rugged GSC foes. Tech opens with Mississippi State at Starkville Sept. 21, and also faces East Carolina, Southern Mississippi, Lamar Tech and New Mexico State.

Fourth Game

October 5

At University Stadium [16,000], Hattiesburg, Miss., 7:30 P.M.

Southern Mississippi University: Hattiesburg, Miss. Enrollment: 8,000

Colors: Black and Gold. Nickname: Southerners. Athletic Director: Reed Green.

Conference: Independent.

Publicity Director: Ace Cleveland.

Head Coach: Thad [Pie] Vann. Assistants: Barney Poole, Doug Barfield, James Berry, Hamp Cook, Don Owens. Athletic Business Manager: Reed Green. Assistant Athletic Director: Pete Taylor. Trainer: Larry Harrington.

1968 Outlook: Coach Pie Vann will build his 20th team around 29 returning 1967 lettermen and one '66 veteran who missed last year due to injuries. Four defensive starters and five offensive starters are among the 17 lettermen who have departed since the 6-3 season of 1967.

Vann's main assets will be more backfield depth and better overall speed. His major concern will be a lack of experienced line depth.

Quarterback Tommy Boutwell, returning starter, should be the top triggerman in a much improved aerial game, with lettermen Danny Haley [split end] and Toby Vance [tight end] and Johnny Johnson [halfback], and sophomore flash Billy Mikel [split end] as chief receivers.

The offensive line suffered heavily when the top three tackles graduated, but starting guards Blanchard Braud and Ihor Kondrat return, and center Hank Autry will move into the limelight.

Defensively, the backfield is back intact—led by safety Steve Fore, who intercepted seven passes in 1967. Middle guard Rex Barnes ranks with the best in Dixie, with linebacker Mike Battles another good one. Sophomore Mike Craft will make the first defensive unit, replacing departed standout Gene Bachman.

Fifth Game

October 26

At Ficklen Stadium [20,000], Greenville, N.C., 7:30 P.M.

SERIES RECORD: W-5, L-4, T-0

Richmond University: Richmond, Va. Enrollment: 7,000

Colors: Red and Blue. Nickname: Spiders. Athletic Director: Frank Jones.

Conference: Southern

Publicity Director: Walt Drewry.

1968 Outlook: The 1968 Richmond football team will be quicker, faster, larger, have more depth and should be better than last year's club. But, it will be young with 31 sophomores on the squad. Missing is most of the offensive line including All-Southern Guard Terry Crum, but Eddie Barnes, shifted from tackle, should solve the center problem and newcomers show promise at other positions.

Although All-Southern Tackle Dave Delgado and Linebacker Wayne Collins and Defensive Back Dennis Wiley, both of whom made the second All-Southern are gone a good nucleus returns from the defensive unit which ranked second in the conference last season.

Chief loss was Mike Bragg who was one of the nation's outstanding punters. However, we believe Sophomore Jim Livesay will be a capable punter.

Quarterback Buster O'Brien, Split End Walker Gillette and Middle Guard Dick Irvin are considered players of All-America caliber. O'Brien is a smart field general and excellent passer [completed 101 passes for 1,242 yards last season to break his own school record]. Gillette has great hands, good speed and all the moves [51 receptions for 702 yards for school mark] and was All-Southern his first season. Irvin is rugged, has speed, quickness, agility, is extremely hard to block and is a fine tackler. A better running game to go with the fine passing is expected and therefore a better balanced attack.

Sixth Game

November 2

At Sistine Stadium [12,000], Greenville, S.C., 7:30 P.M.

SERIES RECORD: W-2, L-3, T-0

Furman University: Greenville, S.C. Enrollment: 1,700

Colors: Purple and White. Nicknames: Paladins. Athletic Director: Lyles Alley.

Conference: Southern

Sports Publicity Director: Bobby Batson.

Head Coach: Bob King. Assistants: Billy Canty, Bob Hitch, Don Kemp, Hayden Hayes. Trainer: Gary Meredith.

1968 Outlook: Coach Bob King once again expects to field a potent offense, but like 1967 when the Paladins finished with a 5-5 record, the defense likely will be porous again.

Returning are seven offensive starters, including the explosive passing combination of Clyde Hewell at Quarterback and Robbie Hahn at end. On defense, however, only five starters will return, leaving several key positions to be manned by sophomores.

Besides Hewell and Hahn, the Paladins also have junior fullback Joe Street, who gained 693 yards last year, and senior Jimmy Jordan, also a fine pass receiver, in the back field.

Key defensive figures will be linebackers Tommy Broadwell and Dick Collins, tackles Bernie Lanigan and George Veal and end Harvey Baugess.

Despite the loss of several players on the defensive unit and the fact that four or five sophomores will be in the starting lineup in 1968, Coach King feels the defense will be better than in 1967.

The Paladins gained 3,199 yards on offense last year while giving up 3,623.

"There's one thing for sure," Coach King says. "We'll be throwing the ball a lot again."

Tampa

Seventh Game

November 9

At Ficklen Stadium [20,000], Greenville, N.C., 2:00 P.M.

SERIES RECORD: W-3, L-1, T-0

Tampa University: Tampa, Fla. Enrollment: 1,950

Colors: Red and Black. Nickname: Spartans. Athletic Director: Sam Bailey.

Conference: Independent.

Sports Publicity Director: Johnny Barker.

Head Coach: Fran Curci. Assistants: Robert Carlton, Charley Bailey, George MacIntyre, Rick Gillis, Rueben Mills, Dave Anders. Trainer: Charley Hawkes.

1968 Outlook: Under new Head Coach Fran Curci, the Spartans are optimistic about a winning season in 1968. With a loss of only 10 lettermen and with 31 returnees, indications are that the Spartans will fare well with their ambitious 1968 schedule which includes Miss. State of the SEC.

Emphasis will be on the passing game featuring QB Jim Del Gaizo and a host of fine receivers.

The defense up front is formidable and one of the strong points of the Spartans' overall game. The forward wall is led by Captain Ron Brown Tackle Dick Nittinger and guard Russ Edge.

Several newcomers are expected to boost team speed.

Marshall

Eighth Game

November 16

At Ficklen Stadium [20,000], Greenville, N.C., 2:00 P.M.

SERIES RECORD: W-0, L-1, T-0

Marshall University: Huntington, W. Va. Enrollment: 8,500

Colors: Kelly Green and White. Nickname: Thundering Herd. Athletic Director: Eddie Barrett.

Conference: Mid-America.

Sports Publicity Director: Bob Campbell.

Head Coach: Perry Moss. Assistant Coaches: Deke Brackett, Jim Moss, Ken Cooper, Pete Kondos, Red Dawson. Athletic Business Manager: Charles Kautz. Trainer: Ed Prelaz.

1968 Outlook: Marshall's new head coach Perry Moss faces the same ten teams in 1968 that defeated the Thundering Herd in 1967. He has 24 lettermen returning, losing 18 to graduation. Eighteen rookies move up from a small freshmen squad.

Two quarterbacks return, but a sophomore, Don Swisher, is likely to get the starting job. Last season's tough defensive backfield is back, with some sophomores pressing for the jobs. Juniors Greg Gikas and Bob Crabtree have moved from the offensive to defensive line, apparently to great advantage.

Last year's leading rusher, Charlie "Choo-Choo" Jones has been converted to flanker. Of the top running backs, Dan Slusher, Jim Shook, Ed Kliner, and Dick Carter only Shook has lettered.

The same problem of building a consistent offensive line is the Herd's chief concern for 1968.

Citadel

Ninth Game

November 23

At Johnson Hagood Stadium [22,500], Charleston, S.C.,
2:00 P.M.

SERIES RECORD: W-2, L-4, T-0

The Citadel: Charleston, S.C. Enrollment: 2,200.

Colors: Blue and White. Nickname: Bulldogs. Athletic Director: Edward L. Teague.

Conference: Southern.

Publicity Director: Bill Hallman.

1968 Outlook: Defensively, the Bulldogs should reach their top performance in 1968. John Small [6'4", 230] and Jackie Zorn [5'8", 170] combine to give The Citadel the best linebacking combination in the Southern Conference. The defense is aggressive and experienced. Last year their problem was rushing the passer. Much time and effort was spent during spring practice to improve the pass rush and containment.

Offensively, Jim McMillan, second-team All Conference tailback, has recovered from a shoulder operation and appears to be set to break most of the school's offensive records. For McMillan to become really effective the Bulldogs must have another good running back. If Offensive Coach Bob Gatling finds a promising fullback the offense could be tough.

Overall The Citadel, while playing a tough schedule, should improve on last season's 5 and 5 record.

East Tennessee

Tenth Game

November 30

At University Stadium [6,200], Johnson City, Tenn., 2:00 P.M.

SERIES RECORD: W-0, L-0, T-0

East Tennessee University: Johnson City, Tenn. Enrollment: 10,000

Colors: Blue and Gold. Nickname: Buccaneers. Athletic Director: John Robert Bell.

Conference: Ohio Valley.

Publicity Director: Bill Captain.

1968 Outlook: East Tennessee expects to field a team that is vastly improved over the one which posted a 3-6-1 record in 1967. The Bucs again will have a rugged defensive unit and the coaching staff feels the offense will be better by 50 percent.

Only five starters are missing from the first 22 of last year with eight defensive stalwarts returning from the unit that was ranked third in the Ohio Valley Conference. Missing are both defensive ends and one line-backer on the defensive unit, while the offense lost only the two starting tackles.

Offensively, the only losses in the backfield were fullback Bill Droke, an occasional starter and reserve quarterback Fred Walton. At quarterback Larry Graham, a 5-11, 180-pound sophomore, is expected to be improved with a year's experience and there is depth in ability, if not experience in Bill Casey, another sophomore, and Chip Osborne, a freshman.

Overall, the squad has good size and speed.

THE EAST CAROLINA FOOTBALL NETWORK

Veteran Jim Woods, in his second year as "Voice of the Pirates" gives the East Carolina University Sports Network, one of the most respected men in the business.

Experienced in play-by-play in basketball, boxing, stock car racing and baseball as well as football, he is the regular voice of sports for WNCT-TV, Channel 9 in Greenville and WNCT-Radio.

He came to Greenville from Elizabeth City, N.C., where he was manager of WGAI Radio and over the past 11 years he has twice been named Tarheel Sportscaster by the Associated Press.

He is married to the former Barbara Sullivan of Greenville and they are the parents of three sons, Jim, Gary and Danny.

Color man for the Pirate network is Boyce Williams, who has a long-standing relationship with East Carolina University sports. This will be his fourth year of bringing colorful descriptions of halftime shows and interesting press box personalities to the network.

CROSS COUNTRY – SOCCER

After a very successful season in 1967, the outlook for cross country at East Carolina University in 1968 is a very bright one.

Coach Bill Carson, in his second year with the Pirates, has upgraded his schedule again this year. Included are Georgetown and the University of Florida and the overall slate is the toughest in the history of the school.

The top three finishers from the 1967 squad are returning. They are Ken Voss, Don Jayroe and Randy Martin.

Voss, a native of California who now lives in Greenville, holds every distance record for East Carolina University. "He should rank as one of the top cross-country runners in the South," says Carson. "He's a dedicated, hard worker who has progressed rapidly in the last year."

Jayroe finished third in the Southern Conference championship meet last year and alternated all during the season with Voss last season. "I expect Don to challenge Kenny for the No. 1 position this year," Carson says. "He had to overcome several injuries last year and barring a recurrence he will also rank well in the South."

Martin is a co-captain and was the most improved runner on the 1967 squad. "He came into his own last year as he finished seventh in the Southern Conference and sixth in the state meet," Carson says. "He is a fine leader and we are expecting him to have an outstanding career."

Besides these three, other returning lettermen are Co-Captain John Osborne, who ran as No. 7 man on the squad last year and Dave Wight, who ran No. 8.

Returning from last year's freshman team are Lee Mauney, Barry Beasley David Robbins and Gary Wight.

Outstanding newcomers are Joe Day, Fayetteville and Neill Ross, Raleigh. Both ran the mile in 4:17 in High School. Other freshman with good credentials are Lanny Davis, Charlotte and Mike Woolsey, Ft. Lauderdale.

1968 SOCCER OUTLOOK

Soccer, one of the most recent sports to be organized at East Carolina University, begins its third season under new coach, Jimmie Grimsley. Eight men return from last season's 3-7 squad to form the nucleus of what would be the best team in Pirate history. The 1967 booters tied for third in Southern Conference competition and set a school record with their 3-7 season.

Heading the list of returnees are 1967 Captain Charles Pressley and veterans Ray Eckenrode, Tom Gillespie, and Harry Harris. Gillespie, Harris, and Carl Wunderle led the scoring for the 1967 soccer team. Bill Jordan, the most improved player on last year's team, returns at fullback to help bolster the team. Other experienced lettermen include Kenneth Barbour, Kerry Lueck, Donald Wilkins, Carl Wunderle, Jeff McMillian, and Larry Price.

This year's ten-game schedule includes all of the Southern Conference teams along with other area soccer teams that have very fine soccer talent.

FOR REFERENCEDo Not Take From This Room*REVIEWING 1967

After posting one of the poorest records in history the year before, Coach Clarence Stasavich came up with another typical powerhouse in 1967 and finished 8-2.

The Pirates started the season with a surprising 27-7 victory and in the process uncovered a young man who was to crack the conference rushing record by season's end.

Butch Colson, who was figured to share the fullback duties with George Gay, an upperclassman, was rushed into action early in the game when Gay suffered a broken ankle. Colson, a stocky sophomore from Elizabeth City, gained 133 yards in 28 carries and scored two touchdowns, the first of 14 he was to register during the season.

Neal Hughes, another who was not counted on as a star in pre-season practice, also gave indications of things to come when he completed two of three passes for 22 yards and rushed for another 31 in the role of a reserve.

Like Colson, Hughes was to become one of the outstanding offensive players who have served under Coach Stasavich. He finished the season with more than 1,500 yards in total offense, which was good enough to place him in the top 20 in the nation.

Colson, whose 1,135 yards set the Southern Conference record, placed him fourth in the nation in rushing and his 92 points also was good for fourth in the nation. Behind Colson, the Pirates as a team, averaging 231.6 yards a game, had the sixth best rushing record in the nation.

After that upset start against William and Mary, the Pirates went on to win their first six games and appeared headed for the first undefeated season since Coach Stasavich took over.

After a rousing 27-26 victory over Parsons College, however, the Bucs were badly battered physically and the following week, a fired-up Citadel team came to town and went away with a 21-19 win that cost East Carolina at least another share in the conference title.

The second loss was to come two weeks later at the hands of West Texas State when the Bucs, after trailing by a touchdown at halftime, lost the services of Colson and wound up on the short end of a 34-13 count.

The Bucs closed out the year with a victory over Marshall. In retrospect, Coach Stasavich called the victory over Louisville the high spot of the season from a technical standpoint. The Cardinals came to town with an outstanding team, probably the best the Pirates faced all year, and were beaten 18-13 as East Carolina won the fifth in a row.

Besides Colson, who missed by four points tying the conference scoring record and was named Player of the Year, the Bucs had All-Conference selections in Hughes and offensive tackle Kevin Moran, who also picked up the Jacobs Blocking trophy.
